The Stone Soup Poetry Series at T.T. the Bear's Place in Cambridge gives poetry readings a theatrical edge. Happening every Monday night with an occasional Sunday special, this series offers a public forum atmosphere for local poets to bring their verses to life. Running the gamut of strict recital to lively performance art, Stone Soup Poets is as refreshing to the literature world as it is unpredictable. The $3 cover benefits the series and its artists. Call T.T.'s at 492-0082 for more information.

Dennis Stein

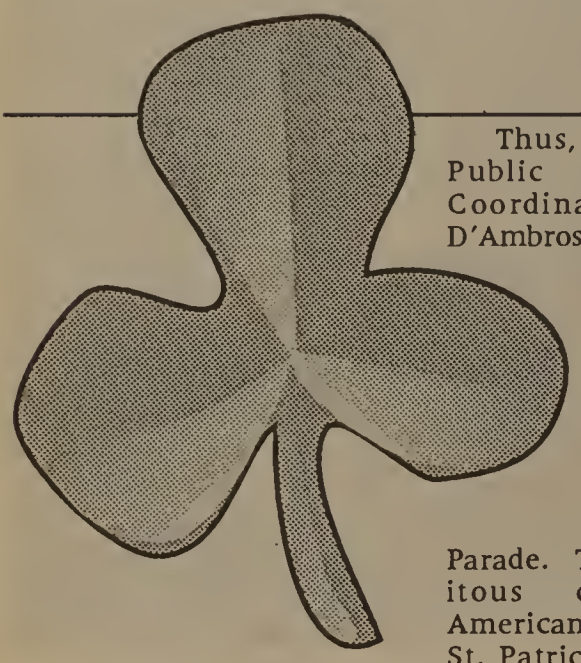
Saturday Night Live cast member Al Franken paid a rather irreverent visit to Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government on Feb. 26, making fun of the very institution the school is dedicated to teaching. The senior SNL writer and creator of the character Stuart Smalley (and many others) opened his 8pm presentation on "Political Humor" with a focus on the presidential campaigns of '88 and '92. His visit included some SNL skits shown on a big-screen TV, and closed with a question-and-answer session. Franken's speech was extremely well-received by a jam-packed crowd of about 400 people.

Just in time for the St. Paddy's Day Celebration, U2's four area concerts are surely going to be the year's biggest tour. Ireland's favorite sons have an incredible new album Achtung Baby (Island) and a new interest in techno rock. On tour with them is Boston's Pixies who should push the show to a higher energy level. U2 and the Pixies play Hartford Civic Center March12, the Worcester Centrum on the 13th, The Providence Civic Center on the 15 and the ultimate show on St. Patrick's Day, March 17 at the Boston Garden. Listen to your favorite radio stations for ticket information.

The Theater Offensive promises to deliver a bigger, bawdier and funnier show than before in a return engagement at the Boston Center for the Arts with Pure PolyESTHER: a biblical burlesque. After a 1991 performance that brought rave reviews, Pure PolyESTHER returns to recount the biblical story of Esther, a young girl discovered and made queen by the King of Persia. The play looks at the historical relationships of power and sex and courage and its provocative imagery is sure to entertain you. Playing from March 5 to the 22. Tickets available at out of Town News in Harvard Square, Glad Day bookshop or at the door. Call 243-4272 for more information or, for tickets, Concert Charge at 497-1118.

Melanie Dunea

Oh Boy! Peggy Sue and Johnny better be good if they want to go see Buddy Holly at the Colonial Theatre. Well, not exactly Buddy Holly, but as close to the real thing as you're ever going to see. Chip Esten, who plays the legendary rocker in the hit musical Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story, was in town Feb. 25 to talk about the show, which has been a hit in London for more than six years. Esten is one of several Buddy Holly actors and is rumored to be the best in the bunch. But Esten loves playing Buddy and says,"He had this brash confidence. This is a great love story, a story of the merican dream. He knew what he wanted and went after it hard." Boston will get its chance to enjoy this rock 'n' roll spectacle from April 28-May 10. For further information call 426-9366, and maybe, baby, you can get a ticket.



We all need someone like Fran Solomita to tell us how things really are in today's world. He'll do just that - and more - tonight through March 8 at The Improv, downstairs at the Wilbur Theatre. Solomita hails from Newton and has recently appeared on NBC's "Friday Night Videos," and A&E's "Evening at The Improv." Shows at 8:30 each night with an additional 10:45 show on Friday and Saturday. Tickets can be purchased at the door the night of the show, or reserved in advance by calling The Improv at 695-2989.

FEATURES

The Lore of St. Patrick's Day

a Brief History of the Holiday

by Scott H. Stossel

On March 17, 1976, a young Bostonian committed two egregious faux pas. He forgot to wear green and he struck and killed a garter snake which had startled him after emerging from home. Perhaps a mischievous leprechaun decided to mete out justice in his own sick way; perhaps this man angered St. Patrick himself; perhaps it was just coincidence; whatever the reason, several hours later, he fell violently ill and remained bedridden for a week. Since then, he has been scrupulously careful to observe two St. Patrick's Day rules - always wear green and, as Irish folkloric tradition has it: "you should kill no snake on St. Patrick's Day."

Two hundred years to the day before this somewhat inauspicious personal introduction to St. Patrick's Day, General Gage's Redcoats were receiving their own rude introduction to St. Patrick's Day in America. Their misfortune stemmed not from ignorance of arcane Irish lore, but rather from being positioned on the unfortunate side of lore-in-the-making. On March 17, 1776, American artillery fire from Dorchester Heights in South Boston drove the Redcoats from the city. American soldiers commandeered Fort Independence on Castle Island, forcing out the British navy who could now pass by the island only at risk of being cannonballed. The British evacuated Boston, and henceforth in Massachusetts, March 17 has been not just St. Patrick's Day, but Evacuation Day.

Thus, as Mayor's Office Public Celebrations Coordinator, Dominic D'Ambrosio is quick to point out, the St. Patrick's Day parade, which traditionally falls on the Sunday before St. Patrick's Day, is officially called the St. Patrick's Evacuation Day Parade. Through this fortuitous convergence of American and Irish history, St. Patrick's Day in Boston has become, as D'Ambrosio says, "a double celebration."

Of course, the holiday maintains its roots in Ireland, where March 17 is the Feast Day of St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland. Legend has it that around 400 A.D., Patrick, using a shamrock to explain the idea of the Trinity, converted the then-pagan Irish to Christianity. The legend also says that he banished all the poisonous snakes from Ireland. Although hard biological evidence refutes this (because there weren't any snakes in Ireland in 400 A.D.), many local Irish fervently believe the legend to be true. The story of the unfortunate gentleman who encountered the snake has inclined this author toward believing the myth. All skepticism was suspended and the question was deferred to the bartender of The Black Rose, an Irish Pub in Cambridge. When asked whether the snake myth were true, he raised his eyebrows slightly, winked and then said broguishly, "dunno." The legend remains shrouded in mystery!

But according both to D'Ambrosio and to the parade's Chief Marshal, Thomas Lyons, the St. Patrick's Day Festivities (to be held this year on Sunday, March 15) are more a celebration of our forbearers' thrashing of the British than of any reptile extermination that St. Patrick did or did not do. "It was a coincidence that Evacuation Day fell on St. Patrick's Day," says D'Ambrosio. "Boston has always had a strong Irish heritage, so 91 years ago the parade was established to celebrate both Evacuation Day and St. Patrick's Day. It celebrates Irish history and Irish pride, but also a local historical event."

Jackie Bayne

Beyond both Irish and American history, St.Patrick's day around here is about Boston. The parade has taken on its own impetus, especially in South Boston where tradition runs deep. For example, people still recall Mayor James Curley riding along in the parade in his fur coat, piously shaking hands along the way with priests and nuns while his lieutenant, Up-Up Kelley, loudly applauded each time he put down the Brits. Others remember flocking to P.J. Connell's bar after the parade for a "one and one": a half-glass of blended whiskey, and a dime glass of the draft beer for a chaser. Lately it's become a familiar sight to see Mayor Flynn, a Southie himself, leading the parade and going from side to side shaking hands with the crowd.

Flynn's enthusiastic leadership of the parade is emblematic of the notion that the holiday is a day to celebrate the community of South Boston. Chief Marshal Lyons explains that it is a day for "people who have left the community to return to renew family friendships and relationships in celebration."

Margie Baldwin, who grew up in South Boston, will do just that. She will do this St. Paddy's Day what she does on every St. Paddy's day and go to her sister's "Open House." Her mother, her niece, and her sister inhabit the three floors of a triple-decker two blocks from the parade. She will spend much of the day running up and down and in and out.

Baldwin's way of celebrating is typical; she herself has been doing it all her life. "I look forward to it all year," she says. "Many people along the route have open houses. It's great because you can pop in for a sandwich, pop out to the parade, then pop back in to warm up." For her, as for many South Bostonians, the holiday is not so much about history or Irishness as it is about family and friends. "I like it because I've been doing it all my life. I do understand the Irish tradition of it, and I know where my ancestors came from in Ireland. But mainly, it makes me proud to be a part of a family."

Jackie Bayne

What can we expect of this year's parade? A great deal, according to celebrations coordinator D'Ambrosio. Of the eight or nine parades which occur in Boston each year, the St. Paddy's day is by far the biggest. Organized by the Allied Veterans Council of South Boston, this year's parade will include 150 marching units (29 of them marching bands), military marching units from all over the country, a total of 25,000 marchers, and even a Patriot missile. "There's something for everyone, even cartoon characters for the kids," Lyons says. And everyone will be there; planners expect upwards of 750,000 spectators along the 4 mile route. Mayor Flynn, as always, will lead the parade with his special guests - this year, military generals, many of whom served in the Gulf War. Lyons asks everyone to pray for warm weather.

Part religious and part secular, part a celebration of Irish heritage and part a celebration of our common American past, part local neighborhood festival and part national holiday, St. Patrick's day in Boston is a uniquely American cultural mix-and-match concoction. And what is more American than a good party? Laura O'Neill, 22, of Somerville, says that St. Patrick's day "has something to do with celebrating my heritage. But really it's just a chance to get together with my friends and get plastered and have fun."

St. Patrick's Day celebration in Boston (coordinated by D'Ambrosio, a "little Italian from the North End") transcends ethnicity. No doubt there will be Irish sentiment and Irish green galore. There will be green clothes, green beer, green nail polish - even green hair! But, as Baldwin says, "on St. Patrick's Day, everybody's Irish." Even, apparently, the snakes.

FEATURES

Through the Timetables of ~~History~~ *Her*story

by Pritha Raysircar

March has long been considered Women's History month. And in light of these difficult times when such issues as Roe v. Wade and sexual harassment dominate our collective consciousness, a celebration chronicling women's achievements, past and present, is sorely needed. "Herstory," an integral part of what we refer to as history, is all around us. And Boston, rich with herstory, has a great line up of fun, interesting and informative events organized by various women's groups which take place during March and beyond.

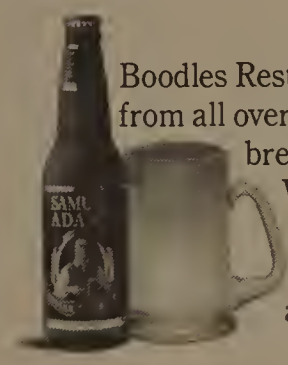
Start your month off on the right foot with Dr. Patricia Morris of the Women's Heritage Foundation. Join her on March 7 at Faneuil Hall Marketplace for a walk through 19th century Boston.

You will trace the footsteps of the Irish, Jewish and Italian women who founded schools, arts and crafts guilds, libraries and kindergartens in the North End. Enjoy exploring stately Beacon Hill, site of numerous exciting social movements led by Bostonian women writers, activists and artists. You might stop at the African Meeting House or the Harriet and Lewis Hayden house, a station on the underground railroad frequented by "conductor" Harriet Tubman. Visit the residence of Julia Ward Howe, the lyricist famous for "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," initiator of Mother's Day and co-founder of the Women's Journal.

Afterwards, sit down with Pat and savour a cappuccino or hot chocolate while discussing your tour. The walk begins promptly at 2pm and costs $7. Call The Women's Heritage Trail for more information at 248-9828.

Out of town that weekend but still interested in taking a walk? Buy a copy of the Boston Women's Heritage Trail, a guidebook outlining four trails in and around downtown Boston. Books can be purchased at the Old South Meeting House 482-6439 and at the Globe Corner Bookstore (497-6277) for a few dollars.

Perhaps not well known to many is the legacy of International Women's Day (IWD), observed on March 8. Suggested in 1911 by German feminist socialist Clara Zethin to commemorate the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire on Manhattan's Lower East Side, IWD honors the battles women have fought to gain fair labor conditions - often at the cost of their lives. IWD has evolved to represent the struggle and progress of women in every field, in every nation.



Another event celebrating Women's History Month is the Boston YWCA's International Women's Day Multicultural Festival this March 8. Mingle with artisans, craftswomen, poets, musicians and women chefs representative of 10 nationalities worldwide. Have a snack or two. Browse the displays of Hatian imported goods, traditional Hmong needlework, Native American crafts and be delighted by prose presentations, original sculpture and painting. This year's festival will take place from 12:30-4pm at 140 Clarendon Street, home of the YWCA. A donation of $3 is suggested at the door. Some parking is available.

Tired of the same old after work watering hole? Get together with a group of co-workers/friends and head over to the the Cornucopia Restaurant at 15 West Street where owner Kristine Piatt has invited the Women's Heritage Foundation to reenact the fruitful "conversations" sponsored by original owner Elizabeth Peabody and collaborator Margaret Fullers during 1839-40.

Part performance art, part history and part interactive theater these "conversations" were led by notable 19th and 20th century women such as Elizabeth Peabody, Louisa May Alcott, and Amelia Earhart. They will now take place every March Tuesday night from 5-7 pm. Nibble on some complimentary hors d'oeuvres, nurse some tea or cider and relish this "historical" event for a $10 admission price. There's validated parking at the Lafayette garage, so make a night of it

(continued on following page)

Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON • BOSTON

FEATURES

(continued from previous page)

and stay for dinner! For more information about the Cornucopia "conversations," call 248-9828 or 338-4600.

The Boston Women's Commission celebrates the extraordinary efforts of women past and present while keeping an eye on the future. For the last three years it has circulated the Boston's Working Women Exhibit, a travelling show featuring 45 photographs of women who have both traditional and non-traditional occupations, to various Boston Public Middle Schools. This year the exhibit is hung at the Curley Middle School in Jamaica Plain.

Elain Taber, head of the commission, stresses the importance of the speaking program designed to coordinate with the show. Young people, often untouched by the abstractedness of conventional history lessons, respond well to the Working Women Exhibit because it showcases the great strides women have taken in the past century. The women featured come to the schools and as role models for the young girls, are inspirational.

Smaller groupings of photographs taken from the exhibit can be viewed at one of the four girls' centers located through out the Boston metropolitan area. If you are interested in having the show come to your child's school, contact the Boston Women's Commission, at City Hall - 635-3138.

Finally, round out the month by attending the gala Amelia Earhart award ceremonies sponsored by the Boston Women's Educational and Industrial Union (WEIU) during their 115th anniversary year. Held on March 16, from 6-8 pm at the Boston Marriott Copley Place, this event marks the tenth annual presentation of this prestigious honor. This year's recipient is Jane Schaller, M.D., Pediatrician-in-chief of New England Medical Center's Floating Hospital for Infants and Children; Pediatrics Chair at Tufts. Schaller is also the founding president of Physicians for Human Rights. Ellen Hume, executive director of the Barone Center on the Press, Politics, and Public Policy at Harvard's JFK School of Government will be the keynote speaker.

The WEIU award honors a woman maverick who has furthered opportunities for other women in the Boston area. Established in 1877 as a cottage industry, the WEIU helped women support themselves by selling their crafts and foodstuffs. By 1910 the WEIU had moved in the direction of legal advocacy for the rights of women and children, higher education for women in the fields of retail and professional housekeeping and a successful statewide lobbying campaign to establish the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind.

Well known for its Career Services Department which began in 1910 as the first Appointment Bureau for women, the WEIU has been an invaluable local resource. The only public career services library of its kind in the country, the WEIU was visited by 16,000 individuals last year. They offer a variety of programs from job interviewing techniques to employment counseling for seniors.

Take advantage of the continuous agenda of lectures, classes and social events sponsored monthly by the WEIU. For example, catch the "20th Century Women in Art lecture" or "HerStory!: The Other Half of American History" slide presentation. And, as you leave the building contemplating women's contributions to society, plan on making April a month of herstory too!

All of these organizations need volunteers and offer internships. Contact:

•Pat Morris of the Women's Heritage Foundation at 248-9828.

•Elaine Tabor of the Boston Women's Commission at 635-3138.

•Anita MacKinnon of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union at 536-5651.

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

Stern Bashing

Has the sly Fox become the "old fart"? That's what New York radio rabblerouser Howard Stern has been saying about Jim Byrne, Program and Promotion Director for Boston tv station Fox 25. It seems that ever since Jim pulled "The Howard Stern Show" off the air following a not-so-tasteful appearance by a kinky keilbasa queen, Howard's been using his national radio show to blast Jim. From L.A. to New York, he's been heard calling Jim "an old fart." Well enough of this bi-coastal Byrne bashing - it's time to set the record straight! First of all, Jim is not old. As a matter of fact, he's younger than Howard, who's 38. And second, just because Jim's in Beantown doesn't give Howard the right to call him the "f" word ! So there !!

Now just in case there are any of you who were sorry to hear that Howard and his keilbasa queen bit the dust, have no fear. What's banned in Boston is working in Worcester and you can watch Howard on WHLL, Channel 27. And I'm sure he feels right at home sandwiched in between all those 900 numbers. Maybe he should even consider having his own. How about 1-900-OLD-FART! He might just find his true calling!

An Enblomatic Move

Opportunity finally came calling to former Channel 7 entertainment reporter Debbie Enblom. Ever since leaving the station last year, she's found it tough going in the ever-shrinking/always unstable world of tv news. And even though she looked into other cities, she hoped to stay in Boston because of a boyfriend and close pal Margie Reedy. Well thanks to Boston public relations company Regan Communications, Enblom has traded in the Hard Knocks for the Hard Rock. She recently joined Regan as an account exec handling the Hub's Hard Rock Cafe as well as other entertainment-oriented clients. And where she once was a reporter, she's now a courter. . . of the press. By the way, here's an idea: maybe down the road she can combine her Hard Rock and news experience and form the Hard News Cafe! Or how about The SoundBITE BISTRO! Or maybe VideoVictuals. I can see it now: "Stay tuned... Food at 11."

Classroom Fever

And in the category of not giving up, the award goes to former WBZ staffer and March of Dimes p.r exec Carol Pastan. Presently working on an upcoming Boston-based national talk show, Carol was trying to get film director Spike Lee to appear on a future program focusing on the status of minorities in Hollywood. Lee (who happens to be teaching a course at Harvard) rarely does interviews so Carol knew it would be difficult convincing him that "she's gotta have it." She figured that if she went to his class and personally extended the invitation, she'd have a better shot. NOT !!! Though Carol did manage to find his out-of-the-way classroom in Harvard's Carpenter Center, she didn't get to stay very long. Given that the class had only 20 students, Lee took note of Carol right away. He said she couldn't stay for his lecture, but she did get him to smile and say he'd consider her request if she put it in writing and slipped it under his office door. Hopefully before his "school daze" are over, Professor Lee will "do the right thing" and appear on the show. In the meantime, give Carol an A for effort and for at least getting her foot in the door!

The Hoop Scoop

Someone else who's been doing some fancy footwork is Celtics great Dee Brown. As of this July, Reebok will make it possible for all you b-ball wannabees to walk in Dee Brown's shoes. All you'll need to do is lace up a pair of Dee-Times, hightop basketball shoes that will sell for under a hundred dollars. The sole of the shoe will feature an image of the 1991 NBA Slam Dunk champ doing his now-famous blindfolded dunk. And you should know that getting a sneaker named after you is no small feat. There are only 3 other NBA stars that have deals with shoe companies and they are the giants of the game: Patrick Ewing, Michael Jordan and Magic Johnson. Given the fact that Dee Brown hasn't even finished his second year of professional basketball, I'd say he's walking in some pretty impressive company. And it looks like with the help of his hot young agent John Wolf, who negotiated the deal, Dee-Lightful definitely has a leg up on the competition.

Laughs on Letterman

And in the competitive world of yucks for bucks, Boston comedian Jonathan Katz getz a hatz off for his recent appearance on the Letterman Show. Though he's been on a number of times, this latest outing marked the first time that he got to do a new routine sight unseen. Normally, a comic must first get raves from Dave's knaves before he can do it for national tv. But this time, there was a rush to air and they apparently had enough konfidence in Katz to let him go. Could he be following in the footsteps of a couple of other Boston comics who appeared regularly on Letterman before getting their own shows? You know the ones I mean . . . those guys Leno and Seinfeld. If this keeps up, Katz and his agent David Balsom could really start seeing some serious funny money!

The Lure of Hollywood

And while we're making the Beantown to Tinseltown connection, Boston's entertainment entrepreneur Patrick Lyons was recently out in Hollywood "taking meetings" with Motown and "doing lunch" with composer (and ex-Babs Streisand beau) Richard Baskin. And yes, he's also the ice cream heir. But what else would we expect from Patrick, who only runs with the creme de la cream! Anyway, sources tell me he's cooking up a deal involving entertainment emporiums, malls and Motown. But for now, mum's the word. In the meantime, Patrick's taken a little time off and has headed south . . . but it's to a part of the south that I'm sure will surprise you. I'll tell you more next time . . .

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

all PEOPLE all STYLES

Haircuts: $15-40
Color: $30-100

born 2b wild

116 NEWBURY STREET 617-536-0303
Under New Management

Creative Director: Jodie Branco

Why Not
the Best?

Call
Successful
Singles®

And

Discover why 10,000 men and women just like you have invested in the most Comprehensive, Unique and Intelligent approach to making their social life the best part of their life.

CALL NOW
for your personalized in-home consultation.
237-1480
7 days a week
10 am - 10 pm
This call may change your life.

WEDDING TRENDS

HIP WAYS TO GET HITCHED

by Jannette Tucker

With Cupid so recently in the air, many people are in the midst of planning for the ultimate shot in the heart: their weddings. The last thing you want to be is passé for your wedding. You want fire and flurry. Pictures with Mickey Mouse and leather wedding dresses are just some examples of what modern brides are using to spice up their wedding days. You want to be with it, too, don't you?

So what's popular right now? Believe it or not, floral patterns on wedding dresses, as brides move away from the pure, all-white illusion of the past.

"A lot of people are going back to nature," said Jackie Albanese, co-owner of Alegria bridal boutique. "There are a lot of florals and cotton and outdoor weddings."

Albanese also said that not only are weddings getting smaller, but people are taking off for the whole weekend rather than just one day.

"Renting out a guest house and having a weekend wedding is getting very popular," she said. "That can be pretty inexpensive rather than the $6,000 you'll spend just for a room."

If you want to carry that theme even farther, full-blown destination weddings are all the rage. And we're not talking just your typical Caribbean or Hawaii. We're going to Disney World!

"That's a big trend for colorful pictures and a lot of fun," said Victoria Ames, principal of The Wedding Beautiful. "It's like going to a playground."

The bridal couple can pick and choose from "literally hundreds of unusual themes" for their wedding day, including midnight cruises, a visit to Pleasure Island, Cinderella's ball and storybook receptions.

"Photographs capture Mickey and Minnie and the other Disney characters visiting you on your special day," Ames said.

> "Theme weddings are all the rage. They add spice and a little bit of flair to an already-magical day."

Dennis Stein

Many wedding consultants agree that "theme weddings" are rapidly gaining in popularity. Kerry McGill, wedding consultant for the Omni Parker House, said she just hosted a lavish and beautiful Medieval theme wedding.

"It was all done in candle light, and everyone was dressed in period costumes," she said. "The ring bearer had the shoes that curled up, and the bridesmaid dresses were the purple velvet with gold trim. They served eggplant and a lot of fruits and vegetables."

Meg Holland, president of Events Unlimited Inc., said if you have the money, theme weddings are all the rage. They add spice and a little bit of flair to an already-magical day.

Although themes are fun, Holland said, it's important that it be fitting for your character and not just a novelty.

"I did a wedding where it was very well known that the bride loved western clothing," Holland said. "Believe it or not, she found a white leather cowgirl wedding dress with the fringe and everything. She wore white cowboy boots and a small version of a 10-gallon hat. She was absolutely gorgeous."

Holland said set designs are also becoming more popular.

"Being in Boston, you have the resources for something like that," she said. "They can really create a whole scene for you."

McGill said other trends include more modern dresses, including shorter skirts (even some miniskirts!) and more form fitting dresses.

People are also more in tune with other trends around town. "One girl just asked me if we could serve jello shots at the reception," McGill said with a laugh.

But perhaps the biggest and most important trend of all, Holland said, is that "people are thinking more for themselves and really getting what they want, not just following tradition."

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

all PEOPLE all STYLES

Haircuts: $15-40
Color: $30-100

born 2b wild

116 NEWBURY STREET 617-536-0303
Under New Management

Creative Director: Jodie Branco

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Kafka
"Literal excellence"

Franz Kafka wrote about nightmares, the threat in shadows and silence. Director George Soderbergh takes the character of Kafka and places him in a situation similar to his stories. When a co-worker disappears from his form-filled insurance company, Kafka (Jeremy Irons) explores the world of anarchy and bureaucratic threat. Irons is exceptional. His dead-pan impartiality is mesmerizing and even occasionally humorous. The film's style is striking. Filmed mostly in black and white, Kafka is stark and allows the words and language to stand out. The sudden switch to color to explore a gory modern nightmare is a simple touch - but highly dramatic. Kafka is a deftly, crafted film, well worth seeing. J.A.

Hunting
"Go Fishing Instead"

During the course of the new Australian thriller Hunting, there are several highly stylized but redundant shots of a moth flying close to a flame. That is the story. The moth in question is played by Kerry Armstrong who for no good reason ditches and devastates her husband for John Savage's money. Savage is shown to be more and more corrupt, his sudden rise to riches coming from circulating drugs and drug money. Still, she stays with him. He is increasingly cruel to her. Still, she stays. He has sex with her only friend. Still, she stays. She is raped on the dinner table. It seems like she is never going to leave. This is an illogical film with gaps in credibility and no real tension. Hunting isn't worth the chase. J.A.

Final Analysis
"Generic and Befuddled"

The problem with Final Analysis is that it sacrifices substance for style and fails at both. Richard Gere is a psychiatrist manipulated by two beautiful, blond sisters (Kim Bassinger and Uma Thurman). Set in San Francisco and awash in cheap Freudian imagery (a lighthouse plays a key role) this psychological/murder mystery falls way short of its Hitchcock aspirations. Final Analysis is long on exposition and generic dialogue. Bassinger shows a nice evil streak and Eric Roberts provides chiseled menace but in the end, Final Analysis is too long and as befuddled as Gere's expressions. Skip it. J.A.

Mississippi Masala
"Spicy but not perfect"

Mississippi Masala is a new film from Mira Nair, the director of Salaam Bombay. An interracial story about love and pride, the film deals with two minority groups, Indian and African-American in Greenwood Mississippi. When Denzel Washington and Sarita Choudhury develop a relationship, they disrupt the delicate balance between their communities. Nair weaves an interesting story using humor and body language, but the ending drifts away disappointingly. To highlight the irony, we are shown similarities between the communities which are reinforced by the dialogue until the effect is diluted. But for showing something outside the scope of mainstream experience Mississippi Masala is a film to be enjoyed. J.A.

Unexpected Substance in Memoirs of an Invisible Man

by Jason Alexander

Nick Halloway (Chevy Chase) hangs from a railing as he tries to elude his pursuers in Warner Brother Memoirs of an Invisible Man.

Invisibility has been the feature of many films. In the past it has provided a handy vehicle for visual jokes and physical humor. On the face of it, Memoirs of an Invisible Man might appear to be just more of the same, using one of the masters of physical comedy, Chevy Chase. But this film is more than just another casual attempt, due to John Carpenter's direction. An element of desperation and suspense is introduced which, combined with excellent special effects, produces a good story to go along with the rich humor.

Chevy Chase plays Nick Halloway, a stock analyst who lives comfortably by being "the biggest bullshit artist around." Chase drops off-beat lines, perplexed looks and charms his way into the ladies room with Alice Marlowe (Daryl Hannah). We are quickly shown their compatibility as loners and the roots of a love story are sown.

The next day Halloway, fights off his hangover to attend a presentation at Magnascopics Research Laboratories. He slips away to an executive suite, looking to a sauna for relief. During his nap, an accident rocks the building, rendering parts of it invisible - including the part that contained Nick Halloway.

Invisibility is not Halloway's only problem. A group of covert operatives led by David Jenkins (Sam Neill) see him as the ideal assassin and Jenkins becomes obsessed with his capture. Even after enlisting Alice's help, Halloway is hounded and homeless, surviving only on his wits.

Memoirs of an Invisible Man is funny with Chevy Chase exploring the unique comedy opportunities associated with the state of invisibility. And in staying true to this idea, the film has an added depth. Food, cigarette smoke and toothpaste can all be seen with considerable reality inside Halloway's body. He can't sleep, because he can see through his eyelids, can't see his hands for coordination and has some real difficulty in locating his clothes - also rendered invisible. Chase is realistically haggard, appearing almost demented by the revelation that invisibility has more depressing aspects then conceived in childhood fantasies.

Daryl Hannah is once again in the role of an intelligent beauty, something she plays with moderate success, as in Roxanne. It is not a role with a great deal of depth but she manages to convince us of her complete compatibility, love and support for Nick Halloway. Hannah should be commended, as much of the time she is acting opposite of nothing.

Memoirs of an Invisible Man
Warner Brothers
Directed by:
John Carpenter
Starring
Chevy Chase, Daryl Hannah
Sam Neill

Sam Neill gives a fine supporting performance as government operative, David Jenkins. His confidence is menacing and he presents an argument that is both subtle and alarming, furthering the desperation felt by Halloway. His performance provides the film with an absorbing urgency and menace.

Though Memoirs of an Invisible Man is first, and foremost a comedy, John Carpenter has succeeded in creating a suitably darker feel. The characters are fleshed out making the film more complete and polished. Above all, Carpenter presents the idea of invisibility in such a convincing manner that the idea almost becomes plausible. Evidently all the consequences of such an occurrence have been thoroughly deliberated. The illusion is aided by wonderful special effects, such as hazy images of Halloway caught in rain and cigarette smoke.

The mix of John Carpenter's horror background along with Chevy Chase's rich comedic talents has produced an excellent film. Memoirs of an Invisible Man contains elements of slapstick humor, amusing characters and stunning visual effects. Combine these with good performances from Chase, Hannah and Neill and the result is superb entertainment value.

PUZZLED?

For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's

NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Call 1-900-646-8282

95c per minute

MOVIES

Radio Flyer - A Flawed Flight of Imagination

by Jason Alexander

Mike (Elijah Wood) and his younger brother, Bobby (Joseph Mazzello), find strength in each other and in their best friend, Shane, as they settle into life in a new neighborhood after their mother remarries.

There is no more abhorrent crime than child abuse. Richard Donner's new film Radio Flyer is about two young brothers who escape their stepfather's drunken abuse using creativity and imagination. The film combines fantasy and harsh reality to tell the story. Radio Flyer should certainly be admired for dealing with such a sensitive topic. The film combines fantasy with harsh reality but gropes too far in the dark and falls disappointingly short.

In 1969, Mary (Lorraine Bracco) takes her two sons, Mike (Elijah Wood) and Bobby (Joseph Mazzello), and runs away from a bad marriage to begin life anew in California. Together they are a family of survivors who barely manage to avoid poverty and despair. Mary's life begins to improve when she marries again, moves to a new house in the suburbs and gets a job working as a waitress. But brutality lurks beneath this ideal surface. Her new husband (Adam Baldwin) is physically abusing her youngest son, Bobby, and the children decide to hide the truth from their mother.

In order to escape the nightmare of the man they call "the King," the children embark on a summer of ideal activities. They go frogging in sewers, build a fort and explore all the territory in their neighborhood - always in the company of their dog, and bright red wagon, the Radio Flyer.

Donner captures the joy of these pursuits very well. The bond between the two boys is evident through their secret handshakes and solemn oaths. Wood and Mazzello are wonderfully natural, conducting their activities with true child-like joy and curiosity. They provide a firm center for the movie.

So accurately does Donner capture their innocent feelings, that the abuse is almost too sudden and out of place. The darkness of "the King" is heightened by the fact that his face is never fully seen and the camera remains at child height. He is a force rather than a personality. The differences between childhood bliss and terror are extreme without being completely linked. Donner presents two situations and set of emotions without accurately bridging the gap between them.

Radio Flyer
Colombia Pictures directed by Richard Donner starring Lorraine Bracco
Elijah Wood
Joseph Mazzello

The boys use their trusty Radio Flyer to solve their problems while providing a vehicle for the flight of their imaginations. On the first night of school Bobby, prepares to fly away. The success of their mission requires the audience to tune into a childhood belief in this non-human ability. In reality, the flight of the Radio Flyer is an uncomfortable jump in logic and throws the end of the movie into confusion and diminished credibility.

Radio Flyer is many things. A film about innocent childhood joy, twisted abuse and the strength of family - all with a fantastical air, at times reminiscent of C.S. Lewis. The result is ultimately disjointed, leaving us with a diffused though touching story. There are many aspects to admire in Radio Flyer, but the difficult ending makes the film as a whole, less appealing. Radio Flyer tries but doesn't fly.

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
- A Winner
- A Toss up
- For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
Beauty and the Beast	🏆	🏆	🏆	🏆	🏆	🏆	🏆	🏆	🐦
Juice	🐦	🏆	🐦	🏆	🏆	—	🥚	🐦	🥚
Shining Through	🏆	🥚	🐦	🥚	🐦	🥚	🥚	🥚	🐦
Fried Green Tomatoes	🏆	🏆	🥚	🥚	🐦	🥚	—	🥚	🥚
The Prince of Tides	🥚	🏆	🥚	🏆	🏆	🥚	🏆	🥚	🏆
Father of the Bride	🥚	🥚	🐦	🥚	🏆	🥚	🥚	🥚	🐦
JFK	🏆	🏆	🥚	🐦	🥚	🏆	🏆	🥚	🏆
Final Analysis	🐦	🐦	🐦	🥚	🐦	—	🏆	🐦	🐦
Hand That Rocks the Cradle	🐦	🥚	🥚	🐦	🐦	🏆	🥚	🥚	🥚
Grand Canyon	🏆	🥚	🐦	🥚	🏆	🏆	🥚	🐦	🏆

FLICKS IN A FLASH

WAYNE'S WORLD
"Worth the Trip"

Wayne's World is so stupid it will make your stomach ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control over their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

Hear My Song
"Delightfully Fresh"

Hear my Song is a wonderfully fresh film. Set in England and Ireland it draws upon the legend of famed Irish tenor, Josef Locke. A young nimble-minded concert promoter played by Adrian Dunbar books a fake Locke and disappoints his girlfriend, her mother, his creditors and his whole community. This first part of the movie is a little confused but the film improves greatly as Dunbar returns to his native Ireland in a quixotic hunt for the reclusive Locke (Ned Beatty). The performances are strong. And with innocence and sly humor Hear My Song is a low-key celebration of love and friendship. A delightful change of pace. J.A.

JFK
'Intellectually Stoned'

Surprise, Surprise! Oliver Stone has made a controversial film. With JFK, Stone has woven elements of the 1967 case presented against Clay Shaw by New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison with his own interpretations. The result is a film that, though extremely powerful and thought provoking, leaves the viewer with a dangerous visual of the events surrounding the assassination of president John F, Kennedy. Stone has created a masterpiece which should encourage further investigation into a case which until today has been closed to the blind eye of America. Kevin Costner is Garrison and is surrounded by a star-studded cast that includes Jack Lemmon, Joe Pesci, Sissy Spacek, Donald Sutherland and Gary Oldman. T.A.S.

Fried Green Tomatoes
"Wonderful and balanced"

Fried Green Tomatoes has been billed as a vehicle for Jessica Tandy and Kathy Bates. These two oscar winners give excellent performances, but their relationship serves as a frame for the heart of the film. Tandy tells the story of Idgey Threadgoode (Mary Stuart Masterson) and Ruth Jamison (Mary Louise Parker) in flashback style. United by tragedy, they form a lasting friendship, one of absolute love with an understood, but not exploited or explored homosexuality. Masterson and Parker are excellent, perfectly balanced in a rich, though slightly idealized recreation of 1920's Alabama. The beauty of the film is the way their story unites Tandy and Bates, providing both with purpose and hope in increasingly empty lives. A wonderful film. J.A.

Medicine Man
"Worthwhile but not Great"

The Amazonian rain forest is an ecological miracle and its destruction is a tragedy which is often overlooked. Medicine Man attempts to highlight the problem with Sean Connery as a bio-chemist who has discovered a cure for cancer hidden somewhere in "mother nature's kitchen." Much of Medicine man is predictable, in particular, the adaptation of Connery's new research assistant (Lorraine Bracco) to both the forest and Connery. The dialogue in Medicine Man is difficult to follow, and the viewer is forced to repeatedly readjust to the storyline at times. But in the end Medicine Man is redeemed by Connery's chauvinistic roguishness and overwhelming and lavish scenery. It's not great, but Medicine Man is quite worthwhile. J.A.

MOVIES

On those cold winter nights, we deliver to ...

Allston
Back Bay
Brighton
Fenway
Chestnut Hill
Brookline

Bangkok Bistro

AUTHENTIC THAI CUISINE
at Cleveland Circle

739-7270

PUZZLED?

For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's

NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Call
1-900-646-8282

95¢ per minute

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

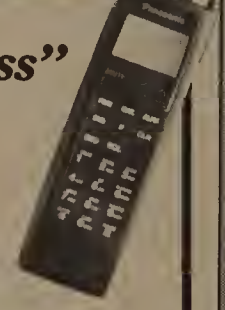
BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

HARVARD
CELLULAR

"Nobody sells more Cellular Phones for less"

PANASONIC



CM800
- Installed with antenna
- Handsfree speaker
- 3-year warranty

only $189
or 2 for $299

Blowout...

HP600
- Handheld portable
- Fits in your pocket
- Best price ever

only $429

TF800 Car to Car Transportable
only $159

Act now, offer expires 3/31/92

TOP 10 REASONS TO BUY A CELLULAR PHONE NOW!

1. Winter car problems, No problem!
2. Family safety & security
3. Maximize downtime (drivetime)
4. Harvard Cellular price protection
5. Increase sales & productivity
6. Can go car to car or car to boat
7. *Free off peak air-time
8. Keep in touch with family & friends
9. Best Cellular coverage in New England
10. Priced so low you can't afford not to!

 7 pm to 7 am Mon - Thurs, 7 pm Fri - 7 am Mon. New England telephone and long distance charges apply.*

An Authorized Agent of
CELLULARONE®

Prices valid with 99 day minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service plans.

HARVARD CELLULAR
PHONE STORE
112 Water St., Boston
720-2235

HARVARD CELLULAR
188 Needham St., Newton
332-7373

VIDEO CHOICES

by Jason Alexander

"Dr. Strangelove or: How I learned to stop worrying and love the Bomb"
Starring Peter Sellers and George C. Scott
Released 1963

Throughout the cold war Stanley Kubrick's classic Dr Strangelove was the ultimate black comedy about a nuclear apocalypse, a broad, yet chilling and realistic satire. This film is worth another view in this age when "commies" are no longer seen as the Antichrist Dr Stranglove remains broadly humorous as an examination of the nuclear age. Peter Sellers is astonishing and diverse in the three diverse roles of Captain Mandrake, Dr. Strangelove and the President of the United States. George C. Scott, as Joint Chief of Staff "Buck" Turgidson, is hilarious. Rent Dr. Strangelove again,;the sight of Slim Pickens riding a hydrogen bomb alone makes it worthwhile..

"My Favorite Year"
Starring Peter O'Toole and Mark Linn-Baker
Released 1982

My Favorite Year is set in the 1950's and is an amusing look at the production of live comedy shows in an age where television was king. The appearance of Peter O'Toole as legendary screen star Alan Swann raises the humor of the film considerably. O'Toole may not have stretched for the role, he is richly funnyas a rake required to live up to his notoriety, surviving on his fame. Mark Linn-Baker is suitably frantic as the junior writer assigned the difficult task of keeping the star sober. This film is funniest when Swann goes to Brooklyn to have dinner with his keeper's family. My Favorite Year, is light but a fun diversion.

COMEDY

Comedy 101

by Katie Flohr

Who hasn't watched a comedian on television or on stage and thought, "I could do that," or "I'm funnier than that." So many people are convinced that they would be a natural on stage. Raw ability, however, can only take you so far.

To brush up on comedic techniques (and there are techniques), many would-be comics contact a variety of pros who know what draws a laugh and what will get you kicked off stage. Nancy Walker, a member of ImprovBoston, Boston's longest running comedy troupe, is one pro "in the know."

ImprovBoston is a teaching workshop in Boston, offering four levels of classes from "Beginner" to "Show-Prep." The first day of the six-week workshop begins much like any other seminar course. Introductions take place and people find themselves surrounded by aspiring actresses and actors. They're all in class to learn general "improv" techniques as auditioning tools. A businessman who professed a "profound love of improv" enrolled to improve his ability to think on his feet. Only two people in the class actually dreamed of drawing laughs for a living.

The classes begin with Walker explaining some of the theories that drive improv comedy, stressing that being funny is not the main objective in class. She says to follow the two main rules of improvisation: never ask questions and never deny the other people on stage. "In other words," Walker explains, "if I tell you that there is a kangaroo on your head, you accept it. You don't ask why."

The cast of ImprovBoston, including comedy teachers Nancy Walker (back row, second from left) and Adam Felber (back row, far right).

One exercise, "Face-to-Face," shows the difficulty of these two rules. One person is the "subject" while the class takes a turn making a statement. The subject must reply instantly without asking any questions.

Through this exercise, and many others, improv students quickly find that they don't know as much about comedy as they had assumed. But Walker says that at least people are enjoying the challenge of reacting spontaneously. "One of the hardest things in comedy," Walker says, "is to be able to react instantly in any situation you're in. This is a problem that faces stand-up and improv comedians alike, because you always have to be on your toes in comedy."

The businessman likened the "no-denial" rule to a client meeting he had been to earlier that week. "You just can't say no to the client," he said.

When confronted by her confused students, Walker is quick to point out that asking questions on stage does nothing to further the action; it only shifts the burden onto someone else.

At the second workshop, improv scholars learn that spontaneity isn't enough. You have to develop believable characters and situations. Outrageousness is fine, but you still have to make the audience believe in your scene. That's why the class works on character development, physicality, dialogue and many more technical challenges. After six weeks, the complexity involved in being a comedic performer becomes extremely apparent.

Walker is just one of many great improv teachers around Boston. Classes are also offered through the adult education programs in Cambridge and Boston, as well as at local colleges. Younger kids can also get into improv with courses at summer camps like the Charles River Creative Arts Program.

Ron Jones teaches improv skills to kids ages 8 to 16 at the Charles River Camp. After being involved in Boston College's improv troupe, My Mother's Fleabag, Jones wanted to "share the skills and the sense of confidence" that he's gotten out of improv. "I love working with kids because everything is new for them, and I think the skills that improv teaches are also good in everyday life."

Betsy Salkind currently teaches an improv workshop as an extracurricular activity at M.I.T. "We have undergrads, graduate students, one alum and even a few M.I.T. employees in our group." Salkind finds teaching improv to be a growing experience for herself as well as for her students. "I find that you have to be just as present to teach as to perform, but sometimes even more so." Her original core of improv students have formed a group called "Road Kill Buffet," who now perform on a regular basis at M.I.T.

Adam Felber began teaching improv comedy while he was a member of the Tuft's troupe "Cheap Sox." "My first class was a group that I taught while I was on a study group in London during my junior year," Felber says. He's been teaching seminars and workshops ever since. "You can sit there and teach them the rules and tell them what to do 'til you're blue in the face, but it doesn't mean much until you're in the moment and using them yourself. They [his students] go beyond that point, and then they get all excited that there's no longer that boundary. They've broken through."

COMEDY LISTINGS

•Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendery comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in buisness. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm cross comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 4 to SUN 8.-Will Durst, Lauren Dombrowski & Scott Alarick. WED 11.-Improv Boston. THUR 12 to SUN 15.-"An evening with Rick Overton" with Jennifer Hoag.

•Comedy Connection at Charles Playhouse 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat..

WED 4.-Jimmy Smith Comedy Playhouse: Randy Look. THUR 5.-Billy Martin Comedy Showcase: Ken Flott. FRI 6 & SAT 7.-Al Ducharme, Jimmy Smith, Steve Carlson. SUN 8.-Billy Martin Comedy Showcase: Rayme Albert.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

FRI 6 & SAT 7.-Tom Agna, Orrin Star, Paul Kravity.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

•Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices.

WED 4.-Grand Finals of the College Beanpot Laugh-In. THUR 5.-Jim Lauletta, Peter Sasso, Chris Coccia. FRI 6 & SAT 7.-The Amazing Jonathon. SUN 8.-Kevin Knox, Larry Reppucci. MON 9.-Open Mic Nite with Billy Martin. TUES 10.-Paul D'Angelo, Rich Ceisler, Al Ducharme. WED 11.-Jim David, Larry Reppucci. THUR 12.-Jim Lauletta, Chris Zito, Jim David. FRI 13 & SAT 14.-Frank Santorelli, Paul Elwell. SUN 15.-Kevin Knox, Peter Bales, Jim David. MON 16.-Open Mic Nite with Billy Martin. TUES 17.-Paul D'Angelo, Dennis Stocker, Rich Ceisler, Maria Falzone.

•Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. Close to a dozen area college's are participating in Nick's Comedy Stop's First Beanpot College Laugh-In Competition. The grand finals are on Wed., Mar. 4 at 7:30pm. The grand prize winner will receive $1,000 in cash, a trophy for their school and a full week as the headlining stand-up comic. Runners-up from participating schools will win $100 each in cash and a trophy.

•Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The Improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the buisness and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues-Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.

TUES 3 to SUN 8.-Andy Bumatai and Chris Zito. TUES 10 to SUN 15.-John Bowman and John Rizzo. TUES 17 to SUN 22.-Kenny Rogerson and Brian Powers.

•Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

WED 4.-Anthony Clark, Jonathon Groff. THUR 5.-Jack Murberry, Jonathon Groff. FRI 6 (early show).-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. FRI 6 & SAT 7.-Jack Mayberry, Jonathon Groff, Dave Fitzgerald. SUN 8.-Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. TUES 10.-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. WED 11.-Anthony Clark, Nick DiPaulo. THUR 12.-Nick DiPaulo, George MacDonald. FRI 13 (early show).-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. FRI 13 & SAT 14.-Nick DI Paulo, George MacDonald, Greg Fitzsimmons. SUN 15.-Open Nite Mic with Vinnie Favorito. TUES 17.-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist.

ARTS

Who is Alan Bortman?

"Kix", Oil on canvas 1991

by Katherine Brick

Painter Alan Bortman's day starts in the evening, after a "power nap" that helps him recover from a full day in his graphic design business. Bortman returns to his studio to collect, pull apart and reassemble -with pointed intention - the jumble of brand names, jingles, popular images and typefaces that bombard him daily.

Bortman is not only an artist; he is an innovator who identifies change and then redefines it. The energy which leaps off Bortman's huge canvasses comes not so much from the material's boldness but his spare juxtaposition of it. In "Promise," the orange and yellow margarine logo emblazons the canvas above a young fifties woman - the sort who might whip up some jello for dessert. These paintings provoke immediate, personal reactions in an audience. The contents of them are so familiar yet their interactions are so strange . Bortman excels at producing works that beg for lenghthy and insightful discussion.

"As I'm composing, there are certain parts I leave blank until they come up," Bortman explains of the images which haunt his graphic design studio after hours. He begins with specific reference material, but the painting evolves beyond these as he works. Nothing is fast, so he takes anywhere from five to twenty days to complete a canvas.

By his own admission, his style resists labels; Bortman's work has evolved so rapidly over the past few years, it seems appropriate for him to display a banner touting the phrase, "A rolling stone gathers no moss," but he doesn't. Formerly shown at Sorota Fine Arts, his work now appears at Starving Artist Gallery and the Morgan Gallery on Newbury Street. Bortman is the first Boston artist to appear in the Morgan Gallery, which specializes in such famous out-of-towners as Andy Warhol. It has proven to be a stepping stone for Bortman, earning him national exposure.

> "Bortman is not only an artist; he is an innovator who identifies change and then redefines it."

Soon, seven of his paintings will appear at Art Expo, the major trade show of artists in New York.

These new paintings are substantially different from his earlier work, which can be seen at Starving Artist. He works in oils, yet blends them so thoroughly, the resulting painting appears airbrushed - an unusual and meticulous technique. Bortman claims he never studied art formally, but learned from the work of other pop culture artists, whose faces and styles permeate many of his early pieces.

His new paintings show this influence, but they no longer, in Bortman's words, "pay homage to them." Across one of his recent five foot canvases is written "What Will We Call the Nineties?" According to Alan Bortman we won't know for another decade or two. For himself, he wants to appear in a future scholar's textbook as "Pop Culture Artist of the Nineties." If anything, you can bet that Alan Bortman will continue to impress, delight and entertain new audiences well into the future.

The artist and his work- "Promise", Oil on canvas, 1991

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

Ticketmaster

Ticketmaster outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.
The shows below are what The Improper Bostonian recommends for some of the best entertainment in the area.

March 6-8 David Copperfield
The Wang Center, ($29.75/26.75/21.57)
March 7 Dire Straits
Centrum, ($22.50)
March 10 Psychedelic Furs
Avalon, ($17.50/18.50 at door)
March 14 Bill Cosby
Red Auerbach Arena at Gosman Center, ($22.50/19.50)
March 19 Richard Thompson/Roger McGuinn
Berklee, ($19.50)
March 24 Bryan Adams
Centrum, ($19.50)

Out-of-Town Tickets and Concertcharge

Call 492-1900 for information.
Call 497-1118 to charge tickets using Amex, MC or Visa.

Les Miz - A Magnificent Return

by Nancy Leonard

If, on its third visit to Boston, "Les Miserables" is a tad less powerful and stirring than when it first played here, it's still magnificent entertainment! We have grown impatient in this city for "Phantom of the Opera" (coming this summer), and we long for 'Miss Saigon," but we shouldn't forget that this earlier child of producer Cameron Mackintosh is a truly satisfying theatrical experience.

The musical version of Victor Hugo's novel - with a book by Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schonberg, music by the latter, and lyrics by Herbert Kretzmer - is arresting from its first percussive moments at the Wang Center.

The story of the convict Jean Valjean, his ward Cosette and the implacable Inspector Javert, briskly unfolds across 20 years and numerous locations - thanks to its authoritative staging upon a smoothly accommodating turntable set, and its exhilarating blend of melody and action (which continues right down to the final curtain). Les Miz is a richly detailed, and uncommonly speedy, 3-1/2 hours. Now, however, the performances are a bit more mechanical and some of the social/political concerns are murky. We see the grinding poverty in early 19th century France, but the causes of the revolutionary fervor - which fuels so much of the drama - are more elusive. After Valjean has rescued Marius and returned him to his beloved Cosette, Marius is not alone in wondering about the sacrifice of his fallen comrades.

The production could also use some clarity of detail late in the evening. It speeds so quickly from the sewers of Paris to its close, that key plot points may be lost. And the grasping Thenardiers are so broadly and lewdly characterized that they've lost some of their comic punch.

But all this amounts to a quibble in what is rather a foolproof endeavor - at least when attention is paid (as here) to the musical elements in this nearly operatic work, which has almost no spoken dialogue. The lead performers have glorious voices (even if electronically assisted) and fine acting skills. The chorus is strong and appealing. Dave Clemmons is relatively short and slight as Valjean, but should be burlier for those feats of strength. He also has some difficulty playing the old man. But his tenderness is genuine, and his softly prayerful "Bring Him Home" is really nice. Chuck Wagner endows his nemesis Javert with a powerful bass-baritone that brings rich splendor to "Stars" and the tormented "Soliloquy." His Abe Lincoln-esque looks, though, carry little menace. Donna Kane aptly portrays the desperate Fantine's slide to degradation, and her "I Dreamed a Dream" is sweetly and solidly sung.

A touch of robustness alone mars the final anguish. Candese Marchese has nice appeal as the ragamuffin Eponine, and her songs are touching. Tamra Hayden's Cosette is charming and romantic, and sings expertly. Ron Sharpe's handsome Marius is earnest and full-voiced, but could use a bit more personality. His "Empty Chairs at Empty Tables" is very moving. Gina Ferrall is a large, slatternly Madame Thenardier, dirty and disheveled. J.P. Dougherty is ruddy, round-cheeked, and equally unkempt as her "Master of the House." They both sing with big voices and practiced comic timing. They add zest, but there's something bothersome in their overdone efforts.

Aloysius Gigl sings well as the student leader Enjolras. In the chorus, you'll find the familiar face of Karen Murphy, who's played in many local musicals during the past decade.

Sure, "Les Miserables" is melodramatic, as it winds its story of nobility, romance and bloody revolution through an unashamedly pulsating score. But it's a solidly engaging story and score - the kind you can find exhilarating again and again. The only real problem this time around is its much-too-abbreviated visit to Boston.

Candese Marchese as Eponine in a scene from Les Miserables

ALAN BORTMAN

PROMISE

OIL ON CANVAS

Starving Artist

224 NEWBURY ST • 247-9453

ART & FASHION BY BOSTON'S FINEST UNKNOWNS

Boston Ballet PRESENTS

ON THE EDGE

Julie Bocon and Geoffrey Rhue Photo by Jerry Berndt

A FESTIVAL OF New Ballet

MARCH 12 thru MARCH 22

APRIL 2 thru APRIL 12

AT THE WANG CENTER

TICKETMASTER Call 931-2000 Today!

Nine ballets by the best choreographers in the world today!

BILL T. JONES MONICA LEVY

RALPH LEMON SUSAN MARSHALL

BEBE MILLER MARK MORRIS

ELISA MONTE TWYLA THARP

Ticket Prices: $9.75 - $19.75

In person at The Wang Center Box Office, 270 Tremont St., Boston, Mon. - Sat., 10am - 6pm and at all Ticketmaster Outlets.

Participating sponsors of On The Edge are AT&T and Philip Morris Companies Inc. Additional funding provided by The Harkness Foundations for Dance

We Take No Prisoners was made possible by a grant from the National Dance Repertory Enrichment Program (REP), a partnership of Philip Morris Companies Inc and the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Fund, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts. REP was conceived and is administered by Pentacle

MEDIA SPONSORS Phoenix WBUR

BOSTON BALLET

Bruce Marks, Artistic Director

ARTS

ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
19 Clarendon St., Boston.
Following last year's sell-out performance, Boston Ballet II and the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra will be presenting a combined celebration of music and dance. This unique collaboration will unite two of the city's finest arts organizations, both dedicated to promoting the excellence of talented young performing artists. At Boston University's Tsai Performance Center, 685 Commonwealth Avenue, on Mar. 7 at 8pm and Mar. 8 at 2pm. Tickets cost $7.50 and $12.00 and are available by calling 695-6950, ext. 262, 353-3348 or 353-TSAI.
From Mar. 12 to Apr. 12, Boston Ballet showcases On the Edge, a dazzling line-up of gifted choreographers for a month of the very best new ballets. These cutting-edge performances run for one month only. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.75, depending on seating locations and are available either through Ticketmaster or the Wang Center box office. Call 695-6950 for more information.

The Strand Theater
543 Columbia Rd., Dorchester
Tickets are available at Ticketmaster and the Strand box office. Call 876-4275 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

The Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville.
Call 625-1300 for reservations and performance information.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston.
"Photographic Constructions" is an exhibition of photo collages by Les Barta. The works are a rearrangement of visual language designed to eclipse the familiar reality with a new order. The opening reception is Feb. 20, 6-8pm. The show dates are Feb. 20-Mar. 12, Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm. Call 437-1868 for more information.

The Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Exhibit hours are Mon.-Thur.., 9am-9pm and Fri-Sat., 9am-5pm. Admission is free and open to the public.

The Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston,
The exhibit is free and open to the public and runs Mon.-Thur., 9am-9pm and Fri-Sat., 9am-5pm.

The Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave., Boston
The PRC presents "El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder," a U.S. premiere exhibition of 100 photographs representing Salvadoran underground archives. The exhibit is being held through Apr. 5. Admission is $3 for non-members and $2 for members, students and seniors. Call 353-0700 for more information.

The Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave, Boston
Showing simultaneously with the Salvadoran exhibition is Jerry Berndt's "Photographs From Haiti." Exhibit dates are the same as above.

CLASSICAL

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, Mass Ave., Boston
From Mar. 5-7 Vladmir Ashkenazy will be conducting SCHOENBERG 'Pelleas und Melisande' and SIBELIUS Symphony No. 2. Then, from Mar. 11-17, Yuri Temirkanov conducts PROKOFIEV 'Classical' Symphony, STRAVINSKY 'Pulcinella' Suite and TCHAIKOVSKY Serenade for Strings. For times and ticket information call 266-7575.

The Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
The all-woodwind Ariel Quintet will feature music by Cambridge composers when it performs on Mar. 5 at 8pm. Admission is $3.50. Call 547-6789 for more information.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
The NEC celebrates is 125th anniversary Mar. 2-5 with "Music from The Source: NEC at 125," a free festival featuring NEC ensembles, faculty, alumni and distinguished guests in seven concerts and four symposia. "Women in Music, Then and Now" will be presented Mar. 4, in addition to a chamber concert and the world premiere of George Russell's Time Line, which traces the history of music, the NEC and the world since 1867. Mar. 5 features a symposium on "Jazz, Ethnic Music and Third Stream Traditions," an NEC alumni concert and VERDI Requiem. For times and more information call 262-1120.
Cellist Suren Bagratuni gives a recital Mar. 16 at 8pm with John Gibbons, harpsichord and Rina Dokshitsky, piano. Works include BACH Sonata for Viola da Gamba and Clavier in G Minor; DEBUSSY Sonata for Cello and Piano in A Minor; and SHOSTAKOVICH Sonata for Cello and Piano in D Minor. For more information call 262-1120.

Nightstage
823 Main St., Cambridge
World Music presents Israeli folk superstar David Broza on Mar. 15 at 7:30pm. Broza's acoustic guitar style combines a Spanish and Flamenco flavor with exquisite folk-rock fingerpicking. In 1991, Broza opened for Paul Simon in Switzerland. Tickets are $15 and are available at all Ticketmaster outlets and at the Nightstage box office. Call 931-2000 to charge tickets or 876-9240 for more information.

Somerville Theatre
Davis Square, Somerville
World Music presents two enchanting evening of Celtic music on Mar.7 and Mar. 14 at 8pm to help you get into the mood for St. Patrick's Day celebrations. Noted for their harmonies and tasteful accompaniments on guitar and bouzouki, Andy Stewart and Manus Lunny perform original and traditional songs of Scotland and Ireland on Mar, 7. The next week, Altan, the leading traditional band in Ireland today, will play reels, jigs and ballads. Tickets are $15 for each performance and are available at all Ticketmaster outlets and at the Somerville Theatre box office. Call 876-9240.

Symphony Hall
Mass. Ave., Boston
The Bank of Boston Celebrity Series continues with a performance by the brilliant young Japanese-born violinist Midori. At the age of 20, Midori has achieved enviable celebrity status in the classical concert world. Her recital on Mar. 8 at 3pm will include works by Handel, Beethoven, Faure, Ysaye and Sarasate. Ticket prices are $15 and $23. For more information, call 266-1200.
The Bank of Boston Celebrity Series will also present the internationally renowned Vienna Choir Boys on Mar. 15 at 3pm. The program will include liturgical works by composers such as Galupi and Max Reger, as well as several selections from Benjamin Britten's "Ceremony of Carols." Part II of the program will be devoted to a costumed comic opera in one act: Johann Strauss's "Tales of the Vienna Woods." Other featured composers include Mozart, Beethoven and Schumann. Tickets are $15-$23. Call 266-1200.
In anticipation of St. Patrick's Day, the world's pre-eminent Irish folk band, the Chieftains, will appear in concert on Mar. 15 at 8 pm. For nearly 30 years, the Chieftains have explored a wealth of traditional Irish music that has accumulated over the centuries, including the compositions of the legendary harpist Carolan, making the music their own with a style that is as exhilirating as it is definitive. Tickets are $15-$28. Call 266-1200.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
306 Northern Ave, Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

The Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle House, Cambridge
During the month of March, the CCAE runs a series of Friday night films under the theme Local Filmmakers Present: Four Evenings of Film and Conversation. On Mar. 6, Greek-American filmmaker Alexandra Anthony presents her 16mm film Yaya, about her grandmother who lives in Shreveport, Louisiana. On Mar. 13, Jay Craven shows his film High Water, about a Vermont farm boy in his first stock car race. Admission for both shows is $6 and tickets are available in advance as well as at the door. Call 547-6789 for more information.
The CCAE also offers two film courses with European screenwriter, producer and director Federico Muchnik: The Elements of Film: Fantasy and Realism and The Business of Creative Writing for Film. Call 547-6789.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
To continue the 1992 Classic Film Series, the Wang Center presents Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, a classic American film starring Paul Newman and Robert Redford. Tickets are $6 and are available at the Wang Center Box Office. Doors open at 6pm with live music being performed by the Jazz Pops ensemble in the Grand Lobby and the film being hosted by Frank Avruch at 7:30 pm. Seating is general admission. Call The Wang Center at 482-9393 for more information.

The Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

The Art Complex Museum
189 Alden St., Duxbury
Two art galleries with changing exhibitions, an art reference library and Japanese tea hut are all part of this art museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 1-4pm. Admission is free. Call 934-6634 for more information.

Babson Map and Globe Museum
Coleman Hall, Map Hill Drive, Babson College, Wellesley
This museum houses the largest relief map in the world. They also house the world's largest revolving globe, standing three stories tall. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat., 12-4pm. Admission is free. Call 239-4232.

Charles River Museum of Industry
154 Moody St., Waltham
This museum focuses on the Industrial Revolution, exhibiting four successive manufacturing systems that have changed American industry. Museum hours are Thur.-Sat., 10am-5pm and by appointment. Call 893-5410 for more information.

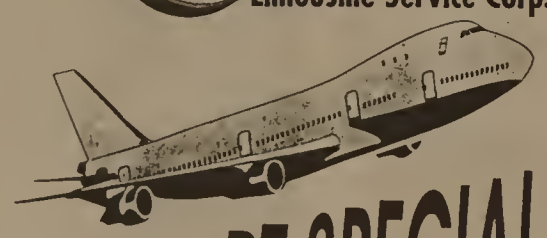
The Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
This waterfront exhibition center houses fun-filled participatory exhibits for children of all ages. Culture, arts, science and history are all explored. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm and Fri. 10am-9pm from Sept.-June. Call 426-8855 for more information about admission prices.

The Commonwealth Museum
220 Morrissey Blvd., Boston
This history museum is dedicated to the people, places and politics of Massachusetts. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat. 9am-3pm. Admission is free. For more information call 727-9268.

The Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Admission to the museum is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, free for children under 5 and half price on Sat. until noon. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

The Concord Museum
200 Lexington Rd., Concord
A collection of decorative arts and domestic artifacts from Concord-area residents is the focus of this museum. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 10am-4pm. and Sun. 1-4pm. Call 508-369-9609 for more information.

The Dansforth Museum of Art
123 Union Ave., Framingham
"Paul Soldner: A Retrospective" will be on display at the museum through Mar. 15. This is the first exhibit to survey the long and productive career of this ceramic artist. The exhibit includes approximately 75 works featuring three major phases of Soldner's career. Admission is $3 for adults, $2 for seniors and students and free for members and children under 12. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 12-5pm.
To spotlight the beauty of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, the Dansforth Museum presents "White Mountain Painters," an exhibition of late 19th and early 20th century paintings done by various artists that capture the charm and brilliance of the natural world. The exhibit runs through Apr. 19. Call 508-620-0050 for more information.



The Essex Institute Museum
132 Essex St., Salem
A museum neighborhood in the heart of Salem, the Essex Institute is an art and history museum of Essex County from the 17th century to the present. Museum hours are Tues.-Sat., 9am-5pm, Sun. and holidays 1-5pm, Thurs., 9am-9pm. Tours are available. For more information call 508-744-3390.

The Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton
455 Oak St., Brockton
This museum features changing exhibitions with a special emphasis on contemporary art. A children's gallery offers varied exhibits aimed at young audiences. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 12-5pm. Call 508-588-6000 for more information.

The Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Harvard University Museums of Natural History
24 Oxford St., Cambridge
Four museums under one roof including: the Botanical Museum's glass flowers, the

(continued on following page)

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973
ORIENT EXPRESS
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL
Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown
Some Restrictions Apply
$40
per trip - up to 6 people
Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

ARTS

MUSEUMS (continued)

Mineralogical and Geological Museum, the Museum of Comparative Zoology's dinosaur skeletons and endangered species and the Peabody Museum of Archeology and Ethnology's Pre-Columbian artifacts. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 9am-4:30pm, Sun., 1-4:30pm. Call 495-3045 for more information.

The Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. "Currents: The Absent Body," a feature of the works of six contemporary artists from five countries, will run through Mar. 22. The works of Eugenio Dittborn, Guillermo Kuitca, Paul Etienne Lincoln, Doris Salcedo, Shellburne Thurber, and Francesca Woodman will be displayed. Currents is the ICA's annual exhibit devoted to important new works by emerging artists and recent unseen work by established artists. Admission is $4 general, $3 for students, $1.50 for seniors and children under 16, $1 for UMass/Boston and M.I.T students. Free admission on Thur. from 5 to 8pm. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. The museum is currently playing host to a new exhibit, "World of Textiles," which will run through the winter. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

The MIT Museum
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
265 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge
This museum explores the interplay of art and technology. Museum hours are Tues.-Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat.-Sun., 12-4pm. For more information call 253-4444.

The Museum of Afro-American History, African Meeting House
46 Joy St., Boston
The home of the Black Heritage Trail, this museum explores the history of Boston's 19th century black community, including the African Meeting House, the oldest black church still standing in the United States. Museum hours are Mon.-Sun., 10am-4pm. Admission is free. Call 742-1854 for more information.

The Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"Bears: Imagination and Reality," one of two temporary exhibits, challenges the visitor to learn the difference between the imaginary bear and the real bear. "Inside Active Volcanoes: Kilauea and Mount St. Helens" is on display through Mar. 8. This exhibition of two volcanoes in the United States shows the visitor the variety of volcano types and how people can live with and prepare for these potentially destructive forces of nature. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metropolitan Boston school year.

The Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year, and admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children, students and senior citizens. Museum hours are Wed-Sun., 10am-5pm. For more information call 522-6547.

The New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Old State House
206 Washington St., Boston
Built in 1713, this is the oldest public building in Boston. It was the scene of important debates and events, such as the Boston Massacre, that led to the American Revolution. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 10am-4pm, Sat., 9:30am-5:30pm and Sun., 11am-5pm. Call 720-1713 for more information.

The Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge
The museum houses one of the greatest collections of archaeology and primitive art in the United States. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 9am-4:30pm, Sun. 1-4:30pm. Admission is $3 for adults, $2 for senior citizens and students with non-Harvard ID, $1 for children under 16. Free admission on Sat. from 9-11am. For information, call 495-2248.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The Rose Art Museum
Brandeis University, Waltham
Hours are Tues.-Sun., 1-5pm and Thur., 1-9pm. Admission is free. Call 736-3434 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Misalliance, a George Bernard Shaw comedy about the futile efforts of parents to control the destinies of their children, will run through Mar. 7. Show times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat., 2pm and 8pm and Sun., 2pm and 7pm. Tickets range in price from $17 to $38 and are available at the box office or by calling 547-8300.
In repertory with Misalliance, the ART will run The Seagull, directed by Ron Daniels, until Mar. 21. Anton Chekhov's tragicomic masterpiece was the first great production of the Moscow Art Theatre in 1898. Show times are Tues.-Fri., 8pm, Sat. 2 and 8pm and Sun. 2 and 7pm. Ticket prices range from $17 to $38. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Moment to Moment, a provocative social satire about surviving in the 90s, by Daena Giardella will make its run until Mar. 29 at the Beacon Hill Playhouse. Actor, comedienne and dancer Giardella collaborates with guest musicians to express the inner and outer struggles centered around the absurdities of contemporary life. Show times are Thur.-Sun. at 8pm. Tickets are $15 and can be ordered by calling the Beacon Hill Playhouse box office at 720-0082.

CentaStage
At the Boston Center for the Arts
539 Tremont St., Boston
Little Messages continues at the Black Box Theatre and plays until Mar. 15. Show times are Thur.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 2 and 8pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets are $12 and are available at all Ticketmaster outlets, Bostix and Ticketmaster phone charge (931-2000). Call 536-5981 for more information.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Shirley Valentine, a play about a middle-aged Liverpool housewife who experiences liberation and self-discovery on a Greek vacation, will run through Mar. 8 after a three-week extension. Shirley Valentine show times Tues.-Sat. at 8pm, with a matinee on Sundays at 3pm. Tickets are $22.50 for Tues. and Thur. nights, and $25 for Fri. and Sat. shows. Tickets are available at the Charles Playhouse box office or by calling Ticketpro at 1-800-828-7080. For more information call 426-6912.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $18 to $23 and are available at the box office or by calling 542-8511.

French's Opera House
45 Fairmount Ave., Hyde Park
Take a musical trip into romance with the French's Opera House production of The Hopeless Romantic. The world premiere musical comedy plays every Thur., Fri. and Sat. at 8pm. The show's run is open-ended until further notice. Tickets are $12 for general public, $8 for students and seniors. Call the theater at 361-7024 for tickets. Tickets are also available at Bostix (723-5181) or Ticketmaster (931-2000).

The Huntington Theatre Company
264 Huntington Ave., Boston
William Shakespeare's rarely seen Cymbeline is getting set for its run at the Huntington Theatre Company. The twilight romance, written between 1608 and 1610, will begin its stint on Mar. 6 and will run until Apr. 5. Tickets range from $18 to $34 and can be ordered by calling 266-0800. Groups of 15 or more may also receive a discount by calling 266-7900, ext. 2524.

Institute of Contemporary Art Theatre
955 Boylston St., Boston
Womb/Man Wars, a new, one-woman comedy by playwright/performance artist Judith Alexa Jackson, was inspired by the "high-tech lynching" of Anita Hill by the media, the Senate Judicial Committee and Judge Clarence Thomas & Co. Using masks, dance, mime, video, canned sound and bare-blade satire, Jackson examines the myths and realities of the age-old gender battle in a contemporary context. Tickets are $8 for ICA members, seniors and students; $10 for the general public. Performances are Mar. 12-14 at 8pm.Call 266-5151 for more information.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
One of the funniest plays by George Bernard Shaw picks up where Ghost left off with You Never Can Tell which will run through Mar. 15. Shaw's hero, a love-sick dentist, fills a seaside resort with aging suffragettes, twin brats and assorted Victorian curmudgeons. You Never Can Tell's show times are Wed.-Fri. 8pm, Sat. at 5pm and 8:30pm and Sun. at 3:30pm. Ticket prices are $14-$18. Call 437-7172 for more information.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

Mystery Cafe
1667 Mass. Ave, Cambridge
The Mystery Cafe will also present Killing Mr. Withers at their Cambridge location. Shows are on Sat. at 8pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus show are $30-$32 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

The New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
A long-running off-Broadway hit, A Shayna Maidel fills the stage with laughter and tears, and a vision of hope for the future. This magical and deeply moving drama explores the relationship of two sisters separated in early childhood and their emotional reunion at the end of World War II. The play runs through Mar. 29. Call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

The Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Boston theater company Cicatrix Theatre will present Minya Mintz, a new play by Anna Baum, Mar. 5-21 at the Performance Place. An adventurous interplay of characters, images and sounds, Minya Mintz documents a young woman's discovery of her impotence and then traces her efforts to learn how to experience desire again. Tickets are $12. Performances are Mar. 5-7, then Mar. 11-21, Wed.-Sat. All shows are at 8pm. Call 625-1300.

The Strand Theatre
543 Columbia Rd., Dorchester
In "The Discovery of Columbus," a performance geared for children, Underground Railway and the Strand Theatre present a "different" version of the Columbus story, revealing many untold parts of his journey to America. The show is Mar. 5 at 10am.. Tickets are $4, available at the door. Call 282-8000 for more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Performances are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 7 and 10pm, Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Thursday matinees are at 2pm. Tickets are $29.50 and $26.50. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For more information and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken began a six-week run on Feb. 19 with a brand new cast and set. Ticket prices are $17 and $22 Sun.-Thur., $22 and $25 for Fri. and Sat. nights and Sun. matinees. Show times are Wed.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm, Sun. at 3 and 6pm, and Wed. matinees at 2pm. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. To charge tickets by phone, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Nationally-known master storyteller and musician "Odds" Bodkin will present a special program for "children of all ages" in the Mezzanine Conference Room on Mar. 7 at 2pm. Bodkin, who frequently appears on National Public Radio, has built up a widespread following among both adults and children for his spellbinding tale-telling. Admission is free.

The Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
On Mar. 10, a slideshow discussion called "From South Boston to Southern Africa" focuses on the political and cultural situation in Africa and draws connections between this region and issues facing African-Americans in the U.S. Admission is $1.50 for the show at 8:15pm.. Tickets are available at the door. For further information call 547-6789.
What is a dinosaur? On Mar. 17, fossil hunter Christopher Whittle will talk about how to find

(continued)

Fear and Clothing

In 1970, Hunter S. Thompson decided to take on the establishment, and ran for Sheriff of Aspen, Colorado. We have taken his original campaign logo and reproduced it in its original three colors on a 100% cotton T-shirt. Available by mail, send $18.00 (this includes shipping) to:
Gonzo Graphics
955 Mass Ave., #174
Cambridge, MA 02139
Or call 247-2028 Sizes S,M.L,XL

ARTS

LECTURES (continued)

dinosaurs in New England, as well as field trips he will be offering through the Cambridge Canter. He will also show a video about collecting dinosaurs. Admission is $1.50 for the 8:15pm. presentation.

Poetry readings include Lloyd Schwartz reading from his new collection Good Night Gracie on Mar. 9; Mark Rudman, author of The Nowhere Steps and Stephen Dunn, author of Between Angels and Each Leaf Shines Separate, both on Mar. 16.

Massachusetts College of Art
Tower Auditorium
621 Huntington Ave.
Mythologist, storyteller and drummer Michael Meade will present a lecture/discussion for men and women on Mar. 6 at 7:30pm entitled "The Dance of Gender: When the Women Went One Way and the Men Went the Other." The evening provides an opportunity for both sexes to begin building alliances between the men's and women's movements. Tickets are $12 at the door. Call 776-2230.

The Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
Art historian Henry Augustine Tate presents an illustrated lecture, "European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents," in conjunction with an exhibit of the same name at the MFA. The lecture takes place at the Boston Public Library, Copley Square, on Mar. 12 at 2pm. For more information, call 536-5400, ext. 295.

The New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
A panel of experts will join the New Rep for a forum discussion entitled "The Jewish Family in America" on Mar. 24 at 7:30pm. Admission is free and open to the public. For more information on all New Rep events call 332-1646.

WORKSHOPS

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

The Alpha Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
The Alpha Gallery is showing an exhibition of paintings and watercolors by Yanick Lapuh. The exhibit will run until Apr. 1; opening reception is Mar. 6 from 6-8pm. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat. 10am-5:30pm. For more information, call 536-4465.

The Andrea Marquit Fine Arts
207 Newbury St., Boston
An exhibition of recent paintings by four contemporary artists opens Mar. 13. New York artists Michael K. Bisbee and Laurie Campbell will be shown along with two Boston-based painters, Stephen Mishol and Rob Moore. The show runs through May 16. Gallery hours are Mon.-Wed. by appointment and Thur.-Sat., 11am-5pm. For more information, call 859-0190.

The Copley Society of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
A juried members' exhibition of works in pastel and charcoal are on display from Mar.11-Apr. 4. "The Silent Art Auction" will run Feb. 25-Mar. 7. It will feature works from all media, style and genre. The works will be available for silent bidding while on display. Final bidding takes place at the Fortress, 99 Boston St. on Mar. 8, 4-7pm. Tickets are $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat. 10:30am-5:30pm. For more information, call 536-5049.

The French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
"The Age of Train Travel," a private collection of vintage posters, will be on display from Mar. 5-31. Admission is free. Tues., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm; Wed. and Thurs., 10am-8pm. For more information, call 266-4351.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
The Galerie Mourlot announces their second exhibit of "Russian Constructivist, Vladimir LEBEDEV," an exhibit of original freehand drawings in pen and ink, dating from 1928 to 1930. The drawings represent comic types from contemporary Soviet society. The exhibit will run until Mar. 13. The gallery is open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

Gallery Equus
125 Kingston St., Floor 2
A group show entitled "New Boston Artists" marks this gallery's grand opening on Mar. 7. All media are on display, including painting, neon, glass, photography and glass. Gallery hours are Wed.-Sun. 12-6pm and by appointment.

The Iguana Gallery
246 Newbury St., Boston
This gallery presents a unique collection of Haitian, Primitive and Naive works of art. Included are the Molas, wall hangings created by the Cuna Indians of San Blas. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 11am-5pm or by appointment. For more information, call 247-0211.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Catherine McCarthy's paintings are featured in a group exhibition from Mar. 7-28. Opening reception is Mar. 6, 5-7pm. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 10am-5:30pm. For more information, call 266-4835.

The Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston
"It's Shoe Time," an exhibition of original old advertising featuring footwear. Hours are Mon.-Sat., 11am-6pm and Sun., 12-6pm. Admission is free. For more information call 236-8754.

The Society of Arts and Crafts
101 Arch St. (34 Summer St), Boston and 175 Newbury St., Boston
The Society of Arts and Crafts is exhibiting "A Tea Party: A Group Exhibition of Teapots" from Mar. 14 to May 2. These tea sets range from the traditional to the outrageous, from functional to decorative. The Society will also present "Jon Brooks: Wood Sculpture & Marvin Sweet: Ceramic Vessels," which will run until Mar. 7. Gallery hours are Tues.-Fri., 11am-7pm and Sat., 11am-5pm. Newbury Street hours are Mon.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 12-5pm. Admission is free. For more information, call 345-0033.

Studio 27
27 Dry Dock Avenue, Boston
Studio hours are Mon.-Fri., 10am-4pm. For more information, call 439-4999.

Tribal Arts Gallery at Roots International
302 Newbury St., Boston
Substantial exhibitions of select West African ceremonial, utilitarian, mythological and societal masks and artifacts can be found at this gallery. The gallery is open seven days a week from 12-6pm. For more information, call 247-6292.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Salem State College
Main Library, Salem
A symposium entitled "Facing History and Ourselves" on Mar. 11 from 9 am-3pm focuses on human rights and the Salem Witch Trials. Call 508-744-0004.

Leather District Offbeat Productions
Alternative rock and new works by local filmmakers and artists will be presented by Leather District/Offbeat Productions every Sunday at the Loading Zone Restaurant and Bar in Boston's leather district. The grand opening for the series is Sunday, March 8 from 10pm-2am and will feature the Lunachicks and films by Cassandra Fater and Linda Post. Call 72-0802 for more information.

A SHAYNA MAIDEL - A STRONG SHOW FOR THE NEW REP

by Rachel Stern

The New Repertory's production of A Shayna Maidel is strong and well-wrought. A long-running off-Broadway hit, A Shayna Maidel ("a pretty girl" in Yiddish), chronicles the reuniting of a Jewish family in America after World War II. Separated before the war, two sisters, virtual strangers who share nothing, not even a common language, try to recreate a bond weakened by time and the atrocities of the Holocaust. The cast in this production is first-rate, led by the stupendously talented Stephanie Clayman as Lusia, the sister left in Poland and who survived the concentration camps. Ms. Clayman is extraordinary in every sense - she leads the company in a most forceful manner. One of her many imposing feats of craftsmanship is her command of different dialects - she switches into and out of Yiddish, American English and Polish accented English with perfect fluidity.

The production is stronger than the play itself. Barbara Lebow's script relies too heavily on theatrics; almost every scene is broken up with dream sequences or memories of pre-war life. While this gives the actors, director and lighting crew opportunities for displaying their virtuosity, it becomes, at times, the main focus of the work, and unfortunately detracts from its dramatic impact. It is the virtuosity of the entire company that carries this show. Only Dick Rosenfeld, playing the girls' father, had difficulty maintaining a consistent accent; however, his simple, somewhat uncrafted stage presence actually contributed to the strength of his character. The rest of the cast, Pamela Shafer (as the Americanized sister), Andrew Michael Dolan (as Luisa's husband), Chandra Pieragostini (as her childhood friend Hanna), and Barbara Dooneief Haas was superb. I would have liked to have seen more of Ms. Haas, as the girls' mother, but that, too, is a fault of the play and not the production. It is hard to say whether this is more a play about the Holocaust, or about a family's struggle to reunite. This may be an ambiguity inherent in the script, or in director Alan Brody's vision. Or quite possibly it is a function of humanity's response to the Holocaust. Since it is very nearly impossible to grasp the event in its entirety (and stay sane in the process), it may be that the only way to approach it is through the individual stories of the millions who have played (and continue to play) out their lives in its shadow. A Shayna Maidel does an admirable job of opening the window on a landscape most people would rather not contemplate.

Stephanie Clayman (Luisa Pechenik) and Pamela Shafer (Rose Weiss) in A Shayna Maidel

THE HARDEST WORKING NUNS IN SHOW BUSINESS

by Gary S. Kadet

It's no surprise to learn that Dan Goggin's Nunsense is the product of a successful line of greeting cards.

Like Shear Madness, Boston's other long-running theatrical franchise, Nunsense is less a play than a device - an audience-milking machine designed to extract laughter and applause with hydraulic pressure. Nunsense, in fact, used to run alongside Madness at the Charles Street Theater for five years, before its recent move to the North End's compact Theater Lobby. But where Madness relies on its improvisatory script and mass audience participation, Nunsense stands tall on the balanced performances of its talented cast - eight times a week.

Sure, the show is cute and witty, but it's often juvenile and so pun and slapstick-laden that it misses as often as it hits. Even such careful and experienced direction and choreography by Felton Smith cannot save the show from itself. Fortunately, to paraphrase a line from the number "A Word from the Reverend Mother," the sisters really "bring it home."

The stuff of Nunsense is a small scale musical/comedy revue staged by five remaining nuns of the "Order of the Little Sisters of Hoboken" to raise funds for the burial of the last of their order who has died from a lethal dose of botulistic vichysoisse. Time is running out, as the local health inspector discovers the dead nuns in the freezer and threatens to close down the order if they aren't soon removed. Will the sisters bury them in time? Who cares. It's just a framework within which the sisters can strut their stuff, and strut it they do!

What's remarkable is that all the sisters sing, dance and act equally well, hyperventilating through campy turns and pratfalls in a successful attempt to move the audience along with their momentum. Sometimes, there is genuine artistry buried in these physical performances. As the Mother Superior, Karon Lewis pulls off a brilliantly balletic run-in with butyl nitrate poppers (in the form of "Rush") that has you rolling on the floor with her. Second banana and

FEATURES

GOING TO BED WITH DAVID ALLAN BOUCHER

by Jannette Tucker

David Allan Boucher has a good life. He can wake up whenever he feels like it. He lounges around in the morning, reads the paper, lunches a lot with friends and always finds a place to park his car in downtown Boston.

At work, which Boucher describes as "the most relaxing time of my day," he keeps people company and spins a few records.

Boucher's 10-year-old "Bedtime Magic" show from 8pm to midnight on WMJX (106.7 FM) is the number one nighttime show in Boston for adults 25-54. He is also the longest-running nighttime D.J. in Boston.

"Very early when you get into this business, you hear a lot of theories about what makes a good D.J.," Boucher said. "Basically, you have a few records and you keep people company. Hopefully, they either like the records or they like your company."

Or both, as in Boucher's case. As he puts it, "something just clicked." But Boucher has his own theory about the success of his soft hits wind-down show. "There's a certain mood at night," he said. "A lot of stations tend to get more raucous at night because they think its party time all over the city. But if it's Tuesday night at 10:45, I have a hard time thinking that all of New England is switching clubs."

Among his accomplishments, he actually did the honors of popping the question for one of his listeners who is now set to marry his sweetheart this summer.

"I thought it might be a joke," he said of the scheme. "He wanted me to read his proposal on the air at a very specific time. He was going to be on a beach with his girlfriend and a bottle of wine and all that."

Boucher took the man's word for it and read the proposal. "I got the call the next night that they're getting married," Boucher said with a smile. "I didn't hear that night. I presumed they were busy."

Boucher, who's now 32, got his start in radio when he was only 15. He hails from Methuen, and got a part time job "at a small station," refusing to elaborate. Boucher is characteristically vague about anything personal. He will admit that his start in radio was anything but phenomenal. "As long as you didn't stutter, I guess you got the job," he said with a laugh. Listening to him now, one would wonder why anyone would ever hesitate to give that voice a job. But Boucher said much has changed.

"I had a very high voice when I was young," he said with a chuckle. "I would answer the phone and people would say, 'Little girl, is your mother home?'" But "ba boom," next thing he knew, his voice pitch plummeted and he was being advised left and right to get into television or radio.

Over his radio years, Boucher has survived all of the debacles that, on occasion, add a wrinkle or two to the art of spinning records. Equipment failure once forced a 19-year-old Boucher to rap for half an hour about anything that came to mind. "If that tape were still in existence," he laughed, "I would burn it!"

But regardless of the unforeseen mishaps that inevitably come along, Boucher says "I'm as happy as can be." He's working in his hometown market, near the "important people in my life." Boucher, although genial enough, is extremely protective of his private life, never disclosing more than he feels necessary. When asked if he's married, he says, "There are important people in my life." Asked where he went to college, he replies, "I'd rather not say. I have a running feud with my alma mater. I didn't want to become an advertisement for them just because I'm successful." And don't ask him to take a photo. He's never done one in his 10 years at WMJX.

"When I first got here they wanted the obligatory promo photo," he said. "I just wasn't into it. It got to be this running line, 'Oh, Dave won't be photographed.' Now people speculate: 'Is it because he's 500 pounds? Is it because the station won't let him?'" The public will just have to keep on wondering.

Novice trainer Mary Hubert (Jodi Capeless) sings a note-perfect gospel send-up, replete with sweaty mannerisms. Robert Ann (Mary Calanan) makes you wish there were scenery so she could chew some of it in her "I Just Want to be a Star." And Novice Mary Leo (Kimberly Galberaith) moves her apparently ungainly nun's figure beautifully on toe-point as she dances "Soup's On (The Dying Nun Ballet)."

Even among these wonderful comic performances, there has to be a standout. Recent Emerson graduate Jean Tinker as the brain-damaged but well-meaning Sr. Mary Amnesia steals the show with her quavering, dopey sing-song voice and goofy disconnected gestures. Tinker also snaps out of her comic stupor in time to deliver a soulful "I Could Have Gone to Nashville," with just the right touch of country twang.

"I didn't even see the show before I did it this past summer in Connecticut," said Karon Lewis, who plays Mother Superior. The director changed a lot of stuff from what he had us do in Connecticut to account for the smaller stage - so I do a lot more physical, Lucille Ball-stuff. I still don't know if that routine works."

"Well, it's not Shakespeare," said cast member Jodi Capeless, "but it is a lot of fun. All Nunsense claims to be is two hours of lighthearted fun. It doesn't want to be insulting to the Roman Catholic Church. Our best audiences, in fact are the clergy. They come in habits and clerical collars and really enjoy the show. One nun came up to me after the show and said, 'I saw some people in the audience who looked like they were offended, and I just wanted to rush over to them and tell them to come on—it's all in fun!'"

In addition to Nunsense, Capeless is also an award-winning Boston Caberet. She went on to say, "The reason I think that the show works, and can sell, is because it's a small show. People know they're going to have a good time when they come here."

Nunsense' dinner/theater packages are also available - with the usual limited, pre-set menus - bumping the cost of a ticket up $10 from the modest $22 weeknight and $25 weekend price - but the good news is that you get to eat before and not during the show. You can also choose between either the redoubtable European Restaurant or Paolo Ristorante, the house restaurant for Theatre Lobby. Either way, like Nunsense itself, it's a sure bet.

For further information and reservations call (617) 227-9872.

The Leisu

Hockeyfest '92

While Olympic ice hockey players are icing their wounds from Albertville, our own collegiate hockey players are preparing to do battle for the ECAC and Hockey East titles, here in Boston. HOCKEYFEST is an annual event sponsoring these two tournaments. Coverage begins March 12 with the Hockey East semifinals. (New England teams include Beanpot champions, Boston University, Providence, Maine and Northeastern University) The ECAC semi's begin March 13. (Teams include Clarkson, Cornell, Harvard and St. Lawrence) The finals of the Hockey East and ECAC tournaments will be played March 14 starting at 5 pm and 8pm respectively. All other games begin at 5pm. Tickets range from $16 to $14. Save $2 when buying the three night package. Purchase tickets through Ticketpro, at 1-800-828-7080, or, for more information, call the Garden at 227 3206.

Flower Power

Okay flower children; front and center and get those ears prepared to perch the grooviest flowers of 1992. It's time to forego the love-in and attend the 121st New England Spring Flower Show sponsored by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society. The show will be held at the Bayside Exposition Center from March 14 through the 22. This year's "indoor Woodstock" of flowers is called "Rediscover the Americas," celebrating the beauty of North, South and Central America with over 60 landscapes. On March 20, there is even a "Rainforest Festival" with music, theatre, and native foods of the various regions. Participants even have an opportunity to make their own Rainforest! Purchase festival tickets separately and general admission tickets in advance at Stop and Shop stores or Out of Town Tickets. Tickets can also be purchased at the Bayside Expo Center during the show or charged by phone at 1-800-442-1854. Senior and childrens discounts are available.

Tea with The Dead

How can both men and women celebrate Women's History Month without Mr. Testosterone feeling a bit like a "girly man" you ask? Let him Ghostbust - of course! To commemorate the spirit of the pioneering and gallant leaders who played a prominent role in the advancement of women, the Women's Heritage Trail presents Tea for Ten. Every March Tuesday night at the Cornucopia Restaurant is the "Conversations" series of talks hosted by such illustrious women as Louisa May Alcott and others who visited the Cornucopia during the 1840's when it was a bookstore and publishing house. At the time, Margaret Fuller, who was the editor of "The Dial" held 'Conversations' to discuss womens' issues. The tradition "lives" on throughout March. Tickets are $10 and the proceeds benefit the National Women's heritage Foundation. For more information and reservations, call Dr. Patricia Morris at 248-9828. Just remember, "don't cross the beams!"

RE STUDY

The Anti-Gravity Scarf

Did you ever hear of a scarf that could stand up on its own? Jay Tormey, an advertising copywriter in Revere, has invented the Smart Scarf. Made with a mysterious anti-gravity material, Smart Scarf is not only entertaining but also practical. No need to tuck it in. Smart Scarf can't slip off or blow away. According to Tormey, "People put one on and something happens. They can't stop playing." This wild new invention has already hit some of the trendier stores in town, like Toppers on Newbury Street and The High Hat Boutique at the Omni Parker House. Pick one up before they get snatched off of the shelves, or call Offbeat Enterprises at 286-3883.

The Monsters are in Aisle Three

Is your home stocked with boring Knicknacks that reek of the 80's? Well it's time for Spring cleaning Babe! Pay a visit to the Toucan shop, an artist's consignment store in Harvard Square where things are just waiting to "possess" or decorate your establishment. It could be called abstract art, but Steve Gallagher's creations step out of the frame and make other works run and hide. "Teeth and eyes are the medium in which I work" says Gallagher of his monster creations which range from Mexican style Day-of-the-Dead like skeletons to the cute little Elmo monster that's gone beer swilling and psychopathic. The little devils range in price from $16 to $60 and one can even order a custom creation. A scary thought. For more information about the acquisition of your new pet, call Steve Gallagher at 576-3031.

LA TRENDS

Our National Trends Analyst/Surfer, Louis C. Horowitz and nightlife analyst, Rat Mac, can't seem to get enough of the trends on the west coast. Says Horowitz, "A phenomena in the trends of L.A. is the 'delayed trend.' It's like an oxymoron. Trends should come and go but this one is stalled. Maybe there's something more to it, but the Wild West is everywhere. It won't leave L.A. People still love to wear anything that's western. Not just cowboy boots, but cowboy hats, bollo ties and even spurs."
Horowitz says that the truly hip can be seen surfing and rollerblading while sporting spurs on their blades and booties. "They think it's rad but there are some accidents. "Some blade fanatics have reportedly broken their ankles, and in the process, cut themselves up pretty badly - no thanks to the spurs!"

Here's what's on the crest of activity: Nighttime surfing is causing an uproar on the beach. Lifeguards are being paid overtime and the city has been forced to invest in infrared goggles for them to watch the surf." . . . Rat Mac says the singles scene has heated up - this time on the pavement of L.A.'s highways: "Love seekers with car phones have their names and numbers pasted on their left side window. It's a great way to meet people. From what I've seen lately, this trend is going to grow out of control in the next few months." "Pick-up plates," as they're called, will be around for a while but there's another short term rager happening in the burbs. Rat Mac has observed "sewage surfers" - die hard dudes with hardcore wetsuits. It seems that the floods actually can provide some entertainment. As for other trends? "They're invented everyday but these are the hottest. Don't worry, Boston. I'll be back in a few so hang onto your undershort Or, if you're hip, wear them on the outside of your jeans."

DINING

BUDGET BITES

BLACK GOOSE

by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

The Black Goose began as a little lunch place serving a small but beautifully prepared selection of Italian dishes. Those days it went under the Italian translation of its name (Oca Nera); for whatever reason, it has been the Black Goose for several years now. As you enter, the aroma of garlic wafts seductively from the open kitchen. A large bar divides the two contemporary dining areas; at the front, the twenty foot high ceiling and white corinthian columns create an open area, while the lower ceiling at the back provides a more intimate setting.

The after-work crowd descends upon the Black Goose like the proverbial horde of locusts, and until about 7:30 pm it can be difficult to find a table. The atmosphere is festive and animated. As the evening progressses, however, the pace slows and the restaurant becomes more intimate. There are three reasons for the early evening crowds: Monday-Friday from 5-6pm, free appetizers are served at the bar (the selection changes daily), the bar is blessed with a friendly barman (Ken) and a piano player entertains until 7:00pm.

If you choose to dine in the restaurant, you will be pleasantly surprised at the prices, as only two of the entrees are priced over $10.00 (unusual for an Italian restaurant outside of the North End). An added bonus for music lovers is the live jazz played Thursdays-Saturdays from 7:30-11:30pm.

The menu offers a good selection, ranging from soups, salads and sandwiches to pastas, pizzas and main courses. Depending on your hunger pangs, you can nibble or indulge in a full meal. We found both hits and misses among the dishes we tried, but on balance, had a very good value for the money. Servings were generous and most were well executed.

Black Goose
21 Beacon Street, Boston, tel. 720-4500.
Hours: Lunch Mon-Fri; dinner Mon-Sat Credit Cards: All major Reservations: Accepted Handicapped: Step up at front, otherwise fully accessible.

We liked the Grilled Vegetable Plate ($6.95), an appetizer easily big enough for two to share. This dish boasted of grilled seasonal vegetables, served with a tasty parmesan dipping sauce; it was marred only by the undercooked eggplant. We tried the Margheritta pizza ($6.95), and this was what really disappointed us; the base was so undercooked it stuck to the roof of the mouth, while the tomato sauce on it was too spicy for our taste; this style of pizza is traditionally made with plain tomatoes. Once we tried the main courses, however, all was forgiven!

The Chicken Marsala ($8.25) was cooked perfectly, and the sauce was so increasingly addictive that we began to suspect the presence of a controlled substance (just kidding!). Shiitaki mushrooms in the sauce were a nice extra touch. A daily special we sampled was Scallops scampi ($9.95) - scallops cooked scampi style and served over pepper fettucini. The scallops were tender, and we loved the balanced yet garlicky sauce (It contained such generous quantities of capers, that we were sure the restaurant was making a loss on this entree.

For dessert, we selected the tiramisu, but it was not one of the best we have tasted and the Snickers pie, being very dense, rich and heavy.

Service was surprisingly slow the night we were there, with lapses of forgetfulness. The bread looked delicious, but we can't comment on that - we never got any. That's one way of enticing us back.

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

THE EXCEPTIONAL GOURMET CHINESE RESTAURANT WITH EMPHASIS ON VALUE, WITHOUT THE COMPROMISE OF QUALITY & SERVICE.
DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE TO BOSTON AND BROOKLINE
NOBLE HOUSE
1306 Beacon Street, Coolidge Corner in Brookline 232-2378
Serving Dim Sum Sat & Sun, Noon 'til 3.

Massachusetts' Oldest Italian Caffe
Caffè dello Sport
Homemade Cakes and Desserts.
The Best Cannolis and Espresso in Town.
308 Hanover St., North End 523-5063

The Movable Feast

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN'S RESTAURANT REVIEW

DADDY - O'S

by Al Stankus

Dennis Stein

A tip of the beret to Daddy-O's.

In a time of hype and star chefs, there was such an honest feel to this place that one can't help but to wish them success. And along the way, we got some pretty good food to match the very good vibes.

As the name indicates, there's a campy Bohemian feel to the place right down to the Thelonious Monk-looking characters on the wall and life-sized soft sculptures of beatnick musicians. Too cool.

Now that you have the design scene, let's sum up the food. Affordably-priced (thanks to plenty of "small plates"), the fare combines updated diner food, nouvelle-Jewish twists and hardwood grilling. And they serve weekend brunch in addition to dinners.

Daddy - O's
134 Hampshire Street
Cambridge • 354-8371
Sat-Sunday brunch
11 am - 3pm

Dinner, Tue-Sat.
5 - 10pm
MC,V,and DI
Beer and wine
Reservations for large parties only

After sampling each menu, we concluded that dinner at Daddy-O's is definitely the way to go.

In the brunch starter category, their New Orleans style beignets ($2.50 for three) were superb. Dusted with powdered sugar and served piping hot, these puffy, homemade donuts are a perfect way to start brunch.

A good egg dish is the signature Eggs Daddy-O ($6.00). Served in a ramekin, this is a chunky hash composed of potatoes, chorizo, and grilled red peppers. It's topped with two over-easy eggs (for some reason, they don't poach eggs) napped with a slightly tangy sauce made from chipotle peppers and mixed into sour cream.

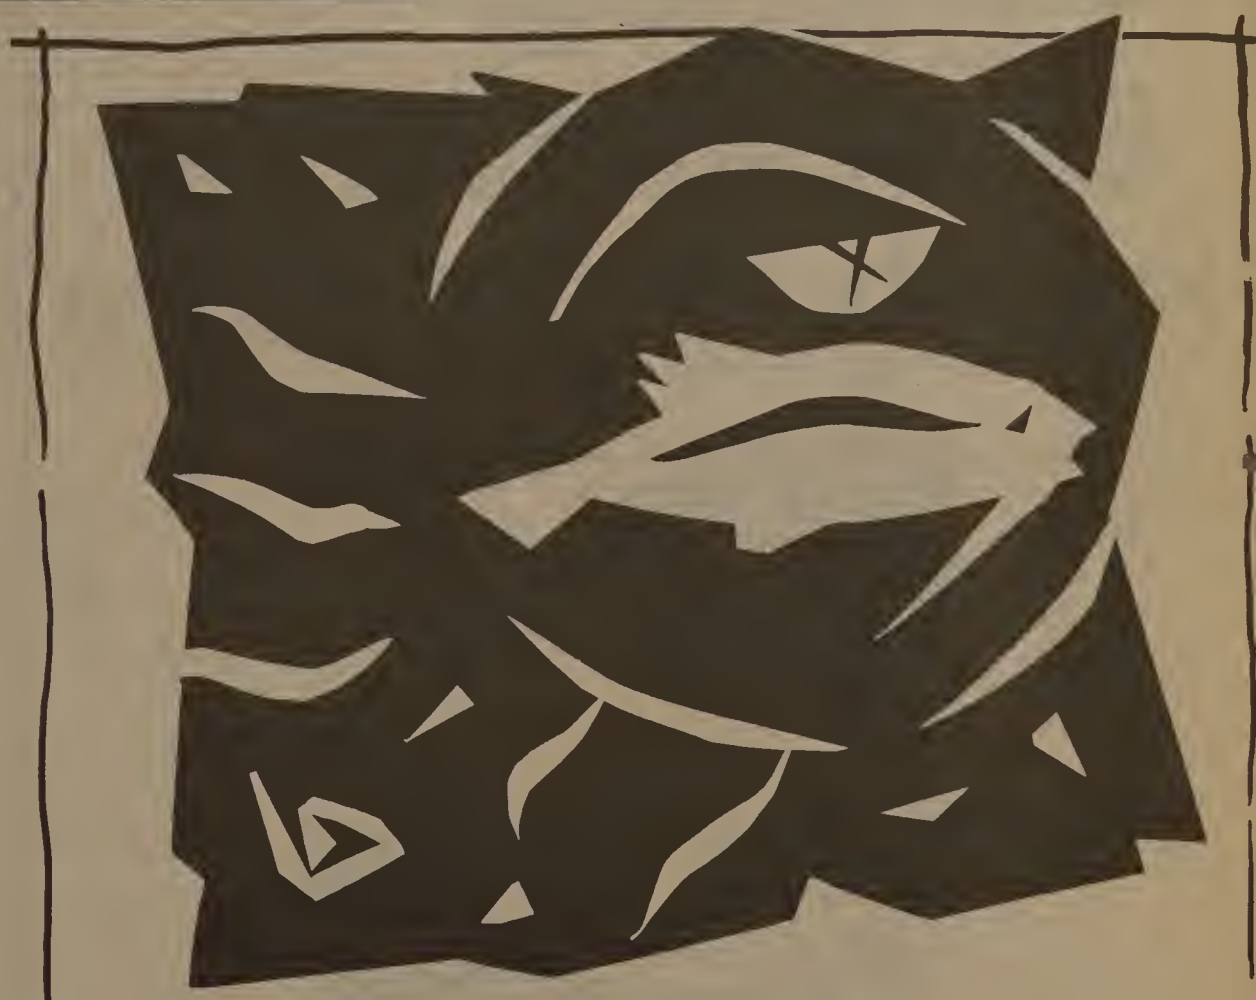
The cheese blintzes were a disaster, chiefly because the cheese separated in the cooking process. However, they came with a very good, fruited maple syrup dressing (thoughtfully served on the side).

The grilled vegetable appetizer plate ($4.50) contained zucchini, scallions, onions, red peppers and eggplant - all cooked on the grill. A larger entrée version(grilled and oven roasted) costs $9.50.

Dinner is wonderfully eclectic. For starters, there's the nosh plate ($7.50), a perfect light meal or a shared first course made up of a wonderful, deep-fried cheese stuffed potato croquette, some stuffed cabbage, and thin strips of spicy eggplant.

A real star was the chicken hash ($9.50). Like the brunch hash, this too was more chunky and creamy. It mixed together what tasted like morsels of chicken breast with sweet potatoes, onions, and red peppers in a rich, full-flavored curry.

They also fry up some dandy mussel fritters ($4) served with a curry-spiced mayo dipping sauce. The same good deep fry that distinguished the mussel fritters came through in the simply-named "fish-fry" ($9). Milky white fish (hake) arrived crisp and non-greasy. Sharing the plate were some excellent fries, along with a tangy slaw of marinated cucumbers.



For their charcoal-grilled chicken, you get half of a crisp-skinned, moist bird set on top of a huge mound of skin-on, sweet-tasting redskin potatoes. Hail to comfort food.

While we never told, and our friendly waitress never asked, how we wanted the special grilled lamb chop cooked, it arrived a perfect medium-rare. Full of grill flavor and thick, this was a great piece of meat. It came with a side of delicious white beans served at room temperature and some great smoky -tasting grilled eggplant topped with melted gruyere.

There are some very good desserts including fruit pies, cheesecake, and fruited bread puddings, all affordable ($2.75-$3.75).

And speaking of affordable, Daddy-o's must be commended for its beer and wine list. They serve Rolling Rock for $1.50, as well as a small selection of good ports and sherries from $3 a glass. There are some hard ciders ($7.50), and a small wine list with the likes of the Chateau Paraza Minervois ($11) and Trefethen Eschol White ($12.50) at markups that are well below what almost any other restaurant would charge.

Quite simply, every neighborhood could use a restaurant like Daddy-O's.

Taste the ~~Old~~ New Southwest!

It's more fresh and alive at the Cactus Club than ever! Featuring traditional and innovative foods at affordable prices. We got it all! Choose from our Daily Specials, Fresh Fish selection, or our "Heart Smart" and Vegetarian dishes. Our Hearty Brunch is sure to please any hungry crowd. It's Southwestern cuisine in the heart of Boston, just acoss from the Hynes Convention Center.

So whether you have a taste for nachos with all the fixings, a sizzling fajita and a cold margarita, or something just a little out of the ordinary come on down and relax with a taste of the "New Southwest".

939 Bolylston St., Boston 02116 236-0200
Lunch, Brunch, Dinner, Outdoor Cafe.

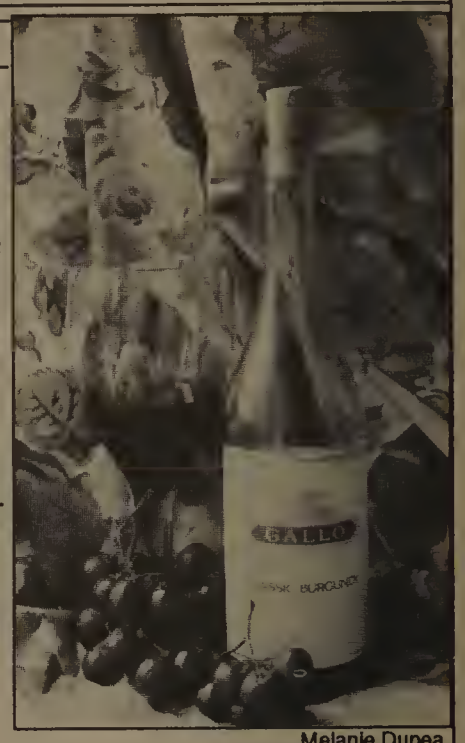
CACTUS CLUB
RESTAURANT AND BAR

Caffé Vittoria

4 Level Caffe
3 Full Coffee Bars • 1 Non-Smoking Caffe
Serving 8 am 'til Midnight

296 Hanover St., North End 227-7606

Silver Restaurant Supply Outlet Store



Up to 30% off Mfgs. Prices!
China - Glassware - Silverware
From 20¢ per piece!
New & Used Restaurant Equipment
Closeouts and Discount Items

(617) 884-8700
232 Everett Avenue Chelsea, MA
Just over Tobin Bridge, 1 block from Mystic Mall, opposite Floramo's Steak House

In the Realm of the Spirits

Q & A

by Al Stankus

Melanie Dunea

In my work as a wine consultant, I answer a lot of questions. Last New Year's Eve, a customer wanted to know if there was a good bottle of Champagne for around $3. Questions like this are frequently asked and stream from an addled thought process.

In this column, I'd like to share some of the better questions and what I hope are good answers. If you have any questions you'd like answered about wine, beer or spirits, please send them to: Al Stankus, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station Street-Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146.

- "We're having a party, how much should I buy?"
  If you're serving food, plan on the equivalent of half a bottle (13 ounces of wine) per person. Without food, plan on one bottle for every three people. It's a good idea to always buy more than you'll need so try to find a liquor store that will take back unopened bottles.
- "We're having fish, but I like red wine. Is there anything I can do?"
  The one rule about wine is "drink what you like." While this is broad enough to make any food and wine pairing possible, I still hold some opinions.
  With oysters and clams on the half shell, there's no suitable red wine. However, with some fish, notably salmon and tuna, Pinot Noirs make a better match than any white wine. If the fish is gong to be sauced with tomatoes or strong herbs. even paper thin sole and milky white scrod can stand up to a red wine. Just don't get too heavy.
- "We're having a group of people over to play board games. What would you recommend in 'board game wine'?"
  My single favorite question. Without hesitation, I replied, "Port." Technically a fortified wine, its sipability, sweetness and warming qualities make Port the ideal "board game" choice.
  If the same question was asked in the summer, I'd still think sweet. But rather than high alcohol (20%), room-temperature Port, I'd suggest a demi-sec Vouvray or Italian Moscato from the refrigerator.
- "Why does red wine give me a headache?"
  Grape skins, which produce tannins and allow red wine to age are the culprits. Most often, you'll find that if you're prone to red wine headaches, you also suffer from hay fever, because histimines are found both in pollen and grape skins. For some people, taking two aspirin before they drink red wine eliminates the headache.
- "What's the difference between white zinfandel and red zinfandel?"
  First "red zinfandel" is simply called zinfandel. Although the rise in popularity of white zinfandel has caused much confusion, this noble California grape (incidentally the only place in the world where the grape is grown) has produced deep-toned, rather musty and wonderfully spicy wines for years.
  To make "white zinfandel," the juice for the grape is given minimal contact with the skins. The result is not a white wine, but a blush wine of at best moderate and at worst a cloying sweetness. But there's no arguing with its success. However, success has hurt the cause of "real zinfandel."
  Many people think that it too is sweet and a rather uneventful picnic wine. Nothing could be farther from the truth.
  A great food wine, and a great value, zinfandel goes well with pasta, pizza, roast chicken, steak, and lamb. Some good zinfandels to look for are Quivara Ravenswood, Ridge's Howell Mountain, Caymus, Sausal, Seghesio Reserve, and William Seylem.
  As for white zinfandel, it depends on how sweet you like them.

Appeteasers

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

Congratulations to Rosario Del Nero of Buoniconti's, who has had no fewer than five of his recipes chosen for inclusion in Food & Wine magazine's Best of Food and Wine 1990-91.

Ubi est Waldino? That's the question posed by the angel on Clair Edar's new Lanzarotti mural in Michela's at 1 Atheneum St., Cambridge. In case you haven't guessed, that's Latin for "Where's Waldo?", and trust us, he really is there. See how long it takes you to find him.

Every Saturday in March from 2-4pm, Just Cookbooks at 1815 Mass. Ave., Cambridge will host book signings by cookbook authors. One of these celebrities is Mary Ann Esposito, host of the PBS series Ciao Italia, who will be present on March 14. For additional information, call 864-0006. And incidentally, one of the books currently in stock is Come on In, an award winning community cookbook on Southern food (published by the Junior League of Jackson, Miss.) that received high praise from the New York Times.

And talking of cookbooks, have you ever aspired to be a contributor? If your cooking is bad enough, author Mike Nelson would be glad to hear from you. He is gathering recipes for his planned Worst Cookbook. Send your worst efforts (recipe please, not samples) to: Worst Recipes, P.O. Box 580075, Minneapolis, MN 55458. You'll receive a free copy of the book if your contribution is printed.

Women for Wine Sense, "a pro-active organization to educate women about the responsible and moderate consumption of wine" has begun a Boston Chapter. For more information, write to WWS, 35 Mont Fern Ave., Brighton, MA 02135.

You may have already tried the French version, but have you ever encountered Italian black truffles? Ristoranto Toscano at 41 Charles St., Boston, tel. 723-4090 will have these delicacies on the menu until the end of the month.

International Restaurants of Central Square, an organization of 13 independent restaurant owners, will soon be issuing a brochure offering $50 worth of discounts at participating restaurants. Customers will be eligible to win a prize consisting of $1000 worth of gift certificates. The restaurants involved are: La Groceria, India Pavilion, 798 Main, Green Street Grill, Toscanini's, Korea Garden, Ghandi, George's Pub & Grill, Al's Lunch, Middle East, Oh Calcutta, T.T. the Bear's Place and Asmara. For more information, call 876-4162.

Some juicy tidbits...Belated congratulations to K.T. Leary of the Tam on the birth of her daughter Shannon...Expect a new and exciting look in Michela's Caffe M very soon - we hear she has ordered yards of parachute material...It's rumored that Jim Dodge, baker extraordinaire, will be in town before long...Nichola's Cafe recently opened at 1628 Beacon St., Brookline, tel. 739-1114. They specialize in pizza, calzones and hearty sandwiches...Another recently opened eatery is the Kenmore Cafe at 359 Comm. Ave., Boston, tel. 536-4444, a family run American/Middle Eastern oasis with low, low prices...Welcome Wayne Lipinski, the new baker in charge of desserts at Michela's...We found a terrific red zinfandel at the recent Wine Expo: Robert Mondavi's Woodbridge Zinfandel 1990, costing $6.50 at Kenmore Wine Inc. at 514 Comm. Ave (536-0455).

"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes."

Come for our Spinaci di Casa!

Famous in and outside of Boston, this appetizer boasts of spinach, lightly sautéed in olive oil, with fresh garlic, Cannellini beans and Italian Prosciutto.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO

"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

- 109 SALEM STREET, NORTH END BOSTON -

L'Osteria Restaurant

Italian Cuisine

NEW LUNCH MENU WITH PRICES STARTING AT $4.50

sun., tues., wed., thurs. 11:30a -10:00p

friday, saturday 11:30a - 11:00p

FOR RESERVATIONS, CALL (617) 723-7847

Felicia's

CUCCINA ROMANA

WINES & BEER

ROOM FOR PARTIES

UP ONE FLIGHT

ALL FOOD COOKED TO ORDER

145A Richmond Street
Boston, MA
(617) 523-9885

Parking at Gov't Ctr. Garage $3

月宮酒家

MOON VILLA

Authentic, Wholesome Chinese Dining at affordable prices.

Seafood is our specialty!

For something new try our delicious DIM SUM available 10 am- 3 pm Saturday and Sunday.

We're only a short walk from the Theatre District, located in the heart of Chinatown. Discounts given with valid tickets 5:00 pm- 7 pm. Free Parking after 6:00 pm.

15-19 Edinboro Street
(617) 423-2061

CAFFE POMPEI

Open 7 Days 'til 4 am

The afterhours caffe that serves everything from pizza to pasta. Full dinner menu including award winning home made ice cream and desserts. 10% off Sunday through Thursday.

280 Hanover St. in the North End. 227-1562

ARARAT

RESTAURANT

House of Middle Eastern & Armenian B. B. Q. Center

ROTISSERIED CHICKEN (FAROUJ) $6.20

SHAWERMA $3.99

HOMMOS $2.50

SHISH KEBOB $3.50

LOSH KEBOB $3.50

FALAFEL $2.75

TABOULEH $2.50

EAT IN TAKE OUT

WE SERVE BEER AND WINE

71 Arlington street 924-4100
Watertown 924-7011

At We're Really Swissôtel

MATT GARRETT'S

LUNCHEON SPECIALS
11:30 AM 'til 3:30 PM
Monday thru Friday
Except Holidays
From $5.25

EARLY BIRDS
3:30 PM 'til 5:30 PM
Monday thru Friday
Except Holidays
$6.95 Per Person

ALL NEW WING NIGHT
All Day Every Tuesday
$1.99

MATT GARRETT'S just installed its first natural fire grill in Brookline which uses all natural charwood and a variety of greenwoods for added flavor. The result of grilling in this fashon is a tantalizing experience to your taste buds. So come join us in Brookline at MATT GARRETT'S and taste the difference.

SUNDAY BRUNCH
11:00 AM 'til 3:00 PM
Prices from $5.95

Route 20 SUDBURY 508-443-9957
Westgate Mall BROCKTON 508-584-4514
Howland Place NEW BEDFORD 508-990-8838
Coolidge Corner BROOKLINE 508-738-6635

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown
242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Capucino's
1370 Beacon St., Brookline 731-4848
Located in Coolidge Corner, this "authentically Italian" café offers a scrumptious buffet brunch. Fresh fruit, hot and cold pasta dishes and baglettes are just some of the buffet items you can nibble on while imbibing such complimentary beverages as amaretto milk punch. If you're feeling amorous, share an omelette for two. À la carte items are also available. Sun. 10am-2:30pm. $9.95 for buffet; $4.95 for children.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Cityside
1960 Beacon St., Bri. 566-1002
Join students and young professionals over bloodies-for-two and fresh muffins with eggs. Belgian waffles are a favorite!
Sun. 11am-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

The Dover Grill & Cafe
1223 Beacon St., Brookline. 566-7000
Under new management, the Dover offers a sumptuous selection of buffet items including Belgian waffles, seafood quiche, hand-carved London Broil and Omelettes. Brunch is served 11am-3pm for $13.95.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Sardou is a lovely combination of poached eggs, creamed spinach and Hollandaise sauce. that though well portioned still leaves space for their raisin bread pudding or Creme Caramel. The Creole Omelette or the Chicken Clemenceau are other entrees that are sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz Brunch from 11am-2:15pm. Sun. 10:30am-2:15pm.

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. $14.95 all you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge
354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its lively atmosphere and tasty dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, served with sour cream and apple sauce, or if you're in the mood for eggs, one of their many well prepared omelette variations. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendiplty III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Sibel's
100 Peterborough St., Bos. 267-7346
Casual Sibel's offers traditional and nouveau breakfast items. Try the kiwi pancakes! Enjoy modest prices and a commodious outdoor patio. Sat. and Sun. 10:30am-3pm.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

Veronique at Longwood Towers
20 Chapel St., Brookline 731-4800
Brunch to classical guitar music. Feast upon French continental cuisine in elegant surroundings. Menu specialties include sweet cheese crèpes and homemade French toast. Sun. 11:30am to 3pm.

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Acapulco
266 Newbury St., Bos. 247-9126 MC,V
$
Looking for a quiet place to escape the throngs of shoppers, tourists and lookers on Newbury Street? Take a walk down the stairs into the easily missed entrance of Acapulco. They feature a variety of authentic fajitas, enchiladas, and much more. The atmosphere is relaxing, modest and a break from the many fast-paced Southwestern restaurants in town. Dishes range from $6 to $12. Open Sunday through Thursday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 10:30 p.m.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100
$
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V
$$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

Back Bay Bistro
565 Boylston St., Bos. 536-4477 A,MC,V
$$$
The Bistro is a quiet and trendy spot. They not only offer Boston's widest array of wines by the glass, but a sumptuous menu that boasts of sauteed Maine crab cakes, roast garlic-glazed chicken andsauteed salmon with crisp leeks and raspberry beurre rouge. Not for nightowls - the bistro closes by 11pm, even on weekends. Don't leave without trying one of their homemade desserts.

BIBA
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V
$$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose
21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D
$
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Blue Wave
142 Berkley St., Bos. 424-6711 A,MC,V
$$$
Fine continental California cuisine served in healthy portions in fun and spacious surroundings. Sit at glass tables that are actually mini-sandboxes and take in the colorful art work. One menu highlight, in addition to daily pizza, pasta and fish specials, is ceviche - a fresh tuna steak marinated with lime juice and spices. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat. dinner only. Sun. 11am-5pm for brunch.

Bnu
123 Stuart St., Bos. 367-8405 D,MC,V
$$
Located in the Transportation Building near the Theater District, this fresh Italian restaurant makes you feel as if you're dining at a Roman street café. The pizzas are consistently excellent - try the chicken and pesto. And the spaghetti with grilled sausage, plum tomatoes and mixed herbs is an "old favorite". Lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner nightly.

Cactus Club
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V
$$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Carlo Marinos
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltinboca alla Romano - veal layered with proscuitto with fresh sage, sauteed in wine; Spinacci di Cosa - spinach sauteed with garlic oil, cannelini beans and proscuitto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Casa Portugal
1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V
$
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Casa Romero
30 Gloucester St., Bos. 536-4341 MC,V
$$
Muy Romantico! Just off Newbury St., you can find creative Mexican food in a Mexican colonial setting. You'll feel immediately at ease as you let your stress go over reputedly the best margaritas in town. Chef Mendoza does an outstanding job with specialties such as puerco adobado (tenderloin of pork with smoked peppers and oranges). Catch the early bird special (5-7pm) and pay $15 for an appetizer, entrée, dessert and Mexican coffee. Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266
$$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V
$$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846
$
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

The Daily Catch
323 Hanover St., Bos. 523-8567 261 Northern Ave., Bos. 338-3093
One Kendall Sq., Camb. 255-2300
$$
This restaurant is a squid affecionado's fantasy realized. Relax at red-check covered tables while you watch the chef cook your dinner over a roaring fire, and then eat straight out of the pan! Calamari scampi, calamari "meat" balls in marinara sauce or Calamari stuffed or fried. Other shellfish and pasta dishes also available. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Dali
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V
$$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
5 Cambridge Parkway(at the Royal Sonesta Hotel), Camb. 661-4810
204 Washington St., Brookline
A,V,D,D,MC
$$$
Located on one of Boston's most distinctive streets, Davios in Boston captures the true flavor of Newbury Street. Downstairs, you'll experience the finest in Northern Italian dining in a cozy and friendly setting. Uniquely prepared homemade pasta, veal and seafood dishes are specialties. The upstairs and outdoor cafe feature salads, pasta, sandwiches and pizza (with 26 toppings). The Brookline and Cambridge locations are equally accomodating. Lunch from 11:30am and dinner from 5-11pm. Reservations are strongly suggested.

The Dover Grill & Cafe
1223 Beacon St., Brookline 566-7000
A,MC,V
$$
Elegant dining in a charming Victorian-style restaurant. Under new management, the Dover has created a diverse grilled menu, with moderate prices. Expect some changes that include a scrumptious Norwegian salmon with roasted red pepper and hazelnut and sundried tomato pesto. The new Cafe offers mouth watering grilled pizzas on weekdays. Available for functions. Enjoy a fine bouquet of wine from their extensive list. Restaurant hours are from 5:30-10:00pm. Cafe hours are from 4:00-10:00pm. Reservations accepted.

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038
$$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

East Coast Grill
1271 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-6568
$$$
Deservedly the critics rave, this tiny "fun and funky" spot offers excellent cuisine and a lively atmosphere to a packed house nightly. Southern BBQ and fresh fish specials cooked on a wood-burning grill. Try the Jamaican beef from hell (beef strips, sugar cane and spices), mahi mahi with mango chutney, and for the brave, add a dash of Wow to your giant plate with one of four distinctive Inner Beauty Hot Sauces. Dinner nightly. On weekends, expect a wait. Reservations.

El Phoenix Room
1430 Commonwealth Ave., Brighton 566-8590
$
Self proclaimed, "the oldest Mexican restaurant in Boston", El Phoenix Room provides Spanish American ambiance and cheap eats to regulars daily. Wash down superb chile and bulging burritos with a few Dos Equis. Don't let the ramshackle facade intimidate you. Luncheon specials for the frugal diner at $2.95. No reservations.

Felicia's
145A Richmond St., Bos. 523-9885
AM,D,MC,V
$$
Old-fashioned family-style dining in the North end. Twirl up some Southern Italian chow and keep your eyes peeled for such personalities as Steve Martin and Bob Hope. Have beer and wine with your meal or drinks in the upstairs lounge. Reservations on weekends. Open daily for dinner. Lunch only on Sun.

Goemon Japanese Noodle Restaurants
267 Huntington Ave., Bos. 859-8669 1 Kendall Sq., Bldg. 100, Camb. 577-9595
$
Go easy on your wallet and have fun picking from a variety of traditional Japanese appetizers and noodle dishes: Soba- high energy buckwheat noodles (great for body builders), Udon - thick wheat noodles and Ramen - curly whole wheat noodles. Noodles in a hot or chilled broth that you can add to à la carte whatever

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Buy one entreé and get a second entreé of equal or lesser value
FREE
Good Sunday - Thursday
Not valid for Take-out or Delivery
Tax based on full value of meal Offer good until April 15, 1992

Signature _____ Date _____

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA
(Behind Star Market in the Fenway)
424-7070

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

FEATURES

toppings excite you. Upscale, modern decor. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V
$$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Icarus
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V
$$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

India Samraat
51A Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 247-0718
$
Stroll into this genuine Indian restaurant and sample some chicken tikka masala, a favorite of their regulars. Try another popular specialty dish, the non-vegetarian Thali. Service is excellent in this exposed-brick interior and Indian paintings adorn the walls. Samraat also offers take out and delivery. Lunch from 12-3pm and dinner 5-11pm weeknights, 12-11pm on weekends.

Jasper's
240 Commercial St., Bos. 523-1126 D,MC,V
$$$$
Jasper White is rightly lauded for his waterfront establishment's outstanding consistency. The service is impeccable without being snooty, the decor pleasantly contemporary and the food sublime. Jasper likes to take simple plebeian dishes and add to them subtle nuances and spice. Try the signature pan roasted lobster with chevril and chives and the baked chocolate bread and butter pudding for dessert. Appropriate dress. Open Tue.-Sat. for dinner.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835 A,D,MC,V
$$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

King & I
145 Charles St., Bos. 227-3320 259 Newbury St., Bos. 437-9611 D,MC,V
$$
You won't find Yule Brenner; but you will find great Thai food. Try the chicken and coconut soup and the shrimp in love. Open daily for lunch (except Sat.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700
$$$
Legals, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch avail. in burbs.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Rattlesnake
382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. And if you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Rocco's
5 Charles St. South, Transportation Bldg., Bos. 723-6800 A,D,MC,V
$$
Dine on an all-Italian menu which includes vermicelli puttanesca (pasta with an olive oil tomato sauce, capers and shallots), and don't miss their grilled green salad (greens marinated in olive oil and grilled). You'll dine under cathedral high ceilings and play with the folk art pieces on each table-they're for sale. Frescoes of putti and hanging sculptured suits add to Rocco's overall cheer. Desserts, including apricot bread pudding are the best part, so save room! You can sit at the long cherry wood bar that also functions as a gallery. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Shalimar of India
546 Massachusetts Ave., Camb. 547-9280 A,MC,V
$
This Indian dive/restaurant at Central Sq. specializes in Northern Indian cuisine. After some pakoras (spinach and cauliflower deep-fried in chickpea batter) and raita (yogurt and cucumber), choose from several chicken and shrimp tandoori (baked in a clay oven) and curry plates. Lunch Mon.-Sat. Dinner daily. Relax over chaiy (Indian tea) at the Sun. buffet-style brunch from 12:00-3pm.

Sorento's
86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V
$$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

St. Botolph Restaurant
99 St. Botolph St., Bos. 266-3030 A,D,MC,V
$$$
Dine in a trendy polished café or eat more formally upstairs. Either way, you'll love the Italian (café fare) and Continental cuisine (upstairs) offered at this charming brownstone establishment. One critics' pick is the noisettes of lamb with tarragon fettucini, goat cheese and spinach topped off with an ample slice of white chocolate cheesecake. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sun. brunch 11:30am-3pm.

Union Oyster House
41 Union St., Bos. 227-2750 A,D,MC,V
$$
Opened in 1826, this Boston landmark is the oldest restaurant in continuing business in the U.S. Their raw oyster bar, where you can still gobble down oysters, littlenecks and cherrystones, was often a hangout for Daniel Webster. If raw isn't your bag, you can order up the popular crab cakes in Newburg sauce or broiled scrod. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771 MC,V,A,D,D
$$
Located next to the Children's Museum and overlooking Boston Harbor and the Boston Tea Party Ship, you'll experience casual dining in a railroad atmosphere surrounded by authentic 'Victoria Station' artifacts. Early-bird specials include prime rib and seafood specialties. Pub menu available until midnight. Open Sun.-Sat., 11:30am to 1am.

CELTICS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

MARCH

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1	2	3	4 ORL 7:30	5	6 LAC 7:30	7
8 ORL 7:30	9	10 MIA 7:30	11 CHI 8:00	12	13 NJ 7:30	14
15 POR Noon	16	17 MIL 8:30	18 CLE 7:30	19	20 DET 8:00	21
22 GS 2:30	23	24	25 NJ 7:30	26	27 DET 7:30	28
29 ATL 7:30	30	31

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 WSH 7:30	2	3 IND 8:00	4
5 CHI Noon	6	7 CLE 7:30	8 NY 7:30	9	10 MIL 7:30	11
12 CHA 6:00	13	14 PHI 7:30	15 DET 8:00	16	17	18
19 MIA 1:00	ALL GAMES ON 590 WEEI AM TV AWAY GAMES ON FOX 25

Home Away Hartford

BRUINS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

MARCH

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1	2	3	4	5 VAN 7:35	6	7 CHI 1:35
8 CHI 2:35	9	10	11 BUF 7:35	12	13	14 QUE 7:35
15 LA 7:05	16	17	18	19 ST.L 7:35	20	21 EDM 1:35
22	23 SJS 7:35	24	25	26 NJ 7:45	27	28 BUF 1:35
29	30	31 QUE 7:35

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2 QUE 7:35	3	4 MON 8:05
5 HRT 7:05

Away Home

TV HOMEGAMES ON NESN
TV AWAY GAMES ON WSBK 38

Best Bets:

Amsterdam's

All eyes are on the Park Plaza Hotel watching for the arrival of Amsterdam's.

Keep your eyes on the Park plaza hotel, for the upcoming opening of Amsterdam's Bar and Rotisserie. This American style bistro, a descendent of Italian and French tastes features specialties like rotisserie cooked chicken and fish, grilled pizza and daily pasta specialties. A lunchtime favorite at their Newport and Manhatten locations is the Spit Roasted Chicken Sandwich (w/ avocado, smoked gouda, tomato and green herb mayonnaise). You'll long for your own permanent table here.after trying a dinner favorite, the Marinated Chicken (half chicken marinated in white wine, green peppercorn sauce w/avocado, roasted peppers, Calamata Olives and toasted garlic, served at room temperature). At Amsterdam's, the all-tempting menu and marbled bar interior will take you far, far away from the hastles of big city life. Call 426-1111 for more information.

Zuma's TEX-MEX Cafe, Downstairs, 7 N. Market St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace

$5 off a Haircut With Mention of The Improper Bostonian $5

LORD'S & LADY'S HAIR SALONS SM

Downtown Boston
102 Tremont Street
(corner of Bromfield Street)
Mon. - Fri. 8am-6pm
Wed. - Thurs. 8am-7pm
Sat. 9am-5pm

Expires Saturday, March 22

(617) 451-5359

Call For Appointment

There's Trendy, Then There's Bartels

by Raymond Krise

E.O. Bartels Custom Clothiers, Boston's oldest tailors of bespoke duds, celebrated their one hundredth anniversary last month by opening a second store, in the prestigious first block of Newbury Street. Bartels has been suiting New England's most powerful businessmen and politicians for a century, producing elegant and long-wearing suits from the most fabulous fabrics in the world - at a price often about half charged for suits in boutiques and chi-chi department stores. By opening a store at 36 Newbury (in addition to their long-standing location in the Financial District), Bartels' owner, Ralph DeConto, intends to make the point that Bartels is not just for sober bankers and conservative Brahmins.

E.O. Bartel, a German, opened his shop on Corn Hill, in Scolly Square where Government Center now stands, in 1891. The first Bartels was a two-story home. Three other people owned the business before Ralph DeConto and his father (second and third generation tailors themselves) acquired it in 1971. Back in the 1920's, the fellow who was Bartels' owner then was also a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, the 350 year-old marching society that is the country's third oldest active unit. This guy swagged the Ancient and Honorable uniform account, and Bartels has been their official uniform-maker ever since.

DeConto chose Newbury Street "primarily to service clients who we feel are in this area looking for a different type of product - ladies' suits, evening suits - and to let people know that we are here in town," he declared. To be sure, this fashion institute has survived 100 years without becoming even close to threadbare. "For years, we pretty much did the classic business suit, or variations on it; but, as people will see in time, we are also doing a lot more creative fashion, both ladies' and men's suits. We, as a firm, are really looking to develop more style and actually set trends, rather than leaving that up to major stores." Being on Newbury Street, cheek-by-jowel with Giorgio Armani and Joseph Aboud, helps to hammer home that point.

Bartels' clientele has tended to be over age 35 throughout the firm's history, yet DeConto noted åthat "it's actually quite diverse, and we've seen quite a significant younger element as well. Many younger people are more educated about all aspects of society, and certainly clothing; the fact that one doesn't have to buy a 'label' to acquire identity, but can actually create a sense of style for themselves."

DeConto elaborates on options which custom clothing offers. "First, the fabric selection, then the style selection. We take input from the client. We work with those who come in and have a definite opinion of who they are and what they want to wear to project that image, as well as those may not know quite as much of what to expect. We lead them through a series of questions, and discuss with them what might suit their purposes."

Handmade, or bespoke, clothing provides a particular advantage for women clients. DeConto noted that "Different designers have different patterns, where a women might be an 8 (size) in one store and a 7 in another, whereas we work strictly by measurements and draft an individual pattern for them." Bartels keeps their customers' measurements, pattern and materials swatch selections on perpetual file.

DeConto has seen more women switching over to custom - especially businesswomen. "I don't think most women think of custom as a viable option for them," he said. "There is so much out on the market that has catered to their needs up to this point. We may be perceived as a men's shop, but we've made it clear over the past 10 years that it's men's and women's clothing, and the options we present to women cater to their needs as much as - or even more then - what men might require. Women, feeling a lot more secure in the workplace now, don't feel that they have to have that direct business look that they might have thought necessary years ago. Now, they're more comfortable with dressing a bit more feminine, in terms of fabric and cut."

For the current fashion season, Bartels is big on bolder colors, plaids, and vests - for women - and more dressy evening suits for men. "We are doing a lot more of men's evening suits," DeConto said. "That's a suit that could work quite well in an office, yet a gentleman can know he can take it on a trip, or even go into a business dinner and look a little bit more formal." Bartels' clients also remain strong formalwear buyers during the current recession. And they still want vests with their business suits. After all, 100 years of habit dies hard.

Scott Terban

VACATION VALUES!

CHARTER VACATIONS

Aruba 7 Nts. from $699
Thurs., Sat., & Sun. depts. thru 5/30/92 *

Barbados 7 Nts. from $649
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

Cancun 7 Nts. from $519
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/30/92 *

Cozumel 7 Nts. from $749
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

Jamaica 7 Nts. from $719
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/31/92 *

Orlando 7 Nts. from $399
Includes Rental Car! Sat. depts thru 5/30/92.

Nassau 3 Nts. from $499
Friday & Monday departures thru 4/20/92.*

Puerto Plata 7 Nts. from $619
Saturday departures thru 5/30/92

St. Kitts 7 Nts. from $719
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

St. Maarten 7 Nts. from $619
Thurs., Sat., & Sun., depts. thru 5/31/92 *

* 3, 4, 7, & 10 Night Charters Available!

NEW! Puerto Aventuras
TNT's newest destination thru 5/24/92!

HALEY'S BERMUDA

Convenient Bermuda Packages!
• All-Inclusive Packages • Family Packages
• Honeymoon • Golf •Tennis • Watersports

Palm Reef Hotel from $261
EP. Valid 3/16 - 11/15/92.

Harmony Club All Inclusive from $489
DLX. Valid 4/1 - 12/2/92.

Prices are per person, based on double occupancy.

SCHEDULED AIR

- Flexible, round trip scheduled air packages for 3 or more nights available to many of TNT's charter destinations
- All-Inclusive packages, dining plans and tours available for purchase
- Grand Cayman departures from JFK!

176 Newbury St. - Boston
536-1999
5 STAR TRAVEL SERVICE

TNT TRANS NATIONAL TRAVEL

TNT CHARTER VACATIONS INCLUDE: Round trip jet transportation via Key Air, Rich Airways, Trump Airlines or similar; or scheduled air service. Airport fees and immigration fees of $18 to $33 are not included. See Tour Participant Contract in catalog. TNT NEW ENGLAND 2/92.

MUSIC

The Origin Grow Up

by Rey Roldan

Growing old is a scary thing. Ask Fred Savage or Tina Yothers. It's hard to age gracefully without losing you're appeal, but it's even worse when you advertise your age denial. Steven Spielberg hid from middle age so long that Hook, his movie about staying young, was as tired and wrinkled as Mick Jagger and Roger Daltrey. It's also happened to the origin, an evolving rock band from San Francisco whose 1990 single "(I'm Not) Growing Old" was a moderate hit on alternative radio. After two years of touring, writing and growing up, the origin have returned with their second release, Bend (Virgin), a textural atmosphere of waves and emotion and a far cry from their self-titled debut's obsession with three minute pop songs of youthful exuberance. But they aren't exactly taking Geritol either.

"We're only in our early twenties so don't write us off as old folks yet," laughed bassist Topper Rimel. "I just turned 23, Michael [Andrews, vocalist/guitarist] is 24 and Rony [Abada, drums] is 22. I wouldn't exactly say that we've grown old but we have matured." A lot has happened since the band released their debut, including tours with Midnight Oil, Lenny Kravitz and Jesus Jones. While Kravitz and the Oils were a lot closer in sound, Jesus Jones wasn't exactly the scene that the band was accustomed to. "I don't really like those guys nor do I really like their music," he said. "It was fun and those were good shows but it was a weird scene for us. The Midnight Oil tour was more complementary to our sound. We're both rock-based bands, even though they're from Australia."

Touring really pushed the band deeper into introspection and it shows on Bend. "We did four and half months of straight touring for the first time. We were exposed to the recording industry for a couple of years. We realized that we are artists and our goal is to create something real and Bend was the result. We had a vision about how we wanted the album to sound and it came pretty damn close," said Topper with a sudden urgency.

Bend, with its aural landscape and layered sound, comes across as the product of an entirely different band. While its hooks aren't as blatantly obvious as on their debut, Bend's tracks have a comforting quality along the same easy listening lines as Inspiral Carpets' The Beast Inside. "The atmosphere came out more on this record because we were up late at night, rehearsing a lot," he explained. "When you're up late at night and trying to have a good time, you end up making songs a little longer. We read The Guide to Better Music Making for many days and nights. I guess it was a growing thing."

"Growing up and growing old are two different things entirely," assured Topper. "We weren't all friends in the very beginning as every other band claims they were. When Rony was in junior high, I had just started high school. Michael was best friends with my brother. Rony and I had gotten out of a group when we decided to pick up Mike. We got together in '84 and it was a good five years before we got signed to Virgin."

Although the name of the band sounds self-important and rather pompous, the origin of the name is pretty mundane. "We were trying to find a

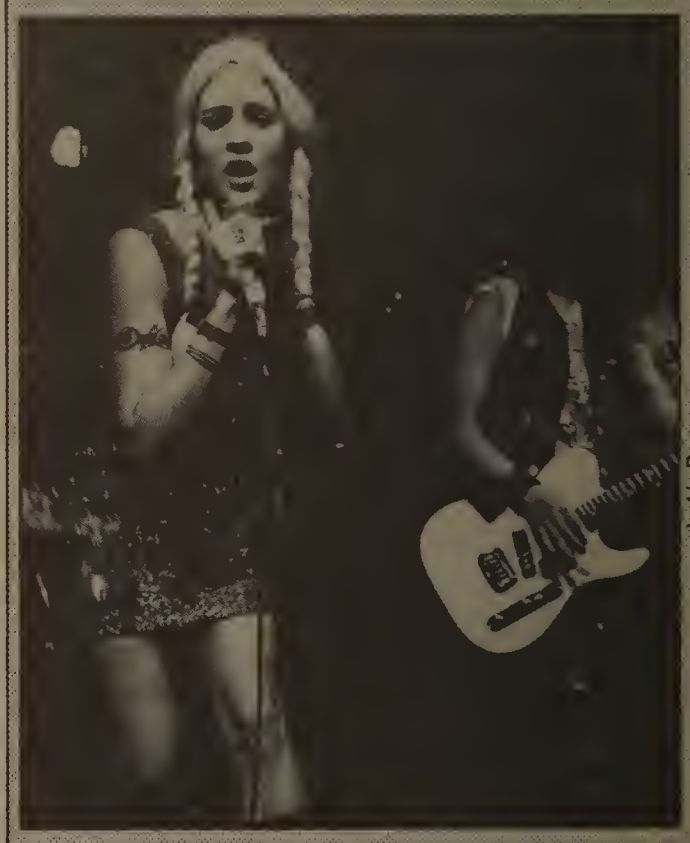
(continued on following page)

Araby Rug Galleries Inc.

In Boston, our selection of antique & modern oriental rugs is simply without peer. So, too, is our location...at Copley Square, just a few short steps from the city's major hotels.

10 to 20% off Araby's entire inventory. An additional 10% off with mention of this ad.

We also offer intelligent and experienced wash and repair. Stop by and visit Mon.-Sat. 9am-6pm, Thurs. eve. until 8pm, and now on Sun. 1-5pm.



667 Boylston St.
267-0012

THESE GIRLS ARE NUTS

by Jannette Tucker

They've been fondly referred to as "chicks with dicks." They've been pelted with dildos on stage and they often complain that they have to go through "a lot of shit" not encountered by guy bands.

But one really has to wonder if some of the not-so-subtle animosity toward these ghetto rockers isn't all that unfounded. Let's face it, some of these Lunachicks were pretty bummed to have been born of the female persuasion. And they did have some fun with that dildo...

Jackie Bayne

This Valentine's Day was packed by lunatic fans who came in droves to the Middle East to thrash and bash.

And the Lunachicks came to shock, as always. Lead singer, Theo, came on stage dressed in a mermaid-ish outfit, complete with blue swimming cap and long blond tresses that were not her own. Guitarist Gina arrived in hair curlers. Attractive.

But enough about their appearance. (Before the show, while drummer Becky was warming up, the audience was abuzz with "That's no chick. That's a man. Get out!") Nobody really cared what they looked like anyway. Aside from many idiots in the crowd chanting "Slut rock!" there's no mistaking that this band is talented. Very talented. Their songs, such as the college radio favorite "Babysitters On Acid" and "Cookie Monster" are short, but let's not call them sweet. They have the crunch of Black Sabbath added to the energy of the Ramones. Where can you wrong?

The only complaint (albeit, a pretty major one) is that the Middle East doesn't seem to know when to quit. The back room was so packed you could barely breath. Add to that all of the thrashing around and you've found yourself in a pretty uncomfortable situation.

But the music was worth it. If you're up for something hip and bone-crunching, look for their next stop through Boston. You won't be disappointed.

MUSIC

The Skewed Fantasies of Edward Ka-Spel

by Rey Roldan

It's sad to think that truly creative music is the least listened to and the most underappreciated. Instead, cheeseball beats and agitated women who sing about sweating and cold-hearted serpents walk home with Grammys, while true artists like Legendary Pink Dots' vocalist Edward Ka-Spel continue to pump out incredible (And hardly noticed) albums on indie labels. Granted, the songs on his recent solo release, Tanith and the Lion Tree (Third Mind Records), are as dance-inspiring as radiator hum, but at least they don't sound like endless remixes of the same song. Ka-Spel has generated a fantastical soundscape of voices, sounds, instruments and perverse nursery rhymes that would cause a brain-warp in those who found Naked Lunch to be an easily digestable film.

"The songs on Tanith and the Lion Tree are really perverse fantasies of my own," laughed Ka-Spel. "I don't think I've ever heard a nursery rhyme where a little girl pulls a lion's teeth out and gives him a straw to suck up all the liquified bees that have been punctured by thorns." His sense of warped reality is more akin to the amorphous surrealism of Salvador Dali than Robyn Hitchcock. While Hitchcock tries almost too hard to sound bizarre, Ka-Spel lets his little dramas take a life of their own. "The songs write themselves basically," he explained. "The stories start with some little detail that comes from who knows where and it lives its own life and, therefore, comes to its own peculiar conclusion."

Songs like "'O' from the Great Sea" are beautifully horrific in an enigmatic sort of way. As the music comes in waves from all directions with high octave piano, tape loops and disembodied voices and sounds, his vocals whine the desperately psychotic lyrics "I slice off the hand that feeds you - cook it slowly, lick it clean. I put it in my pie - Don't you want to know the reason WHY?" Sounding like a cross between early Bowie and Bauhaus-era Peter Murphy, Ka-Spel uses his voice like a paint brush, adding emotion and color to an otherwise bleak background of somber sounds and eerie noises.

Michelle Taylor

"I'm really happy with Tanith and the Lion Tree," he said. "It was recorded over the space of a year, bit by bit, until I was fond of what it turned out to be." While it isn't going to be a multi-platinum seller in the ranks of the next C&C Pre-Packaged Top 40 Pop, it's integrity as a work of art is what makes Ka-Spel happy. "I've never really thought about selling albums. If I made an album and I was the only one who liked it, I'd still be proud of it. If you start becoming concerned with record sales and whether your record is accessible to the masses, then you're going to cut corners and stay within 'good taste' boundaries. If you aren't going to take risks, you might as well take a normal job because music really shouldn't be your business."

It seems like the music world is well-suited to Edward Ka-Spel's lifestyle and the possibility for taking a normal day job is nowhere in sight. While his music with both his seminal underground band, The Legendary Pink Dots and his solo projects exemplify chaotic perfection, his solo performances leave much to be desired. "When I'm up there on stage alone, I tend to chew my nails down to bloody stumps. I feel much more comfortable with the rest of the Dots up there. Doing it alone is much too stressful, but who knows, maybe I'll do an odd show here or there." It's almost frightening to think what an 'odd' show is like for Ka-Spel.

TOWER'S TOP 25 ALBUMS

1. U2 / Achtung Baby (Island)
2. Cowboy Junkies / Black Eyed Man (RCA)
3. Nirvana / Nevermind (DGC)
4. Bobby McFerrin & Yo Yo Ma / Hush (Sony)
5. Red Hot Chili Peppers / Blond Sugar(Warner Bros.)
6. Enya / Shepherd Moons (Reprise)
7. Lisa Stansfield / Real Love (Arista)
8. Various Artists / Soundtrack to Rush (Reprise)
9. Prince / Diamonds and Pearls (Paisley Park)
10. Bonnie Raitt / Luck of the Draw (Capitol)
11. Michael Jackson / Dangerous (Epic)
12. R.E.M. / Out Of Time (Warner Bros.)
13. Sugarcubes / Stick Around For Joy (Elektra)
14. Various Artists / Until The End Of The World (Warner Bros.)
15. Genesis / We Can't Dance (Atlantic)
16. Various Artists / Two Rooms (Polydor)
17. Boyz II Man / Cooley high harmony (Motown)
18. Various Artists / Wayne's World Soundtrack (Reprise)
19. Seal / Seal (Sire)
20. Phish / A Picture of Nectar (Elektra)
21. Stevie Ray Vaughan / The Sky is Crying (Epic)
22. Enya / Watermark (Reprise)
23. Little Village / Little Village (Reprise)
24. Natalie Cole / Unforgettable Elektra)
25. The Commitments / Soundtrack (MCA)

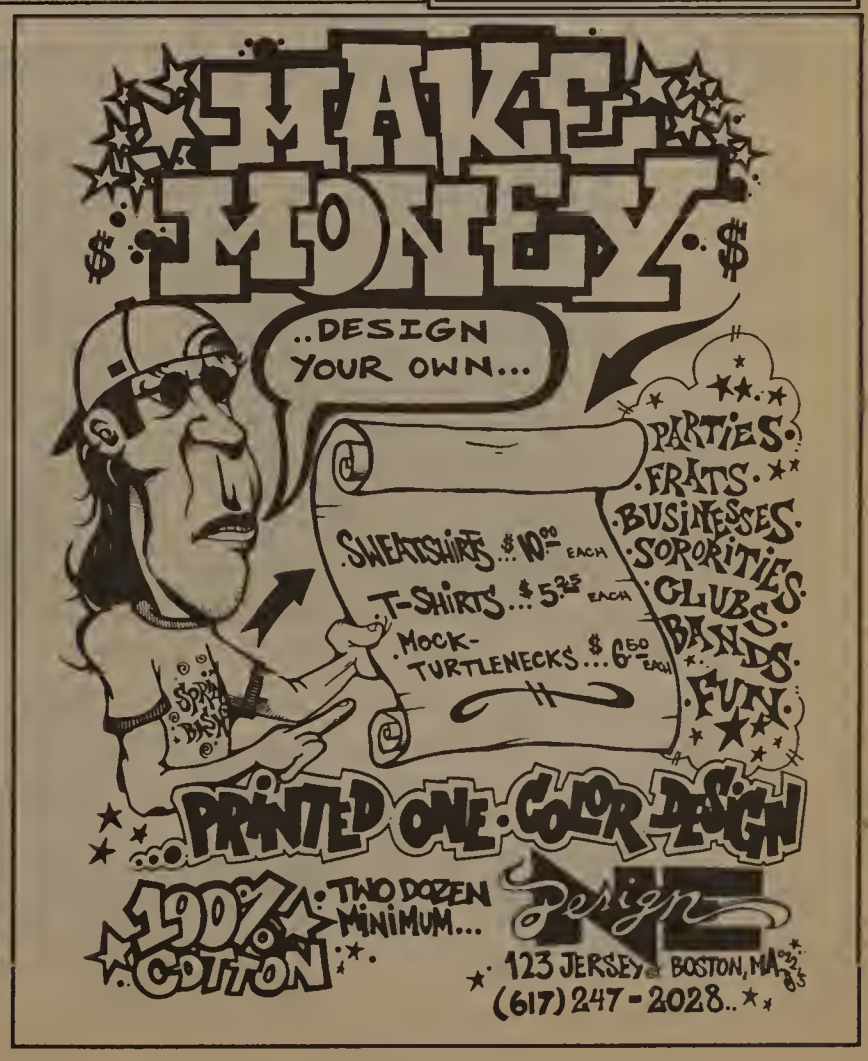
continued from previous page



name one afternoon because we were set to play a high school dance. Michael had a geometry book in front of him and he just opened it up and put his finger in the middle of an x and y coordinate grid." Hence, the name. But why the lower-case 'o'? "I guess we'd rather understate [the name] than overstate it," replied Topper. "It's a pretty big word if you put a big capital 'O' in front of it."

The band's music pretty much follows the same philosophy. While the music is layered and moody, there is a sense of restraint that holds them back from a full assault of music. "Racing with the Moon" brings the band to its pinnacle, heavy with emotion but wavers on complete control and utter chaos. Much of the music on Bend comes in waves and departs in washes of cathartic bliss, almost like Fisherman's Blues by the Waterboys, Home by Hothouse Flowers or The Beast Inside by the Inspiral Carpets. Irish and European bands like these however are not among the bands that influenced the origin. "Our influences are mostly American-based," commented Topper. "The only ones from Europe that affected us are the Beatles and Nick Drake but their influences lie in American music too. A lot of people said that our first record has a European tone, but I don't see it. Besides, I've never been to England."

ORIGIN
Appearing at
T.T. The Bear's Place
Thursday March 19
10 Brookline St.
Cambridge
call 492-2334 for more info.

As they progress in the music world, carving a niche for themselves and evolving with each record, the origin plan to mature even further for the next album. "It's probably going to be a little deeper," he said. "We're tapping into veins of creativity and emotions. If we keep playing, I know we're going to tap into some more veins that are deep rooted in ourselves."

As any true grown-up knows, goals are most easily achieved when they are readily attainable. And Topper's goal for the band isn't so impossible. "Every band wants to conquer the world one day. We just want to record another record. In ten years, we want to be able to look back at ten or twelve albums that we've done and say, 'We still feel really good about this.' And in twenty years, we'll go out with the Who and the Stones for a reunion tour."

BARS & CLUBS

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb . A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dinin g. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch .

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant nad bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nites a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nites, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside .

•ALLEY CAT LOUNGE 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Located at the gateway to the theater district between Zanzibars and Sweetwaters. This newcomer to the Boston bar scene is fast becoming a hit. The decor is brick with various Disney prints and the works of local artist Daniel He jinian adorning the walls. The crowd is a mix of urban young professionals. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover .

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave. , Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for every one. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites .

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. This neighborhood/college bar is quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, this place gets pretty rowdy and exciting. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies .

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about," what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos . Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage ot the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and d ark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night .

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos . A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. The crowd consists primarily of young professionals. The dress tends to be glitzy. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive ea rly. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights .

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave. Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20oz. drafts tor $2.00! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and rexaxing to croweded noisy.

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos . Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone trom pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 4th.--Wild Boys, Restless Souls Wed 11th.--MSG (acoustic) with XYZ

Jazz

A B A R Cafe

EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

11PM
12:45AM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

•BARMUDA TRIANGLE BAR 437-1011, 200 Brookline Ave., Boston. Probably the hottest new bar in Boston. It has live jazz all week long and the atmosphere is casual all the way .

•BAY TOWER ROOM 723-1666, 60 State St., Bos . A sophisticated restaurant/bar atop 60 State St. A great place to bring the dates you want to impress. Features a panoramic view of the harbor and dancing to live music. No cover. Proper dress required .

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos . A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst ot Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixed with m embers of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. When everyone gets together it's an interesting mix. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays .

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos . Self-procialmed the happiest tavern in Boston", this laid-back pub is trequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm .

•BILL'S BAR , Lansdowne St., Boston. One of the hippest places around, Bill's is the epitome of a great bar-fun, loud, clean (but not meticulous), and showcases live music occasionally (on Tuesdays). A great place to get away from the dance clubs (although they're all next door). Casual and very relaxed .

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxing club to sit and enjoy excellent live jazz at its best. It's casual and unassuming and you don't have to wear a I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. There's never a cover and the atmosphere is great .

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos . Live irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name symbolizes Irish Catholic repression by the British. Traditional Irish music is serv ed along with a host of Irish beers. Try the Guinness. Food is home spun. And remember, here, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! If you want to mix with an upbeat crow d of students, professionals, locals etc. and get involved in the show, this is your bag. Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb . This Harvard Sq. institution caters to Harvard students and recent grads. The small outdoor patio is fun in the summer. Inside it's nearly always crowded. No cover. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price .

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb . If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Boarder Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress .

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos . A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and the guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis makes you feel like you've left Boston pro per for the tropics. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop .

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos . Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel ot a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Fr ee pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress .

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos . If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No c over. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights .

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos . An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights.

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos . A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress .

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb . An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress .

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos . A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays .

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos . Everyone knows where it is, but few locals ever make it inside. The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable neighborhood at mosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress .

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes ailve. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code .

Wed 4th.--ASCAP Showcase: The Dam Builders, The Dertonz, Bulkhead Thur 5th.--Sensesurround, Society of Children, Mesh Fri 6th.--The Lyres, Eric Martin Band, The Jigsaws, Gandhi's Lunchbox Sat 7th.--Heretix, Doghouse, Vindicators, Free World Notes Sun 8th.--Pearls at Swine, Jimmi Mack Band Mon 9th.--Hell, Hell Hoot Yell Blues Jam happens every Monday Tue 10th.--Spinning Jeny, Slow Club, Heavyhead Wed 11th.--Gothic Snow Tire, The Denpros, Meddling Kids Thur 12th.--The Mies, The Trojan Ponies, Naked Lunchbox Fri 13th.--Hi Hats with special guests Sat 14th.--The Subterraneans, Swinging Steaks, Macey's Parade Sun 15th.--Charlie's Girl, Keith Brownnice Band Tue 17th.--St. Patty's Day with the Neighborhoods, Turbulent Daughters, Pale Nephews

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos . Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Navaj o Posole, Chippewa Roasted Half Duckling or the Algonquin Braised Rabbit. You'll be psyched you did. No cover. Casual dress .

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb . A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress." Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm .

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb . Central Sq.'s much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans .

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb . A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. A good spot to catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the tu ll menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there .

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum ot food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Equipped for the handicapped and are open 11:30am-2am all week .

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos . Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. F ree appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games .

The Hottest Spots for St. Paddy's Day Bar None

by Ellen Ullman

You could battle the crowds and see U2 at the Boston Garden. You could fly to Dublin. You could go to South Boston and stand in the streets.

Or, you could try something different for St. Patrick's Day.

How about an Irish pub? Not one of the more popular tourist traps but one that will make you feel Irish. Like Callahan's Tap. "We're the smallest, coziest tavern in the city of Quincy," says owner Ed McNulty. Callahan's is a small, neighborhood tavern. "The regulars tell me it's like having a drink in your living room," says Edy, one of two female bartenders. "It's a fun place—you can keep to yourself or get to know everyone." On St. Patrick's Day, Callahan's will offer free boiled dinner (smoked shoulder, cabbage, potatoes, and carrots) until it runs out, and Irish music on the stereo.

My Honey Fitz is Malden's answer to Irish. This good-sized pub gets a lot of traffic from the North Shore, Winchester and Arlington. Beginning March 12, they'll feature two Irish bands daily, and on March 17, the Red Branch Knights, a three-member band from South Boston, will entertain their fans for only $5.

At Limericks, in Boston's Financial District, they may serve an Irish breakfast, but will definitely serve live entertainment: Tom O'Carroll and an Irish band called Spike Island. Corned beef and cabbage will be available, as will the usual Limericks crowd of business people, Charlestown, and South Boston residents. An intimate setting with a fun mix of people, Limericks may be the quintessential Irish after-work spot.

A friend claims that The Green Briar is one of the best bars around. On the day of St. Patrick, I know where he'll be. This year, The Green Briar is having a week long Irish music fest, starting Saturday, March 14. The eclectic crowd will feast on Irish food and listen to this lineup:

Saturday, March 14:
12:00–4:00 pm - Larry & Mike Reynolds
4:00–8:00 pm - Spike Island, Tommy McCarty & Co.
9:00 pm – close - D'Alter Boys
Sunday, March 15:
4:00–8:00 pm - 4 To The Bar
9:00 pm – close - D.J. Chris

Scott Terban

Monday, March 16:
Irish Session and 4 To The Bar

St. Patrick's Day:
3:00–8:00 pm - 4 To The Bar
8:30 pm – close - D'Alter Boys.

At the Kinvara Pub in Allston, in the heart of college land, the entertainment starts on Friday, March 13, with D'Alter Boys. Saturday, it's The Irish Beat. On the big day, Kinvara will host D'Alter Boys from 3:00–7:30 pm, and 4 To The Bar from 8:30 pm–close. If you're into live Irish music, you won't need a second invite. Both of these bars promise a raucous, energetic crowd.

College students may want to hit Our House, Play It Again Sam's, or both, since they're across the street from each other in Allston. Our House opens at 11:00 am with a traditional Irish dinner menu, including an all-you-can-eat corned beef and cabbage buffet for $4.95, Irish stew, and—what no righteous party animal can live without—green beer. Our House is a large and comfortable place, with couches and televisions for those potatoes among us. Play It Again Sam's has two floors and sponsors movies and other entertain-

continued on following page

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos . Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos . Located in the Marriott Copley. Although it's a sports bar, you wouldn't know it judging from the crowd. Most nights it's a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu .

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb . Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches .

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos . A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies .

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos . Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretention or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress .

Wed 4th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos . Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...

Wed 4th.--Call for listings. Fri 6th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 7th.--The Neighborhoods Sun 8th.--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 10th.--Dart League Nite every Tues. Fri 13th.--Big Dipper Sat 14th.--The Collectics

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos . A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd, good-lookers too. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies but is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•THE COFFEE BAR

731-5070, 213 Washington St., Brookline. You won't find any booze here but you can catch a buzz. The kind that comes from the freshly ground, potent beans of quality java. Its clean, well-lit atmosphere works miracles upon any groggy soul. Coffee is served in imported Italian ceramic mugs, each hand-painted. They're open 7:30am-8pm Mon-Fri and 10am-6pm Weekends .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos . Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Commonwealth Brewing Company's proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live bands play Sat. nights. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples .

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos . Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos . Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months .

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos . Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out. Or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress.

A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon. Mon 9th.--Every Mon. and Tues. the Brian Walkley Band performs three shows •DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boyiston St., Bos . A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. Sunday nights ask Linda, the hottest bartender in Boston for her own special creation, a Purple Haze". The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos . This Newbury St. hot spot fills up consistently with singles and college students, not to mention sports fans. Dark and noisy. More action as the night subsides, this is the place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress .

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please .

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos . A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear. Tue. night is Jazz night. .

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boyiston St., Bos . This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic mea is for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos . A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs .

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos . This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur." and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Thur 5th.--The Sense with Kevin Brennan (of Black Water Junction) Fri 6th.--Jerry Portnoy and the Streamliners with Part-Time Lovers Sat 7th.--Motor City Rhythm Kings with the Urge Mon 9th.-- Sat 14th.--Zora Young and the Legendary Blues Band

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Air-conditioned clothing is required. .

Sat 7th.--Big Blues Meanies

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos . A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppy sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their cafe serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches. Don't forget your alligator pants .

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos . This definitive Faneuil Hall bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line .

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos . At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare that, when mixed with some beer, can be a dangerous combo if anyone is walking behind you. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment .

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 4th.--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 8th.--Every Sun. Is DJ Chris Mon 9th.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb . In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code .

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night

MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION

FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live

ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski

FREE Skis Passes, Vacation Weekends,
and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights

FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.

Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night

AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!

See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

BARS & CLUBS

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder") Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy) come winter .

Thur 5th.--The Johnny C Band Fri 6th.--The Pencils Sat 7th.--Mojo Filter Sun 8th.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. Thur 12th.--The Search Party Fri 13th.--The Deb Huston Band Sat 14th.--Show Some Mercy

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress .

Sat 7th.--O Positive Fri 13th.--Heretix

•HAMPSHIRE HOUSE 227-9600, 84 Beacon St., Bos . An upscale piano bar with an active business clientele. The music runs the gamut from Jazz to Showtunes to Classical. No cover. The atmosphere is formal. A jacket and tie is requested of all male patrons .

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos . This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos . Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 4th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Sun 8th.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Tue 10th.--Acoustic Roots Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues.

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb . Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress .

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos . A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm .

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos . An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room unless sitting in a puddle of stale beer is your idea of a good time. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu .

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb . This womens' night club can become rowdy after hours as women party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos . Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner .

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos . This nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal .

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos . A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing .

Wed 4th.--The Drovers Thur 5th.--Courage Brothers Fri 6th.--Shirley Lewis Sat 7th.--Luther Guitar Jr." Johnson Tue 10th.--Garnet Rogers, Dan Hart Wed 11th.--Otis Clay

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb . This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code .

Wed 4th.--The Super Trivia Quiz happens every Wed. Nite at 9pm. Call for info. Beware of Mighty Mike Floodl Thur 5th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 8th.--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 9th.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 10th.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos . Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Micheal Curly, a renowned local politician who retired when fed up with Mass. politics in the early 1900's. Happy to hear there's a place where today's policy m akers can still find solace. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos . Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm .

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos . The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code .

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, The Littlest Bar offers a quaint setting where the atmosphere is informal. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays .

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover .

•MACK'S 244-9881, 761 Beacon Street, Newton Center. Get away from theme bars at Mack's. The feeling of a neighborhood pub is strong here. A great place to enjoy a couple of cold draughts and some reasonably priced food. Four tv sets attract a crowd for the games and Thursdays rock with live folk music. Catch a wanna-be star on Saturdays with Karoake. No cover. Casual Dress. .

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb . Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The crowd is connected to Campus, a predominantly gay joint". The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged .

Wed 4th.--Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Sat 7th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday starting Feb. 26 at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. This is a place where great music rivals the great drink specials. Luncheon specials for only $2.50 can't be beat. A casual, relaxed atmosphere prevails. The entertainment covers vary .

Wed 4th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 5th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 6th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 7th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 9th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 10th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos . Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-"the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks)" depending on the night .

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude. The crowd centers around young professionals but you'll find a mix of cheese, college types and suits anyway. Proper dress with a jacket for men .

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb . This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere. You'll love the outdoor facade!.

Wed 4th.--Open Mike, Fodder Mints, Instant Folk Death Thur 5th.--The Fluid Fri 6th.--Gigolo Aunts Sun 8th.--Mona Voodoo presents International Women's Day. Also, a benefit for the GCN featuring readings by Lesa Lessard & Tina Portillo, film and animation by Julie Zammarchi, Batucuda Belles, the Brood, Augusta Furnace and Malachite Tue 10th.--The AG's Wed 11th.--Heavy Head Thur 12th.--Mr. Cranky Fri 13th.--Atom Said Sun 15th.--Sebadoh Seam Tue 17th.--Ointment Malachite

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new bar has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar but without the attitude. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos . A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress .

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos . Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. .

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos . A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. You can't order cheese here but you won't have any problem spotting it. Moderate cover varies. .

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb . An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info . Thur 5th.--Michael Hayes Band featuring Randy Roos Fri 6th.--The Meat Puppets, Drumming on Glass, Hot Box Tue 10th.--WCDJ presents Keiko Matsui Wed 11th.--The Story Thur 12th.--The Great Sun Ra and his Arkestra Fri 13th.--Alison Krauss & Union Station Sun 15th.--David Broza

•OUTER LIMITS 328-1500, 29 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02171. This new upscale Rock and Roll club has all the makings for a great place to see a show. Features live rock, progressive and heavy metal. Casual atmosphere, but be ready to rock .

Thur 5th.--Every Thurs. is the Best in Alternative and Progressive Dance Music with WFNX DJ's Sun 8th.--Every Sun. is the South Shore's Hottest Dance Nite

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos . One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

St. Patty's Day Specials

Corn Beef and Cabbage Dinner w/ Irish Bread $5.95
Irish Beef Stew $2.95
Fresh Roasted Turkey Dinner $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm - Dinner 3pm-9pm - Sundays 12 noon-9pm

201 Harvard Street
Brookline
•232-8787•

VISA

Wed 4th.--WXKS's Boston Rocks Against Drugs featuring Heavy Metal Horns Thur 5th.--WBCN presents Imago Recording Artists Baby Animals Fri 6th.--Bim Skala Bim Sat 7th.--Alison Moyet with Jules Shear Wed 11th.--Beat Surrender, Harmony Rockets, Living In Trees Thur 12th.--Cincussion Ensemble, Birdsongs of the Mesozoic, Cul de Sac Fri 13th.--The Del Fuegos featuring Dan Zanes & Joe Donnelly Sat 14th.--Sam Black Church

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb . The word Passim in Latin translates to "here and there." One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PEARL STREET 413-584-7771, 10 Pearl Street, Northampton, MA. One red-hot, happening place out in Northampton. This comfortably fun club has two floors of entertainment. Downstairs has both national and local live shows. Upstairs has great, DJ dancing (Wed.-Gay Nite with DJ Job, Thur.-Dancing with DJ Dennis R., Fri. & Sat.-Dancing with DJ Job, Sun.-House with DJ Job).

Thur 5th.--WAMH presents CLUB SIN (Industrial Dance) Fri 6th.--'til tuesday with Aimee Mann Tue 10th.--Alligator Records 20th Anniversary Concert featuring Koko Taylor, Elvin Bishop, Lonnie Brooks, Katie Webster & Lil Ed & the Blue Imperials Thur 12th.--Mighty Mighty Bosstones with Not Our Dog Sat 14th.--The Sighs with Mr. Sherwood, the Cowtippers

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm .

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, "Play it again Sam"? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress . D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos . Plunge into a posh leather lounge and sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'ouvres served 5-6pm .

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb . Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap .

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos . Take a welcome escape from the upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos . An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Thur 5th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 10th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos . Affectionately known as the Rat," this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners include the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. A hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets." No cover upstairs.. Varies downstairs. No dress code. .

Wed 4th.--Call for listings. Fri 6th.--The Fighting Cocks Fri 13th.--Bim Skala Bim

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos . You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks .

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb . You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 4th.--The George Shearing Duo till Sat. Tue 10th.--The John Pizzarelli Trio performs today and tomorrow Thur 12th.--The Christopher Hollyday Quartet plays tonight and tomorrow night Sat 14th.--The Geri Allen Quartet tonite and tomorrow Sun 15th.--Festival Concert in the Charles Ballroom: The Freddie Hubbard Joe Henderson Quintet with Kenny Barron, Christian McBride and Victor Lewis Tue 17th.--The Jim Goodman Quintet

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos . Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Be sooth ed to relaxing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required .

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8 .

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos . Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required .

Wed 4th.--Every Thurs., Fri., Sat. is The White Heat Swing Orchestra

EVENING PARKING

$70 /Month

Monday - Friday, 4pm - 10 am
All Weekends & Holidays

266-7006
First Month 1/2 Price
With This AD
First Time Customers Only
500 Boylston Street Garage,
Entrance on Clarendon

McFerrin's Many Voices

by Steve Provizer

If music exists that's as beautiful as that performed by Take 6 and Bobby McFerrin's Voicestra at the Orpheum, I'd like to know about it. These two A capella groups performed at a high level of musical sophistication, yet managed to both move the body and stir the soul.

Take 6 (for those not familiar with them) is an all-male sextet who first performed together at college about five years ago. What is most unusual about them is that they've been able to achieve tremendous popularity despite their label as a Gospel group. Their repertoire includes both traditional tunes like "Get Away Jordan" and "A-men" and original songs with religious themes, the most well-known of which is their hit "Spread Love." What accounts then for their popularity?

The voices in Take 6 are incredible instruments, capable of tremendous flexibility. They start and stop on a dime, swoop and glissando as each singer can deliver in any register, from falsetto to bass. Their arrangements are sometimes simple and other times as intricate as those of the Manhattan Transfer. Their warmth as individuals is convincing. The only potential trap for Take 6 is "over-slickness," which they can avoid by being aware that there is a point at which effortlessness itself has the potential of taking over a performance and stealing its soul.

Bobby McFerrin, the other half of the bill, is best known for his Number One hit "Don't Worry, Be Happy," a light, if virtuosic, Island turn. Those who are only familiar with this song, however, know just one of the many directions which this man's music takes. The mobility of his voice and the acuteness of his ear allow him to sing anything, including Island, African, Pop, Classical and Jazz. He has organized the tentet Voicestra (five men and five women) to flesh out and extend these directions.

During the Orpheum concert, McFerrin wasn't particularly interested in being in the spotlight, and, with the exception of a dazzling scat version of the Jazz tune "Donna Lee," he redirected his energies to shape the group's sound using subtle nods of the head or small flips of the hand. Like Take 6, the Voicestra sang of spiritual things ("Why Must the Children Die" and "Woe to Those Who Make Unjust Laws") but performed with tremendous joy and energy, not with the heavy-handedness that we usually get from singers with a "message." See these groups, if you can.

AT SOME SALONS, THE IDEA OF A GOOD HAIRCUT IS PRACTICALLY MEDIEVAL.

But not at Linear. As part of our service guarantee, you'll receive:
• A stress-relieving treatment that will penetrate and soothe your scalp, shoulders, and neck.
• At the chair you'll be offered coffee, tea, or mineral water—and it's never served in a paper cup.
• And for women, after we cut your hair, we'll touch up your makeup and help you find the right cosmetics.
If we forget anything mentioned, then the cut's on us.

LINEAR
AVEDA
Concept Affiliate Salon
548 Tremont Street
Boston
482-4676
Hair Design
Skin Care
Nails

WINTER SPECIAL
Bring in this ad through March 10 and recieve 15% off all manicures, pedicures, facials and hair coloring

ALL THAT JAZZ

Sway to the soothing sounds of live jazz music throughout Boston as an alternative to the crowded and louder rock bars. Pick any of the jazz clubs and bars below and boogie down!

33 Dunster 354-0636, 33 Dunster Street, Harvard Square, Cambridge. Dunster has a crowded but relaxing jazz brunch every Sunday with the Bokley Trio. Brunch is served from 11am to 3pm.

The Barmuda Triangle Bar and Grill 437-1011, 200 Brookline Ave., Boston. The "Triangle" is one of Boston's hot new bars and offers live jazz music throughout the year. Call for information on acts and times.

Black Goose 720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. Relaxing jazz that's not only great to listen to but free as well. The casual atmosphere adds to the jazzy ambiance. Shows run 7-11pm.

Cricket's 720-5570, 1015 Fanueil Hall Mktpl., Boston. Enjoy the dry weather everyday inside the greenhouse and absorb the energy of the soul. Enjoy A cappella during the week and the energetic Brian Walkley Band every Thur. night.

Gallery Bar at Avenue C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Place, Boston.
Their Sunday jazz series runs through this month with some great acts to hear as you stuff your face. The bar here is open 7pm to 1am Sundays and admission is $5. Call for bands.

Middle East Cafe 492-9181, 472 Mass. Ave., Central Square , Cambridge. Not just a restaurant. Not just rock. The Middle East has some pretty lively jazz musicians as well. Mondays have live jazz all night long and Fridays hop from 7 to 9pm.

Sibel's 267-7346, 100 Peterborough St., Boston. Live, "cool" jazz with food and drink. Standards from the jazz and Latin repertoire. Fridays and Saturdays from 7-10pm. Casual Dress.

Scullers at the Guest Quarters Suites 783-0090, 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge. WED 4.-Boston Jazz Orchestra, Andy Baer's 18 Piece Big Band. THUR 5.-Stan Strickland. FRI 6 & SAT 7.-Eddie Harris. TUE 10.-Tony Lada/Larry Monroe Quintet. WED 11.-Andy LaVerne Quartet. THUR 12.-Danilo Perez and the Boucle Brothers. FRI 13 & SAT 14.-Lee Konitz with Ken Werner, Jeff Williams & Mike Richmond. TUE 17.-The Mike Jones Trio with special guest Dick Johnson.

Wally's 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Boston.
Live jazz seven days a week. Sundays are big here with Cynthia Feldman from 3-7pm and Curtis Rivers from 9pm to 2am.

Willow Jazz Club 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Square, Somerville. Probably the most comprehensive jazz club in Boston. Jazz music oozes underneath the street of this joint, so if you want variety, check it out. Every Wednesday features The Fringe.

BARS & CLUBS

continued from previous page

ment, including live music and improv acting troupes. On St. Patrick's Day, Sam's, in conjunction with Budweiser, will throw a wild bash. In addition to hat, t-shirt and noisemaker giveaways, Scottie Rae will deejay. "Scottie is a very funny guy," says Joe, one of Sam's managers. "He provides comic relief, especially when he hangs from the rafters for his notorious upside-down dedications." (Keep him away from the green beer!) Pizza and all-you-can-eat buffalo wings can be consumed for only $3.95, and, not to worry, the ubiquitous green beer will be flowing.

As Garth would say, "Party on, dudes."

Brookline's Tam O'Shanter offers exceptional music most nights of the year, so it's no surprise that on St. Patrick's Day, they'll showcase Pen Dragon, a two-time nominee for Best Celtic (Irish) Act in the Boston Music Awards. "I concentrated especially hard to find the right band for the occasion," says Dana McDonald, the Tam's booker. Pen Dragon has quite an impressive instrumentation: tenor banjo, mandolin, pipes, bouzouki (octave mandolin), guitars, two vocalists, and a bodhran (traditional Irish) drum—25 instruments on stage at one time! They perform traditional sean-nos (singing in Irish) as well as new songs about the Irish in New England and their migration to America. Tam patrons can try their hand (or feet) at ceili dancing, too. The Tam is a favorite for its incredibly mixed clientele: rockers, deejays, recent college graduates, Brookline residents, musicians and parents. It's a place where you run into people you haven't seen or thought of in years. The food, although a bit pricey, is delicious, and on St. Patrick's, they'll have a traditional Irish menu.

If you don't feel like trekking to "suburbia," try The Purple Shamrock. Business types, B.C. students, and downtowners will arrive in droves to see the four different Irish bands, starting at noon. Tom O'Carroll, Harvest Home, Celtic Clan, and a special appearance by The Dublin City Firefighters Pipe Band will be on the menu. Be prepared for a long wait, though

The Black Rose in Cambridge has 16 oz. drafts of Budweiser and Miller Light (everyday prices) and live Irish music starting at 5:00 p.m. As an alternative to the original Black Rose in downtown Boston, many people prefer the Harvard Square setting. The crowd has fewer tourists and the beer is every bit as good. Although the band area is small, people always find room to dance and jig until the lights come back on.

If dancing is your thing and you're an athletic college student (or looking to date one), you have no choice—Playoffs Sports Bar. UMass Boston is sponsoring "College St. Patrick's Day," a gigantic party. All colleges are welcome, and there will be lots of green beer, Irish music, dancing to Top 40 music, and a free sports buffet (hotdogs, etc.). The under-$5 cover charge is your ticket to all sorts of challenges, including dart tournaments, free-throw contests (indoor basketball courts) and Blackjack competitions. You can win hats, t-shirts, and cash prizes. Playoffs will also sponsor a raffle (with proceeds going to Rosie's Place) for an adult mountain bike and two tropical vacation giveaways. Doors open at 4:00 p.m.

If only I were still in college, I wouldn't have to get up for work the next day.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb . If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstars you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb . Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. He avy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers .

Wed 4th.--The Boston Jazz Orchestra, Andy Baer's 18 Piece Big Band Thur 5th.--Stan Strickland Fri 6th.--Eddie Harris is here tonite and tomorrow Tue 10th.--Tony Lada/Larry Monroe Quintet Wed 11th.--Andy LaVerne Quartet Thur 12th.--Danilo Perez and the Boucle Brothers Fri 13th.--Lee Konitz with Ken Werner, Jeff Williams and Mike Richmond tonite and tomorrow Tue 17th.--The Mike Jones Trio with special guest Dick Johnson

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos . An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap .

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb . Harvard Sq.'s other college pub. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. No cover. Casual dress. .

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos . Essentially a Faneuil Hall dance club, the clientele is a mix of young, collegiate and professional Bostonians. Disco is not dead because this place is swamped with it. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts .

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos . This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm .

•T.G.I. FRIDAY'S 266-9040, 26 Exeter St., Bos . American fare spiced up by bottle-tossing bartenders. The crowd consists of young professional, tourists and college students. Oldies and pop music. Full menu. No cover. Casual dress. Free tacos weekdays 3:30-5:30pm .

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb . A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On a given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and sha ke so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code .

Fri 6th.--The Blood Oranges with Mary Dee Renolds and Mr. Stones' Country Sat 7th.--Thee Hypnotics with Flowerhead and Dreams Made Flesh Thur 12th.--Shutter to Think Fri 13th.--Yo La Tengo with Womb to Tomb (One of Boston's Best Bands) Sat 14th.--The Toasters with Hybrid Minds and Squid

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. One of Boston's best bars. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunch and dinner are delic lous and very reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time .

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, t648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Sq.'s only offering of music is one of Boston's best restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 4th.--The Dilemmas Thur 5th.--Hypnosonics Fri 6th.--T.H. and the Wreckage Sat 7th.--Shy Five Sun 8th.--Mickey Bones' Bones of Contention, Tornado Brothers Mon 9th.--Acoustic Night: Steven Paul Perry, Alizon Lissance, Eve Goodman Tue 10th.--The Lawn Marys Wed 11th.--Dr. Carrot, Rick Berlin Thur 12th.--The Olivz, Miriam Fri 13th.--Universal Language featuring Ray Greene Sat 14th.--The Incredible Casuals Sun 15th.--Madhouse Mon 16th.--House of Cards Tue 17th.--Pen Dragon

•TIA'S Marriot Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos . A favorite open air meeting place near the harbor. The crowd is young and single. It gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm .

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, t1 Lansdowne St., Bos . Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly Is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted .

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos . Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Mon. is Blues. Relax over a beer and get into the spirit. Don't be afraid to sway in the aisle when the music jams. It's always smoky and crowded, but Wally's has heart. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

. Mon 9th.--Blues Night Mon 16th.--Blues Night

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb . A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moder ate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Cafe and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress. A must for any Reggae lover .

Sun 8th.--World Folk Night at the Arts Cafe Sun 15th.--International Pop Night at the Arts Cafe

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos . A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the danc e beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons .

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out what acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code .

--The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos . This large two story dance club is modeled after a large Caribbean dwelling complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele. Local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required .

NICHOLAS CAFE
PIZZA • CALZONES
SPECIALTY SANDWICHES

We deliver to the Back Bay, Brookline, Kenmore Sq., Allston, Brighton.
Call or fax us we may even deliver to you!
739-1114 Fax: 739-0008
Or stop by at 1628 Beacon St., Brookline

$1 off small sandwich
$1.50 off large sandwich
$.75 off reg. pizza
$1 off large pizza
w/ this coupon

HOCKEY EAST
ECAC HOCKEY

HOCKEYFEST 1992
BOSTON GARDEN
March 12, 13, 14

Hockey East Semifinals on Thursday, March 12
ECAC Semifinals on Friday, March 13
Both Championships on Saturday, March 14

$16 and $14 tickets available, as well as a $2 per night discount for a package of all three nights. Call TicketPro at 1-800-828-7080.

For Groups of 20 or more, call Boston Garden Group Sales at 617-227-3206 ext 267 or 268 to take advantage of $2 per person savings.

Don't miss the action as the best college hockey players in the East battle for a league championship and an automatic entry in the NCAA Championship Tournament! Last year, 5 of the 6 games were decided by one goal -- with 3 games going to overtime.

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

Boston Public Library
Copley Square
536-5400
The BPL is hosting a lecture by Dr. Edmund L. Drago, a specialist in the fields of Old South, Slavery and the Civil War and Reconstruction. Dr. Drago will present his ideas on Boston's benign view of Southern slavery leading, consequently, to the BPL as a memorial of the sufferings of Afro-American slaves. Mar.12 at 2pm in the Rabb Lecture Hall.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
547-6789
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. On Mar. 9, Lloyd Schwartz will read from his new collection, Good Night Gracie. On Mar. 16, Mark Rudman, author of The Nowhere Steps and Stephen Dunn, author of Between Angels and Landscape at the End of the Century will read selections from their works. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $2.00.
On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Mar. 10 is From South Boston to Southern Africa, a slideshow/discussion relating political and cultural issues in Namibia to issues facing African-Americans in the U.S.. Mar. 17 is Hunting Dinosaurs in New England. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The ICA is presenting the 11th annual Black Maria Film & Video Festival 1991. It is the largest U.S. touring festival, committed to film and video work that expands the expressive terrain of the media arts. The work is characterized by its artistically rigorous, politically incisive and socially conscious compositions. Videos will be shown in the ICA Theatre. The ICA is also presenting through Mar. 22,Reframing the Family, a series of video works that question the definition of "family." The video is shown in the ICA's Lower Mezzanine Gallery and is free with gallery admission.

The Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission (college students with presentation of ID): Every day for students of the following colleges:
The Art Institute of Boston, Berkeley College of Music, Boston College (includes grads), Boston University (includes grads), Brandeis University (includes grads), Curry College, Emmanuel, Gordon, Lowell Institute, Mass College of Art, Mass College of Pharmacy, MIT, The Museum School, New England School of Art and Design, New England University, Pine Manor, Roxbury Community College, Tufts (includes grads), UMass-Boston, Wentworth and Wheaton.

The MFA, with Ladies Committee guides, is offering free guided walks through the museum with the price of admission. An introductory walk through all collections will take place Tues.-Fri, 10:30 and 2pm. A Painting and Decorative Arts Walk will take place at 11:30am, while the Asian, Egyptian and Classical Walk will depart at 1pm. An Introductory Walk in Spanish will depart the first Saturday of each month at 11:30am.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
589-0310
As part of the "1992: A Year of Discovery Series", the Museum of Science is offering a lecture on discovering the human body's potential. Women: Racing Toward the Gold focuses on women from the Boston Rowing Center's rowing team planning to compete in the 1992 Summer Olympics. The lecture is Mar. 15, 12-5pm. Also, Jeanne Flanagan, winner of 1984 Olympic gold medal in rowing, will give a 3:30pm lecture in Wright Theater. Free with Exhibit Halls admission: Adults, $6; Seniors, children age 4-14 and students w/ID, $4.50.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm. Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
262-1120
The NEC will salute the past and future of the Conservatory with concerts, symposia, commissions and performances by some of the NEC's most distinguished alumni on Mar.5. "Music From The Source: NEC at 125" will be held throughout the Conservatory at 12, 5 and 8pm. The music festival is free and open to the public.

Salem State College Library
Forten Hall, 4th floor
352 Lafayette St., Salem
(508)741-6230
Facing History and Ourselves is a symposium on human rights and the Salem Witch Trials. It will be held on Mar.11 from 9-3pm. Free admission.

Stoneham Library
431 Main St., Stoneham
666-2041
If you grew up in a high stress or dysfunctional family, you may have developed an unconscious negative and destructive view which keeps you from following through on positive issues in your life. Make some changes by attending "A Life Worth Living," a lecture on issues facing Adult Children of Alcoholics/Dysfunctional Families by psychotherapist Carly Lund at the Stoneham Library from 7 to 8:30pm on Mar. 5. The lecture is free and open to the public.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle Street, Cambridge
354-4223
Pulitzer prize winner Edna Buchanan offers up tales of Murder and Mayhem in Miami at Woodsworth Readinds series, to be held on March 17 at 5:30pm at The Brattle Theatre in Harvard Square. Buchanan is a veteran police reporter for the Mami Herald and writes of the bizarre, lurid and occasionally hilarious happenings on Miami's crime beat. Admission is free but tickets are necessary. Complimentary tickets are available in advance at both Wordsworth and the Brattle Theatre.

BAD CREDIT, NO CREDIT?

Get a "Fresh Start"...

Regardless of Credit History!
You can get your very own

VISA®

Call ACS at (617) 437-7455 for details

This is not a Secured Card

Call Today

"Fresh Start"
CREDIT & INSURANCE PROGRAM
"Fresh Start" is an agent of KEY BANK™ Thornton, CO

KARATE

EASTERN FREESTYLE KARATE

WHEN:
MONDAY AND THURSDAY
7:15-8:45PM
SATURDAY
10-NOON

WHY?
1. Self-Defense
2. Discipline
3. Self-Control
4. Cardiovascular work
5. Muscular Exercise
6. Flexibility
7. Speed
8. Confidence
9. Fun

COST: ONLY $45.00
PER MONTH

ONE WEEK FREE!

FREE SHUTTLE SERVICE FROM BACK BAY, BEACON HILL, SOUTH END AND NORTH END
(ASK ABOUT OUR STUDENT DISCOUNT)
PLEASE CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION AND LOCATION

236-4550

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Finlly an anonoymous forum to vent my spleen. Spring, for years now I have watched you abus your imployees, firing them without reasen and keeping all the monee to yourself. With any luk this will be the yere the I.R.S. finallly catches up with you. Maybe you should start paying taxes!!!

To the Slumlords who own my building; Dead rats in the basement, frozen pipes, nonexistent insulation and a flooded basement are no way to ensure that you don't have any more empty apartments.

To the Prickster
Gee, thancs for making 40 hours of my week so unnescessarily stressful. By the way, why does your office smell so wierd? Sorry - just wondering what goes on behind clozed doors! Don't worry...I'll make your NEXT LIFE misirable.

Addressing the Scarlet banshee: Gee, sorry you couldn't join the rest of us last weekend, I am sure the Sigs missed a good post party nook nook- Ever figure out that maybe it was your indiscreet behavior screwed that you over in the first place? No pun intended. Love and big smooches Sunny

To the Disease who walks like a man, Did it ever occur to you that everyone who has anything to do with your business has motive to kill you? Doesn't that bother you? I guess not, that's why you're such an asshole.
-The Human Race

"Actually sir, the other men use her to ride into town." " I want you to take the shotgun and shoot the dog." " I just tie it around my neck and pretend it's a cravat." " They do 96." "Mickey was missing." These are the kinds of answers I for one, want to see on Jeopardy."RudHowe N Lude

Muzo - Muzo - Muzo
You're so low you have to look up to a rat's ass. Just because you think you have the one thing that women want, doesn't mean you can treat women anyway you want, including blowing them off. If you have plans of touching this hot bod again, you better do some serious sucking up! L.
P.S. Send Horndog my love.

P.S.
Thanks for putting me to bed that one night. I honestly don't remember what happened, but why did I wake up with underwear on and jeans off?

Tam,
Stay away from the married cop. Instead go for the keys. I promise it'll be a helluva trip.

I'll give you one more clue Kevin M. and his crew, maybe you'll know who I am. I figured you'd be vain enough to know this was for you. Was I right? All I can say is watch yourself, oh yeah, and your opinion does matter, to your dead gerbil.

Yo, Maryyyyyyyyyy ... I told you I'd win the bet, you slut!
- your roommate

To the guy who hands out the tokens at the Haymarket T station. Where the hell did you get that attitude, from the Globe's living arts section? Get over yourself.

To the very rude woman from Wellesley who didn't tip me after I brought your five very heavy suitcases up to your hotel room: After you left, I went back up and let myself in with a pass key. I unscrewed your peep hole and turned it around. Now I can see inside your room!!! I'll be seeing you.....Your bellman

Yo Patman....what are you saying, man? You coming to Oston-bay? All right! We're gonna RUIN the place! The Chomedey boys take Beantown! Get your coiffing materials and your flat kiester down I-89 before I get upset, and don't forget your Nilan jersey.- Rockin. p.s. St. Paddy's day in Boston? Break out the quarters!

Marck C.
Better get your lazy keester in gear for S.J.II or you lose half of the moustache.
A&T

Jeannie....Jeannie... if I'd known that all you wanted to do was play games, the game would've been over long before your impressive display of tact in front of me and the boys Friday night. You WOULD be in the books, and the page WOULD be turned. You always asked me to speak Italian to you.
Okay.....Ciao baby!

A Zippo to your imperious Locks, you Anorectic Hairball.
- P.C.

Lemme tell you something, man.....First you get the money, then you get the power, then you get the women!
-Tony M

Al, you scum-sucking pig ... you slime-eating dog ... you son-of-a-motherless-goat! (tell us we will die like dogs) Would you say I'm making a plethora of cash at my new job? -Your broke buddy

Hey card shark, where's my rainy day fund, you're not up to it again are you?

Tony, you slut! I could drop many names in this column, but the staff here has an ounce of compassion left. We'll get you next time! Ha!

Mareeeeeelizabeth, what did you say you were going to do to MARK S?
-U.

Lauren, Congrats on your new pad. So when are we going to break it in? How many rooms did you say it had?

Jeff,
Will Linda Let you out for the weekend or will you be forced to lie again? I don't think the "need to go to the library" excuse will work this time.
-S.J.

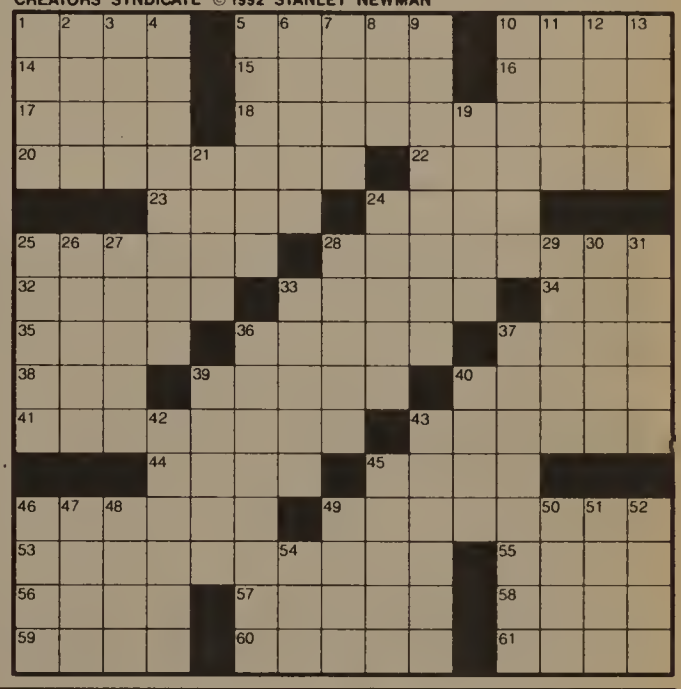
Mr. Brady,
You're even worse. A month's notice had better be enough. Otherwise, you sleep with Bridgeman.
The Boys

Plug,
Is it true that your arms are longer than your legs now? Don't let them hang out the window on your drive up - you'll skin your knuckles.
The Boston S.J.'s

Dan,
Dan, Dan, Dan. We know that you're far away but we could have sworn that we smelled your burps in Faneuil Hall last weekend.
T&A

Jeff B.,
Now that Paul has moved out, you've got no reasons to visit the boys in Boston.
Love and Kisses, A&T

Sally, Is it me or do your armpits really attract flies? Try either a shower or some Raid.
Love Steve M.



Newsday Crossword

NO THYSELF by Donna J. Stone
Edited by Stanley Newman

ACROSS
1 Fringe benefit
5 Toddler's transport
10 Gripe (about)
14 Mystery writer Rendell
15 Travels by train
16 Forearm bone
17 Actor Sharif
18 START OF A QUIP
20 Enigmatic types
22 "__ dream . . .": King
23 Eshkol's successor
24 Fed
25 PART 2 OF QUIP
28 Order-form word
32 Be superior
33 Oligarchic group
34 GM car
35 Boardwalk structure
36 "Do That to __ More Time" ('79 tune)
37 Carte
38 Suffix for form
39 __ Carats (Ullmann film)
40 Helicopter part
41 Discipline
43 PART 3 OF QUIP
44 Duck soup
45 Take into account
46 __ alone (solos)
49 Raga musician
53 END OF QUIP
55 How some sit by 56 Knock off
57 Push gently
58 Light filler
59 Heavy weights
60 Nasty look
61 Comic Kaplan

DOWN
1 Old hands
2 Sugar portion
3 Area code 801
4 Fishing vessel
5 Mrs. Ed Norton
6 Kitchen gadget
7 Lupino and Tarbell
8 Barbie's beau
9 Size up
10 Ninja Turtle, e.g.
11 Norse royal name
12 Green Gables girl
13 Nothing, in Navarre
19 Author Alexander
21 Singer Carter
24 Sack cloth
25 Animate
26 Send packing
27 Where the buoys are 28 Bartlett bit
29 "__ Kick out of You"
30 Operatic hero, often
31 "__ telling me!"
33 Novelist Kosinski
36 Humidifies
37 '60s fad
39 Grain implement
40 Perlman of Cheers
42 __ Fables
43 Not as dry
45 Cabinet part
46 Nitty-gritty
47 In the know about
48 Peter Wimsey's school
49 Marquis de __
50 Brainstorm
51 Mess specialist
52 Actress Daly
54 Flow along

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN

FREE crossword-book catalog. Call toll-free: 1 (800) 659-9673, ext. 15.
Stumped? Get help! Call 1-900-646-8282. Cost is 95 cents per minute.

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"How would you spend your 15 minutes of fame?"

Janine, 21, Allston
"Starring in a love scene opposite Richard Gere in a major motion picture."

Helene, 46, Newton
"I would appear on the cover of The National Enquirer with Elvis Presley."

Bill, 27, Natick
"I would play pro football for the New England Patriots and win a game for them."

Martine, 25, Boston
"Become famous as a fashion designer showing off my collection in Paris."

Beth, 25, Brighton
"I would spend it winning a freestyle swimming event in the Summer Olympics."

Baltazar, 20, Dorchester
"I would be performing with Janet Jackson in one of her videos."

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Apartments

CAMBRIDGE — 2-bedroom condo for rent
A. Private parking and gas included (plus heat)
B. 5 min. walk to Alewife Park MBTA Station
C. 5 min. ride to Harvard Sq.
D. Furnished
E. Available for rent immediately due to unexpected move
F. Rent only $690.- per mo. Call for more inf. J.C. Kim 863-1686(10-12noon) or 279-0318 bet. 2-7p.m.

FT. MEYER FL, Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., blcny., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-30641

BELMONT - no parking but large 2 bedroom plus on Grove St. near bus #73. Smoke-free. No pets $750 month plus utilities. Call owner 489-6116.

BEDFORD - near Lexington /25 minutes to Harvard Square. Spacious "5 star" easy-to-maintain, brick home. Price reduced to $365,000. Large 3 bedrooms plus. Huge kit. central air. 2 acres. 489-6116

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

Automobiles

1989 DODGE SHADOW 5 speed. Excellent Condition. Sunroof, FM Stereo / Cassette, Black, Sharp. 40K, Highway Miles. Asking $6800. Call Lisa 924-0012.

'87 HONDA ACCORD LX 5 speed, fully loaded. Air Conditioning. $6,500 or best offer. Call 926-3484

1987 Toyota Supra w/ Targa top and rear spoiler.Meticulously maintained Florida car. 57K Blk w/ gry & blk Int. Alarm. All powerl $9250. Adam 254-7074

Carpet Repair

Carpet repairs, installation,restreatch, qualiy work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Clothing/Tailoring

The Alter Ego. Clothing Alterations. reconstruction and Repair. You name it- we alter it Pickup and delivery. Student and senior citizen rates. Unique custom made pillows. Call 332-0160.

Collectibles

FLYING EAGLE COINS CO. • •Wartime Silver Nickel Set • Lincoln Wheat Reverse Rolls: 1955, B.U. & 1956D, B.U. & 1958, B.U. • First Year Issue Roosevelt Dimes (1946), UNC. Roll Plus XF Indians & Silver Roosevelt PROOFS PLUS MANY MORE COINS Call Jim At 245-7841

Computer Software

PRODIGY FOR SALE only $100.00 Reg price in store $150.00 great Holiday gift. leave message for rachel at 445-7344

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Safe, Non-Directive, confidential setting where your questions and feelings can be explored. Individual counseling and groups for men and women. Al Gentle, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

Credit Services

Get a Visa and correct bad credit. Solve debt problems. Late payments , chargeoffs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639.

Electronics

PHONE Uniden President, charger + 2 batteries $9200 or b.o. call 262-4471.

VCR. Good condition2 yrs old $75. 13" color T.V. $75. Dbl bed & boxsprg $50 all negoc. Adam 254-7074

Entertainment

Boston's Best Entertainment "Grams To Go" The Stripper (Male/Female), Bellydancers, Huladancers, Impersonators, Ballons & Tunes,(Great Costumes), Disc Jockeys, Fun & Affordable. (617) 354-5000 M/C Visa Disc. Amex

Futons

THE FUTON OUTLET 360 Mystic Ave. Somerville, MA (617) 776-9429 Twin Futon & Frame $174. Double Futon & Frame $198. Free Local Delivery,COD.

Help Wanted

SALES / MANAGEMENT / MARKETING International Environmental / Educational company seeking professionals to build and train direct sales force. Full and part time positions available. We will train. Send resume or letter to: 21 Warwick Road, Suite 4, Brookline, MA 02146. Attention: Personnel

Health Services

Massage Therapy Swedish, deep tissue, sports massage trigger points. Past clientele: Les Mis, Cats, Heartstrings, and Boston Ballet. $50 in $60 out. HIV $30. Gift certificates available. Feel less tired, have more energy. Ask me about KM. Tim Medas 522-0626

Moving

PROMPT AND REASONABLE - small jobs OK "student discounts" Preferrred movers 617-597-3297 24 hr.

Music Lessons

LEARN TO PLAY DRUMS! Patient, flexible, experienced, former Berklee teacher. All styles, all ages, beginners welcome. Brookline Village Studio, near T. Call Mick 527-0950

DRUM LESSONS: If you do the right moves and progress step by step, you can play anything you want! Call Douglas at 254-3747.

Miscellaneous

DON'T BE SHY Discreet photographer needs one attractive woman to help create intimate but tasteful black and white photographs. No experience necessary. No sleaze. Any skin color. For more info write P.O. Box 1447 Back Bay Annex, Boston, MA 02117. Try it.

WRESTLING FANS - Mat Marketplace is pro wrestling's memorabilia, newsletter. 1 yr. - 6 issues - $12 Write: P.O. Box 2371 J.P., MA 02130.

BRAND NAME PERFUMES for sale. Great Holiday Gifts for only $9.00-$40.00 for more info or to place order, call Rachel at 445-7344 bet. 10AM & 8PM.

EXERCISE PARTNER WANTED Busy single professional male 37 from oversears, finds excersising boring and impossible. Seeks partner or guy with similar situation to exercise thrice weekly. Have extra membership to excellent gym. Can pay modest training fee or offer friendship. Write Sameer. PO Box 1482 Brookline, MA 02146

Services

CLEANING - CONDO Owners / Apt. Dwellers - Are your common areas "Disaster" areas? Call Classic Cleaning for a free building survey of all your cleaning needs. Insured / bonded 617-389-8424.

HANDYMAN General repairs: windows fixed and insulated, painting, debris removed - attic etc. preferred management 617-597-3297.

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

Skin Care

Common Sense Skin Care. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

We're Looking For a Few Stars

If you're extremely hard working, possess outstanding talents and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success.

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Freelance Advertising Designers

To handle various advertising campaigns both large and small. Please forward samples of your work to the Publisher.

Art Director / Layout

Must be Macintosh fluent.

Interns

For the advertising and marketing department. We'll give you as much responsibility as you can handle.

Call 232-3507 for more details or FAX your resume to the Publisher at (617) 232-4305.

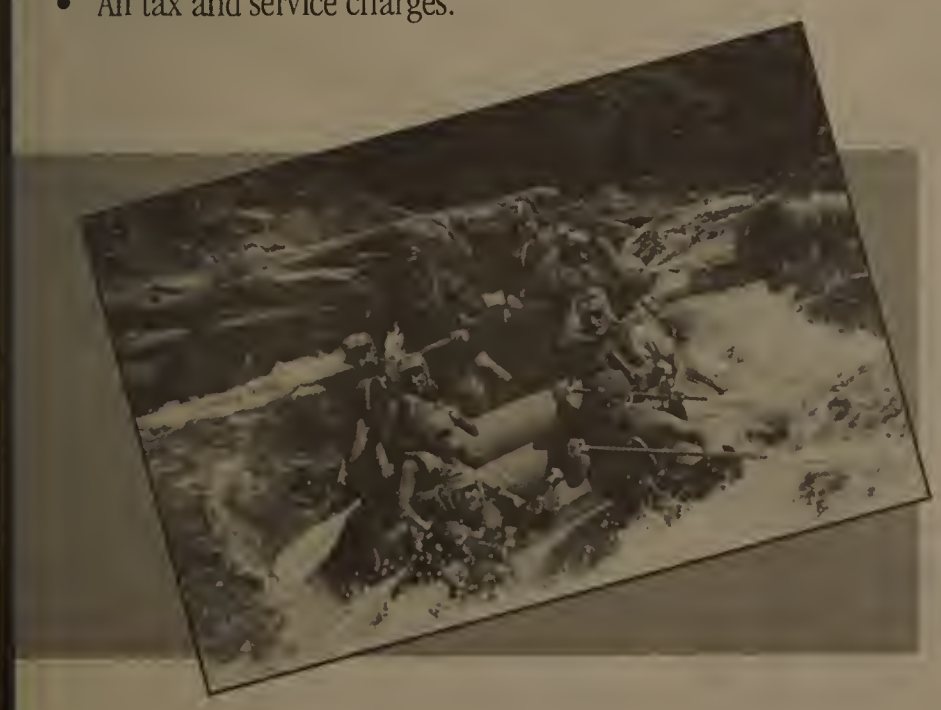
The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure

In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures

Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00

Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).

Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

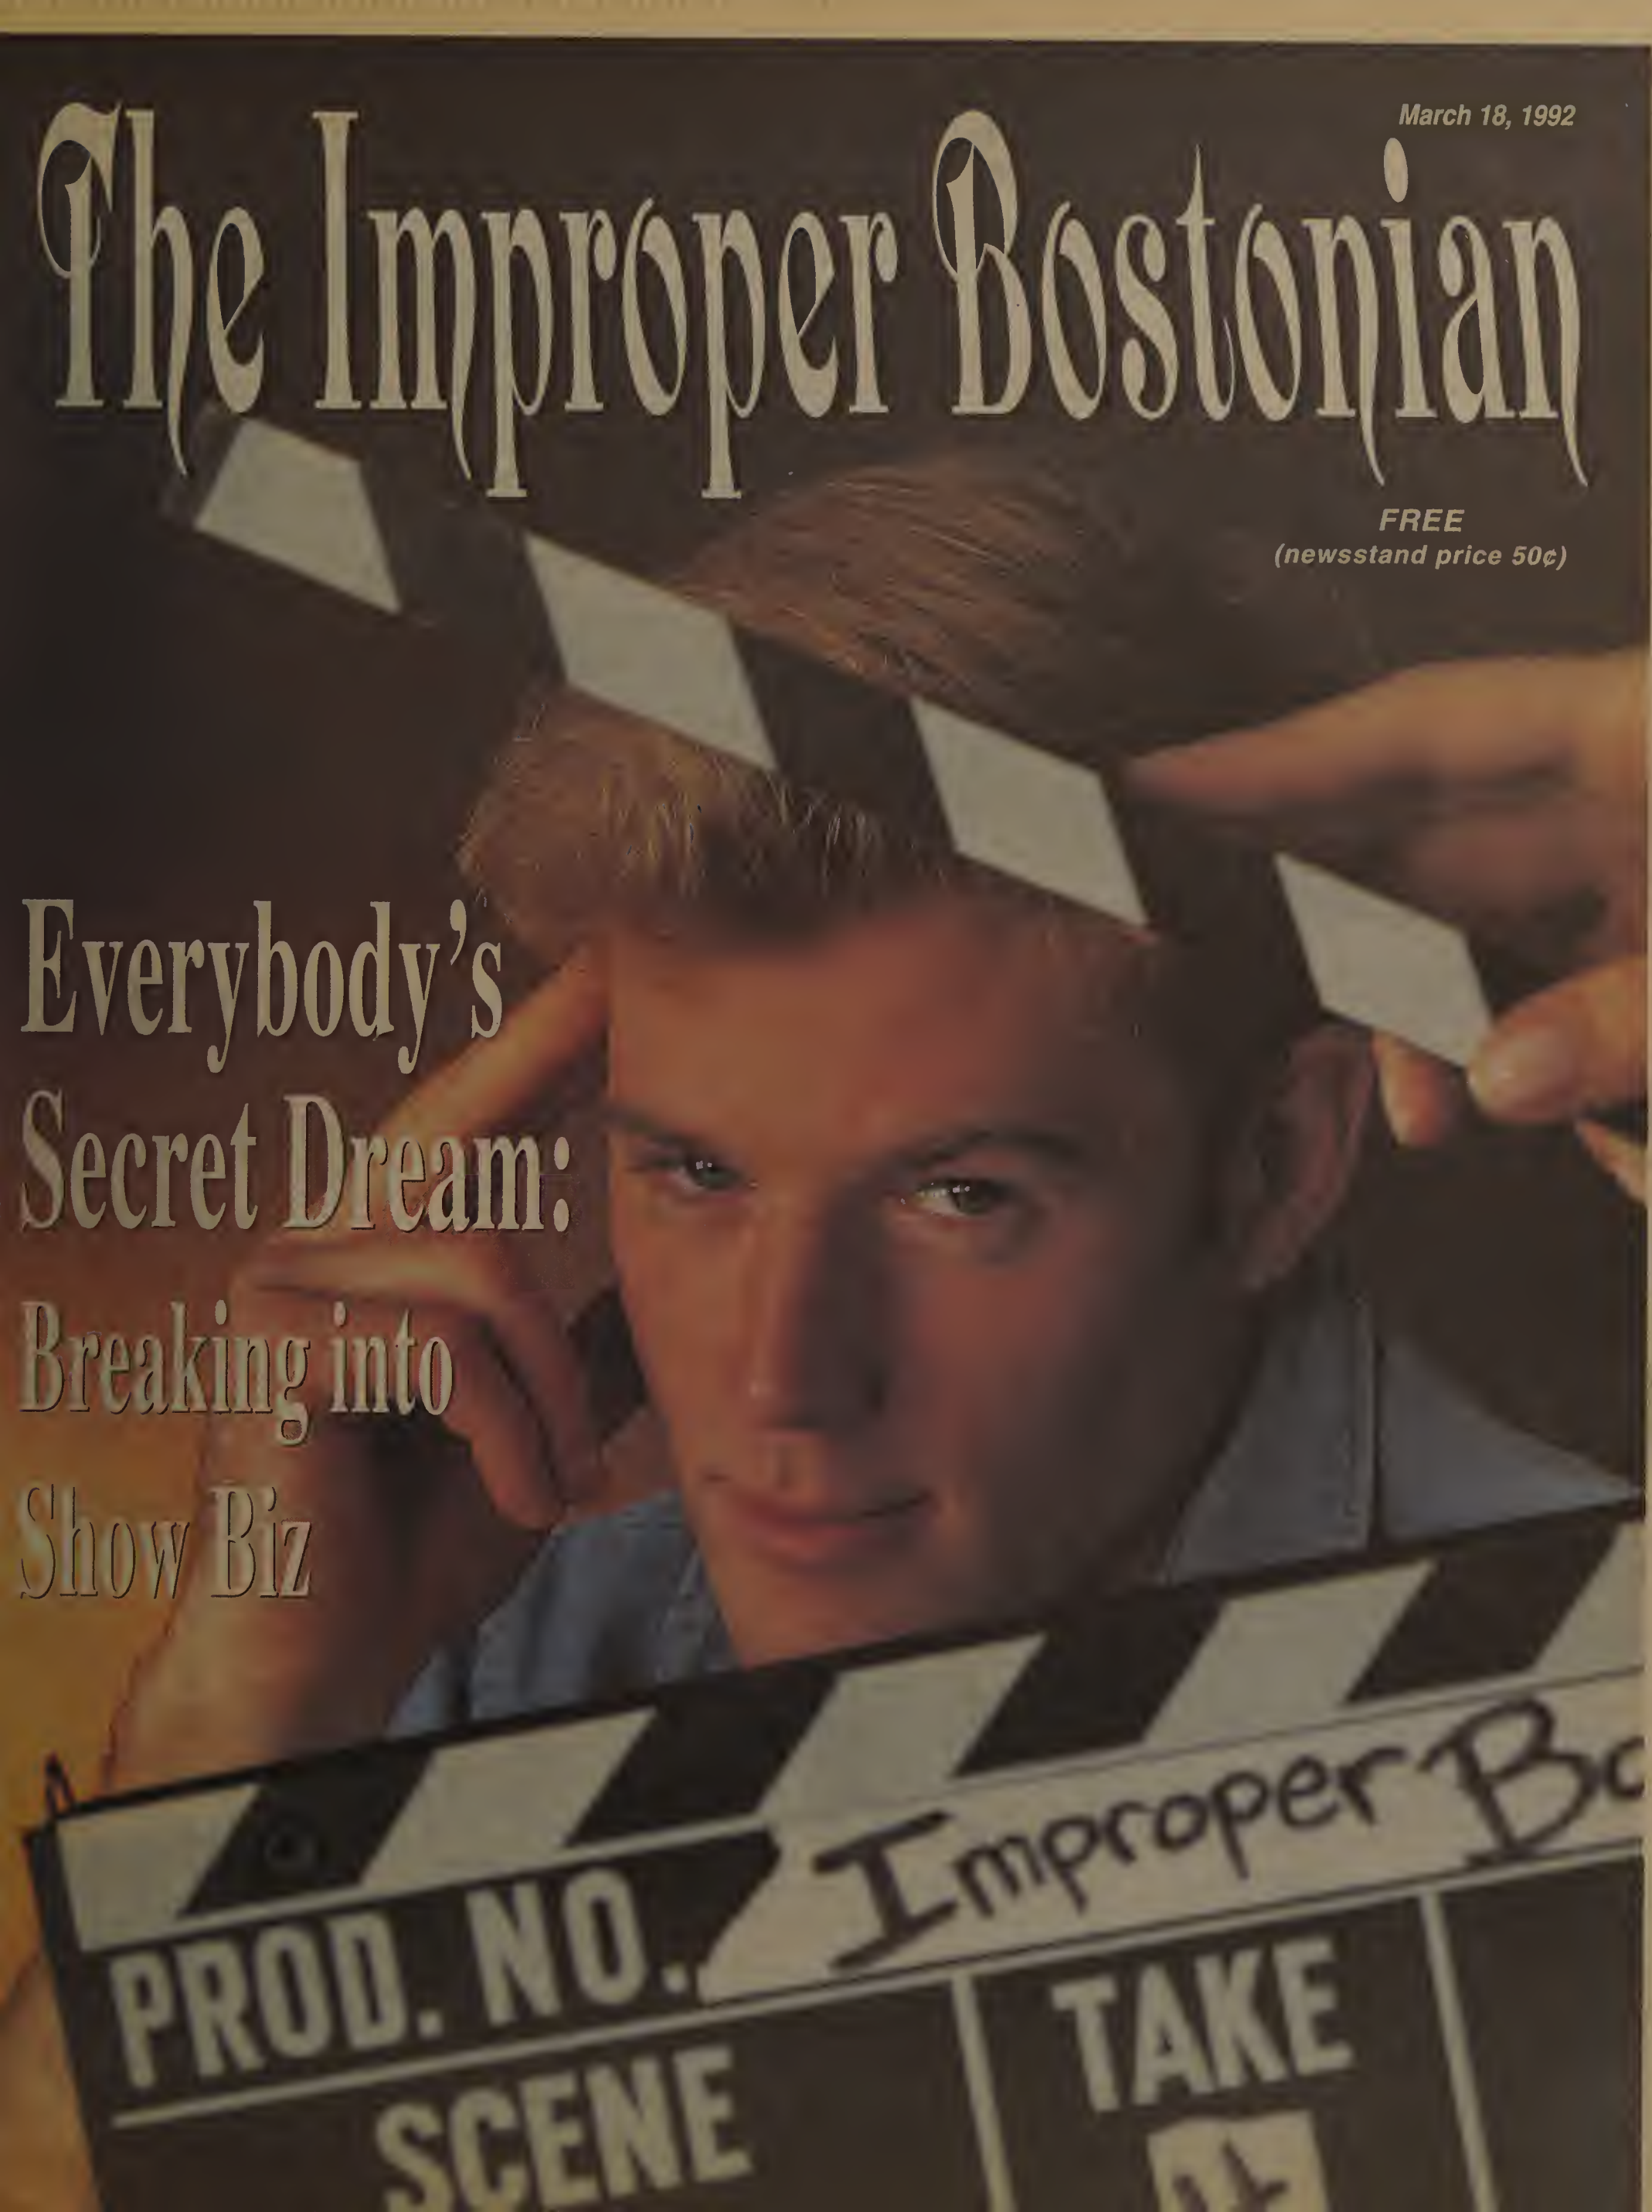
TARGET
Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

© 1989 Anheuser-Busch, Inc St Louis, Mo

BUD LIGHT

BUD LIGHT

BUD LIGHT BEER



Everything else is just a light.®

March 18, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

Everybody's Secret Dream: Breaking into Show Biz

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Geosafari

A shiver of electronic lights - all game show mania - selects a question in the realm of geography, the solar system, wild animals, birds, countries and capitals and world landmarks. The student (and believe me, grownups have to be peeled off this computerized "last-chance to get promoted out of the Sixth Grade") types in an answer and gets a musical pat on the back if the answer is correct. A groaning, annoyed computer groan - something you come to want to avoid - greets an error. Futuristic and fascinating as it all is, the learning still comes through trial and error, thinking, guessing, remembering, and repetition. But by introducing a hectic, beat-the-clock dimension into learning, the player wants to absorb and deliver the information lickity-split to win, either "against" himself, or as a sort of solitaire-a-deux with another person. A playable version of this slender console is on display at this store so you can get to know it before buying; and get to know, as well, Pluto, toucans, and the capital of North Dakota. About $99.

Geosafari (Electronic Teaching Game) at: Sandy and Son Toy Store, 215 Hampshire Street, Cambridge 491-6290.

Marrying in the Past

Queen Victoria's wedding, and all the somber ceremonialism and extreme formality that attended the event, cast its bombazine shadow over a whole era. In Satenig St. Marie and Carolyn Flaherty's book Romantic Victorian Weddings-Then And Now, an 1851 bride, writing to her groom-to-be on the matter of setting the date begins: "My dear Sir, The affectionate letter which I have just received is another convincing proof of your attachment. Upon perusing it, I find that you have imposed upon me the duty, to which, as you may conclude, I feel no aversion." The details of these Victorian weddings, however, make wonderful social-history reading. And, if you happen to be the bride-to-be, in their lightened-up, more colorful form, the wedding specifics are a mauve and pink and silvery-white goldmine in the realm of the cake, the dress, the flowers, the protocol, and the actual authentic places you might rent to hold the wedding. There are many little tacit hints provided by the pictures of modern (yet Victorian in feeling) weddings. To bring it all together in a prenuptial frenzy of fun, The Women's Educational And Industrial Union is holding an event : "To Plan A Victorian Wedding." Michelle Callahan whose lacy-romantic wedding dresses (something old in the fabric, something new in the design of the usually two-piece dress) will show her latest reminiscent styles, and Cile Burbridge of the architecturally ornate wedding cakes will also participate, as will the book's author.

Saturday March 28. $25. Call 536—5651

Hat in the Box

These husband-and-wife designed hat boxes cry out to become the containers for something valuable, the "containing" of which can become a display in itself. Carin Musacchia and David Colombo use a very stiff and heroically solid cardboard known as Bristol Board which they form into round, half-circle ovals and the occasional sharp-edged wedge - then paint by hand. Presented with their array (by appointment at their Brickbottom Artists' Studio place), the only question is Which One? The basic divisions of choice are between the fruits and florals and the geometrics. Luscious overripeness characterize the former with oranges, purples and greens abounding, and elusive remembrances of various trends of illustration flicker across these designs. The geometrics escape with a hint of red hot Santa Fe without falling into any of those predictable patterns. Another series is based on Greek vase designs and those are painted over a warm lake of caramel-colored background, a popular tone here. Some boxes are a bit green or gold-shiney too. And, for that keepsake look, grosgrain ribbons are an option. Put anything into these things; photos, bills, letters, diapers, bureau stuff. Even hats. $65, $85, $120.

Hat In The Box, By appointment. 666-9606.

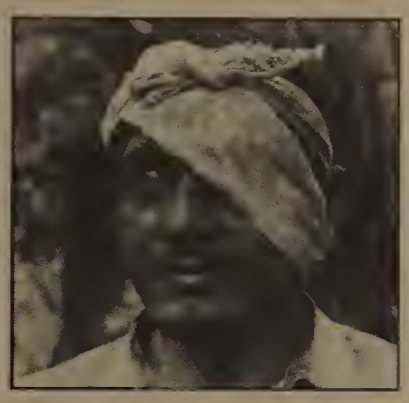
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY IS A FREELANCE WRITER. SHE ~~LIKES~~ LOVES TO RECEIVE LOTS OF MAIL!
PLEASE SEND ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, 17 STATION ST., SUITE 7A BROOKLINE, MA 02146

CONTENTS

March 18, 1992

Features

6



Everybody's Secret Dream

Have you ever wanted to be a star? Most people have had this dream at one point in their life, but not many know how to enter "The Biz." Hear testimony from Boston's industry leaders and discover how you can be on your way to a career in the wonderful world of acting.

by Shelby Allen

16

El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder

See and read of the human tragedy suffered by the people of El Salvador. Far from shallow entertainment, this exhibit of thought-provoking, disturbing and gruesome photographs is on display at the Photographic Resource Center at Boston University.

by Jannette Tucker

17

Cymbeline Delights at the Huntington

The Huntington has redeemed a difficult to stage play, one of Shakespeare's seldom performed works, Cymbeline. Read how this play has overcome difficulties to delight audiences. Cymbeline is a lively and amusing romantic adventure.

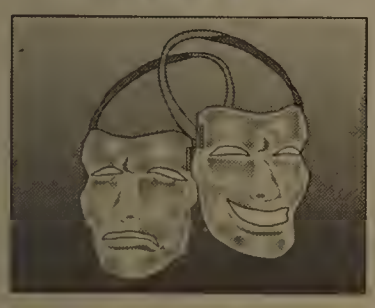
by Nancy Leonard

Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Nancy Knows 10
Movies
- Review: My Cousin Vinny 12
- Review: Article 99 13
- Video Review 14

Comedy
- Review: George MacDonald at Stitches 15
- Comedy Listings 15

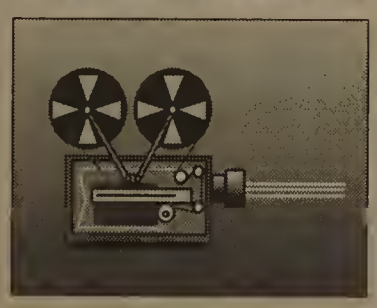
Arts
- Arts Calendar 18
- Artist Profile: Marcella Stasa 20
- Review: The Seagull 21



The Leisure Study 22
Dining
- Budget Bites: The Oasis Cafe 24
- The Moveable Feast: Paparazzi 25
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Wine Books 26
- Appeteasers 27
- Brunch Board 28
- Restaurant Listings 29

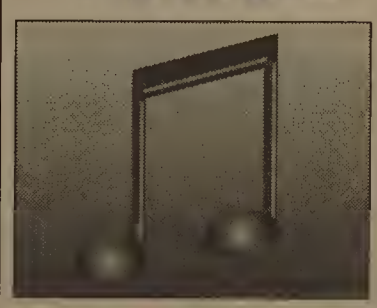
Woman on the Street 31
Hot Ticket 31
Music
- Interview: The Lightning Seeds 32
- Interview: Laszlo Gardony 33
- A Night in Bop City 34

Crossword 35
Bar & Club Listings 36
- Review: Cornwall's 37



Free Boston! 40
Improper Impersonals 41
Classifieds 42

ARTS

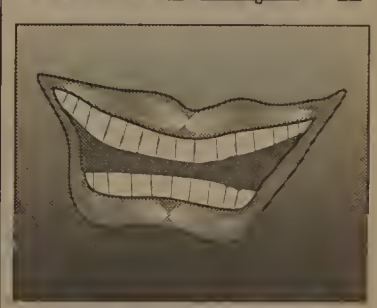


PAGE 16

MOVIES

PAGE 12

MUSIC



PAGE 32

DINING

PAGE 24

COMEDY

PAGE 15

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

photo by Rachel Power

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new guide to Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____

Address_____

City_____State_____Zip_____

Phone(_____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)

Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____

Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

President
DAN SILVER

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Acting Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Staff Writers
JANNETTE TUCKER
JASON ALEXANDER
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
AL STANKUS
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Theater Critics
NANCY LEONARD
RACHEL STERN

Contributing Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
NANCY BIRNBAUM, SHELBY ALLEN
SHAWN GOODWIN, ABBY ELLIN
CHARLES GRAEBER
JOHN GALLIGAN, JON HABER
JEFF BRISKIN, THOMAS M. ULLMAN JR.

Staff Photographers
DENNIS STEIN, JACKIE BAYNE

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
ADAM KAYTES

Account Executives
PAUL WARD
SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, WENDY SEMONIAN
STACEY COLLINS

Consultant
JOE PERSON

Interns
ED STAUNTON, SUZANNE MACRAE
LISA DEATS, KATHY MATHESON
ERICA CANTLEY

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS

All schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of schedules and press releases for all categories of events in and around Boston. To reach the Improper Bostonian, please mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for confirmation. Listings must be received no later than one week prior to release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 8
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by by Improper Publications Inc., 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

The Improper Bostonian Spring 1992 READERSHIP SURVEY

In order to best inform, entertain and educate, The Improper Bostonian is committed to getting to know you as well as possible.

The following survey is geared to gain specific knowledge about our readers so that we can further understand how to improve The Improper Bostonian and better serve your needs. All we ask is that you take your time and fill out each question accurately.

As an incentive for completing this survey, we will be drawing the following prizes: →

Thank you for your participation.

WIN:

- A Dinner for 2 at A Bar
- 2 Tickets to the Boston Ballet
- A Dinner for 2 at Boodles
- A Dinner for 2 at the Cactus Club
- A one year Subscription

DEMOGRAPHICS

1. What is your gender?
❑ Male ❑ Female

2. What year were you born? (Please write)_____

3. What is the highest level of education that you have completed?
❑ Grade 8 or less ❑ 1-3 years college
❑ Grades 9-11 ❑ Graduated college
❑ Graduated high school
❑ Attended Grad School

4. Which of the following categories best describes youroccupation?
❑ Professional ❑ Homemaker
❑ Manager in a business ❑ Student ❑ Salesperson ❑ Military
❑ Factory worker/driver ❑ Retired
❑ Clerical/Secretarial ❑ Unemployed
❑ Service worker

5. How many of the last 8 issues of The Improper Bostonian have you read or looked through? _____

6. How many people, including yourself, usually read your copy of The Improper Bostonian?
❑ One ❑ Two ❑ Three ❑ Four or more

7. Do you find the information in The Improper Bostonian more or less credible than other newspapers?
❑ More ❑ Less ❑ About the Same

8. Regarding Advertising in The Improper Bostonian, have you or anyone in your household done either of the following in the past month?
Responded to a Classified ❑ Yes ❑ No
Visited or Contacted an Improper Bostonian Advertiser ❑ Yes ❑ No

9. Are you currently a member or planning on joining a health club?
❑ Currently a Member ❑ Planning on Joining
❑ No plans to join

10. Which of the following do you plan on purchasing this spring?
❑ Bicycle ❑ Rollerblades
❑ Windsurfer ❑ Camping Gear
❑ Motorcycle ❑ Scuba Equipment
❑ Recreational Apparel
❑ Golf / Tennis Equipment

11. In the past month, approximately how many times did you or other members of your household go to a nightclub or bar?
❑ None ❑ 5-9 times
❑ 1 or 2 times ❑ 10 times or more
❑ 3 or 4 times

12. In the past month, approximately how many times did you or other members of your household entertain in your own home?
❑ None ❑ 1 or 2 times ❑ 3-4 times
❑ 5 or more

13. In the past week, which of the following beverages did you or members of your household purchase to consume?
❑ Imported Beer ❑ Liquor ❑ Domestic Wine
❑ Domestic Major label Beer ❑ Imported Wine
❑ Domestic Micro / Premium Beer
❑ Bottled water

14. Where do you or other members of your household purchase your home furnishings? (Check all that apply.)
❑ Antiques shop ❑ Interior decorator
❑ Department store ❑ Mail order
❑ Retail furniture store ❑ Designer showroom
❑ Custom furniture manufacturer

15. In the past month, how many videotapes of any kind have you rented?
❑ None ❑ 1-4 ❑ 5-9
❑ 10-19 ❑ 20-29 ❑ 30 or more

16. In the past month, how many CD's / audiotapes of any kind have you purchased?
❑ None ❑ 1-2 ❑ 3-6
❑ 6-10 ❑ 10-20 ❑ 20 or more

Financial Background

17. At which of the following kinds of financial institutions do you or any members of your household have accounts?
❑ Full-service bank ❑ Securities firm
❑ Savings and loan ❑ Credit union
❑ Other_____

18. Which of the following credit cards do you or members of your household have? (Please check all that apply)
❑ American Express ❑ Visa
❑ Master Card ❑ Discover

19a. Do you currently use an ATM card?
❑ Yes ❑ No

19b. From which bank is it issued?
❑ Bay Bank ❑ Fleet Bank
❑ Shawmut ❑ Bank of Boston

20. Do you currently use a debit card?
❑ Yes ❑ No

21. What is your total personal income?
❑ Less than $15,000 ❑ $40,000-$49,999
❑ $15,000-$19,999 ❑ $50,000-$59,999
❑ $20,000-$24,999 ❑ $60,000-$69,999
❑ $25,000-$29,999 ❑ $70,000-$79,999
❑ $30,000-$39,999 ❑ $80,000 and over

22. Which of the following best describes your principal residence?
❑ Single-Family house ❑ Condominium
❑ Apartment/duplex/triplex
❑ Other _____

23. Do you own or rent your principal residence?
❑ Own ❑ Rent

24. What kind of car do you drive?
❑ Import ❑ Domestic

❑ Sub-compact ❑ Luxury
❑ Compact ❑ Luxury specialty
❑ Compact Specialty ❑ Full size truck
❑ Intermediate ❑ Sport truck
❑ Full size ❑ Van

25. Did you buy this car new or used?
❑ New ❑ Used

26. How did you pay for your car?
❑ Cash ❑ Car loan ❑ Lease

27. What topics would you like to see covered more often in The Improper Bostonian?
_____
_____
_____

28. Using any adjectives, how would you describe The Improper Bostonian?
_____
_____

Comments:_____
_____

To be eligible for the drawing, please fill in the following (all information contained herein will be strictly confidential):

Name_____

Address_____

City/State/ZIP_____
Daytime phone_____

Fold Along This Line

Fold Along This Line

Fold Here

Affix 29¢ Stamp Here

READERSHIP SURVEY
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 STATION ST., SUITE 7A
BROOKLINE, MA 02146

Staple Here

ON THE COVER

Photograph by Sandra Kimball

John Hellmuth/ Models Group

Elisabeth Boulos/ Ford Model Management

Edited by Tobin Streett

AROUND TOWN

"The Mouth that Roared," a live "celebrity talk show," hosted by impressionist Louise DuArt, will make its way to Nick's Comedy Stop from March 19-21. DuArt, an energetic comic who turns on her personalities the way a gardener turns on the hose, will have no trouble getting laughs as she works her way through characters such as Madonna, Katherine Hepburn, a "schizophrenic" Woody Allen, Cher and many more. DuArt is a semi-regular guest on Hollywood Squares and Lifetime Network game show "Rodeo Drive. Shows are at 8:30 on Thursday and 8:30 and 10:30 on Friday and Saturday. Tickets are $10-$15. Call 482-0930 for more information.

Ballet by . . . Jimi Hendrix? Well, sort of. Boston Ballet's presentation of "On The Edge," a landmark modern ballet festival at the Wang Center from Mar. 12-Apr.12, features work from the most promising new choreographers— including the world premiere of choreographer Bebe Miller's dance to the music of Jimi Hendrix. Also included among the eight cutting-edge performances are two from Twyla Tharp, In the Upper Room and Brief Fling and one from Mark Morris, Mort Subite (Sudden Death). Audiences will surely be on the edge of their seats no matter which show they attend, so call Ticketmaster for times and prices, 931-2000.

Penny Arcade is a performer in the truest sense of the word. This New York based artist brings her controversial performance piece "Bitch! Dyke! Faghag!Whore! (Part 1)" to the Massachusetts College of Art on April 3, 4 and 5. Arcade, who has been an underground performer for two decades (including a stint with Andy Warhol) will kick up the dust in the unswept corners of sex, exploitation, censorship, self censorship and the first amendment. After a successful run in New York, this show promises to be nothing short of an electrifying trip into a world which to many of us, is unfamiliar. Tickets are $8 in advance, $10 at the show. Advance tickets are highly recommended as this show promises to be sizzling hot entertainment Tickets are also available at the ICA Box Office and Charette at Mass Ave.

When it comes to intense hard rock and roll, no one attacks the jugular better than the underappreciated West Coast band L.A. Guns. Attacking Boston on Wednesday, March 25 at Axis, this power chord quintet pull all the punches and send them hurtling back at your face. In support of their latest Polydor release Hollywood Vampire (certified Gold), L.A. Guns proves that Metallica isn't the only heavy metal band to speak in words more sophisticated than 'babe', 'kill' and 'sex' (although a large number of their songs indulge in all three, but who's counting anyway?). Tickets available at all Ticketmaster outlets. Call Axis at 262-2437 for more information.

Lynn Jennings of NH will defend her title on March 21st

Even if it feels early to run in a competitive race, the Snickers World Cross Country Championships will be held at Franklin Park in Boston on Saturday, March 21 from 10am to 5pm. The race marks the city's first International Championships and will bring together 20,00 spectators and over 1,000 runners from around the world. Tickets for the race range from #3 to #30 with proceeds benefitting the Boston Boys and Girls Clubs. Call 661-9200 for tickets and 725-4202 for more information.

Republican presidential candidate Pat Buchanan paid Beantown a visit on Sunday, March 8. Buchanan was greeted and cheered on by an enthusiastic group of supporters at Logan Airport. But the real fun began when Buchanan brought his America First theme to a high turnout crowd at Darcy's Pub in Quincy, where he offered some good cheer and got some experience tending bar.

EVERYBODY'S SECRET DREAM

Breaking into Show Biz

There you are, good-looking, talented, lots of personality and people say you're a natural. You've got to express this! The spotlight's where you belong. You'll keep your day job for now, but show business is waiting for you. All you need is that break.

by Shelby Allen

Fred Schilpp (second from right) of Reunion Productions in Watertown sets the scene for an award winning docu-drama on civil rights violations

Meanwhile, what's "the business" like?

It's like sports: a wide ranging, fun activity for which you have a chance of getting paid. The number of outstanding players will always exceed the number of paid jobs. The good news is that when love - not money - is your real motive to act, it will show in a performance people would pay to see. When it stops being fun for you, that shows too, and you're less likely to find paid work. So always look for a part of this field that you enjoy.

Also like sports, it's a high-stakes game that other people will watch you play to see if you goof. Movies and plays are team sports. You have to focus, stay centered and turn on the energy when it's time.

It looks so easy when it's going well! As smooth as Kristi Yamaguchi doing her triple axle, or Wynton Marsala blowing his horn. Like them, you need to practice. Nobody lasts long as a "natural" when they're doing this for real. You learn to make it look natural. Otherwise, your tools - your body and your psyche - will quit under stress when you audition or perform. Studying with a good teacher is one of the fun parts, though. The first step toward your over night success!

Into The Woods We Go

Think of a forest: dense groves of tall trees, interesting shorter trees and far off, two brightly lit clearings - "New York" and "L.A."

The nearest clump of trees is the Boston theatre and film world: 2,000 actors in the film and video unions, 29 Equity theatres and an intriguing array of smaller theatres. (The Wilbur, Shubert, and Colonial theatres present shows that were cast in New York.) Corporate videos (called "industrials"), commercials and infrequent movies are filmed in Boston. During the recession, trees died here as elsewhere, but new ones are springing up now.

You can leave this forest at any time for the world of real jobs, and return here when you want - there's no fence. Nor has anyone yet discovered the "right" path through the place. You'll get farther when you sniff out your own.

A guidebook called "The Source" lists the theatres, teachers, producers and performance spaces around here and describes how to find work. It's published by StageSource, a 900-member organization of actors and producers, which you can join or visit. (One Boylston Place, 3rd floor, over Zanzibar)

(continued on page 8)

Meet The Pros:

PETER KOVNER has been a full-time actor since 1978 - everything from Shear Madness to Mermaids and other films, videos and plays while serving here as president of the Screen Actors Guild.

"When you're starting out, people have lots of advice for you! Don't follow it unless it seems right for you and your current goals."

INGRID SONNICHSEN has played Off-Broadway, the Charles Playhouse and other theatres here, in Chicago and Los Angeles. Last fall, she was invited to Japan to teach an all-women dancers' company, like the Rockettes.

"If you're drawn to community and try to create one around you, you can find this in theatre. There's a real sense of family."

Tools of The Trade:

1. An answering machine with a short announcement in your best natural voice.
2. Your head shot (by a camera).
3. A truthful resume stapled or glued to your head shot. (The Source guide has more specifics on pictures and resumes.)
4. A paid job you can duck out of in the middle of the day.

Meet The Pros:

MARJORIE BURREN dreamed one night that she and her college friend Peter would be a comedy act; they later did that act in New York nightclubs. She's acted in Shear Madness, many other plays and films and is forming the American Improv League.

"You need to keep learning and studying. In a New York acting class I took, there were Diane Keaton and Christopher Walken."

DON WESCOTT is "The Voice." You've heard him countless times narrating TV commercials and radio spots, seventy-five NOVA shows, corporate training and sales videos.

"When I was 13, I was a make-believe DJ, with a microphone and a basement 'studio.' I still have a home studio - now it's for real. Let your imagination guide you - it's a powerful tool."

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

all PEOPLE all STYLES

Haircuts: $15-40
Color: $30-100

Creative Director: Jodie Branco Concept: Elvis/Leigh

born 2b wild

116 NEWBURY STREET 617-536-0303
Under New Management

FEATURES

(continued from page 6)

How Do I Make My Dream Come True?

First, be more specific. Describe the room where the dream takes place. Who else is there? What are you doing? What detail from your current life matches? Now, what common sense first step links your life to your dream?

Example: Your dream is to be a star. What's your first step?

a. Prepare your Oscar acceptance speech.

b. Prepare your audition monologue.

Answer: c. Maybe your Oscar speech can be your audition monologue. Try it out with an acting coach and see if it works.

Now you need some auditions to go to. You can find them through StageSource (tel. 423-2475), other actors you meet or local ads. At the audition, you may see people lying on the floor doing breathing exercises or other strange warmups. Do yours. Everyone hates the audition system, but if you can think of another way, let us know.

When you walk in to do your monologue, say hello to your fellow humans - the producers. Breathe and do your speech. Secret #1: The producers want to like you. Secret #2: If you're right for the part that day, you get cast by producers who want to work with you.

If you get tired of your Oscar speech, Baker's Plays in Boston has books of monologues and play scripts, plus a resident cat and a funky elevator. Do your monologues in front of an acting coach or colleague before you do them on stage.

Why Is A Coach Necessary?

"An actor's work is invisible," says Boston theatre director, June Judson, "because the instrument you play is yourself. You're not holding a violin. An actor from a movie goes on a talk show, and it's obviously the same person. However, you never see an actor preparing for a role, or the cameras, cables and stagehands who were six inches from the film actor's face.

"You need technique to act through that. You also might get cast in a challenging role that's very different from you, or from anything you've acted in before. A coach can help free you to do well at this task. Performing skills are useful in many other parts of life, and who knows where they'll lead you?"

What Do Producers Want?

Fred Schilpp of Reunion Productions (corporate videos for Raytheon, Fleet Bank, A.T. Cross):

"The most common mistake I see new actors make is being unprepared. If you're auditioning to play a number, don't wear a suit. And try to learn how your character connects to the whole script. You're part of a team. It can take all day to shoot ten minutes of video, and we need all you can bring here: your patience and intelligence, not just your looks and voice."

Philip Kruener (left) and Fred Schilpp (second from right), of Reunion Productions, direct actors on location in the Charles Street Jail

Tips:

1. Breathe. Now. Keep breathing. Remember to do this before your big audition.

2. Trade tips with other actors you meet in class or in plays or the StageSource party (May 18 at Avalon, an annual bash that producers and directors also attend).

3. Buy stamps for your postcards flyers and resumes instead of calling casting agents.

Confusing But Crucial

"Casting agents" work for producers, who hire them to find actors. "Talent agents" in Boston represent mostly models, for a percentage of each job. Most Boston actors find their own acting jobs.

Good Parts Of The Business:

1. Actors are interesting people. 2. The food on most shoots is delicious. 3. You can stay in this game longer than athletes stay in theirs. 4. Some doors have opened for people of color and the physically challenged. 5. You'll learn to spot phonies quicker and develop a sharper ear for the truth in someone's voice.

Other Parts:

1. Age- and type-casting. 2. Hearing you're too young or too old, too short or too tall - all in the same week. 3. Your competitors are your colleagues. 4. You need to be tough while you look for work, but human and vulnerable while you perform.

Q & A With The Casting Agents

Carolyn Pickman of Collings/Pickman Casting (commercials and films - Mystic Pizza, Against the Law)

I.B. What do you tell people you do for a living?

Pickman: I say I have a small business in Cambridge, with a partner.

I.B. What's your day like?

Pickman: The phone rings, 100-150 times. Lately, we've had a streak of "Hi-Ums." "Hi" someone says. "Um. Uh, people say I look like Marilyn Monroe/Richard Gere. Could you tell me how to get into the business?" This is futile. We decided to give an orientation seminar (May 9); we want to find good people and our clients want us to, but the best way is still to send us a picture and resume. List special skills and traits: languages you speak, juggling, singing, body-building; you have exquisite hands, you're a twin. Then keep in touch by mail - send flyers for plays you're in, poems and greeting cards.

Casting agent John McGee (corporate videos and films; Cheers)

I.B. You acted in Chorus Line in New York; you must know how hard it is to get started.

McGee: Yes! I'm on the other side of the desk now. My current job is to find actors, not explain the business. It's better to learn the ropes from other actors and teachers you trust. Get any experience - community theatre is fine. Send me the flyer.

Shelby Allen is a Boston theater, film and video actress whose credits include among others, Spenser for Hire and The Good Mother.

Meet The Pros:

JOHN DRABIK appeared in the premiere show at ART, the first live theatre at the Museum of Science, regional opera, sitcoms and other shows in Boston, Chicago and New York.

"Find a situation where you can take time to explore a character. Acting is a process and a journey you take with each role."

DOROTHY GALLAGHER appeared in the premiere of Spenser: For Hire, the Merrimac Repertory and Huntington Theatres; Against The Law and Complex World (now playing at the Nickelodeon).

"I learned it takes time for the casting people to get to know you. If the door doesn't open, don't keep banging on it; find another route."

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

born 2b wild

Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

She can cut the mustard, but when it comes to slicing the salmon, it's a whole new kettle of fish. That's what public relations honchette Sally Jackson found out when she attended a fundraiser for the non-profit American Institute of Wine and Food at the home of founder Julia Child. Sally, whose food clients include Stonyfield Yogurt and Samuel Adams Beer, was one of a dozen devotees who dished out many fins in exchange for instruction on how to carve paper-thin slices of smoked salmon (Improper Bostonians probably refer to it as lox!). Each student was given their own salmon and a professional knife (no Ginsu's in Julia's kitchen!) and off they went. Upon inspection, poor Sally was acknowledged as the worst in the class - in two classes. Her slices of salmon were more like hunks of ham! But then again, she was one of the only guests who wasn't a food professional.

Who's In Julia Child's Kitchen?

The best was yet to come - dinner in the dining room of the Great Chef herself. Among the guests gathered in Julia's kitchen sipping wine and swapping fish stories, were Legal Seafood Executive Chef Jean-Jacques Paimbianc, cooking school owner Roberta Dowling and well-known Boston sommelier Walter Clay, formerly of Rocco's and Hamersley's. Amidst this haute cuisine crowd, Sally suddenly saw a chance for salmon salvation: perched on top of the counter sat The Holy Scale - a fresh smoked salmon just waiting to be sliced. Without hesitation, Sally threw caution to the wind, picked up a knife and began carving. It was miraculous: where earlier she was hacking off hunks, now she was creating tissue-thin diaphanous delicacies. It was as if some gastronomic god had inhabited her sole. Sally was overcome with joy: She had indeed redeemed herself in front of this August gourmet group.

A Slim Chance For An Autograph

That is, until she noticed a man who was smirking at her. Sally soon found out why Chef Paimblanc leaned over and gently told her, "Madame, I don't know how to tell you this, but you are cutting zee PRE-sliced salmon!" And there's one additional footnote: Sally brought some cookbooks for Julia to sign but she held onto Sally's pen to sign more autographs. When Sally left, she realized she had forgotten her pen - a promotional pen from... Jenny Craig!!! Chances are good that Julia won't be using it to write any new recipes!

Take The Geraldo Challenge

There's lots of good stuff cookin' with Pam Browne, the producer of renown who's back in town. The former producer of the original People Are Talking on WBX-TV is in Boston producing NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY, a nationally syndicated late night talk show being produced by Time-Warner out at WCVB. If anyone can make another talk show a go, it's Pam. You may remember that long before Geraldo had a chair broken over his nose, People Are Talking*'s Nancy Merrill was pelted with eggs by members of the KKK. While in some people's opinion, Nancy continued to get egg on her face, Pam went on to join the networks - doing stints for CBS News' Nightwatch, The Reporters from Fox Network and most recently producing on ABC's PrimeTime Live. As a matter of fact, the night before she came to Boston, she was holed up in a New York City editing room with... Diane Sawyer, working on her last piece which will be airing later this month. Pam's list of well-wishers since coming to Boston reads like a who's who in network news: Mike Wallace, Peter Jennings and Forrest Sawyer. Sawyers hubby Mike Nichols even passed along congrats, as well as the resume of his friend's kid. While we're doing some heavy duty name dropping, look for some big names to be dropping by the show which debuts March 30. Guests already booked include renowned lawyers William Kunstler and Bruce Cutler (Gotti's guy); Hollywood author and spiritualist Marianne Williamson (she's the one who married Liz and Larry); Rev. Al Sharpton and Tom Arnold. And though there's a real war for ratings in the ranks of late night television, Pam's a seasoned veteran. Last year she spent 5 weeks covering another war - that one in the Persian Gulf.

Spiritual Rest In The Lyons Den

While we're talking about far-out people in faraway places, let's talk about Patrick Lyons. Last issue, I promised to let you know about his trip. It seems that Boston's goodtime guru journeyed south but not in search of entertainment and revelry - more like enlightenment and revelation. Patrick went to Bangalore which is indeed quite south... it's south INDIA and it was there that he went for some spiritual r&r (no, that doesn't stand for rock 'n roll!). It seems that Patrick, who is one of Boston's premiere server of spirits, also has quite an active one of his own. Meditate on that for a while until we meet again.....

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock 'n' Roll Hair

ALL PEOPLE ALL STYLES

Haircuts: $15-40
Color: $30-100

Creative Director Jodie Branco Concept: Elvis Leigh

born 2b

116 NEWBURY STREET 617-536-0303
Under New Management

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

The Mambo Kings
"Pulsing with the passion of music"

The Mambo Kings evokes an age of passion and opportunity with music as the forum for both. The film is about two brothers, Nestor and Cesar, who come form Cuba and find success as The Mambo Kings. But fame is fleeting and soon they are playing Bar Mitzvahs, only to be rescued by Desi Arnaz (eerily played by Desi Arnaz Jr.) and a wonderfully recreated appearance on "The I Love Lucy Show". It is a story about the contrast and love between two brothers, in an atmosphere pulsing with the passion of their music. Antonio Banderas is solid as Nestor. But Armand Assante is the film, giving a performance bursting with charisma and prowling with the overblown but compelling machismo of a matador. Surprisingly thoughtful, The Mambo Kings is highly recommended. J.A.

America Me
"Brutally honest but unfocused"

America Me is a brutally honest film. Starring Edward James Olmos, this film tells the story of a Hispanic gang whose power is provided - not limited - by being in prison. Though set in the fifties and sixties, its message of brutal power games behind bars is still potent today. Be warned, it pulls no punches showing the details. Olmos also directs the film well and gives a fine performance as a man whose feelings, mannerisms and even sexual relations have been formed in jail. But the film lacks energy and focus when dealing with the outside world. At its core, America Me is a very good film, but the finished product is overlong and hard to follow - a pity. J.A.

Blame it on the Bellboy
"A well-acted farce"

The sights of Venice, Italy are a highpoint in this well-edited comedy starring Dudley Moore, Richard Griffiths, Patsy Kensit, Bryan Brown and Bronson Pinchot. After gathering at the Hotel Gabrielli, the identities of the men are mistakenly interchanged by bellboy Pinchot. The harried Moore walks around with a forkprint embedded in his cheek by a Mafioso member. Griffiths steals this comedy seeing romance in the sales talk of a hard driving real estate agent. The hit man (Brown) finds love, gives up his profession but still gets paid when Moore detonates a bomb which was supposed to be in Griffiths' hands. A well-acted farce that's funny throughout. M.B.

Gladiator
"An inane guilty pleasure"

Gladiator is supposed to be a gritty film about the exploitation of young boxers in the world of unsanctioned boxing. At times it's so laughable that Gladiator could be recommended as a guilty pleasure. James Marshall (Twin Peaks) and Cuba Gooding Jr. (Boyz 'n' the Hood) spout cliched dialogue that will not enhance their careers. But with Brian Dennehy actually boxing as well as Ossie Davis and Robert Loggia stretching as would-be stereotypes, there is something gloriously awful about this film. The boxing is badly choreographed, like an old "B" movie, and the plot makes astounding leaps in logic. Fueled by a booming soundtrack, Gladiator is gory and inane and it's probably going to be a huge hit. J.A.

My Cousin Vinny
Its Humor is More than Relative

by Jason Alexander

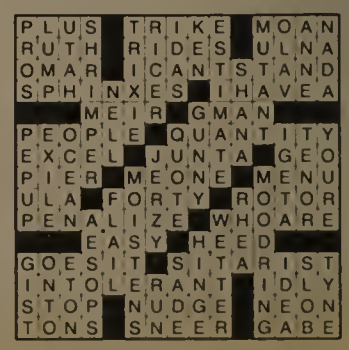
Judge Chamberlain Haller (Fred Gwynne) is perplexed when defense counsel Vincent Gambini (Joe Pesci) puts his own fiancee Lisa (Marisa Tomei) on the stand

Joe Pesci has made a career tailoring the basic character of a street-wise New Yorker, to suit a variety of roles from Raging Bull to Home Alone. The premise in My Cousin Vinny is not complicated; Brooklyn comes to small town Alabama in the form of Vincent Gambini (Pesci), a "wet behind the ears attorney". This may not sound like the ingredients for a successful screenplay, but it's a hilarious film thanks to Pesci's over-the-top performance.

The story is about the ultimate Yankee nightmare. Two college students (Ralph Macchio and Mitchell Whitfield) are passing through Wahzoo City, Alabama, only to be arrested for murder, coming face to face with the workings of southern justice. They send for the only lawyer in the family - Vinny - who arrives in a barrage of rap music, clad in a leather suit with girlfriend Mona Lisa Vito (Marisa Tomei), who's busy taking snapshots of the locals. Vinny's lucky number is six; he's been practicing law for six weeks and took six years to pass the bar. Not a cheerful set of odds for two innocent kids in an Alabama jail.

My Cousin Vinny draws much of its humor from the clash of abrasive Italian-American mannerisms and language with the very different attitudes of the residents of Alabama. Along the way is a framework of running gags - Vinny's unrequested wake-up calls, his clothing and frequent trips to prison for contempt of court. My Cousin Vinny isn't subtle but who cares, it's sure funny.

However, despite the humorous fillers, the movie has shortcomings. Provincial humor at the expense of the south is getting very old. We are supposed to believe that the boys will be sentenced to death if they are found guilty, convicted on nothing more than circumstantial evidence. Vinny's case is nothing complicated and yet he's presented as an Italian Perry Mason. These attempts to attach an unnecessary edge to the film detract from its true beauty. My Cousin Vinny is much better when rolling innocently along. Dallying with a a plot only serves to make the movie too long, detracting from the simple, direct humor.



Pesci's performance is excellent. He speaks with highly inventive, self-assured language, meeting the challenge of his role to sustain energy and freshness throughout the movie. The final courtroom scene is continual laughs as Pesci uses his peculiar style of cross-examination. My Cousin Vinny serves as an irreverent and long overdue parody of the courtroom dramas that have become irritatingly commonplace in films and on television.

The story has added depth due to excellent performances from Tomei and Fred Gwynne (of The Munsters fame) as the contentious Judge Chamberlain Haller. Tomei has an intensity and conviction that spurs the natural chemistry between herself and Pesci. She is funny in her own right and provides an enjoyable foil to Pesci's antics. Ralph Macchio's role as one of the accused is more ornamental than amusing, another reason for this film's success.

My Cousin Vinny has some shortcomings, but with a host of interesting characters and Pesci adding another feather to his hat of standout performances, you'll be satisfied all around. My Cousin Vinny is not a challenging story or polished comedy. It's a barrage of good belly laughs - the sort of film that makes you feel better for having seen it. What other excuse do you need?

My Cousin Vinny
A 20th Century Fox film
Directed by Jonathan Lynn
Starring
Joe Pesci
Marisa Tomei
Fred Gwynne
Ralph Macchio

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Article 99 - The Official Cold Shoulder

by Tobin Streett

Dr. Leo Sturgess (Ray Liotta, left) explains to Dr. Peter Morgan (Kiefer Sutherland) the way VA hospitals operate

"Article 99" is a fictitious V.A. regulation, an idea born from too many outrageous stories of bureaucracy and delay. The film, Article 99, in spite of some obvious shortcomings, is sure to strike a nerve in each and every viewer. This drama/comedy survives undeveloped character relationships and predictable story turns with an astonishing view of the current state of American V.A. hospitals.

Starring Ray Liotta and Kiefer Sutherland as a rebellious doctor and an intern, we're shown the state of affairs at a V.A. hospital in which bureaucracy rules and medicine plays second fiddle. On top of this bureaucratic mountain stands an anal retentive Dr. Dreyfoos (John Mahoney). This film "vet" shines in convincing us only too well of his disregard for the practice of medicine and revere for administrative efficiency.

In the film, "Article 99" promises veterans "full medical benefits, however. . . treatment is not available at this time." Requests are denied, treatment is delayed, psych ward patients are dismissed without treatment and doctors are inundated with unnecessary paperwork. This meager disguise of administrative responsibility upsets Sturgess (Liotta) who has made his own rules, obeying the Hippocratic oath by treating any veteran in need. Sturgess "turfs" patients (moves them from ward to ward to avoid their discharge back to the streets) and with some help, conducts midnight raids on other hospital wards to procure deeply needed supplies.

Article 99
Orion Pictures
Directed by Howard Deutch
Starring
Ray Liotta
Kiefer Sutherland
Written by Ron Cutler

Screenwriter Ron Cutler visited a V.A. hospital where he saw "Vietnam vets chained to bannisters because there wasn't any room in the psych ward." Cutler's material comes from real stories - including some of the funnier scenes.

Sutherland is convincing as Dr. Peter Morgan (Sutherland), who's temporarily caught in the middle of a battle between Dreyfoos and Sturgess until he sacrifices political correctness to join Sturgess and gang. But Liotta steals this picture. His disregard for policy, and unchanneled desire to "do the right thing" will easily win your heart.

Unfortunately, director Howard Deutsch uses such unnecessary symbolism (always portraying the administrators in the dark) that the film loses some of its potential impact. But the combination of M.A.S.H.-style antics and a modern tale of unattended loyalties makes Article 99 a success.

Article 99 has a lot of untapped potential. You'll leave this film with a mix of satisfaction and disappointment. The problems are in the complexity of the screenplay as Cutler attempts to do too much with such a brilliant initial idea. The undeveloped relationships leave enough material for Article 99 part two - but who will want to see that?

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
- A Winner
- A Toss up
- For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
Beauty and the Beast	★	★	★	★	★	★	★	★	🐦
Medicine Man	🥚	🐦	🥚	🐦	🐦	–	–	🐦	🐦
Mississippi Masala	🥚	🥚	🥚	★	★	★	★	🥚	★
Fried Green Tomatoes	★	★	🥚	🥚	🐦	🥚	–	🥚	🥚
The Prince of Tides	🥚	★	🥚	★	★	🥚	★	🥚	★
Wayne's World	★	🥚	🐦	🐦	★	🥚	🥚	🐦	★
Memoirs of an Invisible Man	★	🥚	★	🥚	★	–	–	🐦	🐦
Final Analysis	🐦	🐦	🐦	🥚	🐦	–	★	🐦	🐦
Hand That Rocks the Cradle	🐦	🥚	🥚	🐦	🐦	★	🥚	🥚	🥚
Stop or My Mom Will Shoot	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	–	–	🐦	🐦

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Wayne's World
"Worth the Trip"

Wayne's World is so stupid it will make your stomach ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control over their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

Shakes the Clown
"Overextended Sketch"

Shakes the Clown stars (and was written and directed by) Bobcat Goldthwait, developed from one of his sketches about an alcoholic birthday clown. Set in Palukaville, U.S.A., the film plays like an overextended Saturday Night Live sketch with a darker edge. It stars a slew of comedians, all with suitably absurd names like Stenchy, Dink and Binky. The story shows how comedians see themselves (Robin Williams has a wonderful cameo as a mime). Shakes the Clown just doesn't have enough direction and plot to be interesting.
J.A.

This is My Life
"Family, fun and fame"

This is My Life is the highly accomplished directorial debut of Nora Ephron. Julie Kavner is a kinetic, earthly divorcee who pursues her dream of being a stand-up comedienne. The beauty of the film is that it does not concentrate on her success but on the change in the relationship between Kavner and her young daughters played by Samantha Mathis and Gaby Hoffman. This is also a touching - but not corny - coming of age movie. Ephron directs with compassion and Carrie Fisher and Dan Akroyd also star in minimal but effective roles. But the film belongs to Hoffman, Mathis and Kavner. This is My Life is a fine and funny story about family and fame. A good time. J.A.

Memoirs of an Invisible Man
"Unexpected Substance"

Invisibility provides the chance for a slew of visual gags and physical humor. Since Chevy Chase is a master of both, Memoirs of an Invisible Man is certainly funny. But director John Carpenter has given the film added depth by remaining true to the concept of invisibility. Food, cigarette smoke and toothpaste can all be seen with considerable reality inside Chase's body. There is a darker element as covert operative David Jenkins (Sam Neill) hounds Chase, obsessed with his capture. On the side, Daryl Hannah adequately provides the necessary love interest. Memoirs of Invisible Man contains slapstick humor, stunning visual effects and a degree of menace. Combine this with good performances and the result is superb entertainment value. J.A.

Once Upon a Crime
"Bland and limited"

Once Upon a Crime has the makings of a wonderful parody of the "all-star cast" murder-mysteries of the 1970's. But its scope and humor are strangely confined leaving an entertaining but rather bland film. The high points: Richard Lewis' angst-ridden persona translates well onto the screen. John Candy nicely overplays his role as a gambler. And the brief location shots of Monte Carlo are lavish. On the down side; Sean Young, James Belushi and Cybill Shepherd never seem to get into the flow of the humor and Giancarlo Giannini is just far too serious. Above all the murder may be a mystery but the identity of the killer never seems important. Once Upon a Crime is a nice film that falls short. J.A.

MOVIES

On those cold winter nights, we deliver to ...

Allston Back Bay

Brighton Fenway

Chestnut Hill Brookline

Bangkok Bistro

AUTHENTIC THAI CUISINE
at Cleveland Circle

739-7270

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

VIDEO CHOICES

Spring Breakdown

by John Galligan and Jon Haber

Every spring, an honored ritual is enacted on college campuses from coast to coast as well-healed students smirk, pack it up and split to 81° latitude, 29° longitude (roughly Fort Lauderdale) to soak up some sun, sin and good times.

For the rest of us, however, the indentured scholarship types, the part-time mail handlers, dish washers, waiters and sweepers of the student union who scramble for pennies during this blessed sunny interlude, you need not leave The Hub to learn the true hell of Spring Break. You need only have access to an above-average video outlet.

Getting there. Between here and Florida (off the AAA maps) lie such quaint bed and breakfasts as the Motel Hell-O seen in Motel Hell (1980) a scrumptious source of fine cold cuts made from only the freshest travelling ski bums, bondage freaks, bikers and itinerent rock bands.

The locals can be a source of all kinds of fun. Just ask the van load of collegians in The Texas Chainsaw Massacre (1974) who spend their vacation in the Texas Hill country running from Leatherface and his madcap family of murderous meat curers. The kids in 2000 Maniacs (1965) did not fare much better, spending their holiday being mauled by the denizens of a blood-lusting red-neck Brigadoon that reappears periodically to chop up carloads of vacationing NYU students.

In The Born Losers (1967) a particularly inept band of bikers invade a beach-side town to ruin the holiday of vacationing coeds. Fortunately, Billy Jack (yes Tom Laughlin from Billy Jack, The Trial of Billy Jack, Billy Jack Goes to Washington and the 1992 presidential campaign) is there to set things right.

And don't think the beach is a safe haven. Blood Beach (1981) asks the question: what can kill you beachside other than sharks and skin cancer. Answer: the carnivorous gelatinous blob hidden under the sand. Horror of Party Beach (1965) offered another answver sixteen years earlier: a mutated radioactive sea beast who lives to devour unwary Connecticut beach-goers.

The message from the video shop echos to all those longing to take part in the hormonal antics of Spring Break: Stay home!

ADDITIONAL SPRING BREAKDOWN RECOMMENDED TITLES

Wild at Heart (1990)
Thelma and Louise (1991)
Psych-Out (1968)
Piranha (1978)
Tourist Trap (1979)

HARVARD CELLULAR

"Nobody sells more Cellular Phones for less"

PANASONIC

CM800
- Installed with antenna
- Handsfree speaker
- 3-year warranty

only $189
or 2 for $299

Blowout...

HP600
- Handheld portable
- Fits in your pocket • Best price ever

only $429

TF800 Car to Car Transportable
only $159

Act now, offer expires 3/31/92

TOP 10 REASONS TO BUY A CELLULAR PHONE NOW!

1. Winter car problems, No problem!
2. Family safety & security
3. Maximize downtime (drivetime)
4. Harvard Cellular price protection
5. Increase sales & productivity
6. Can go car to car or car to boat
7. *Free off peak air-time
8. Keep in touch with family & friends
9. Best Cellular coverage in New England
10. Priced so low you can't afford not to!

 7 pm to 7 am Mon - Thurs, 7 pm Fri - 7 am Mon. New England telephone and long distance charges apply.*

An Authorized Agent of CELLULARONE®

Prices valid with 180 day minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service plans.

HARVARD CELLULAR
PHONE STORE
112 Water St., Boston
720-2235

HARVARD CELLULAR
188 Needham St., Newton
332-7373

COMEDY

Local Boy Makes Funny

Comedian George MacDonald at Stitches

by Charles Graeber

Believe it or not, the last word was "moo"- a telling finish to a comedy routine which concentrated more on silly good-time humor than cynicism.

Local boy George MacDonald made a hometown appearance last Thursday night at Stitches comedy club. Fresh from a series of East Coast shows and an appearance on A&E's "Comedy on the Road," MacDonald pleased the crowd with a routine that was distinctly Bostonian.

Since MacDonald still holds an apartment in the South End, he was pleased to perform to a home town audience. "On the road, the first thing I find I have to do, especially as a Boston native, is slow down" he said. "Here, they want you to get right to the joke."

MacDonald was easily able to target themes familiar to a Boston audience. His impression of Boston's St. Patrick's Day parade - marching music interrupted by "Sully, look out!" and gunshots - was as topically pertinent as it was funny.

George's perma-grin and infectious self-amused giggling are reminiscent of Jay Leno, who he opened for six years ago. "Leno's the guy" he admits, "as far as stand up comedians go, he would be a personal hero." Macdonald had the opportunity six years ago to open for one of Leno's performances.

Just as there is a distinctive New York style of cuttingly cynical Dennis Miller-style comedy, George MacDonald's style is distinctly Bostonian. His self-proclaimed ethic for audience interaction is non-confrontational and non-abusive. Like a clever friend, George plays the part of funny man by sharing his sometimes bizarre, always humorous take on such usually mundane daily realities as working, drinking and traffic tickets. "I think everybody says funny things in conversation." he explained. "It's just that comedian's keep track of them." As most comedy is based on such realty slanting, George constantly works over his routine to keep it fresh and innovative.

Although he has appeared in numerous television commercials, his true aspiration is a career in film. Recently George had the opportunity, with a bit part in a Woody Allen movie. "That was so cool" he said, visibly excited. "I'm sitting there going 'that's the guy, that's the guy'. But I never met him. I wouldn't know what to say without sounding like every other fish-head that's ever broken his chops. you know 'I love all your movies,' oh he never hears that; 'I'm a comedian' there's a new one! But it was cool just -to be there."

COMEDY LISTINGS

• Back Alley Theater 576-1253, 1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Camb. Beginning Mar. 25, comedienne Lizz Winstead performs her one-woman show "Scream of Consciousness," a hilarious personal journey toward political correctness. Call for times and ticket prices.

•Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 18 to SAT 22.-Brett Butler, with Colin Blake and comedian/magician Bruce Teall. WED 25 to Sun 29.-Tony V., with Jim DeCroteau and Dominic Fig. MON 30.-The Academy Awards.

•Comedy Connection at Charles Playhouse 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat..

Special events: WED 18-Jimmy Smith hosts the Ebony/Jet Showcase. THUR 19.-Billy Martin hosts Comedy Odyssey. SUN 22.-Dave Fitzgerald hosts the Last Irish Comedy Show. MON 23- Jimmy Smith hosts Best of Boston Comedy. TUES 24- D.J. Hazard hosts Revered Lunacy. WED 25- Jimmy Smith hosts Comedy Showcase. SUN 29- Comedy Cavalcade with Dave Fitzgerald. MON 30- Best of Boston Comedy with Rich Ceisler. TUES 31-Comedy Groove with D.J. Hazard.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

•Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The Improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the buisness and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues- Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.

TUES 17 to SUN 22.-Kenny Rogerson and Brian Powers. MON 23-Best of Boston. TUE 24 to SUN 29- Mark Roberts, Sue McGinnis

•Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices.

WED 18.- Brian McFadden, Gary Ewing, Dennis Stocker, Larry Reppucci. THUR 19.- Louise Duart, Gary Ewing, Jim Lauletta, Brian McFadden. FRI 20 & SAT 21.-Louise Duart, Brian McFadden, Lauren Dombrowski. SUN 22.-Kevin Knox, Brian McFadden, Gary Ewing, Dennis Stocker. MON 23.-Open Mic Nite with Billy Martin.

•Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

WED 18.-Anthony Clark, Jeff Allen. THUR 19.- Jeff Allen, Julie Barr. FRI 20 & SAT 21 (early show).-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. FRI 20 & SAT 21.(late show)-Jeff Allen, Tom Agna, Julie Barr. SUN 22.-Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. TUES 24.-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. WED 25.-Anthony Clark, Mike Bent. THUR 26.-Cross Comedy. FRI 27 & SAT 28 (early show).-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist. FRI 27 -Mike Bent, Brian Frazier. SAT 28.-Kevin Flynn, Brian Frazier. SUN 29.-Open Nite Mic with Vinnie Favorito. TUES 31.-Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist.

PUZZLED?

For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's

NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Call 1-900-646-8282

95c per minute

ARTS

"El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder"

Harsh Reality in Black and White

by Jannette Tucker

"El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder" is not shallow entertainment. It's not meant to be for your enjoyment. It's thought-provoking, disturbing and downright gruesome at times. Which is exactly why it's worth your time to take a trip down to the Photographic Resource Center at Boston University to learn about the life and struggles of Salvadorans via crisp, black and white photos.

All of the exhibiting photographers are anonymous for their own protection. Many still live in El Salvador or have friends and family there. Their photographs could get them into trouble or have repercussions result in which some of their family members "disappear."

Through the lens, these photographers have recorded the aftermath: decapitated bodies lying in the grass, a dead woman lying on top of newspapers as her last "comfort" or an assassinated student, whose last mark made on the world was the trail of blood leading to a soldier with a gun.

The photos in this international touring exhibit were selected by curator Katy Lyle from over 80,000 photos taken by Salvadoran people who wanted their history since 1979 accurately recorded. The photographers give detailed descriptions of their lives to narrate the photos, which in some cases, don't need words to accompany them.

The mere fact that these photographers were finding creative outlets in the face of disaster is testimony enough for their zest for life. Says one photographer in the midst of the fighting, "Two cameras, the lenses and the rolls of film weighed more than the ammunition. At least a million times I thought of throwing away the photography equipment during those interminable night marches. At those times, in which the camera was no more than a useless and heavy irritant in my knapsack, I reflected and dreamed about where the photographs might end up - photographs of these lives, these joys, [of] these deaths. . ."

© PANATECA

"Boy holding photo of one of 1000 villagers massacred at El Mozote, El Salvador", 1981

Unfortunately, the joys are few and far between. We enjoy the happiness of a women whose ecstatic by a visit from nuns and a priest - welcoming them with a big smile to her home made of tin and plastic tarps. We see the superficial happiness of the Miss El Salvador contest, grossly out of place amidst all of the suffering. On the same wall as Miss El Salvador hangs a photograph of a decapitated body.

Gruesome, yes. But this is life to so many people, and turning a deaf ear helps no one. Only the display of these photographs will help us to see the courage and determination of these people.

A woman sits on a curb in San Salvador, formerly dressed in all white. She has been shot and sits in a puddle of her own blood. She shows no pain, no suffering. Just that she may have been defeated temporarily, but the determination in her eyes tells you it's not permanent.

A family of five poses for a unique family portrait of sorts. A mother and her three children, ranging in age from five to eight, stand with their father who holds an undetonated 100-pound bomb.

Happiness abounds, however, in these trying times. They find time to laugh and dance and play. When you come to those photographs, they mean so much more after having viewed all of the suffering. One feels it's their right to feel happy to celebrate and enjoy life. But the suffering continued, and these photographers chronicled it - all for the sake of their people. It's worth it to see the results of their struggles.

The Photographic Resource Center, 602 Commonwealth Ave., is open Tues.-Sat., 12-5pm, Thur. until 8pm. Admission is $3 general, $2 for students and senior citizens and free Thur. 5-8pm.

© PANATECA

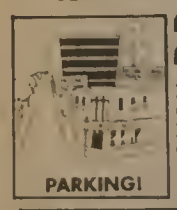
"Irma Elene Contreras, killed in ambush of a march of the popular movement, Oct. 29 1979

We're Specialists . . . in Family Medicine.

Upholding a proud tradition of comprehensive & highly specialized medical care for Women since 1927.

- Comprehensive Medical Examination
- Full Birth Control Services
- Pelvic Exams
- Pap Smears
- PMS Treatment
- Pregnancy Testing
- Premarital Blood Tests
- Stress Management
- Preventative Health
- Menopause Therapy
- Weight Loss Program

The BEMC accepts TAHPS, Bay State, U.S. Health, AETNA, Mass. Blue Cross, Medicare and, most other insurance plans where applicable.



We're also specialists in:

• COMPREHENSIVE PHYSICALS • ALLERGY • HYPERTENSION • CARDIOLOGY • GYNECOLOGY • EAR, NOSE AND THROAT • NUTRITION • NEUROLOGY • MINOR SURGERY • CANCER DETECTION • PEDIATRICS • UROLOGY • DERMATOLOGY • VD • MENTAL HEALTH • CLINICAL LABORATORY • RADIOLOGY

Call 267-7171 for prompt appointment.

AMERICAN EXPRESS VISA MasterCard

PARKING!

267-7171

Located on the Green Line at Hynes Convention Center Stop and with parking garage adjacent. BEMC validation

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

Not just in the evening, anymore. Morning...noon...and nighttime too!

Cymbeline is an Absolute Gem

by Nancy Leonard

At the Huntington Theatre Company, "Cymbeline" is a lively and amusing romantic adventure. While the acting could be stronger in places, and the direction overdoes the comedy at the expense of the tragedy, the play is engaging and wonderfully winning at its close.

This seldom-performed work from late in Shakespeare's career, combines material from numerous sources into an exceptionally complex plot. At its heart is the princess Imogen, who has married the worthy orphan Posthumus Leonatus against the wishes of her father, King Cymbeline. He prefers that she marry the son of his second wife, the lowly and cloddish Cloten. But after the lovers are separated, and Posthumus flees to Rome, Imogen still remains faithful to her vows.

The action involves such diverse elements as a wager to test Imogen's constancy, attempted seduction, long-lost brothers, less-than-lethal poisons, ghostly apparitions and mighty battles pitting Britain against the Roman conqueror.

Thread this with romance and patriotism, resolve all loose ends with a happy reunion of lovers, and you've got an evening worthy of a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta. This is not to demean the text - which has often been criticized for its hybridization and improbability - but to suggest that a fanciful embrace is all that's needed to make the mix a satisfying and exhilarating theatrical outing.

Director Larry Carpenter speeds the evening into decidedly comic realms - perhaps to be expected from his delicious staging of H.M.S. Pinafore, Candide, and Animal Crackers at the Huntington. He's not so blatantly irreverent here, but the strong comedy gives short shrift to important tragic elements driving the plot.

The direction also slights some key aspects of human nature and turns of heart which are included to enrich the proceedings. Some speeches, too, pale for lack of projection. But even if the evening is unbalanced, the directorial choices ultimately seem wise. A modern audience may laugh inappropriately at the Shakespearean magic and melodrama, but Mr. Carpenter's light-hearted tone ensures that they will be readily forgiving.

The large cast is filled with competent actors, but their efforts are surprisingly varied. The most memorable performance is from John Christopher Jones, even if his dim-witted Cloten lacks menace. He's wonderful, railing against the Roman demand for tribute and dueling with a rustic aggressor. Dan Mason also brings considerable appeal to Pisanio, the servant who proves his loyalty to the lovers by being disloyal.

Howard Witt is a noble and majestic Cymbeline, good-hearted though unmoved by his daughter's desires. Gary Sloan is good but vaguely superficial as the oily, opportunistic Iachimo, who wagers for Imogen's honor. His secret outing in her bed chamber reeks with sleazy sensuality.

Lyn Wright is sweet, virtuous and articulate as Imogen (and as the boy-page Fidele), but needs more substance and appeal.

Jack Aranson's exiled Lord Belarius, though juicy, occasionally suggests community theatre. Sheila Allen's Queen is an unsettling combination of fluttering arms and practiced speech - a comic impersonation poorly meshed into the proceedings.

John Falabella lends some impressive Druid imagery to the cardboard forest glen and creates some nicely accommodating geographical locations. Marcia Madeira's textured lighting adds active mood and good feeling. David Murin's rude costumes are aptly wild and pagan.

With unaccountable comedy, the Huntington has certainly redeemed a problematic play. It's great fun. But wouldn't it be dandy if Cymbeline could only sing ?

Boston Ballet PRESENTS

ON THE EDGE

Julie Bacon and Geoffrey Rhue Photo by Jerry Bendit

A FESTIVAL OF New Ballet

MARCH 12 thru MARCH 22 — APRIL 2 thru APRIL 12

TICKETMASTER Call 931-2000 Today! — AT THE WANG CENTER

Nine ballets by the best choreographers in the world today!

BILL T. JONES MONICA LEVY BEBE MILLER MARK MORRIS

RALPH LEMON SUSAN MARSHALL ELISA MONTE TWYLA THARP

Ticket Prices: $19.75 - $19.75

In person at The Wang Center Box Office, 270 Tremont St., Boston, Mon. - Sat., 10am - 6pm and at all Ticketmaster Outlets.

Participating sponsors of On The Edge are AT&T and Philip Morris Companies Inc. Additional funding provided by The Harkness Foundations for Dance AT&T

We Take No Prisoners was made possible by a grant from the National Dance Repertory Enrichment Program (REP), a partnership of Philip Morris Companies Inc. and the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Fund, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts. REP was conceived and is administered by Pentacle

MEDIA SPONSORS Phoenix WBUR

BOSTON BALLET

Bruce Marks, Artistic Director

ARTS

ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
19 Clarendon St., Boston.
From Mar. 12 to Apr. 12, Boston Ballet showcases On the Edge, a dazzling line-up of gifted choreographers for a month of the very best new ballets. These cutting-edge performances run for one month only. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.75, depending on seating locations and are available either through Ticketmaster or the Wang Center box office. Call 695-6950 for more information.

Dance Umbrella
at the Emerson Majestic Theatre
219 Tremont St., Boston
Inspired by the landscape and indigenous people of Taos, New Mexico, choreographers Eiko and Koma will present their dance/theatre work entitled "Land." Created in collaboration with Native American musicians, the work will be performed by Dance Umbrella Mar.20-21 at 8pm. Tickets are $14-$22. For more information, call 492-7578.

The Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville.
Courtney and Company Dances returns to The Performance Place for two evening performances at 8pm on Mar. 27 and 28, and a 2pm matinee on Mar. 29. Choreographer Bernie Courtney will present a program including "Hansel and Gretel," a distorted view of the fairy tale, "Helpful Cooking Tips," "Women of the Snow Clan," "Memories," and "But the Truth is ..." Tickets are $12. Call 625-1300 for reservations.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
The Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater will dazzle audiences from March 24-29. Season after season, the Ailey company simply erupts with power and passion; their expressions of joy and suffering are universal and are the key to their worldwide following. For times and ticket information, call 482-2595.

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

PHOTOGRAPHY

The Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Exhibit hours are Mon.-Thur.., 9am-9pm and Fri-Sat., 9am-5pm. Admission is free and open to the public.

The Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave., Boston
The PRC presents "El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder," a U.S. premiere exhibition of 100 photographs representing Salvadoran underground archives. The exhibit is being held through Apr. 5. Admission is $3 for non-members and $2 for members, students and seniors. Call 353-0700 for more information.

The Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave, Boston
Showing simultaneously with the Salvadoran exhibition is Jerry Berndt's "Photographs From Haiti." Exhibit dates are the same as above.

CLASSICAL

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, Mass Ave., Boston
The BSO, conducted by Marek Janowski and with Zoltan Kocsis on piano, will perform MESSIAEN "Un sourire," BARTOK Piano concerto No. 1 and BEETHOVEN Symphony No. 5 from Mar. 19-21. Janowski will later conduct the BSO, featuring Malcolm Lowe on violin, from Mar. 26-28. Works will be SPOHR Violin Concerto No. 8, "Gesangsszene," STRAUSS "Metamorphosen," and HAYDN Symphony No. 99. Call 266-7575 for more information.
The Celebrity Series continues on Mar. 27 at 8pm when internationally famous soprano Kiri Te Kanawa gives a song recital, with pianist Martin Katz assisting. Her program includes works by Schubert, Liszt, Strauss and Gluck, among many others. Tickets cost $25-$32. Call 266-1492 for more information.
World-renowned flute virtuoso Jean-Pierre Rampal will give a recital on Mar. 29 at 3pm as part of the Bank of Boston Celebrity Series. His program includes music by Czerny, Schubert, Hindemith, Jean-Michel Damase and Poulenc. Tickets cost $15-$28. For more information call 266-1492.
Equally renowned as a conductor and pianist, the intensely cerebral Maurizio Pollini reveals every moment of passion in each work he plays. The "infinitely expressive" Pollini will perform Mar. 22 at 8pm. Call 266-1492 for ticket prices.

First Church
11 Garden St., Cambridge
The Spectrum Singers, one of the leading choral ensembles in the Northeast, emphasizes a cappella repertoire and, as the name implies, the performance of works from all stylistic periods and in many foreign languages. Under the diretion of John W. Ehrlich, the group will present "Monuments of the Early and High German Baroque," featuring the motets Jesu, meine Freude, BMV 227 by J.S. Bach and Heinrich Schutz's Musikalische Exequien. Tickets are $12 and $16 and are available by calling 923-4475.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
As aprt of their Composers' Series, works by Irving Fine, Arthur Berger and Malcolm Peyton will be performed by the Borromeo String Quartet. Bethany Beardslee (Soprano), Eric Rosenblith (Violin), the Ariel Quintet and the NEC Chorus and chamber singers. Jordan Hall at 8:00. Admission is free. For more information call 262-1120.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
306 Northern Ave, Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

The Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle House, Cambridge
During the month of March, the CCAE runs a series of Friday night films under the theme Local Filmmakers Present. Ape, Pulp and Other Animated Shorts will be presented Mar. 20 at 8pm by animators Julie Zammarchi and Flip Johnson; in Breaking Time and Other Shorts, to be screened Mar. 27 at 8pm, filmmaker Saul Levine travels to his home city of New Haven to rediscover its moods, neighborhoods and its place in his memory. Admission for both shows is $6 and tickets are available in advance as well as at the door. Call 547-6789 for more information.
The CCAE also offers two film courses with European screenwriter, producer and director Federico Muchnik: The Elements of Film: Fantasy and Realism and The Business of Creative Writing for Film. Call 547-6789.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
The Wang has a Monday night film classic series. Call The Wang Center at 482-9393 for more information.

The Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

DANCE

The Art Complex Museum
189 Alden St., Duxbury
Two art galleries with changing exhibitions, an art reference library and Japanese tea hut are all part of this art museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 1-4pm. Admission is free. Call 934-6634 for more information.

Babson Map and Globe Museum
Coleman Hall, Map Hill Drive, Babson College, Wellesley
This museum houses the largest relief map in the world. They also house the world's largest revolving globe, standing three stories tall. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat., 12-4pm. Admission is free. Call 239-4232.

The Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
This waterfront exhibition center houses fun-filled participatory exhibits for children of all ages. Culture, arts, science and history are all explored. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm and Fri. 10am-9pm from Sept.-June. Call 426-8855 for more information about admission prices.

The Commonwealth Museum
220 Morrissey Blvd., Boston
This history museum is dedicated to the people, places and politics of Massachusetts. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat. 9am-3pm. Admission is free. For more information call 727-9268.

The Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Admission to the museum is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, free for children under 5 and half price on Sat. until noon. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

The Concord Museum
200 Lexington Rd., Concord
A collection of decorative arts and domestic artifacts from Concord-area residents is the focus of this museum. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 10am-4pm. and Sun. 1-4pm. Call 508-369-9609 for more information.

The Dansforth Museum of Art
123 Union Ave., Framingham
To spotlight the beauty of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, the Dansforth Museum presents "White Mountain Painters," an exhibition of late 19th and early 20th century paintings done by various artists that capture the charm and brilliance of the natural world. The exhibit runs through Apr. 19. Call 508-620-0050 for more information.

The Essex Institute Museum
132 Essex St., Salem
A museum neighborhood in the heart of Salem, the Essex Institute is an art and history museum of Essex County from the 17th century to the present. Museum hours are Tues.-Sat., 9am-5pm, Sun. and holidays 1-5pm, Thurs., 9am-9pm. Tours are available. For more information call 508-744-3390.

The Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton
455 Oak St., Brockton
This museum features changing exhibitions with a special emphasis on contemporary art. A children's gallery offers varied exhibits aimed at young audiences. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 12-5pm. Call 508-588-6000 for more information.

The Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Harvard University Museums of Natural History
24 Oxford St., Cambridge
Four museums under one roof including: the Botanical Museum's glass flowers, the Mineralogical and Geological Museum, the Museum of Comparative Zoology's dinosaur skeletons and endangered species and the Peabody Museum of Archeology and Ethnology's Pre-Columbian artifacts. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 9am-4:30pm, Sun., 1-4:30pm. Call 495-3045 for more information.

The Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. "Currents: The Absent Body," a feature of the works of six contemporary artists from five countries, will run through Mar. 22. The works of Eugenio Dittborn, Guillermo Kuitca, Paul Etienne Lincoln, Doris Salcedo, Shellburne Thurber, and Francesca Woodman will be displayed. Currents is the ICA's annual exhibit devoted to important new works by emerging artists and recent unseen work by established artists. Admission is $4 general, $3 for students, $1.50 for seniors and children under 16, $1 for UMass/Boston and M.I.T students. Free admission on Thur. from 5 to 8pm. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. The museum is currently playing host to a new exhibit, "Imaging the self in Italian Renaissance," which will run through April. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

The MIT Museum
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
265 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge
This museum explores the interplay of art and technology. Museum hours are Tues.-Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat.-Sun., 12-4pm. For more information call 253-4444.

The Museum of Afro-American History, African Meeting House
46 Joy St., Boston
The home of the Black Heritage Trail, this museum explores the history of Boston's 19th century black community, including the African Meeting House, the oldest black church still standing in the United States. Museum hours are Mon.-Sun., 10am-4pm. Admission is free. Call 742-1854 for more information.

The Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.
Also at MFA is "The Art of Drawing," an exhibition that compares and contrasts approximately 75 American and European drawings assembled from the museum's permanent collection, and illustrates how artists from the 15th century to the present day approach similar subjects in diverse ways. Artists include Rembrandt, Picasso, Durer, Goya, Degas and others. The exhibit runs until Mar. 22.

The Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"Bears: Imagination and Reality," one of two temporary exhibits, challenges the visitor to learn the difference between the imaginary bear and the real bear. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metropolitan Boston school year.

The Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year, and admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children, students and senior citizens. Museum hours are Wed-Sun., 10am-5pm. For more information call 522-6547.

The New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

(continued on following page)

ARTS

MUSEUMS (continued)

Old State House
206 Washington St., Boston
Built in 1713, this is the oldest public building in Boston. It was the scene of important debates and events, such as the Boston Massacre, that led to the American Revolution. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 10am-4pm, Sat., 9:30am-5:30pm and Sun., 11am-5pm. Call 720-1713 for more information.

The Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge
The museum houses one of the greatest collections of archaeology and primitive art in the United States. Museum hours are Mon.-Sat., 9am-4:30pm, Sun. 1-4:30pm. Admission is $3 for adults, $2 for senior citizens and students with non-Harvard ID, $1 for children under 16. Free admission on Sat. from 9-11am. For information, call 495-2248.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The Rose Art Museum
Brandeis University, Waltham
Hours are Tues.-Sun., 1-5pm and Thur., 1-9pm. Admission is free. Call 736-3434 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
The ART will run The Seagull, directed by Ron Daniels, until Mar. 21. Anton Chekhov's tragicomic masterpiece was the first great production of the Moscow Art Theatre in 1898. Show times are Tues.-Fri., 8pm, Sat. 2 and 8pm and Sun. 2 and 7pm. Ticket prices range from $17 to $38. Call 547-8300 for more information.

American Repertory Theatre
Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The ART presents Media Amok, a scorching satire on the multiplying lunacies of our time. Seen from the horrified perspective of a peaceful old couple who just want a little harmless entertainment, the world of talk-show television is seen to be populated with an army of psychotic celebrities. The show will run for 24 performances from Mar. 26-Apr. 26; Tues.-Sat. at 8pm with weekend matinees at 2pm. Call 547-8300 for details.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Moment to Moment, a provocative social satire about surviving in the 90s, by Daena Giardella will make its run until Mar. 29 at the Beacon Hill Playhouse. Actor, comedienne and dancer Giardella collaborates with guest musicians to express the inner and outer struggles centered around the absurdities of contemporary life. Show times are Thur.-Sun. at 8pm. Tickets are $15 and can be ordered by calling the Beacon Hill Playhouse box office at 720-0082.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Due to extraordinary demand, the hilarious one-woman show Shirley Valentine has been extended and will play an open-ended run. Willy Russell's funny and touching play about a middle-aged Liverpool housewife who experiences liberation on a Greek vacation has been playing to capacity audiences since it opened Jan. 9. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket information.

The Colonial Theatre
106 Boylston St., Boston
Raul Julia and Sheena Easton star in the 25th anniversary production of Man of La Mancha from Mar.10-29 at the Colonial Theatre. Tickets are $30-$55. For times and more information, call 426-6444.

French's Opera House
45 Fairmount Ave., Hyde Park
Take a musical trip into romance with the French's Opera House production of The Hopeless Romantic. The world premiere musical comedy plays every Thur., Fri. and Sat. at 8pm. The show's run is open-ended until further notice. Tickets are $12 for general public, $8 for students and seniors. Call the theater at 361-7024 for tickets. Tickets are also available at Bostix (723-5181) or Ticketmaster (931-2000).

The Huntington Theatre Company
264 Huntington Ave., Boston
William Shakespeare's rarely seen Cymbeline is getting set for its run at the Huntington Theatre Company. The twilight romance, written between 1608 and 1610, will begin its stint on Mar. 6 and will run until Apr. 5. Tickets range from $18 to $34 and can be ordered by calling 266-0800. Groups of 15 or more may also receive a discount by calling 266-7900, ext. 2524.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
Beginning Mar. 18, for five weeks only, Athol Fugard's poignant and powerful play Master Harold and the Boys will be performed at the Lyric Stage. A recipient of numerous Best Play Awards, Fugard's touching and powerful story is set in modern South Africa and deals with a young white South African student's relationship with two black men, one of whom has served as a substitute for the boy's drunken father. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

Mystery Cafe
1667 Mass. Ave, Cambridge
The Mystery Cafe will also present Killing Mr. Withers at their Cambridge location. Shows are on Sat. at 8pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus show are $30-$32 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

The New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
A long-running off-Broadway hit, A Shayna Maidel fills the stage with laughter and tears, and a vision of hope for the future. This magical and deeply moving drama explores the relationship of two sisters separated in early childhood and their emotional reunion at the end of World War II. The play runs through Mar. 29. Call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

The Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Boston theater company Cicatrix Theatre will present Minya Mintz, a new play by Anna Baum, Mar. 5-21 at the Performance Place. An adventurous interplay of characters, images and sounds, Minya Mintz documents a young woman's discovery of her impotence and then traces her efforts to learn how to experience desire again. Tickets are $12. Performances are Mar. 5-7, then Mar. 11-21, Wed.-Sat. All shows are at 8pm. Call 625-1300.

Sanders Theatre
1350 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge
New England Philharmonic presents "Jan Swafford: After the Spring Rain" Mar. 20 at 8pm; Revolutionary Acts presents Cheryl Wheeler and David Wilcox Mar. 21 at 7pm; Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra presents "The Power of Words" Mar. 22 at 4 pm; Revolutionary Acts presents Holly Near at 5:30 and 9pm; Newton Choral Society presents HANDEL "Israel in Egypt" Mar. 29 at 3pm.

The Strand Theatre
543 Columbia Rd., Dorchester
The Strand presents a Haitian music festival headlined by Missile 747 and their singer La Rose on Mar. 29 at 7pm. Call 298-1019 for more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Performances are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 7 and 10pm, Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Thursday matinees are at 2pm. Tickets are $29.50 and $26.50. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For more information and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken began a six-week run on Feb. 19 with a brand new cast and set. Ticket prices are $17 and $22 Sun.-Thur., $22 and $25 for Fri. and Sat. nights and Sun. matinees. Show times are Wed.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm, Sun. at 3 and 6pm, and Wed. matinees at 2pm. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. To charge tickets by phone, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

LECTURES

The French Library
53 Marlborough St., Boston
In conjunction with the library's theme month entitled "France between the Wars," Brenda Lynne Leach will explore the interrelationships involving music between 1919-1939 on Mar. 24 at 6:15pm.

The Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
William M. Bulger and Steven G. Cecil will be panelists at a discussion called "The Future of the Waterfront" Mar. 25 at 7:30pm in Remis Auditorium. Moderator will be Robert Campbell, architecture critic of The Boston Globe. Tickets are $6.50 and $7.50. Call 267-9300.

The New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
A panel of experts will join the New Rep for a forum discussion entitled "The Jewish Family in America" on Mar. 24 at 7:30pm. Admission is free and open to the public. For more information on all New Rep events call 332-1646.

WORKSHOPS

Boston University
Seminar in the Culinary Arts
808 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Todd English, owner/chef or Charlestown's very popular Olives, along with chef de cuisine Paul O'Connell, will demonstrate dishes from Olives and you will get a chance to sample his cuisine. On Mar. 23 from 6-9pm. Then on Mar. 31 from 6-9pm, Stan Frankenthaler, of Cambridge's celebrated restaurant The Blue Room, will be demonstrating his culinary talents and you will be served the unusual combinations of tastes typical of the restaurant's menu. Cost for both seminars is $40;$30 if you bring a friend.Call 353-9852.

The Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
Teams of one adult and one child can learn how to build, program and operate a robot using specially designed plans, Lego blocks, motors, gears and lights. Each team can pose with their robot for a photo to take home. Workshop fee is $18. Call 426-2800 x341/329.

Dance Umbrella
380 Green St., Cambridge
Japanese performer/choreographers Eiko and Koma will conduct a two-hour workshop Mar. 21 called "Delicious Movement." The workshop is designed for all ages, regardless of dance/movement experience, training or ability. For more information, call 492-7578.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

The Alpha Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
The Alpha Gallery is showing an exhibition of paintings and watercolors by Yanick Lapuh. The exhibit will run until Apr. 1; opening reception is Mar. 6 from 6-8pm. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat. 10am-5:30pm. For more information, call 536-4465.

The Andrea Marquit Fine Arts
207 Newbury St., Boston
An exhibition of recent paintings by four contemporary artists opened Mar. 13. New York artists Michael K. Bisbee and Laurie Campbell will be shown along with two Boston-based painters, Stephen Mishol and Rob Moore. The show runs through May 16. Gallery hours are Mon.-Wed. by appointment and Thur.-Sat., 11am-5pm. For more information, call 859-0190.

Ben Kupferman Gallery
115 Atlantic Ave., Boston
A working studio/gallery featuring hand-wrought jewelry, bronze and concrete sculptures and one-of-a-kind items with contemporary flair. Currently on display is a collection of nautical silver items.

The Copley Society of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
A juried members' exhibition of works in pastel and charcoal are on display from Mar.11-Apr. 4. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat. 10:30am-5:30pm. For more information, call 536-5049.
Also on display is the Lower Gallery group show, featuring works by five of the Copley Society's most important up-and-coming artists: Dianne Lam, Gene Paletta, John C. Traynor, Rong Gie Xie and Joyce Zavorskas. Reception: Mar. 21 3-5pm.

Different Angle Gallery
286 Congress St., Boston
Currently displaying Charles A.Stigliano and Stephanie Mahan Stigliano, "The Collaborative Work." Gallery hours: Wed.-Sat. 12:30-5:30pm. Telephone 482-3343 for more information.

Eclipse Salon/Gallery
216 Newbury St., Boston
Paintings by Paul Richard on display until Mar. 31. Gallery hours: Tues.-Sat. 9am-6pm. Call 247-6730 for more information.

The French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
"The Age of Train Travel," a private collection of vintage posters, will be on display from Mar. 5-31. Admission is free. Tues., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm; Wed. and Thurs., 10am-8pm. For more information, call 266-4351.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
The Galerie Mourlot is currently showing David Kupferman's "Indian Raga Series" and Michael Petringa's oil paintings. Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

Gallery Equus
125 Kingston St., Floor 2
A group show entitled "New Boston Artists" marks this gallery's grand opening on Mar. 7. All media are on display, including painting, neon, glass, photography and glass. Gallery hours are Wed.-Sun. 12-6pm and by appointment.

Gallery NAGA
67 Newbury Street, Boston
Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 10am-5:30pm. For more information, call 267-9060.

The Iguana Gallery
246 Newbury St., Boston
This gallery presents a unique collection of Haitian, Primitive and Naive works of art. Included are the Molas, wall hangings created by the Cuna Indians of San Blas. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 11am-5pm or by appointment. For more information, call 247-0211.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery

(continued on folowing page)

BALLET THEATRE
OF BOSTON
ADULT CLASSES

Come Once, Come Often
All skill levels welcome
from beginner to advanced.
186 Massachusetts Avenue Boston 262-0961

ARTS

GALLERIES (continued)

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston
Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm. For more information, call 437-1518.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Catherine McCarthy's paintings are featured in a group exhibition from Mar. 7-28. Opening reception is Mar. 6, 5-7pm. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat., 10am-5:30pm. For more information, call 266-4835.

Studio 27
27 Dry Dock Avenue, Boston
Studio hours are Mon.-Fri., 10am-4pm. For more information, call 439-4999.

Tribal Arts Gallery at Roots International
302 Newbury St., Boston
Substantial exhibitions of select West African ceremonial, utilitarian, mythological and societal masks and artifacts can be found at this gallery. The gallery is open seven days a week from 12-6pm. For more information, call 247-6292.

The Vose Galleries, 283 Newbury St., Boston
Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri., 8am-5:30pm and Sat., 9am-4pm. For more information, call 536-6176.

SPECIAL EVENTS

The Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
Soccer-playing robots from M.I.T.'s student laboratories will face-off in a "Robo-Cup" competition. Robots constructed of Lego bricks, gears, motors, sensors and an on-board microprocessor will execute unique programmed strategies to kick, push, or carry "soccer" balls into their goal. Free with museum admission.

Academy Awards Night
The Aids Action Committee will host the 2nd annual Academy Awards Night on March 30 at 8:00pm at The Roxy, 279 Tremont Street. The night will feature casino gambling with "play" money and simultaneous wide-screen viewing of the Awards. A special Patron Preview Party featuring Forever Plaid, Pure PolyEsther and multi-talented performer Jimmy Wilson as Barbra Streisand is cheduled from 7:00-8:00pm. Prizes include r/t airline tickets to anywhere in the continental U.S., weekend accomodations at Boston and New York hotels, a mountain bike and lots more. General admission is $12. Special patron ticets are $50Call 437-6200 for more info.

Afternoon Tea
The Museum of Fine Arts will offer tea and music from 2-4:30pm, Tuesday through Friday with performances by local musicians. Fee is $2, with Museum admission.

TO BENEFIT THE AIDS ACTION COMMITTEE
Be a part of Boston's own star-studded cast. Join us in your most creative Hollywood attire for an evening of elegant surroundings and casino gambling for fabulous prizes - including roundtrip tickets to anywhere in the continental U.S.. All the while enjoying continuous wide-screen viewing of the Academy Award activities.
Special thanks to: Cablevision, East Coast Grill, Hollywood Express, The Improper Bostonian, Jasmine, Joan and David, Raven Creative, Tower Records and Videosmith.

A STAMP WILL COVER IT

THE SCULPTURE OF MARCELLA STASA

by Abby Ellin

Marcella Stasa in her Somerville Studio

Are you the type of person who waits with breathless anticipation for the mail to arrive? Do you have great sighs of disappointment whenever another bill or photograph of a smiling Ed McMahon lands on your doorstep? Then maybe you should consider joining the Miniature Art of the Month Club, a unique solution to overcoming the postal blues.

The club works similarly to any magazine subscription: just fill out an order form ($89.98 for twelve months and $49.95 for six) and receive a different mini object d'art each month. Unlike traditional galleries or museums, though, these pieces are designed to forge a viewer-art interaction, to "provoke alternative ways of thinking about art," says 31 year old Marcella Stasa, who created the club eight years ago as a tongue-in-cheek way to market her work. "The idea is for people to have fun, to touch it and play with it...I really hate the idea of art being stuck on walls."

Stasa says that the club has members throughout the U.S., admitting she was "shocked" that people would order something sight unseen. "Doll house people are completely freaked by this," she laughed. A self described "wicked pack rat," Stasa integrates ceramic, plastic, paint, wood and stone into her thimble-sized sculptures, which often come with assembly instructions. Some are designed as pocket pieces; others are meant to decorate the inside of refrigerators or flower pots, "so they become part of your house without taking up too much space," she says.

To the Somerville-based Stasa, art is something that should be accessible to the viewer. Her goal, she says is to welcome people into the art world without intimidating them. "My favorite artists are people who don't know they're doing art, just people letting loose," she says. "Art should be a good-time thing and not an elite experience."

For more information on the Mini Art of the Month Club call 617-623-3143.

Dennis Stein

A sampling of Marcella Stasa's miniature multimedia creations.

This Seagull Doesn't Fly

by Rachel Stern

Ron Daniels' The Seagull at the ART opens promisingly, but soon loses its momentum. The visual elements of this production are striking, but often are only that, and the chord they strike is dull. Set designer Antony McDonald said he wanted the sets to feel "dangerous," and, with their steep raking, they do, particularly from the front row. But the "danger" concept doesn't lead anywhere dramatically. Konstantin Gavrilovich (Treplev) fails, not from a lack of good ideas, but from a lack of direction. The ART's whole production suffers similarly.

Mark Rylance and Stephanie Roth star in Anton Chekhov's The Seagull

For example, Act II begins with Arkadina (Christine Estabrook), who's reading from a book in a beautiful tableau. Then suddenly during a speech, she leaps about and pulls off her shirt. It's showy and uncalled-for and I imagine most of the audience, like myself, was thinking, "Nice tits." Well, Ms. Estabrook does have nice tits, but showing them didn't reveal any more of Arkadina to me than keeping them covered might have. This particular tactless bit of blocking apart, however, Arkadina is played masterfully throughout. Her Act III scenes with Trigorin (the able Mark Metcalf) and Sorin are especially strong. The sibling relationship, with all its suppressed jealousies, is explored in-depth, especially at the end, when Sorin speaks and acts like a man who has had all the life leeched out of him, the life that Arkadina (with Trigorin) has sucked greedily up. The rest of the supporting cast is quite good, except for Steven Skybell as Dorn, who isn't convincing up against Candy Buckley's Polina. Erin McMurtry, as Masha, is sensual and sad without being nauseating in her unrequited love for Treplev.

Stephanie Roth, despite her beauty and freshness, does not fully succeed as Nina. Ironically, Ms Roth's truest moments happen as the "World Spirit" of Treplev's "joke" of a play. Her thinness (painfully apparent at times), her pallor and intensity seem otherworldly and thus perfectly at home in this "awkward" creation of the inept Treplev. It is in Act IV, when Nina needs to play off Treplev, that Ms Roth's performance falters. Mr. Rylance, minimalist to the point of vacuity, abandons her.

Konstantin's discarding of his manuscript is as drawn-out as it is feelingless, and at his last exit one sees an actor walking into the wings, not a man about to end his life.

Dorn's speech to Trigorin is similarly more lifeless than subdued, and the decision to dim the lights slowly after Dorn's last sentence (against Chekov's express stage directions) seems another instance of change for its own sake. Despite much talent and energy, this Seagull does not fly.

$5 off a Haircut With Mention of The Improper Bostonian $5

LORD'S & LADY'S HAIR SALONS SM

Downtown Boston
102 Tremont Street
(corner of Bromfield Street)

Mon. - Fri. 8am-6pm
Wed. - Thurs. 8am-7pm
Sat. 9am-5pm

Expires Saturday, February 22nd

(617) 451-5359

Call For Appointment

Why Not
the Best?

Call
Successful
Singles®

And

Discover why 10,000 men and women just like you have invested in the most Comprehensive Unique and Intelligent approach to making their social life the best part of their life.

CALL NOW
for your personalized in-home consultation.
237-1480
7 days a week
10 am - 10 pm
This call may change your life.

A What, Where, When and How

The Leisu

Open Your Own Bar

Microbreweries are springing up all over the country. Most brew their own beer in small batches, usually with few or no preservatives. They either sell their products to bars and restaurants or serve it themselves. But thanks to Axbridge Micro Brewery, you can learn how to brew authentic English beer at home. Axbridge brings 35 years of traditional brewing expertise to America in a distinctive, northern English flavor. With precisely the right mix of barley, hops and grains, they've developed a "wort" that is guaranteed to produce the finest quality ale every time. It's as simple as adding boiling water to the mixture and then waiting. Within 21 days of the initial brewing process, you'll be able to sip authentic English bitter while giving yourself a nice pat on the back. Who knows, maybe you'll stay home more often! The home brewing kit comes complete with explicit directions and all of the necessary ingredients to start brewing. For more information or to order a kit, call 1-800-786-5665.

21st Century Toys

CD-I is a new interactive product by Philips. The same company that introduced other revolutionary products, like the cd, brings CD-I to the American market with a tremendous amount of research, money and enthusiasm behind it. This new multimedia system combines cd and computer technology to let you listen to music, play games, teach and more. CD-I interfaces with your tv and stereo and combines full color graphics with audio to create an exciting interactive experience. Software materials for the machine already include an educational Sesame Street learning tool, a tour of Vincent Van Gogh's work, a Louis Armstrong Songbook and the ABC Sports Golf; Palm Springs Classic. Billed by Philips as The Imagination Machine, the CD-I retails for a price of around $800. Call Philips at 508-898-2200 for more information or the location of the nearest dealer of this invention for the '90s.

Melanie Dunea

Fountain of Youth in a Tube

H20 Plus - Your Total Skin Fitness Center is one of the newer arrivals in Copley Place. One of 39 stores, this shop specializes in products that cleanse and moisturize the skin, in addition to related accessories. For those still searching for the fountain of youth (or those interested in healthy skin maintenance) an interesting feature of H20 Plus products is their rare formula. It's the only one of its kind to attract, absorb and maintain moisture in the skin for an eight to ten hour period. H20 is unisex and offers, in addition to cleansing and moisturizing aids, shower and bath gels, shaving equipment and lycra bodywear. Call 424-6878 for more information.

Melanie Dunea

You

Essense, a between all-natural, dresser. If smelling y
Essense. M ate a scent
some desig ing." The oils, (plant
two people your skin a for your sk for those a colognes.

With a buyer recc
"will last t they'll kee service if y
Madonna. E therapy oils
223 Newbur

RE STUDY

Sharing Toilet Paper

o you love cats, but hate dealing with the litter x the odor, the scooping id the tracking - not to ention the cost of litter? ouldn't life be great if they uld just use the toilet and a w flushes a day would send l those other problems way? Well, it can be! It's ier than you think.

Smart Cat Productions as hit the market smelling ce roses with their new deo, "Toilet Training the eline." This training video ill take you step by step rough the whole proce- re show you everything u need to know and allow u to see through time lapse w a cat goes from litter x to toilet seat. Call or rite Smart Cat Productions 277-6694, Box 1834, Dept. Brookline, Ma 02146.

Own Special Scent

erfume store that looks like a cross apothecary and a bar, specializes in m made scents for the conscientious 're tired of alcohol-based perfumes or nt on someone else, there's always er Akuura Kulak says they will cre- ned specifically for you. "We have nts, but specialize in custom blend- ne is made from pure concentrated nd won't smell the same on any kuura or one of her staff will analyze hen design a blend of oils specifically e. She also recommends their oils to alcohol-based perfumes and rage price of $30-40 per bottle, a supply that according to Akuura, re year." But if you need a refill, exact proportions on file. Not a bad one of their out-of-town clients, like se also sells massage and aroma 859-8009 or visit their location at ect. Open daily.

What's Left at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum?

A lot! Upon her death, Isabella Stewart Gardner left an endowment of $3.7 million for the museum, and its collection is as intriguing as ever. The museum is designed in the style of a fifteenth-century Venetian palace and plays host to a cafe, choral and classical concerts and of course, its unique exhibits. The Gardner houses a collection of eclectic art gathered from around the world, including items that range from paintings, sculpture, drawings, furniture, textiles, ceramics, glass, manuscripts and more. But the design and atmosphere of the museum is just as appealing as its exhibits.

Jill Connelly

After absorbing the color and fragrances of the many floral designs in the courtyard, stroll through the rooms and indulge in these rare pleasures. Their year round display of beautiful floral arrangements is enough incentive to forget your winter doldrums and relax in the atrium. The museum is open Wednesday to Sunday from Noon to 5:00pm, and Tuesdays from Noon to 6:30pm. For more information on concerts and exhibits, call 566-1401.

LA TRENDS

Melanie Dunea

"It's bigger than anything else I've seen in recent times," says Louis C. Horowitz. Our west coast Trends Analyst/Surfer is speaking of the latest trend to make its way through the city of angels; Cactus Painting. "You can't go to someone's house or a restaurant without seeing them. The trend is to paint (either spray or brush) your cactus plant in any color of the spectrum. Some people are so consumed by this, that competitions (entries must have a minimum of two colors and four coats) are held almost every weekend." But the trend is causing controversy among plant lovers who say this is abusive treatment to the cactus specie. They've picketed some recent Cactus Painting competitions but, of course, this hasn't stopped the painters from competing. Horowitz, however, concurs with Nightlife Analyst Rat Mac that many locals are painting these thorny plants in the colors of their national flag. Some other L.A. trends this issue: . . . Playing tennis while wearing only one sock. Rat Mac claims that this trend is probably a short term phenomena. "It probably won't rear its ugly head on the east coast as fast as some of the other trends, mainly because of the hygiene factor involved with playing sockless tennis. I tried it a few times and the only benefit I could find was that women identified me as a tennis player - even when I was without my racket! So I guess I do it for the 'jock-recognition' factor." . . . Crickets are as popular as cats as the preferred pet of the year. It seems that their activity has been associated with predicting approaching earthquakes . . . Garbagemen in Malibu are "tipped" for returning rubbish barrels to homeowners' garages after emptying the contents. . . Next issue: you'll hear what fanatical beach goers are doing to get a parking space!

DINING

BUDGET BITES

The Oasis Cafe

by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

Mention the North End, and immediately Italian food comes to mind. So what's an American restaurant doing there? We heard so many good things about the Oasis Cafe that we put it to the test, and it really did live up to its reputation - low prices, hearty portions and very good food.

The Oasis is small, boasting no more than a dozen or so tables. Decor is semi art deco, semi 30s and 40s American, including ceiling fans, an old radio, pink and black walls, and pink plastic tablecloths. Swing and jazz music plays in the background.

We were welcomed with homemade corn bread, fruited butter and baked beans with molasses, all of which were so good, we were in danger of being too full before ordering. The menu features a small selection of appetizers and main courses augmented by daily specials. Most entrees are under $10, the exceptions being very hearty sized dishes like the 12 ounce sirloin steak. The Oasis fritters ($3.95) change daily; ours were made with mushrooms, red, green and yellow peppers and came with a red pepper mayonnaise. The size was daunting, but they were incredibly light, literally melting in the mouth.

The Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott Street, Boston, tel. 523-9274. Hours: Open for lunch Tues-Fri., dinner Tues-Sat., Sunday brunch. Credit cards: MC, V. Reservations: None Handicapped: Bathroom not wheelchair accessible.

The main courses come with small salads and a choice of creamy homemade dressings; we highly recommend the parmesan. Meatloaf Wellington ($8.95) was extremely good. The meatloaf incorporated red and green peppers, and the ethereal crust was outstanding. We also opted for the Salmon cakes ($8.95), which frequently appear as a daily special. They were a little dry, but our waitress (on mention of this) brought some hollandaise which the chef made especially for us. That proved to be all that was needed to make them perfect.

Desserts change daily, and range in price from $2.50-$2.95. After so much food, you may not want dessert but they are definitely worth it. We tried the gingerbread with vanilla ice cream and found it big enough for four people. It had a great crispy crust, and a nice underlying clove flavor. The mocha cake was rich and satisfying, with just the right amounts of chocolate and coffee.

On a final note, we found an exceptional waitstaff on our visit to the Oasis (are you reading this, R.L?). We don't usually single out waitstaff for mention by name, but in this case, our waitress, Denise deserves special recognition. She was not only very good at her job, but was also sweet and genuinely caring, making our dinner especially memorable. We would happily return for the service alone, but of course we'll return anyway for the food.

THE EXCEPTIONAL
GOURMET CHINESE RESTAURANT WITH EMPHASIS ON VALUE, WITHOUT THE COMPROMISE OF QUALITY & SERVICE.

DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE TO BOSTON AND BROOKLINE

NOBLE HOUSE

1306 Beacon Street, Coolidge Corner in Brookline 232-2378
Serving Dim Sum Sat & Sun, Noon 'til 3.

Massachusetts' Oldest Italian Caffe

Homemade Cakes and Desserts.
The Best Cannolis and Espresso in Town.

308 Hanover St., North End 523-5063

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE

FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00 • Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

The Movable Feast
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN'S RESTAURANT REVIEW

Paparazzi

by Al Stankus

Melanie Dunea

In the summer of 1989, Charles Sarkis, owner of some 15 restaurants and Wonderland Dog Track bought Dartmouth Street, a Back Bay Italian restaurant and yupscale bar. A man accustomed to concepts, Sarkis and his umbrella organization, The Westwood Group, decided to keep the bar hopping and the menu Italian.

The designers here emphasized the ubiquitous Sarkis' signatures of brass and mahogany. While Paparazzi still looks like a refugee from Georgetown, the design received a playful lift from some campy photographs of Italian-Americans, like Joe Garagiola, Geraldine Ferraro, Frank Sinatra and Liza Minelli.

To cement the concept of Italo-California in the Back Bay, Sarkis brought in Rebecca Matarazzi from Los Angeles' acclaimed Prego to serve as consulting chef. Although Matarazzi returned to L.A. after fine tuning the kitchen, Sarkis has since opened three more Paparazzis.

To begin the meal. a basket of thin, very good breadsticks is delivered with pats of butter. For those who need a bread acouterment, there's some mediocre herb-scented olive oil on the table.

From the large, attractive wood-burning oven in the rear of the Back Bay restaurant, come 14 different pizzas ($7.95-$10.95) as well as one dandy sausage and cheese-stuffed calzone ($10.50).

Thin-crusted and practically edgeless, the pizzas here are quite good. Closer to soft than crisp - and generously topped - we've over time enjoyed their "puttanesca" version. In addition to a traditional puttanesca mix of olives, capers, garlic and tomatoes, they add some slices of briny artichoke heart. Other tasty pizzas include the Napoletana, the piccante, and the trendy Californiana.

In true Italian fashion, pastas (17 of them; $7.95-$12.50), are listed as a first course, even though Americans make it the main course.

No complaints with the fusilli tossed with porcini mushrooms in a rich tomato and cream sauce or the bow ties (farfalle) mixed with smoked salmon and peas in a tangy (maybe a red pepper added?) light cream sauce.

One bothersome habit common to Paparazzi and countless other restaurants is the wait staff rushing to the table on the heels of salads and pastas with pepper grinder and parmesan grater in hand. Are they afraid you may steal these accessories?

The menu offers 11 main courses ($8.95-$17.50) augmented by a few daily specials, all recited without prices.

Like the pasta, the main courses emphasize a rustic lightness. It's all breezy, light and in a '90s way, sort of healthy.

Petti di pollo ($8.95) comes as a whole breast of boneless chicken simply done in olive oil, garlic and lemon. You can also have the same sauce/marinade atop a char-grilled paillard of fork tender veal ($17.50). Both of these main courses are served with an ample side of superb rosemary-scented oven-roasted potatoes and a mixed saute of summer squash and zucchini.

Desserts are rather pedestrian, making them easy to bypass. In their stead, linger over either the espresso or cappuccino.

Paparazzi's wine list is rather uninspired. Besides being too geared toward California whites, it omits vintages. This causes problems when looking for an age-worthy (and expensive) Italian red like a Barolo or Tignanello.

Paparazzi does a brisk lunch business. For what's basically the same menu, prices are reduced anywhere from 15 to 25 percent, making it a Back Bay bargain. The bar is active from 5pm until closing and brunch is thoughtfully served on both Saturday and Sunday.

Paparazzi
271 Dartmouth Street, Back Bay
536-6560
Dinner, daily from 4pm-10:30pm;
Friday and Saturday until 11:30
Lunch, Monday-Friday from
11:30am-4pm
Brunch Saturday-Sunday from 11:30am-4pm
All major credit cards
Full Liquor
Reservations six or more
Valet parking-$7
Handicapped patrons must be aware of some steps leading from the foyer into the restaurant

CAFFE POMPEI

Open 7 Days 'til 4 am
The afterhours caffe that serves everything from pizza to pasta. Full dinner menu including award winning home made ice cream and desserts. 10% off Sunday through Thursday.
280 Hanover St. in the North End. 227-1562

BIG DATE?

Our lobster is sure to impress.

JUST HANGING OUT?

How about fried clams and some of our terrific beers?

More kinds of great seafood than any other restaurant in town. And though it may be IMPROPER, we also have chicken and steak!

LEGAL SEA FOODS
OYSTER BAR + RESTAURANT

LEGAL SEA FOODS

There's always a reason to go to LEGAL'S

Park Plaza - 35 Columbus Avenue
Statler Bldg. - 27 Columbus Ave
Copley Place - 100 Huntington Avenue
Cambridge - Kendall Sq., 5 Cambridge Ctr.

Also at Chestnut Hill Shopping Center, Burlington Mall, Route 9, Natick and Worcester, opposite the Centrum.

Caffé Vittoria

4 Level Caffe
3 Full Coffee Bars • 1 Non-Smoking Caffe
Serving 8 am 'til Midnight

296 Hanover St., North End 227-7606

Taste the ~~Old~~ New Southwest!

It's more fresh and alive at the Cactus Club than ever! Featuring traditional and innovative foods at affordable prices. We got it all! Choose from our Daily Specials, Fresh Fish selection, or our "Heart Smart" and Vegetarian dishes. Our Hearty Brunch is sure to please any hungry crowd. It's Southwestern cuisine in the heart of Boston, just acoss from the Hynes Convention Center.

So whether you have a taste for nachos with all the fixings, a sizzling fajita and a cold margarita, or something just a little out of the ordinary come on down and relax with a taste of the "New Southwest".

939 Bolylston St., Boston 02116 236-0200
Lunch, Brunch, Dinner, Outdoor Cafe.

CACTUS CLUB
RESTAURANT AND BAR

In the Realm of the Spirits

Wine Books

by Al Stankus

Melanie Dunea

To learn about wine, a glass of Petrus would certainly impart more knowledge than reading a thousand words on the storied Bordeaux Chateau. But at $450 a bottle, a good wine book is also quite a bit less than even what a mere sip of Chateau Petrus would fetch.

For the beginner, both Serena Sutcliffe's The Wine Handbook (A Fireside Book from Simon & Schuster; $10.95) and Windows On the World Complete Wine Course (Sterling Publishing; $21.95) by Kevin Zraly epitomize the perfect primer. Responsible for putting together the acclaimed wine list at New York's Windows On the World Restaurant, his text is a transcribed edition of the restaurant's eight class wine course. Zraly discusses wine classification, fermentatión processes, tasting tips and food and wine matching.

In The Wine Handbook, Sereba Sutcliffe spends the better part of the book breaking wine down by its style (aromatic, light, medium-bodied, etc.). Sutcliffe isn't shy about making recommendations and sets up easy to follow tastings that serve to edify the text. There's a wonderful chapter on deciphering labels neatly dubbed Label Lore as well as a superb glossary and handy pronunciation guide.

To learn why some foods taste better with some wines, there's Red Wine With Fish. (Simon & Schuster; $19.95) by David Rosengarten and Joshua Wesson. A tad irreverent, the authors manage to impart wisdom while they poke fun at some time-honored standards - thus the title.

If you've ever been to a vineyard, you've probably fantasized about how wonderful it would be to be lord or lady of the property. Michael Buller's The Winemaker's Year (Thames and Hudson; $35) is a seasonal account of vineyard life over the course of a year. Culled from conversations with some of Bordeaux's most famous winemakers such as Emile Peynaud of Chateau Margaux, Buller's text is quite warm and engaging, and at times, honestly reverential.

Yet if this isn't enough, Michael Guillard's handsome photographs of Bordeaux are dazzling. His photos cover all the seasons and reflect the labor intensive work of planting and harvesting.

For those who want to pinpoint a region, Simon & Schuster has produced a wonderful series under the label, Simon & Schuster 's Pocket Guides To...($10.95). Such experts as Hugh Johnson, David Peppercorn, Burton Anderson and Michael Jackson include their thoughts in the series.

Besides the obvious guides to Bordeaux, Burgundy and California Chardonnay, the series includes books dealing with Spanish Riojas, French regional wines and the wines of Italy. If you're real enthusiastic, you can also pick up titles on Port, Sherry and Single malt Scotch (they also publish a wonderful beer book). The latter, despite being written by Scotland's Michael Jackson, gives a very detailed look and honest appraisal of American microbrews.

DINING

Appeteasers

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

Getting It In The Ribs

Having spent thousands more on renovations than a certain other dining room in town, the Original Sports Saloon at the Copley Square Hotel has just invested a further $10,000 on a Willingham smoker for the kitchen. In addition, John Willingham (inventor of the smoker) has custom blended a special barbecue sauce for the Saloon. Could they be preparing to enter a national rib cookoff by any chance?

Bigger and Better

Fans of Marcella's, the North Cambridge eatery with the terrific sandwiches, will be be pleased to hear that there is now a second (and bigger) Marcella's in the South End, at 1 Appleton Street, tel. 742-7382. The new version has a full kitchen, so there is an expanded menu. For now, a special dinner is being offered that includes a fantastic 14 oz sirloin steak for just $7.75 (no, this is not a misprint!), and selected bottles of Italian wines for only $6.00.

Who's Got The Best Pizza?

Still in the South End, on Tremont Street just round the corner from Marcella's, there will soon be a swank new pizzeria (black and white marble floor tiles and all) called Sicilia's. The owners already have a pizzeria in Providence, RI, which won the coveted 1989 Pizza Wars Best Crust Award. We hear that opening day will be within a few weeks.

You Changed Your Name?

If you've visited Skipjack's in Brookline recently, maybe you noticed the staff were wearing hard hats, T-shirts and blue jeans. It's not the new uniform, but the name is now Skipjack's Fish House. Menu prices are lower, portion sizes have increased, and there is still validated parking. And co-owner Deena Senior can't stop talking about the Sweet Potato Pecan Pie.

Starving Artists?

Attention writers, artists, dancers, actors, and others involved in the arts: Cecil's, the SoHo type restaurant at 129 South Street, Boston, tel. 542-5108, is offering an Artist's Preferred Card that gives 25% discount after 4:00pm Monday through Friday, and free admission to the Saturday night entertainment.

Beans, Beans, Beans

Searching for the ultimate Boston Baked Beans? Winner at the recent Taste of Winter Festival was the Loading Zone's own Harold Reddick. They have now, of course, been added to the restaurant menu.

The Juicy Details

It's time for this week's juicy bits: Goodbye to the Winery, the latest victim of the recession . . . 29 Newbury has another new chef; she is Mary Caporal, formerly at Icarus and Straight Wharf, Nantucket . . . Snakebites, the Cottonwood Cafe's Cafe (!), has just expanded . . . Serendipity 3 is the moving force behind a coalition of 14 Faneuil Hall restaurants that will be soon be offering all kinds of specials; watch this space for further updates . . . Congratulations to Frank Mastromauro Jr., owner of the Groceria, who was recently formally recognized by the City of Cambridge for his recycling program . . . We hear that Julia Child will be making a brief guest appearance at Just Cookbooks in the Porter Exchange Building some time soon...A new Celebrity Chef Series is starting on March 30 at the Cambridge School of Culinary Arts; for information call 354-3836.

For fine Italian Cuisine in Boston's North End

All dishes cooked to order.
New lunch menu with prices starting at $4.50!
Sun.Tues. Wed. Thurs 11:30am-10:00pm
Fri. Sat 11:30am-11:00pm

L'Osteria Ristorante
109 Salem Street, Boston's North End
723-7847 for reservations

Felicia's

CUCCINA ROMANA
WINES & BEER
ROOM FOR PARTIES

UP ONE FLIGHT

ALL FOOD COOKED TO ORDER

145A Richmond Street
Boston, MA
(617) 523-9885
Parking at Gov't Ctr. Garage $3

月宮酒家

MOON VILLA

Authentic, Wholesome Chinese Dining at affordable prices.
Seafood is our specialty!

For something new try our delicious DIM SUM available 10 am- 3 pm Saturday and Sunday.

We're only a short walk from the Theatre District, located in the heart of Chinatown. Discounts given with valid tickets 5:00 pm- 7 pm. Free Parking after 6:00 pm.

15-19 Edinboro Street
(617) 423-2061

Every Once In A While You Come Across A Restaurant That's Hip, Trendy, And Incredibly Chic.

Rest Assured, This Is Not One Of Them.

The S&S is a good old fashioned restaurant where they serve food. Not fads. We're talking honest to goodness meals you can enjoy and afford. That's been our simple recipe for over 73 years. Stop by, we'll fix you something nice.

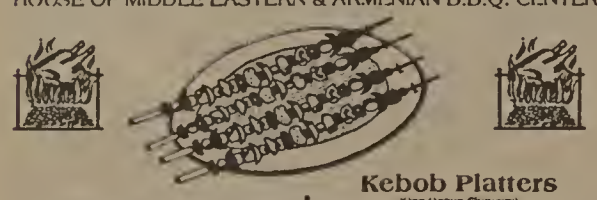
S&S Restaurant
A Great Find Since 1919.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner. Mon-Sat 7:00am-12:00 mid, Sun 8:00am-11:00pm
Inman Square, 1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge. 354-0777. FAX: 354-6924

VICTORIA STATION

cut out and bring in

All - You - Can - Eat
PRIME RIB!!
Only...$12.95



Offer expires 4/15/92

60-Item Salad Bar OR Soup, Potato, and Hot, Crusty Bread

Offer not valid in conjunction with any other promotion.
Coupon good for up to four guests

VICTORIA STATION RESTAURANT
Boston: 64 Sleeper Street (617) 542-7771
Next to The Children's Museum
All Major Credit Cards Accepted

ARARAT
RESTAURANT
Party Platters
Menus for the Holidays and Special Occasions
HOUSE OF MIDDLE EASTERN & ARMENIAN B.B.Q. CENTER

Kebob Platters
(Dino Drown Skewers)
Beef, Chicken or Losh(Ground Beef) $25
Lamb $30
Yalanji Platter $25
(stuffed grape leaves)
BBQ Chicken Platter $25
(Four BBQ Chickens)
Rice PILAF Platter $10

Taboulch Platter.....$15
Baba-Ganuj Platter $20
Hommos Platter.....$15
Falafel Platter.....$15
(Vegetarian burger)
BAKLAVA By the Tray $29.95

We also serve beer and wine. Please come visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 • (617) 924-7011

At We're Really Smokin'

MATT GARRETT'S

LUNCHEON SPECIALS
11:30 AM 'til 3:30 PM
Monday thru Friday
Except Holidays
From $5.25

EARLY BIRDS
3:30 PM 'til 5:30 PM
Monday thru Friday
Except Holidays
$6.95 Per Person

ALL NEW WING NIGHT
All Day Every Tuesday
$1.99

MATT GARRETT'S just installed its first natural fire grill in Brookline which uses all natural charwood and a variety of greenwoods for added flavor. The result of grilling in this fashion is a tantalizing experience to your taste buds. So come join us in Brookline at MATT GARRETT'S and taste the difference.

SUNDAY BRUNCH
11:00 AM 'til 3:00 PM
Prices from $5.95

Route 20 SUDBURY 508-443-9957
Westgate Mall BROCKTON 508-584-4514
Howland Place NEW BEDFORD 508-990-8838
Coolidge Corner BROOKLINE 508-738-6635

Brunch Board

Menu Items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown
242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Capucino's
1370 Beacon St., Brookline 731-4848
Located in Coolidge Corner, this "authentically Italian" café offers a scrumptious buffet brunch. Fresh fruit, hot and cold pasta dishes and baglettes are just some of the buffet items you can nibble on while imbibing such complimentary beverages as amaretto milk punch. If you're feeling amorous, share an omelette for two. À la carte items are also available. Sun. 10am-2:30pm. $9.95 for buffet; $4.95 for children.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Cityside
1960 Beacon St., Bri. 566-1002
Join students and young professionals over bloodies-for-two and fresh muffins with eggs. Belgian waffles are a favorite!
Sun. 11am-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

The Dover Grill & Cafe
1223 Beacon St., Brookline. 566-7000
Under new management, the Dover offers a sumptuous selection of buffet items including Belgian waffles, seafood quiche, hand-carved London Broil and Omelettes. Brunch is served 11am-3pm for $13.95.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Sardou is a lovely combination of poached eggs, creamed spinach and Hollandaise sauce. that though well portioned still leaves space for their raisin bread pudding or Creme Caramel. The Creole Omelette or the Chicken Clemenceau are other entrees that are sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz Brunch from 11am-2:15pm. Sun. 10:30am-2:15pm.

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. $14.95 all you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge
354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its lively atmosphere and tasty dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, served with sour cream and apple sauce, or if you're in the mood for eggs, one of their many well prepared omelette variations. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Sibel's
100 Peterborough St., Bos. 267-7346
Casual Sibel's offers traditional and nouveau breakfast items. Try the kiwi pancakes! Enjoy modest prices and a commodious outdoor patio. Sat. and Sun. 10:30am-3pm.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

Veronique at Longwood Towers
20 Chapel St., Brookline 731-4800
Brunch to classical guitar music. Feast upon French continental cuisine in elegant surroundings. Menu specialties include sweet cheese crèpes and homemade French toast. Sun. 11:30am to 3pm.

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

A Bar Café, 111 Dartmouth St., Bos. 353-0159
$$
If you have a yearning for Euro-American fare in hip-hop surroundings or want to check out one of Boston's nicest bars, A Bar will whet more than your appetite. Electric decor, featuring fuscia walls, lemon yellow upholstery and a sleek white bar accompany a fine menu and music selection. Don't be surprised if people start dancing late night as the music funks up. DJ Fri and Sat nights and Brian Walkley jazz band Sun 9 -11pm. Try the Valenciana Pizza, a delectable concoction of cheese, chicken, sausage, black olives, tomatoes and herbs.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant, 544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Acapulco, 266 Newbury St., Bos. 247-9126 MC,V $
Looking for a quiet place to escape the throngs of shoppers, tourists and lookers on Newbury Street? Take a walk down the stairs into the easily missed entrance of Acapulco. They feature a variety of authentic fajitas, enchiladas, and much more. The atmosphere is relaxing, modest and a break from the many fast-paced Southwestern restaurants in town. Dishes range from $6 to $12. Open Sunday through Thursday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 10:30 p.m.

Ararat, 71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500 A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

Back Bay Bistro, 565 Boylston St., Bos. 536-4477 A,MC,V $$$
The Bistro is a quiet and trendy spot. They not only offer Boston's widest array of wines by the glass, but a sumptuous menu that boasts of sauteed Maine crab cakes, roast garlic-glazed chicken andsauteed salmon with crisp leeks and raspberry beurre rouge. Not for nightowls - the bistro closes by 11pm, even on weekends. Don't leave without trying one of their homemade desserts.

Bangkok Bistro, 1952 Beacon St., Brookline (Cleveland Circle) 739-7270 MC, V, D, AM
$
Located across from the Circle Cinema, this charming, casual bistro features amazing Pad Thai and is renowned for its peanut sauce. Most entrees can be spiced HOT for aficionados or subtly for novices. Beer & wine, desserts and luncheon specials. Open 7 days for dinner; Tues-Fri for lunch. Take out and delivery after 5:00.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Blue Wave, 142 Berkley St., Bos. 424-6711 A,MC,V $$$
Fine continental California cuisine served in healthy portions in fun and spacious surroundings. Sit at glass tables that are actually mini-sandboxes and take in the colorful art work. One menu highlight, in addition to daily pizza, pasta and fish specials, is ceviche - a fresh tuna steak marinated with lime juice and spices. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat. dinner only. Sun. 11am-5pm for brunch.

Bnu, 123 Stuart St., Bos. 367-8405 D,MC,V
$$
Located in the Transportation Building near the Theater District, this fresh Italian restaurant makes you feel as if you're dining at a Roman street café. The pizzas are consistently excellent - try the chicken and pesto. And the spaghetti with grilled sausage, plum tomatoes and mixed herbs is an "old favorite". Lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner nightly.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC,V
$$$$
If you're a beer gourmand and your fantasy vacation would be to travel from Boston to LA sampling micro beers across the continental US, Boodles is your bet. Enjoy Carnivorous dining in an elegant setting while you sip your ale. This posh grill room features impeccable service and a varied wine selection complementing a full menu - featuring lamb, shrimp brochettes and a thick succulent cut of prime rib.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063
$
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu - sublime; or order up a confection to go!

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9438
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city, is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4am. Famous for its, home made bananna gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinner menu, Caffe Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Caffe Vittoria, 296 Hanover St., Bos. 227-7606
$$
85 years ago, Caffe Vittoria opened its doors as the first Italian caffe in the North End. Old photographs, antique coffee machines and the tasteful decor of sleek marble tables and brass railings add to the cozy, unadulterated Italain charm. Try the canoli - made fresh 365 days a year!

Carlo Marinos, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltinboca alla Romano - veal layered with proscuitto with fresh sage, sauteed in wine; Spinacci di Cosa - spinach sauteed with garlic oil, cannelini beans and proscuitto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Casa Romero, 30 Gloucester St., Bos. 536-4341 MC,V $$
Muy Romantico! Just off Newbury St., you can find creative Mexican food in a Mexican colonial setting. You'll feel immediately at ease as you let your stress go over reputedly the best margaritas in town. Chef Mendoza does an outstanding job with specialties such as puerco adobado (tenderloin of pork with smoked peppers and oranges). Catch the early bird special (5-7pm) and pay $15 for an appetizer, entrée, dessert and Mexican coffee. Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant, 52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet, 112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Davio's, 269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
5 Cambridge Parkway(at the Royal Sonesta Hotel), Camb. 661-4810
204 Washington St., Brookline
A,V,D,D,MC $$$
Located on one of Boston's most distinctive streets, Davios in Boston captures the true flavor of Newbury Street. Downstairs, you'll experience the finest in Northern Italian dining in a cozy and friendly setting. Uniquely prepared homemade pasta, veal and seafood dishes are specialties. The upstairs and outdoor cafe feature salads, pasta, sandwiches and pizza (with 26 toppings). The Brookline and Cambridge locations are equally accomodating. Lunch from 11:30am and dinner from 5-11pm. Reservations are strongly suggested.

The Dover Grill & Cafe, 1223 Beacon St., Brookline 566-7000 A,MC,V
$$
Elegant dining in a charming Victorian-style restaurant. Under new management, the Dover has created a diverse grilled menu, with moderate prices. Expect some changes that include a scrumptious Norwegian salmon with roasted red pepper and hazelnut and sundried tomato pesto. The new Cafe offers mouth watering grilled pizzas on weekdays. Available for functions. Enjoy a fine bouquet of wine from their extensive list. Restaurant hours are from 5:30-10:00pm. Cafe hours are from 4:00-10:00pm. Reservations accepted.

Durgin Park, 340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-6568
$$$
Deservedly the critics rave, this tiny "fun and funky" spot offers excellent cuisine and a lively atmosphere to a packed house nightly. Southern BBQ and fresh fish specials cooked on a wood-burning grill. Try the Jamaican beef from hell (beef strips, sugar cane and spices), mahi mahi with mango chutney, and for the brave, add a dash of Wow to your giant plate

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Buy one entreé and get a second entreé of equal or lesser value
FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Not valid for lunch specials, take-out or delivery.
Tax and gratuity based on full value of meal. Offer expires 4/15/92

Signature _____ Date _____

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA (Behind Star Market in the Fenway) 424-7070

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

NICHOLAS CAFE
PIZZA • CALZONES
SPECIALTY SANDWICHES

We deliver to the Back Bay, Brookline, Kenmore Sq., Allston, Brighton.
Call or fax us we may even deliver to you!
739-1114 Fax: 739-0008
Or stop by at 1628 Beacon St., Brookline

$1 off small sandwich
$1.50 off large sandwich
$.75 off reg. pizza
$1 off large pizza
w/ this coupon

El Phoenix Room, 1430 Commonwealth Ave., Brighton 566-8590 $
Self proclaimed, "the oldest Mexican restaurant in Boston", El Phoenix Room provides Spanish American ambiance and cheap eats to regulars daily. Wash down superb chile and bulging burritos with a few Dos Equis. Don't let the ramshackle facade intimidate you. Luncheon specials for the frugal diner at $2.95. No reservations.

Felicia's, 145A Richmond St., Bos. 523-9885 AM,D,MC,V $$
Old-fashioned family-style dining in the North end. Twirl up some Southern Italian chow and keep your eyes peeled for such personalities as Steve Martin and Bob Hope. Have beer and wine with your meal or drinks in the upstairs lounge. Reservations on weekends. Open daily for dinner. Lunch only on Sun.

Goemon Japanese Noodle Restaurants, 267 Huntington Ave., Bos. 859-8669 1 Kendall Sq., Bldg. 100, Camb. 577-9595 $
Go easy on your wallet and have fun picking from a variety of traditional Japanese appetizers and noodle dishes: Soba- high energy buckwheat noodles (great for body builders), Udon - thick wheat noodles and Ramen - curly whole wheat noodles. Noodles in a hot or chilled broth that you can add to à la carte whatever with one of four distinctive Inner Beauty Hot Sauces. Dinner nightly. On weekends, expect a wait. Reservations.

Silver Restaurant Supply Outlet Store

Up to 30% off Mfgs. Prices!
China - Glassware - Silverware
From 20¢ per piece!
New & Used Restaurant Equipment
Closeouts and Discount Items
(617) 884-8700
232 Everett Avenue Chelsea, MA
Just over Tobin Bridge, 1 block from Mystic Mall, opposite Floramo's Steak House

Grendel's Den, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry i, 71½ Charles St., Boston 227-3524 MC, V $$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday Brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant, 536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

India Samraat, 51A Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 247-0718 $
Stroll into this genuine Indian restaurant and sample some chicken tikka masala, a favorite of their regulars. Try another popular specialty dish, the non-vegetarian Thali. Service is excellent in this exposed-brick interior and Indian paintings adorn the walls. Samraat also offers take out and delivery. Lunch from 12-3pm and dinner 5-11pm weeknights, 12-11pm on weekends.

Jasper's, 240 Commercial St., Bos. 523-1126 D,MC,V $$$$
Jasper White is rightly lauded for his waterfront establishment's outstanding consistency. The service is impeccable without being snooty, the decor pleasantly contemporary and the food sublime. Jasper likes to take simple plebeian dishes and add to them subtle nuances and spice. Try the signature pan roasted lobster with chevril and chives and the baked chocolate bread and butter pudding for dessert. Appropriate dress. Open Tue.-Sat. for dinner.

Kebab'N'Kurry, 30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835 A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

King & I, 145 Charles St., Bos. 227-3320 259 Newbury St., Bos. 437-9611 D,MC,V $$
You won't find Yule Brenner; but you will find great Thai food. Try the chicken and coconut soup and the shrimp in love. Open daily for lunch (except Sat.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods, Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legals, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch avail. in burbs.

Massimino Cucina Italiana, 207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St., Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sunday

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555 $$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. And if you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Roeco's, 5 Charles St. South, Transportation Bldg., Bos. 723-6800 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on an all-Italian menu which includes vermicelli puttanesca (pasta with an olive oil tomato sauce, capers and shallots), and don't miss their grilled green salad (greens marinated in olive oil and grilled). You'll dine under cathedral high ceilings and play with the folk art pieces on each table-they're for sale. Frescoes of putti and hanging sculptured suits add to Rocco's overall cheer. Desserts, including apricot bread pudding are the best part, so save room! You can sit at the long cherry wood bar that also functions as a gallery. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Shalimar of India, 546 Massachusetts Ave., Camb. 547-9280 A,MC,V $
This Indian dive/restaurant at Central Sq. specializes in Northern Indian cuisine. After some pakoras (spinach and cauliflower deep-fried in chickpea batter) and raita (yogurt and cucumber), choose from several chicken and shrimp tandoori (baked in a clay oven) and curry plates. Lunch Mon.-Sat. Dinner daily. Relax over chaiy (Indian tea) at the Sun. buffet-style brunch from 12:00-3pm.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070 MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

St. Botolph Restaurant, 99 St. Botolph St., Bos. 266-3030 A,D,MC,V $$$
Dine in a trendy polished café or eat more formally upstairs. Either way, you'll love the Italian (café fare) and Continental cuisine (upstairs) offered at this charming brownstone establishment. One critics' pick is the noisettes of lamb with tarragon fettucini, goat cheese and spinach topped off with an ample slice of white chocolate cheesecake. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sun. brunch 11:30am-3pm.

Union Oyster House, 41 Union St., Bos. 227-2750 A,D,MC,V $$
Opened in 1826, this Boston landmark is the oldest restaurant in continuing business in the U.S. Their raw oyster bar, where you can still gobble down oysters, littlenecks and cherrystones, was often a hangout for Daniel Webster. If raw isn't your bag, you can order up the popular crab cakes in Newburg sauce or broiled scrod. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Victoria Station, 64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771 MC,V,A,D,D $$
Located next to the Children's Museum and overlooking Boston Harbor and the Boston Tea Party Ship, you'll experience casual dining in a railroad atmosphere surrounded by authentic 'Victoria Station' artifacts. Early-bird specials include prime rib and seafood specialties. Pub menu available until midnight. Open Sun.-Sat., 11:30am to 1am.

Zuma, 7 North Market St., Faneuil Hall Market Place, Bos. 367-9114 A,D,MC,V $
Tex Mex and neon margaritas in a casual jeans and T-shirt kind of place? That's right, named after beautiful Zuma Beach in Arizona, you'll love the low key atmosphere and and fun and funky decor. Eat burritos 'til you bust or have a Dos Equis at the bar. The home made key lime pie is a must!

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Describe the ideal job for you."

Natasha, 19, Boston
"Anything besides customer service, where you don't have to cater to the demands of others."

Dave, 45, Dorchester
"To be C.E.O. of an advertising company and have other people do all the work for me."

Lauren, 24, North End
"To run an adoption agency and take an active role in finding good homes for children."

Da, 25, Boston
"To be manager of Star Market and work with people to help them do a better job."

Linda, 32, Wilmington
"To work for Mulberry Child Care Center and receive intrinsic satisfaction and enough money to live on."

Jihad, 24, Somerville
"A commercial airline pilot flying to all international destinations."

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

March 10 - 29
Man of La Mancha
Colonial Theatre (Various Prices)

March 18
Neil Young
Orpheum, ($26.00)

March18 - April 12
Boston Ballet's On The Edge
The Wang Center, (Various Prices)

March 19
Richard Thompson / Roger McGuinn
Berklee, ($19.50)

March 24
Bryan Adams
Centrum, ($19.50)

April 2
Gallagher
Springfield Civic Center, (Various Prices)

April 4
Buckwheat Zydeco
Memorial Hall, Memorial Hall Harvard University

Ticketmaster
Ticketmaster outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.

Out-of-Town Tickets
Call 492-1900 for information.

Concertcharge
Call 497-1118 to charge [illegible] Amex, MC or Visa.

"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes."

Come for our Penne al Pomodoro e Basilico!

Famous in and outside of Boston, This entrée makes believers out of first time diners: tubular pasta sautéed with garlic, butter, fresh tomato and basil.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

MUSIC

The Lightning Seeds' Second Coming

by Rey Roldan

A wash of content splashes across the face of Ian Broudie of the Lightning Seeds as he sits back, almost ready to light a cigarette. The proud father of both one year old son Riley and second album Sense (MCA), it seems as if Broudie spews his creativity all over the place. "When I asked a friend of mine to paint the cover for [my new album], he really wanted to paint a lot of sperms, but instead he drew a lot of sperm-like spaceships," he laughs.

This fertility is as much an ongoing motif in Broudie's personal life as it is his professional life. With twelve years of music production under his belt for dozens of influential bands like Echo and the Bunnymen, the Icicle Works and the Wall of Voodoo, Broudie has stepped out of the wings and into the spotlight. His 1990 debut Cloudcuckooland spawned the three hits "Joy", "All I Want" and the worldwide smash "Pure" and pushed him headfirst from producer's chair to the microphone.

Now, as his new single "Life of Riley" pushes up Billboard's charts, it sounds as if he's going to break through mainstream's barriers and succeed commercially as well. It's based in part on the birth of his son, and partly on an old Irish saying. "The life of Riley means basically happiness and celebrations. There's a lot of shit out in the world and the ozone layer, but you have to find the time to have the life of Riley and just relax."

While the first album could be considered exciting foreplay with all of its high-tech and hook-ridden glory, his sophomore effort comes across as the real thing - more substantial and more rewarding. "I really like Cloudcuckooland but I feel that [my new album] Sense is a bit more focused," he says.

Scott Saraceno

"The first album has a naiveté that this one hasn't got. I was nervous and tense when I made it and I think that gave it a certain quality. With Sense, I was a lot more confident and I'm more pleased with it."

Broudie's moniker for his band sprouted out of a slight misunderstanding of the purple pervert's (Prince) song "Raspberry Beret" ("Thunder hides what the lightning sees"). "When I was listening to the song, I kept wondering what he meant by that phrase," he says laughing. "Finally, I figured it out and thought, 'Hey, the Lightning Seeds would be a good name for a band. Lightning represents speed that it takes for an egg to get fertilized by the sperm. Seeds symbolize growth, and this band is growing in many different directions.

"When I recorded the album, the engineer and the other producer were the Lightning Seeds with me. When I put a band together for the tour, that will be the Lightning Seeds. And next time, if I decide it should be a Cajun band with a fiddle player, that will be the Lightning Seeds. It enables me to grow and create without being limited.

"While Cloudcuckooland speaks idealistically how "raindrops splash rainbows" (from "Pure"), the new album looks at the world realistically and notices how "rainy days are multiplying" (from "A Small Slice of Heaven"). "There aren't many love songs on Sense," he says. "The songs are broader and based on things that have happened to me in the past two years. Riley was born and one of my best friends died. A lot of things started to make sense to me and they all slotted together to make this album."

With the actual recording of Sense out of the way, Broudie now has time to take care of the rest of his brood - the band he's planning on creating for his upcoming tour and the bands he produces. "I'm not planning on using musicians from other bands [for my tour] because they have their own bands to worry about," he explains. "I want to get people who don't have obligations and are available. I'm also excited about producing [ex-Specials vocalist and background vocalist on Sense] Terry Hall. Right now, I'm writing some songs for his LP. I'm also planning on working with Pete Townshend on his upcoming album. We've been talking about working together for six or seven years now but we've never had the time. Pete asked me to produce some of his songs but then he broke his hand pretty badly recently when he fell off his bike and that pushed that project farther down the road. I think he's a brilliant songwriter, but I'm not a fan of what he's writing these days. If it works out though, it's going to be weird."

As Ian Broudie heads back to Liverpool with his family, it seems as if his next coming will be a tour in the summer. Instead of taking time to relax before a heady tour, he has a lot of projects planned, including getting a band together and producing a few more bands. His hectic lifestyle and all the stress it brings never really takes its toll on him. "I try to be positive," he explains. "I can get really negative but only for short periods of time." Sounds like he's having the life of Riley.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JAMESES

by Rey Roldan

Keeping up with the band James on vinyl is almost as hard as keeping up with vocalist Tim Booth's manic seizures on stage. With four eclectic albums that venture the depths of alternative pop, James has avoided all scenes ("Especially the sad Manchester scene," said native Mancunian bassist Jim Glennie after the concert) and still come up with UK Top 10 hits. Their first Boston show on March 11th at the Paradise proved that although US Top 40 has eluded them, their music carries enough weight Stateside to garner a sold out show.

In support of their brand new release Seven (Fontana/PLG), James' seven members were a cohesive unit on stage. Never getting in each other's way on the crowded stage, the band held their own and played the hell out of their instruments. Performing songs from practically the entire new album and major share of their last LP Gold Mother (later re-released as James with a few new tracks), they displayed the source of their huge popularity (they've headlined massive UK events like The Reading Festival). "Sound", their present UK Top 10 single, was electrifying to hear live, even with the crowd slamming to an otherwise unslammable song. It was surprising to see so many audience members singing along with the band, considering their limited American radio play.

The whole band broke in a chorus for the show-topper "Gold Mother" with Tim Booth performing his best imitation of Plastic Man, waving his arms and neck at impossible angles while he wasn't singing. "It's a difficult song to play live," explained Booth post-concert. "Sometimes we hit it and sometimes we don't. Tonight we definitely hit the nail right on the head."

James ended the show with the self-answering song "How Was It For You" which summed up the concert quite well. As Booth sings, "Well it's the best it's ever been," the whole crowd nods in raucous affirmiation.

MUSIC

Gardony Just Does It

by Jeff Briskin

At its best, jazz captures the essence of a particular moment; precious minutes that evidence the ebb and flow of idea, passions and energy among a group of musicians, in a way that can never be truly duplicated.

Pianist/composer Laszlo Gardony is committed to creating and preserving these moments, both in the recording studio and in concert. The Hungarian-born musician recently played with saxophonist Randy Brecker at the Regattabar and traded licks in a dual piano concert with Richie Beirach at the Berklee Performance Center on March 12.

What excites Gardony the most these days is the completion of the recording sessions for his third American album, to be released at the end of the summer. Tentatively titled Just Do It, Gardony promises the music will be very different from his last, the intensely introspective The Legend of Tsumi.

Just Do It draws from a multitude of sources, reflecting the multiculturalism of his players who include longtime bandmates Sotoshi Takeish on percussion, Stomu Takeish on electric bass, African percussionist George Jinda and Mick Goodrick on guitar.

"We wanted to create something with a naturally extroverted type of groove because the last album was so meditative. Everybody's ideas counted a lot. The sound is very unique," Gardony said in a recent interview at the Berklee College of Music, where he's a faculty member.

Improvisation has been a part of Gardony's musical makeup since his childhood. Yet, in his teens he was more influenced by King Crimson and Pink Floyd than by jazz. When he was 19, he began to turn on to the music of Miles Davis, John Coltrane and Brubeck, and soon after went to study piano at the Bela Bartok Conservatory of Music. Drawn to the Conservatory's jazz classes, Gardony soon learned enough to join the country's only jazz band, which travelled around Europe, exposing the young musician to American jazz giants such as Ahmad Jamal.

Gardony soon found the Conservatory's emphasis on "technique over creativity" stifling. After a friend showed him a Berklee catalog, Gardony set his heart on Boston. Barely able to speak English, Gardony came to Berklee in 1983 and remained until 1985. After spending the next few years garnering international attention at various jazz festivals, Gardony returned to join the faculty in 1987.

He is especially looking forward to his upcoming trip to Hungary - his first visit home since he left nearly 10 years ago. Gardony credits the fall of communism for allowing him to return. "Staying in Boston, studying for the longest time, created a lot of jealousy back home," he said.

"The government wanted me to come back. But as I started to play here, my music began to develop so quickly that I knew I had to stay, no matter what they said. But, of course, now, with the fall of communism, those problems are gone. And now I'm a hero!" he laughed.

In his own records, Gardony eschews the shortcuts provided by modern recording techniques. He tried to keep the number of studio sessions and takes to a minimum and likes everything recorded 'live,' without overdubs.

"Stravinsky said that the purpose of his music is to put the people in the 'now.' It's very true. The music has to 'happen' as it is played, right there. Otherwise, it's like making a rehearsed speech rather than having a spontaneous conversation."

TOWER'S TOP 25 ALBUMS

1. U2/Achtung Baby (Island)
2. Bobby McFerrin & Yo Yo Ma/Hush (Sony)
3. David Byrne/Uh-Oh (Sire)
4. Lisa Stansfield/Real Love (Arista)
5. Bonnie Raitt/Luck of the Draw (Capitol)
6. Boogie Down Productions/Sex & Violence (Jive)
7. Nirvana/Nevermind (DGC)
8. Cowboy Junkies/Black-Eyed Man (RCA)
9. Michael Jackson/Dangerous (Epic)
10. R.E.M./Out of Time (Warner Bros.)
11. Wayne's World/Soundtrack (Reprise)
12. Rush/Soundtrack (Reprise)
13. Vanessa Williams/Comfort Zone (Mercury)
14. Amy Grant/Heart in Motion (A&M)
15. Natalie Cole/Unforgettable (Elektra)
16. Red Hot Chili Peppers/Blood Sugar Sex Magik (Warner Bros.)
17. Mambo Kings/Soundtrack (Warner Bros.)
18. Sugarcubes/Stick Around for Joy (Elektra)
19. Black Sheep/Wolf in Sheep's Clothing (Mercury)
20. Enya/Shepherd Moons (Reprise)
21. T.L.C./Ooooooohhh... (BMG)
22. Genesis/We Can't Dance (Atlantic)
23. Boyz II Men/Cooleyhighharmony (Motown)
24. Seal/Seal (Sire)
25. Mariah Carey/Emotions (Columbia)

SPIN MAGAZINE
DRAKKAR NOIR
& LOCAL COLLEGE RADIO

SPIN -PRESENT- DRAKKAR NOIR

A WORLD PREMIERE
COLLEGE LISTENING NIGHT
FEATURING NEW ALBUMS FROM

MICHELLE SHOCKED
AND
THE SOUP DRAGONS

ADMISSION IS FREE
TO COLLEGE STUDENTS 19+ WITH VALID I.D.

THURSDAY, APRIL 2nd
8:00 - 10:00 PM
AT VENUS DE MILO, LANSDOWNE ST., BOSTON
FREE DOOR PRIZES
FROM MUSIC to T-SHIRTS & MORE!

Newbury Comics

WBRS • WERS • WRBB • WXPL
WDJM • WWLR • WBTY • WRPS

MUSIC

ALL THAT JAZZ

Sway to the soothing sounds of live jazz music throughout Boston as an alternative to the crowded and louder rock bars. Pick any of the jazz clubs and bars below and boogie down!

33 Dunster 354-0636, 33 Dunster Street, Harvard Square, Cambridge. Dunster has a crowded but relaxing jazz brunch every Sunday with the Bokley Trio. Brunch is served from 11am to 3pm.

The Barmuda Triangle Bar and Grill 437-1011, 200 Brookline Ave., Boston. The "Triangle" is one of Boston's hot new bars and offers live jazz music throughout the year. Call for information on acts and times.

Black Goose 720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. Relaxing jazz that's not only great to listen to but free as well. The casual atmosphere adds to the jazzy ambiance. Shows run 7-11pm.

Cricket's 720-5570, 1015 Fanueil Hall Mktpl., Boston. Enjoy the dry weather everyday inside the greenhouse and absorb the energy of the soul. Enjoy A cappella during the week.

Middle East Cafe 492-9181, 472 Mass. Ave., Central Square, Cambridge. Not just a restaurant. Not just rock. The Middle East has some pretty lively jazz musicians as well. Mondays have live jazz all night long and Fridays hop from 7 to 9pm.

Regattabar in the Charles Hotel. 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Square, Cambridge.WED 18.- Maria Maria. THUR 19.- The Boogaloo Swamis. FRI 20.- Tiger's Baku. SAT 21.- The Olga Roman Group. TUE 24.- Calypso Hurricane. WED 25.- Razmataz. THUR 26 to SAT 28.- Abbey Lincoln. SUN 29.- The Sadao Watanabe Quintet. TUE 31.- The Matt Gordy Sextet.

Sibel's 267-7346, 100 Peterborough St., Boston. Live, "cool" jazz with food and drink. Standards from the jazz and Latin repertoire. Fridays and Saturdays from 7-10pm. Casual Dress.

Scullers at the Guest Quarters Suites 783-0090, 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge. WED 18.-Wolfgang Muthspiel. THUR 19.-The Heavy Metal Horns. FRI 20 & SAT 21.-Adrienne Hawkins. TUE 24.-Mike Metheny Quartet. WED 25.-Semenya McCord Quartet THUR 26.-Nelson Rangel. FRI 27 & SAT 28.- Susannah McCorkle. TUE 31.- The Brian Walkley Sextet.

Wally's 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Boston.
Live jazz seven days a week. Sundays are big here with Cynthia Feldman from 3-7pm and Curtis Rivers from 9pm to 2am.

Willow Jazz Club 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Square, Somerville. Probably the most comprehensive jazz club in Boston. Jazz music oozes underneath the street of this joint, so if you want variety, check it out. Every Wednesday features The Fringe. THUR 19.-Tom Zicarelli Group. FRI 20 & SAT 21.-Uya. SUN 22 & MON 23.- Grover Mooney and Moon Unit. TUE 24.- Steve Altenberg Group. THUR 26.-Gonz. FRI 27 & SAT 28.- Jerry Bergonzi Quartet. SUN 29.- Jeff Covell Trio. MON 30.- Scott Mullett Group. TUE 31.- Collective Experience.

The Western Front 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Cambridge. An excellent place to settle down and chill to reggae and jazz played by Boston's best. WED 18.- Cardiff Reefers (Reggae). THUR. 19 to SAT 21.- Motion (R). TUE 24.- City Trees (Jazz). THUR 26.- New Horizon (R). FRI 27 & SAT 28.- Cool Runnings (R). TUE 31.- Tom Zicarelli Trio (J).

Zachary's Bar at the Colonnade Hotel. 424-7000, 120 Huntington Ave., Boston. Intimate and comfortable bar with the capacity of 60. No cover. Every Friday and Saturday Night features The Bert Seager Jazz Trio from 8:30 to Midnight.

A NIGHT IN BOP CITY

by Thomas M. Ullman Jr.

Dennis Stein

Gary Abate

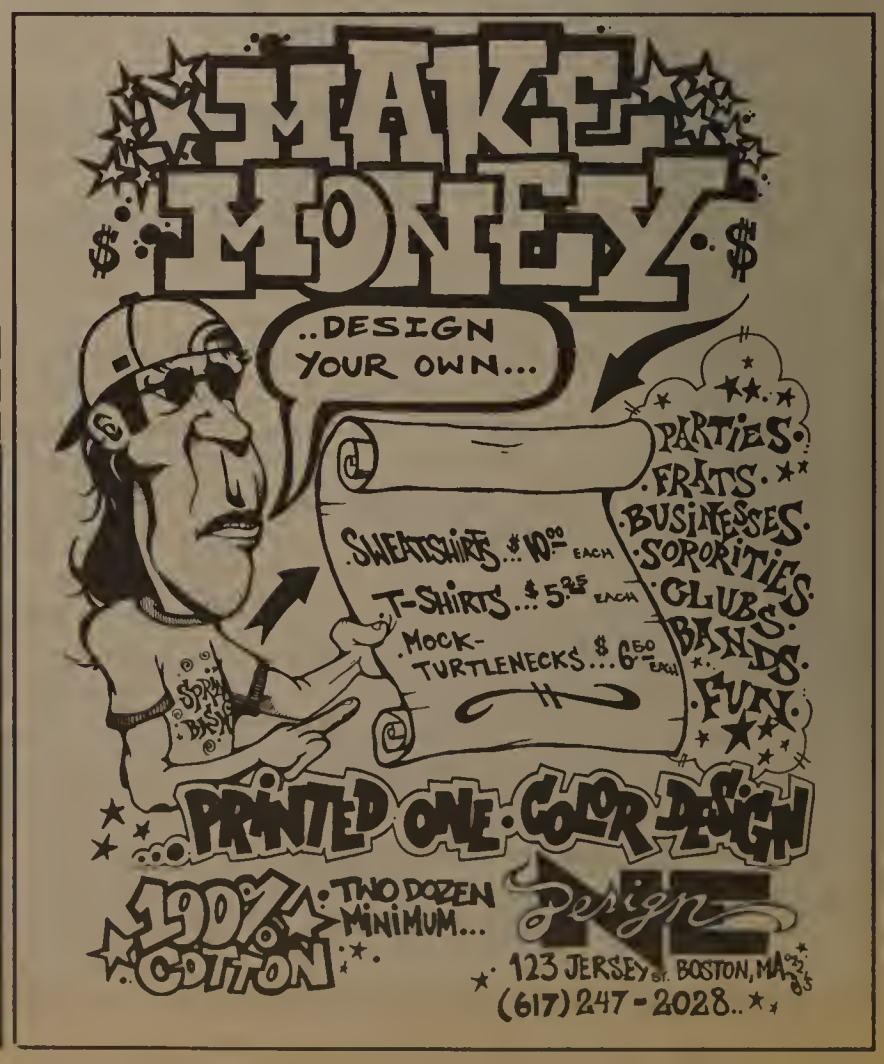
Whatever art form you enjoy, there are always certain people and events that symbolize what it's all about; it's their personal style and dedication to the art that makes them better than others. Such was the case February 12 when saxophonist Greg Abate celebrated the release of his first CD, Bop City (Candid) at Scullers.

It was one of those times that reminds you of the beauty of jazz - or any art. The musicians in Abate's band - Kenny Wenzel on trombone and flugelhorn, Tim Ray on piano, Marshall Wood on bass and drummer Gary Johnson - know each other's styles and how to use them to their advantage. The set, which included "Air Conditioning" by Charlie Parker, Cole Porter's "What Is This Thing Called Love" and his own "Peaks Beaks," was thoroughly and lovingly performed.

Compared to most discs of this calibre, Abate's new release Bop City which was recorded live at NYC's Birdland, blows them all away. There's no comparison to the rhythm section with James Williams on piano, bassist Rufus Reid and Kenny Washington on drums. His music is an energetic mixture of bop, blues and a bit of bossa nova. And it's all done with a whole lot of love.

"Dave Brubeck was the first thing that I got turned onto, then John Coltrane, Phil Woods and Cannonball Adderly," he said. From that point, he strove to develop his own musical identity. Part of his training included working with Ray Charles and Artie Shaw. "There's a lot of love involved [in what I do]," he said. "I'd like to think of my compositions as inspired by good feelings. I'm always striving to be a better player and I was looking forward at this to be an introduction to Greg Abate. . . and to play the best I could."

If that's the case, he accomplished his goal both live and on disc. Invest the money and spend some time in Bop City. It's a place and a person to which you'll want to return.



AT SOME SALONS, THE IDEA OF A GOOD HAIRCUT IS PRACTICALLY MEDIEVAL.

But not at Linear. As part of our service guarantee, you'll receive:
• A stress-relieving treatment that will penetrate and soothe your scalp, shoulders, and neck.
• At the chair you'll be offered coffee, tea, or mineral water—and it's never served in a paper cup.
• And for women, after we cut your hair, we'll touch up your makeup and help you find the right cosmetics.
If we forget anything mentioned, then the cut's on us.

LINEAR
548 Tremont Street
Boston
482-4676
Hair Design
Skin Care
Nails

SPRING SPECIAL
Bring in this ad through April 1 and recieve 15% off all manicures, pedicures, facials and hair coloring

BARS & CLUBS

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch..

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant nad bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nites a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nites, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT LOUNGE 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Situated in the basement of the tropical dance club Zanzibar, this newcomer to the Boston bar scene is fast becoming a hit. The decor is brick with various Disney prints and the works of local artist Daniel Hejinian adorning the walls. The crowd is a mix of urban young professionals. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover..

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave. , Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites..

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. This neighborhood/college bar is quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, this place gets pretty rowdy and exciting. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies..

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers. .

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night..

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. The crowd consists primarily of young professionals. The dress tends to be glitzy. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights..

•AVEROF 354-4500, 1924 Mass. Ave., Camb.. If you have a fetish for hommus or navels, this is the place for you. Located at Porter Sq., this casual Middle Eastern/Greek restaurant features live ethnic music and belly dancing nightly. The crowd is composed primarily of regulars, but everyone is welcome. No cover (except on special occasions) and no dress code..

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

•BAY TOWER ROOM 723-1666, 60 State St., Bos.. A sophisticated restaurant/bar atop 60 State St. A great place to bring the dates you want to impress. Features a panoramic view of the harbor and dancing to live music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixed with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. When everyone gets together it's an interesting mix. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays..

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm..

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. One of the hippest places around, Bill's is the epitome of a great bar-fun, loud, clean (but not meticulous), and showcases live music occasionally (on Tuesdays). A great place to get away from the dance clubs (although they're all next door). Casual and very relaxed..

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxing club to sit and enjoy excellent live jazz at its best. It's casual and unassuming and you don't have to wear a I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. There's never a cover and the atmosphere is great..

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name symbolizes Irish Catholic repression by the British. Traditional Irish music is served along with a host of Irish beers. Try the Guinness. Food is home spun. And remember, here, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! If you want to mix with an upbeat crowd of students, professionals, locals etc. and get involved in the show, this is your bag. Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress.

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. This Harvard Sq. institution caters to Harvard students and recent grads. The small outdoor patio is fun in the summer. Inside it's nearly always crowded. No cover. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price..

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Boarder Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and the guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis makes you feel like you've left Boston proper for the tropics. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop..

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights..

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music.

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays..

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. Everyone knows where it is, but few locals ever make it inside. The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress..

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code..

Wed 18th.--The Tats, Popskull, Lurking About Thur 19th.--John Finn, Joe Stump, The Hendersons Fri 20th.--Left Nut, Tom Monkey, HQ, Kill City Sat 21st.--Afghan Whigs, Six Finger Satellite Sun 22nd.--Mrs. Peacock Mon 23rd.--Hell, Hell Hoot Yell Blues Jam happens every Monday Tue 24th.--Sometimes Y, Gary Schultz Project, Sleight of Hand Wed 25th.--Little John, Cauldron, Q-36 Thur 26th.--Letters to Cleo, Idle Hands, Cactus Gallery Fri 27th.--Sam Black Church, Chloe, Naked Age, Tree Sat 28th.--In the Pink, Love It to Death, Restless Souls, Snydely Whiplash Sun 29th.--Swindle Tue 31st.--Michael Dunnehy

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Navajo Posole, Chippewa Roasted Half Duckling or the Algonquin Braised Rabbit. You'll be psyched you did. No cover. Casual dress..

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm..

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sq.'s much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans..

A JAZZ B A R Cafe

EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows 9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night

MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION

FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live

ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski

FREE Skis Passes, Vacation Weekends,
and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights

FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.

Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night

AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!

See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

Cornwall's - A British Jewel in the Heart of Kenmore

by Charles Graeber

So, you think you've done it all.You've tossed back Gatsby drinks on Newbury, you've swilled nameless beer from plastic cups in Allston, all in the name of a night out. Sometimes you want more than a scene. Sometimes you want to play Yahtzee.

Or Dr. Ruth's Good Sex Game. Or any of some fifty game choices available at Cornwall's pub in Kenmore Square. The games, combined with the choice of almost one-hundred imported and domestic beers, a full bar (complete with raw bar) and restaurant, makes boredom less probable than over-stimulation.

Over fifteen tap beer choices will keep even the aficionado entertained. And if you're into combinations like black-and-tans and snakebites, the possibilities are algebraic.

It's hardly what you expect from Kenmore Square. Cornwall's has a distinctive parlor feel, created by an abundance of brass and hardwood, oriental rugs, and indirect lighting.

Jill Connelly

The feeling is cozy, almost homey.

Cornwall's calls itself "an English Provincial pub". This means you're welcome to sit, read and eat for as long as you like. There's also a little suit of armor at the door. Despite the slightly contrived "English" feeling, Cornwall's is one of the few self-proclaimed "pubs" which deserves the designation. This bar has the genuine feel of a gathering place.

Many choose Cornwall's as a welcome break from home. As one patron put it, "You don't need to compete with the music. You can actually have a conversation! And they give you the time to have it - and the games to keep it casual".

The crowd is relatively young, mid-twenties to thirties. Most patrons bring their own groups, so there isn't the savage hunger of a singles scene. Still, the coziness makes meeting people simple and harmless. And who can resist an invitation to a game of mixed doubles Boggle?

Beer prices range between three and four dollars for a draught pint. Not cheap, but justified considering the quality of the beer. As for lunches and dinners, menu items range from traditional pub fare to seafood and more upscale dishes. The late night deli closes at 1am

Because of the games, weekend table space is valuable. Plan on hanging out at the bar for a bit if you show up on a weekend evening. And there is a dress code, so you need more than a plethora of eight-letter words to play scrabble at Cornwall's: you need non-ripped jeans too.

Cornwall's is located at 510 Commonwealth Avenue in Kenmore Square.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. A good spot to catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu ot Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there..

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Equipped for the handicapped and are open 11:30am-2am all week..

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware ot long lines before and after Sox games..

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. Located in the Marriott Copley. Although it's a sports bar, you wouldn't know it judging from the crowd. Most nights it's a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu..

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches..

Thur 19th.--Eve Goodman Fri 20th.--Flathead Sat 21st.--Catie Curtis & David Goldfinger Sun 22nd.--Focal Point & Liz Brahm Thur 26th.--Wendy Sobel & Kathy Phipps Fri 27th.--Orin Star & Company Sat 28th.--Martin Sexton Sun 29th.--Steve Key & Max Po-Kriv-Chak

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies..

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretention or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress..
Wed 18th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw ot the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...

Wed 18th.--Call for listings. Sun 22nd.--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 24th.--Dart League Nite every Tues.

•CLUB CHOICES 625-4975, 381 Somerville Ave., Somerville. Fun, eclectic club with a charm all of its own. .

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd, good-lookers too. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies but is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•THE COFFEE BAR 731-5070, 213 Washington St., Brookline. You won't find any booze here but you can catch a buzz. The kind that comes from the freshly ground, potent beans of quality java. Its clean, well-lit atmosphere works miracles upon any groggy soul. Coffee is served in imported Italian ceramic mugs, each hand-painted. They're open 7:30am-8pm Mon-Fri and 10am-6pm Weekends..

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Commonwealth Brewing Company's proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live bands play Sat. nights. Factory tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Wilson factory. No samples..

Fri 20th.--The Search Party Sat 21st.--The Mighty Charge Fri 27th.--The Search Party Sat 28th.--Diversity

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months..

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out. Or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon. .

Mon 23rd.--Every Mon. and Tues. the Brian Walkley Band performs three shows •DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. Sunday nights ask Linda, the hottest bartender in Boston for her own special creation, a Purple Haze. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. hot spot fills up consistently with singles and college students, not to mention sports fans. Dark and noisy. More action as the night subsides, this is the place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress..

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways ot Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please..

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear. Tue. night is Jazz night. .

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists ot students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress. .

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs..

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Thur 19th.--God Street Wine (NYC's Hot New Band) Fri 20th.--Taylor Made (Boston's Best) Sat 21st.--Little Anthony and the Locomotives with Radio Kings Mon 23rd.--Thur 26th.--Barrence Whitfield and the Savages Fri 27th.--Joanna Connor Band (Blind Pig) with Chuck Morris and Sidewalk Blues Sat 28th.--Ray Greene and Universal Language

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Air-conditioned clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppy sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their cafe serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches. Don't forget your alligator pants..

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line..

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix ot tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare that, when mixed with some beer, can be a dangerous combo if anyone is walking behind you. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment..

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart ot Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of

BARS & CLUBS

Dennis Stein

The bar's not poisonous, but Margaritas at The Rattlesnake have some bite!

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury
VISA

Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 18th.--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 22nd.--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 23rd.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code..

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy) come winter..

Thur 19th.--The Roads Fri 20th.--The Nor'Easters Sat 21st.--Tall Richard and the Night Owls Sun 22nd.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. Thur 26th.--The West End Blues Band Fri 27th.--The Henry Welch Band Sat 28th.--The Henry Welch Band

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress..

•HAMPSHIRE HOUSE 227-9600, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. An upscale piano bar with an active business clientele. The music runs the gamut from Jazz to Showtunes to Classical. No cover. The atmosphere is formal. A jacket and tie is requested of all male patrons..

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buf fet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 18th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 19th.--Ray Green's Universal Language Fri 20th.--Young Neal & the Vipers with special guests Bones of Contention Sat 21st.--Larry McCray with special guest Johnny Hoy and the Bluefish Sun 22nd.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 23rd.--Rapt Rascals & the Sorority House Horns Tue 24th.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!) Thur 26th.--The Fabulous Blends with special guests Mojo Filter Fri 27th.--Blue Heaven with special guests Bruce Marshall Group Sat 28th.--Heavy Metal Horns Mon 30th.--Too Tall Terry & Feast of the Mau Mau's

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room unless sitting in a puddle of stale beer is your idea of a good time. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu..

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womens' night club can become rowdy after hours as women party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St., Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 18th.--Bill Frisell, Wayne Horvitz Thur 19th.--Scott Henderson/Gary Willis & Tribal Tech Fri 20th.--Omar and the Howlers (from Austin, TX) Sat 21st.--The Band that Time Forgot Sun 22nd.--Blues Jam 4-8pm, African House Tue 24th.--Trout Fishing in America, Annie Clark Wed 25th.--Roomful of Blues Thur 26th.--Dan Hicks & Acoustic Warriors Fri 27th.--Boston Baked Blues Sat 28th.--Mojo Buford (ex-Muddy Waters' harmonica), Paul Rishell Sun 29th.--Blues Jam 4-8pm, Drivin' Sideways, Macey's Parade Mon 30th.--Cabaret du Somerville Tue 31st.--Wildman 8:30, Eugene Chadbourne

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 18th.--The Super Trivia Quiz happens every Wed. Nite at 9pm. Call for info. Beware of Mighty Mike Flood! Thur 19th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 22nd.--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 23rd.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 24th.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Micheal Curly, a renowned local politician who retired when fed up with Mass. politics in the early 1900's. Happy to hear there's a place where today's policy makers can still find solace. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code..

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, The Littlest Bar offers a quaint setting where the atmosphere is informal. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MACK'S 244-9881, 761 Beacon Street, Newton Center. Get away from theme bars at Mack's. The feeling of a neighborhood pub is strong here. A great place to enjoy a couple of cold draughts and some reasonably priced food. Four tv sets attract a crowd for the games and Thursdays rock with live folk music. Catch a wanna-be star on Saturdays with Karoake. No cover. Casual Dress. .

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The crowd is connected to Campus, a predominantly gay joint. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..
Wed 18th.--Every Wed. Is Industrial Rage Sat 21st.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday starting Feb. 26 at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. This is a place where great music rivals the great drink specials. Luncheon specials for only $2.50 can't be beat. A casual, relaxed atmosphere prevails. The entertainment covers vary..

Wed 18th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 19th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 20th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 21st.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 23rd.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 24th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style: with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude. The crowd centers around young professionals but you'll find a mix of cheese, college types and suits anyway. Proper dress with a jacket for men..

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere. You'll love the outdoor facade!.

Wed 18th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm, Love Child, Sleepy Head Thur 19th.--Talking to Animals, Scatterfield, Harmony Rockets, Pat Wallace Fri 20th.--World Guitar Duo 5-7pm, Antietam, Come, High Risk Group, Jack O'Nuts Sat 21st.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 22nd.--Brazilian 12-4pm, Sub-Pop Recording Artists Love Battery, Highback Chairs (featuring members of Minor Threat), Tsunami, Bangutat Mon 23rd.--Jazz 8-12pm Tue 24th.--Kudgel, God and Texas, Spectus, Monofone, Deluxx Wed 25th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm, WHRB presents Crystallized Movements, Vermonster, Brother J.T., Luxurious Bags, Dazzling Killman Thur 26th.--Smashing Orange, Small Factory, Velocity Girl, Killjoy Fri 27th.--World Guitar Duo 5-7pm, Dambuilders, Mammoth Record's Big Wheel, Bulkhead, Tulips Sat 28th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 29th.--Brazilian 12-4 pm, Noise Party 2-6pm, Linda Smith 9pm, Swirlies, Magnetic Fields, Opium Den Mon 30th.--Jazz 8-12pm Tue 31st.--Nisi Period, Common Ailments of Maturity, Legendary Lunch, Crimson Dynamo

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new bar has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphenalia. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. .

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. You can't order cheese here but you won't have any problem spotting it.

BARS & CLUBS

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 18th.--Bill Bruford's Earthworks Thur 19th.--This Picture Fri 20th.--Think Tree Wed 25th.--In Their Own Words. featuring Midge Ure, Don Henry, Darden Smith, Chip Taylor and Rosie Flores Thur 26th.--The JudyBats Fri 27th.--NRBQ Sat 28th.--Betty Sun 29th.--Intimate Acoustic Night for Freedom Fest

•OUTER LIMITS 328-1500, 29 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02171. This new upscale Rock and Roll club has all the makings for a great place to see a show. Features live rock, progressive and heavy metal. Casual atmosphere, but be ready to rock..

Thur 19th.--Every Thurs. is the Best In Alternative and Progressive Dance Music with WFNX DJ's Sun 22nd.--Every Sun. Is the South Shore's Hottest Dance Nite

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress..

Fri 20th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge and sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'ouvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from the upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Thur 19th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 24th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners include the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. A hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code. .
Wed 18th.--Call for listings.

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks..

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 18th.--Maria Maria Thur 19th.--The Boogaloo Swamis Fri 20th.--Tiger's Baku Sat 21st.--The Olga Roman Group Tue 24th.--Calypso Hurricane Wed 25th.--Razmataz Thur 26th.--Abbey Lincoln performs until Sat., March 28 Sun 29th.--The Sadao Watanabe Quintet Tue 31st.--The Matt Gordy Sextet

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Be soothed to relaxing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8..
-Call for listings.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

Wed 18th.--Every Thurs., Fri., Sat. Is The White Heat Swing Orchestra

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstars you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 18th.--Wolfgang Muthspiel with George Garzone, Larry Grenadier, Alex Deutsch Thur 19th.--Heavy Metal Horns Fri 20th.--Adrienne Hawkins is here tonite and tomorrow Tue 24th.--The Mike Metheny Quartet Wed 25th.--Semenya McCord Quartet Thur 26th.--CD 96.9 presents Nelson Rangel Fri 27th.--Susannah McCorkle tonite and tomorrow Tue 31st.--The Brian Walkley Sextet

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Sq.'s other college pub. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. No cover. Casual dress. .

•SIT 'N BULL PUB508-897-7232, 163 MainSt. , Maynard,Mass. . .

Wed 18th.--Ronnie Earl and the Broadcasters Thur 19th.--Tempa Tempa Fri 20th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 21st.--Transit Sun 22nd.--Dennis Coraccio Wed 25th.--Ronnie Earl and the Broadcasters Thur 26th.--Bruce Marshall Group Fri 27th.--Blue Diner Dance Band Sun 29th.--Kenny Patrikis

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Essentially a Faneuil Hall dance club, the clientele is a mix of young, collegiate and professional Bostonians. Disco is not dead because this place is swamped with it. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts,.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm..

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On a given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Wed 18th.--Vagon Poetry, Odds & Ends, Geoff Pango Thur 19th.--Virgin Recording Artists The Origin (as seen in last issue of The Improper Bostonian), Paper Squares, One Big Room, Blister Fri 20th.--O Positive, Killjoy, Childhood Sat 21st.--Cargo Records Recording Artists Shadowy Men on a Shadowy Planet, Pipes, Flying Nuns Sun 22nd.--Peter in Gabland or Geometric Gossip, 1 Act Play by Al Ordubeigian Mon 23rd.--Stone Soup Poetry presents Ilona Quinn and Al Peterson Tue 24th.--Frankly Scarlet, the Lonely Guy, Cat Daddy Wed 25th.--Notary Public, Razor's Edge, Zombie Jamboree, Devil's Avocado Thur 26th.--The Keep, The A.G.'s, Cleopatra Jones, Absolute Fri 27th.--5-0, The Po' Boys, Siren Sat 28th.--Slash Recording Artists the Verlaines (from New Zealand), Brave New World, Black Rose Garden Sun 29th.--Peter in Gabland or Geometric Gossip, 1 Act Play by Al Ordubeigian Mon 30th.--Stone Soup Poetry presents Atwater-Donnelly Tue 31st.--L-7, Crazy Alice •T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. A lively college bar. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunch and dinner are delicious and very reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time..

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Sq.'s only offering of music is one of Boston's best restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 18th.--Mary Dee Reynolds and Ellie Marshall Band Thur 19th.--The Merles, Jamie Rubin's Bohemian Love Fest Fri 20th.--Calypso Hurricane Sat 21st.--The Search Party Sun 22nd.--The Soul Twisters Mon 23rd.--Songwriter's Showcase Benefit for Children's AIDS Program: Darren Brahms, Jennifer Johnston and Others Tue 24th.--Clayton Scoble and Jennifer Trynin Band Wed 25th.--Crisis of Faith Thur 26th.--Downtime Fri 27th.--Treat Her Right Sat 28th.--Wildest Dreams Sun 29th.--The Act Mon 30th.--Tam Jam Tue 31st.--Big Bang

•TIA'S Marriot Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A favorite open air meeting place near the harbor. The crowd is young and single. It gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted..

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Mon. is Blues Night. Relax over a few beers and get into the spirit. Don't be afraid to sway in the aisle when the music jams. It's always smoky and crowded, but Wally's truly has heart. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat

.Mon 23rd.--Blues Night Mon 30th.--Blues Night

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's quite difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Cafe and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress. A must for any Reggae lover..

Wed 18th.--Cardiff Reefers Thur 19th.--Motion performs reggae till Sat. Sun 22nd.--World Folk Night at the Arts Cafe Tue 24th.--City Trees Thur 26th.--New Horizon Fri 27th.--Cool Runnings tonite and tomorrow nite Sun 29th.--International Pop Night at the Arts Cafe Tue 31st.--Tom Zicarelli Trio

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons..
Wed 18th.--Call for listings.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out what acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..

Wed 18th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday! Thur 19th.--Tom Zicarelli Group Fri 20th.--Uya performs tonite and tomorrow nite Sun 22nd.--Grover Mooney and Moon Unit is here tonite and tomorrow nite Tue 24th.--Steve Altenberg Group Thur 26th.--Gonz Fri 27th.--Jerry Bergonzi Quartet is here today and tomorrow Sun 29th.--Jeff Covell Trio Mon 30th.--Scott Mullett Group Tue 31st.--Collective Experience

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This large two story dance club is modeled after a large Caribbean dwelling complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele. Local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required..

CELTICS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

MARCH

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	18	17	18 CLE 7:30	19	20 DET 8:00	21
22 GS 2:30	23	24	25 NJ 7:30	26	27 DET 7:30	28
29 ATL 7:30	30	31

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 WSH 7:30	2	3 IND 8:00	4
5 CHI Noon	6	7 CLE 7:30	8 NY 7:30	9	10 MIL 7:30	11
12 CHA 6:00	13	14 PHI 7:30	15 DET 8:00	16	17	18
19 MIA 1:00	ALL GAMES ON 590 WEEI AM TV AWAY GAMES ON FOX 25

Home Away Hartford

BRUINS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

MARCH

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19 ST.L 7:35	20	21 EDM 1:35
22	23 SJS 7:35	24	25	26 NJ 7:45	27	28 BUF 1:35
29	30	31 QUE 7:35

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2 QUE 7:35	3	4 MON 8:05
5 HRT 7:05

Away TV HOMEGAMES ON NESN
Home TV AWAY GAMES ON WSBK 38

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS
Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

EXHIBITS
Commonwealth Museum
220 Morrissey Blvd., Boston
727-9268
Free admission: Every day
Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., 9am-3pm
This museum is dedicated to the people, places and politics of Massachusetts. The ongoing exhibits display treasured documents, photographs and audio-visual programs that tell stories of how our Commonwealth progressed from prehistoric times to the present day.

The French Library in Boston, Inc
53 Marlborough St, Boston
266-4351
On display are vintage posters from a private collection entitled "The Age of Train Travel" until March 31. Admission to the exhibit is free during regular library hours Tues, Friday and Saturday 10- 5 P.M.and Wednesday and Thursday 10- 8 P.M.

FILMS
Boston Public Library
Copley Square
536-5400 Ext 319
Made in Massachusetts Film Series: Part II-The Filmmakers which highlights three locally made films fom the BPL's film collections. Films are to be shown on March 23 at 6 P.M. in Rabb Hall. Admission is free.

LECTURES
Radcliffe College
6 Ash St., Cambridge
Barbara Neely, author of Blanche on the Lam (the first in a projected series of Blanche mystery novels), will give a lecture on "Blanche on the Lam: A Black Domestic Worker as Feminist Heroine." It takes place in the Cronkhite Graduate Center, Mar. 19 at 8 p.m.

POETRY
Cambridge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Dorothy Barresi, author of All of the Above, and Rosanna Warren, author of Each Leaf Shines Separate, will each read from new work Mar. 23. Admission is $2.00. On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

THEATRE
The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
482-9393
On Monday, March 23 at 6P.M. the Wang Center's Young at Arts program will host the second in their series of panel discussions of Theatre Talk. The discussion topic will focus on the concerns and questions of those seeking a career in the theatre. Admission is free.

ZOOS
Franklin Park Zoo
Boston
442-0991
Free Admission: Tues. 12pm-closing.
Hours: Oct.-Apr., daily 9am-3:30pm; Apr.-Oct., daily 9am-5pm.
The zoo features the African Tropical Forest, Birds' World, Outdoor Flight Cage, the Children's Zoo and Hoofs & Horns, all located in a historic park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm. Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

VACATION VALUES!

CHARTER VACATIONS

Aruba 7 Nts. from $699
Thurs., Sat., & Sun. depts. thru 5/30/92 *

Barbados 7 Nts. from $649
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

Cancun 7 Nts. from $519
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/30/92 *

Cozumel 7 Nts. from $749
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

Jamaica 7 Nts. from $719
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/31/92 *

Orlando 7 Nts. from $399
Includes Rental Car! Sat. depts thru 5/30/92.

Nassau 3 Nts. from $499
Friday & Monday departures thru 4/20/92.*

Puerto Plata 7 Nts. from $619
Saturday departures thru 5/30/92

St. Kitts 7 Nts. from $719
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92

St. Maarten 7 Nts. from $619
Thurs., Sat., & Sun., depts. thru 5/31/92 *

* 3, 4, 7, & 10 Night Charters Available!

NEW! Puerto Aventuras
TNT's newest destination thru 5/24/92!

HALEY'S BERMUDA

Convenient Bermuda Packages!
• All-Inclusive Packages • Family Packages
• Honeymoon • Golf • Tennis • Watersports

Palm Reef Hotel from $261
EP. Valid 3/16 - 11/15/92.

Harmony Club All Inclusive from $489
DLX. Valid 4/1 - 12/2/92.

Prices are per person, based on double occupancy.

SCHEDULED AIR

- Flexible, round trip scheduled air packages for 3 or more nights available to many of TNT's charter destinations
- All-Inclusive packages, dining plans and tours available for purchase
- Grand Cayman departures from JFK!

5 STAR TRAVEL SERVICE
164 Newbury St., Boston
536-1999

TNT TRANS NATIONAL TRAVEL
TNT CHARTER VACATIONS INCLUDE: Round trip jet transportation via Key Air, Rich Airways, Trump Airlines or similar, or scheduled air service. Airport fees and immigration fees of $18 to $33 are not included. See Tour Participant Contract in catalog. TNT NEW ENGLAND 2/92.

BAD CREDIT, NO CREDIT?

Get a "Fresh Start"...
Regardless of Credit History!
You can get your very own

VISA®

Call ACS at (617) 437-7455 for details

This is not a Secured Card

Call Today

"Fresh Start"
CREDIT & INSURANCE PROGRAM
"Fresh Start" is an agent of KEY BANK™ Thornton, CO

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

To M.W.
I will never forgive you for dumping me after five years. I would never wish death on you, just the next best thing: I hope you are on your way to South America and your plane crash lands into the snowy Andes Mountains; but you live; you just have to eat the flesh of all the dead passengers in order to survive until you are rescued five years later!!! - Joe the B.M.

Pat S.
Thanks for teaching me some of those pool table tricks. So when do I get to see your stick and balls, huh?

To Donna at Hoyts:
Thanks for nothing. I'm glad spring is coming, for your sake. You're one fat worm that first robin will be overjoyed to chow down on. - Neil B. Formee
P.S. Hugs and kisses

To Grandmaster Ky Lo Neek
I want to beat people up too! - Boot to the head.

To Commodore Mucus:
It has now been two years since the loan began. As a means to settle this problem of finance, I will now take your sister as my wench/concubine. Ha..Ha..Ha.. PAY UP! Mjr. Glitch - C.P. Brookline

Tall, handsome Young Republican looking for wealthy, politically similar WASP female to complain, shop and share "America #1" ideals with me
Dawn

Overheard in Cinema;
"Are you taking aerobics pass/fail or for a grade" - Two B.U. ($26,000 a year) students.

To that man with the unmistakable voice who keeps calling. Leave us the hell alone and go bother someone who cares. To tell you the truth no one has heard of you, I've asked around. But it doesn't matter because you just think you have this life thing solved, don't you?

O Seasonal one,
My last message may have been horribly mangled in spelling but I sure hope you got the message. Everything comes around in the end.

To a certain pizza place on Salem St. You might have the best value around but just once I would like to go in without having to deal with attitude, blatant rudeness and incorrect orders. Just a humble request.

Thank you to the projectionist at Loews Beacon Hill;
The showing of America Me would not have been the same without you continually screwing up. Stopping and turning the lights on in the middle was a nice touch.

Winter,
Get lost, if you're not going to snow it's not worth having you around. The idea of actually being warm walking across Copley Square and Government Center seems like a distant memory.

To the people in my building. Your impressions of rampaging buffaloes every time you come in the door are really unnecessary.

Before you vote take a good long look at George Bush. Politics aside, does he look like a healthy guy? Do you really think he is someone who can really function for four more years in the most stressful job in the world? It's just a thought.

Kim,
If you really want to dress like you want that promotion real soon, do it on the street where you can make some real money. Don't look now but I work in the same office and I hear the whispers.

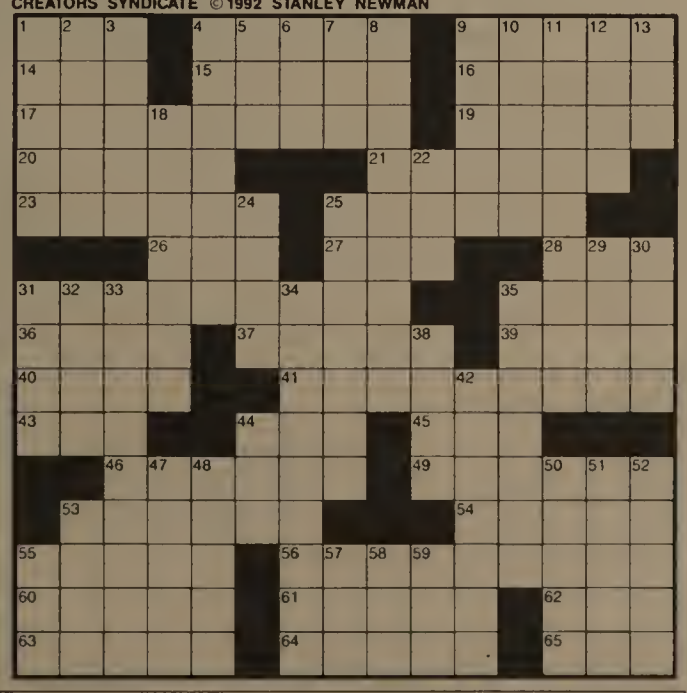
John,
Its time for you to lose the rug, or are you combing your ear hair over your head. The car, the suits, the condo don't make up for the fact that you are undersized - I lied, it does matter when it is that small. And remember that secret, well it isn't any more. Enjoy the paranoia.

To my favorite grad student,
Doesn't it trouble you just a little bit that your parents are sacrificing all that money for you to waste it buying papers from some sleeze-ball. Are you sure you remembered to sign your own name on them.

Tufts University,
I long time ago I spent a lot of money to take a second rate education that has done me absolutely no good in the intervening years. For some reason other people have this image that Tufts is a good school. Nice endowment by the way.

Bill,
Even though Sully managed to water your clothing with his remaining bladder fluid, I hear that you were looking pretty sharp at your morning meeting. By the way, what's that new scent you've been sporting?

Matt,
How many different cleaning agents did it take to remove the remnants of Theron's evening from your Bronco? He mentioned that the beef stew was delicious.



Newsday Crossword

3 LITTLE WORDS by Wayne R. Williams
Edited by Stanley Newman

ACROSS
1 Small snake
4 Belief
9 Ore chore
14 Desktop devices: Abbr.
15 Sank, as a putt
16 Church top
17 Willie Mays' nickname
19 Airport lineup
20 Banquet officiator
21 Yucatan's capital
23 Basketball, essentially
25 Paul Whiteman tune of '27
26 Cir. statistic
27 Nav. rank
28 Singer Sumac
31 No, No, Nanette tune
35 Very impressed
36 Rights grp.
37 Quite devout
39 Cause of ruin
40 Dice toss
41 Make a hasty escape
43 Industrious insect
44 RR stop
45 Pasture plaint
46 The __ Experiment (Rimmer novel)
49 Dramatist Rostand
53 Worthy of a medal
54 Artoo __
55 Revere's co-rider
56 Billboard success
60 Vacuous
61 Where the blissful walk
62 Language ending
63 Pyramid builders
64 Singer James et al.
65 Checkers side

DOWN
1 Church areas
2 Untrustworthy one
3 __ out (intimidate)
4 "Ta-ta!"
5 Western Bean
6 Lodge brother
7 "Agnus __"
8 Fifth wheel
9 The Jetsons' dog
10 Seville's setting
11 Event in the news, 6/67
12 Oratorio piece
13 "You bet!"
18 Attentive
22 Printer's measures
24 O.K. Corral visitor
25 Reversed film
29 Waiter's offering
30 Mideast gulf
31 Scarlett locale
32 A soc. sci.
33 Sinatra tune
34 Hollywood Squares inspiration
35 Belly
38 Just the __ (even so)
42 Silent assenters
44 __ Lanka
47 Sports venue
48 American Beauties, e.g.
50 The __ Side of Midnight
51 Sort of pollution
52 Overdid the affection
53 Tennis pro Mandlikova
55 Poorly lit
57 Que. neighbor
58 Butter portion
59 Aunt, in Acapulco

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN

FREE crossword-book catalog. Write: Box 909-P, Bellmore, NY 11710.
Stumped? Get help! Call 1-900-646-8282. Cost is 95 cents per minute.

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973

ORIENT EXPRESS
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL

Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown
Some Restrictions Apply

$40
per trip - up to 6 people

Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

We're Looking For a Few Stars

If you're extremely hard working, possess outstanding talents and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success.

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Freelance Advertising Designers

To handle various advertising campaigns both large and small. Please forward samples of your work to the Publisher.

Art Director / Layout

Must be Macintosh fluent.

Interns

For the advertising and marketing department. We'll give you as much responsibility as you can handle.

Call 232-3507 for more details or FAX your resume to the Publisher at (617) 232-4305.

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Apartments

CAMBRIDGE — 2-bedroom condo for rent
A. Private parking and gas included (plus heat)
B. 5 min. walk to Alewife Park MBTA Station
C. 5 min. ride to Harvard Sq.
D. Furnished
E. Available for rent immediately due to unexpected move
F. Rent only $690.- per mo. Call for more inf. J.C. Kim 863-1686(10-12noon) or 279-0318 bet. 2-7p.m.

FT. MEYER FL, Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., blcny., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-30641

BELMONT - no parking but large 2 bedroom plus on Grove St. near bus #73. Smoke-free. No pets $750 month plus utilities. Call owner 489-6116.

BEDFORD - near Lexington /25 minutes to Harvard Square. Spacious "5 star" easy-to-maintain, brick home. Price reduced to $365,000. Large 3 bedrooms plus. Huge kit. central air. 2 acres. 489-6116

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

Automobiles

1989 DODGE SHADOW 5 speed. Excellent Condition. Sunroof, FM Stereo / Cassette. Black, Sharp. 40K, Highway Miles. Asking $6800. Call Lisa 924-0012.

'87 HONDA ACCORD LX 5 speed, fully loaded. Air Conditioning. $6,500 or best offer. Call 926-3484

1987 Toyota Supra w/ Targa top and rear spoiler.Meticulously maintained Florida car. 57K Blk w/ gry & blk Int. Alarm. All powerl $9250. Adam 254-7074

Carpet Repair

Carpet repairs, installation,restreatch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Clothing/Tailoring

The Alter Ego. Clothing Alterations. reconstruction and Repair. You name it- we alter it Pickup and delivery. Student and senior citizen rates. Unique custom made pillows. Call 332-0160.

Collectibles

FLYING EAGLE COINS CO. • •Wartime Silver Nickel Set • Lincoln Wheat Reverse Rolls: 1955, B.U. & 1956D, B.U. & 1958, B.U. • First Year Issue Roosevelt Dimes (1946), UNC. Roll Plus XF Indians & Silver Roosevelt PROOFS PLUS MANY MORE COINS Call Jim At 245-7841

Computer Software

PRODIGY FOR SALE only $100.00 Reg price in store $150.00 great Holiday gift. leave message for rachel at 445-7344

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Safe, Non-Directive, confidential setting where your questions and feelings can be explored. Individual counseling and groups for men and women. Al Gentile, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

Credit Services

Get a Visa and correct bad credit. Solve debt problems. Late payments , chargeoffs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639.

Electronics

PHONE Uniden President, charger + 2 batteries $9200 or b.o. call 262-4471.

VCR. Good condition2 yrs old $75. 13" color T.V. $75. Dbl bed & boxsprg $50 all negoc. Adam 254-7074

Entertainment

Boston's Best Entertainment 'Grams To Go" The Stripper (Male/Female), Bellydancers, Huladancers, Impersonators, Ballons & Tunes,(Great Costumes), Disc Jockeys, Fun & Affordable. (617) 354-5000 M/C Visa Disc. Amex

Futons

THE FUTON OUTLET 360 Mystic Ave. Somerville, MA (617) 776-9429 Twin Futon & Frame $174. Double Futon & Frame $198. Free Local Delivery,COD.

Help Wanted

SALES / MANAGEMENT / MARKETING International Environmental / Educational company seeking professionals to build and train direct sales force. Full and part time positions available. We will train. Send resume or letter to: 21 Warwick Road, Suite 4, Brookline, MA 02146. Attention: Personnel

Health Services

Massage Therapy Swedish, deep tissue, sports massage trigger points Past clientele: Les Mis, Cats, Heartstrings, and Boston Ballet. $50 In $60 out. HIV $30. Gift certificates available. Feel less tired, have more energy. Ask me about KM. Tim Medas 522-0626

Moving

PROMPT AND REASONABLE - small jobs OK "student discounts" Preferrred movers 617-597-3297 24 hr.

Music Lessons

LEARN TO PLAY DRUMS! Patient, flexible, experienced, former Berklee teacher. All styles, all ages, beginners welcome. Brookline Village Studio, near T. Call Mick 527-0950

DRUM LESSONS: If you do the right moves and progress step by step, you can play anything you want! Call Douglas at 254-3747.

Miscellaneous

DON'T BE SHY Discreet photographer needs one attractive woman to help create intimate but tasteful black and white photographs. No experience necessary. No sleaze. Any skin color. For more info write P.O. Box 1447 Back Bay Annex, Boston, MA 02117. Try it.

WRESTLING FANS - Mat Marketplace is pro wrestling's memorabilia, newsletter. 1 yr. - 6 issues - $12 Write: P.O. Box 2371 J.P., MA 02130.

BRAND NAME PERFUMES for sale. Great Holiday Gifts for only $9.00-$40.00 for more info or to place order, call Rachel at 445-7344 bet. 10AM & 8PM.

EXERCISE PARTNER WANTED Busy single professional male 37 from oversears, finds excersising boring and impossible. Seeks partner or guy with similar situation to exercise thrice weekly. Have extra membership to excellent gym. Can pay modest training fee or offer friendship. Write Sameer. PO Box 1482 Brookline, MA 02146

Services

CLEANING - CONDO Owners / Apt. Dwellers - Are your common areas "Disaster" areas? Call Classic Cleaning for a free building survey of all your cleaning needs. Insured / bonded 617-389-8424.

HANDYMAN General repairs: windows fixed and insulated, painting, debris removed - attic etc. preferred management 617-597-3297.

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

Skin Care

Common Sense Skin Care. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

THE BEST CLASSIFIED AD PRICES IN TOWN REACHING OVER 190,000 PEOPLE EVERY ISSUE.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS. CAPTURE YOUR MARKET.

Araby Rug Galleries Inc.

In Boston, our selection of antique & modern oriental rugs is simply without peer. So, too, is our location...at Copley Square, just a few short steps from the city's major hotels.

10 to 20% off Araby's entire inventory. An additional 10% off with mention of this ad.

We also offer intelligent and experienced wash and repair. Stop by and visit Mon.-Sat. 9am-6pm, Thurs. eve. until 8pm, and now on Sun. 1-5pm.

667 Boylston St.
267-0012

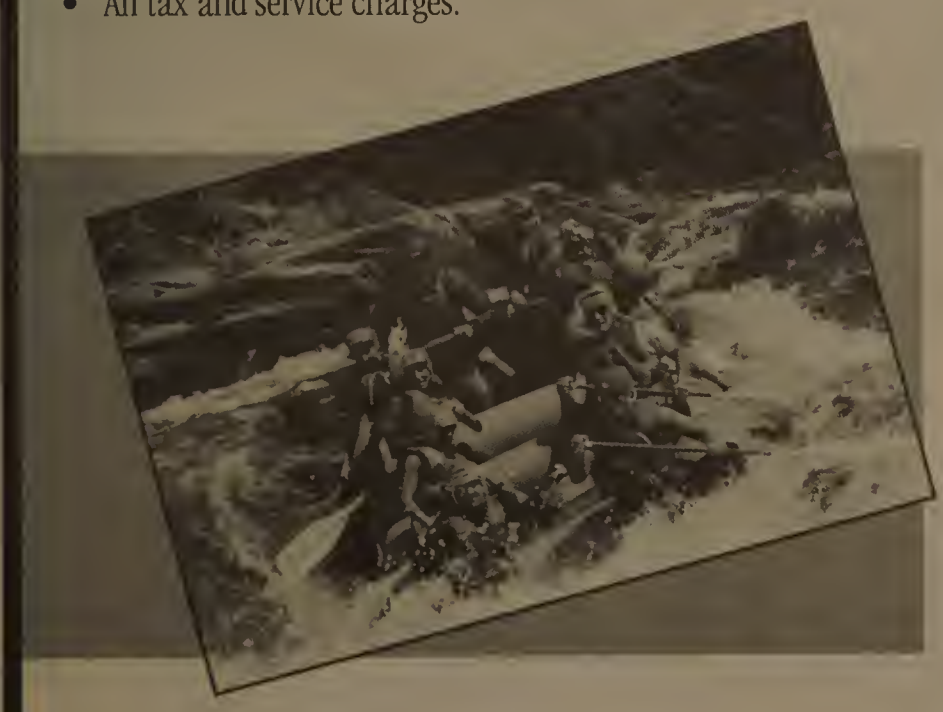
The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure

In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures

Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00

Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).
Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

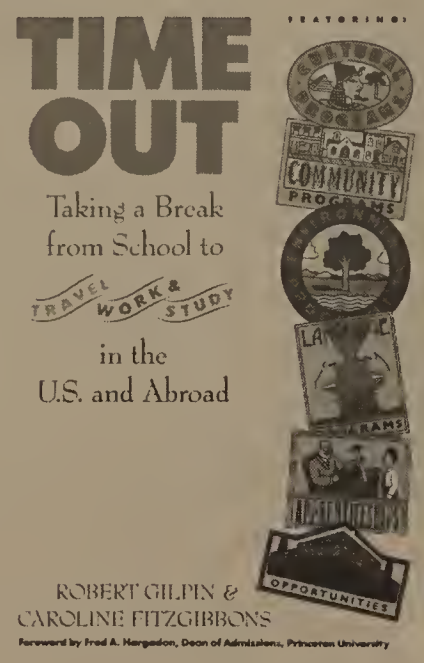
TARGET
Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

© 1984 Anheuser-Busch Inc. St Louis Mo.

April 1, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)



April Fool's!

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Give Yourself a Break

That long, long tunnel leading from kindergarten to graduate school takes students gaspingly along with little chance (unless you flunk out!) to take a breath, change perspective, or enter that imaginary plateau which Erik Erikson calls the "moratorium." But short, self-contained experiences are available in great abundance for kids temporarily or permanently exiting the academic rat-race, and Robert Gilpin (history teacher at Milton Academy) and Caroline Fitzgibbons have gathered them together in Time Out, Taking A Break From School to Travel Work & Study in the U.S. And Abroad. The authors sketch out some of the scenarios that impel the impelled, or motivate the not-so-motivated to sample for a year, or less, in these informative, rigorous, luxurious realms, along with the details of price, location, contacts etc. Possibilities range from working in a circus or picking grapes in France, to doing grassroots political work or studying art in Florence. A totally immersive Scandinavian Seminar in their "folk college" or "school for life" is also temptingly laid out. Bob Gilpin has been teaching adolescents for 15 years and he represents the voice of skepticism and the quasi-sarky view of the groaning downsides, along with the cheering testimonials of students who have gone through these programs. As a variation on reading course catalogues, strolling through this book will make you feel the world is wide, challenging, and welcoming - and that you can be much more than a tourist.

A Fireside Book by Simon and Schuster, $12.00

Dog-Gone Bathtub

Forget the Niagara of flung water that torments the dog owner who decides to wash Fido in the tub at home. Also forget (unless you choose this option for some reason) leaving doggy at the hands of the groomer. This cheerful hands-on/away-from-home dog grooming establishment allows you to wash your dog in a real waist-high bathtub. All shampoos, conditioners and cream rinses are provided (you're dressed in a plastic apron for the occasion) with serious driers to finish the job. The ears-and-nails part of the job, which requires a lunatic, or a professional (whichever comes first), is done by the two women who run Groomtown, Eileen Christopher and Diane Grant Brennon. Dogs who produce what they call a "snowstorm of hair," would do no favor to your own bathtub drain, but they are equipped for it here. The claim is that regular grooming cuts down on ear infections, shin problems and arthritis; also, as they put it, a clean dog is "more welcome on beds and laps." If you do the deed, the cost is only $12; if they do it for you, about $25-$30 - and they can also pick-up and deliver your dog. Heavy dog documentation on the walls atttests to the fact that they have saved and nurtured strays. On Wednesdays, Dr. John DeJong, Boston's Mobile Vet, does routine vettery-shots and ear infection treatments - no surgery. There's a bit of a neighborhood sit-com feeling in the place; one suspects the dogs are not the only ones who come away feeling better, though they are the ones who leave wearing a seasonal bandanna.

Groomtown
269 Main Street
Charlestown, MA 02129
241-PETS

The Woman In The Moon

More than just a store, Gypsy Moon is an experience. Step off the workday sidewalk of Mass Avenue and into a vine-twined Renaissance wildwood, where tree trunks stretching around the walls sparkle with a kind of mystical mist, bending around to evolve into the rack on which the clothes are hung. This store is dedicated to a woman who's half goddess, and half pre-Raphaelite maiden. The romantic attire here borders on costume, the grown-up edition of dress-up. Snaggly-hemmed dresses, or skirts that are layered and layered tend to flow and float, topped perhaps by a long velvet cape. The fabrics are loose and light-chiffon, rayon, silk velvet, suede and parachute silk, while the palette runs to rose, rust, ruby, gold and burnt umber. Chain mail jewelry is worn as low slung belts, headgear (often pinning down a flying headwrap scarf) or even as foot jewelry. The feeling of occult-ish mystery extends to the sexy mannequins - twisting towards a kiss - all wrapped in their delicious garb; the man having walked through the 60's in his loose cotton pants, to reach this enchanted forest. Go downstairs to the "crystal cave" with its stalactites for jewelry and perfume oils. The hours are M-F 10-7; Sat. 10-6; Sun. 12-5 or by chance appointment or Astral Projection.

Gypsy Moon
1780 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge.
876-7095

MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY IS A FREELANCE WRITER. SHE ~~LIKES~~ LOVES TO RECEIVE LOTS OF MAIL!
PLEASE SEND ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, 17 STATION ST., SUITE 7A BROOKLINE, MA 02146

CONTENTS

April 1, 1992

Features

6

Boston's Pool Scene in a Pocket

Tom Cruise and Paul Newman did it in The Color of Money. Minnisota Fats has done it his whole life and you can do it all over Boston. Billiards - or pool - is the indoor game of choice for so many Bostonians. Read about where to play, who you'll see and lots more.

by Monica Corcoran

15

A Look Inside The Heart of Russia

The Soviet Union collapses, a cosmonaut finally reaches his home planet and a Russian art gallery opens in Boston. So what else is new? The Cherevmeteff Gallery on Newbury Street hosts a collection featuring the work of some of the most talented modern Russian artists.

by Leslie Ross

20

Le Mercaptan - An Oddity in the World of Food

Read about one of the strangest restaurants in town. You'll need to eat your meal before going and it's a good idea to bring a flashlight. Le Mercaptan may not be worth the price of their food, but their dining experience goes unchallenged in Boston.

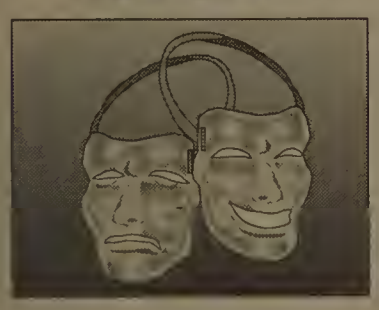
by Peter McNamara & Meg Worden

Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Comedy
- Interview: Kevin Meaney 8
- Comedy Listings 8

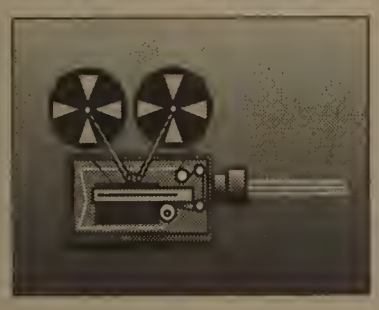
Nancy Knows 9
Movies
- Review: White Men Can't Jump 10
- Review: The Power of One 11
- The Heart Ball 13

Books
- Review: The Lost Father 12



Life in the Fast Lane: The Museum of Transportation 22
Arts
- Review: Manhattan 16
- Review: Media Amok 17
- Arts Calendar 18

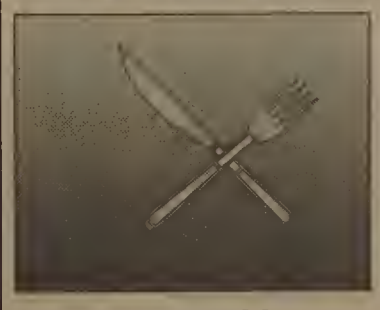
The Leisure Study 22
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: Biba 24
- Appeteasers 25
- In the Realm of the Spirits 26
- Brunch Board 27
- Restaurant Listings 29



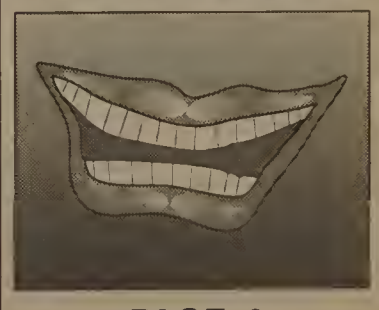
Hot Ticket 30
Music
- The Mighty Mighty Bosstones 31
- Live Leads the MTV Pack 31
- Wachtelligence 32

Bar & Club Listings 35
- Review: McFly's 36

Free Boston! 40
Improper Impersonals 41
Crossword 41



PAGE 15



PAGE 10

PAGE 31

PAGE 20

PAGE 8

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

photo by Rachel Power

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new guide to Boston at $30 a year.
(26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146
OR CALL:
(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

President
DAN SILVER

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Acting Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Staff Writers
JANNETTE TUCKER
JASON ALEXANDER
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
AL STANKUS
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Theater Critics
NANCY LEONARD
RACHEL STERN

Contributing Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
NANCY BIRNBAUM, SHELBY ALLEN
SHAWN GOODWIN, ABBY ELLIN
CHARLES GRAEBER
JOHN GALLIGAN, JON HABER
JEFF BRISKIN, THOMAS M. ULLMAN JR.

Staff Photographers
DENNIS STEIN, JACKIE BAYNE

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
ADAM KAYTES

Account Executives
PAUL WARD
SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, WENDY SEMONIAN
STACEY COLLINS

Consultant
JOE PERSON

Interns
ED STAUNTON, SUZANNE MACRAE
LISA DEATS, KATHY MATHESON
ERICA CANTLEY

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS
All schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of schedules and press releases for all categories of events in and around Boston. To reach the Improper Bostonian, please mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for confirmation. Listings must be received no later than one week prior to release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 8
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by by Improper Publications Inc., 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

On the Cover

Photograph by Sandra Kimball

Elissa Martin
Johnny Wedgeworth
Models, Inc.

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertiser's businesses.

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT. WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church

581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

Edited by Tobin Streett

AROUND TOWN

Edgar Alan Poe is alive and well in Poe Alone: The Last Lecture, on April 3 through 5 at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education. Actor Norman George, who plays the master of the macabre, has been hailed as "the nearest thing to Poe in the flesh" (New York Times). George will base his performance on accounts of the poet's last public appearance, two weeks before his tragic death in Baltimore. George is touring nationally and a graduate of Boston University. Performances are at 8pm and tickets are $8. Call 547-6979.

Photo by Jill Connelly

Models from Fish on a Leash Pet Gallery, Newbury St.

Ask Doug Trollman, engineer for the Central Artery Project, says, "just give 'em a good swift kick." One half of the city lies atop wet landfill and a labyrinth of rat-infested nests and tunnels. Professor Harry Grubs says "The shock waves and displacement of sediment as a result of the excavation involved with the C.A.P. will flush a large number of rats into the city streets. Boston will virtually be crawling with rats." In your office, on your car and behind your walls, diseased rats will be gnawing their way closer and closer to the one substance they enjoy most: human flesh. "We're under the belief that these could be mutated rats. Many toxic chemicals have leaked through the ground so we don't know exactly how they'll respond to humans," says Grubs. "Some have already been spotted running around the public gardens and bothering casual strollers. The city has purchased several hundred Anaconda snakes to control the rats." Some have already been released in the Public Gardens for a test run.

Quack quack quack! Watch out— there's a Renegade Duck on the loose! Renegade Duck, of course, is a seven-member improv/comedy troupe that appears every Sunday night at the Cantab Lounge in Central Square, Cambridge. Combining their sense of humor with audience suggestions, music and improvisational structures, Renegade Duck provides a completely different show each and every time they perform. Most notably, the group is the only one in Boston which allows audience members to join in during the "Open Freeze" segment of the show. So take it from us— these comedians are no quacks.

Called "the James Brown of Louisiana" by one reviewer, Buckwheat Zydeco brings his exuberant, accordion-powered dance music to Memorial Hall, Harvard University on April 4. The band is here to promote its latest (11th!) album, On Track, a work that bandleader Stanley Dural Jr. said he is "110 percent satisfied with." The new album includes a cover of Jimi Hendrix's "Hey Joe," the lullaby "There Will Always Be Tomorrow," and an earful of rocking, rollicking, blistering blues. The show starts at 8pm; tickets are $14. All Li'l Rascals are welcome— even Spanky.

It sounds like a commercial and looks like a circus, but the Festival of Aerial Dance is a lot more entertaining than either of those things. Entitled "Something Special in the Air," the festival is an unprecedented gathering of contemporary artists choreographing off the ground with the help of trapezes, bungee cords, harnesses, ropes and swinging ladders. A few choreographers featured in the festival, which runs Apr. 9-12 at the Boston Center for the Arts, Cyclorama, are Robert Davidson, the ISO Dance Company, Axis Dance Troupe and Nancy Smith Hall, whose company will perform an aerial journey called "Theatre of the Vampires." Tickets are $18. Call for times at 492-7578.

Tommy Sledge, "The Stand-Up Detective" will headline at the Improv from April 1 to 5. Sledge is known for his '40s attire which includes a fedora, wide lapel suit and first person narrative ("I had such a hang-over, I couldn't cram two thoughts together if they were dogs in heat"). His act, known as a journey back in time, is sure to make you long for an old movie, a rainy evening and maybe even a cigarette. Don't miss this performer of sarcastic nostalgique. Call 695-2989 for reservations and times. Tickets are $8 Wed. and Thur. and $12 Fri. and Sat.

Boston's Pool Scene in a Pocket

by Monica Corcoran

Cleo: "Let it alone; let's to billiards; come Charmian."

William Shakespeare, around 1606.

The old adage that all work and no play makes for a dull and miserable existence applies more than ever in today's society. Extra hours on the job don't always guarantee a healthy paycheck so your leisure time is of the utmost importance. These days, you want to go out and paint the town red without having to shell out a lot of green. You need a place where you can be stimulated and meet people in a relaxed environment that doesn't have an attitude. Fortunately, there is an alternative for those who want a break from sitting in a dark movie theater, standing in a crowded bar or waiting in line for a club. Shakespeare called it billiards, but it's better known today as shooting pool and there's no shortage of places to play in Boston.

Pool halls have polished their image and become the new scenes for people tired of stuffier avenues of socializing. If you're looking to meet a mate, you don't have to ask, "Come here often?" Instead, comment on someone's stance or stroke and who knows, you may get a couple of private lessons. "Pool halls are a great alternative to the bar and club scene," says Bridget Hollenback, a promotions manager for a record company and a confessed billiards addict. "You don't get the sense that everyone there is checking out everyone else. You shoot pool, have a good time and leave feeling satisfied, whether you meet someone or not."

Unlike most sports, pool doesn't require a tremendous amount of muscle or strength and you don't have to get decked out in sweats and sneakers in order to play. People play pool because they prefer mental to physical exertion. Concentration, hand-eye coordination and practice are the keys to shooting good pool and there's nothing like the sweet sound of a flawless break. Once you've heard the crack of balls colliding and the plunk of a successful side pocket sinker, you can't wait for another shot.

Next time you're looking for an alternative form of entertainment where you call the shots, check out one of the following pool halls where you can socialize,

Taking aim at Jillian's shoot serious pool or just step out without being stepped on.

Until recently, you wouldn't bring a date to a pool hall unless you wanted it to be the last. But in 1988, Kevin Troy and Steven Foster converted an old roller rink in the Fenway into a classy pool parlor and named it Jillian's. This billiards club was the first of its kind and such a success that upscale pool halls can now be found in every major city. Therefore, Bostonians are the pioneers of this rebirth in playing pool and a visit to this place will show you where it all began. Upon entering Jillians, you feel like you've traveled back to the Twenties and expect to find gangsters and flappers partaking in a game. Take note of the French windows and the brass rails that surround the playing area while you revel in the shady, casino-like glam-

Melanie Dunea

Boston Billiards outside of Kenmore Square

CALLING ALL CARS.
CALLING ALL CARS.
WE PROVIDE THE HIGHEST QUALITY CELLULAR PHONES WITH UNMATCHED SERVICE.

LET US GUIDE YOU THROUGH OUR WIDE SELECTION OF PHONES TO FIND THE ONE THAT BEST FITS YOUR NEEDS

DIRECT CELLULAR, INC.
8 PARK PLAZA, BACK BAY, BOSTON / 227-9100
311 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON / 332-3153

An authorized agent of CellularOne

Just because you're out of the office doesn't mean you have to be out of touch. Just get CellularOne. It's New England's most popular network, offering wide coverage, the best reception quality and the most innovative calling features. CellularOne. The driving force in mobile phone technology.

CELLULARONE

FEATURES

our of Jillian's. Three suspended brass lamps hover over each table. Exposed brick and oak floors edged with plush carpeting add to this elegant atmosphere. High wooden chairs rest behind tables and allow you to sit between shots and keep an eye on your opponent.

Jillian's attracts a mixed clientele - from college students and professionals to well dressed socialites. There are plenty of singles at Jillian's and people socialize on and off the tables. Nina Venlo, a student at B.U., said she met her ex-boyfriend at Jillian's. "Yeah, he was good at pool, but a crummy boyfriend. That's okay though, I think that guy over there is going to ask me to play a game," she says with a smile, while discreetly pointing out a fellow a couple of tables away.

Jillian's offers a full bar (beer on tap is served in authentic pilsner glasses) and a light menu which consists of appetizers, sandwiches and desserts. Waitresses circulate through the tables so you don't have to leave your table in order to eat and drink. Try the steak sandwich smothered in a Jack Daniels barbecue sauce or the chocolate jumble pie that's topped with mammoth chunks of brownies.

Strategically placed speakers emit urban music which is loud enough to be enjoyed without distracting you from making a bank shot. Jillian's also offers darts, shuffle board and an arcade game room if you care to indulge in a variety of activities. For two, the price of a pool table per hour is eight dollars. Add two bucks for each additional player.

Just around the corner, on Brookline Avenue, you'll find utter refinement in Boston Billiards which was voted "Number One Billiard Club in the Country" by Billiard Digest last year. Designed by the architect who restored the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston Billiards has all the furnishings of an English gentlemen's private library. You can grab a hardcover classic from a bookcase and relax in a Chesterfield sofa by the fireplace in between games. With 37 tables bathed in the light of custom designed lamps from France, this pool hall seems like the place to visit after taking in a polo match.

Like Jillian's, you'll find a variety of patrons at this luxurious establishment as well as an hour wait for a table on the weekend. But don't worry about standing in line. You can mill about, having a drink at the bar or play chess because they'll call your name once a table is available. "The best things in life are always worth waiting for," says John Selig, a messenger who says he sometimes stops at Boston Billiards for a game in between deliveries. "I hope my boss doesn't read that," he adds.

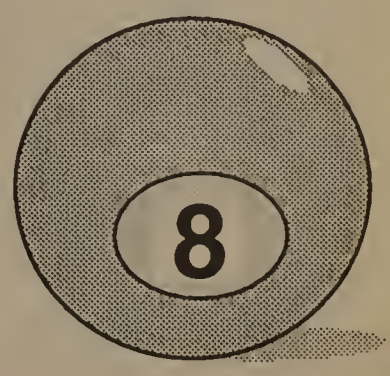
Gourmet pizza from Davios Restaurant, burritos, hot dogs and Stage Deli sandwiches along with appetizers comprise the eats at Boston Billiards. Alcohol is also served and specials are available during Bruins and Celtics games, like $1.50 draughts.

Subtitled as a rock and roll club, Boston Billiards' sound system is loud and could interfere with the symphony of smashing balls that's music to a pool lover's ears. Hourly rates run from $6-12 for two players and an additional $2 with another player. A non-smoking section and, believe it or not, free parking are also available.

Perhaps you'd prefer an environment where straight shooters play pool all the time and there's a no-nonsense approach to the game..

On Cambridge Street in Brighton, Sully's Billiards sits above Sully's Auto Repair. "It's the only pool hall in the city where you can shoot pool and have your brakes aligned at the same time," says Herb, who can be found playing at Sully's almost every day. "Yeah, I think it's about time you got a tune up," yells Mike Salomon, who owns both operations with his brother Bobbie.

Opened two years ago, Sully's Billiards is a cozy, little hall offering seven pool tables that are geared to professional playing. A TV hangs from the ceiling and stools are scattered beneath framed photos from The Hustler. You'll notice team trophies that are proudly displayed in the entry way.



Mostly locals of Allston and Brighton frequent Sully's but the atmosphere is friendly as long as you're there to play serious pool. No liquor is served but you can choose from a variety of appetizers, stew and burgers. The occasional chirps of a cockatoo named "Cue Ball" is the only music you'll hear at this straight pool joint.

On weekdays, you can play for 4 hours from 11am-4pm for five dollars and it'll run to eight bucks an hour after 5pm, depending on the number of players. On Monday nights, Sully's offers an all-you-can-eat buffet and an hour of pool for $15.

If you're looking for a game of pool in a non oak-paneled room that looks like a suburban family's no-frills basement, then Kenmore Bowladrome in the Fenway is right up your alley. The pool room downstairs offers eleven tables and that's about it. This place is perfect for practicing trick shots and the tacky prints of pool equipment on the walls are good for a laugh. Bowladrome is primarily a bowling alley, so all you have to do is check out people's shoes to find out who's doing what. The crowd is mostly college students and the music is mellow.

There's nothing better than a local bar where a pool table sits in a dark corner and a couple of quarters will release fifteen balls that are just waiting to be knocked around. Harper's Ferry and Bunratty's in Allston and TT The Bears in Central Square all feature one pool table where regulars can often be found shooting. You may have to wait a while for your chance to play since it's been said that getting pool players off a table is like trying to scrape barnacles off a boat.

And it's no wonder. The quest for mighty eight ball is as popular now as it ever was. Bostonians are racking 'em up all over town, shooting from the hip, and sinking quite a few solids and stripes. So take a cue from pool addicts all over Boston and take a shot at that eight ball.

DO YOU BELONG TO A HEALTH CLUB?

Your membership card is worth $249.00 at Boston Sports Club!

If the cost of your membership is getting in the way of your workout, show us a valid club ID, and we eliminate our initiation fe . A 30 day guarantee assures that you'll like our club equipped with the latest Nautilus, Cybex, free weights and cardiovascular equipment. We also offer a complete aerobic program.

After paying Boston Sports Club's low monthly payments, you'll be glad you switched. Offer ends April 30.

BostonSports CLUB

561 BOYLSTON STREET • 536•1274

COMEDY

The Funny Guy With the Bow Tie

An Interview With Kevin Meaney

by Tobin Streett

"I'm a clown."

Easy words from Kevin Meaney, one of the hardest working comedians in show business. "I do anywhere from 400 to 600 shows a year." Wait; How many? A quick reminder of the real number of days in a year was answered with an amused, "I know."

Meaney is a kinetic ball of energy who's coming to the Comedy Connection in Faneuil Hall on April 9 and 10 where he'll split some comedy atoms and share some family stories. Meaney likes to talk about his mother who he says is "not really like the way I portray her." A comedian whose comedy revolves around impersonations and interpretations, his on-stage style of adrenaline-infused antics defies any attempts to categorize him.

His credits include two H.B.O. specials, movie and TV appearances and the television show, Uncle Buck.

"Uncle Buck is dead," he cries out, on the other end of the phone. Meaney is speaking with us from his home in Los Angeles where he's relaxing after recently wrapping The Fractured Film Awards, a spoof airing on Fox Network the night before the Academies.

He's not the boy next door or an obnoxious screamer. After seeing him live, you'll think you witnessed a paranoid schizophrenic disguised as a teddy bear. Sporting a bow tie and bright red sport coat, Meaney will cry, laugh and share his warped view on the world with anyone who will listen. And he knows this town very well. Meaney was a staple in Boston's comedy scene where he wowed audiences from 1981 to 86.

"I try to get psyched up before the show. I'll check out the audience and if it's a smaller crowd, then there's a different energy level. But if people call out for one of my characters or something they know me for, then I'll usually give them what they want. I love to perform"

When he's not on stage, Meaney's auditioning for a part, working on a special or relaxing at home.

"I get really bored if I don't work, and TV really keeps you busy. If you don't work, you'll go crazy out here. L.A. can be a very lonely town."

But is it his preferred residence? "If I could do a sitcom with David Merkin, producer of Get a Life, live out here, and then live back East the other part, then that would probably be ideal. I'd eventually love to move back to the East coast. I miss the change of the seasons, the erratic weather and the people - it's [Boston] not all show business."

In the brutally indifferent world of television, jobs like that are hard to find, but Kevin Meaney isn't the least bit fazed. "I get close to parts and then they give them to somebody else," he laughs.

Not like he hasn't had his share of good fortune. Meaney been featured in several shows and films, including Saturday Night Live, Big and a Lorne Michaels production, Sunday Night.

After his current mini-tour ("The hardest part about touring is not getting your mail"), it's off to London. "I'm filming a show called the London Underground for five weeks." It's Meaney's first time performing in London. Is he nervous? "No, why would I be nervous? They speak English.

So what kind of comedian is Kevin Meaney? "I know that I'm not like anyone else. I get a great deal of enjoyment performing. It's performance driven."

See The Show!

Comedy Listings

• Back Alley Theater 576-1253, 1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Camb. Beginning Mar. 25, comedienne Lizz Winstead performs her one-woman show "Scream of Consciousness," a hilarious personal journey toward political correctness. Call for times and ticket prices.

Brattle Theatre 354-4223, 30 Brattle Street, Harvard Square, Cambridge Appearing at the Words-Worth Readings On Tuesday, April 14th at 5:30 PM are comic writers David Lodge and Stanley Elkin. The British Lodge and American Elknin will be reading from their widely publicised novels.Admission is free with complimentary tickets avaliable two weels in advance at either WordsWorth or the Brattle Theatre. To assist the Cambridge Food Pantry, canned goods are being collected at the door.

•Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.
Events: April 1-5-Political comedian David Feldman; 8-12- Boston's widely acclaimed comedy writer Brian Kiley.

•The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues &Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri &Sat.

The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700 Shows are seven nights a week. Sunbday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.
April 3 & 4, Rich Geisler and Dan Rosen. 7-Showtime's Comedy Club Network Live Taping. 9 & 10, Kevin Meaney. 17 & 18, Father Guido Sarducci.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.
April 3&4- David Fitzgerald, Tom Cotter, and Brian O'Keaff.

•Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boyiston St., Boston. See above.
Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.
Appearing April 3&4- Chris McGuire, Caronooch, Spike Tobin.

•Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the buisness and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues- Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.
Now Appearing April 1 -5; Tommy Sledge, 7-12; Finis Henderson, 14-19 Al Lubel.

•Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices.Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE.

Boston shows; April 1; Dennis Rogan, Jim Labriola, Caito & Morin, 2; Tom Gilmore, Caito & Morin, Jim Lauletta, 3; Tom Hayes, Bob Nickman, Caito & Morin, 4; Guest Star Pat Cooper, 5; Kevin Knox, Jim Labriola, Dennis Regan, 6; Open Mike Nite with Billy Martin, 7; Paul D'Angelo, Larry Reppucci, Billy Martin, 8; Steve Byluga, Dennis Regan, Bob Nickman, 9; Jim Lauletta, Larry Reppucci, Jim Labriola, Bruce Fine, 10; TheTony V Show, 11;The Don Gavin Show, 12; Kevin Knox, Jim Lauletta, Billy Martin, Bruce Fine, 13; Open Mike with Billy Martin, 14;Sam Greenfield, Larry Reppucci, Paul D'Angelo.
Appearing in Nick's in Saugus on April 3 and in Boston and Framingham on the 4th is "Spaghetti and Other Delights" with veteran stand-up comedian Pat Cooper. Tickets are $17 and $20.
Admission is $5.

• Renegade Duck 489-2115
performances are at the Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass Ave. Central Square, Cambridge. Every Sunday night at 8 PM the Boston's newest improvisational comedy troupe performs their dry humor in combination with audience participation to make every show and original. Admission is $5.

•Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

April 1; Anthony Clark, 2;Billy Martin & Frankie Bastille, 3; Frank Santos, Frankie Bastille, Louie C.K, Colin Blake, 4;Same as 3rd, 5;Open Mic Night with Vinnie Favorito, 7; Frank Santos, 8; Anthony Clark with Paul Koslowski, 9; Jonathan Katz & Paul Koslowski, 10; Frank Santos, 10; Jonathan Katz, Paul Koslowski, Grant Taylor, 11; Same as 10th,12; Open Mic with Vinnie Favorito,14;Frank Santos.

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

Palm Beach is Calling

Is Ted Kennedy getting the willies again? Could be. Sources tell me he convened a Palm Beach powwow this past weekend where Ted's nephew Michael Kennedy flew down to the compound to discuss whether Michael should run this fall for the 11th district Congressional seat. While Michael (congressman Joe's younger bro) is said to be ready to go full speed ahead, some say Uncle Ted might not mind seeing the brakes applied. If Michael runs, there's no doubt that lots of the Kennedy baggage will resurface. Could Teddy bear this, especially now when he seems to be trying to mend his ways? To be thrust once again into the glare of more national publicity probably wouldn't do much for the momentum of Ted's makeover. And let's not forget that should Michael run and lose, the Kennedy name could be perceived as weaker and more vulnerable which wouldn't help Ted's own bid for re-election. Something tells me that this just might not be the best time for Michael to row his boat ashore. On the other hand, this powwow may simply have been a transfer of know-how from the Chief to one of his Indians. In either case, Michael is expected to make his intentions known this week.

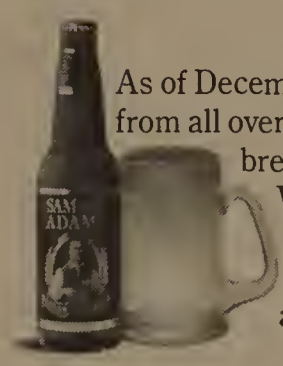
Marjorie's Thinking of "Uprooding"

The WHDH radio airwaves are buzzing; it seems that talk show host Marjorie Claprood also wants in on the race. WHDH is apparently not thrilled with this development. Running off at the mouth is one thing - running off for an election campaign is quite another and never the twain shall meet! Station officials recently asked her for a decision asap. Claprood has proven to be a well respected radio personality so if she elects to pursue the chair instead of the air, nobody at WHDH will be clapping. Stay tuned.

Sara Edwards Meets The Easter Bungi

Speaking of the outrageous, rumor has it that the Easter Bungi will be visiting Channel 7. Sometime in mid-April, Sara Edwards will be attempting a televised bungi jump. Detail to follow and let's pray the rest does, too!!

Helping Out Liz With Number 8!



And while on the subject of prayer, here's an interesting offering about celebrity guru du jour, Marianne Williamson. She's the one who officiated at the wedding of Liz Taylor and Larry Fortensky (she's a licensed minister). Anyway, Marianne was in Boston last week taping an appearance on the new nationally syndicated tv show NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY. The whole hour was devoted to a conversation with Marianne about her best-selling book A Return To Love: Reflections on A Course in Miracles.

"I DO NOT Hobnob!"

Basically, it talks about the need for forgiveness and love in all we do. Though I do believe her heart is truly in the right place, on this particular day, Marianne seemed to have some trouble practicing what she preaches. Jane had just begun the show and by way of introduction, briefly mentioned that Marianne hobnobs with the likes of Barbra Streisand, Shirley MacLaine and Bette Midler. STOP! CUT! Suddenly (and in front of a packed studio audience), Marianne stopped Jane in mid-sentence and demanded that they start the show again because it was incorrect to say that she "hobnobs" with these people. In fact, these celebrities have worked with her on various AIDS fundraisers and attended her lectures. Wouldn't you have expected her to use some of that forgiveness and love, and continue on. Instead, it was Jane who played the gracious host to her showstopping miracle worker-guest. As it turned out, Marianne loved doing the show. "It was the best show I've done. It was even better than my appearance on Oprah because Jane really got to a lot more of the meat."

All's well that ends well and if you'd like to see for yourself, you can catch the show this week on WCVB (Channel 5) at the stroke of midnight. In the meantime, file this one under Miracle-whipped!!!

Whether It's A Wild Boar Or A Gator, An Indian Or A Buffalo, An Anchor Or A Light Ship, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

As of December 4, we'll proudly serve over 50 different micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT&BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Shadows and Fog
"Woody, and not much more"

Shadows and Fog is all about Woody Allen.

Paranoia is rife as a fogbound populous is stalked by a killer, more of a force than an individual. If you are fond of the character that Allen has become, then Shadows and Fog could have some appeal. He frets about his role in an undefined "plan", wringing his hands and spouting observations on his existence. An interesting bevy of cameos lurks in Shadows and Fog. Kathy Bates, Jodie Foster, Mia Farrow and Lily Tomlin are a high point of the film as prostitutes lucidly discussing love and sex. But is Woody Allen an untouchable living legend, or a past genius made mortal through lack of invention? Decide between the two before investing in Shadows and Fog.
J.A.

Noises Off
"English Farce 101"

As a play, Noises Off, is a prime exhibit in the case for English farce - a delicately timed irresistibly funny exercise that requires subscribing to the inherent humor of double-entendres and people in their underwear. Based along similarly sophomoric lines, the movie is bliss. Michael Caine is a director desperately trying to hold together a touring production of "Nothing On." The combination of visual gags, characterizations and impending disaster reach a dizzying crescendo during the backstage mayhem of a Miami Beach matinee. Noises Off may have some down moments but it still plays like a second-rate Fawlty Towers episode on speed. That's high praise indeed. J.A.

Where Angels Fear to Tread
"A lack of concentration"

Where Angels Fear to Tread is based on the E.M. Forster story examining the limitations and isolations of the English class system. Set in the 1920's, widower Helen Mirren becomes enchanted by Italy and marries an Italian half her age. A struggle ensues for custody of her son between his English and Italian relatives. There is a lack of concentration in the film and no character with whom to identify. Even Helena Bonham-Carter seems cold and distant. Only Judy Davis, as the archetypal English upper class spinster, has any depth. The wandering focus reduces the power of the tragedy in Where Angels Fear to Tread. Fans of Forster and Bonham-Carter have better things to look forward to in the coming weeks. J.A.

My Cousin Vinny
"A Barrage of good belly laughs"

The premise of My Cousin Vinny is not complicated; Brooklyn comes to small town Alabama in the form of Vincent Gambini, a lawyer making his "first foray into the trial process." Vinny defends two college students who are tied up in a murder case. When rolling innocently along, My Cousin Vinny serves up barrage of good belly-laughs. Dallying with a plot and actually trying to take the trial seriously are a mistake. Joe Pesci gives a wonderfully over-the top performance and his peculiar style of cross-examination is a long overdue parody of courtroom dramas. Also Merisa Tomei as Vinny's girlfriend is an enjoyable foil to Pesci's antics. My Cousin Vinny is the sort of film that makes you feel better for having seen it. J.A.

White Men Can't Jump

Trash Talking Raised to an Art

by Jason Alexander

Sidney Deane (Wesley Snipes, right) and Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson, left) are running a risky con game on L.A's toughest basketball courts in White Men Can't Jump

White Men Can't Jump really isn't very complicated. The film is a celebration of the no autopsy no foul, world of two-on-two L.A. street hoop - metal nets and all. There are attempts to introduce more depth; some work, some just stretch the movie. White Men Can't Jump does flesh out the characters nicely but remains, at heart, about an atmosphere with one certainty: you either hustle, or get hustled.

Billy Hoyle and Sidney Deane (Woody Harrelson and Wesley Snipes) are supremely talented basketball players who just didn't get the breaks. With the curve of their athletic ability tailing off, they've both found a niche hustling basketball games in L.A.. This unforgiving arena allows the men to revel in their ability but the strength comes from women (Rosie Perez and Tyra Ferrell). Written and directed by Ron Shelton, there are inescapable similarities to his previous creation, Bull Durham.

Harrelson and Snipes obviously have a feel and talent for playing basketball. Their approach to playing is with genuine intensity and artistry, making the games highly authentic and convincing. Their acting isn't bad either.

Snipes gives yet another thoroughly energetic performance. In the opening sequence, he demonstrates the ability to raise trash-talking to an art form. He exudes sweeping and unshakable confidence in his ability. In contrast he subtly presents Deane's motivation, aching an escape to stability.

Harrelson's performance, while not as intense, is enjoyable all the same. As a prodigious font of insults, he is convincing as the "slow, white, geeky chump" necessary for the hustle. The introduction of a darker edge in which he owes the mob $8,000, is unconvincing in its attempt. Hopes for real wealth are pinned solely on the chances of his girlfriend winning big on Jeopardy!.

Rosie Perez is the girlfriend who's saturated with useless information, and this sub-plot deflates the energy level of the film. Much more relevant is her frequent swilling of Stolichnaya, an unexplained addition to the film which acts as her source of strength and guidance in their relationship.

White Men Can't Jump
A 20th Century Fox film
Directed by Ron Shelton
Starring
Wesley Snipes
Woody Harrelson
Rosie Perez

White Men Can't Jump shows that the fabric of the game is in a lifestyle. It is a tenuous existence as prestige can come crashing down with a missed hoop, while a jam is the ultimate statement of superiority. The film also shows the bond between players. The action is realistically (even idealistically) presented with several former N.B.A players strutting their stuff. There's also a diverse musical score whose energy stems from such powerfully diverse entertainers as Ray Charles and Queen Latifah.

White Men Can't Jump has faults. The film is too long and added sub-plots don't really work. But ultimately, movies are about entertainment and there is more fun in White Men Can't Jump than just a great title. In this movie, street basketball is a gritty ballet. The turf is a psychological proving ground where survival happens through wits and confidence. The film is a festival of exuberance, driven by good performances, athletic ability and a lesson in the fine art of insulting someone's mother. A raucous experience.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

The Power of One, Only Half Good

by Timothy S. Lemire

The Power of One is the stirring tale of P.K., a British boy who grows up in a WWII Boer prison camp experiencing South African racism firsthand. Under the tutelage of prisonmate Geel Piet (an exceptional performance by Morgan Freeman), PK. learns to box, engendering in him courage and a will for justice. Unfortunately, the second half of the film becomes a South African Rocky (not surprising, since director John Avildson was responsible for Rocky, Rocky V and the Karate Kid trilogy).

The Power of One
Warner Brothers
Directed by
John G. Avildson
Starring
Stephen Dorff
Armin Mueller-Stahl
Morgan Freeman

The movie is a good primer in South African history: Dutch and German refugees (Afrikaners) settled in South Africa only to be persecuted along with the natives by the colonizing Brits. Young P.K. (played in young adulthood by Stephen Dorff) is oppressed by Afrikaners for being British, and by the British and Afrikaners for sympathizing with the natives, whom he treats as equals. The character is interesting and we feel for him, especially when The Power of One portrays the ugliness of racism, nakedly and powerfully; in one scene, Afrikaner school bullies decide P.K. stands for "piss kup" and subject the helpless boy to a baptismal ceremony in his shower.

When PX. leaves the prison camp for prep school, the movie begins its downhill slide into conventional drama. Instead of fascinating characters like P.K.'s mentor, Doc (played nicely by Armin Mueller-Stahl of Avalon and Kafka), and Morgan Freeman's Geel Piet, we receive stock: P.K.'s innocent love interest Maria, whose father is an author of Apartheid (whom will she choose?); the Zulu boxer freedom fighter Gideon who befriends P.K.; and a Dolph Lundgren-style Nazi police officer sworn to destroy P.K.

To its credit, The Power of One scores well in utilizing native African music and marvelous footage of Africa's natural beauty and township ugliness. We see P.K. in three stages of life in the movie, and the better performances come first from young Guy Witcher and adolescent Simon Fenton. Stephen Dorff (perhaps best known from TV's Roseanne) sounds too rehearsed in his dialogue; he is earnest, angry, in love and in despair, but he cannot express in his face/his voice and body language the range of his emotions in a convincing way.

The Power of One doesn't pull any punches (pardon the pun) in showing the cowardice and ugliness of racism. Chances are good audiences will enjoy the movie, but chances are better they will enjoy the beginning even more.

PK (Guy Witcher) is taught the finer points of boxing by Geel Piet (Morgan Freeman) in Warner Bros. The Power of One

KEY
A Winner
A Toss up
For the birds

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
My Cousin Vinny	★	◯	★	★	★	—	—	◯	—
Lawnmower Man	◯	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	—	🐦	🐦
Mississippi Masala	◯	◯	◯	★	★	★	★	◯	★
Fried Green Tomatoes	★	★	◯	◯	🐦	◯	—	◯	◯
American Me	◯	◯	🐦	◯	—	—	—	◯	🐦
Wayne's World	★	◯	🐦	🐦	★	◯	◯	🐦	★
Memoirs of an Invisible Man	★	◯	★	◯	★	—	—	🐦	🐦
Article 99	◯	◯	🐦	◯	◯	🐦	—	◯	🐦
Hand That Rocks the Cradle	🐦	◯	◯	🐦	🐦	★	◯	◯	◯
Gladiator	🐦	◯	—	🐦	◯	—	—	—	🐦

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Daughters of the Dust
"Allusive and Haunting"

If you expect Julie Dash's Daughters of the Dust to be another African American family history, like Alex Haley's Roots, you will be astounded. Daughters, a brilliant explosion of overlapping narrative, imagery and sound, echoes the complex filmmaking of Ingmar Bergman and Luis Bunel. Taking place at the turn of the century on an island off the Georgia coastline, it traces a Gullah family's exodus north. Their imminent departure centers around a sacrifice of old "hoodoo" ways for the lifestyle of the modern city. The cast, led by Nana Peazant (Cora Lee Day) and her female kin, is splendid and powerful. Arthur Jaffa's lush cinematography heightens the poetic effect of Dash's first feature. Allusive and haunting, Daughters of the Dust is impossible to forget. P. R.

Ruby
"No JFK; a B-movie misfire"

Ruby is playwright Stephen Davis' version of the events that led Dallas strip club owner Jack Ruby (Danny Aiello) to murder Lee Harvey Oswald. Given Davis' less-than-imaginative script, the lugubrious music and John Mackenzie's textbook direction, Ruby would have worked better as a B-movie (Ruby's opening line: "It was like a dream...maybe it never happened."). Sheriyn Fenn (Twin Peaks) is stripper Candy Cane, Ruby's only friend. Fenn sings, strips twice and even beds President Kennedy. Ruby is an interesting character portrayed well by Aiello, a Willy Loman type played like a pawn by the Mob and CIA, until he sees only one avenue to assert his self-respect and idea of justice. T.S.L.

Overexposed
"Spicy, emotional whirlwind"

Coming hard on the heels of his Matlock appearance is Geraldo Rivera' s movie debut. This semi-autoblographical story of a driven investigative reporter crippled by his own libido is magnificent. Rivera's performance has a rare intensity, totally unexpected from one so new to acting. Jack Nicholson and Warren Beatty make cameos and there is a blistering, spicy performance by Bridgett Fonda that justifies the film's NC-17 rating. This film is not for the weak at heart. Corruption and immorality run rampant. Overexposed might not have received much publicity but it is an unqualified masterpiece. Geraldo Rivera is magnetic and should not be forgotten at Oscar time. See Overexposed if you can! A.F.

The Cutting Edge
"Acidic Combative Chemistry"

A Cutting Edge certainly sounds generic. A rich-bitch figure skater and a blue-collar, former hockey star team up for one last chance at Olympic glory. The film has undertones of The Taming of the Shrew (the figure skater's name is Kate). There is an intangible aspect to The Cutting Edge that makes it enjoyable. D.B. Sweeny and Moira Kelly give fine performances while Paul Michael Glazer (yes, Starsky) directs with a variety of close-ups, amid lush color and lighting. The inevitable love story is a little cliched but still shown with dignity. These factors make The Cutting Edge a better film than its generic premise. J.A.

Wayne's World
"Worth the Trip"

Wayne's World is so stupid it will make your stomach ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control over their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

MOVIES

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST (227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Mike's MOVIES

Current Titles
Foreign Films
Children's Films
Gay and Lesbian
Camp and Cult
Adult Titles

New Customers! First rental is Free For one night. Good any night With this ad.

Existing Customers! Rent one movie Get one Free For one night, Mon thru Wed With this ad.

557 Tremont St.
(At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End
266-9222

Open 10 am to 10 pm; Friday and Saturday until 10:30pm; Sunday noon to 10pm

On those cold winter nights, we deliver to ...

Allston
Back Bay
Brighton
Fenway
Chestnut Hill
Brookline

Bangkok Bistro

AUTHENTIC THAI CUISINE
at Cleveland Circle

739-7270

THE TITANIC SAILS AGAIN

Wednesday April 15 will mark the 80th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic. To commemorate, the Coolidge Corner Movie House on April 9 will host a showing of A NIGHT TO REMEMBER, the 1958 dramatization of the ocean-liner's first and only voyage. View the epic in glorious black and white on the Coolidge's majestic big screen. And that's just the tip of the iceberg! Also featured will be a speaker from the Titanic historical society. The presentation begins at 8:00 p.m.. Tickets cost $8.50 in advance and $10.00 at the door. It will be an event certain to keep your interest afloat. For more information, cal 734-2501.

BOOKS by Mona Simpson

The Lost Father
$22.95
Publisher:Knopf, New York, 1992. Pages: 506

Through young med student Mayan Atassi's journey both outward and inward, Mona Simpson exposes the facets of life seldom revealed. She explores the fragmented events of Mayan's early life and the unknown element that drives her to gamble everything, knowing, that when the answer is found, she might still be left with nothing. Her experiences confronting past obstacles and realizing the truth along the way make her trip memorable.

"You might not like what you find," they told her time and time again; but it wasn't enough for Atassi. She was paralyzed by the need; a mission to find her lost father. He disappeared when she was young with the words, "I will always be your father. No matter what. No one can be that."

These words eventually lead her on a search that stretches across the United States. Flying from her New York City apartment through the Midwest, she collects clues. "I might have been losing my mind in that car or I might have been learning the things I needed to know for my life. I couldn't tell which," Mayan thinks as her long journey turns inward.

She moves onward jet lagged, sickly and quickly approaching broke to her father's native land of Egypt to find him and herself, only to discover another dead end.

Throughout the book, bits and pieces of her childhood, her friends and her current student life shine through. They weave together to form a poignant story of a lost daughter looking to be freed from abandonment. She spends her nine thousand dollar inheritance on a string of worthless detectives and dead ends.

She charges credit cards to the limit and fails a semester of med school - yet she won't surrender. Her voice, fragile yet determined, tells the reader she can't halt her obsession.

Although a long read, this book is well worth the time. Simpson's phrases and style guide the reader to seek out the unknown and begin again.

MOVIES

UPCOMING MOVIES

White Sands is a new suspense thriller from Morgan Creek Productions. Willem Dafoe is a small town sheriff who uncovers disturbing evidence about a murder that could be linked to the F.B.I. Also starring Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio and Mickey Rourke, White Sands opens Friday April 17.

19th Century newspaper boys go on strike in Newsies, bringing the Goliaths of publishing to their knees. A new Musical extravaganza from Walt Disney, the film stars Christian Bale and Robert Duvall. Newsies opens Friday April 10.

BIKES! BIKES! BIKES!

CITY/MOUNTAIN/TOURING/RACING

BICYCLE BILLS

SPRING SALE

WHILE SUPPLIES LAST:

SPORTS/TOURING BIKES

10%-20% OFF SELECTED MODELS

HYBRID/MOUNTAIN BIKES

10%-25% OFF SELECTED MODELS

TOURING AND TRIATHLON GEAR

ALL CLOTHING 20% OFF

BICYCLE BILL'S The Wheels of the Hub
253 No. Harvard Street, Allston •783-5636
Just up from Harvard Stadium

APRIL SPECIAL

Hours:10-6:30; M,T,Th,F/ 1-7:30 on W/ 10-5; Sat.

20% OFF LABOR WITH STUDENT ID
Mention This Ad For Service Discount

THE HEART BALL

by Leslie Semonian

The Massachusetts Affiliate of the American Heart Association hosted a lively 1992 Heart Ball on Sunday, March 29, at Anthony's Pier 4 in Boston. The event received immense support from a number of businesses who donated everything from wine to musical entertainment. Notably the most significant donation for the evening was the generous contribution from Anthony Athanas for the delicious cuisine and the use of his restaurant facilities.

Bruins Alumni: Woody Dumant, Ed Sandford Don Awrey, David Hynes, Frank Simonetti, Don Marcotte, Terry O'Reilly

Photos by Leslie Semonian

Co-Chairmen Edward Hines and John Bucyk present Anthony Athanas with a special recognition award.

Master of Ceremonies was Bruins' Great John Bucyk, who has actively supported the AHA for almost 22 years. Additional Bruins alumni were among the enthusiastic volunteers and guests whose combined efforts helped to raise over $50,000 for this worthwhile cause.

The AHA is dedicated to creating programs aimed at reducing disability and death from cardiovascular diseases and stroke. Over forty percent of American deaths each year stem from cardiovascular disease. The AHA is constantly providing financial support for research and educational programs designed to teach healthcare professionals, children and adults about disease prevention, treatment and the benefits of a heart-healthy lifestyle.

If interested in volunteering or receiving more information, please contact:
The American Heart Assoc.
33 Fourth Avenue
Needham, MA 02194
(617)449-5931

AHA Volunteers: Maria Baguer of Boston Elizabeth Garthe of Marblehead and Susan Berk of Brookline

Why Not
the Best?
Call
Successful
Singles®

And

Discover why 10,000 men and women
just like you have invested in the most Comprehensive Unique and Intelligent approach to making their social life the best part of their life.

CALL NOW
for your personalized in-home consultation.
237-1480
7 days a week
10 am - 10 pm
This call may change
your life.

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

AT THE MUSEUM OF TRANSPORTATION

by Kathy Matheson

Dennis Stein

Jaguar XK-E

The computer screen displayed a dream-car-gone-astray. What was supposed to be the next Lamborghini had turned into an automotive nightmare: This car has the aerodynamics of a farm tractor, read the first comment in the computer's critique.

Surrounded by vehicles designed by Battista Pininfarina (1963 Ferrari 250 GT Berlinetta Lusso), Harley Earl (1954 Corvette) and Giorgetto Giugiaro (1971 Maserati Ghibli Spyder), it should have been easy to look at their masterpieces and create a reasonable facsimile, right?

Acceleration: 0-60 in 13.4 seconds, the computer continued. Top speed: 79 m.p.h.

At the Museum of Transportation, located in the former carriage house of Larz and Isabel Anderson (a beautiful building modeled after the Chateau de Chaumont in France), both kids and adults can use this computer program to build their own car; however, some visitors are probably better off behind the wheel than behind the keyboard. To make sure that you're aware of your vehicle's poor design, the computer is kind enough to give you a critique after running it through a simulated wind tunnel and road test. Be prepared to be insulted.

The low torque of this engine makes accelerating out of the turns really tricky. High speed cornering with this car is scary.

Dennis Stein

The General Motors Monza Prototype

What a relief it is to look at the surrounding cars and know that someone with the slightest degree of car know-how designed them. But safety features aside, the MOT's newest exhibit, "Different by Design," tries to touch on the social impact of the autos and their makers—why a car was important in terms of design, not just in torque and horsepower. Included in the show are cars by William Mitchell (1941 Cadillac Sixty Special, 1960 Corvair Monza SS) and Sir William Lyons (1954 Jaguar XK-120).

"It's truly a sampling because there are some wonderful designers we didn't touch upon," exhibit coordinator Debbie Needleman said. Most notably missing are German designers, but when you're in the company of a fire-engine red 1983 Lotus, a 1961 Alfa Romeo and a 1954 Lancia Aurelia, who needs a lousy Porsche?

Part of what determines which cars go on display, of course, is availability. "I track down who owns these things and convince them to lend them [to the museum]", Needleman explained. "It's like giving up your child for a year, [but] collectors tend to be really generous." Most of the cars on display are privately owned; the most notable exception is the 1960 Corvair Monza SS, on special loan from General Motors. More notably, almost all of the cars on display are driveable, including a 1927 Bugatti Type 43 Grand Sport, once described by a critic as "the most delightfully violent car I've ever driven."

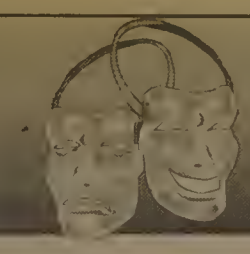
Aside from the beautiful look-but-don't-touch cars on display, there is a workshop downstairs that is a learning experience for both kids and adults. And then there's that computerized design-a-car program, which just goes to show that some people are a little more talented than others:

The wind noise was very disturbing at high speed.

The Museum of Transportation

15 Newton Street, Brookline.

Open Wed.-Sun.



from 10am-5pm.

Adults $4;

Seniors, students with ID and senior citizens $2;

Children under 3 are free.

Phone 522-6547.

ARTS

A Look Inside The Heart of Russia

by Leslie Ross

The coat of arms of one of Russia's oldest family's decorates the door of one of Newbury Street's newest galleries. This blend of the traditional and the modern is a theme that runs consistently through the Cherevmeteff gallery, where "new Russian Realism" takes trendy Newbury Street by storm.

Extant for three months, the gallery is the brain child of curator/proprietor John Cherevmeteff Grove and his mother, Marie. The gallery is dedicated to an idea of cultural exchange between the U.S. and Russia. "Our long-term goal is an actual foundation for artists. In the meantime, however, the goal is simply to survive as a gallery," explained Grove.

The works on display are simply beautiful. A variety of mediums are represented, ranging from colorful batiks to amusing etchings illustrating the Russian folk-story hero, Vanya. Also of interest are a series of bas-reliefs from the Napoleanic era. But the primary focus of the gallery is the work of two young Russian painters, Oleg Shtykhno and Mikhail Shankov.

Shtykhno and Shankov, both residents of Moscow, are members of a movement called the "Traditionalists." The movement was formed by eight graduates of Moscow's Sukrikov Art Institute, where the education of artist emphasizes the structured, technical training that has been passed down master-to-apprentice, virtually unchanged since the Renaissance. Grove has established a collection of Shankov and Shytkhno's works which evidence their abilities beyond question.

Shtykhno's work focuses primarily on landscapes. Sweeping country scenes of mountains and lakes outside of Moscow are strikingly familiar - it's a region with topography similar to New Endland, and Shtykho captures it in colors unencumbered by unnecessary drama. "The Cloud", for example, catches the lighting of a valley under a cloud. One can almost smell the rain in the air.

Shankov, whose landscapes are equally beautiful but far more intricate and architectural in style, grips us most of all with his portraits. His "Woman with a Glove" dominates the first room of the gallery, looking out with a John Singer Sargeant-like,expressive face. It is as if she has just entered the room and is suprised to catch the viewer standing there.

Melanie Dunea

Woman with a Mirror, Shankov, Oil on Canvas

Undoubtedly the most striking piece in the gallery is Shankov's "Battle for Kulikovo," a mural capturing an important moment in Russian history. Knights and foot soldiers hide in the woods, awaiting the moment to rush into battle against the invading Tartar Monguls. The immense painting is scaled at nearly life-size, and was Shankov's final piece presented for his graduation from the Sukrikov Institute last year. Many of the faces of the soldiers are fellow art students from the Institute, some of them Traditionalists. Perhaps it is not surprising that he shows himself on a white horse, as if the ideals of the Traditionalists are a cause worth a fight.

Shankov is scheduled to visit Boston in the next weeks. He'll be staying for a few months, painting commissioned portraits in Boston, New York, and Washington D.C. It will be a very European tradition to have an artist in residence painting portraits in the gallery.

Grove intends to continue bringing the work of Russian artists to the States. Already, a collection of American art work is touring the cities of Russia under the sponsorship of the Cheremeteff's Moscow based gallery.

The Cheremeteff Gallery brings Newbury Street an excellent place from which to view the proceedings. Be sure to check it out.

Open Mon-Sat 10:00am to 7:00pm. 121 Newbury, 2nd floor.

Melanie Dunea

Russian Ambush on the Field Kulikovo, 1380, Shankov, Oil on Canvas

Melanie Dunea

Shankov concentrates as he creates with brush and canvas.

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

All New For 1992
FESTIVAL OF ANIMATION
Weeks 3 Only!

Featuring Once Again, All 3 Oscar Nominees including the Best Animated Short

FRIDAY, APRIL 3-APRIL 23

ALL AGES!

Somerville Theatre

Fridays - 7:00/9:30/Midnight
Saturdays - 2:00/7:00/9:30
Sundays - 2:00/7:00
Mondays & Tuesdays - 8:00 only!
Wednesdys & Thursdays - 7:00/9:30

55 Davis Square, Davis Stop on the Red Line T

$6 in Advance from TicketMaster, $6.50 at Door.
$5 Bargain Show Mondays Only

Call 625-5700 for more info.

WFNX 101.7

mellow MADNESS

Plus All New Creature Comfort Episodes - Midnight showings feature new Sick and Twisted Films (17 and over)

Manhattan

Not Bad For A Wannabe

by Nancy Leonard

The gleaming room is darkly atmospheric; the performers are not untalented; but Manhattan - at the Lenox Hotel - amounts to an amiable assortment of show tunes yearning to become a musical revue.

On a slightly elevated playing space at one end of Diamond Jim's Piano Bar, three men and three women deliver nearly two dozen selections from Broadway shows, ranging from Gershwin to Sondheim. Most of the songs are familiar, at least to theatregoers, and most are from recent times. But apart from the Broadway angle, and the company's evening attire, there's little mood of Manhattan in the entertainment.

Without any other mood or particular purpose, the songs fail to coalesce into a winning endeavor. The best number of the night is a travel segment, right after intermission. The wide-ranging medley is funny and has some wit. The second act also contains the thoughtful "Fathers of Fathers," and the amusingly pungent "Three Friends"; both have some dramatic life. There's a little spark in "Coffee in a Cardboard Cup" and Cabaret's "Money, Money." The Act Two Sondheim tour works much better than the Act One Roseland foray. In general, the second act has more appeal than the first, which is relatively bland and fails to build or endear. No one is credited with creating this "musical bite of the Big Apple," but there's irony in the fact that some of the numbers are from other musical revues that were hits in New York and could have been transported to Boston in their entirety. We've never seen "Closer than Ever," "And the World Goes Round," or "Starting Here, Starting Now." Then again, our homegrown "All Night Strut" outshines this entertainment .

Magi Merritt, a brassy belter, is the most accomplished performer, and her efforts easily stand out. Robert Randle's strong voice adds some lustre. Lisa Barrett has a nice sound but could use a tad more polish. There are competent contributions from pert Stacey Hudler, personable Dante Sciarra and earnest Sam Jerris (who also directs). Mostly, the material calls for singers of greater poise and maturity. Darin Anquoe's musical direction is fine. It's a good idea to bring a cabaret revue to Diamond Jim's, but the arbitrary assemblage in Manhattan needs more charm and spirit to endear. I'd recommend one of the New York cabaret hits as its successor.

Magi Merritt, Stacey Hudler and Lisa Barrett star in Manhattan

HARVARD CELLULAR

"Nobody sells more Cellular Phones for less"

Spring Fling

Novatel 3100

- Installed with antenna
- Handsfree speaker
- 3-year warranty

only $129
or 2 for $199

Pocket Phone Sale

• Motorola PT 500	reg $699	now $569
• Panasonic HP 600	reg $599	now $429
• Diamond Tel 99x	reg $699	now $449
• Motorola 8000	reg $299	now $199

Novatel Car to Car Transportable, Only $69

Act now, offer expires 4/30/92

TOP 10 REASONS TO BUY A CELLULAR PHONE NOW!

1. Winter car problems, No problem!
2. Family safety & security
3. Maximize downtime (drivetime)
4. Harvard Cellular price protection
5. Increase sales & productivity
6. Can go car to car or car to boat
7. *Free off peak air-time
8. Keep in touch with family & friends
9. Best Cellular coverage in New England
10. Priced so low you can't afford not to!

* 7 pm to 7 am Mon - Thurs, 7 pm Fri - 7 am Mon. New England telephone and long distance charges apply.

An Authorized Agent of CELLULARONE®

Prices valid with 180 day minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service plans.

HARVARD CELLULAR
PHONE STORE
112 Water St., Boston
720-2235

HARVARD CELLULAR
188 Needham St., Newton
332-7373

Media Amok is Offensive Absurdity

by Nancy Leonard

Christopher Durang's Media Amok is a scattershot diatribe foundering in excessive diffusion - its forcefulness quickly dissipated by too many targets and too little viewpoint. Put another way, he's given us too many examples and not enough insight through the wide angle lens.

This new play, presented as part of the American Repertory Theatre's New Stages Series at the Hasty Pudding Theatre, means to savage the media (television in particular), pop culture, and contemporary society - presumably for their excesses and lack of substance. But Durang just mixes and matches the outrageousness, which becomes as trying for its audience as for the elderly couple he sets up as prime critics.

Gray-haired Nigel and Cecelia long for the orders and good manners of the 1940's as they hide from urban decay in their Grammercy Park apartment. Shaped by the movies of that era, they've forgotten the horror of Hitler, and believe the new perils of the late 20th century are unprecedented. Maybe a little television will ease their cares - but in Durang's vision, television is the apotheosis of all their fears.

Drawing on familiar ground, he gives us a talk show host named Morton Hell who crudely insults his guests, a superficially vibrant talk show hostess who dwells upon lurid sexuality, a smiling morning team that presents bad news and various displays of bad taste. None of this is particularly current and very little is funny.

The couple's television set continues to run when unplugged, and then Cecilia is transported from her offstage kitchen onto the set. She's mistaken at first for an Alzheimer's patient, but except as a very tiny voice of reason, has little impact on the escalating absurdity.

The play is really a college-level sketch, a handy skeleton upon which to hang whatever comes to the playwriting mind. Political and public figures are mixed up with the transparently disguised characters, but there's nothing particularly observant in the precise mix. Any number of segments could be replaced without missing a beat.

Les Walters direction is lively and fast-paced, but he hasn't disguised the piece-by-piece construction of the cartoon. The large cast, which plays many parts, consists of ART regulars and ART Institute students. Anne Pitoniak is sympathetic as struggling Cecilia. Alvin Epstein is a bit at sea in the underwritten role of her supportive husband. Christine Estabrook is wonderful as a blond talk show hostess who's never out of energy or questions.

There's good work from Lewis Black as pugnacious Morton Hell; Michael Rudko as a gay Senator; Jeremy Geidt as a staunch right-to-lifer; Michael Starr as a blow-dried morning host; and Royal E. Miller as a "handsome, well-spoken black man" reading the news (among other roles). Thomas Derrah adds zip to a transsexual secretary, and Some Tired Old Liberal. Starla Benford gives strong performances as the other hostess Phylicia, and as various guests. Jennifer Roszell is also strong as a pregnant teen age incest victim who becomes a heavy-metal feminist.

Bill Clarke's set is rudimentary: a sofa, chair and a TV on one side suggest cozy Grammercy Park, while the main playing space is kept largely bare for the television action. Christine Joly de Lotbiniére's varied costumes are aptly frivolous. John Ambrosone's stylized lighting is fine, with atmospheric work in the last scene.

Media Amok hits the right, left and vacuous center with offensive absurdity. But there's too much manipulation and too little insight in its overzealous scope. The wide angle diffuses the sting.

Christa estabrook, Candy Buckley and Royal Miller in Media Amok

CAMERON MIKOVICH

PLEASURE OF SIN

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS

Starving Artist

224 NEWBURY ST • 247-9453

ART & FASHION BY BOSTON'S FINEST UNKNOWNS

"I remember telling my Sunday School class and my father that I didn't believe in God. But it wasn't God I didn't believe in, it was God as an old male Caucasian with long white hair.

"I spent years probably not going to church once. Then, senior year in college, I started looking into a Unitarian Universalist church in town. I remember thinking, this is very odd, I'm making this choice on my own. I was going because I wanted to go, because something was missing on Sunday morning.

"One of the things I value most about being a Unitarian Universalist is being able to question. To step back from what I had previously 'believed in.' Nobody says to me I can't believe; nobody is saying I haven't the right to question.

"Unitarian Universalism encourages openness. It encourages dialogue. When I tell my friends that, they're amazed it's still considered a religion. And they want to know more about it."

THE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISTS

For more information and a sample copy of the World, journal of the Unitarian Universalist Association, send $1 (check or money order) to the World, Dept. 609, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108.

ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
19 Clarendon St., Boston.
Until Apr. 12, Boston Ballet showcases On the Edge, a dazzling line-up of gifted choreographers for a month of the very best new ballets. These cutting-edge performances run for one month only. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.75, depending on seating locations and are available either through Ticketmaster or the Wang Center box office. Call 695-6950 for more information.

Dance Umbrella
at the Boston Center for the Arts, Cyclorama
539 Tremont St., Boston
Dance Umbrella and American Airlines team up to present the Festival of Aerial Dance, an unprecedented gathering of contemporary artists choreographing off the ground with the help of trapezes, bungee cords, harnesses, ropes and swinging ladders. Tickets are $18. For more information, call 492-7578.

Massachusetts College of Art
Longwood Theatre
621 Huntington Ave., Boston
Eventworks 1992 presents The Never Ending Dance on Apr. 10, a multimedia show presenting dance improvisation in participation, performance and celebration. Events begin at 5pm and run until 11pm; admission is $5, $4 for students. On Apr. 11, Eventworks presents The Movement Art Showcase, featuring original choreography by many Boston artists. Tickets are $7 for the public, $4 for students. Call 864-2610 for times and more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Exhibit hours are Mon.-Thur.., 9am-9pm and Fri-Sat., 9am-5pm. Admission is free and open to the public.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
NESOP presents "Mirrored Images," photographs by Sandy Croce Warner. Warner's work is collaging with the assistance of mirrors; her photographs are unique in that they form a disjointed yet unified situation all on one piece of film.

The Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave., Boston
The PRC presents "El Salvador in the Eye of the Beholder," a U.S. premiere exhibition of 100 photographs representing Salvadoran underground archives. The exhibit is being held through Apr. 5. Admission is $3 for non-members and $2 for members, students and seniors. Showing simultaneously with the Salvadoran exhibition is Jerry Berndt's "Photographs From Haiti." Exhibit dates are the same as above. Call 353-0700 for more information.

CLASSICAL

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, Mass Ave., Boston
The BSO, conducted by Seiji Ozawa and featuring Gidon Kremer on violin, will perform IVES Symphony No. 4 and TCHAIKOVSKY Violin Concerto on Apr. 7 at 8pm. Call 266-7575 for ticket information.

The Celebrity Series continues Apr. 9-10 when the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Simon Rattle, gives two performances as part of the citywide cultural festival, "The Revolution of Expression." Composers featured in the recitals include Nielsen, Ravel, Schoenberg, Prokofiev, and Debussy. Call 266-7575 for times and ticket information.

Chorus pro Musica
at Symphony Hall, Mass. Ave., Boston
The Chorus performs its version of Georges Bizet's Carmen on Apr. 8 at 7:30pm. Since its inception in 1949, Chorus pro Musica has nurtured and maintained a reputation as one of the pre-eminent choruses of New England. Tickets are $10-$35. For more information, call 267-7442.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
Two chamber music concerts will be presented in Remis Auditorium: Sanford Sylvan, baritone, and David Breitman, piano, on Apr. 2 at 8pm; and the Lydian String Quartet Apr. 12 at 3pm. Sylvan & Breitman will give a recital of modern music, including Hermit Songs by Samuel Barber and Dominic Argento's Andre Expedition. The Quartet will perform works by Charles Ives, William Schuman and Thomas Oboe Lee. Tickets are $12 and $15. Call 267-9300 x300 for more information.

New England Conservatory
at the Emerson Majestic Theatre
219 Tremont St., Boston
Under the auspices of artistic director John Moriarty, the NEC Opera Theater and Opera Studio present Poulenc Dialogues of the Carmelites from Apr. 2-5. Tickets are $8 and $10. Call 578-8727 for more information.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
Pulitzer prize-winning composer William Bolcom and classically trained singer Joan Morris will give a concert of popular music for voice and piano on Apr. 11 at 8pm. Call 536-2412 for ticket information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
306 Northern Ave, Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
The Wang has a Monday night film classic series. Screening Apr. 6 is the 1959 classic film Some Like it Hot, with Marilyn Monroe, Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon. The film is a crazy, outlandish tale of two men who accidentally witness a gangland slaying. Admission is $6. Call The Wang Center at 482-9393 for more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Commonwealth Museum
220 Morrissey Blvd., Boston
This history museum is dedicated to the people, places and politics of Massachusetts. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat. 9am-3pm. Admission is free. For more information call 727-9268.

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Admission to the museum is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, free for children under 5 and half price on Sat. until noon. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Danforth Museum of Art
123 Union Ave., Framingham
To spotlight the beauty of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, the Danforth Museum presents "White Mountain Painters," an exhibition of late 19th and early 20th century paintings done by various artists that capture the charm and brilliance of the natural world. The exhibit runs through Apr. 19. Call 508-620-0050 for more information.

Essex Institute Museum
132 Essex St., Salem
A museum neighborhood in the heart of Salem, the Essex Institute is an art and history museum of Essex County from the 17th century to the present. Museum hours are Tues.-Sat., 9am-5pm, Sun. and holidays 1-5pm, Thurs., 9am-9pm. Tours are available. For more information call 508-744-3390.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. From Apr. 7-June 7, the ICA hosts Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, an exhibit that presents an astounding array of over 400 objects that document the emergence of montage. Some have never been shown together before; others have never been seen before in the U.S. Admission is $4 general, $3 for students, $1.50 for seniors and children under 16, $1 for UMass/Boston and M.I.T students. Free admission on Thur. from 5 to 8pm. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. The museum is currently playing host to a new exhibit, "Imaging the self in Renaissance Italy," which will run through April. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Artschwager received critical acclaim in the mid '60s for his quirky representations of furniture and somestic objects such as mirrors and paintings, all featuring formica as the signature material. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
Apr. 11 is sign-language interpretation day for deaf visitors. "Bears: Imagination and Reality," one of two temporary exhibits, challenges the visitor to learn the difference between the imaginary bear and the real bear. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metropolitan Boston school year.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year, and admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children, students and senior citizens. Museum hours are Wed-Sun., 10am-5pm. For more information call 522-6547.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there

(continued on following page)

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973
ORIENT EXPRESS
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL
Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown
Some Restrictions Apply
$40
per trip - up to 6 people
Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

MUSEUMS (continued)

from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
0 Church St., Cambridge
The ART presents A Midsummer Night's Dream, Shakespeare's celebration of love and reconciliation, from Apr. 3-12. Tickets are $5 and $7. Call 547-8300 for times.

American Repertory Theatre
Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The ART presents Media Amok, a scorching satire on the multiplying lunacies of our time. Seen from the increasingly horrified perspective of a peaceful old couple who just want a little harmless entertainment, the world of talk-show television is seen to be populated with an army of psychotic celebrities. The show will run for 24 performances through Apr. 26; Tues.-Sat. at 8pm with weekend matinees at 2pm. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Beacon Hill Playhouse box office: 720-0082.

Boston Center for the Arts
Leland Center
539 Tremont St., Boston
The Provincetown Theatre Co. makes its Boston debut with Here to Stay, a new comedy by Norman Allen set in New York's Greenwich Village. It runs through Apr. 12; tickets are $10 and are available at the door or through Bostix. Call 508-362-3404 for times.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
Don't miss out of the CCAE's presentation of Norman George's one-man performance of Poe Alone. Hailed by The New York Times as "the nearest thing to Poe in the flesh," George's portrayal of Edgar Allan Poe has fascinated audiences with the art and biting wit of America's master storyteller. Performances are Apr. 3-5 at 8pm; tickets are $8. Call 547-6789 for more information.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Due to extraordinary demand, the hilarious one-woman show Shirley Valentine has been extended and will play an open-ended run. Willy Russell's funny and touching play about a middle-aged Liverpool housewife who experiences liberation on a Greek vacation has been playing to capacity audiences since it opened Jan. 9. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket information.

The Huntington Theatre Company
264 Huntington Ave., Boston
William Shakespeare's rarely seen Cymbeline is getting set for its run at the Huntington Theatre Company. The twilight romance, written between 1608 and 1610, will run until Apr. 5. Tickets range from $18 to $34 and can be ordered by calling 266-0800. Groups of 15 or more may also receive a discount by calling 266-7900, ext. 2524.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
For five weeks only, Athol Fugard's poignant and powerful play Master Harold and the Boys will be performed at the Lyric Stage. A recipient of numerous Best Play Awards, Fugard's touching and powerful story is set in modern South Africa and deals with a young white South African student's relationship with two black men, one of whom has served as a substitute for the boy's drunken father. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

Pine Manor College
Ellsworth Hall
400 Heath St., Chestnut Hill
The Performing Arts department at PMC presents their production of the hit musical "Little Shop of Horrors" Apr. 2-4 at 8pm. Admission is $5; PMC students, staff and faculty are admitted free. For reservations, call 731-7041.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Performances are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 7 and 10pm, Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Thursday matinees are at 2pm. Tickets are $29.50 and $26.50. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For more information and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Ticket prices are $17 and $22 Sun.-Thur., $22 and $25 for Fri. and Sat. nights and Sun. matinees. Show times are Wed.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm, Sun. at 3 and 6pm, and Wed. matinees at 2pm. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. To charge tickets by phone, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wheelock Family Theatre
180 The Riverway, Boston
The world premiere of Tuck Everlasting, a musical adaptation of the children's classic written by Natalie Babbitt, will open Apr. 10 for a four-weekend run. Tickets are $7.50 and $8; call 734-5200 for times.

LECTURES

Radcliffe College
Agassiz Theatre
Between Garden and Brattle Sts., Cambridge
Sissela Bok, author of Alva Myrdal: A Daughter's Memoir, speaks on "Alva Myrdal: Rethinking the Role of Women" at 8pm on Apr. 7. Admission is free. Call 495-8647.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square
Boston Globe business editor Steve Bailey will chair a panel of financial experts in a discussion of the "ABCs of Investing" in Rabb Lecture Hall Apr. 7 at 7pm. Bailey will be joined by Globe columnist Tom Watterson, former columnist Beatson Wallace and the "Today" show's Jonathan Pond. Admission is free. For more information, call 536-5400 x336.

WORKSHOPS

Boston University
Seminar in the Culinary Arts
808 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Learn how to make simple desserts for every occasion with noted professional baker and food writer Dorie Greenspan. Each seminar participant will receive a copy of Greenspan's book Sweet Times and will get a chance to taste all the goodies Apr. 9 from 6-9pm. Come see "A Fare for the Heart" Apr. 13 from 6-9pm, when Jacques Pepin creates low sodium, low fat, low cholesterol, delicious dishes for you to taste. Call for workshop fee information: 353-9852.

The Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
Teams of one adult and one child can learn how to build, program and operate a robot using specially designed plans, Lego blocks, motors, gears and lights. Each team can pose with their robot for a photo to take home. Workshop fee is $18. Call for times and dates at 426-2800 x341/329.

Dance Umbrella
380 Green St., Cambridge
The week of Apr. 6, Dance Umbrella hosts a workshop in conjunction with its presentation of the Festival of Aerial Dance. For more information, call 492-7578.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

Ben Kupferman Gallery
115 Atlantic Ave., Boston
A working studio/gallery featuring handwrought jewelry, bronze and concrete sculptures and one-of-a-kind items with contemporary flair. Currently on display is a collection of nautical silver items.

The Copley Society of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
A juried members' exhibition of works in pastel and charcoal are on display through Apr. 4. From Apr. 8-18 Exhibiting works by student members enrolled at accredited Boston art schools: BU, Emerson, Mass. College of Art, School of the MFA. Gallery hrs are Tues.-Sat. 10:30am-5:30pm. For information, call 536-5049.

Eclipse Salon/Gallery
216 Newbury St., Boston
On view for the month of April are a collection of paintings from contemporary Russia. Gallery hours: Tues.-Sat. 9am-6pm. Call 247-6730 for more information.

The French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Library hours: Tues., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm; Wed. and Thurs., 10am-8pm. For more information, call 266-4351.

Galerie Mouriot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing from Apr. 2-May 2 are Malcolm Preston's "Images of Cape Cod." Preston's spectacular paintings capture the natural beauty of the Cape's coastline. The opening reception is Apr. 2 from 5-7pm. Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Sculptures and drawings by Christopher Wilmarth and paintings by John McNamara are on view Apr. 4-May 2; opening reception is Apr. 3, 5-7pm. For more information, call 266-4835.

The Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston
The Nostalgia Factory presents "The Sporting Life," an exhibition of original old magazine illustrations, ads and articles with a sports theme. Free admission. Mon.-Sat., 10am-7pm' Sun., 11am-6pm.

Tribal Arts Gallery at Roots International
302 Newbury St., Boston
Substantial exhibitions of select West African ceremonial, utilitarian, mythological and societal masks and artifacts can be found at this gallery. The gallery is open seven days a week from 12-6pm. For more information, call 247-6292.

The Vose Galleries
283 Newbury St., Boston
Ernest Albert's beautiful oil paintings of natural landscapes are on view from until June. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri., 8am-5:30pm and Sat., 9am-4pm. For more information, call 536-6176.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Alliance Francaise
at Quincy Market's Great Hall, Boston
On Apr. 11, the Alliance Francaise will host Le Bal du Printemps, "Paris au Printemps," a black-tie fundraising extravaganza which will celebrate spring and the continuing love of the French language and culture. The festivities begin with a 5-course dinner of classic French cuisine at 8:30pm and continue with live music. For ticket information, call 523-4423.

Avalon
15 Lansdowne St., Boston
Governor Weld, Cam Neely and WHDH-TV news anchor Margie Reedy are just two of the celebrities appearing at "Tomorrow Nite," a fundraiser for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Tickets are $40 for the Apr. 10 event (7-11pm) and include live Motown dancing and music (featuring Shirley Alston Reeves of the Shirelles and Marvelettes), all-American food, caricature artistry, sports celebrity autographs and other surprises. Call 434-2284.

Boston Harbor Hotel
Harborview Lounge
Rowes Wharf, Boston
Every Saturday from Apr. 4-May 9, the hotel presents Beatrix Potter Teas for Children in conjunction with the Boston Children's Theatre. Young and old alike will be charmed by costumed characters such as Jemima Puddle-Duck, Peter Rabbit and Farmer McGregor, and four of Potter's most memorable tales: Peter Rabbit, Benjamin Bunny, Jemima Puddle-Duck and Jeremy Fisher.

Boston Vista International Hotel
Eden Vale Ballroom, Waltham
The Asthma and Allergy Foundation of America is sponsoring its annual "Breath of Spring" fundraiser, a gala dinner/auction, Apr. 2 at 6pm. Honorary guests include Rep. Patrick Kennedy (R.I.), Bruce Schwoegler of WBZ-TV and medical expert Albert L. Sheffer. Proceeds from this event will benefit education, public awareness and research programs. Call 965-7771 for more information.

Newbury Street League
at the Ritz-Carlton
15 Arlington St., Boston
On Apr. 14 at 5:30pm, the Ritz-Carlton's Grand Ballroom will be the site of Boston's best culture, couture and cuisine as more the 200 of Newbury Street's famous galleries, shops, restaurants and salons contribute their finest fare to the Newbury Street League's 10th Annual Auction. A silent auction runs from 5:30-7:!5pm; a live auction from 7:15-9pm. For ticket information, call 267-7961.

BALLET THEATRE
OF BOSTON

ADULT CLASSES

Come Once, Come Often
All skill levels welcome
from beginner to advanced.

186 Massachusetts Avenue Boston 262-0961

BUDGET BITES

Le Mercaptan

by Meg Worden
& Peter McNamara

Le Mercaptan
1 Chichester Place, Boston
telephone. unlisted
Hours: Open daily for lunch and dinner, except for first Wednesday in April Reservations: Plenty
Handicapped: Not accessible

There was something familiar about Le Mercaptan, we thought, as we stumbled up the stairs to this pretentious little restaurant whose decor, food and service made us wonder how it has survived all these years. Yet Le Mercaptan has been around for longer than we can remember, and having made a number of visits, we are baffled why it remains so popular. Imagine a room so dark that in order to read the menu, the waitstaff provide flashlights.

Dennis Stein

Of the many delightful appetizers offered on our various visits, we have struggled through cauliflower soup seemingly made entirely from boiled flour; potage au vin, a thoroughly nasty concoction made from stock flavored with uncooked wine, cinnamon, nutmeg and eggs; leathery, oversalted smoked sturgeon served with scrambled eggs incorporating (horror) a human hair that we devoutly hope came from a beard and not elsewhere. We thought a mixed green salad would be fairly safe, but the sopping wet greens included some unauthorized protein - a very large (drowned) insect.

With treats like these, who could resist the entrees? We stayed away from the pork luau, as we overheard someone at the next table saying it tasted like dogfood. But surely the highlight was poisson d'avril, a piece of so-called fish swamped in a stupefyingly sweet sauce. Accompanying vegetables were invariably done to death, except for the potatoes, which are always served al dente; we were advised that this is the way the chef says they ought to be cooked.

To follow, we would have had carrot cake, but due to an oversight, the restaurant did not stock hammers and chisels! We poked at it, but never managed to cut off a piece. Cucumber ice cream sounded rather tempting, but the shard of glass we found in it was a little offputting.

Selecting wine was not without its pitfalls. On one visit, the bottle was brought to the table already opened. "So?" retorted our waitress when we protested, refusing to change it. Another time we inadvertently ordered a bottle of jug wine; we loved the classy way our waitress turned her back to us while she unscrewed the cap.

Service is not exactly Le Mercaptan's forte. Staff seem to rush about a lot without achieving a great deal; collisions are not infrequent, and on one unforgettable occasion, we witnessed an unintended floor show when a waiter sprayed the back of an unsuspecting diner with a large quantity of tomato ketchup. The resulting uproar kept us chuckling for days.

THE EXCEPTIONAL GOURMET CHINESE RESTAURANT WITH EMPHASIS ON VALUE, WITHOUT THE COMPROMISE OF QUALITY & SERVICE.

DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE TO BOSTON AND BROOKLINE

NOBLE HOUSE

1306 Beacon Street, Coolidge Corner in Brookline 232-2378
Serving Dim Sum Sat & Sun, Noon 'til 3.

Massachusetts' Oldest Italian Caffe

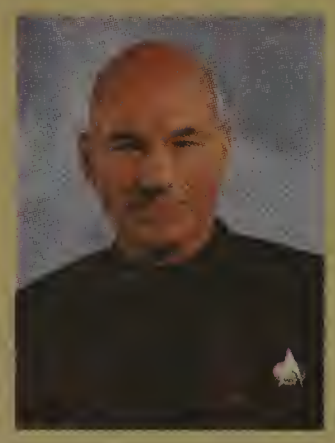
Homemade Cakes and Desserts.
The Best Cannolis and Espresso in Town.

308 Hanover St., North End 523-5063

BAR ROTISSERIE
AMSTERDAM'S
BAR & ROTISSERIE
Food, Fun and all that Jazz
54 Arlington Street (Boston Park Plaza Hotel) • 426-1111 • 7 Days Until 2:00am

The Leisu

Melanie Dunea



Forget the Milkman, Here's Mr. Seltzer

It's new, it's improved, and no, it's nothing with suds. It's bottled Seltzer water It may not be the miracle cure for the environment but it's the newest concept in an effort to save the environment - while remaining fashionable. Founded in 1990, the Spritz Seltzer Company bottles salt, chlorine and chemical free seltzer water in blue, green and clear antique glass siphon bottles that are hermetically sealed to insure perpetual fizz. These bottles of nostalgia are packed either six or ten at a time in wooden crates that are - sit down now - delivered to your door! The bottles are so ecological and inexpensive that area restaurants have now jumped on the bandwagon. In addition, Spritz also sells Fox's U-Bet syrups in nine flavors that, with a squirt, create an old fashioned soda, just like the drugstore used to make. The price for ten bottle delivery is almost parallel to ten plastic bottles at ten dollars a case, with just a one time returnable $25 deposit. For more information, call Spritz company at 617-254-0555

Calling Mr. Spock

Calling all Vulcans! Trekkies should start making all preparations necessary for their journey to the Star Trek convention April 11 & 12 at the Hynes Convention Center. The convention will feature dealers, auctions, contests, gossip, news and, of course, thousands of other fans. More notably, is an appearance by Star Trek: The Next Generation star Patrick Stewart and previews of the movies Batman Returns, Alien 3 and Cool World. Tickets are available at Ticketmaster or at the door, unless you can gain admission some other-worldly way. Beam me in, Scotty!

Courtesy of Boston Red Sox

A New Look For Fenway

"Greenwell goes back to the Green Monster and..." No, no. It's simply too hard on the announcers' tongues and too confusing for the fans. So instead of trying to trade the left fielder, Red Sox management simply decided to repaint the Green Monster - pink. "We only needed to choose the color, because it was unanimous that the wall should be repainted," an unnamed source in Red Sox management confirmed yesterday. "This is 1992, after all." The paint, officially called Fiery Flamingo™, is

Melanie Dunea

You Can See Your Reflection In Your Shoes

"All I do here is shine shoes," Bob said. "I give 'em a nice shine and they give me two bucks."

Bob works in the Park Plaza Hotel and provides one of the most traditional services in the world: the shoe shine. For those who don't have the time or the talent to do it themselves, go and pay him a visit. At the time we interviewed him, Bob said he'd only been at his job as a shoe shiner for three weeks. Although he's headquartered in the Park Plaza Hotel, no famous people have come by - just businessmen, tourists and convention-goers. Bob said he does about 30-40 pairs of shoes per week, but explained that the shiners at Logan Airport make better money.

"Most of 'em tip," he said of his customers, adding that he has yet to receive criticism on a shine. "No complaints yet. Only when I don't come to work." You can't call Bob - you have to stop in to see him.

...for Your Free Time

...re Study

being specially mixed by a privately-held painting firm in the Canary Islands. The exact hue of this paint cannot be matched anywhere in the world. And at $410 a gallon, who would want to try?

An added benefit of changing hues is that Fiery Flamingo™ will glow in the dark during the Sox' night games, thus eliminating the need for left field lights, and saving the organization thousands of dollars in electric bills. "We hope this savings can be put toward the new Spring Training facility in Ft. Myers," the source said. Painting is scheduled to begin on the first of April.

Smile You're On Hidden Camera

Ever catch yourself looking in the mirror and thinking, "yeah, I really do look like Cindy Crawford's twin, only that stupid photographer caught my bad side?" At the Studio of Reflected Images, you can shoot the pictures yourself. The idea was conceived by photographer Robert Myles to alleviate the tension and inhibition felt when posing in front of a photographer. The studio is akin to a private dressing room with a backdrop on one side and a two way mirror on the other, behind which the camera is hidden. The camera is equipped with a ten second delay so all the customer has to do is push a button, strike the desired look and Poof! A model is born. The studio has been utilized by uniform companies as well as people who want to make the ideal personalized valentine or gift. The cost is reasonable, too, at $15.95 for 12 -4" x 6" proofs. At Cambridge Street Photo, they are processed in an hour for immediate satisfaction. To make an appointment or to learn more, call 617-248-0454. See you on the runway!

Thank God For Nose Plugs

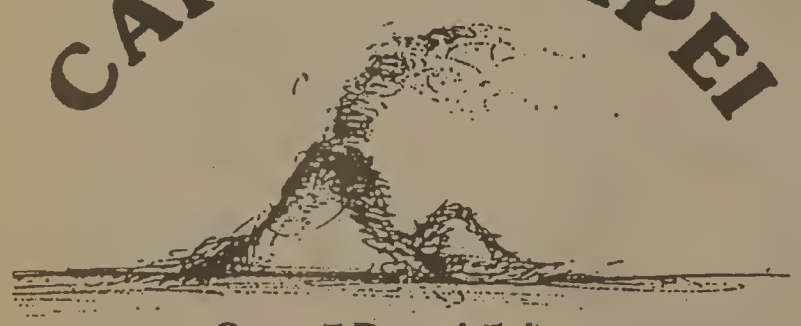
Seymour Kaubalz reports this week on Boston's Best kept Supermarket secret: Ming's Market. Ming's specializes in Chinese food; from fresh vegetables and condiments to live frogs and turtles (And they're not sold as pets). But Ming's does have some of the best deals in town. Their prices can't be beat - nor can their selection. "I bought some great items which I've never tried before; like a smelly fruit called Durian." Shaped like a thorny pineapple, Durian is kept frozen because of it's nauseating odor (it's banned from hotel lobbies, aircraft and anywhere you might find tourists). Rotten eggs smell like roses compared to this fruit. Seymour also picked up some pork stomach, shark's fin soup and fried glutin (to name a few). "I expected the food to be entertaining, but I was wrong. The cooked pork intestine seemed useless; where's the fun in eating pre-cooked intestines if you can't play around with them while their raw?"

There was one item - Caterpillar Fungus and Royal Jelly - that left me scratching my head. Why doesn't Star Market sell this? It's the most delicious stuff I've ever had but I really don't know if it's a spread or a dip. But I can tell you that it's provided me with a lot of new choices. Peanut butter and Caterpillar Fungus sandwiches, Bagels and Fungus and chips and fungus. I'll probably buy out Ming's entire supply, but for now, I'll just fill up on some fungus."

Dennis Stein

For fine Italian Cuisine in Boston's North End

All dishes cooked to order.



New lunch menu with prices starting at $4.50!

Sun,Tues, Wed, Thurs 11:30am-10:00pm
Fri, Sat 11:30am-11:00pm

L'Osteria Ristorante

109 Salem Street, Boston's North End
723-7847 for reservations

CAFFE POMPEI

Open 7 Days 'til 4 am

The afterhours caffe that serves everything from pizza to pasta. Full dinner menu including award winning home made ice cream and desserts. 10% off Sunday through Thursday.

280 Hanover St. in the North End. 227-1562

月宮酒家

MOON VILLA

Authentic, Wholesome Chinese Dining at affordable prices.

Seafood is our specialty!

For something new try our delicious DIM SUM available 10 am- 3 pm Saturday and Sunday.

We're only a short walk from the Theatre District, located in the heart of Chinatown. Discounts given with valid tickets 5:00 pm- 7 pm. Free Parking after 6:00 pm.

15-19 Edinboro Street
(617) 423-2061

The Movable Feast

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN'S RESTAURANT REVIEW

BIBA

by Al Stankus

Jackie Bayne

Before the details of a recent lunch are reduced to minutiae, let's cut to the chase by simply saying BIBA is pretty terrific.

To reach the dining room from the stylish bar, you ascend a winding staircase and emerge into an eye-popping room that's at once fun, serious and beautiful. The big windows overlooking the Public Garden, colorful rug motifs painted into the ceilings, futuristic looking lighting fixtures and mustard walls don't quite set you up for the electrifying menu. This is unconventional cuisine drawn from a chef brimming with confidence.

Our lunch consisted of three main courses, two desserts, a bottle of mineral water, a bottle of wine and coffee. Before the tip, the bill was $99.

A look at the menu showed that main courses, except for pastas and pizza are priced between $19 and $29.50. Desserts are priced the same at both lunch and dinner.

Lunch began with a bread basket of Nan (Indian bread), focaccia, wedges of hearty French bread (spread with anchovy butter?) and a few fat breadsticks. Bypassing an appetizer was made easy.

The lunch "Food Hall," - as the menu here is dubbed - is quite simple. There are four appetizers, 10 listed main courses, two specials and seven desserts. Included among the appetizers are a gamebird consomme with "poorly made ravioli" ($7), a simple salad of mixed greens ($5) and rump carpaccio with hot fried Parmigiano-Reggiano ($8.50).

Our three luncheon main courses were all seafood-based and all fantastic. Huge sea scallops ($15), described as "pan roasted" and tasting of a basil butter finish, were set in the center of the plate and surrounded by wedges of crunchy pastry that had some mashed white beans and basil worked into the dough.

From the somewhat confusing menu, we ordered two uneven slices of moist, but not crisp fish that anchored a small mound of creamy and garlicky mashed potatoes and a fried whole squid stuffed with a mix that tasted like fresh breadcrumbs, garlic and tentacles. The above rested in a thin pool of lemon butter and oil mixed with crispy capers and plenty of crunchy parsley. It's what the French might call, maitre d'hotel style. On top of everything, they placed two paper thin sheets of fried potatoes. Good stuff, strange description.

Desserts, while being rather expensive for lunch ($6-$9), are just as dazzling as the main courses. The mocha praline coupe, served in a martini glass, is a mix of crunchy, slightly stretchy praline topped with a warmed mocha cream sauce.

This same play of textures and temperature is evidenced with the soft and sweet pecan skillet cake that sat atop a pleasantly bracing layer of lemon curd.

The wine list, priced at about 2.1 times above retail, is very good. And not surprisingly, it's also generously dotted with choices like the Martin Codax Albarino, a Spanish white wine from Galicia.

The coffee was rich and strong, while the espresso had the proper crema foam, and was served at the correct temperature. From the greeting at the door until the check was taken, the service managed to be both hip and professional.

BIBA

272 Boylston St., Boston
426-7878
Lunch: 11:30 - 2:30
No lunch on Saturday
Sunday, lunch until 3 p.m.
Dinner: from 5:30 daily
Served until 10 Sunday - Thursday
Friday and Saturday until 11 p.m.
Reservations recommended
MC, V, and DC
Valet parking; $8 for the first hour and $2 for each additional hour
There is an elevator for the handicapped

Appeteasers

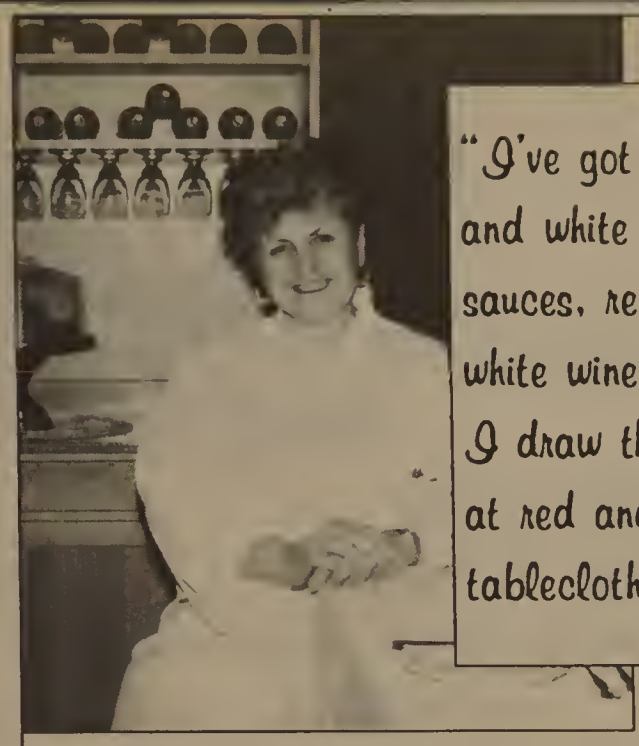
by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

Bob the Chef at 604 Columbus Ave., Boston now has a wine and beer license, reports owner Darryl Settles. There's also a new weekend brunch menu that includes waffles and fried chicken. For more information, call 536-6204.

As we predicted, Amsterdam's is the place to be. Over 600 people showed up for the opening party, and during the first week of opening, celebrities such as Cam Neely have been seen dining there. In our opinion, the pizza ranks with A Bar's as one of Boston's best. Address is 54 Arlington St., tel. 426-1111.

Kathy and Howard Feldenkreis at Purity Farms make a salt free, organic version of clarified butter that keeps (literally) for months. It is available at Bread & Circus and other health food stores, as well as by mail order from P.O. Box 496, Lancaster, MA 01523, or phone (508) 840-1514.

Fresh Louie's Farm Market is a welcome addition to Back Bay at 349A Newbury Street, tel. 247-1474. It specializes in fresh fish and produce (including fresh herbs), plus breads freshly baked on the premises.



Why not welcome spring by signing up for a cooking class? Some of the selections this month include Passover Favorites on April 4 at the Cambridge School of Culinary Arts ; for information call 354-3836...Then there's the Boston University Seminars in the Culinary Arts: on April 13, Jacques Pepin will create A Fare for the Heart. For details, call 353-9852...Cookbook author Terence Janericco is offering single session classes starting April 20 on such topics as terrines and pates, strudel and phyllo dough, and hors d'oeuvres; call 426-7458 for more information.

Two landmarks were destroyed by fire recently: Memory Lane, the historic Somerville restaurant, and Savenor's Market, the gourmet store in Cambridge. Our sincere condolences to the owners and staff. We understand that Savenors hopes to reopen in about 6 months.

Tom David Inc. of Nantucket, creator of the world famous, award winning pepper gun has now created a mini pepprmill that is just three inches long, and comes in a velvet pouch. It's perfect for traveling pepper addicts. It's available at Michela's for $17.00 or vial mail order from the manufacturer, tel. 1-800-634-8881.

The Rumor Section: This has been a busy week for unconfirmed rumors...A famous gourmet ice cream store on Mass. Ave., Boston may be changing the name (and concept), and transforming into a dessert and coffee bar...A 12,000 square foot nightclub with owners that include Kevin McHale is in the planning stages...The Spaghetti Club could be opening a branch on Boylston Street, "but maybe not this year"...Look for a new name for the Marketplace Cafe; there is talk of it changing to the Quincy Market Bar and Grill...The last of the Boston branches of the Magic Pan (on Newbury Street) might just change its name to Milano Italian Kitchen ....Remember we told you these are all unconfirmed rumors.

Late breaking news as we go to press: we just received word from our French sources that Anthony's Pier 4 is in line for one of Michelin's coveted three star awards in their new American edition. We also know that the French, too, celebrate April Fools Day.

Come for our Veal Saltinboca alla Romano!

You'll want the recipe after feasting on this delicacy of veal layered with proscuitto and served with fresh sage, sautéed in wine.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

Felicia's

CUCCINA ROMANA
WINES & BEER
ROOM FOR PARTIES

UP ONE FLIGHT

ALL FOOD COOKED TO ORDER

145A Richmond Street
Boston, MA
(617) 523-9885
Parking at Gov't Ctr. Garage $3

NEW Creative Mexican Cuisine
CHEAP EATS
delightfully offbeat
Mexican fare: affordable and fun
Boston Phoenix

HOURS
Sun-Wed, noon-10:00 p.m.; Thu, noon-10:30 pm; Fri-Sat, noon-11p.m.
AE, DC, MC, Visa, Full bar
Ground Level
No reserv.

1010 Beacon St, 566-5983

Every Once In A While You Come Across A Restaurant That's Hip, Trendy, And Incredibly Chic.

Rest Assured, This Is Not One Of Them.

The S&S is a good old fashioned restaurant where they serve food. Not fads. We're talking honest to goodness meals you can enjoy and afford. That's been our simple recipe for over 73 years. Stop by, we'll fix you something nice.

S&S Restaurant
A Great Find Since 1919.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner. Mon-Sat 7:00am-12:00 mid, Sun 8:00am-11:00pm
Inman Square, 1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge, 354-0777, FAX: 354-6924

Caffé Vittoria

4 Level Caffe
3 Full Coffee Bars • 1 Non-Smoking Caffe
Serving 8 am 'til Midnight

296 Hanover St., North End 227-7606

Silver Restaurant Supply Outlet Store

Up to 30% off Mfgs. Prices!
China - Glassware - Silverware
From 20¢ per piece!
New & Used Restaurant Equipment
Closeouts and Discount Items

(617) 884-8700
232 Everett Avenue Chelsea, MA
Just over Tobin Bridge, 1 block from Mystic Mall, opposite Floramo's Steak House

In the Realm of the Spirits

Oregon Winemaker Makes Local Debut

by Al Stankus

Melanie Dunea

There are plenty of "magazine wines" out there. Freixnet, Fetzer, Round Hill, and Louis Jadotare are probably familiar names to most of us. While some are quite good (notably those from Jadot), many sell simply because of clever advertising.

At On The Square Restaurant in Watertown, you won't find many of these on their bountiful wine list. After winning the Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence, owner Marcia Bogue is constantly looking to add lesser-known, interesting selections to their list.

It's in this spirit of discovery that On The Square will be hosting a dinner on Tuesday, April 7 featuring the wines from Flynn Vineyards.

Set in Oregon's Willamette Valley, Flynn is truly a newcomer to our area. On The Square and Kappy's Liquors at the Revere/Malden line are currently the only places featuring wines from Flynn Vineyards.

For those with curious palates, the April 7 dinner will feature four different wines from this newcomer. Wayne Flynn, a former airplane pilot turned vineyard owner will be the evening's special guest.

To team with Flynn's 1987 Brut Sparkling Wine (a very clean and crisp sparkler with pleasant apple overtones), executive chef Russell Thiel will serve a lobster salad with grilled baby artichokes and angel hair pasta.

The second course - a seared salmon with pink peppercorn sauce - will be matched with Flynn's 1990 Chardonnay. Like the sparkling, it too is a leaner style with good acidity.

Oregon's most noteworthy wines are made from the temperamental Pinot Noir. This somewhat stingy grape has shown a propensity for the micro-climate of the Willamette Valley. And Flynn's 1990 Pinot Noir is more evidence why Pinot Noir receives the lion's share of vineyard attention in Oregon. Although the Flynn Pinot Noir gave off a whiff of concentrated alcohol in the nose, the taste was vibrantly rich cherry fruit, backed by enough tannin to indicate even better drinking in three or four years. Chef Thiel will pair this delicious Pinot Noir with grilled duck breast napped with a pear sauce.

To keep the evening intimate, On The Square divides the wine dinner from the rest of the restaurant. It's a setting that allows for much give and take between the diners and the vineyard owner.

The price for the Flynn Wine Dinner is $55, plus tax and gratuity. On The Square is located at 9 Galen Street, Watertown. To make reservations or to be put on their mailing list which keeps you abreast of future wine dinners (Kalin Vineyards will be featured on May 5), call 923-1522.

To find out which stores and restaurants will be adding Flynn Vineyards to their inventory, call MRR Traders, Flynn's local distributor, at 783-5445.

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Sardou is a lovely combination of poached eggs, creamed spinach and Hollandaise sauce. that though well portioned still leaves space for their raisin bread pudding or Creme Caramel. The Creole Omelette or the Chicken Clemenceau are other entrees that are sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz Brunch from 11am-2:15pm. Sun. 10:30am-2:15pm.

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry 1 offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. $14.95 all you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

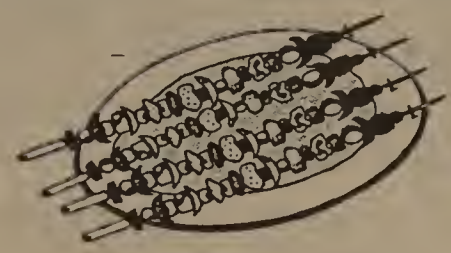
Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking



Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

ARARAT
RESTAURANT

Whole Rotisseried Chicken (Farouj).....$6.20	Falafel Plate.....$4.75
Lamb Kebob.....$5.75	Falafel Sandwich $2.75
Chicken Kebob Plate .$4.75	Hommos $2.50
Shawerma Plate $4.99	Baba-Ganouj $3.00

We also serve beer and wine. Please come visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 * (617) 934-7011

VICTORIA STATION

cut out and bring in

All - You - Can - Eat
PRIME RIB!!
Only...$12.95

Offer expires 4/15/92

60-Item Salad Bar OR Soup, Potato, and Hot, Crusty Bread

Offer not valid in conjunction with any other promotion.
Coupon good for up to four guests

VICTORIA STATION RESTAURANT
Boston: 64 Sleeper Street (617) 542-7771
Next to The Children's Museum
All Major Credit Cards Accepted

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Addis Red Sea Ethloplan Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Acapulco, 266 Newbury St., Bos. 247-9126 MC,V $
Looking for a quiet place to escape the throngs of shoppers, tourists and lookers on Newbury Street? Take a walk down the stairs into the easily missed entrance of Acapulco. They feature a variety of authentic fajitas, enchiladas, and much more. The atmosphere is relaxing, modest and a break from the many fast-paced Southwestern restaurants in town. Dishes range from $6 to $12. Open Sunday through Thursday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 10:30 p.m.

Ararat, 71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500 A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

Back Bay Bistro, 565 Boylston St., Bos. 536-4477 A,MC,V $$$
The Bistro is a quiet and trendy spot. They not only offer Boston's widest array of wines by the glass, but a sumptuous menu that boasts of sauteed Maine crab cakes, roast garlic-glazed chicken andsauteed salmon with crisp leeks and raspberry beurre rouge. Not for nightowls - the bistro closes by 11pm, even on weekends. Don't leave without trying one of their homemade desserts.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
A, D, MC,V $
Located across from the Circle Cinema, this casual neighborhood find offers what is reputed to be the best pad thai and peanut sauce in town (you'll crave them long after you've paid the bill). Order your entrees HOT or more subtly spiced for novices. Enjoy freshly baked desserts, beer and wine, and daily lunch specials. Delivery after 5pm. Open 7 days for dinner; Tues. - Sat. lunch. Sat. Brunch.

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V
$$$$
If your're a beer gourmand and your fantasy vacation would be to travel from Boston to L.A. sampling micro beers across the continental US, Boodles, is your bet. Enjoy Carnivorous dining in an elegant setting while you sip your ale. This posh grill room features impeccable service and a varied wine selection complementing a full menu- featuring lamb, shrimp brochettes and a thick succulent cut of of prime rib.

Blue Wave, 142 Berkley St., Bos. 424-6711 A,MC,V $$$
Fine continental California cuisine served in healthy portions in fun and spacious surroundings. Sit at glass tables that are actually mini-sandboxes and take in the colorful art work. One menu highlight, in addition to daily pizza, pasta and fish specials, is ceviche - a fresh tuna steak marinated with lime juice and spices. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat. dinner only. Sun. 11am-5pm for brunch.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hamover St., Bos. 523-5063
$
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016
$
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Caffe Vittoria, 296 Hanover St. Bos. 227-7606 $$
85 years ago , Caffe Vittoria opened it's doors as the first Italian caffee in the norht end. Old Photographs, antique coffee machines, and the tasteful decor of sleek marble tables and brass railings add to the cozy, unadulterated Italian charm. Try the canoli- made fresh 365 days a year.

Carlo Marinos, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltinboca alla Romano - veal layered with proscuitto with fresh sage, sauteed in wine; Spinacci di Cosa - spinach sauteed with garlic oil, cannelini beans and proscuitto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Casa Romero, 30 Gloucester St., Bos. 536-4341 MC,V $$
Muy Romantico! Just off Newbury St., you can find creative Mexican food in a Mexican colonial setting. You'll feel immediately at ease as you let your stress go over reputedly the best margaritas in town. Chef Mendoza does an outstanding job with specialties such as puerco adobado (tenderloin of pork with smoked peppers and oranges). Catch the early bird special (5-7pm) and pay $15 for an appetizer, entrée, dessert and Mexican coffee. Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Davio's, 269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
5 Cambridge Parkway(at the Royal Sonesta Hotel), Camb. 661-4810
204 Washington St., Brookline
A,V,D,D,MC $$$
Located on one of Boston's most distinctive streets, Davios in Boston captures the true flavor of Newbury Street. Downstairs, you'll experience the finest in Northern Italian dining in a cozy and friendly setting. Uniquely prepared homemade pasta, veal and seafood dishes are specialties. The upstairs and outdoor cafe feature salads, pasta, sandwiches and pizza (with 26 toppings). The Brookline and Cambridge locations are equally accomodating. Lunch from 11:30am and dinner from 5-11pm. Reservations are strongly suggested.

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-6568
$$$
Deservedly the critics rave, this tiny "fun and funky" spot offers excellent cuisine and a lively atmosphere to a packed house nightly. Southern BBQ and fresh fish specials cooked on a wood-burning grill. Try the Jamaican beef from hell (beef strips, sugar cane and spices), mahi mahi with mango chutney, and for the brave, add a dash of Wow to your giant plate with one of four distinctive Inner Beauty Hot Sauces. Dinner nightly. On weekends, expect a wait. Reservations.

Felicia's, 145A Richmond St., Bos. 523-9885 AM,D,MC,V $$
Old-fashioned family-style dining in the North end. Twirl up some Southern Italian chow and keep your eyes peeled for such personalities as Steve Martin and Bob Hope. Have beer and wine with your meal or drinks in the upstairs lounge. Reservations on weekends. Open daily for dinner. Lunch only on Sun.

Goemon Japanese Noodle Restaurants
267 Huntington Ave., Bos. 859-8669 1 Kendall Sq., Bldg. 100, Camb. 577-9595 $
Go easy on your wallet and have fun picking from a variety of traditional Japanese appetizers and noodle dishes: Soba- high energy buckwheat noodles (great for body builders), Udon - thick wheat noodles and Ramen - curly whole wheat noodles. Noodles in a hot or chilled broth that you can add to à la carte whatever toppings excite you. Upscale, modern decor. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524 MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

India Samraat, 51A Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 247-0718 $
Stroll into this genuine Indian restaurant and sample some chicken tikka masala, a favorite of their regulars. Try another popular specialty dish, the non-vegetarian Thali. Service is excellent in this exposed-brick interior and Indian paintings adorn the walls. Samraat also offers take out and delivery. Lunch from 12-3pm and dinner 5-11pm weeknights, 12-11pm on weekends.

Jasper's, 240 Commercial St., Bos. 523-1126 D,MC,V $$$$

OTTAVIO'S RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00 • Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

Jasper White is rightly lauded for his waterfront establishment's outstanding consistency. The service is impeccable without being snooty, the decor pleasantly contemporary and the food sublime. Jasper likes to take simple plebeian dishes and add to them subtle nuances and spice. Try the signature pan roasted lobster with chevril and chives and the baked chocolate bread and butter pudding for dessert. Appropriate dress. Open Tue.-Sat. for dinner.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

King & I
145 Charles St., Bos. 227-3320 259 Newbury St., Bos. 437-9611 D,MC,V $$
You won't find Yule Brenner; but you will find great Thai food. Try the chicken and coconut soup and the shrimp in love. Open daily for lunch (except Sat.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legals, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch avail. in burbs.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking- and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe, an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries, is a real treat. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance, fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

"The man who said the world will beat a path to your door if you build a better mousetrap was a poet, not a businessman.

The landscape is strewn with the wreckage of fine companies who built great products–that no one ever heard about.

"Most of our competitors of 1981 no longer exist. Some of them had great products. What they forgot to have was great advertising."

John Sculley, Chairman and CEO, Apple Computer, Inc.

I've worked for two of the most spectacularly successful corporations in America–Pepsi and Apple Computer. They're as opposite as East and West. But they have one thing in common. In both cases, advertising played a central role, rocketing them from obscurity to market leadership.

Each enjoyed product advantages. But they had to be advertised.

No other form of communication allows a purer, more powerful articulation of your product's story and your company's vision. Because only advertising can communicate not just information, but emotion and soul.

Something magical happens when you're able to touch millions of people at once–a transforming energy that not only makes sales today, but reverberates for years to come.

Advertising builds brands. And your brand is the only thing that stands between you and commodity pricing.

Advertising allows you to take on the giants and win. Goliath may not need great advertising. But David sure does.

Finally, advertising lets you express not only what you are, but what you are trying to become. It's not just a selling tool, it's a leadership tool–a flag on the mountain to rally and inspire your own people.

Of all the sophisticated tools available to marketers today, advertising remains one of the most powerful."

AAAA
American Association of Advertising Agencies

If you would like to learn more about the power of advertising, please write to Department D, AAAA, 666 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017, enclosing a check for five dollars. You will receive our booklet It Works! How Investment Spending in Advertising Pays Off Please allow 4 to 6 weeks for delivery This advertisement was prepared by BBDO, Los Angeles, photograph by Peter Stember

BAY STATE TICKET

Concerts - Theatre - Sports Events

• Van Morrison	Orpheum	4/25
• Earth Day Concert	Foxboro	4/25
• Eric Clapton	Hartford	5/6
• Jerry Seinfeld	Brandeis U.	5/9
• Genesis	Foxboro	5/28

Redsox, Bruins, Celtics

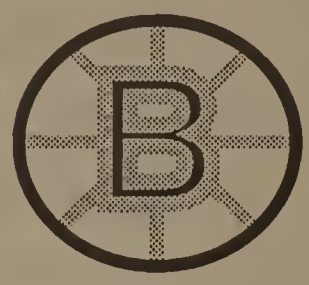
731- 4588

CELTICS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 WSH 7:30	2	3 IND 8:00	4
5 CHI Noon	6	7 CLE 7:30	8 NY 7:30	9	10 MIL 7:30	11
12 CHA 6:00	13	14 PHI 7:30	15 DET 8:00	16	17	18
19 MIA 1:00	ALL GAMES ON 590 WEEI AM TV AWAY GAMES ON FOX 25

Home Away Hartford



BRUINS 1991-1992 SCHEDULE

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2 QUE 7:35	3	4 MON 8:05
5 HRT 7:05

Away — TV HOMEGAMES ON NESN

Home — TV AWAY GAMES ON WSBK 38

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

April 1-5 Disney on Ice
Centrum, (Various Prices)
April 2 Gallagher
Springfield Civic Center, (Various Prices)
April 4 Cowboy Junkies
Orpheum, ($21.50/19.50)
April 4 Buckwheat Zydeco
Memorial Hall at Harvard U., ($14.00)
April 8 Radiators
Avalon, ($!6.50 advance, $17.50 door)
April 16 Bid Audio Dynamite, P.I.L., Live, Blind Melon
Gosman Center at Brandeis,
($19.50 Gen. Adm.)
April 28-May 10 Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story
Colonial Theatre, ($22.50-47.50)

Ticketmaster
Outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.

Out-of-Town Tickets
Call 492-1900 for information.

Concertcharge
Call 497-1118 to charge tickets. Amex, MC or Visa.

Buckwheat info. - 496-2222

Away — TV GAMES ON WSBK 38 AND NESN

Home — RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7 NY 1:00	8	9 NY 7:30	10	11 CLE 1:05
12 CLE 12:00	13 BAL 1:05	14	15 BAL 1:05	16 BAL 6:05	17 TOR 6:05	18 TOR 1:05
19 TOR 1:05	20 TOR 11:05	21 MIL 7:05	22 MIL 7:05	23 MIL 2:35	24 TEX 7:35	25 TEX 1:05
26 TEX 1:05	27	28 CHI 7:35	29 CHI 7:35	30

MAY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1 KC 7:35	2 KC 1:05
3 KC 1:05	4 MIN 7:35	5 MIN 7:35	6 CHI 8:05	7 CHI 1:35	8 KC 8:35	9 KC 2:35
10 KC 2:35	11	12 MIN 8:05	13 MIN 8:35	14	15 CAL 7:35	16 CAL 1:05
17 CAL 1:05	18 SEA 7:35	19 SEA 7:35	20 SEA 7:35	21	22 OAK 7:35	23 OAK 1:05
24 OAK 11 SEA	25	26 CAL 10:35	27 CAL 10:35	28 CAL 10:35	29 SEA 10:35	30 SEA 10:05

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 OAK 10:05	2 OAK 10:05	3 OAK 3:15	4	5 CLE 7:35	6 CLE 1:05
7 CLE 1:05	8 BAL 7:35	9 BAL 7:35	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 8:35
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 3:00
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 2:35	19 CAL 2:35	20 CAL 2:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 1:05	24 OAK 7:35	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05
30 CAL 4:05	31 SEA 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:35	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 MIN 1:05

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prociutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555 $$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. And if you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Rocco's, 5 Charles St. South, Transportation Bldg., Bos. 723-6800 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on an all-Italian menu which includes vermicelli puttanesca (pasta with an olive oil tomato sauce, capers and shallots), and don't miss their grilled green salad (greens marinated in olive oil and grilled). You'll dine under cathedral high ceilings and play with the folk art pieces on each table-they're for sale. Frescoes of putti and hanging sculptured suits add to Rocco's overall cheer. Desserts, including apricot bread pudding are the best part, so save room! You can sit at the long cherry wood bar that also functions as a gallery. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Shalimar of India
546 Massachusetts Ave., Camb. 547-9280
A,MC,V $
This Indian dive/restaurant at Central Sq. specializes in Northern Indian cuisine. After some pakoras (spinach and cauliflower deep-fried in chickpea batter) and raita (yogurt and cucumber), choose from several chicken and shrimp tandoori (baked in a clay oven) and curry plates. Lunch Mon.-Sat. Dinner daily. Relax over chaiy (Indian tea) at the Sun. buffet-style brunch from 12:00-3pm.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070 MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

St. Botolph Restaurant, 99 St. Botolph St., Bos. 266-3030 A,D,MC,V $$$
Dine in a trendy polished café or eat more formally upstairs. Either way, you'll love the Italian (café fare) and Continental cuisine (upstairs) offered at this charming brownstone establishment. One critics' pick is the noisettes of lamb with tarragon fettucini, goat cheese and spinach topped off with an ample slice of white chocolate cheesecake. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sun. brunch 11:30am-3pm.

Union Oyster House, 41 Union St., Bos. 227-2750 A,D,MC,V $$
Opened in 1826, this Boston landmark is the oldest restaurant in continuing business in the U.S. Their raw oyster bar, where you can still gobble down oysters, littlenecks and cherrystones, was often a hangout for Daniel Webster. If raw isn't your bag, you can order up the popular crab cakes in Newburg sauce or broiled scrod. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Victoria Station, 64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771 MC,V,A,D,D $$
Located next to the Children's Museum and overlooking Boston Harbor and the Boston Tea Party Ship, you'll experience casual dining in a railroad atmosphere surrounded by authentic 'Victoria Station' artifacts. Early-bird specials include prime rib and seafood specialties. Pub menu available until midnight. Open Sun.-Sat., 11:30am to 1am.

Zapata's
1010 Beacon St., Brookline 566-5983
A, D, MC, V $$
Named after a Mexican revolutionary, this salmon coated offbeat cantina adds new twists to Mexican comida. Pechugas Román - boneless breast of chicken coated with ground popcorn, sauteed with poblano and hablanero chiles, wild mushrooms and herb butter, is a favorite. Sample a Chihuahua, Bohemia, Corona or Boston's best margaritas - "as long as you're not driving." Open 7 nights for dinner; Mon. - Fri. for lunch.

MUSIC

Mighty Mighty Big in Boston

by A.J. Wachtel

Outside of death and taxes, there are only two certainties that Fenway area residents can rely on. The first is that the Red Sox will take a swan dive and be out of the pennant race by the middle of the summer. The second is that the plaid boys of Boston - The Mighty Mighty Bosstones - will be soaking down suds and holding court on Sunday night at a variety of local bars. The smoke-filled atmosphere and clientele are so familial and packed with local celebrities that people travel from miles around just to attend these rocking rendezvous and witness the style and substance in the provincial entertainment scene today.

This exciting band, one of Boston's leading musical exports, has a history that can be traced to Joe, Nate and Ben's attending the same high school together. But the real origins of the group began two years ago when they joined forces with Dickie, Kevin, Johnny and Joe and Devil's Night Out became their first full-length release. On the strength of this chart-topping product, they began to take themselves seriously and directed all of their communal energies to promoting their ska-flavored act, and the results were both instantaneous and electrifying. As the music reached mores ears and their popularity increased, the contagious calypso cadences of their tunes spread like an infection over area airwaves and their high energy performances became legendary, culminating in the ensemble being nominated for two top honors in The Boston Music Awards: Best New Single - "Where'd You Go?" and Best Club Act.

Today, More Noise and Other Disturbances, the band's second full-length release on Taang! Records, is out and the early response has been awe-inspiring. They're currently embarking on the latest leg of their More Noise tour blazing through venues in Chicago, Detroit, Denver and San Francisco and invariably selling out shows all over the country. The trek will take them through DC, Virginia and Florida by early April and then back up the Eastern Seaboard for a tentative show mid-month in Boston with a national act, possibly the Beastie Boys. The Bosstones were joined onstage in Denver by Metallica's James Hetfield for an encore of their hit "Enter Sandman" and the video for their latest single "Where'd You Go?" had its debut on MTV's 120 Minutes on Sunday, March 22.

But that's not all; the success of their Converse Sneakers commercial, shown nationwide, has exposed them to a new market of melodic consumers. Now, people who originally came to their shows out of curiosity venture back for the music and the first-rate production of the recital.

The future holds much promise for this tartan-garbed orchestra as the globe becomes aware of their World Beat communications. Support the local music scene; become involved by attending and participating in their rousing renditions or drop by a Kenmore Square pub some Sunday. Buy them a pitcher or two of Old Milwaukee and experience the thrill of a group destined to become the next band to make it big out of Boston.

LIVE LEADS THE MTV PACK

by Rey Roldan

Coming to the Boston area on Thursday, April 16, is the WFNX/MTV's 120 Minutes Tour which assembles some of the biggest names in alternative pop today. While Mick Jones' Big Audio Dynamite II and Johnny Lydon's Public Image Limited headline the tour, it seems that the highlight of the show is newcomers Live. With a buzz that started last September and grew exponentially ever since, Live has recently garnered a significant amount of favorable press. MTV put their video "Operation Spirit (The Tyranny of Tradition)" in heavy rotation by placing it in the Buzzbin (a showcase for promising new talent). "That was one of the best things to happen to us," said bassist Patrick Dahlheimer in a recent interview. "That really shoved everything ahead of schedule because the album [Mental Jewelry (Radioactive)] wasn't even out yet."

Mental Jewelry is a dark album of sorts with words that brood like something out of Joy Division. "We're at a stage right now where [lighthearted songs] are just not in us," he explained. "We're not like fucking morbid or something. We don't go around saying 'Man, oh man' all the time. It's just how we feel." It's surprising to hear such cynicism from a band whose members are all in their early twenties. Not unlike early U2 (to whom they're often compared), their songs often border on anatomic political statements that would make Amnesty International ecstatic. "[Politics] are a recurring theme. Everything today is ruled by some form of pain or fear. There's always some element of that in every type of decision making, especially politics."

Their upcoming concert at Brandeis University's Gosman Center should be an exciting show along with opening band Blind Melon, B.A.D. II and P.i.L. With two of their childhood heroes (ex-Clash Mick Jones and Ex-Pistol Johnny Rotten Lydon) anchoring the event, Live should get the live exposure to keep their name ringing true. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 for more information.

ALBUM REVIEWS

Hiphoprisy
Hypocrisy Is the Greatest Luxury
4th & B'Way

The buzz about this duo has been so heavy since their opening slot last year for Billy Bragg that the release of their eagerly awaited debut had a lot of expectations to live up to. Sure enough, Hypocrisy Is the Greatest Luxury lives up to everyone's expectations and then some. The Disposable Heroes remains intelligently in the middle, thereby not alienating anyone and still getting out their message. Accompanied by industrial musician Rono Tse (he actually uses powertools), rapper Michael Franti associates most of the world's racism on the black man's hypocrisy. He also attacks the filter of the nation's intelligence in "Television, The Drug of the Nation." Finding the almighty cathode tube as the inspiration of the trendy, he spouts, "Uneducated underdeveloped/Undisciplined but mostly unaware/We join the flavor of the month club." Heroes, in the Superfriends sense of the word, they're not. But as heroes of the Worldly Intelligent, they ought to beat the hell out of Vanilla Ice.
-Rey Roldan

Wedding Present
Seamonsters
First Warning/RCA

The long-awaited domestic release of the Wedding Present's fourth full-length release finds the British guitar anti-heroes continuing to reinvent themselves. When they first surfaced in 1987 with the stunning George Best, they seemed a worthy contender to the angst throne, recently abdicated by the Smiths. Its follow-up, Bizarro, sent them in another direction altogether. While lead singer David Gedge's manic depressive, obsessive worldview remained intact, they began to emulate the long, repetitious guitar jams of the Velvet Underground and the Fall. Seamonsters, under the production aegis of Steve Albini (Big Black, Pixies), brings shorter guitar bursts wrapped within an amorphous structure that allows the songs to progress as if in a straight line. As a result, it's their most intriguing and original album yet
- David Daley

Happyhead
Give Happyhead
EastWest Records

Sounding like a cross between Primal Scream and Jesus Jones - with a dash of Pop Will Eat Itself for good measure - Happyhead pull in the dancy without sacrificing the clever. Technology, anarchy and rhythm take the driver's seat as Carl Marsh (ex-Shriekback mastermind) breaks out his best combination of hooks, barbs and other pointy things. While the single "Fabulous" has the potent dance beat and cheesy female background vocals that made every Primal Scream song a hit, it has the added attraction of sporting a little homicidal humor ("gun crazy down the mall/voodoo consumer take it all"). "Digital Love Thing" carries a similar busy background as "Real Real Real" and packs as ugly a wollop. Happyhead may have come about two years too late to take advantage of the Manchester thang but, who knows, with music as bouncy as this, it may liven up the guitar drone that's taken over.
-Rey Roldan

Enya
Shepherd Moons
Reprise Records

It's a sad day when promising musicians retch out the same album time after time. Gaelic songstress Enya set off a massive buzz when her New Age album Watermark crossed over into the mainstream and sported a Top Ten hit with "Orinoco Flow." Her new album Shepherd Moons has exactly the same watery feel of waves flowing and ebbing, the same multi-textural interweaving instrumentals, the same dreamy vocals. While it would be totally out of character for her to release a punk album, minor variances in tone, texture and overall feel wouldn't hurt. "How Can I Keep from Singing" is her update of Watermark's "Evening Falls." "Ebudae" has a modern, almost otherworldly feel while at the same time harkening the Traditional Celtic songs of the Wolfetones. But, they are practically indistinguishable from "Cursum Perificio" or "Na Laetha Geal M'óige" from her first album. Like the Caribbean Sea that she sings about, Enya's musical flow crashes in the same rhythm ever time.
-Colleen MacDonald

Right Said Fred
Up!
Charisma Records

Sometimes torchy, sometimes jazzy, but always hustling to the same beat that made Gloria Gaynor and Donna Summer famous, Right Said Fred combine the worst of disco and play it all tongue in cheek. From the shuffling campiness of "I'm Too Sexy" to the Bee Gees-esque deviance of "No One on Earth," this Howard Stern lookalike trio dig up every cheddar Seventies technique. Star Wars futuristic keyboards, bleeding horns and maracas are everywhere. While not as successful as My Life With the Thrill Kill Kult in generating pure, unadulterated Disco Nostalgia, Right Said Fred make a great follow-up to Saturday Night Fever 2: Stayin' Alive. Now, if they can only get John Travolta for the video... -Rey Roldan

The Disposable Heroes of

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

Wachtelligence

by A.J. Wachtel

After winning WBCN's "What would you do for U2 tickets?" contest and seeing the band's show in Montreal, drummer Lefty DeVito of The Allston Brothers Band, the local Allman Bros. tribute, told us he was detained at Canadian customs for a while. It appears the border mounties are good judges of character. Lefty was guilty of smuggling hot licks over the lines! The show was great and later on members of the group hit a Canuck tavern and jammed with some townies. BCN jock Carter Alan's new tell-all tome on the Irish minstrels, titled "Outside is America," is due out in the next few months... Garage-rock legends The Lyres, with new drummer Jim Janota from the late-lamented Bags, are doing five gigs in Spain as we speak. Lead Lyre Jeff "Monoman" Connolly persuaded his stewardess sister to use her influence to get the foursome special tickets (real cheap!) but they're required to make the trip wearing jackets and ties! The showcases seem anticlimactic; let's see those suits! . . . Bartender of the Week is Bob Paige of Bunratty's for putting up with the many moods of manager J.D. Crump . . . Check out Chance and the Crashers' R&B jams at Harper's Ferry on Tuesday nights. Henley Douglas and Jim Sturdivant of The Heavy Metal Horns and legendary bluesman/harpist Silas Hubbard joined Hurricane Bob, Bill Mason, Jennifer Allen and Chance for a rousing version of The Edgar Winter Group's staple "Turn on Your Lovelight" the other night . . . Old Edgar Winter White Trash guitarist Rick Derringer blazed into town recently for a standard-setting gig of old and new tunes at The Rat. The week before The Tubes had performed at the venue with local madmen Fighting Cocks opening up for both shows with their own distinctive and high-energy brand of vim and vigor! The Kenmore landmark is now booking occasional national acts. Derringer and wife Diane are expecting their first child any day now. If it's a boy, he'll be named Rick, Jr. and if it's a girl, Mallory . . . Country-and-western megastar John Lincoln Wright does his thing every week at Cambridge's Middle East Cafe. Lincoln is up for two Boston Music Awards this year, C & W artist and Male Vocalist. His new album "Honky Tonk Verite" and its hit song "Horizon Line" are red hot. In fact, the tune is our Turntable Song of the Week! And while you're at the Middle East Cafe, say hi to Doorman of the Week David Roberts, a.k.a. "Do-Head," who wins for his great haircut. And don't forget to ask owner Joseph Sator about how his building contractors struck an unknown underground freshwater spring while digging around in the club's basement. Is it true that he plans to bottle the Central Square liquid and market it as Holy Water from the Middle East?..Congrats to Bunratty's barkeep Rob Jeffries, who doubles as a four-stringer for The Subterranians for his upcoming 10th anniversary on the job! The mind reels! Subterranian frontman Joel Gramolini used to be one of Southside Johnny's Asbury Jukes . . . There's a picture of ageless rocker Jimmy Barron hanging on the wall of the Village Smokehouse in Brookline. His son, police officer Ricky, is one cop who really knows how to keep a beat! His band, The Quavers, plays great country-influenced rock. Check them out the next time they play The Tam. Go to the club, eat a great meal and see a tremendous band. It sounds like a winner! . . . Aimee Mann has a new 'Til Tuesday lineup out and they're in the studio working on new material. She's also busy composing songs with Peter Wolf, who is currently talking with Keith Richards about his next project. Look for Peter to come out with an album, a band of Boston musicians and a tour in the very near future . . . James Montgomery is planning his first-ever tour of Israel. In his band will be old friend/band alumni/Boston resident Tom Major, who's currently pounding the skins for Bo Diddley. Picture this: Monty, harp in hand, dodging scud missiles and bringing down the crowd at the Wailing Wall with his blistering rendition of "Smoky Joe's Cafe." . . . The Del Fuegos just got back from a highly successful Scandinavian tour with new guitarist Duke Levine joining Danny Zanes and the boys . . . Area blues great Luther "Guitar Jr." Johnson and his band just got back from Turkey where hornsman extraordinaire Gordon Beadle says, "They loved us. They really have the blues over there." That's great Gordon, but didn't we meet you in a Turkish prison? . . . The Neighborhoods, just back from a winter tour opening up for David Bowie's group Tin Machine, featuring Boston native Reeves Gabrals on growling guitar, are in the studio after spending the past year doing 220 shows! When are you guys gonna let up on us? Meanwhile, ex-Hoods drummer Mike Quaglia is ripping it up with Doghouse. Check out pedal/slide guitarist Cliff Wagner - he's outta sight!...Waitress of the Week is Mickey Mason from The Cantab Lounge because of her amazing ability to perform her duties while listening to the Mardi Gras-mania of the equally amazing Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers. Little Joe still performs his '50s hit "Peanut" at every show! And when you're at the club, say hi to owner Fitzy and notable notables Joe the Assassin, Judy, Sarge and Fergie . . . Bands/performers send us your updates. Let us tell the world about your talents!

The Doctor is In

by R.C.

There is such a thing as too much school, which most people realize by the third grade. Graeme Downes, on the other hand, never quite caught on to this fact, which explains the state of his ten year old band, the Verlaines. Dr. Downes, as he may be properly called now, recently received his Ph.D. in music. The Verlaines, on the other hand, haven't passed through high school yet.

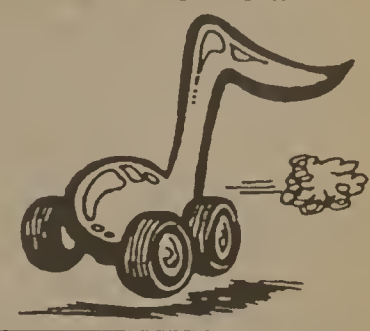
"I was compelled to [complete my studies]," says Downes. "It wasn't for financial gain, that's for sure. I've done a little lecturing and there may come a time when I do more serious teaching. For now, I'd just like to pursue the band thing."

That 'band thing' is Downes' three piece, which also includes drummer Gregg Cairns and bassist Mike Stoodley. "We were on amateur footing in terms of the amount of time we could devote to the band," he says, "but it's a full-on thing now. It's always been a pretty serious kind of hobby," a hobby that has produced five albums over twice as many years, all recorded, promoted and played live in Dunedin, New Zealand. Rather than dropping everything once they were signed to Flying Nun Records in the mid-80's, Downes pursued alternate venues such as a focus on 19th Century music, which has rubbed off in his music.

While his first effort, Hallelujah All the Way Home was medievally decorated and equally as moody, the Verlaines have come into their own with Ready to Fly, their first album for Slash Records. From the honky tonk of "See You Tomorrow," to the bracing high steps of "Such As I," to the euphoric pop of "Inside Out," the band reveal all of their colors at once, and the display is dazzling.

Downes shoos away any notions of pretension. "Whatever labels people drag up to put on the songs," he says, "we try to make it evident that there is a basic three piece guitar bass drums band in there. We're very much an amalgram of a three piece garage band meets Broadway."

The name had been picked because Downes was reading 19th Century French poetry that day by a man named Paul Verlaine. "I didn't let on what it was about to the other members and they voted it in on purely how it sounded," he says. "I liked the 19th Century connotations. Poetry from that era has quite a romantic edge to it, and so it's not totally irrelevent."



Growing into the name has taken just about as long as growing into the idea of a band. But, says Dr. Downes, he has no intention of going back to school. . . yet. "The Verlaines right now are my major concern and should remain so for a long time to come. If we have absoluely no success and everyone hates our records, we might stop. But if all goes well, we're likely to stick with it." And all the rest, as Paul Verlaine might say himself, is mere fine writing.

The Verlaines

Custom Auto Radio of Watertown

- Auto Stereos
- Auto Alarms
- Mobile Phones
- Radar Detectors
- CB Radios & Scanners

Creating and Designing Custom Auto Sound Systems at Affordable Prices

Guaranteed Lowest Prices

Blaupunkt • Rockford Fosgate • Clarion • Toshiba Pioneer
Viper Alarm • Invisabeam Alarms •

550 Arsenal St. • Watertown • 923-2122

No Appointment Necessary • Installations 'Till 9 pm

TOP 25 ALBUMS

Courtesy of Tower Records

1. U2 / Achtung Baby (Island)
2. Queen / Classic Queen (Hol)
3. Bonnie Raitt/ Luck of the Draw (Capitol)
4. Bobby McFerrin & Yo Yo Ma / Hush (Sony)
5. Boogie Down Productions / Sex & Violence (Jive)
6. David Byrne / Uh-Oh (Sire)
7. Amy Grant / Heart in Motion (A&M)
8. Mambo Kings / Soundtrack (Warner Bros.)
9. Enya / Shepherd Moons (Reprise)
10. Natalie Cole / Unforgettable (Elektra)
11. Nirvana / Nevermind (DGC)
12. Lisa Stansfield / Real Love (Arista)
13. T.L.C. / Ooooooohhh...(BMG)
14. Cowboy Junkies / Black-Eyed Man (RCA)
15. Michael Jackson / Dangerous (Epic)
16. Wayne's World/ Soundtrack (Reprise)
17. Marc Cohn / Marc Cohn (Atlantic)
18. Genesis / We Can't Dance (Atlantic)
19. Rush / Soundtrack (Reprise)
20. Red Hot Chili Peppers / Blood Sugar Sex Magik (Warner Bros.)
21. Right Said Fred / Up (Char)
22. Until The End Of The World / Soundtrack
23. Seal / Seal (Sire)
24. Church / Priest = Aura (Arista)
25. Shanice / Inner Child (Motown)

Jazz Listings

A Bar Cafe 353-0160, 111 Dartmouth St., Boston. Looking for a way to spend a relaxing Sunday night? Try A Bar, located in the former location of the Commonwealth Grille. A Bar features the Brian Wakley Band for two late night shows: at 11pm and at 12:45 am. Full menu 'till 1 am.

Black Goose 720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. Relaxing jazz that's not only great to listen to but free as well. Shows run 7-11pm.

Cricket's 720-5570, 1015 Fanueil Hall Mktpl., Boston. Enjoy the dry weather everyday inside the greenhouse and absorb the energy of the soul. Enjoy A cappella during the week and the energetic Brian Walkley Band every Thur. night.

Gallery Bar at Avenue C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Place, Boston. Their Sunday jazz series runs through this month with some great acts to hear as you stuff your face. The bar here is open 7pm to 1am Sundays and admission is $5.

Middle East Cafe 492-9181, 472 Mass. Ave., Central Square , Cambridge. Not just a restaurant. Not just rock. The Middle East has some pretty lively jazz musicians as well. Mondays have live jazz all night long and Fridays hop from 7 to 9pm.

Regattabar in the Charles Hotel. 864-1200. 1 Bennett St., Harvard Square, Cambridge. WED 1.-The Heavy Metal Horns. THUR 2 to SAT 4.-The Art Farmer Quintet featuring Clifford Jordan. TUE 7.-Flor de Cana. WED 8 to SAT 11.-Ahmad Jamal. SUN 12.-Ernestine Anderson. TUE 14.-Dominique Eade.

Sibel's 267-7346, 100 Peterborough St., Boston. Live, "cool" jazz with food and drink. Standards from the jazz and Latin repertoire. Fridays and Saturdays from 7-10pm. Casual Dress.

33 Dunster 354-0636, 33 Dunster Street, Harvard Square, Cambridge. Dunster has a crowded but relaxing jazz brunch every Sunday with the Bokley Trio. Brunch is served from 11am to 3pm.

Wally's 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Boston. Live jazz seven days a week. Sundays are big here with Cynthia Feldman from 3-7pm and Curtis Rivers from 9pm to 2am.

Willow Jazz Club 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Square, Somerville. Probably the most comprehensive jazz club in Boston. Jazz music oozes underneath the street of this joint, so if you want variety, check it out. Every Wednesday features The Fringe.

AT SOME SALONS, THE IDEA OF A GOOD HAIRCUT IS PRACTICALLY MEDIEVAL.

But not at Linear. As part of our service guarantee, you'll receive:
• A stress-relieving treatment that will penetrate and soothe your scalp, shoulders, and neck.
• At the chair you'll be offered coffee, tea, or mineral water—and it's never served in a paper cup.
• And for women, after we cut your hair, we'll touch up your makeup and help you find the right cosmetics.
If we forget anything mentioned, then the cut's on us.

LINEAR
PAREIA
Concept Affiliate Salon
548 Tremont Street
Boston
482-4676
Hair Design
Skin Care
Nails

SPRING SPECIAL
Bring in this ad through April 15 and recieve 15% off all manicures, pedicures, facials and hair coloring

MEAN, LEAN UNCLE GREEN

Uncle Green

by David Daley

Crafting pop songs that sound at once fresh and accessible is no easy trick, but one that Atlanta's Uncle Green have handled effortlessly on four previous independent records. Their major label debut, Book of Bad Thoughts (Atlantic), offers more of the same: as many harmony-laden vocals, catchy melodies and pearls of lyrical wit and wisdom that can be squeezed into old-fashioned verse-hook-chorus songmanship.

Lead singer Matt Brown writes his lyrics with a real poison pen, unafraid to cast the same critical eye on his own feelings that he uses on others. On Book Of Bad Thoughts, as on last year's college radio favorite What An Experiment His Head Was, Brown has attempted to write about characters in fictionalized situations rather than from the first-person confessional angle. The result has been a selection of highly personal songs.

"When you start writing from that point of view, it draws out something that you weren't aware you ever had," he said in a recent interview. "There's nothing too dark or too personal to write about. We're certainly not afraid to plumb the depths of ourselves."

Brown's characters are almost always wrestling with personal, human struggles to which one can easily relate. "You're Getting Into It" finds a man warning a new girlfriend about his darker side, while a remixed and reinvigorated "I Don't Want To Know About It" tells of a man unable to make the commitment, hiding from "The love that he's had/From the love that could be/From the love that keeps looking to level me." Their honest and direct style works especially well on "Blue Light," where optimism mingles with light cynicism.

Songwriting so articulate and accessible is rare indeed, so don't miss the perfect combination of Uncle Green with Matthew Sweet at Nightstage on April 2.

BARS & CLUBS

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch..

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant nad bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nites a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nites, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT LOUNGE 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Situated in the basement of the tropical dance club Zanzibar, this newcomer to the Boston bar scene is fast becoming a hit. The decor is brick with various Disney prints and the works of local artist Daniel Hejinian adorning the walls. The crowd is a mix of urban young professionals. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover..

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave. , Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites..

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. This neighborhood/college bar is quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, this place gets pretty rowdy and exciting. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies..Wed. open mike night, Thu. Jam Session, Fri Karaoke,

Sat 4th. --Madeline Hall & The Rythym Hounds --Sat 11th--Hot Cottage Band

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night..

Wed 8th.--The Radiators

•ARBUCKLE'S 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave. Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20oz. drafts for $2.00! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to crowded noisy.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. The crowd consists primarily of young professionals. The dress tends to be glitzy. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights..

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 1st.--Mr. Bungle Wed 8th.--Pearl Jam is SOLD OUT!

•BARMUDA TRIANGLE BAR 437-1011, 200 Brookline Ave., Boston. Probably the hottest new bar in Boston. It has live jazz all week long and the atmosphere is casual all the way..

•BAY TOWER ROOM 723-1666, 60 State St., Bos.. A sophisticated restaurant/bar atop 60 State St. A great place to bring the dates you want to impress. Features a panoramic view of the harbor and dancing to live music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixed with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. When everyone gets together it's an interesting mix. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays..

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm..

•BILL'S BAR , Lansdowne St., Boston. One of the hippest places around, Bill's is the epitome of a great bar-fun, loud, clean (but not meticulous), and showcases live music occasionally (on Tuesdays). A great place to get away from the dance clubs (although they're all next door). Casual and very relaxed..

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxing club to sit and enjoy excellent live jazz at its best. It's casual and unassuming and you don't have to wear a I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. There's never a cover and the atmosphere is great..

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name symbolizes Irish Catholic repression by the British. Traditional Irish music is served along with a host of Irish beers. Try the Guinness. Food is home spun. And remember, here, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! If you want to mix with an upbeat crowd of students, professionals, locals etc. and get involved in the show, this is your bag. Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. This Harvard Sq. institution caters to Harvard students and recent grads. The small outdoor patio is fun in the summer. Inside it's nearly always crowded. No cover. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price..

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Boarder Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and the guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis makes you feel like you've left Boston proper for the tropics. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop..

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights..

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese & crackers 5-8pm weekdays..

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. Everyone knows where it is, but few locals ever make it inside. The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress..

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code..

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks. Make sure to try the Navajo Posole, Chippewa Roasted Duckling or the Algonquin Braised Rabbit. No cover. Casual dress..

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm..

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sq.'s much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans..

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. A good spot to catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there..

Jazz A B A R Cafe EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

Back to the Future in Watertown

by Charles Graeber

In an era in which bars seem to resemble theme parks more than watering holes, McFly's Food and Spirits is a blast from the existentialist past. People gather and there are drinks - therefore a bar. I drink, therefore I am.

Dennis Stein

Bar Review

McFly's is a strangely non-threatening, unassuming bar with a regular crowd and a selection of pub food. The McFly regulars know a bar when they see one. They are subscribers to the true Bostonian sports bar maxim: Bird on the tube is worth a Busch in the hand.

McFly's combines the positive attributes of a neighborhood bar while avoiding the less savory "dive" aspects. The decor is a familiar sports/nautical motif, with a collection of trophies, football helmets and the prerequisite Three Stooges picture.

McFly's simple authenticity stems from its post-prohibition past as a Watertown men's club. "It was a place men used to come to hide from their wives," laughs owner Michael Burke. After purchasing McFly's in 1990, Burke has seen McFly's change from a testosterone pit into a comfortable eating and meeting spot. "For one thing" says Burke, "we had to put in windows."

Burke has also added two well lit rooms and new tables for sampling some of McFly's sandwiches, salads and appetizers. McFly' s has food specials throughout the week .

Unlike its mens-club roots, McFly's current clientele share a sports interest, rather than anatomical similarity. Regulars include both men and women, chiefly in their upper-twenties, with a smattering of old-time locals mixed in. While McFly's caters chiefly to a local Watertown crowd, everyone is welcome, and strangers will find the local feel homey and personable.

For many, McFly's is home away from home. One regular described her motives for first entering McFly's. "The Celtics and the Bruins were in the playoffs" she explained sheepishly, "and we didn't have cable . . . and then summer came, and we didn't have air conditioning."

McFly's is a place where locals come to find their friends and make new ones, to watch and discuss the game and to grab lunch or dinner. On Tuesdays, it's a place to sit with a pitcher of beer and a bottomless plate of wings. As Mike Burke puts it, "you get a little bit older; you don't want to wait in line 10 minutes for a beer." It's not Disney World and it's not Faneuil Hall. It's a pub. McFly's is located at 164 Belmont St, Watertown.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Equipped for the handicapped and are open t1:30am-2am all week..

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games..

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. Located in the Marriott Copley. Although it's a sports bar, you wouldn't know it judging from the crowd. Most nights it's a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu..

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches..

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies..

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretention or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress..
Wed 1st.--Every Wed. Is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 2t Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...
Wed 1st.--Call for listings. Sat 4th.--The Fables Sun 5th.--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 7th.--Dart League Nite every Tues.

•CLUB CHOICES 625-4975, 381 Somerville Ave., Somerville. Fun, eclectic club with a charm all of its own. .

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd, good-lookers too. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies but is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•THE COFFEE BAR
731-5070, 213 Washington St., Brookline. You won't find any booze here but you can catch a buzz. The kind that comes from the freshly ground, potent beans of quality java. Its clean, well-lit atmosphere works miracles upon any groggy soul. Coffee is served in imported Italian ceramic mugs, each hand-painted. They're open 7:30am-8pm Mon-Fri and 10am-6pm Weekends..

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Commonwealth Brewing Company's proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live bands play Sat. nights. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples..
Fri 3rd.--The Search Party Sat 4th.--Loose Caboose

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months..

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out. Or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon.
Mon 6th.--Every Mon. and Tues. the Brian Waikley Band performs three shows •DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boyiston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. hot spot fills up consistently with singles and college students, not to mention sports fans. Dark and noisy. More action as the night subsides, this is the place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress..

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please..

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear. Tue. night is Jazz night. .

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress. .

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs..

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .
Fri 3rd.--The Band That Time Forgot Sat 4th.--The Big Blues Meanies Mon 6th.-- Thur 9th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 11th.--Johnny Clyde Copeland

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Air-conditioned clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppy sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their cafe serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches. Don't forget your alligator pants..

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line..

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare that, when mixed with some beer, can be a dangerous combo if anyone is walking behind you. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment..

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .
Wed 1st.--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 5th.--Every Sun. Is DJ Chris Mon 6th.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer

BARS & CLUBS

Dennis Stein

Pay a visit to Dad's Diner, one of the Back Bay's most popular night spots.

house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code..

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy) come winter..

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress..

Fri 3rd.–Heretix (CHECK THEM OUT!!!) Sat 4th.--Neighborhoods Fri 10th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 11th.–Taylor Made

•HAMPSHIRE HOUSE 227-9600, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. An upscale piano bar with an active business clientele. The music runs the gamut from Jazz to Showtunes to Classical. No cover. The atmosphere is formal. A jacket and tie is requested of all male patrons..

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 1st.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Sun 5th.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Tue 7th.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!)

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room unless sitting in a puddle of stale beer is your idea of a good time. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu..

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womens' night club can become rowdy after hours as women party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St., Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 1st.--Crazy 8's Thur 2nd.--Austin Lounge Lizards Fri 3rd.--Boogaloo Swamis Sat 4th.--Laurie Sargent Band Sun 5th.--Blues Jam 4-8pm, African House Tue 7th.--Michael Cooney, Jeff Wilkenson Wed 8th.--Boozoo Chavis Thur 9th.--Either Orchestra Fri 10th.--Van Piano Man Walls Sat 11th.--Sleepy LaBeef Sun 12th.--Blues Jam 4-8pm, Fair Foods Benefit Mon 13th.--Cabaret du Somerville Tue 14th.--Old Time Music Night

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 1st.--The Super Trivia Quiz happens every Wed. Nite at 9pm. Call for info. Beware of Mighty Mike Flood! Thur 2nd.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 5th.–Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 6th.–Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 7th.–Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Micheal Curly, a renowned local politician who retired when fed up with Mass. politics in the early 1900's. Happy to hear there's a place where today's policy makers can still find solace. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charile Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code..

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, The Littlest Bar offers a quaint setting where the atmosphere is informal. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MACK'S 244-9881, 761 Beacon Street, Newton Center. Get away from theme bars at Mack's. The feeling of a neighborhood pub is strong here. A great place to enjoy a couple of cold draughts and some reasonably priced food. Four tv sets attract a crowd for the games and Thursdays rock with live folk music. Catch a wanna-be star on Saturdays with Karoake. No cover. Casual Dress. .

Wednesday's

T's Pub

THE PLACE TO MEET

presents

KARAOKE NIGHT

with

DAN McARTHY

D.J. Thursdays, Fridays & Saturdays

For fine tips, sandwiches and
The Best Buffalo Wings in Boston!

Mon-Sat. 11a.m.-2a.m. Sunday Noon - 2a.m.

973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 254-0807

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The crowd is connected to Campus, a predominantly gay joint. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 1st.–Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Sat 4th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday starting Feb. 26 at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. This is a place where great music rivals the great drink specials. Luncheon specials for only $2.50 can't be beat. A casual, relaxed atmosphere prevails. The entertainment covers vary..

Wed 1st.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 2nd.–Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 3rd.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 4th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 6th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 7th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude. The crowd centers around young professionals but you'll find a mix of cheese, college types and suits anyway. Proper dress with a jacket for men..

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere. You'll love the outdoor facade!.

Wed 1st.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Fri 3rd.--Hypno Love Wheel Sat 4th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 5th.--Brazilian 12-4pm Mon 6th.--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 8th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 11th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 12th.–Brazilian 12-4 pm, Noise Party 2-6pm Mon 13th.–Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new bar has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphenalia. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover.

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. .

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. You can't order cheese here but you won't have any problem spotting it. Moderate cover varies. .

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 1st.--Holly Cole Thur 2nd.--Matthew Sweet, Uncle Green (SEE THIS ISSUE'S ARTICLE IN THE MUSIC SECTION!) Fri 3rd.–Bebel Biberto Sat 4th.–Paul Kelly Sun 5th.–2 Nice Girls Tue 7th.–Ofra Haza Wed 8th.–Jon Finn Group, The Gary Schutt Band Thur 9th.--Steve Forbert Fri 10th.--Revolutionary Acts presents Heather Bishop & Connie Kaldor

•OUTER LIMITS 328-1500, 29 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02171. This new upscale Rock and Roll club has all the makings for a great place to see a show. Features live rock, progressive and heavy metal. Casual atmosphere, but be ready to rock..

Thur 2nd.--Every Thurs. is the Best In Alternative and Progressive Dance Music with WFNX DJ's Sun 5th.--Every Sun. Is the South Shore's Hottest Dance Nite

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Wed 1st.–Electrichka, Sidewalk Gallery, The Uninvited Thur 2nd.--Col. Bruce & the Aquarium Rescue Unit with special guest Derek Trucks (12 yo Guitar Prodigy) Fri 3rd.--Bop Harvey, the Toasters Sat 4th.--Green Magnet School, High Risk Group, Bob Evans Thur 9th.--WZBC 90.3 FM presents The Swans, Machines of Loving Grace Fri 10th.--Urban Blight Mon 13th.–Brand New Heavies Tue 14th.–Howard Jones, a special acoustic evening Cabaret Style

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night

MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION

FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live

ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski

FREE Ski Passes, Vacation Weekends,
and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights

FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.

Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night

AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!

See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

BARS & CLUBS

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light tare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

Thur 2nd.--Erica Wheeler (admission is $7)

•PEARL STREET 413-584-777t, 10 Pearl Street, Northampton, MA. One red-hot, happening place out in Northampton. This comfortably fun club has two floors of entertainment. Downstairs has both national and local live shows. Upstairs has great, DJ dancing (Wed.-Gay Nite with DJ Job, Thur.-Dancing with DJ Dennis R., Fri. & Sat.-Dancing with DJ Job, Sun.-House with DJ Job).

Thur 2nd,--Chucklehead, the Bombastics Thur 9th.--Boozoo Chavis Fri 10th.--Who's Kiddin' Who Sat 11th.--Roger Salloom

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-t1pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress..

Fri 3rd.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nitesi

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge and sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'ouvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 9t2 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-t767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from the upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. . Thur 2nd.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 7th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners include the Police, t0,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. A hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code. .

Wed 1st.--Call for listings. Fri 3rd.--The Lyres, Eric Martin & the Illyrians, The Varmints, The Drysdales Sat 4th.--Shy Five & the Great Escape Thur 9th.--Wheelers & Dealers Fri 10th.--Wargasm Sat 11th.--Chucklehead

• RED HAT 523-2t75, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks..

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-t200, t Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 1st.--Heavy Metal Horns Thur 2nd.--The Art Farmer Quintet featuring Clifford Jordan till April 4 Tue 7th.--Flor de Cana Wed 8th.--Ahmad Jamal till the 11th Sun 12th.--Ernestine Anderson Tue 14th.--Dominique Eade

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Be sooth ed to relaxing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8..

Wed 1st.--Call for listings.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dan cers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

Wed 1st.--Every Thurs., Fri., Sat. is The White Heat Swing Orchestra

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. He avy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Sq.'s other college pub. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. No cover. Casual dress. .

•SIT 'N BULL PUB
508-897-7232, 163 MainSt.
, Maynard,Mass. . .
Fri 3rd.--Allen Estes & Sal Baglio

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Essentially a Faneuil Hall dance club, the clientele is a mix of young, collegiate and professional Bostonians. Disco is not dead because this place is swamped with it. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts..

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm..

•T.G.I. FRIDAY'S 266-9040, 26 Exeter St., Bos.. American fare spiced up by bottle-tossing bartenders. The crowd consists of young professional, tourists and college students. Oldies and pop music. Full menu. No cover. Casual dress. Free tacos weekdays 3:30-5:30pm..

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, t0 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On a given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and sha ke so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Thur 2nd.--Shrimp Boat Fri 3rd.--Television Personalities Sun 5th.--Arts Cafe Opening Night featuring musicians Maura Lynch, Mark Berland & Cliff Wagner and poetry and comedy by Over the Edge, Cathy Salmons & Danny Solis. Cross-Cultural Jam and Slam Competition is open to audience members.

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. One of Boston's best bars. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunch and dinner are delic lous and very reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time..

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, t648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Sq.'s only offering of music is one of Boston's best restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 1st.--Robin Lane Thur 2nd.--The Allens Fri 3rd.--The Subterraneansand the Courage Brothers Sat 4th.--First Light

•TIA'S Marriot Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A favorite open air meeting place near the harbor. The crowd is young and single. It gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted..

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Mon. is Blues. Relax over a beer and get into the spirit. Don't be afraid to sway in the aisle when the music jams. It's always smoky and crowded, but Wally's has heart. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

Mon 6th.--Blues Night Mon 13th.--Blues Night

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moder ate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Cafe and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress. A must for any Reggae lover..

Sun 5th.--International Pop Night at the Arts Cafe Sun 12th.--International Pop Night at the Arts Cafe

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the danc e beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons..

Wed 1st.--Call for listings.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out what acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..

Wed 1st.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This large two story dance club is modeled after a large Caribbean dwelling complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele. Local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required..

Allston Ale House
85 Harvard Street Allston, MA 617/787-9797
Open for Lunch Daily
Special Weekly Events
Wednesday - Open Mike Night
Hosted by Alizon Lisance 8PM. - 12 PM.
Thursday- Jam Session
Hosted by Wilba Goodman & Napaj 9PM. - 1AM
Friday - KaraokeNight
Hosted by Jack McCoy
Saturday - Live Bands 9:30PM - 1:30AM
April 4 - Madeline Hall & The Rythym Hounds
April 11 - Hot Cottage Band

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

We're Looking For a Few Stars
If you're extremely hard working, possess outstanding talents and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success.

Account Executives
Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Art Director / Layout
Must be Macintosh fluent.

Interns
For the advertising and marketing department. We'll give you as much responsibility as you can handle.

Call 232-3507 for more details or FAX your resume to the Publisher at (617) 232-4305.

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
262-1120
As part of the "The Revolution of Expression," a citywide festival celebrating the cultural and creative explosion that occurred between 1911-1913, Pascal Verrot will conduct the New England Conservatory Symphony Orchestra and members of the NEC Chorus in Scriabin's Prometheus: Poem of Fire, Op. 60 in Jordan Hall at 8pm on Apr. 8. The Symphony will also perform Copland Clarinet Concerto with Kai-Yun Lu; Dukas La Peri and Ligeti Lontano. Admission is free. Call for more information.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The ICA is presenting the 11th annual Black Maria Film & Video Festival 1991. It is the largest U.S. touring festival, committed to film and video work that expands the expressive terrain of the media arts. The work is characterized by its artistically rigorous, politically incisive and socially conscious compositions. Videos will be shown in the ICA Theatre.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, Brookline
Junior Solar Sprint races take place on Apr. 4 and Apr. 11. On Apr. 11, come see the Porsche Driving School. Call for more information.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square
For the next six months, the BPL honors great American film director Frank Capra with free screenings of most of his films: Apr. 6 is The Younger Generation (1929) and Apr. 13 is Flight (1929). Films are shown in the Rabb Lecture Hall. Call 536-5400 Ext 319 for more information.

LECTURES

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
The Downtown Reading Series continues in the Wang Center's Metropolitan Room Apr. 7 with Ivan Gold and Apr. 14 with Sue Miller. A visiting writer at UMass/Boston, Gold is the author of the critically-acclaimed Sams in a Dry Season, Nickel Miseries, and Sick Friends; Miller is the author of The Good Mother, Inventing the Abbotts and Family Pictures. Both lectures start at 6pm and admission is free.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
On Apr. 5 at 3pm in Remis Auditorium, author Michael Bronski will present "Erotica and the Perfect Moment: Robert Mapplethorpe in the History of Photography and Pornography." Bronski will examine how the controversial Mapplethorpe fits into an overt, conscious history of gay male erotic photography as well as other traditions of religious and erotic art. Admission is free:

Radcliffe College
Schlesinger Library
3 James St., Cambridge
The Schlesinger Library Colloquium Series continues Apr. 2 at 4pm with visiting scholar Jo Ann Preston's lecture on "Gender Ideology: Women's Aspirations and the Feminization of School Teaching in 19th Century New England." Admission is free.

POETRY

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $2.00.
On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

ZOOS

Franklin Park Zoo
Boston
442-0991
Free Admission: Tues. 12pm-closing.
Hours: Oct.-Apr., daily 9am-3:30pm; Apr.-Oct., daily 9am-5pm.
The zoo features the African Tropical Forest, Birds' World, Outdoor Flight Cage, the Children's Zoo and Hoofs & Horns, all located in a historic park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm. Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

VACATION VALUES!

CHARTER VACATIONS

Aruba 7 Nts. from $699
Thurs., Sat., & Sun. depts. thru 5/30/92 *
Barbados 7 Nts. from $649
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92
Cancun 7 Nts. from $519
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/30/92 *
Cozumel 7 Nts. from $749
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92
Jamaica 7 Nts. from $719
Thurs., Fri., Sun., & Mon. depts. thru 5/31/92 *
Orlando 7 Nts. from $399
Includes Rental Car! Sat. depts thru 5/30/92.
Nassau 3 Nts. from $499
Friday & Monday departures thru 4/20/92.*
Puerto Plata 7 Nts. from $619
Saturday departures thru 5/30/92
St. Kitts 7 Nts. from $719
Sunday departures thru 5/31/92
St. Maarten 7 Nts. from $619
Thurs., Sat., & Sun., depts. thru 5/31/92 *

* 3, 4, 7, & 10 Night Charters Available!

NEW! Puerto Aventuras
TNT's newest destination thru 5/24/92!

HALEY'S BERMUDA

Convenient Bermuda Packages!
• All-Inclusive Packages • Family Packages
• Honeymoon • Golf • Tennis • Watersports
Palm Reef Hotel from $261
EP. Valid 3/16 - 11/15/92.
Harmony Club All Inclusive from $489
DLX. Valid 4/1 - 12/2/92.
Prices are per person, based on double occupancy.

SCHEDULED AIR

• Flexible, round trip scheduled air packages for 3 or more nights available to many of TNT's charter destinations
• All-Inclusive packages, dining plans and tours available for purchase
• Grand Cayman departures from JFK!

5 STAR TRAVEL SERVICE
164 Newbury St., Boston
536-1999

TNT TRANS NATIONAL TRAVEL
TNT CHARTER VACATIONS INCLUDE: Round trip jet transportation via Key Air, Rich Airways, Trump Airlines or similar, or scheduled air service. Airport fees and immigration fees of $18 to $33 are not included. See Tour Participant Contract in catalog. TNT NEW ENGLAND 2/92.

BAD CREDIT, NO CREDIT?

Get a "Fresh Start"...
Regardless of Credit History!
You can get your very own

VISA®

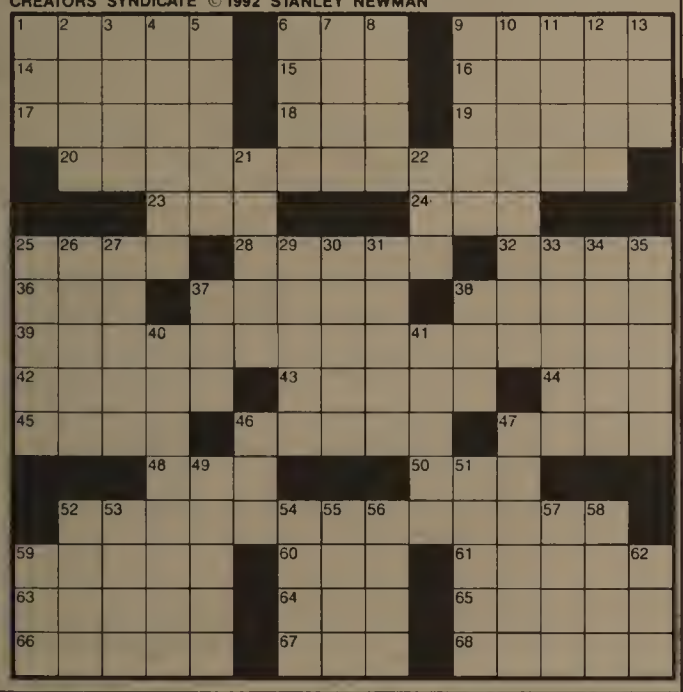
Call ACS at (617) 437-7455 for details

This is not a Secured Card

Call Today

"Fresh Start"
CREDIT & INSURANCE PROGRAM
"Fresh Start" is an agent of KEY BANK™ Thornton, CO

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS



Newsday Crossword

STOOGE SETTING by Fred Piscop
Edited by Stanley Newman

ACROSS
1 Simon and McCartney
6 Corn eater's throwaway
9 Language of the Yucatan
14 Postulate
15 Ms. Gardner
16 Occupied
17 Laugh scornfully
18 Kilmer of The Doors
19 Low-calorie
20 Poetic stooge?
23 Barnyard parent
24 It's split for soup
25 African snakes
28 "__ Entertain You"
32 "Later, dude!"
36 The Hustler prop
37 Arouse, as interest
38 Remote computer user's ritual
39 Magazine stooge?
42 Think-tank output
43 River in Pakistan
44 Indivisible
45 Jury member
46 Hiccup, e.g.
47 Lemon-lime concoctions
48 Mrs. Nixon
50 Cambridge sch.
52 Actor stooge?
59 Turning point
60 Bossy comment
61 Battery part
63 Acid type
64 Peanut product
65 From the __ (from square one)
66 Expand, in a way
67 Foxlike
68 Slalom curves

DOWN
1 Second ltr. addendum
2 Outstanding
3 Pre-owned
4 Feudal lords
5 Adobe ingredient
6 Vena __
7 Roundish
8 Cinderella scene
9 Pooh's creator
10 Disney staffer
11 Imported auto
12 Arthur of tennis
13 Badminton need
21 Historical souvenir
22 Go __ (rant)
25 __ off the old block
26 Leather variety
27 Martinique volcano
29 Rig out
30 __ profit (make money)
31 Blends
33 ". . . __ cigar is a smoke"
34 Chinatown screenwriter Robert
35 Queen __ lace
37 IOU relatives
38 Freight amts.
40 Radio plug-in 41 Scrumptious
46 Cardinal's insignia
47 Makes amends
49 Playwright Chekhov
51 Public persona
52 Guitarist Hendrix
53 Roman poet
54 Big name in cookies
55 Make muddy
56 Poly preceder
57 Spoils
58 __ out (barely beat)
59 Ben, to Hoss
62 Aurora's counterpart

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN

FREE crossword-book catalog. Call toll-free: 1 (800) 659-9673, ext. 15.
Stumped? Get help! Call 1-900-646-8282. Cost is 95 cents per minute.

Fax or mail your own Impersonals, we'll pick the top five from each issue and award a pair of tickets to Catch a Rising Star comedy club to each winner. Send your Impersonals to The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Brookline, MA 02146 or FAX it to us at: 232-4305. They're Free!

To the Saab driving slime:
I am so glad that you felt the need to come home for a week and make my life a living hell. SO why don't you just go back to that sheep-herding, bee-keeping state of yours? Snuzie.
P.S. HAPPY SPRING

Monster woman: I just want to set one thing straight, I did not commit any adulteress acts in your vestibule of love, and if I did, well hey, yah know. If you need any pointers...

"Sweetheart you are so cruel". Remember, A woman needs a man like a fish needs a bicycle, and if you don't believe me and need some career motivation watch Kramer vs. Kramer. .s. no more brunette children- get psyched.

To the roommate I no longer like:
I would call you a penny-pincher, but with all the weight you've gained you're probably pinching fat instead. Go to the gym and climb some more stairs. No one gives a crap how your day was. Really.

Kathy,
I wasn't teaching you a billiard trick, I was watching your breasts as you put your elbows behind your back. Next time you insist on visiting my house at 2:00 am, please be sober.
Your future partner in crime.

SQ'ers
Hey you slimeballs left us here to rot. We'll make you pay if you ever show up here again. We want outta this land of the living dead.
-The Zombietown Survivors

MJS—
Will you hurry up and graduate? I can't stand your 9:00 classes anymore. I think Burger King is looking for someone to fry onion rings— maybe you should apply.

To the stoned restaurant owner who acts like a slavedriver:
Go smoke another joint. We might be more inclined to work if we earned more than half minimum wage!

Tank McNamara presents The First Annual Picc-Throwing Contest at Amsterdam's. Prizes will be awarded for longest throw and hardest slam. Crowd expected, so reservations are suggested. Proceeds go to the transvestites/transexuals association of Boston.

Dear Jackie,
Thanks for being such a good friend and I hope you find what you're looking for.
Love, Johnny Brick

To the Gunslinger and the Cornslinger,
You guys want to go where? Are you completely insane? Of course you are. Why don't you fools vacation somewhere safer like Beirut!
Dave

To our favorite boys,
Imagine your dismay that all the girls you've slept with are becoming friends with each other. Nervous? The other women

Mr. Bridgman,
You're reading this message, but the Superjocks are wondering: How does one manage to fit their head inside of their turtleneck to vomit and still hold their head high while being kicked out of Dunsters? Meow!

Yo, Arian Wanker: You were really out of control the other night. Luckily, I have selective amnesia or my feelings would really be hurt.
Pushy.

Hey Folks,
Johnny Brick and the Rockers are going into the studio to cut an album. Send donations to the Big Guy at 44 Linden St., Allston MA 021`34

To the smelly old hag who cut me in line at Star Market:
Next tiine,It's hasta la vista cottonhead.

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Who do you admire most and why?"

Armen, 27, Pasadena, CA
"My brother in-law, Art. He's very diversified and always goes out of his way to make his family happy."

Maureen, 44, Boston
"My office manager Lee Tibbets because she is very patient nice person to work for."

Darrell, 38, Boston
"I admire Magic Johnson for the way he has publicly handled his bout with the HIV virus."

Teresa, 32, Dorchester
"Mother Teresa for her unselfish life of helping unlortunate people in the world."

Patrick, 37,
Rensselaer Falls, NY
"I admire my wife because she is a great person and I love her."

Carol, 25, Medford
"Mozart because he was constantly working on music and totally dedicated to his art."

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

Run Dates:
From: _____
To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+ ..
= Total Amount:	$ ..

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Apartments

FT. MEYER FLA Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., balcony., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-30641

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

WATERTOWN. Very nice two Bdrm. In a two family house. Clean attic & basement for storage. Front & back porches, yard,parking. Avail immed. Call Bob 237-t992

Architects

CONYNGHAM ASSOCIATES ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN Residential and Commercial, renovations, new construction, additions, kitchens, bathrooms. CAD & 3D visualization. 6t7-627-7821

Automobiles

81 FORD MUSTANG. Good condition.AM/FM. 87k. Grey ext. Red int. New tires $1,000. or best offer. Basil 332-03t4

Bus. Opportunities

CALLING OPPURTUNITY SEEKERS! Earn Immediate Income. For complete information send $6 to U.P. Enterprises. #7 Monza Road.Nashua N.H. 03060

Carpentry

BARGAIN HANDYMAN. Carpentry, tile, install and repair. Gutter work. Painting. Low rates. Insured. 277-2671

Cellular Phones

CELLULAR PHONES FREE. Also agent needed. Ground floor opportunity. Call now 499-7922 24 hrs.

Child Care

DEPENDABLE, confident & caring college student available to baby sit in Boston area. Evenings are more flexible. Years of prior experience and a reasonable rate. If interested call Suzanne at 352-911t.

Carpet Repair

CARPET REPAIRS, Installation,restretch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-880t

Cleaning

HOUSECLEANING AND PAINTING Responsible, reliable. Reasonable rates. Lots of references. Ellen, 244-5320

HOUSECLEANING Excellent cleaning for home/office. Laundry cleaned & pressed. Good references. Free estimates. Call Mary or Swaylee, leave message 617-628-0957

Clothing/Tailoring

THE ALTER EGO Clothing Alterations. reconstruction and Repair. You name it- we alter it Pickup and delivery. Student and senior citizen rates. Unique custom made pillows. Call 332-0t60.

$$$ FOR YOUR WARDROBE! Designer and better quality contemporary clothes in spectacular condition for women and men. Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE t386B Beacon, Brookline. t1am-6pm daily. 739-3399

AT THE ACORN SHOP consignment shop, 8 Muzzey St., Lexington, you'll find labels like Ralph Lauren, Calvin Klein and Liz Claiborne at a fraction of their retail price. All Jeans only $9.95. We're now accepting your top quality spring fashions by appointment. Open Tue-Sat. 861-9646

Computer Svcs

IBM OR COMPATIBLE USERS. Hardware , software, evaluation, installation, and-training. Database setup. Reasonable rates. Nina, 617-926-8t63

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Individual & group counselling for men & women interested in discussing their questions & concerns about sexual identity/preference Al Gentile, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

EXPEDITE YOUR RECOVERY Incorporating a unique blend of therapy and healing, in an atmosphere of loving humor and acceptance; a nationally known therapist and healer will expedite your emotional and physical recovery from abuse, tears, pain, and traumas. Yulia, 617-73t-9529

Credit Svcs

GET A VISA AND CORRECT BAD CREDIT. Solve debt problems. Late payments , charge-offs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.teatured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639

Entertainment

BOSTON'S BEST ENTERTAINMENT "Grams To Go" The Stripper (Male/Female), Bellydancers, Huladancers, Impersonators, Balloons & Tunes,(Great Costumes), Disc Jockeys, Fun & Affordable. 617 354-5000 M/c Visa Disc Amex

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744 4094

For Sale

Full Length ranch mink 1 yr old,size 8-10. Perfect condition Kakas Furs appraised at $7,000. Will Negoc. Contact Susan at 536-8668.

Help Wanted

EARN UP TO $339.84/WEEK assembling our products at home. Amazing recorded message reveals details.Call today 6t7-446-7682 (Ext.A02)

"$800 WEEKLY POSSIBLE! Working at Home! 37 Different Opportunities. Rush $1 and self-addressed stamped envelope to: HARVEY COUNCIL A t25 BLAKE ST. HYDE PARK, MA 02136

Health Services

MASSAGE THERAPY Swedish, deep tissue, sports massage trigger points. Past clientele: Les Mis, Cats, Heartstrings, and Boston Ballet. $50 in $60 out. HIV $30. Gift certificates available. Feel less tired, have more energy. Ask me about KM. Tim Medas 522-0626

Instruction

LSAT/Anyone can get a top LSAT score if they prepare correctly. An attorney who scored in the 99th percentile will show you how. Highly successful program using one-on-one coaching. For details contact George Alex 617-266-9720

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-717t

Motorcycles

83 Yamaha XT 550 Motorcycle. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Moving

SCOTT'S MOVING & VAN SERVICE. Ideal for students. Local or long distance. Low $30 minimum first hour. 666-581 8

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

Miscellaneous

DISCREET PHOTOGRAPHER needs male models above average looks. Physique no hassles. Photo deatils to P.O. Box 372 Boston Ma 021t8

DON'T BE SHY Discreet photographer needs one attractive woman to help create intimate but tasteful black and white photographs. No experience necessary. No sleaze. Any skin color. For more info write P.O. Box 1447 Back Bay Annex, Boston, MA 02117. Try it.

Pers Protection

STOP VIOLENT ATTACKS. Strongest handheld protection. Better than mace. Only $12.95. Send for fast free information.LAR Investment 304 Newbury. #262. Boston

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

Skin Care

COMMON SENSE SKIN CARE. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

COMMON SENSE SKIN CARE. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

COMMON SENSE SKIN CARE. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

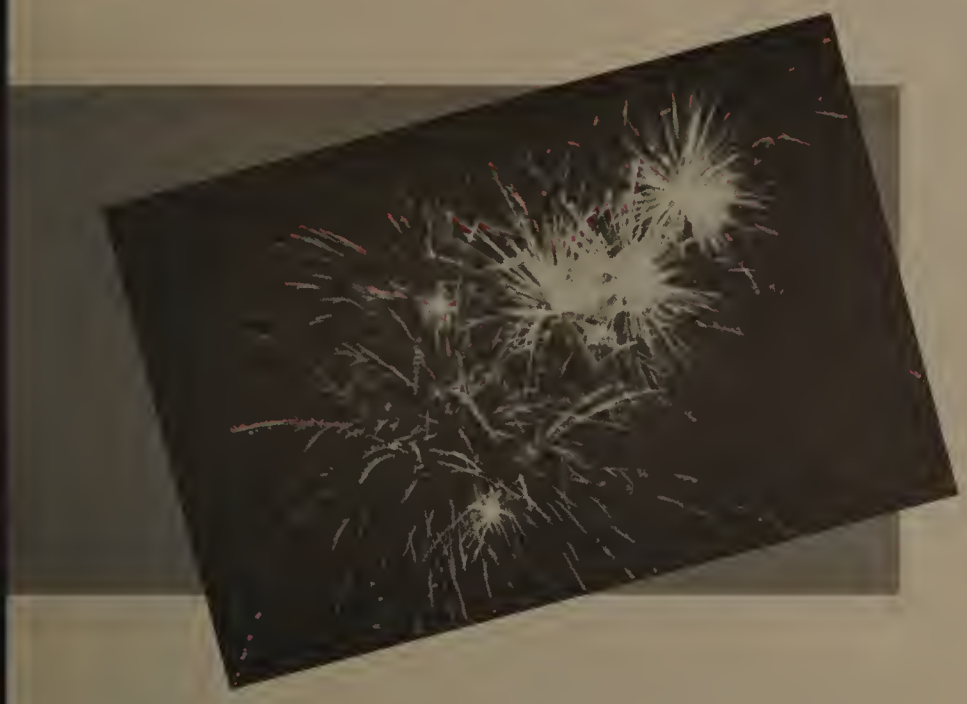
WITH THE BEST CLASSIFIED AD PRICES IN TOWN, PEOPLE CAN AFFORD ANOTHER OPTION

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

CLASSIFIEDS.

CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

232-3705



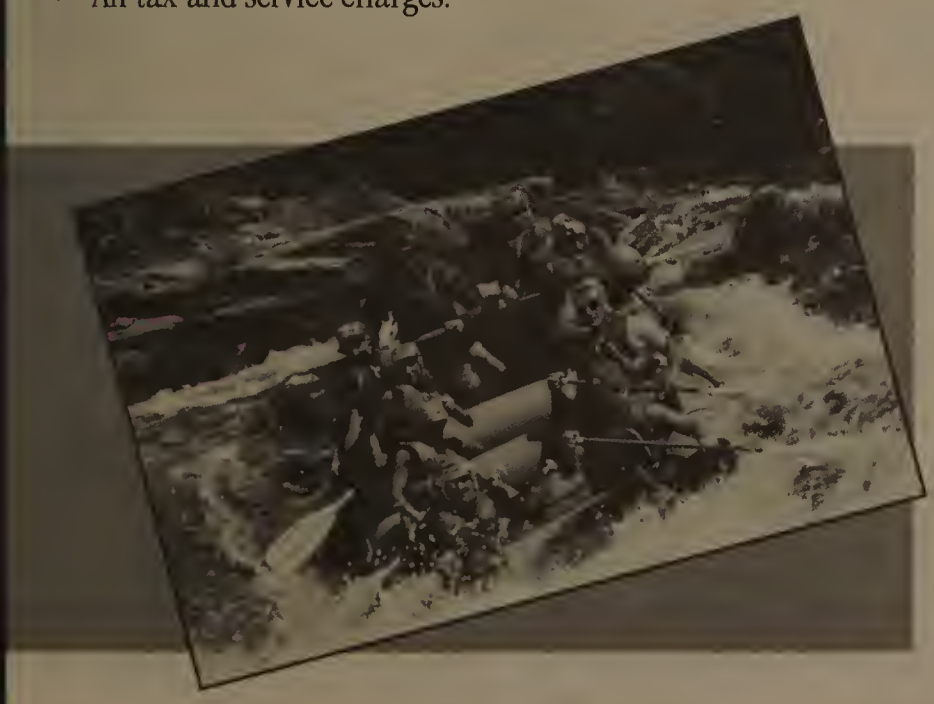
The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure

In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

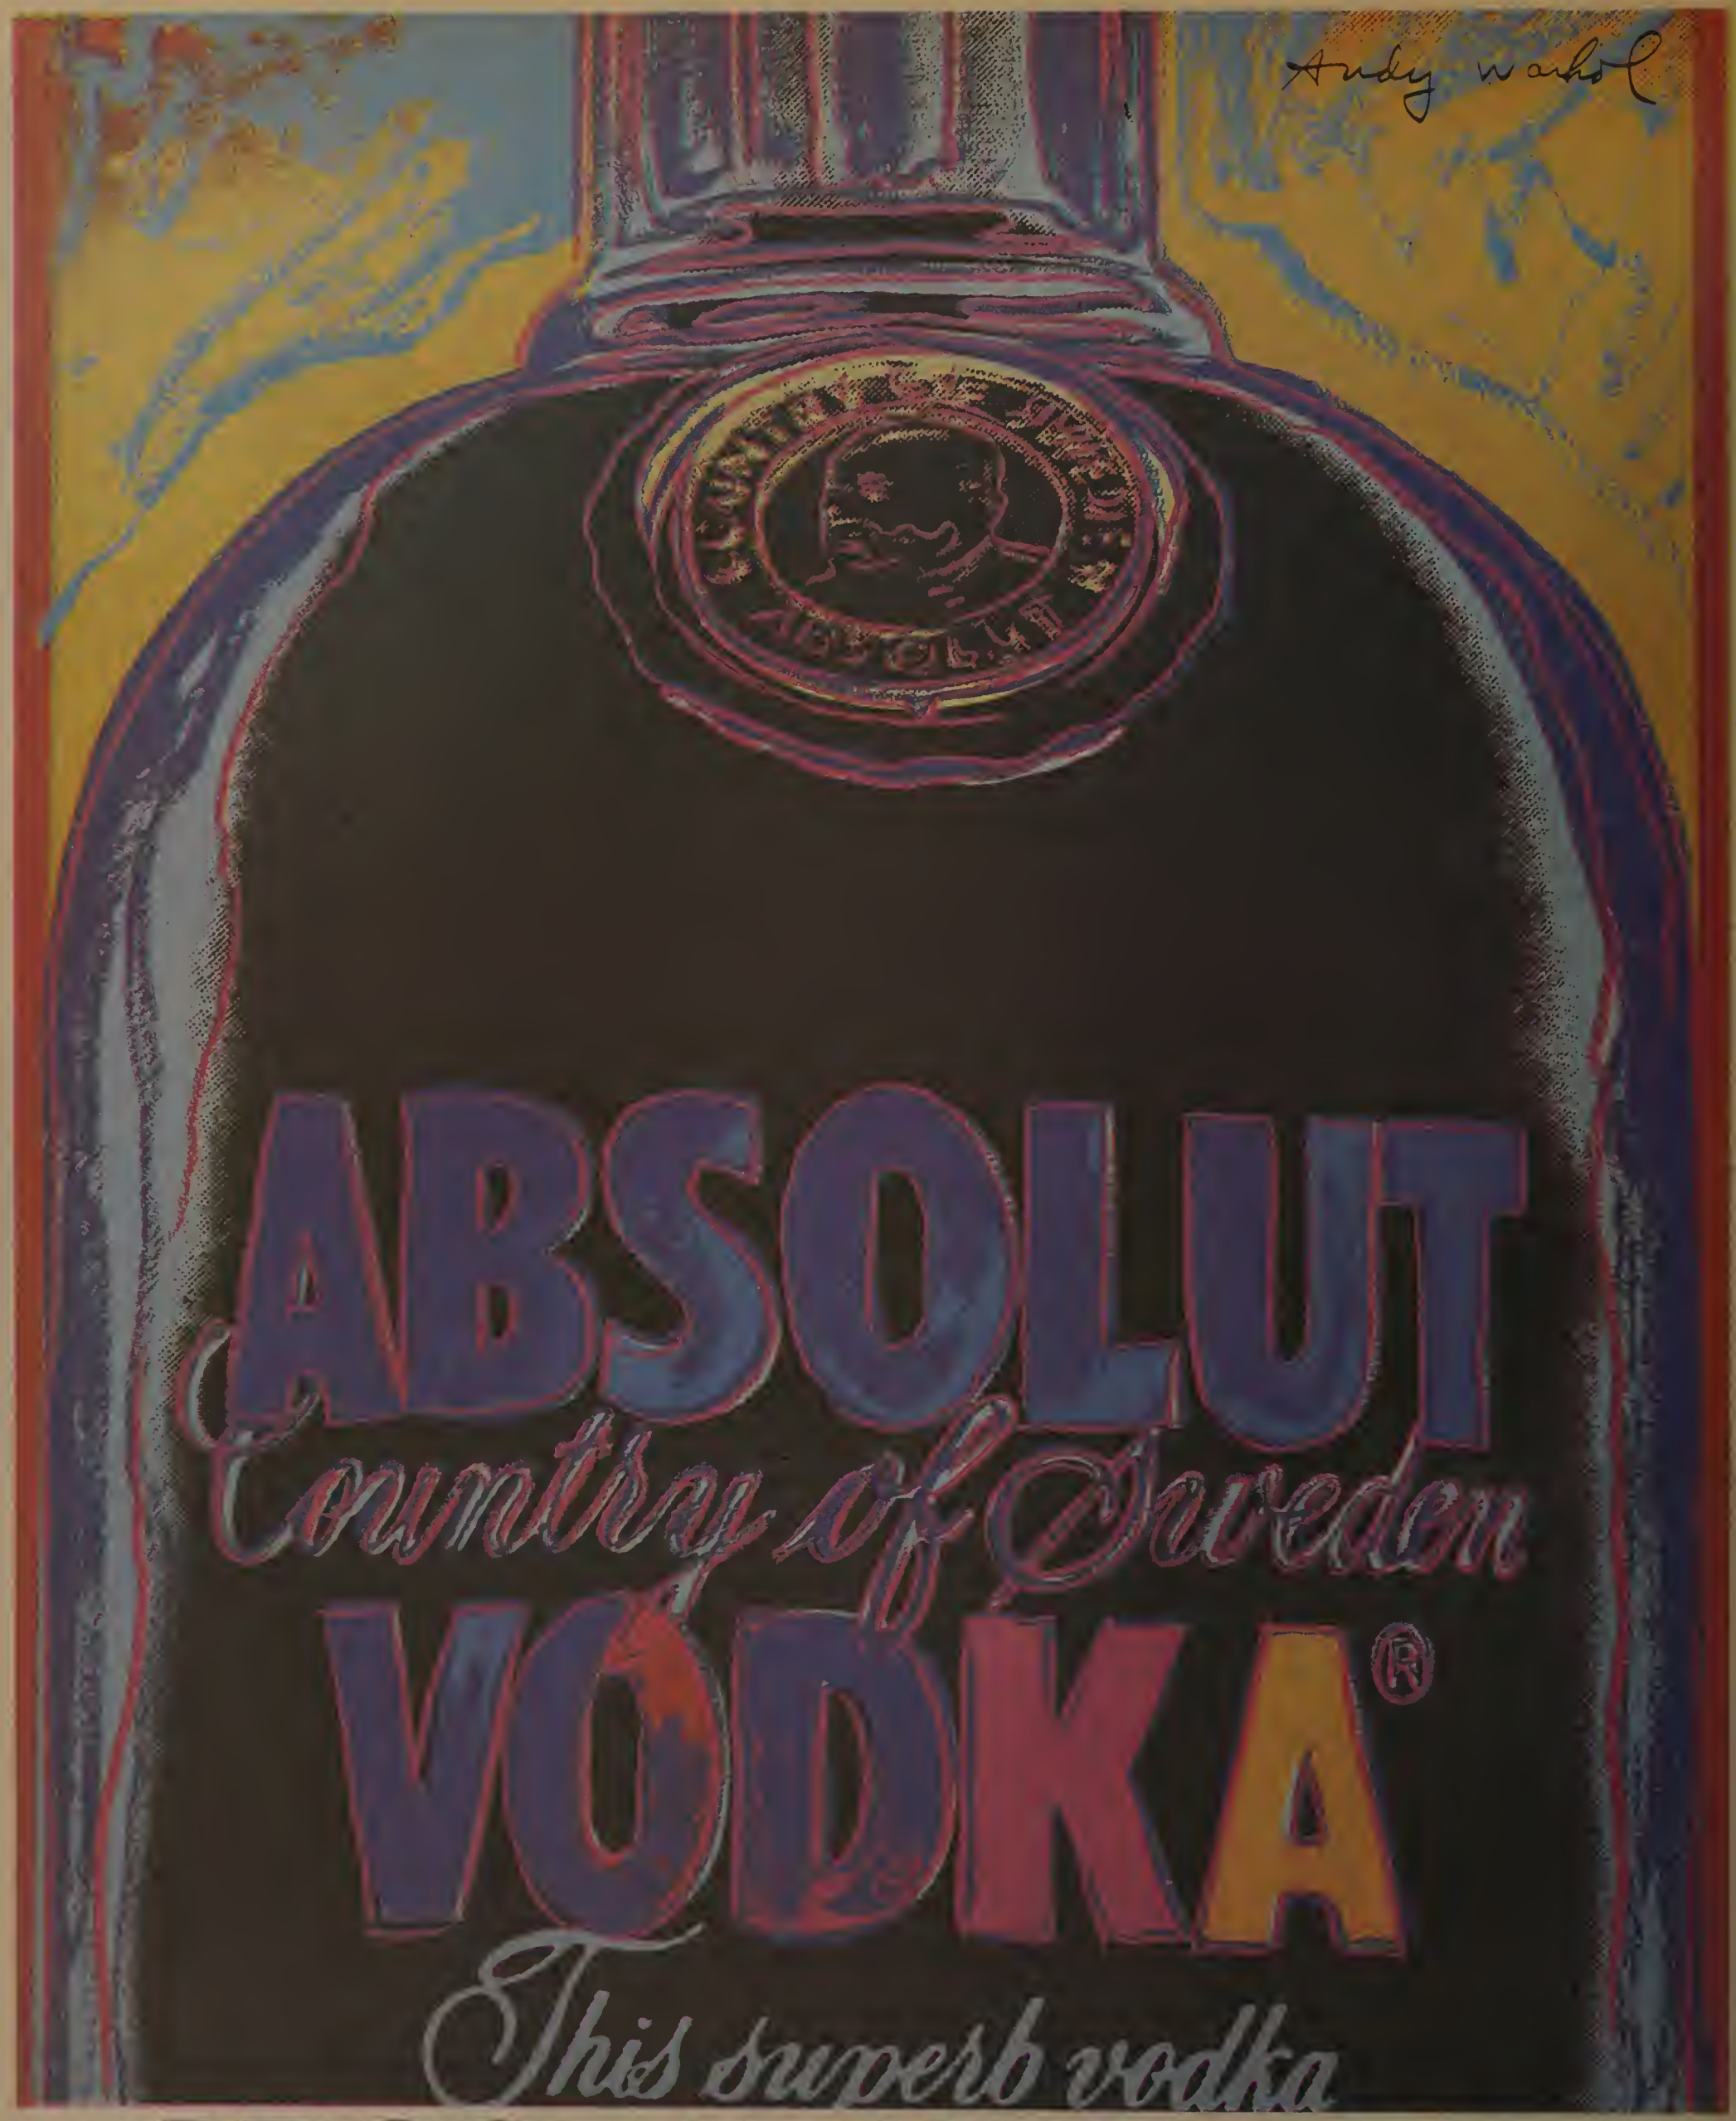
The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures



Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00

Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).
Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

TARGET
Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

April 15, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

Only for the Weekend. . . Six Short Local Jaunts

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Bride

The long-searching expedition through wedding dress possibilities might just take a felicitous shortcut back to the drawing boards - specifically to the designing and sewing skills of Kate of Sew It All. Using her method, you can work from a picture (actual or mental) or coalesce what may have become a white avalanche of satin and lace ideas gathered from trying on ready-made dresses into the specifics that are idiosyncratically perfect for you. Kate tends to specialize in unusual styles, often less-than-gigantic designs. One bride wanted a tight-fitting, mini-of-a-wedding dress, made of re-embroidered lace with a plunging back; another wanted a two-piece, Givenchy-inspired suit, definitely more romantic and fancy than an ordinary suit, yet far more discreet than some high-calorie bridal confections. Moreover, she commissioned Kate to replicate (in colors that subtly moved through the spectrum) her own dress for the bridesmaids, so that each one had a dress in her own shade. Another bride wanted a modified flapperish look for her maidens. Kate will help the bride find the fabric - always natural ones, like peau de soie, silk taffeta, silk broadcloth, voile, cotton, and even linen.

Sew It All
492-2970

Row versus Wear

You will put yourself in an airy, light-speckled mind of shells, sculls and rowing when you enter this store. True, the owner, Peter Kermond has been a World Champion Rower for the U.S. National Team and yes, there are inverted rowing shells on the ceiling bringing the outdoor-theme indoors. Even rowing shirts - the booty of Peter's victories - adorn the walls. But the clothing here is not all rowing-specific sports attire, though that stonewashed, true-blue quality pervades even such items as the easy cotton or seersucker shifts, the limber, roomy shirts and the Agnelli denims. The intended audience (how could it not be athletic) is a bit post-college and pulling its own oar (so to speak) in life. Two-button henleys, garment-dyed shirts and tights in descending order of long, Capri, and bike-length sit side by side with billowy chiffon pants and some sexy little dresses. In the more specific sports mode, you'll find rowing jackets, racer and trainer shorts and international tank tops representing the rowing powers of Australia, Germany and Great Britain. Gore-tex shows its crinkly, rugged face in the modest top seller; the USA rowing hat with an embroidered oar on the back. They've also got a catalog.

Row Works Clothing Co.
1736 Massachusetts Ave.
Cambridge
354-1604

Swimming In Invisible Water

Trager, a kind of bodywork named after Milton Trager, M.D., is a practice which occupies a space somewhere between massage (because it occurs on a table and involves touch), chiropractic exercises (only roughly, by dint of addressing itself, at times, to the ills and injuries of the body) and Alexander Technique (which deals with posture and motion). A Trager session - marvelously easy, loose and light - begins as the client walks back and forth, reporting live on the ways and constraints of his or her own body. Trager-worker Martin Anderson asks questions and suggests ways the vast democracy of bodily space might be used in a more generous and comfortable way. (It's amazing how the clothespin of tension can pinch one in.) On the table, he first invites you to feel your "weights." He then speaks with a stream of images and metaphors that he hopes to embed as messages for your future daily use ("This wonderful tree, your back...the rivers of your legs"). Anderson uses rhythmic rocking motions and moves your body in ways that illustrate and enact the ease and looseness of which the body is capable of almost effortlessly experiencing. The spirit that gets transmitted in a session is one of sensitivity and safety, and the lightness (or goal) floats in the air between client and Tragerist. A two-hour session costs $60; a schedule of visits is recommended.

Trager Bodywork
Martin R. Anderson Certified Practitioner
738-0091

Mopsy Strange Kennedy is a freelance writer. She ~~likes~~ loves to receive lots of mail!
Please send all correspondence to:
The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

CONTENTS

April 15, 1992

Features

6

Six Short Spring Jaunts

Whether you're itching to take off for a day or a weekend, we've got the escapes for you. Travel to Booth Bay Harbor , visit Newport or simply take in the peace of the White Mountains of New Hampshire. Plunge into the uncrowded world of spring travel that needs only your sense of adventure to begin. by Leslie Ross

7

Wheeling Around on Pedal Power

As both a sport and an environmentally sound alternative to driving, biking has become the choice mode of transportation for many people. Enjoy the first of a two part series focusing on that ageless two wheeled wonder - the bicycle. We invite you to explore the many ways to select, buy and ride a bike. by Abby Ellin & Tobin Streett

8

Father Guido Sarducci Confesses

After recent roles in New York Stories, Tucker and The Godfather III, the most famous chain-smoking priest in the world reveals that his talents run deeper than merely exposing religious absurdities. Read his opinion on the Catholic church, Saturday Night Live and his surfacing writing career.

by Tobin Streett

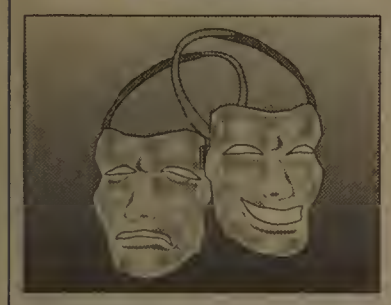
Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Comedy
- Interview: Father Guido Sarducci 8
- Comedy Listings 8

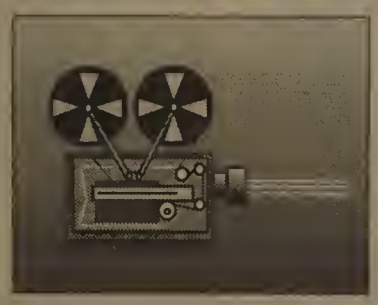
Nancy Knows 9
Movies
- Review: Deep Cover 10
- Review: FernGully 11
- Video Review 12

Arts
- Review: Modern Montage at the ICA 14
- Play Review: The Cocktail Hour 15
- Arts Calendar 16



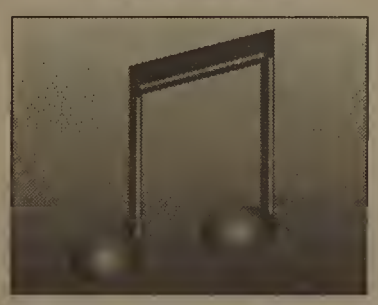
Books
- Review: Back in the Blue House 15

Dining
- Budget Bites: The Original Sports Saloon 18
- The Moveable Feast: Cafe Brazil 19
- Appeteasers 22
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Matching Food and Wine 23
- Brunch Board 24
- Chef of the Month 25
- Restaurant Listings 26



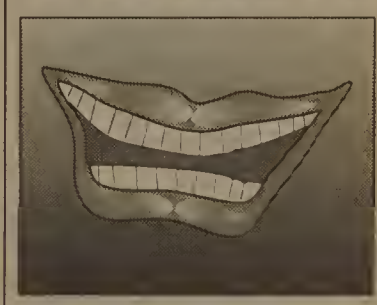
The Leisure Study 20
Music
- Interview: A.G. and Showbiz 28
- Review: A Place for Jazz 29
- Wachtelligence 30

Bar & Club Listings 31
- Boston's Great Patio Bars 33



Free Boston! 36
Improper Impersonals 37
Crossword 37

PAGE 14



PAGE 10

PAGE 29

PAGE 18

PAGE 8

S U B S C R I B E A N D S A V E 2 0 %

photo by Rachel Power

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new guide to Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Acting Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
NANCY BIRNBAUM, JASON ALEXANDER
A.J. WACHTEL, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
AL STANKUS, PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Theater Critics
NANCY LEONARD, RACHEL STERN

Contributing Writers
LESLIE ROSS, ABBY ELLIN
TIMOTHY S. LEMIRE
PRITHA RAYSIRCAR, LISA M. BONNELL
JOHN GALLIGAN, JON HABER
SHAWN GOODWIN, STEPHEN PROVIZER

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS
JACKIE BAYNE

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
ADAM KAYTES

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO
DAVENPORT CROCKER
WENDY SEMONIAN

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Consultant
JOE PERSON

Intern Coordinator
ERICA CANTLEY

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE
KATHY MATHESON
ED STAUNTON, LISA DEATS

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
JUST FOR FUN OF NEWBURY STREET
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS
All schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of schedules and press releases for all categories of events in and around Boston. To reach The Improper Bostonian, please mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for confirmation. Listings must be received no later than one week prior to release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 10
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by by Improper Publications Inc., 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

On the Cover

Photographer: Sandra Kimball
Stylist: Anne Bugatch / Ennis
Model: Danielle Flagherty
Ford Model Mgmt.
ESCADA Boutique
The Heritage On The Garden
ESCADA Boutique
The Atrium / Chestnut Hill

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertiser's businesses.

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT. WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church

581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

AROUND TOWN

Julie Harris, winner of five Tony awards, stars in the hit London and Broadway comedy play, Lettice & Lovage at the Shubert Theatre from April 28 to May 10. Written by Peter Schaffer and directed by Michael Blakemore, Lettice & Lovage tells the tale of an unstoppably free-spirited British tour guide who embellishes history when she finds it too dull. As the infamous truth-stretcher, Harris will warm your heart and leave you smiling for days. Ticket prices range from $22.50 to $42.50 and are available through the mail or by visiting the Shubert Theatre box office at 265 Tremont Street. Call 1-800-233-3123 for more information.

Overshadowed by the Walden Woods Project was an equally important benefit for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The TomorrowNite Benefit, held at The Avalon club on Friday night, had success written all over it. In addition to a gathering of local celebrities(including Joe Ayoub Jr., Margie Reedy, Debby Enblom and Paul Ayoub - pictured above), Shirley Alston Reeves of the Shirelles performed Motown classics to a packed gathering. People danced, ate and partied well into the night. Children from all over the world, including New England, receive the benefits of this great organization. Call 901-522-9733 for more information on this great cause.

The world famous Michael Moschen - movement artist, sculptor in motion and juggler extraordinaire - brings his gravity-defying show of tricks to the Emerson Majestic Theatre on April 30 through May 2. Coming to town courtesy of Dance Umbrella, Moschen promises to delight and entertain audiences with amazing feats of balancing and showmanship. Moschen's credits include David Letterman, Sesame Street and Great Performances. Tickets for the show are available by calling Ticketpro at 1-800-828-7080. Prices are $14, $18 and $22.

Promising to be "a musical event of global proportions," the National Earth Day '92 Sound Action Concert at Foxboro Stadium on Saturday, April 25 will bring together some of the biggest names in rock history past and present. With a lineup including Midnight Oil (pictured above), the Steve Miller Band, Youssou N'Dour, the Kinks and a collaboration of Joan Baez, the Indigo Girls, Mary Chapin-Carpenter and Rosanne Cash, this festival brings environmental and musical consciousness to an equal state of understanding. Call TicketMaster at 931-2000. The MTBA will run special trains to and from the Stadium. Call (617) 722-3200 for more info.

It's not a tribute to Bob Dylan, but His Mumbleness is certainly welcome to come if he wants. No, Tangled Up in Blue is a performance of contemporary dance by Boston choreographer Deborah Wolf's company Wolfworks. The presentation is a collection of dances created from 1981-1992, and includes a series of "twisted" tangos to the lush music of Astor Piazzolla as well as a humorous look at a classic couple, set to the Big Band music of Duke Ellington and Jimmy Lunceford. Tangled Up in Blue can be seen May 1-3 at Boston University's Sargent Dance Theatre, but be careful not to get tangled up in your shoelaces on your way over. Call 625-2944 for more information.

Last Saturday, Don Henley, Ed Begley Jr. and Harry Hamlin brought a message to Boston with a press conference at the Hard Rock Cafe to announce the Walden Tree Project. Founded by Henley, who said "Emerson and Thoreau really had a profound effect on me," the project offers individuals a chance to help save the planet. "I'm a big believer in starting at the beginning" said Henley. "We preserve Walden Woods for the same reasons that we preserve Gettysburg: It's a part of our heritage." The three celebs announced the kickoff of the Walk for Walden Woods which occurred on Sunday to raise money for the preservation of Walden Woods. Help the cause throughout April by ordering a red maple grown from the seed of a Walden Woods tree. You'll receive a certificate of authenticity from Don himself. Call 1-800-766-1055 to order your tree and save a part of America.

FEATURES

Only for the Weekend

SIX SHORT SPRING JAUNTS

by Leslie Ross

At this time of year, appreciating certain tourist sights may mean missing a few "Closed for the Season" attractions, but it also means missing the crowds between you and the ticket office. Day trips have become ever so popular in a season in which money is tight and free time an endangered species. But for the day tripper, it's a great way to make use of that dusty luggage sitting in the attic. All it takes is a tank of gas, a day (or two) of time and a quest for adventure. Spring may be the perfect time to explore some of the most popular New England attractions, or gear up your sense of adventure and walk the unbeaten track. Here are a few ideas:

Witch Town

Take off for Salem, Massachusetts. 1992 marks the 300th anniversary of Salem's infamous witch hunt, so what better time to get on your broomstick and take it in? The Witch Museum is open year-round, and you can also visit the home of one of the most infamous figures in witch-hunt history: Judge Corwin. Salem is also worth a visit for the National Maritime Historic Site, featuring the Custom House which was built to monitor the city's busy port. The Peabody museums are worth a wander-round as well, showing remnants from Salem's hey-day as a port - including ship models, figureheads and a large collection of Asian art that was imported back on returning ships.

Head For The Mountains

Sanctify yourself amongst the beautiful White Mountains of New Hampshire. Up north, the summer season doesn't begin until after Memorial Day, but spring is still a great season to enjoy the quiet majesty of the mountains. The journey to the great hills can be gratifying in and of itself. A great way to explore nature from the comfort of your car is to travel through Franconia Notch and up Route 3 (from 93), which gives you a glimpse of New Hampshire's famous Great Stone Face: the "Old Man of the Mountains," a rocky formation resembling a man's profile. Another natural wonder is the Basin (a whirlpool), also an easy stop along the drive.

Over The Hills and Through The Trails To Factory Outlets We Go

If shopping is a natural part of your vacation, a stop in North Conway will provide you with an opportunity to peruse the many factory outlet shops. After a day of revolving doors and tired arms, you'll be ready to relax and enjoy a fine meal in a local restaurant. Should you choose to spend the night, bed and breakfasts abound, although some remain closed until June. Of the hotels open year-round, the beautiful new White Mountain Inn is set in acres of woodland and offers a magnificent welcome. The view and the meals from the elegant dining room are both truly inspiring.

Mt. Washington Valley Chamber of Commerce

Covered bridges abound in Mt. Washington Valley, including the famous Jackson Covered Bridge, once dubbed "the kissing bridge" for all the honeymooners who'd go there for a romantic moment.

Plymouth Area Chamber of Commerce

A statue of Massasoit, the great chief of the Wampanoag Indians, overlooks Plymouth Rock

A Piece of The Rock

For those with interstate phobia, take a pilgrimage to Plymouth, where you can visit the famous Plymouth rock, traditionally recognized as the landing place of the Pilgrims in 1620. Nearby, a replica of the Mayflower is open for inspection. But best of all is the trip through time at Plymouth Plantation, where actors portray the characters of the original residents of Plymouth, twanging 17th century accents and all. These people have done copious research on their characters, which means that a conversation with Myles Standish, Priscilla Alden or any of the other Pilgrims can be like a history lecture. While staying in character, they'll answer questions about the plantation, their own life stories, or, if the person they're portraying was a scholar, you may hear the political thought of the day. (Ask Pilgrim Myles Standish his view on Roman Catholicism and his answer will make you sit back and smile.)

The Beauty of Newport

Another great place to visit is beautiful Newport, Rhode Island. While the summer months see Newport bustling (July's Music Festival and Tennis Week, and the famous Newport Jazz festival in August), the spring months offer a quieter scene during which to explore the impressive Newport mansions. A legacy from Newport's history as a retreat for the rich and famous, the mansions were originally summer "cottages" for people whose idea of roughing it seem to have been a lot like most people's idea of a weekend at the Ritz. Though the tourist season hasn't officially begun, the mansions are open on weekends. The three most famous mansions are open through the week as well - the gorgeous Breakers & Marble House, both built for members of the Vanderbilt family, and the most breathtaking mansion of all - Rosecliff. This beautiful home was built for Mrs. Herman Olricks in 1902 and used for the 1974 motion picture The Great Gatsby. The mansions are ornate and elegant, decorated with the finest materials and craftmanship available at the turn of the century. Building the mansions cost their owners a pretty penny, but visiting them will be a bargain for you, as combination tickets are available, giving a discount if you see more than one property. For more information on visiting Newport, including accommodations, you can call the Newport Chamber of Commerce at 401/847-1600.

Boothbay Harbor has One Hot Fisherman's Festival

If you're already living the millionaire life-style, though, you may be more interested in experiencing the fisherman's way of life. It can be glimpsed at the 19th annual Fisherman's Festival in Boothbay Harbor, Maine. The festival, held April 24, 25, and 26, offers such events as the Shrimp Princess Pageant, a Trap-Hauling Competition, and a Cod-fish Relay race, in which contestants, clad in thigh-high fishing boots, run down the street passing slippery cod-fish to their teammates. On the 26th, a "Blessing of the Boats" service for the fishing fleet will be held. The town's ministers sprinkle them with holy water as they pass the main pier. In the meanwhile, a gong sounds in mournful commemoration as the names of area fisherman lost at sea - from the 1800's to the present - are read aloud. The afternoon holds the Fisherman's Tall Tale Contest held at a local watering hole. For further details, contact the Boothbay Chamber of Commerce at 207/633-2353. In the meantime, pack your bags and hedge your bets on one of the best low-cost vacations around: A day trip in New England. ❑

WHEELING AROUND

The world of biking, long considered a secondary sport, is wheeling its way onto the pages of sports, health, environmental and even medical journals. It is both a sport and a healthy alternative to more traditional forms of transportation. With springtime in the air, we explore the ways to select, buy and ride a bike.

by Abby Ellin & Tobin Streett

Imagine a life with no parking worries. No meter maid hassles. No double parking. No more strangers pushing and shoving you on the T. Just you, your bike and the road. It's much less stressful, saves money and will whip you into shape in no time. Doesn't sound too bad, does it?

Indeed, it seems that more and more people are trading their seat belts for money belts and jutting around town on a bicycle. As Mira Brown, an owner of the Broadway Bicycle School in Central Square says: "I use my bicycle to get to work every day. I couldn't possibly own a car - it's almost impossible to find a parking spot and, of course, a bike is much less harmful to the environment."

Stefan Treue, of the Boston Area Bike Coalition (an organization dedicated to promoting recreational and commuter bike use) agrees. "It's a clean way of getting from point A to point B, it's a healthy way of exercise . . . and sometimes it's faster."

Jackie Bayne

One secret to keeping your bike on the road is to bring it to the shop on a regular basis. Tune-ups are essential.

Decision Time
Your Bike is Your Castle

Choosing a bike is, for the most part, contingent upon two factors: where you'll be biking and how much you're willing to pay for your bike. Mountain bikes, for example, are ideal for muddy, gravel and dirt trails, and have four distinguishing features: fatter tires, straight, upright handlebars, a wider range of gears, and stronger (cantilever) brakes. They also offer a lot of wind resistance, an advantage during winter months.

The good thing about mountain bikes is that they also can be used in the city. "Ninety percent [of the people who own a mountain bike] will never ride it on a mountain," says Treue. With larger tires than a touring bike, you'll be less likely to get a flat or bend your rims. It should be understood by a mountain bike rider that a significant sacrifice in speed occurs (compared with a touring bike) when choosing to ride on the road.

Road bikes, on the other hand, are designed specifically for long distance riding. Their handlebars are dropped, and the narrower and lighter wheels allow the cyclist to pedal faster.

The cross bike is exactly what it sounds like: a combination mountain and road bike. With a wide gear range, cantilever brakes and narrower wheels, it's perfect for city riding.

"A lot of commuters and city riders like it," says George Fricke, assistant manager of the Ski Market, which carries all types of bikes. "And a good one only costs between $350 and $550." So what else does a potential biking enthusiast need?

"The most important thing that any cyclist can get is a helmet," says Roy Cervantes, assistant manager of Bike Nashbar in Needham."Always Budget at least $15 for a helmet."

Additionally, a lock is crucial; Kryptonite is the most popular brand, although nothing is 100% safe.

Finally, put a white light on the front of the bike and a red light on the rear, and always wear reflective materials when riding at night. Know the proper rules and regulations.

"Cars and bikes are both vehicles, and they have the same rights and responsibilities," Brown says.

When To Buy Your Bike
Beating The Crowds For Some Old-Fashioned Service

The best time to buy your bike is now. The approaching warm weather will also bring with it crowds, higher prices and sales specialists with less time to help you choose the proper bicycle. Get them while they can still give you more than a few minutes. Do not go shopping on a Saturday morning or a Sunday afternoon. These are the busiest times at most stores. You'll receive more attention and service if you can go mid-day during the week.

As for price, you can find an excellent bike for between $280 and $500 - be it a mountain, hybrid (lighter frame cross training) or touring vehicle. Unless you're a professional and can afford to spend several thousand dollars. You'll find that this range will give you the most for your money. If you're looking at bikes priced over $500, be careful. The extra cost won't usually justify a significant increase in dollar for dollar quality of the bare necessities (unless you're approaching $1,000).

Security
"Hey, Where's My Bike?"

One reality of being a bike owner is the high theft rate. It accompanies other Boston trends, like high unemployment, high car theft and high taxes. You'll be much better off once you accept the fact that for every bike owner, there's a thief who wants to steal your wheels. Be smart. Buy a Kryptonite or Citadel lock. Prices range from $26 to $60. Take your front wheel and seat with you or lock the wheel to the rest of the bike. The investment will be worth it. Also, some lock companies offer insurance programs guaranteeing the value of your bicycle if it's stolen. Prices are usually low and once again, this is a worthwhile precaution (especially for city dwellers). One note: if you're riding in the city - avoid locking your bike in high foot traffic areas such as Copley Place (It may be as good as kissing your bike goodbye).❑

Next Issue: Where To Ride, Tune-up and Tour

BIKES! BIKES! BIKES!

CITY/MOUNTAIN/TOURING/RACING

BICYCLE BILL'S

SPRING SALE

WHILE SUPPLIES LAST:

SPORTS/TOURING BIKES

10%-20% OFF SELECTED MODELS

HYBRID/MOUNTAIN BIKES

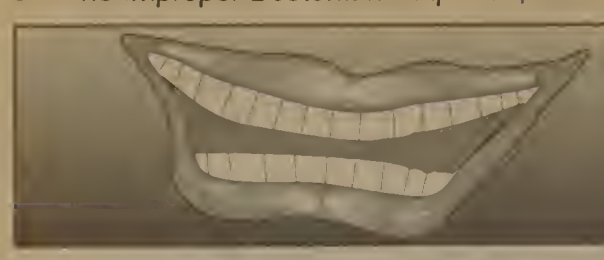
10%-25% OFF SELECTED MODELS

TOURING AND TRIATHLON GEAR

ALL CLOTHING 20% OFF

BICYCLE BILL'S The Wheels of the Hub

253 No. Harvard Street, Allston •783-5636



Just up from Harvard Stadium

APRIL SPECIAL

Hours:10-6:30; M,T,Th,F/ 1-7:30 on W/ 10-5; Sat.

:20 % OFF LABOR WITH STUDENT ID

Mention This Ad For Service Discount

COMEDY

Life After Saturday Night Live

Father Guido Sarducci Confesses

by Tobin Streett

In the mid '70s, there came along a group of comedians who set the American comedy scene on fire. It was the cast of a late night show called Saturday Night Live, whose stars were aptly titled "The Not Ready For Prime Time Players." One of these lunatics, named Father Guido Sarducci, was a priest whose unusual views on the Vatican, religion and society sent shock waves through the Catholic psyche. Sarducci was the only chain smoking man-of-the-cloth to regularly attack the Church and other institutions of power - poking fun at the very core of their existence.

Even today, he manages to force an audience to think from his point of view. Attend one of his sermons on April 17 or 18 at the Comedy Connection in Faneuil Hall and you'll see why.

After several albums, a year of producing SCTV and some guest writing spots on SNL, Don Novello - the real Father Guido Sarducci - says that he keeps busy with writing. Novello has just completed a follow-up book to his best-selling 1977 creation, The Lazlo Letters, a collection of humorous correspondence written to politicians and corporations.

"I received a catalog from the Reagan Library and do you know that they sell birdhouse replicas of his birthplace? I guess if you become president, you get to have a catalog and sell all of this junk."

Novello's talents aren't limited to interpreting religious reality or expounding on political incongruities. His recent roles in films like The Godfather III, Tucker and New York Stories prove that he's well-equipped in more fields than just that of the lord. In fact, a passion for religion isn't even what inspired Novello to invent Sarducci. "It was because I chose this character that I got into religion. There's this one prayer that gives you 200 days off of Purgatory. I remember as a kid, thinking 'Who makes these up?' I could see these people sitting around the Vatican asking, 'How many days off do we give for this prayer?'"

Novello says that, given the choice, he'd choose film work over live performances or writing. "I like to do Sarducci as a one time thing but I don't do it a whole lot." He admonishes, "It gets tiresome. I like to go back and forth between writing and acting."

Novello began as a Madison Ave. advertising copywriter before moving to San Francisco (his home today) where he eventually created Sarducci and hit the big time. Novello continued with guest appearances on SNL, Carson, Letterman and more - all while continuing to write skits(including the famous "Cheebugger, Cheebugger"), record albums and write his book.

He says, "I never went out of my way to be 'Don Novello as Father Guido Sarducci'. It's always been 'Sarducci' and that's the way I wanted it."

As for Saturday Night Live, we probably won't see him there again - at least if he has it his way. "I wouldn't go back as a writer or as Father Guido Sarducci. I was on it a few years ago as a guest writer but it just wasn't the same. Lorne Michaels had just returned to the show but the atmosphere was much different from the early days. It felt too strange."

With or without SNL, Father Guido Sarducci lives on. So head for the Comedy Connection and set your soul free. ❑

FREE!

NICK'S COMEDY STOP

IN CELEBRATION OF OUR 10TH ANNIVERSARY* EXCHANGE THIS AD FOR UP TO 4 FREE TIX!

SUN-MON-TUES-WED
(617)482-0930

(Boston club only!)
* MUST BE 21*
(Expires May 13)

NOT VALID FOR SPECIAL EVENTS/HOLIDAY SHOWS

Comedy Listings

• Back Alley Theater 576-1253, 1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Camb. Appearing through April 18, comedienne Lizz Winstead performs her one-woman show "Scream of Consciousness," a hilarious personal journey toward political correctness. Call for times and ticket prices.

• Cantab Lounge 489-2115 738 Mass Ave Central Square, Cambridge.
Performing at the Cantab Lounge every Sunday night at 8 PM is Renegade Duck; Boston's newest improvisational comedy troupe . Admisssion is $5.

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 15 to SUN 19.- Diane Nichols, Matt Graham, and Chandler Travis WED 22 to WED 29.-A week of Cross Comedy

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat..
WED 15.-Jimmy Smith Ebony Jet Comedy Show, Rayme Albert THUR 16.-Best of Boston Comedy, FRI 17.-Frank Santorelli, Chris Zito, Greg Fitzsimmons, SAT 18.- Same as 17th, SUN 19.- Jackie Flynn, Brian Coyne, Julie Barr, MON 20.- Jackie Flynn, Kevin Flynn, Chuck Sklar, TUES 21.- D.J. Hazard, Susi Maxi, Kathy Byron, WED 22.- Jimmy Smith, Dave Barend, Rick Jenkins, THUR 23.-Jay Charbonneau, Randy Look, Best of Boston , Gazzo, FRI 24.-Brian Powers, Mike Donovan, Randy Look, SAT 25.- See 24th, SUN 26.-Shecky Flynn, Joey Bishop, Corbett Monica, Thom Brown, MON 27.-Best of Boston Comedy, Jackie Flynn, Bob Aubin, Jon Priest, TUES 28.- D.J. Hazard, Mike Lee, Colin Blake

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700
Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

April 17 & 18, Father Guido Sarducci.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

FRI 24 & SAT 25.- Emily Drayton, Caronooch, Spike Tobin

• Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The Improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the buisness and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues- Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.
WED 15 to SUN 19.-Al Lubel, TUES 21 to SUN 26.- Paul Kozak, SUN 26 to SUN May 3.-Jeffrey Jena

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE

WED 15.- Gregg Rogell, Ted Blumberg, Jack Simmons, THUR 16.-See 15th, FRI 17 & SAT 18.- D.J. Hazard, Vinnie Favorito, Warren MacDonald, SUN 19.- Kevin Knox, Gregg Rogell, Jack Simmons, MON 20.-Open mike night with Billy Martin, TUES 22.-Larry Reppucci, Ted Blumberg, Gregg Rogell, WED 23.-Chanve Langton, Jack Simmons, Jim Lauletta, THUR 24. & FRI 25.- Steve Sweeney, Jack Simmons, Jackie Flynn,SUN 27.- Kevin Knox, MON 28.- Open mike night with Billy Martin

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

WED 15.- Anthony Clark, Al Ducharme, THUR 16.- Cross Comedy, FRI 17.-Frank Santos , Tony V., Jonathan Groff, Al Ducharme, SAT 18.- See 17th, SUN 19.-Open Mike night with Vinnie Favorito, TUES 21.-Frank Santos, WED 22.- Anthony Clark , Brian Kiley, THUR 23.- Brian Kiley, Mike Bent, Dan Spencer, FRI 24.- Frank Santos, .Mike Donovan, Brian Kiley, Dan Spencer, SAT 25.- See 24th, SUN 26.- Open Mike Night with Vinnie Favorito, TUES 28.-Frank Santos

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

Fun With Ivana and Jane

The Ladies and the Trump (as in Ivana) were apparently so dog tired from their whirlwind media blitzkrieg promoting Ivana's novel, that when they arrived in Boston last week to tape "NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY", they created a mini-blitzkrieg of their own....It seems that producer Bob F.X. ("isn't that special!") Drury had negotiated a fairly loose deal for how long Ivana would appear on the show. The first several segments went so well and Ivana and the studio audience seemed to be enjoying it so much, that during one of the breaks, Bob asked her if she'd stay a little longer. Ivana's three ladies in vaiting plus her attorney Bob Cohen were seeing red after hearing that their Czechmate was going to have room to do an extra 12 minutes - a whole 12 minutes - unthinkable! At one point, her personal secretary stormed off toward the studio and threatened to yank Ivana off the show. But she wisely reconsidered, probably figuring that to publicly bump Trump might land her on her rump! Anyway, Ivana was gorgeous and gracious throughout and her only kvetch to Drury was that "it was too hoot" (read: hot). But unlike her tag-along team, Ivana never lost her cool. Sources however, told me that while Ivana played the consummate celeb in public, her trailing trio were probably going to get some lip in private. And let's be honest, Ivana now has plenty of lip to give!

Kitty Kelly, Watch Out!

Sources tell me that former Boston Globe "conversationalist" Marian Christy was so steamed that the Christian Science Monitor cut her TV show, Lifestyles from The Monitor Channel that she secretly sent a letter to Channel 5 asking them to pick it up. As if the Monitor doesn't have enough headaches, it's also been rumored that she has contacted publisher Houghton Mifflin to write a tell-all book about what really happened at the Monitor. My advice to the "monitors" would be relax, take 2 aspirin and call your publisher in the morning.

Let's Talk Radio

Switching over to radio for a moment, I understand that used car magnate Ernie Boch has said "come on down" to Cary Pahigian to run Boch's radio station in Hyannis. Cary was formerly WBZ Radio Program director and for a while, he ran WHDH and parent company Sconnix's stations. By the way Cary, Steve Mindich and lots of others have been mentioned as possible buyers of WHDH Radio. But the latest rumor has WVBF buying the station for $2-3 million. A bargain, even by Ernie Boch's standards, considering that the station sold for $14 million just 3 years ago. The price has certainly "come on down"!!!

Music To The Ears of Foxboro

Also circulating around the rumor mill: Foxboro Stadium is set to have more concerts this summer than in their combined 20 year history. U-2 is already signed for 3 nights, as are Genesis and Eric Clapton. Quite a change from the town that once told Michael Jackson to beat it....but apparently sly Foxboro has forged a better relationship with the Stadium's present owners than they had with the Sullivans. And according to many of the townspeople who have been employed by the stadium, this development is music to their ears.

Finally, I hear that Norfolk County D.A. Bill Delahunt is a definite to run for Congress. Though he's not expected to annqunce until May, he is supposedly raising some serious money. And when he does announce, look for his campaign slogan to cop an interesting attitude. ❑

Nancy Birnbaum is a writer-producer and on-air personality. She is presently working as a producer on NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY. If there's anything that Nancy needs to know, please send it in or call The Improper Bostonian at 232-3507.

Whether It's A Wild Boar Or A Gator, An Indian Or A Buffalo, An Anchor Or A Light Ship, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

As of December 4, we'll proudly serve over 50 different micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Straight Talk
"Dolly Parton meets Pygmalion"
Dolly Parton is a likable person who has used music to spread her "good old girl" honesty and bring smiles to her legion of fans. In Straight Talk, Dolly becomes a radio psychologist and proceeds to use her "good old girl" honesty to bring smiles to the people of Chicago. Not exactly a stretch. Straight Talk is a harmless movie saved from complete disaster by good intentions and a fine supporting cast. Griffen Dunne brings refreshing energy to the role of a radio program director. James Woods, although convincing, is an unlikely love interest. Eventually Straight Talk is a series of music videos loosely strung together along Pygmalion lines. Give Dolly points for effort but Straight Talk isn't enough. J.A.

A Midnight Clear
"Keep in mind at video time"
A Midnight Clear would probably have been better as a play. Set in World War II, a reconnaissance squad is sent to a Chateau behind enemy lines to gather information. With half of the squad dead, this young group has grown tired of combat. Their contact with a similarly jaded German platoon is stylish, touching and quite moving but without intensity. On the screen, the characters aren't immediate enough to pique our interest. Kevin Dillon, Ethan Hawke and Frank Whaley are just some of the fine young actors in the film who all do a decent job. A Midnight Clear opens with a primal scream and never again reaches that level of raw emotion. The film is one to keep in mind for video viewing. J.A.

White Men Can't Jump
"A Festival of Exuberance"
White Men Can't Jump is a celebration of the no autopsy/no foul world of L.A. street hoop. With the curve of their athletic ability tailing off Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson) and Sidney Deane (Wesley Snipes) have found a niche hustling basketball games. Snipes exudes sweeping, unshakable confidence, raising trash-talking to an art form. Harrelson is a prodigious font of insults, convincing as the "slow, white, geeky chump" necessary for the hustle. Rosie Perez and Tyra Ferrel give the men the strength and direction as their respective partners. This film is a festival of exuberance, driven by good performances, athletic ability and the fine art of insulting someone's mother. A raucous experience. J.A.

Edward II
"Not for the Puritanical at Heart"
Derek Jarman's film Edward II is adapted from the 16th century play by Christopher Marlowe and yet remains surprisingly current. The story is about the absolute love of King Edward II of England (Steven Waddington) for his court favorite Piers Gaveston (Andrew Tiernan). His love eventually costs the king his throne but the story is an absorbing tale about power and sexual politics. Jarman uses a minimalist subterranean setting to provide a stark background for the dialogue and modern dress to make the characters more immediate. Shocking and at times brutal, Edward II is not for the puritanical at heart but is a film with an interesting view of historical events. The film is well worth the experience. J.A.

Vibrant and Provoking DEEP COVER Shouldn't be Missed

by Jason Alexander

As an intense and unsettling film, Deep Cover shouldn't be ignored. This is a dark and shadowy story about an undercover narcotics agent in an eerily realistic world involving drugs, money and the perversion of values. Deep Cover will endure inevitable comparisons to Boyz N the Hood and New Jack City but it deserves to stand alone. This is an original film with a style rife with urgency. With the current drab collection of releases, Deep Cover stands out as a relevant, vibrant and emotional experience.

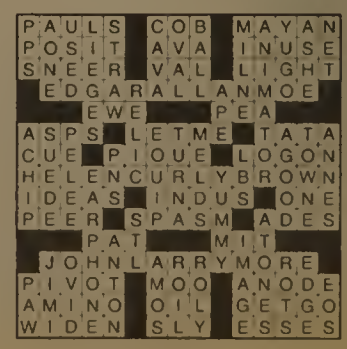
A beat cop (Larry Fishburne) is plucked from the streets of Cleveland and reborn in Los Angeles as John Q. Hull. His instructions are to "go under and stay under" cover long-term. He soon discovers a flair for the criminal, making a rapid ascension through the ranks of a cartel. To handle a large volume of drugs, Hull has to live the role of a dealer - selling drugs, protecting his turf and enjoying the financial rewards.

Deep Cover raises interesting questions. It alleges that the only difference between an undercover policeman and a drug dealer is in their values. Once those values come into question, the slide into illegality is all too easy. Hull's values were conceived when he witnessed his junkie father bungle a robbery and die in a brutal death. Now, twenty years later, Hull finds that as a criminal "all his faults become virtues" and everything comes a little too easily.

Fishburne brims with controlled fury, barely concealing a shifting gamut of emotions from fear to drug-induced confidence. His seduction by a drug dealer's lifestyle is painful but completely understandable. A complex man from the outset, he remains something of an enigma even at the end. Fishburne has always been compelling but this performance should raise his stock considerably.

However, his is not the only polished, intriguing performance. Jeff Goldblum fills the screen with self-depreciating realism. A lawyer by training, drugs are to him a wise, rewarding career choice.

John Hull (Larry Fishbone, left) is confronted by David Jason (Jeff Goldblum, right) in Deep Cover



Married and outwardly respectable, it is a career that allows him to revel in a darker side of life. Goldblum is blunt and perceptive. This role could have been overblown but Goldblum gives a restrained and subtle performance that works because it is understated and direct. Clarence Williams III, Victoria Dillard, Gregory Sierra and Charles Martin Smith provide a deep and accomplished supporting cast.

Director Bill Duke has created a smoky nocturnal world, probing the shadows and after-hours pool halls that are the habitat of this lifestyle. Duke has created a bewitching film which digs its way under the viewers skin where it fosters thought and unease long after the ending. Henry Bean has written a perceptive film and feast of great lines and observations.

"This is the greatest day of my life" exclaims Jeff Goldblum after brutally killing another man. This theme of dangerous liberation is what makes Deep Cover more than just another cop film. It is a personal drama that pays close attention to human emotions and motivations. The film manages to strike a nerve, even although most people will not endure similar events. Deep Cover has rare intensity and a strong message all wrapped in an absorbing story about complex characters. Don't miss it! ❑

Deep Cover
A New Line Cinema Release
Directed by Bill Duke
Starring
Larry Fishburne
Jeff Goldblum
Victoria Dillard

Answer to Previous Puzzle

FernGully...The Last Rainforest An Enchanting Environmental Fable

by Jason Alexander

FernGully...The Last Rainforest is a praiseworthy animated film. It's both well made and creatively educational. If that weren't enough, the film will also benefit The Rainforest Foundation, Greenpeace and other environmental organizations. But there are some flaws to be sure. The quality of the animation is not up to the high standard one would find in a Disney film. Also, the film is quite short which may leave grown-ups feeling a little short - changed. But FernGully...The Last Rainforest will benefit and amuse kids and charm anyone who admires imagination.

FernGully...The Last Rainforest
Twentieth Century Fox
Directed by
Bill Kroyer
Starring
Samantha Mathis
Tim Curry
Robin Williams

FernGully is a utopian world that lies deep within the rainforest. It is a place where animals talk and fairies tell fanciful tales about fictional creatures called humans. A precocious fairy named Crysta (Samantha Mathis) yearns to reach beyond her world while she hones her magic skills. She finds some humans, and even shrinks one to fairy size. By mistake, the humans release a noxious spirit called Hexxus (Tim Curry) who feeds off pollution and yearns to create mayhem. As the humans move their tree-eating machine towards FernGully, they are bringing Hexxus with them.

The outcome is never really in doubt but the manner in which the movie presents the material is what makes it worthwhile. The humans (and particularly Hexxus) are presented as evil forms upsetting the beauty of nature. Heavy-handed maybe, but the message is clear: we should leave the rainforest alone for their sake as well as ours.

An unusual girl named Crysta, hears about the world outside her forest home from her new friend, a bat named Batty.

The talent providing the voices? Christian Slater, Tone-Loc, Robert Pastorelli, Cheech Marin and Tommy Chong can all be heard in addition to Mathis and Curry. But the most noticeable voice is that of Robin Williams. He plays an escaped laboratory bat who has a distrust for humans. The performance is demented and kinetic and the animation can't even seem to keep up with Williams as he leaps between various levels of insanity. The bat isn't on screen very often but when he appears, it is certainly funny.

FernGully...The Last Rainforest is more of a mythical fable than a film. It balances the tradition of educating and entertaining at the same time in a nicely imaginative package. The film bows to the pressure to be hip and the economic necessity of appealing to all ages. Nevertheless, FernGully...The Last Rainforest is successful, charming and educational. Above all, it backs up its message by benefiting a good cause. What else could you want? ❑

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Roadside Prophets
"Tame Montage of Opinions"
Roadside Prophets is a surprisingly tame film. Based upon the common idea that the answer to life's mysteries lie along the open road, the film casts two characters out there and proceeds to let the audience learn along with them. Adam Horovitz (Beastie Boys) and John Doe (X) meet on the road with Doe on a quest to scatter the ashes of a virtual stranger in El Dorado, Nevada. The characters along the way all muse on various topics, the most morbidly centered on death. Timothy Leary, Arlo Guthrie, John Cusak and David Carradine state views in an almost editorial manner. Roadside Prophets is a thought-provoking and literal montage of opinions that suffers from being just a little too understated. J.A.

.The Power of One
"Powerful First Half"
The Power of One is excellent in its first half: P.K., an English boy, grows up in a WWII Boer prison camp, experiencing Apartheid racism first-hand. Under the tutelage of prison mate Piet (an exceptional performance by Morgan Freeman), P.K. learns to box, giving him courage and a will for justice. Unfortunately, the movie becomes a South African Rocky, pitting P.K. against a Nazi police officer. The script becomes lazy and the dialogue sentimental in the latter stages. The Power of One portrays the ugliness of racism nakedly and powerfully. Initially, The Power of One is a stirring film, but sadly it turns into a conventional drama better suited to television. T.S.L.

Othello
"Dated Excellence"
Orson Welles' classic Othello has been re-released providing a chance to view the film's salvaged excellence one more time. The only draw back is the extensive restoration work has not been entirely successful. There are gaps in continuity and the sound quality requires considerable effort on the part of the viewer. Welles filmed in an outlandish North African location made more impressive with strong visual direction. Welles, himself plays the moor and has a powerful brooding presence on screen that isn't really matched by the other actors. Othello is without a doubt an excellent film and a chance to see cinematic history. It's just a shame the restoration couldn't be more com plete. J.A.

Festival of Animation
"Consistent Fun for Everyone"
The Festival of Animation is now playing at the Somerville Theater in Davis Square. During this time of animation resurgence it is fitting that the festival should be a consistent and varied reminder that animation an art form. Included in the show are clay-mation, computer animation, simple drawings, social messages and slapstick comedy. There is variety and quality to suit everyone's tastes. Particularly good are The Lady and the Lamp and Oscar winner Manipulation. The show is punctuated by episodes of the Creature Comfort claymation series created from an English ad campaign. Different and offbeat, The Festival of Animation is a worthwhile experi ence. J.A.

Thunderheart
"Heavy-handed yet well-acted"
Thunderheart attempts to do for present day native Indians what Dances With Wolves managed for history. Based upon events on reservations in the 1970's, it is a moralistic tale of a murder investigation by the F.B.I. The twist: Val Kilmer is one of the agents who has made a point of denying his native-American roots. The film is a heavy-handed reversal on the cowboys and Indians theme with the F.B.I. serving as the unenlightened racist cavalry, using the land for their own purposes. Sam Waterston is good in a role of shifting menace. But the film is stolen by Graham Greene as a reservation cop and the wise weathered faces of the older native Americans. Thunderheart has faults but bluntly presents an ugly truth. J.A.

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
A Winner
A Toss up
For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
White Men Can't Jump	★	★	◎	★	★	★	★	◎	◎
My Cousin Vinny	★	◎	★	★	★	–	–	◎	–
Lawnmower Man	◎	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	–	–	🐦	🐦
Ladybugs	🐦	◎	🐦	🐦	–	–	–	🐦	–
Fried Green Tomatoes	★	★	◎	◎	🐦	◎	–	◎	◎
Wayne's World	★	◎	🐦	🐦	★	◎	◎	🐦	★
The Cutting Edge	★	🐦	🐦	◎	–	–	–	–	🐦
American Me	◎	◎	🐦	◎	–	–	–	◎	🐦
Basic Instinct	◎	◎	🐦	◎	◎	🐦	◎	🐦	◎
Gladiator	🐦	◎	–	🐦	◎	–	–	–	🐦

MOVIES

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Mike's MOVIES

Current Titles
Foreign Films
Children's Films
Gay and Lesbian
Camp and Cult
Adult Titles

557 Tremont St.
(At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End
266-9222

New Customers! First rental is Free For one night. Good any night With this ad.

Existing Customers! Rent one movie Get one Free For one night, Mon thru Wed With this ad.

Open 10 am to 10 pm; Friday and Saturday until 10:30pm; Sunday noon to 10pm

MULTIPLE MUNCHAUSENS

VIDEO REVIEW

by John Galligan & Jon Haber

In 1989, Terry Gilliam (director of Brazil and The Fisher King) came out with The Adventures of Baron Munchausen, a visually stunning tribute to a character with a fascinating film legacy.

The historic Munchausen was an amiable military colleague of Frederick the Great who spent his retirement embroidering on his wartime experiences in taverns across Germany. So much so that folk tales eventually grew out of the Baron's exploits featuring mermaids, sea monsters, riding on cannonballs and seducing Catherine the Great (no small feat), as "Munchausen" became a European-wide enduring slang term for anyone of a boastful nature.

This deeply-rooted German folk character became a natural for Nazi propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels, when his ministry produced Baron Munchausen in 1943.

Despite Goebbels frequent denuciation of American artistic decadence, he was insanely jealous of a Hollywood ability to effortlessly blend spectacle and pathos.

Goebbel's Munchausen, Nazi Germany's answer to The Wizard of Oz, is an odd film. Munchausen is an immortal, impenetrable, globe trotting character. The remains of this film can be found on videotape at Hollywood Video in Cambridge.

The next Adventures of Baron Munchausen was made in 1961 by Czechoslovakian director Karel Zeman, proving that the Iron Curtain was not quite the cultural straitjacket it was made out to be. While slow moving, this beautiful feature is the most visually off beat (and literate) of the Munchausen film fables.

The Czech Munchausen is available on video disk at The Instant Replay in Waltham.

The style and subject of this 1961 film clearly influenced Terry Gilliam, who began his career as Monty Python's animator. Gilliam's widely-available Munchausen is the most lighthearted (and expensive) of the lot. Gilliam's film is populated by magical characters including Munchausen's four wondrous servants (who between them divvy up Superman's powers of super hearing, sight, breath, speed and strength), Vulcan (God of Weapons), Venus (God of Beauty) and omnipresent Death.

Alas, Gilliam's Munchausen fizzled at the box office with an audience disinterested in Germanic folk heroes and spoon fed on Indiana Jones, Luke Skywalker and James Bond.

The only sweet irony in the lukewarm box office of Gilliam's Munchausen is that Dr. Goebbels, already green with decomposition, would turn even greener with envy knowing decadent Hollywood can still effortlessly top him. ❑

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973

ORIENT EXPRESS
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL

Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown
Some Restrictions Apply

$40
per trip - up to 6 people

Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

TOP 10 FOODS TO AVOID BEFORE RUNNING THE BOSTON MARATHON

by Seymour Kaubalz

If there ever was a big "NO-NO" in pre-Marathon meal selection, we'd have to start with a generic choice like shellfish. Dining on lobster, mussels, oysters, etc. before the Marathon is sure to be the kiss of death as any or all of these choices cause severe gastric disturbances (not to mention on-course detours to the john).

Game hens are another meal considered by most sports professionals to be the equivalent of playing Russian Roulette with your stomach.

"Ragu Chicken Tonight" is also out (no explanation needed).

So are any curried Indian dishes. If the meat doesn't get you, the spices surely will. Forget anything raw (sushi, steak tartar etc.) as uncooked meat or fish could be potentially clogging - although they'll do wonders for your libido.

If choosing between pasta and tuna, choose the pasta. It's safer and you won't have to worry about microscopic particles of termite legs and Horse Fly wings.

Stay away from microwaveable burritos and such (take it one further and avoid anything under the roof of Store 24, unless, of

(continued on following page)

Melanie Dunea

A marathon hopeful crams down an 18 lb. pile of pasta.

Your Marathon Masquerade

by Timothy Lemire

Running the Boston Marathon requires a keen awareness of your physical capabilities, months of training and a symbiotic marriage of mind and body, engineered by pure athletic will.

But who has time for that? Why run the Marathon when, given far less effort, you can appear as if you ran the Marathon?

The Night Before.

Procure the following material: (1) a map of Boston highlighting the Marathon path from Hopkinton to Copley and (2) assorted MBTA schedules. Cross-reference. Organize a game plan for completing the Marathon via car, bus or T; the Rosie Ruiz Route comes highly recommended.

Marathon Day.

Crucial to any successful ruse is the corroboration of credible (or at least numerous) witnesses, as well as documentation. Station friends equipped with cameras in strategic points along the Marathon route, so when you jump from the sidelines into the race, pictures of you actually running will be attained. To achieve athletic verisimilitude, grab a cup of water from the sidelines and splash your face and chest area, simulating hard-earned sweat. Remember to grimace after the fifteenth simulated mile.

Taking the Lead.

While in your car or on the T advancing ahead of the other chumps, listen to the progress of the Marathon on your Walkman and identify what landmark the leader will be approaching in the next half-hour. Advance to this area accompanied by a photographer friend, and place yourself one quarter-mile ahead of the leader's projected arrival. Your friend should be an additional 150 yards down the route for the photo opportunity. When you see the leader coming, jump out in front of him or her and run like hell, giving your friend the opportunity to take the picture of the time you momentarily broke ahead of this year's winner. Ignore the jealous boos from the crowd. Perform this act expediently and disappear back into the sidelines, before police take action.

The Photo Finish.

Soak your head entirely, and when you cross the line, appear well-worn for the camera, but victorious and stalwart. Establish a credible finishing time; three hours is an average but impressive figure. A final picture might be one of you, supine on the pavement, wrapped in a foil blanket and enjoying the hard-won self-satisfaction that belongs to all true winners. While The Improper Bostonian does not condone or encourage bad sportsmanship or foul play, we provide this information to save non-athletes needless time, effort, athletic injury and embarrassment in attempting the Marathon. ❑

Michael Powers

Heartbreak Hill can finish the most seasoned atheletes but you can beat it with our strategy and a pocketful of T tokens.

(continued from previous page)

course, you don't mind the heartburn associated with eating food that tastes like horsemeat).

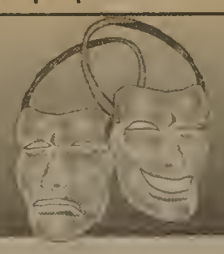
For the traditionalist who just can't be deprived of the oft-preferred jalapeno-laced Rocky Mountain Oyster - don't worry: you can have them boiled (forget the peppers).

A good tension reliever for pre-race tensions is a good relaxing drive. Just don't drive through any fast food establishment. With the exception of their ice-water, the only benefits from the food are in the preservatives. Studies show that four out of five bodies of religious fast food diners take eight to ten years longer to decay, so eat natural.

Scott H., a fifteen time marathoner, has always started his marathon after feasting on live tackle. "Be it fish, worms, or bugs, I find that I'm always in the front half of the pack - at least for the initial 10 miles. After that, I usually get the chills and begin to hallucinate. Last year, I was found making out with a mailbox in Chestnut Hill. They had to carry me away."

A final suggestion (or precaution) is to avoid what we consider to be the most dangerous pre-marathon food: Corndogs. They're DANGEROUS. ❑

DO YOU BELONG TO A HEALTH CLUB?



Your membership card is worth $249.00 at Boston Sports Club!

If the cost of your membership is getting in the way of your workout, show us a valid club ID, and we eliminate our initiation fee. A 30 day guarantee assures that you'll like our club equipped with the latest Nautilus, Cybex, free weights and cardiovascular equipment. We also offer a complete aerobic program.

After paying Boston Sports Club's low monthly payments, you'll be glad you switched. Offer ends April 30.

BostonSports CLUB

561 BOYLSTON STREET • 536•1247

ARTS

Modern Montage Storms Through The ICA

by Pritha Raysircar

Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, the latest show at the ICA, is an iconoclastic, ambitious venture about the modern age. The title of the exhibit reflects both its content and intent: Montage - "the combination of images not usually seen together" - is the medium through which the industrial, political and cultural events spanning the two world wars in Germany, the Soviet Union, and the United States, are presented. Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942 combines works traditionally thought to be "low art" with "high art" pieces. The result is a bold and exciting distinction between mass art and fine art.

The breadth and scope of the show is what one might expect from the Museum of Modern Art in New York. The ICA show attempts to highlight the organic, intermingling relationships between contemporary art and mass media, fine art and pop culture in the montage practice of the 1920s and 1930s. This sort of Bahktinian dialogue which focuses upon the exchange between the orthodox and the unorthodox is quite an herculean undertaking for a smaller institution like the ICA.

Over 400 commercial and political posters, illustrations, book jackets, film publicity, montages, etc.- many of which have never before been exhibited in the United States are separated into nine sections by countries and aesthetics. And, while the exhibit ignores chronology, each section articulates the new concerns in early 20th century life.

Three sections not to miss are Rapid Transit/Global Visions; The New Woman and the Rationalization of Everyday Life; and The Body Refigured. Each one of these three clusters challenges what we take for granted, then and now. In fact, Denkal II-Eitekeit (Monument II-Vanity) by Hannah Hoch, 1926, shows, on a pedestal, the bottom half of a slightly Rubinesque white woman whose upper torso and head are obscured by large tribal objects. The montage image disturbs both western and African stereotypes of each other's cultures, concepts of femininity and physique. It also addresses the dominion of one culture over another. The Political Spectrum of Montage (another cluster) showcases the diverse applications of montage technique. For example, changes in scale denote new configurations of power, as does the repetition of one character. Aside from the obvious propaganda posters featuring giant Hitlers astride millions of nameless, tiny individuals, be on the lookout for a designer-unknown advertisement for typewriters in Fortune Magazine called "A New Freedom For Secretaries!" While not grouped in the Political Spectrum cluster, this piece shows a huge secretary in a checked dress assuming the pose of the Statue of Liberty. Her smile, triumphant, her typewriter, large and powerful; she is an efficient, reliable, office goddess whose size and promise threaten conventional female positions of power. Crucial to the show is the Montage Film Program from April 10 through June. It was through the films of the young post-revolutionary generation - Eisenstein, Shub and Vertov - in the Soviet union that the full potential of montage was revealed to the West. "The film program explores the various developments in montage practice: the critical social analysis of Soviet film, the celebration of industrial technology in German and Dutch documentary, and the projection of American fantasy in the years of the depression." (Michelson) For more information about the show, contact the ICA at 266-5152 during business hours. ❑

Luke Swank, Untitled (Industry-steel mill, triptych), 1930's

Hannah Hoch, Ethnographic Museum Series: Denkmal II Eitelkeit, 1926

1992

THE VINCENT CLUB

proudly presents

THE 100th VINCENT SHOW

Vincentennial!

to benefit

THE VINCENT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

THURSDAY, MAY 7 — SATURDAY, MAY 9
at eight o'clock

SATURDAY MATINEE
at two o'clock

Emerson Majestic Theater
219 Tremont Street
Boston

Box Office 617-277-3349 After May 4 617-578-8727.

ARTS

You'll Toast The Cocktail Hour

by Tim Lemire

"There is nothing worse than an overlong cocktail hour," announces the paterfamilias in A. R. Gurney's The Cocktail Hour, a comedic drama presented by The New Repertory Theatre through May 17. This cocktail hour, hardly overlong, is a joy to watch as a light entertainment that's both economically written and well-acted.

John, an aspiring middle-aged playwright (Robert Walsh), returns home to present his parents with his new play, which, he says delicately, "cuts close to home." John wants "to tell people who the family is." He wants truth. His aging, uppercrusty parents, however, want peace and privacy in their golden days. Without even reading the play, John's parents and visiting older sister react bitterly and histrionically to the prospect of having their dirty laundry paraded onstage. John's play is nothing like that, he protests, and neither is the onstage drama; John's play, like The Cocktail Hour, is written with "warmth, affection and abiding admiration." In fact, John's play is called The Cocktail Hour, an interesting device of self-reference that unfortunately Gurney takes to an extreme. When John tells his mother Ann (Mary Klug) that his play needs a scene of a mother and son's heart to heart conversation, then that is the scene we get onstage. After John's sister Nina (Mary Lowry) reads the stage direction in his play for her character to storm "offstage huffily," she flies into a tirade against him. And guess what? She storms offstage huffily. Ultimately this foreshadowing device disrupts the onstage illusion of reality; we can guess what might happen whenever John mentions what needs to happen in the play he's written.

Gurney (author of Love Letters) serves up comedy and drama that is dry and not overpowering (and he mixes the two quite nicely).

The New Rep actors meet the demands of the script quite well with the success of the comic and tender moments resting primarily on their delivery (more so than on their actions).

Mary Klug as Ann and Robert Walsh is John in The Cocktali Hour by A.R. Gurney

Robert Walsh is controlled and likeable as John. His dramatized sense of his surroundings and amazement with his penny-ante self-realizations, communicates his own self image as a mediocre playwright. Niels Muller as Bradley, displays ease in portraying his grandiloquent, overreacting character; his gestures are deft and animated - his stage movements the most varied. Muller has great enough range to be comical, ironic and touching.

Mary Lowry portrays the feisty Nina without overplaying her hot tempered speeches, but her crescendos are reached a touch too quickly. She tends to speed through speeches and promenade herself around the living room a bit too theatrically. Of all the players, Mary Klug's Ann, with her aristocratic sparrow's voice, is the most relaxed onstage.

Subtly, Jennifer Lansdale's stage design reflects themes in the play. On the rear wall, four prints of game cats hang closely together, all walking to the right except for one who's walking left: John, the misfit. The living room set is perfect symmetry, yet slightly askew.

A comedic drama about an upper-middle class, upper-state New York family plays well in the New Rep's home of Newton Highlands. References to father Bradley's golf games and mother Ann's persistent requests for martinis ("Oh, just a splash...I'm serious now!) won appreciative recognition from the audience on opening night. The Cocktail Hour is a well spent two hours. ❑

The Cocktail Hour
by A.R. Gurney
The New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln Street
Newton Highlands
332-1646
$14.00 - $20.00
All seats general admission

BOOKS

Back in the Blue House

by Lisa M. Bonnell

$24.95
by Jeff Giles
Ticknor & Fields

In his autobiographical novel Back in the Blue House, Jeff Giles tells the semi-fictionalized life story of his family. At 26, Giles' life mirrors much of the twentysomething generation. Everything from television reruns of Bewitched and Dynasty to Bruce Springsteen and Peter Gabriel songs fill this book and keep the reader turning to the next page.

Masterfully, he mixes three strong voices. There are monologues of his spontaneously hilarious mother, his overly apologetic airline pilot father and finally his young voice (bearing the brunt of his family's rollercoaster relationships). He recounts his parent's divorce and the antics of their separation - bringing us to the present where he works "at a New York uppercrust magazine that has received much too much attention already" (The New Yorker).

He contrasts the bipolar dynamics of his family through portrayals of his sister (a punk-rock, rebellious hairdresser) and her rambunctious fights heard outside the bedroom windows of the blue house at 10 Gilbert Street to the quieter descriptions of life in New England and the Cohasset landscape.

Giles also comments and observes the make up of our generation — the one after the yuppies. He discusses changes in the female role in society ("...my mother's generation, I think, was the last to be tied to it [marriage]") and the anguish of a divorce in a time when no one else's parents were getting one. "If the repercussions of finding one's parents in bed together are so great, what, I often wonder, are the repercussions of never finding one's parents in bed together?"

Giles keeps you laughing at caustic situations filled with anger, foul language and searing dialogues that reveal the gambit of emotions. He helps the reader realize that people out of control can find their way back to love and hope. In a quirky kind of way, insecurity is okay. ❑

Silhouettes In Motion

Classic Movement for Actors & Models

* see workshop description under Arts Calendar pg. 17

Dianna Sanford
361 Newbury Street 247-2435

"I remember telling my Sunday School class and my father that I didn't believe in God. But it wasn't God I didn't believe in, it was God as an old male Caucasian with long white hair.

"I spent years probably not going to church once. Then, senior year in college, I started looking into a Unitarian Universalist church in town. I remember thinking, this is very odd, I'm making this choice on my own. I was going because I wanted to go, because something was missing on Sunday morning.

"One of the things I value most about being a Unitarian Universalist is being able to question. To step back from what I had previously 'believed in.' Nobody says to me I can't believe; nobody is saying I haven't the right to question.

"Unitarian Universalism encourages openness. It encourages dialogue. When I tell my friends that, they're amazed it's still considered a religion. And they want to know more about it."

THE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISTS

For more information and a sample copy of the World, journal of the Unitarian Universalist Association, send $1 (check or money order) to the World, Dept. 609, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108.

ARTS

ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are on sale for "Swan Lake," which opens Apr. 30 and runs until May 17. The production is a highly-acclaimed collaboration between the Boston, Kirov and Bolshoi Ballet Companies. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.95. Call 964-4070 x.230/231 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Exhibit hours are Mon.-Thur.., 9am-9pm and Fri-Sat., 9am-5pm. Admission is free and open to the public.

Danforth Museum of Art
123 Union Ave., Framingham
Through May 31, the DMA presents an exhibition of New England Photographers. On display is a diverse collection of 138 contemporary photographic images by 97 artists. The museum is open Wed.-Sun. from 12-5pm. Call 508-620-0050 for more information.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
NESOP presents "Mirrored Images," photographs by Sandy Croce Warner through Apr. 16. Warner's work is collaging with the assistance of mirrors; her photographs are unique in that they form a disjointed yet unified situation all on one piece of film.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University, 602 Comm. Ave., Boston
The PRC will be holding an auction of fine art photography at Grogan & Company (890 Comm. Ave.) on Apr. 22. For sale will be works by contemporary photographers as well as those of established masters. Call 353-0700 for more information.

CLASSICAL

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, Mass Ave., Boston
Conducted by Seiji Ozawa and featuring Gidon Kremer on violin, the BSO will perform SHOSTAKOVICH Violin Concerto No. 2 and BRUCKNER Symphony No. 5 Apr. 15-18. Apr. 23-28 will feature Lynn Harrell on cello and Bernard Haitink conducting works by Brahms and Shostakovich. Call for times and ticket prices, 266-7575.
The world-renowned Dresden Staatskapelle (Dresden State Orchestra) will give a concert Apr. 26 at 3pm, with Andre Previn conducting. The orchestra will perform STRAUSS Don Juan, Op. 20 and Death and Transfiguration, Op. 24; and BEETHOVEN Symphony no. 7 in A Major, Op. 92. Call 266-1492 for more information.

The Cleveland Orchestra will return to Boston for its annual Symphony Hall concert on Apr. 21 at 8pm. Music Director Christoph von Dohnanyi will conduct a program of works by Haydn, Martinu, Willi and Beethoven. Call 266-1492 for more information.

Griffin Music Ensemble
at The Wang Center, 270 Tremont St., Boston
Come see the Griffin Music Ensemble's final concert of the 1991-92 season on Apr. 21 at 8pm in Wang Center's Grand Lobby. Admission is free but seating is limited, so call 482-9393 x.221 for reservations.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
The Longy Chamber Orchestra, featuring pianists Claude Frank and Lilian Kallir and violinist Pamela Frank, will perform Mozart Concerti Apr. 24 at 8pm. Call 876-0956 for more information.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
Noted American violinist Maria Bachmann will give a recital in Jordan Hall on Apr. 25 at 8pm, with pianist Jon Klibonoff assisting. The concert will include several works and transcriptions by Fritz Kreisler, and is dedicated to the memory of the legendary violinist, who died in 1962. For more information, call 536-2412.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935

FILM

Black Women Filmmakers
Three area colleges are sponsoring "Vision and Image," a three-weekend celebration of black women filmmakers. Apr. 23 at Wellesley College's Science Center, Apr. 24 at M.I.T.'s Killian Hall and Apr. 25 at Emerson College, Zeinabu I. Davis presents "A Powerful Thang." The film is an experimental narrative concerned with an African-American couple's search for intimacy and friendship. Call 235-0320 x.2569 for more information.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Somerville Theater
55 Davis Square, Somerville
Once again, the Festival of Animation has come to wreak havoc in Boston. Three Academy Award nominees are featured in Spike & Mike's production this year, but all 18 shorts (including the perennial favorite "Creature Comforts") are a welcome respite from the hum-drum world of Hollywood films. Special midnight shows include entries in the "Sick & Twisted" category, but don't worry—barf bags are complimentary. Through Apr. 23. Call 625-5700 for times and ticket information.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents an Asian-American International Film Festival on Apr. 16-17. Three films from the Philippines, People's Republic of China and Hong Kong will be shown in Remis Auditorium. Call 536-3315 for times.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Commonwealth Museum
220 Morrissey Blvd., Boston
This history museum is dedicated to the people, places and politics of Massachusetts. Museum hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm and Sat. 9am-3pm. Admission is free. For more information call 727-9268.

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Admission to the museum is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, free for children under 5 and half price on Sat. until noon. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Danforth Museum of Art
123 Union Ave., Framingham
To spotlight the beauty of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, the Danforth Museum presents "White Mountain Painters," an exhibition of late 19th and early 20th century paintings done by various artists that capture the charm and brilliance of the natural world. The exhibit runs through Apr. 19. Call 508-620-0050 for more information.

Essex Institute Museum
132 Essex St., Salem
A museum neighborhood in the heart of Salem, the Essex Institute is an art and history museum of Essex County from the 17th century to the present. Museum hours are Tues.-Sat., 9am-5pm, Sun. and holidays 1-5pm, Thurs., 9am-9pm. Tours are available. For more information call 508-744-3390.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. From Apr. 7-June 7, the ICA hosts Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, an exhibit that presents an astounding array of over 400 objects that document the emergence of montage. Some have never been shown together before; others have never been seen before in the U.S. Admission is $4 general, $3 for students, $1.50 for seniors and children under 16, $1 for UMass/Boston and M.I.T students. Free admission on Thur. from 5 to 8pm. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. The museum is currently playing host to a new exhibit, "Imaging the self in Renaissance Italy," which will run through April. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"Bears: Imagination and Reality," one of two temporary exhibits, challenges the visitor to learn the difference between the imaginary bear and the real bear. It runs through May 10. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metro Boston school year.

(continued on following page)

With the Best Classified Ad Prices in Town, People Can Afford Another Option The Improper Bostonian Classifieds Capture Your Market.
(617)232-3507

We're Looking For a Few Stars

If you're extremely hard working, possess outstanding talents and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success.

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Art Director / Layout

Must be Macintosh fluent.

Interns

For the advertising and marketing department. We'll give you as much responsibility as you can handle.

Call 232-3507 for more details or FAX your resume to the Publisher at (617) 232-4305.

ARTS

(Museums continued)

Apr. 26 at 3pm, the Museum of Science presents an event called "Discover the Future of Our World: Earth Summit Briefing." The event, which takes place in Cahners Theater, is being held in recognition of Earth Day and will feature a panel of experts discussing some of the underlying themes and issues surrounding the United Nations conference in Brazil this June.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year, and admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children, students and senior citizens. Museum hours are Wed-Sun., 10am-5pm. For more information call 522-6547.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The ART presents Media Amok, a scorching satire on the multiplying lunacies of our time. Seen from the increasingly horrified perspective of a peaceful old couple who just want a little harmless entertainment, the world of talk-show television is seen to be populated with an army of psychotic celebrities. The show will run for 24 performances through Apr. 26; Tues.-Sat. at 8pm with weekend matinees at 2pm. Call 547-8300 for more information.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

The Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Due to extraordinary demand, the hilarious one-woman show Shirley Valentine has been extended and will play until May 3. Willy Russell's funny and touching play about a middle-aged Liverpool housewife who experiences liberation on a Greek vacation has been playing to capacity audiences since it opened Jan. 9. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket information.

First Stage
at the Jamaica Plain Arts Center
659 Centre St., Jamaica Plain
To benefit First Stage, a theater devoted to new plays and playwrights, Gabriel Lanci will do a staged reading of The Resurrection Play, about the murder of a 14-year-old girl, Apr. 17 at 7:30pm.

Lenox Hotel
710 Boylston St., Boston
The Lenox Hotel presents Manhattan, a 90-minute musical bite of the Big Apple. The revue, combined with the elegance of dining at the Lenox, makes for a wonderful evening. Call 536-5300 for times, ticket information and reservations.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
The Boston premiere of Timberlake Weterbaker's powerful play Our Country's Good begins Apr. 22. Nominated for Tony Awards and winner of the Olivier award for Best New Play, this brilliant production hails the redemptive power of art. Runs through May 24. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
The NRT is currently performing A. R. Gurney's The Cocktail Hour, an affectionate play about family reconciliation. The show runs through May 17. Call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

The Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Pilgrim Theatre presents A Tempest, a play adapted from William Shakespeare, through Apr. 18. Tickets are $12. Call 625-1300 for times.

Shubert Theatre
265 Tremont St., Boston
Peter Shaffer's award-winning play Lettice & Lovage, starring Julie Harris and Roberta Maxwell, will begin a two-week run only from Apr. 28-May 10. Call 1-800-233-3123 for times and ticket information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Underground Railway Theater
at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
The URT presents The Christopher Columbus Follies: An Eco-Cabaret from Apr. 23-25. Join their merry band of explorers as they take an irreverent romp through our European heritage and history. Tickets are $10. Call 643-6916 for times.

LECTURES

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Harvard Square
The Tuesday Evening Lecture Series continues Apr. 21 when Nancy Hathaway Highsmith speaks on "Timeless Truths in Today's World" and on Apr. 28 when Carly Lund presents a lecture called "Getting to Love."

Downtown Reading Series
at The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Author Robert Stone will read from his new novel Outerbridge Reach on Apr. 21 at 6pm. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.

East Boston Branch Library
276 Meridian St., East Boston
Simmons College psychology professor Diane Coulopoulos will speak on the everlasting lure of romance as part of a series on romance writing. The lecture takes place Apr. 16 at 7pm.

WORKSHOPS

Seminar in Culinary Arts at Boston University
808 Comm. Ave., Boston
So you want to be a caterer? Successful authorities in the catering profession from the Boston area will be on hand at this seminar to discuss complications in the field. It takes place Apr. 27 at 6:30pm; admission is $30 per person, $25 if you bring a friend. Call 353-9852 for more info.

Silhouettes In Motion - Classic Movement For Actors & Models
361 Newbury St., Boston
From music videos and commercials, to print and screen, all around us romance and its story is on the upswing. Acquire poise, grace and style in the classic dances of the Foxtrot, Waltz, Rumba and Swing. Learn to bring these feeelings to life on April 18 and May 2, 11am-1pm. Cost: $20. Call 247-2435 for more info and ask for Diana.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

The Copley Society of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
From Apr. 21-May 2, the Society hosts a special exhibition and sale of paintings donated by families and friends of prominent deceased Copley Society members and Boston-area artists. Student member/artists will have their work on display in a juried exhibition through Apr. 18. For more information and hours, call 536-5049.

The French Library In Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Library hours: Tues., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm; Wed. and Thurs., 10am-8pm. For more information, call 266-4351.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing from Apr. 2-May 2 are Malcolm Preston's "Images of Cape Cod." Preston's spectacular paintings capture the natural beauty of the Cape's coastline. Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Sculptures and drawings by Christopher Wilmarth and paintings by John McNamara are on view Apr. 4-May 2; opening reception is Apr. 3, 5-7pm. For more information, call 266-4835.

Tribal Arts Gallery at Roots International
302 Newbury St., Boston
Substantial exhibitions of select West African ceremonial, utilitarian, mythological and societal masks and artifacts can be found at this gallery. This fascinating gallery is open seven days a week from 12-6pm. For more information, call 247-6292.

The Vose Galleries
283 Newbury St., Boston
Ernest Albert's beautiful oil paintings of natural landscapes are on view from until June. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri., 8am-5:30pm and Sat., 9am-4pm. For more information, call 536-6176.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Boston Harbor Hotel
Harborview Lounge
Rowes Wharf, Boston
Every Saturday from Apr. 4-May 9, the hotel presents Beatrix Potter Teas for Children in conjunction with the Boston Children's Theatre. Young and old alike will be charmed by costumed characters presenting four of Potter's most memorable tales: Peter Rabbit, Benjamin Bunny, Jemima Puddle-Duck and Jeremy Fisher.

Centastage
at Villa Victoria
85 W. Newton St., Boston
Centastage, a not-for-profit performance group, is holding a Big Sky Hoedown and Silent Auction Apr. 24 from 7:30pm to midnight. Eat, dance, bid on auction items and catch a live preview of Centastage's May production, Big Sky. Call 536-5981 for more information.

Pine Manor College
400 Heath St., Chestnut Hill
Pine Manor College is sponsoring a day-long (9am-5:30pm) colloquium on Apr. 23 entitled "Women in Communication: A New World Coming." Ten female leaders in the communications field will be attending, including nationally- and locally-known journalists, scriptwriters and speechwriters. Admission is free to the public.

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

BALLET THEATRE
OF BOSTON

ADULT CLASSES

Come Once, Come Often
All skill levels welcome
from beginner to advanced.

186 Massachusetts Avenue Boston 262-0961

DINING

BUDGET BITES

The Irresistible Original Sports Saloon

by Meg Worden & T.H.E. Tank

Yes, we know we already reviewed the Original Sports Saloon last year, and found the ribs to be irresistible. But when we heard about the newly installed $10,000 smoker and the new "Memphis Barbecue" menu, we knew a second review was unquestionably the (im)proper thing to do - even if it almost caused our publisher to succumb to a nervous breakdown .

Major renovations have just been completed at this venerable sports bar, but have no fear, the management is justly proud of the bar's long history and spared no effort to ensure that the character remained unspoiled. However, the pride and joy of the kitchen is the Willingham Smoker, an enormous device invented by "Memphis Rib Master" John Willingham, whose theory is that ribs should be cooked using the minimum amount of smoke so the "essence" of the wood is captured without the "gritty" effect. He has been winning awards for his sauces and seasonings since 1983, and - sharing his expertise with the Sports Saloon - has custom blended the three new sauces.

Obsessed as we were with thoughts of ribs, we deferred our enjoyment by first sharing an appetizer of chicken wings (Smoking Fast Ball), a new addition to the menu at $4.95. They were tender and juicy with a great smokehouse flavor, and were cooked in a very zippy hot sauce. Just one kind of ribs (baby back) was featured on the old menu. The expanded menu now offers baby back, pork spareribs and beef ribs plus pulled pork in various combinations together with a choice of sauces: Sweet and Sassy, Tart and Tangy and For Big Sports Only (a very hot sauce). All three sauces were excellent, and we'd be hard put to say which was the best - it's really a matter of personal preference. The same goes for the ribs; the Original ($9.95) were luscious, tender pork spareribs, appropriately named "specialty of the house." For the same price, you can have the delectable Around the Horn comprising chicken (moist, tender and flavorful), spareribs, beef ribs brisket and pulled pork. Another winning combination was the Triple Crown ($9.95) which included spareribs, beef ribs and baby backs. Without exception, each portion of ribs was rich, moist and delicious, and despite the enormous servings, every bit vanished without a trace. We were especially taken with the accompaniments: a delicious cucumber salad, a pot of barbecue beans, and the best ever fried banana (our only complaint was that it was too small). These could easily stand alone as regular side dishes.

Small appetizer sized portions are also available, such as Trash Ribs ($4.95) and the Three Pointer ($4.95), a sampler of spareribs, beef brisket and pulled pork. A couple of sandwiches are also offered for $6.95; one of smoked pork (the Richard Petty) and one of smoked brisket (Fireball Roberts).

And no, we still haven't found room to try dessert. Has anyone? ❑

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston Tel. 536-9000.
Hours: Open daily for lunch and dinner
Credit Cards: All major
Handicapped: Accessible through Copley Square Hotel lobby

THE EXCEPTIONAL GOURMET CHINESE RESTAURANT WITH EMPHASIS ON VALUE, WITHOUT THE COMPROMISE OF QUALITY & SERVICE.

DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE TO BOSTON AND BROOKLINE

NOBLE HOUSE

1306 Beacon Street, Coolidge Corner in Brookline 232-2378
Serving Dim Sum Sat & Sun, Noon 'til 3.

NEW CHEAP EATS
delightfully offbeat
Boston Phoenix

Creative Mexican Cuisine
Mexican fare: affordable and fun

ZAPATA'S

HOURS
Sun-Wed, noon-10:00 p.m.; Thu, noon-10:30 pm; Fri-Sat, noon-11p.m.
AE, DC, MC, Visa, Full bar
Ground Level
No reserv.

1010 Beacon St, 566-5983

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

- ▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
- ▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
- ▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
- ▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

DINING

The Movable Feast

Cafe Brazil
Sizzles with Palate Pleasing Influences

by Al Stankus

Jill Connelly

Diners enjoy an authentic Brazilian meal to the romantic nighttime sounds of a guitarist at Cafe Brazil.

To the uninitiated, Brazilian food most likely conjures up a tropical image. Spices, plenty of fish and an overall lightness to offset the heat and humidity.

I recall a friend's sister, a member of the Dutch National Symphony, who vividly remembers her first Brazilian meal. Soon after landing there, the members of the orchestra were taken to a small island just a short boat ride from Rio de Janero for what they were told would be a typical Brazilian lunch.

But rather than the anticipated array of fresh fish and exotic fruits, they were surprised with "huge steaks, grilled sausages, all sorts of meat, even kidneys and livers," she recalls. "And with it, they served rice, beans and mounds of greens."

"Brazilians are thought of as fun-loving beach people," says co-owner Valter Vittorino. "And, so that gives many the idea that our food is simple." He adds, "They don't realize that Brazil produces some of the beef in the world. And one more thing, Brazilians love to eat," - a fact that manifests itself at this clean and cheerful restaurant which he runs with partner, Gilmar Pinto.

The fare at Cafe Brazil reflects a host of influences. In the obvious category, there's the Portuguese. As the chief colonizers, they brought Iberian techniques of roasting, braising and sauteeing; techniques which account for such menu items as lombinho gaucho ($8.95), a wonderful version of crispy roast pork, rabada ($10.95), slowly-simmered oxtails in which the juicy meat falls off of the huge bones and file dore ($10.95), fish fillets that are given a quick saute and then slowly simmered with a melange of finely chopped vegetables.

African and Indian influences at Cafe Brazil are the fried plantains, sauteed collards and myriad uses of the cassava. With the sweet plantains, they can be ordered as a side dish ($1.95 and $2.95) or heaped upon the succulent minas especial ($10.95), a lemon-marinated grilled chicken.

Mandicca frita com linguica ($3.95), strips of cassava root fried to a golden crispness and served with rounds of garlicky sausage, is a perfect first course to pass around the table.

Italy is another influence that manifests itself in the restaurant. Pinto, who worked in one of Boston's better Italian restaurants, makes a decent rendition of shrimp scampi. However, he really comes through on a tasty Brazilian-Italian hybrid which he calls "Amazonas."

Sauteed shrimp and chicken are tossed with vegetables and the mixture is bound with ground cassava before being set across rice or pasta - depending on your preference. It has become so popular that the kitchen will defer to special requests for this unique and somewhat light dish.

They also feature large sirloin steaks and boneless chicken breasts that arrive with fried onions on sizzling platters served tableside. One caveat because the platters are hot: keep an eye on the meat, as it will continue to cook.

Desserts are first rate and include pineapple torte, a bittersweet chocolate cheesecake and a rich flan whose texture and flavor result from an ingredient of sweetened and condensed milk.

There's a fairly-priced wine list whose best bottle is a sturdy Portuguese Dao ($14), a selection of Brazilian and domestic beer, strong coffee and a knowledgeable, friendly staff. If this isn't enough, every night except Monday, a guitarist and vocalist provide the epitome of romantic background music. ❑

Cafe Brazil
421 Cambridge St., Allston
789-5980
Lunch Daily: 11:30am - 4pm
Dinner Daily: from 4pm - 10pm
Reservations accepted
MC & V
On street parking;
After 6pm parking at
Dave's Auto Body
Narrow entry passageway
for the handicapped

Enjoy a taste of spring at Joyce Chen.

For many, asparagus is a welcome sign of spring. This season, for a limited time, you'll find lots of new ways to love it. Like Chicken Macadamia with Asparagus or Wok-Seared Shrimp with Asparagus – all healthfully prepared using the freshest ingredients.

JOYCE CHEN RESTAURANT.

Available for take-out or downtown Boston delivery.
Boston: 115 Stuart St., Theatre District (617) 720-1331
Cambridge: 390 Rindge Ave. (617) 492-7373

BIG DATE?

Our lobster is sure to impress.

JUST HANGING OUT?

How about fried clams and some of our terrific beers?

More kinds of great seafood than any other restaurant in town. And though it may be IMPROPER, we also have chicken and steak!

LEGAL SEA FOODS

There's always a reason to go to LEGAL'S

Park Plaza - 35 Columbus Avenue
Statler Bldg. - 27 Columbus Ave
Copley Place - 100 Huntington Avenue
Cambridge - Kendall Sq., 5 Cambridge Ctr.

Also at Chestnut Hill Shopping Center, Burlington Mall, Route 9, Natick and Worcester, opposite the Centrum.

The Leisur

What The Heck is Battle Ball?

When you first hold a Battle Ball paddle, you may ask yourself, "How do I use this?" In spite of its rather basic, geometric design, this new game from Milton Bradley is more fun than listening to a list of Bill Clinton's promises. Using a 6" re-inflatable ball, the game requires a minimum of two people who try to juggle and smash the ball past their opponent. The game is great fun on the beach, in a park or any open-air space. It's available in toy and sporting goods stores, and retails for around $23. ❑

Look Who's Having A Spring Sail

April weather brings about many desires in people. The desire to workout, the desire to travel, the desire to mate and the desire to fill up your sails with wind. Community Boating, Inc., located behind the Hatch Shell on the Charles River, has just opened for the 1992 season. Community Boating offers guidance and rentals to any novice or experienced sailor. Operating as the oldest public sailing program in the country, they offer activities which include instructional courses, racing, windsurfing, a workshop series - even night racing. Adult or student memberships offer the sailor access to any number of activities, including unlimited use of boats, sailboards and instruction. Their fleet includes Cape Cod Mercuries, Lasers, Sonars, Cape Cod Typhoons, sailboards (top of the line), keel boats and 470's. With a motto of "Sailing for All," spokesperson Barbara Rose welcomes novices, experts, adults and children. The professionalism and friendliness of the staff at Community Boating is enough to make anyone want to learn how to sail. Rose says, "We try to make it affordable for everybody, including people who need financial assistance." As Monty Hall would say, "Come on down." Call 523-1038 for information. ❑

The Oldest Swans in the World

Shame on any Bostonian who has yet to ride on the Swan Boats in the Public Gardens. One of Boston's most cherished traditions, the launching of the Swan Boats in the Public Garden lagoon takes place on Saturday, April 18th at 10am. The boats were innovated in the 1870's by Robert Paget, a man inspired by the opera Lohengrin in which a knight saves his princess by crossing a river in a boat pulled by a swan. Capitalizing on the principle of the bicycle, these pedal-driven boats were first licensed by the city of Boston in 1877, and to this day remain an historic feature of the Public Garden. In fact, Paget's family still runs the Swan Boats, which will operate 7 days a week from 10am to 4pm. Call 522-1966 for more information. ❑

Melanie Dunea

Guide for Your Free Time

RE STUDY

Fantasies for Sale

Ever wonder why you can't find a good pair of nipple clips anymore? Or a body harness? In fact, where does the smart shopper find some good bondage equipment? Filene's sure doesn't carry it. Neither does Louis. So who does?

Hubba Hubba, an alternative, shall we say, clothing store at 932 Mass. Ave. in Cambridge has the stuff you need. After opening in 1978 as a vintage clothing store and running through a punk phase in the early eighties, this progressive shop carries fetish items of interest. From high heeled men's crossdressing shoes to leather underwear, body restraints or latex catsuits - they have what you want. Let your fantasies begin at what owner Susan Phelps says is "the store for people who never say no to adventure." It's a good place to visit if you're not all tied up. Call 492-9082 to make your fantasy become a reality. ❑

Melanie Dunea

Yesterday's Leftovers are Today's Fashions

So you recycle paper and cans, but has it ever occurred that clothing can be recycled too? Well at the Red Dog store, located at 1737 Mass. Ave, in Cambridge, the castoffs from Mom's closet have evolved into today's fashion picks. Since 1976, Cindy Crosby has been raiding attics and cellars to unearth this vintage attire (including women's velvet and silk evening wear) in which the store specializes. The Red Dog also sells costume jewelry, contemporary clothing and retrograde-type furniture. Crosby's clothes have adorned such illustrious personalities as Bernadette Peters and the fashion queen herself, Cher, for her role in the movie Mermaids. Items range from $2 to $200. For hours and more information, contact Red Dog at 354-9676. ❑

LA TRENDS

Melanie Dunea

Louis C. Horowitz, our Los Angeles Trends Analyst/Surfer, says folks on the west coast are doing a healthy Easter this year. "Eggs are out. Avocados are in."

He's referring, of course, to the art of Easter egg dyeing, a tradition updated for modern times with a healthier alternative to the egg. "The avocados look great when they're colored. But it's hard to find enough of them in one store. I went to three supermarkets before finding one that wasn't sold out." And what's accompanying these avocado eggs? "Alfalfa sprouts have replaced plastic grass as the preferred Easter egg basket liner," says Horowitz. "It's a perfect choice for a vegetarian Easter." Horowitz adds some concerned thoughts for new parents: "Perhaps if we start the children off early enough, then their children, and their children's children, will all have cholesterol-free Easters. This is truly one of the most touching trends that I've ever seen. I say that the Avocado should be our new national symbol of hope for generations to come."

Melanie Dunea

What else is big in L.A.? "It started with one guy, a squirt gun and a hatred for smokers. Now it's a trend. I've seen a number of squirt gun snipers packing guns in their pants as they search for smokers. So far, all they do is aim the barrel at the end of someone's lit cigarette and then fire away. It sounds obnoxious but they're getting the message across: Don't smoke in public places. Who knows, maybe they'll lobby for even stricter smoking laws." Send any questions on the Avocado "Symbol of Hope" or squirt gun snipers to Louis C. Horowitz, L.A. Trends Analyst, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station Street, Brookline, Ma. 02146. All mail will be forwarded to his Los Angeles office. ❑

Caffé Vittoria

4 Level Caffe
3 Full Coffee Bars • 1 Non-Smoking Caffe
Serving 8 am 'til Midnight

296 Hanover St., North End 227-7606

Silver Restaurant Supply Outlet Store

Up to 30% off Mfgs. Prices!
China - Glassware - Silverware
From 20¢ per piece!
New & Used Restaurant Equipment
Closeouts and Discount Items

(617) 884-8700
232 Everett Avenue Chelsea, MA
Just over Tobin Bridge, 1 block from Mystic Mall, opposite Floramo's Steak House

Appeteasers

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

It's official!! The Great Yankee Rib Cookoff will take place in Downtown Boston (location as yet to be announced) the last week in September, or thereabouts. At least 20 New England restaurants will be participating in this three day event. Entertainment will also be provided. The festival will be headed up by Charlotte Bogardus of the Bogardus Group. For information, call 236-5700.

Happy 11th anniversary to Il Capriccio! To celebrate, some special wine dinners are in the planning stages, with products from Bollinger, Gravner and Vietti. For dates and further information, call 894-2234. The restaurant will be closing for a few days for renovations from April 25-29.

For a truly unusual dining experience, contact Enzo Raggiani of Enzo Ristorante d'Italia at 329 Harvard St., Brookline. He has set up two dining tables in his kitchen, and for a fixed price of $50 per person you can enjoy a specially created meal (including champagne) based on the chef's particular inspiration that evening. For reservations and information, call 277-1288.

How can you possibly pass up the Red Hot Mama Crawdaddy Fest? The date? April 20-26. The place? Skipjack's Fish House in Brookline Village, where the waitstaff will suitably attire for the occasion (whatever that means). For information, call 232-8887.

Good luck to the Thai Village restaurant, newly opened at the corner of Tremont and Upton in the South End. You may remember owner Som Chai Sriweawnetr's former restaurant, Sukhothai, in Dorchester, which he was forced to close. You may also remember he was the "Thai cook" who helped some U.S. hostages to escape from Iran.

Welcome to the Caffe Italia, which opened recently at 279 Newbury Street. Here you will find some fabulous desserts imported weekly from Italy (try the amaretto mousse), plus sandwiches and snacks including arancini (rice balls), panzarotti (potato balls with mozzarella), and stuffed hot cherry peppers.

Everyone is familiar with the North End's Cafe Paradiso; we hear that soon a 165 seat offspring will open at 351 Newbury Street. Light fare will be served all day.

A belated welcome to the Orchid Garden, an airy, pleasant Chinese restaurant that opened a few months ago at 92 Harvard St., Brookline, tel. 731-9760. This establishment serves Szechuan and Mandarin cuisine.

How can you improve on a perfect brunch? The Cafe Fleuri in the Meridien Hotel has added more entrees and desserts to the already generous selection - this is one buffet that shouldn't be missed. And the famous Saturday Chocolate Bar has also been expanded to include even more chocolate desserts. ❑

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Matching Food and Wine

by Al Stankus

In the big picture, wine is meant to be drunk with food. But what goes with what?

In restaurants ruled by an outdated mentality, one will often find a reminder on the wine list to choose "Red Wine with meat and pasta" and White wine with chicken and fish."

In the advice column, this platitude is about as helpful as: "Europe's a nice place to visit. And when you go, try to visit a museum."

Of course, an aged Bordeaux or big zinfandel would complement a leg of lamb. Ditto for a crisp Chablis or steely Sancerre with pan fried trout. But as unarguable as these truths may be, they don't always apply.

With the lamb, especially if it's off the summertime grill, a big oaky Spanish white like the Marques De Murrieta would be a hit. As for the trout, a fruity Pinot Noir such as the Adelsheim from Oregon would indeed be a knockout combination.

For this palate, texture (not color) is the key component in matching food and wine. If a dish is heavy, like a thick and heavily peppered steak au poivre, you need a wine that can figuratively cut through the flesh and marble to compete with the pepper. I recommend an aged Bordeaux or California Cabernet Sauvignon.

Melanie Dunea

For those delicate oysters on the half shell, you need a wine that will allow you to taste the oysters and their attendant brine; thus the choice is a crisp, non intrusive wine that won't overpower the slippery mollusks - not a creamy Chardonnay.

Listed below are some conventional food and wine matches followed by one that defies tradition in favor of balancing texture.

Broiled salmon: While Chardonnay is everyone's favorite, a Pinot Noir plays better to salmon's slightly oily consistency.

Linguini with pesto: When it comes to pasta, Chianti is a pro forma lock of the CW crowd. But with pesto, you need some acid to cut through its richness. Try a California Sauvignon like the Spottswoode, Quvira, or Carmenet or an Italian Vernaccia or Pinot Grigio.

Seafood Paella: With an abundance of fish, most would run to the Chardonnay section. But it's too heavy for the dish. Try a fruity, not overly aged Spanish Rioja served at a cool room temperature (62° F) and see how what's essentially a stew takes stew-like qualities.

And to prove that the palate is democratic, we offer the most undebatable point on the subject of food and wine matching: "I drink what I like." ❑ spring cornucopia

WINE & FOOD PAIRINGS
4 Wines/2 Courses with an informal presentation & discussion
Wednesdays 6-8pm
$20.00/person

APRIL 22 — Fetzer Zinfandels: Vertical Tasting of selected older vintages

MAY 6 — Sherries: The perfect apertif from Spain; come find out why.

MAY 20 — East vs. West: East Coast Wines compared to their counterparts from the Pacific Northwest

JUNE 3 — Roast Chicken & Wine: Which one to serve with this most popular dish.

JUNE 17 — Champagne or California Sparkling Wine. The American Sparklers vs. the "The Real Thing" ($30/p)

VINTNER DINNERS
A 4-Course Dinner with Wines to compliment each course, ($55/p).

APRIL 28 — 1983 Bordeaux Wine Dinner with Steve Hoffman, Wine Educator

MAY 12 — Sakonnet Wines with Tom Cottrell, Winemaker at Sakonnet Vineyards.

15 WEST ST. BOSTON • 338-4600

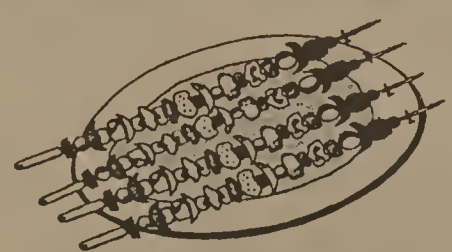
Four Winds

226 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront

(617) 742-3922

seafood grille

Tremont Villa
Function Hall



168 Tremont St.
Everett
387-1300

is proud to prersent
"'The Wedding Party"
The saga of
Frankie & Johnny

May 7, 1992

COMEDY DINNER THEATRE
(A 1955 Italian & Irish Wedding)
•Cocktail hour
•Complimentary hors d'oeurvres
•5-course sumptuous Italian dinner
•Musical entertainment of the 50's after the show!
$34.95 per guest (incl. t&t). Reserve your tickets early, seating is limited and a sellout is expected. A HALEY PRODUCTION

ARARAT
RESTAURANT

Whole Rotisseried Chicken (Farouj).....$6.20	Falafel Plate.....$4.75
Lamb Kebob.....$5.75	Falafel Sandwich $2.75
Chicken Kebob Plate .$4.75	Hommos $2.50
Shawerma Plate $4.99	Baba-Ganouj $3.00

We also serve beer and wine. Please come visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 * (617) 934-7011

The April fools at Fennel's & Co. on Mass. Ave. emulating their favorite magazine.

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown
242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Sardou is a lovely combination of poached eggs, creamed spinach and Hollandaise sauce. that though well portioned still leaves space for their raisin bread pudding or Creme Caramel. The Creole Omelette or the Chicken Clemenceau are other entrees that are sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz Brunch from 11am-2:15pm. Sun. 10:30am-2:15pm.

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Dell
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge
354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Chef of the Month

Lisa Deats

Bob Buoniconti of of Buoniconti"s

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

Bob Buoniconti would be hard put to think of a time when he didn't enjoy being in the kitchen. Growing up on a farm in Agawam, MA, he was surrounded by family members who liked to cook. While still a child, he started out cooking at home with his Mother and his Aunt; meanwhile, his Grandmother made wine, and every Friday, Bob helped his Uncle to make pizzas. The farm produced chickens, eggs, pigs and vegetables, so from an early age, Bob learned to appreciate fresh ingredients.

Eventually, Bob came to Boston with the dream of owning his own restaurant. At first, he did carpentry to make a living, then studied with Roberta Dowling at the Cambridge School of Culinary Arts. Having formal lessons made him realize how much he already knew, thanks to his upbringing. He worked for a while for Roberta's catering company, but his first restaurant job was as cook at the then newly opened Ristorante Toscano. After a year, he went to Il Capriccio, to learn sauces under Maurie Warren's guidance, staying between one and two years. He returned to assist Roberta Dowling with her cooking classes, then joined the staff of Davio's, cooking first at the Newbury Street location, then spending over five years in the Brookline restaurant. Finally, on March 31, 1989, Bob realized his ambitions and opened Buoniconti's, his very own restaurant, at 143 First Street, in Cambridge. At Buoniconti's, Bob is able to display his considerable talent for Italian food, with a seasonally changing menu that might include Crostini scacco matto (grilled Tuscan bread with goat cheese and herbs alternated with olive spread); pizza with roast red pepper puree, buffalo mozzarella and prosciutto; or roasted free range chicken with citrus thyme glaze. Naturally, Bob takes pride in personally selecting the freshest produce for the restaurant, going to the Chelsea market twice a week at 4.00am.

Bob is happy to share the following pasta sauce recipe with our readers:

Bob Buoniconti's Pomodoro Sauce

(Note that the quantities shown here are not hard and fast; you can vary the amounts according to your personal taste and sense of adventure)

Basic Sauce

1/2 cup olive oil
1/3 cup garlic, chopped
4 x 28oz cans tomatoes (preferably Italian plum)

Saute garlic in olive oil until golden, to release the raw flavor. Add tomatoes and cook on a low heat for 3-4 hours. At the end of the cooking time they should be reduced and sweet. Allow to cool, and refrigerate (or freeze) until required.

To use Sauce

2 tblsp. olive oil
1 clove garlic, chopped
1/3 cup fresh basil, chopped
salt and pepper to taste

Cook garlic in olive oil for a few minutes, add prepared pomodoro sauce, basil, salt and pepper. Serve with pasta. If you wish, add a drizzle of fresh virgin olive oil to the pasta just before serving. Enjoy! ❑

Louis G. Alex

and

Sonya L. Alex

Request the honour of your presence to celebrate the opening of Fresh Louie's Farm Market & Seafood store at 349A Newbury St. There will be a punch and hors d'oeuvres reception on Friday, April 24th from 5 to 7pm.

~

There will also be a champagne reception on Saturday, April 25th from 3 to 5pm.

No champagne served to minors.

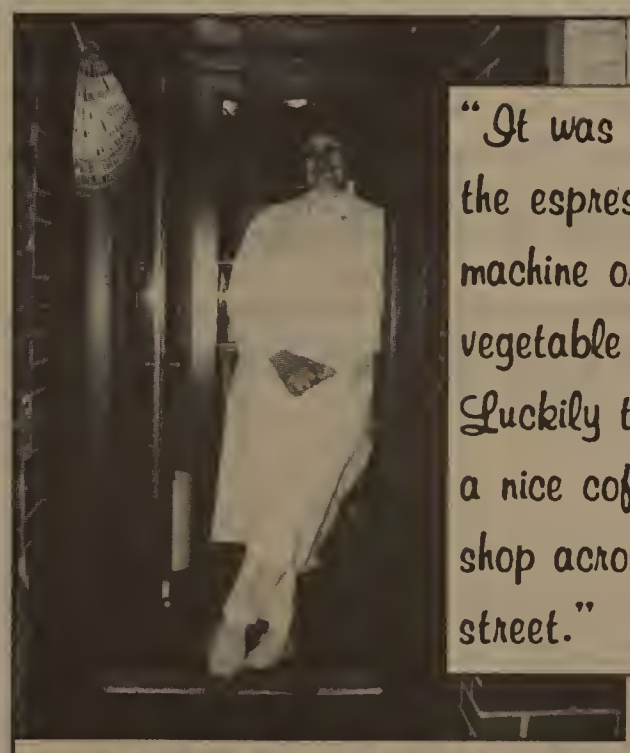
PUZZLED?

For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's

NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Call 1-900-646-8282

95c per minute



The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

"It was either the espresso machine or the vegetable bin. Luckily there's a nice coffee shop across the street."

Come for our Ravioli Di Zucca Alla Salvia!

The streets of Boston echo with praise for our Ravioli Di Zucca Alla Salvia...a homemade Ravioli stuffed with pumpkin, nutmeg and more - all served in a sage butter sauce.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO

"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Acapulco, 266 Newbury St., Bos. 247-9126 MC,V $
Looking for a quiet place to escape the throngs of shoppers, tourists and lookers on Newbury Street? Take a walk down the stairs into the easily missed entrance of Acapulco. They feature a variety of authentic fajitas, enchiladas, and much more. The atmosphere is relaxing, modest and a break from the many fast-paced Southwestern restaurants in town. Dishes range from $6 to $12. Open Sunday through Thursday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 10:30 p.m.

Ararat, 71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500 A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
A, D, MC,V $
Located across from the Circle Cinema, this casual neighborhood find offers what is reputed to be the best pad thai and peanut sauce in town (you'll crave them long after you've paid the bill). Order your entrees HOT or more subtly spiced for novices. Enjoy freshly baked desserts, beer and wine, and daily lunch specials. Delivery after 5pm. Open 7 days for dinner; Tues. - Sat. lunch. Sat. Brunch.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef, 604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V
$$$$
If your're a beer gourmand and your fantasy vacation would be to travel from Boston to L.A. sampling micro beers across the continental US, Boodles, is your bet. Enjoy Carnivorous dining in an elegant setting while you sip your ale. This posh grill room features impeccable service and a varied wine selection complementing a full menu- featuring lamb, shrimp brochettes and a thick succulent cut of of prime rib.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063
$
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016
$
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Caffe Vittoria, 296 Hanover St. Bos. 227-7606
$$
85 years ago , Caffe Vittoria opened it's doors as the first Italian caffee in the norht end. Old Photographs, antique coffee machines, and the tasteful decor of sleek marble tables and brass railings add to the cozy, unadulterated Italian charm. Try the canoli- made fresh 365 days a year.

Carlo Marinos, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltinboca alla Romano - veal layered with proscuitto with fresh sage, sauteed in wine; Spinacci di Cosa - spinach sauteed with garlic oil, cannelini beans and proscuitto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

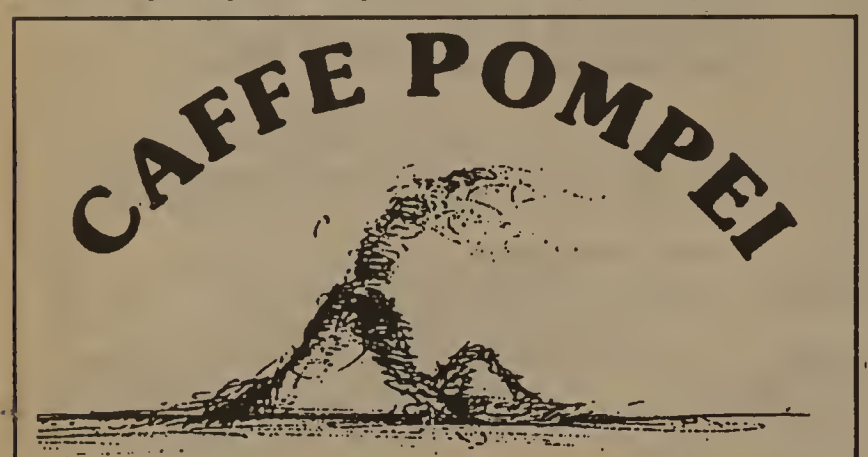
Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-6568
$$$
Deservedly the critics rave, this tiny "fun and funky" spot offers excellent cuisine and a lively atmosphere to a packed house nightly. Southern BBQ and fresh fish specials cooked on a wood-burning grill. Try the Jamaican beef from hell (beef strips, sugar cane and spices), mahi mahi with mango chutney, and for the brave, add a dash of Wow to your giant plate with one of four distinctive Inner Beauty Hot Sauces. Dinner nightly. On weekends, expect a wait. Reservations.

Felicia's, 145A Richmond St., Bos. 523-9885 AM,D,MC,V $$
Old-fashioned family-style dining in the North end. Twirl up some Southern Italian chow and keep your eyes peeled for such personalities as Steve Martin and Bob Hope. Have beer and wine with your meal or drinks in the upstairs lounge. Reservations on weekends. Open daily for dinner. Lunch only on Sun.



Four Winds, 266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922 A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Goemon Japanese Noodle Restaurants
267 Huntington Ave., Bos. 859-8669 1 Kendall Sq., Bldg. 100, Camb. 577-9595 $
Go easy on your wallet and have fun picking from a variety of traditional Japanese appetizers and noodle dishes: Soba- high energy buckwheat noodles (great for body builders), Udon - thick wheat noodles and Ramen - curly whole wheat noodles. Noodles in a hot or chilled broth that you can add to à la carte whatever toppings excite you. Upscale, modern decor. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V
$$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524 MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is

Open 7 Days 'til 4 am
The afterhours caffe that serves everything from pizza to pasta. Full dinner menu including award winning home made ice cream and desserts. 10% off Sunday through Thursday.
280 Hanover St. in the North End. 227-1562

Massachusetts' Oldest Italian Caffe

Homemade Cakes and Desserts.
The Best Cannolis and Espresso in Town.
308 Hanover St., North End 523-5063

We're Specialists . . . in Family Medicine.

The BEMC accepts TAHPS, Bay State, U.S. Health, AETNA, Mass. Blue Cross, Medicare and, most other insurance plans where applicable.
We're also specialists in:
• COMPREHENSIVE PHYSICALS
• ALLERGY • HYPERTENSION
• CARDIOLOGY • GYNECOLOGY
• EAR, NOSE AND THROAT • NUTRITION
• NEUROLOGY • MINOR SURGERY
• CANCER DETECTION • PEDIATRICS
• UROLOGY • DERMATOLOGY • VD
• MENTAL HEALTH
• CLINICAL LABORATORY • RADIOLOGY

PARKING!
267-7171
Located on the Green Line at Hynes Convention Center Stop and with parking garage adjacent. BEMC validation
Upholding a proud tradition of comprehensive & highly specialized medical care for Women since 1927.
• Comprehensive Medical Examination
• Full Birth Control Services
• Pelvic Exams
• Pap Smears
• PMS Treatment
• Pregnancy Testing
• Premarital Blood Tests
• Stress Management
• Preventative Health
• Menopause Therapy
• Weight Loss Program

Call 267-7171 for prompt appointment.
AMERICAN EXPRESS VISA MasterCard
BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER
388 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston
Not just in the evening, anymore. Morning...noon...and nighttime too!

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobeHo mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

India Samraat, 51A Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 247-0718 $
Stroll into this genuine Indian restaurant and sample some chicken tikka masala, a favorite of their regulars. Try another popular specialty dish, the non-vegetarian Thali. Service is excellent in this exposed-brick interior and Indian paintings adorn the walls. Samraat also offers take out and delivery. Lunch from 12-3pm and dinner 5-11pm weeknights, 12-11pm on weekends.

Jasper's, 240 Commercial St., Bos. 523-1126
D,MC,V $$$$
Jasper White is rightly lauded for his waterfront establishment's outstanding consistency. Service is impeccable without being snooty, the decor pleasantly contemporary and the food sublime. Jasper likes to take simple plebeian dishes and add to them subtle nuances and spice. Try the signature pan roasted lobster with chevril and chives and the baked chocolate bread and butter pudding. Appropriate dress. Open Tue.-Sat. for dinner.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legals, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch avail. in burbs.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cutina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$

Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Shalimar of India
546 Massachusetts Ave., Camb. 547-9280
A,MC,V $
This Indian dive/restaurant at Central Sq. specializes in Northern Indian cuisine. After some pakoras (spinach and cauliflower deep-fried in chickpea batter) and raita (yogurt and cucumber), choose from several chicken and shrimp tandoori (baked in a clay oven) and curry plates. Lunch Mon.-Sat. Dinner daily. Relax over chaiy (Indian tea) at the Sun. buffet-style brunch from 12:00-3pm.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Union Oyster House, 41 Union St., Bos. 227-2750 A,D,MC,V $$
Opened in 1826, this Boston landmark is the oldest restaurant in continuing business in the U.S. Their raw oyster bar, where you can still gobble down oysters, littlenecks and cherrystones, was often a hangout for Daniel Webster. If raw isn't your bag, you can order up the crab cakes in Newburg sauce or broiled scrod. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Victoria Station, 64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771 MC,V,A,D,D $$
Located next to the Children's Museum and overlooking Boston Harbor , you'll experience casual dining in a railroad atmosphere surrounded by authentic 'Victoria Station' artifacts. Early-bird specials include prime rib and seafood specialties. Pub menu available until midnight. Open Sun.-Sat., 11:30am to 1am.

Zapata's
1010 Beacon St., Brookline 566-5983
A, D, MC, V $$
Named after a Mexican revolutionary, this offbeat cantina adds new twists to Mexican comida. Pechugas Román - boneless breast of chicken coated with ground popcorn, sauteed with poblano and hablanero chiles, wild mushrooms and herb butter, is a favorite. Sample a Chihuahua or Boston's best margaritas - "as long as you're not driving." Open 7 nights for dinner; Mon. - Frl. for lunch.

THE BIG DELI

FAST FREE DELIVERY TO:
Boston University, Boston College
Allston, Brighton, Brookline.
782-1222

Or stop by at 568 Cambridge St. in Allston for great food and frendly service.

PIZZA

Plain	4.50	7.00
Double Cheese	5.00	8.00
Onion	4.75	7.50
Green Pepper	4.75	7.50
Ham	5.00	8.00
Hamburger	5.00	8.00
Pepperoni	5.00	8.00
Salami	5.00	8.00
Sausage	5.00	8.00
Anchovy	5.00	8.00
Olives	5.00	8.00
Mushroom	5.00	8.00
2-Way	6.50	9.50
3-Way	7.50	10.00
4-Way	8.00	10.50
Big A Special	9.00	12.00
Per Slice	1.00

STEAKS

Plain	3.60	4.00
Onion	3.75	4.25
Pepper	3.75	4.25
Cheese	4.00	4.50
Mushroom	4.20	4.75
Mushroom & Cheese	4.30	4.90
Steak & Egg	4.50	5.00
Steak, Egg & Cheese	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Cheese	4.10	4.60
Big A Special	4.50	5.00

SUBS

American	3.35	3.75
Italian	3.35	3.75
Ham & Cheese	3.35	3.75
Salami & Cheese	3.50	4.00
Roast Beef	4.00	4.75
Corned Beef	4.00	4.75
Pastrami	3.50	4.00
Meatball	3.35	3.75
Sausage	3.35	3.75
Meatball & Sausage	4.00	4.50
Double Hamburger	3.10	4.00
Double Cheeseburger	3.35	4.25
Eggplant	3.35	3.75
Tuna	4.30	4.80
Turkey	4.00	4.50
Chicken Salad	4.00	4.50
Crabmeat	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Egg	3.35	3.75
Pepperoni & Egg	3.35	3.75
Sausage & Egg	3.35	3.75
Mushroom & Egg	3.35	3.75
Western	3.35	3.75
Eastern	3.35	3.75
Veal Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Chicken Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Ham, Turkey & Cheese	4.25	4.85

SIDE ORDERS

French Fries	1.50	2.50
Onion Rings	1.50	2.50

DINNERS

BAKED MANICOTTI	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
BAKED STUFFED SHELLS	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
HOMEMADE LASAGNA	5.75
With Meatballs	6.25
With Italian Sausage	6.25
With Eggplant	6.25
With Chicken Cutlets	7.50
With Veal Cutlets	7.50
BAKED RAVIOLI Parmigiana	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
SPAGHETTI PLAIN	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
DINNER SPECIALS
Chiskabob	5.00
Fried Chicken	5.50
Chicken Fingers	5.50
Cheeseburger Plate	5.50
Hamburger Plate	5.00

SALADS

Garden Salad	3.35
Greek Salad	4.00
Antipasto Salad	4.25
Turkey Salad	5.00
Tuna Salad	5.00
Chicken Salad	5.00
Crabmeat	5.00

FREE DELIVERY 782-1222

THE BIG A — It's so delicious

568 Cambridge Street, Allston
Sun. - Thur 10 am to 11 pm
Fri. & Sat. 10 am - 1 am

Mention this ad and recieve $1 off your order of $10 or more, or take $2 off for orders of $15 or more.

caffé paradiso
est. 1966

gelati

sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs

scotches

soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street
Boston

3 Water Street
Boston

1 Elliot Street
Cambridge

349 Newbury Street
Boston (May '92)

MUSIC

Keltner, Cooder, Lowe & Hiatt of Little Village

Little Village at the Orpheum

As '92's first supergroup of Geritol rehab escapees, Little Village brings their perfect pop ditties to the Orpheum for a 7:30 show on April 26. Comprised of Jim Keltner, Ry Cooder, Nick Lowe and John Hiatt, Little Village combines the pleasures of pop with the hard chops of rock. In support of their self-titled Reprise debut, this concert is definitely not one to miss. Tix available at the Orpheum Box Office or through TicketMaster at 931-2000. ❑

Cover Me

The Shivers Cast a Chill on Boston

by Rey Roldan

"It's fair to say that we're a cover band in Boston that slips about ten originals into our sets on any given night," says vocalist and founder of the Rhode Island group The Shivers. To be a cover band in Boston usually means being not being creative enough to write your own songs. But for the Shivers, playing other people's hits is a healthy alternative to being starving artists. "A lot of bands feel that they would be lowering their standards by being a cover band," Read explains. "We learn a lot about what we're doing by playing other people's songs and, besides, we get paid for it. I don't think that it has affected our growth as an original band."

While the Shivers do have an extensive list of original songs, the availability of gigs catering to original music is extremely scarce. With thousands of Boston bands vying for slots at T.T.'s or the Paradise, the competition is almost discouraging. However, the rise in number of college bars and clubs has created a need for bands to entertain inebriated university students. "We get lots more exposure [playing to this crowd] than if we just took the occasional original gig that was offered to us in Boston or at CBGB's

(continued on following page)

There's No Biz Like Showbiz

Rappers Showbiz and A.G. Tell the Secret of Their Success

by Rey Roldan

At a time when the new wave in music is a hybridation of all types of rock, the elemental pure forms are getting stronger and stronger. Showbiz and A.G., one of the newest faces on the commercial rap scene, have emerged from Bronx, NY with a new self-titled EP (Payday/London Records) that has already proven its worth as a legit piece of art. "During the first two days [of the EP's release], I sold 35,000 copies," said DJ and scratcher Showbiz who wasn't quite prepared for the overwhelming sales.

It ought to come as no surprise that their major label debut was such a big seller. Before the big jump to the Polygram label, Showbiz sold 4,000 copies of their independently produced cassette out of his car. Without major label backing or promotion, Showbiz and A.G. have managed to take New York City by storm and grow in popularity exponentially by word of mouth alone. "Every morning, people would come to me and buy two copies," he explained. "Later, they'd come back and buy eight copies. Then they'd start ordering twenty. Then they'd start ordering boxes. I had to stop after selling 4,000 copies because that's when I knew I had to get a major deal."

A.G. & Showbiz: Rappin' to a party groove

Following similar lines as the songs of Kid N' Play and Black Sheep, the resulting EP's focal singles "Soul Clap" and the "Party Groove" are goodtime songs that are more akin to having fun than making a political statement. "We have [songs that deal with serious topics] on the upcoming album," he said. "But not political stuff like [racism]. We're working on stuff that people can relate to, as far as everyday living, as far as women, as far as your best friend. Stuff that happens to everybody, whether you're black or white or whatever."

With a major label deal tucked firmly in their pocket, the lure of capitalism has yet to take its toll on these twenty-two year olds. For now, though, it seems as if Showbiz still has the purpose of playing music secure and well-anchored. "Hiphop is rapping, deejaying, dancing," he confirmed without a tinge of doubt. "At least, that's my point of view from here in the streets and I've been deejaying all my life." The tendency to cash in on the commercialism seems to be creeping into Showbiz's future, however, as the prospect of an upcoming tour is beginning to unfold. "When we play live, I jump around and get into it, but I'm not really the performing type. A.G. is more of the performer," he laughed. "Besides, I just want to be in the background and collect." ❑

An Intimate Cool Place

"A Place For Jazz" Opens at the Brattle

by Stephen Provizer

Those who had the good fortune to go to the 1369 Jazz Club in Cambridge during its five year run ('83-'88), knew it as a joint that existed for all the right reasons: to serve the music and the people who love that music, in an unpretentious atmosphere.

On Friday and Saturday, April 11th and 12th, the film "A Place For Jazz," chronicling the heyday and demise of the 1369, makes its world premiere at the Brattle Theatre in Harvard Square. The film was produced by the three owners of the club, directed by well-known Boston documentary filmmaker Richard Broadman and has Michael Haggarty, jazz writer and disc jockey on WHRB as associate director and guiding spirit.

"A Place for Jazz" uses footage shot over the course of three years at all these events and intercuts it with interviews both of the community that coalesced around the club and the performers. Archie Shepp, Steve Lacy, Andrew Cyrille and Henry Threadgill are people with a lot to say and these interviews are anything but puff. The film also gives us an inside look at the ongoing tension that manifested itself- as it always does in the world of Jazz - between Art and Commerce. The owners were engaged in a constant struggle to balance the needs of customers who-as one owner says "don't like to be treated like cattle"- with the need to pay musicians the kind of money they want and/or deserve and their own need to make a living and keep the club going.

While this is serious stuff, Director Richard Broadman's sense of humor brings a dimentionality to this tension. For example, in one scene, we see musician Henry Threadgill discussing the struggles of trying to make it in jazz, while shots of a waitress mopping up and a clock on the wall reading "1:30" are intercut. You can sense the mopper thinking, "Yea, Art's great, but I've been on my feet since 5:00."

It's the juxtaposition of viewpoints and the range of emotion that make this movie more than just a showcase for talent. In the same way, what seemed like a simple enough idea - having a place where people could come to play and listen to Jazz - turned out to be not so simple. "A Place For Jazz" shows us how devotion to the music, combined with a certain amount of blood, sweat and irony, created both a sense of community and some very sublime music at the 1369 club in Cambridge.❑

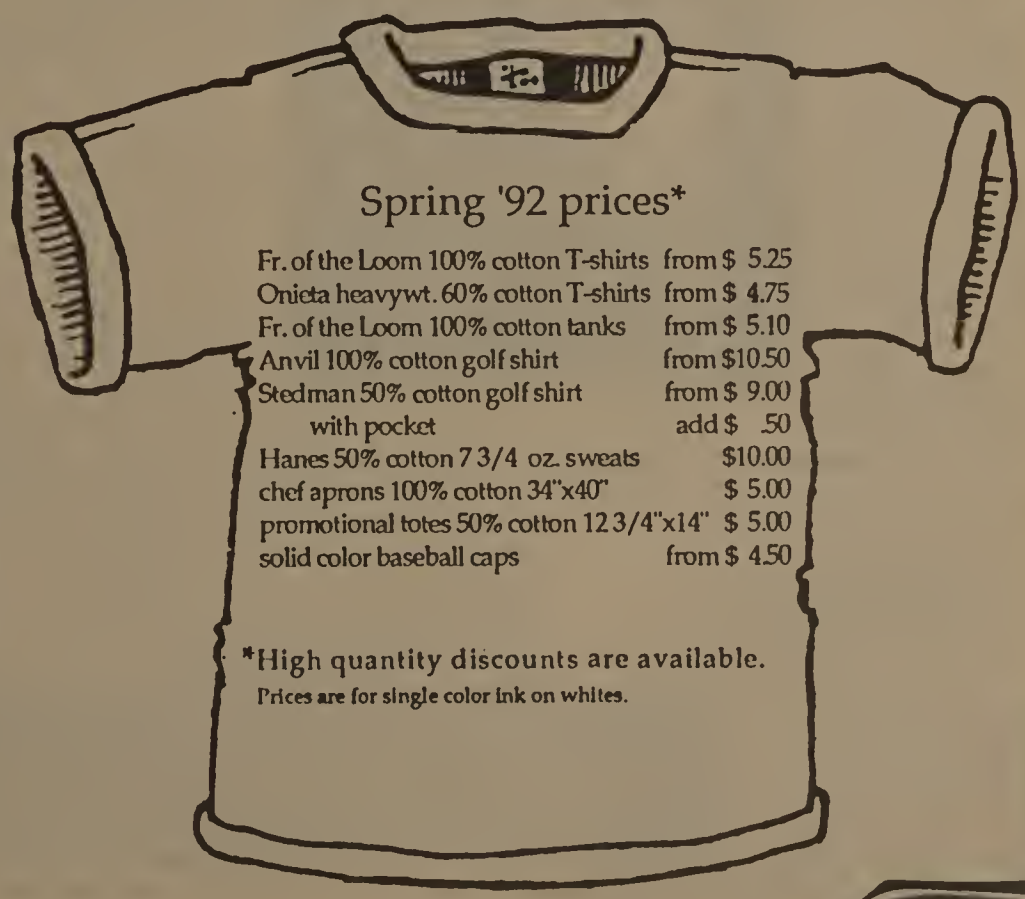
Archie Shepp in a scene from "A Place for Jazz"

Custom Auto Radio of Watertown

- Auto Stereos
- Auto Alarms
- Mobile Phones
- Radar Detectors
- CB Radios & Scanners

Creating and Designing Custom
Auto Sound Systems at Affordable Prices

Guaranteed Lowest Prices



Blaupunkt • Rockford Fosgate • Clarion • Toshiba Pioneer
Viper Alarm • Invisabeam Alarms •

660 Arsenal St. • Watertown • 923-2122

No Appointment Necessary • Installations 'Till 9 pm

Custom made shirts that fit you to a T.

At N E Design, we custom print T-shirts using anything from your vague ideas to a completed design. We'll print as few as 24, as many as 24,000 -- from a simple black on white to a full color masterpiece. And our spring rates are sure to fit your budget. So, whether they're for your softball team, hard-core band or knitting club, N E Design has a shirt for you. Stop by and check us out!

Spring '92 prices*

Fr. of the Loom 100% cotton T-shirts	from $ 5.25
Onieta heavywt. 60% cotton T-shirts	from $ 4.75
Fr. of the Loom 100% cotton tanks	from $ 5.10
Anvil 100% cotton golf shirt	from $10.50
Stedman 50% cotton golf shirt	from $ 9.00
with pocket	add $ .50
Hanes 50% cotton 7 3/4 oz. sweats	$10.00
chef aprons 100% cotton 34"x40"	$ 5.00
promotional totes 50% cotton 12 3/4"x14"	$ 5.00
solid color baseball caps	from $ 4.50

*High quantity discounts are available.
Prices are for single color ink on whites.

N E Design
123 Jersey street • Boston • Massachusetts • 02215 • (671)247-2028

(continued from previous page)

in NYC every six weeks," says Read. "Playing this circuit gives us the money to record our own songs the best way we possibly can."

With the help of producer Phil Greene (of Maurice Star fame), engineer Tom Soares (who helped Marky Mark pull a fast one) and friend Jamie Locke, the band patiently recorded and mixed their signature song "Disciple of Love" endlessly until everyone was happy. The result is an impeccably well-polished, pop scorcher that's destined to be classic. "I'm always striving for polish in the arrangements," says Read. "We worked so hard to polish 'Disciple of Love' that I think we've come up with a really great, full sound."

Starting out in '81, the original Shivers played college circuit for two years and soon burned out. Read took a leave of absence in Los Angeles working odd jobs but finally realized that it was time to take the Shivers out of hibernation and start again. In 1988, he returned to Rhode Island and, with a hefty push from his girlfriend, answered an ad for a vocalist in The Newpaper. "It wasn't really what I was looking for but it was the closest thing," he remembers. "That's how I met Gary and Rick. Later we found Fred [Broadly, bassist who was recently replaced by Graig Silva] and we spent six to ten months just rehearsing both originals and covers. With the help of a great manager, we finally made it back out into the RI circuit."

Now with a killer EP and a slew of gigs in the area at Copperfields and the Purple Shamrock, they're ready to cast a chill on Boston. And reception seems to be warming up to the Shivers. "People always seem to be comparing us to the Clash and that's great," Read says quite contentedly. "Now, if can only sell anywhere near as many records, we'd be set." ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

Melissa Etheridge
Never Enough
Island Records

It's hard to accept another folk rocker who wears a black leather jacket and weathered jeans. But Melissa Etheridge escapes this severely overgeneralized prejudice and pounds the granola out of the Indigo Girls. Not as depressed as her earlier releases, Never Enough rocks to a shuffling blend of music and lyrics. Erotically coy but as seductively romantic as the DiVinyl's Christina Amphlett, Etheridge tells of a naive, innocent meeting in "Meet Me in the Back" where she playfully sings "First show me yours/ Maybe I'll show you mine." She also upstages Springsteen in her very "My Hometown"-esque "The Boy Feels Strange" where Scott Thurston's keyboards whine off in the distance like a bleeding heart. As the album's strongest track, "Keep It Precious" puts Etheridge at her brightest as a pained and distraught woman saying goodbye to an ex-lover. Powerful, evocative and chilling, Never Enough proves Etheridge is as weathered as her trusty pair of jeans.

-Maureen M. Blandino

❑ ❑ ❑

The Chainsaw Kittens
Flipped Out in Singapore
Mammoth Records

While the glam in rock is slowly making its way back from the Sixties and Seventies, the Chainsaw Kittens seem to have a firm grip on the whole scene, but don't let it infringe on the music. Their follow-up to the immensely successful debut Violent Religion secures their place in rock as a front-runner for bringing muse back into music. Buzzing through layers of noise with heavy guitars and pounding drums, singer/crossdresser Tyson Meade and band craft perfect pop songs from the remnants of rock dinosaurs. Part New York Dolls and part Stooges (with a heavy dose of The Knack), the Chainsaw Kittens takes a bit of each and spits it out. "Ezekial Walks Through Sodom & Gomorrah" sounds like the Ramones on a serious Anthrax kick. The Chainsaw Kittens may just be the next step for those who thought the Jane's Addiction break-up happened too soon, except that these cats are way cooler.

-Rey Roldank.d. lang

❑ ❑ ❑

k.d. lang
Ingénue
Sire Records

While her "No Meat" stance sent the Country Belt into a k.d. lang boycott a few years ago, her new album Ingénue sure won't help restore her popularity with Western fans. Shadowland and Absolute Torch and Twang established her as one of the most gifted of the new breed of country stars, but her new album is an uninflatable balloon of mediocrity. Boring, laconic and bland are the key words here. While she may be experimenting with night club atmospherics, there's no flame to the torch in her voice. Resembling ELO more than her idol Patsy Cline, lang doesn't seem to be taking any chances and the result is as exciting as Kevin Nealon on Saturday Night Live. "Miss Chatelaine" has no verve, nor does it ring in anything new. lang sounds like she has a severe bout with narcolepsy and is snoring more than singing. On "Outside Myself," her vocals meander aimlessly around a laconic beat and she quite appropriately sings, ""I've been outside myself for so long/Every feeling I've had is close to gone." Seems like everyone who listens to this album will be able to relate to her lyrics quite well.

-Rey Roldan

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Aerosmith soundman Tony Lentini tells us the bad boys are currently rehearsing in L.A. enroute to Vancouver to record their next album. Ex-Jon Butcher Axis horn /guitar/keyboardist Thom Gimbel will contribute some tracks. Johnny A, ex-Hearts of Fire and Stu Kimball, ex-Face to Face are waiting for Derek and the Dominoes tinkler, Bobby Whitlock to come back from Ireland and start rehearsing for a planned album and tour. Tell the Truth Johnny, aint life grand? Hard Rock Cafe Newz: April 18th is scheduled for their Opening Day Red Sox Party with monsterman Steven King coming down from his cabin in Maine to party. And promotional Queen, Shari Miller will actually bunjie jump at The Harbor Club wearing a Hard Rock Cafe T-shirt. Talk about loyalty! Forget the T-shirt, Shari, wear a parachute...Eric Gsell seen goose-stepping behind the bar at Bunratty's ...Happy, Happy from Glenda Holmes from Ultra Blue and Joey Pesce ex-'Til Tuesday...Did you hear Miss Xanna Don't on the WFNX superstars show? She was singing and doing her bouffant thing. ...Bob O'Neil, Club III's wild barkeep must keep owners Ann Marie and Jack Carnes happy with his uncanny behind the bar bantering ...Mr. Stone's Country, with ex-145 guy John Fortunato, does the best version of "Burnin' Love" since you know who!...Johnny Groove is Groovy...

James Cotton, the Grandmaster of the harp at The Harper's Ferry w/ special guests Radio Kings April 23...Happy happy to slide/pedal virtuoso Cliff Wagner of Doghouse...Chuck Sullivan back managing O'Brien's The club where The Dead live. Checkout The Candles for Garcia-like musical Nirvana and say high to bartender Russell Levine our Bartender of the Week for his Savior Faire in the line of duty...Hotbox just signed with DGC Records...Ex-Blockyard guitar Sal Difusco now doing a Jeff Beck tribute show entitled "Wired"...Incestuous Scene Dept: Robin Lane's recent gig at The Tam was great. Ex-Chartbuster Wally Baier teaming up with Becky Stock in a duo called Twilight. ..Idle Hands plays r & roll the way Chuck Berry envisioned music to have evolved in the 90's, and their song "I'm In Love" is our Turntable Song of the Week cause its a hit, pure and simple. Asa's other gig Blue Heaven brought their R&B act to Harper's Ferry recently and their set reached legendary proportions. Bandmasters Kit and Brother Cleve also play in Wheelers And Dealers one of the best c&w bar bands in the area. Check them out with Rockabilly great Sleepy LaBeef and Xanna Don't at Bunratty's on May 1...Johnny D's in Somerville will be showcasing J. Lincoln Wright, Willie Alexander and Barry And The Remains great Barry Tashian on April 30...The Bentmen's record release party is at Axis on April 29. And don't miss The Real Kids reunion with Idle Hands and Vindicators at The Rat April 25. Busy week!...The Fifth Rumblesauras Rex finals with Change of Pace, Cowpokes and Reaction at Edible Rex on the 16th. And don't bother asking Doorman Of The Week, Greg Clarke who's the best employee of the club. Owner Michael Reck tells us the answer is quite apparent...Sam Black Church plays great contemporary r&roll...Waitress Of The Week has to be Stephanie O'Donnell from Club III because people come to the club just to be waited on by her!...Myanna is up for two Boston Music Awards, Jazz Act and Jazz Album...Bluegrass Minstrels Southern Rail has a new release, "Roadwork" out on Turquoise Records. The product runs the gamut from contemporary trios to acapella gospel to spirited instrumentals...Recession Blues Dept: The North Shore's Grover's closing down, Molly's sold and The Channel in a perpetual state of limbo. The grod news is one can always go to Fathers II, hang out with BNN-TV's Rasaputin, and lose all sense of reality...The Lensmen with members of Ska-Kings Bim Skala Bim do the best version of "It's Now or Never" since you know who. Bim was just filmed at The Paradise at the Amnesty International Benefit for an upcoming ABC friday night In Concert Series show...Latest grads of The Pedro Borst School of Roadyism are twins Warren and Thom Termini who were overheard saying "Bands Make it Rock, Roadies make it roll"...Bands/performers send your updates so we can tell the world about your talents. ❑

BARS & CLUBS

TICKETMART

BAY STATE TICKET

Concerts - Theatre - Sports Events

• Earth Day Concert	Foxboro	4/25
• Jerry Seinfeld	Brandeis U.	5/9
• Genesis	Foxboro	5/20
• The Cure	Worcester	5/6
• James Taylor	Great Woods	8/27, 8/28
• Neil Diamond	Worcester	8/28 - 8/30

Red Sox, Bruins, Celtics

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex

Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

April 16 Bid Audio Dynamite, P.I.L., Live, Blind Melon
Gosman Center at Brandeis, ($19.50)

April 20 Lai Ming
Berklee, ($60.00/45.00/30.00)

April 21 Tribe
Avalon, ($15.00)

April 24 Skid Row
New Auditorium in Worcester, ($19.50)

April 24 Earth Day; Steve Miller Band, Indigo Girls, Midnight Oil, The Kinks, Roseanne Cash, Bruce Cockburn, Mary Chapin Carpenter and more
Foxboro Stadium ($35.00/25.00/19.50)

April 28-May 10 Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story
Colonial Theatre, ($22.50-47.50)

April 29 Michael Feinstein
Symphony Hall, ($27.50/25.00)

Ticketmaster
Outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.

Out-of-Town Tickets
Call 492-1900 for information.

Concertcharge
Call 497-1118 to charge tickets. Amex, MC or Visa.

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch..

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT LOUNGE 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover..

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites..

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies..

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

APRIL

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15 BAL 1:05	16 BAL 6:05	17 TOR 6:05	18 TOR 1:05
19 TOR 1:05	20 TOR 11:05	21 MIL 7:05	22 MIL 7:05	23 MIL 2:35	24 TEX 7:35	25 TEX 1:05
26 TEX 1:05	27	28 CHI 7:35	29 CHI 7:35	30

MAY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1 KC 7:35	2 KC 1:05
3 KC 1:05	4 MIN 7:35	5 MIN 7:35	6 CHI 8:05	7 CHI 1:35	8 KC 8:35	9 KC 2:35
10 KC 2:35	11	12 MIN 8:05	13 MIN 8:35	14	15 CAL 7:35	16 CAL 1:05
17 CAL 1:05	18 SEA 7:35	19 SEA 7:35	20 SEA 7:35	21	22 OAK 7:35	23 OAK 1:05
24 OAK 1 SEA	25	26 CAL 10:35	27 CAL 10:35	28 CAL 10:35	29 SEA 10:35	30 SEA 10:05

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 OAK 10:05	2 OAK 10:05	3 OAK 3:15	4	5 CLE 7:35	6 CLE 1:05
7 CLE 1:05	8 BAL 7:35	9 BAL 7:35	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 8:35
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 3:00
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 2:35	19 CAL 2:35	20 CAL 2:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 1:05	24 OAK 7:35	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05
30 CAL 4:05	31 SEA 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:35	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 MIN 1:05

Away
Home

TV GAMES ON WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers. .

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous..

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night..

Tue 21st--Tribe plays for 2 Great Shows. 7pm show All Ages. 10pm show is 18+.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights..

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested.

Thur 16th--WZBC 90.3 FM present The Cranes with very special guests Belly featuring Tanya Donnelly of Throwing Muses Wed 22nd--White Zombie, Snydely Whiplash Thur 23rd--Imago Records presents The Henry Rollins Band with special guests Tool

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays..

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm..

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed..

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover..

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price..

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The

BARS & CLUBS

Why Not
the Best?

Call
Successful
Singles®

And

Discover why 10,000
men and women
just like you have invested in the most Comprehensive Unique and Intelligent approach to making their social life the best part of their life.

CALL NOW
for your personalized
in-home consultation.
237-1480
7 days a week
10 am - 10 pm
This call may change
your life.

walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop..

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights..

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays..

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress..

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code..

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress..

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm..

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans..

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there..

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicacy to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped..

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games..

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu..

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches..

Thur 16th--Kip London Fri 17th--Chris Chandler Sat 18th--Rick Berlin & Tim Hughes Sun 19th--Happy Easter-No Music Tonite, Folks Thur 23rd--Jennifer Johnston & Ellie Marshall Fri 24th--Wendy Sobel & Kathy Phipps Sat 25th--Mare Streetpeople & The Now or Never Showcase Sun 26th--Satyagraha & Rob Lytle

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies..

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress..

Wed 15th--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An estabilished and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...

Wed 15th--Porchmen Thur 16th--Boston's Best Guitar Competition Fri 17th--Nite of Blues with the Big Blues Meanies, Part-Time Lovers, Rapt Rascal & the Sorority House Horns Sat 18th--The Neighborhoods, Mother May I, Coloring Tunes Sun 19th--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 21st--Dart League Nite every Tues. Wed 22nd--King Friday, Chop Chop Fri 24th--Tutts World Beat Nite Featuring Thumper, Miltex 1000 and OWII Sat 25th--The Gift

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live bands play Sat. nights. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples..

Fri 17th--The Search Party Sat 18th--One People Fri 24th--The Search Party

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months..

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon. .

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boyiston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress..

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please..

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear. Tue. night is Jazz night. .

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress. .

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs..

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Mon 20th--

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches..

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line..

BARS & CLUBS

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment..

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 15th--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 19th--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 20th--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code..

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy)..

Thur 16th--The Shirley Lewis Experience (5 pc. Blues) Fri 17th--Stovall Brown (4 pc. R&B) Sat 18th--The Snake Stretchers (4 pc. Blues) Sun 19th--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 4-9pm Mon 20th--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Thur 23rd--The Steve Canty Band (4 pc. Blues) Fri 24th--The Search Party (6 pc. Caribbean) Sat 25th--Wildest Dreams (6 pc. Worldbeat)

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress..

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 15th--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 16th--Little Anthony and the Locomotives with special guests The Landlords of Soul Fri 17th--Shirley Lewis Sat 18th--Fat City Sun 19th--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 20th--The Pacifiers Tue 21st--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!) Thur 23rd--James Cotton Fri 24th--Boston Baked Blues Sat 25th--James Montgomery Mon 27th--Rapt Rascals and the Sorority House Horns

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu..

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Fri 17th--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 18th--Afro Funk Mozamba Sun 19th--Blues Jam 4-8pm, African House Fri 24th--Treat Her Right Sun 26th--Blues Jam 4-8pm Mon 27th--Cabaret du Somerville happens every other Monday

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Thur 16th--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 19th--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 20th--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 21st--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Michael Curley, for additional information on this former Boston Mayor's controversial past, call Don Aucoin at the Boston Globe 929-3000, ext. 3060, while you're at it, inquire about the award he received for outstanding journalism. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code..

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Mattress students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 15th--Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Sat 18th--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Wed 15th--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 16th--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 17th--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 18th--

Wednesday's

T's Pub

THE PLACE TO MEET

presents

KARAOKE NIGHT

with

DAN McARTHY

D.J. Thursdays, Fridays & Saturdays

For fine tips, sandwiches and
The Best Buffalo Wings in Boston!

Mon-Sat. 11a.m.-2a.m. Sunday Noon - 2a.m.

973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 254-0807

Jazz A BAR Cafe EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

The Great Boston Patio Tour

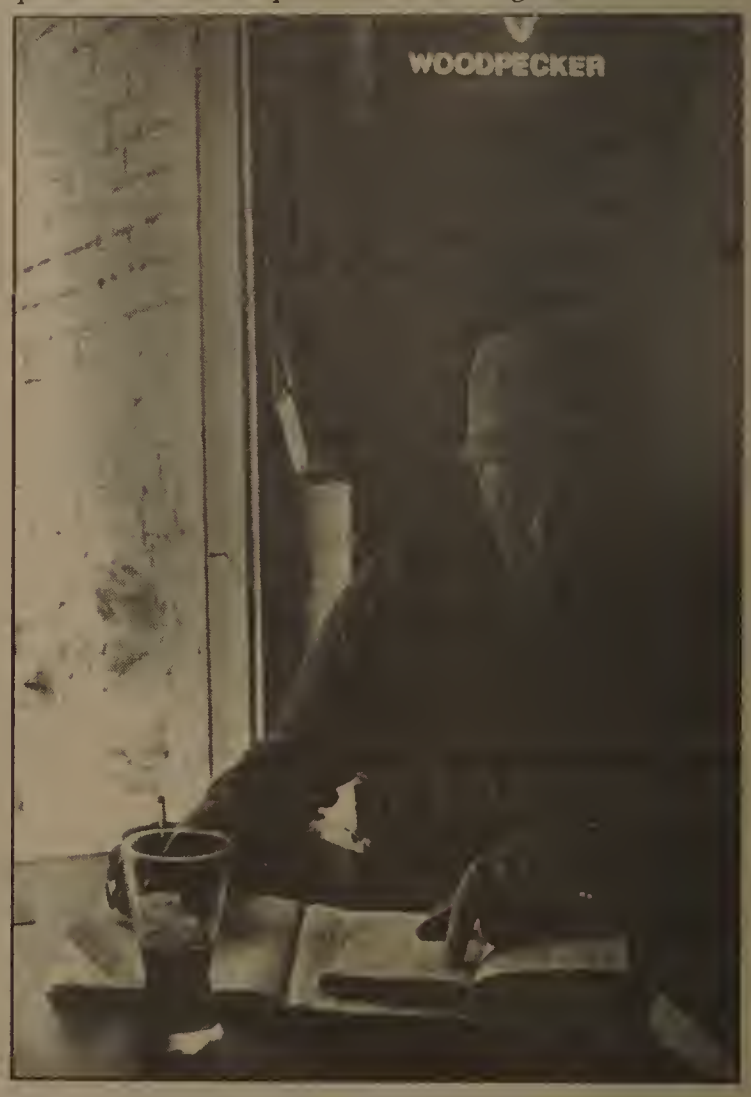
by Kathy Matheson

In spite of what the recent snow outside tells us, the calendar on the wall says that spring has been in Boston for almost a month. What gives? Well, you won't find any insight into the workings of Mother Nature here, but you will find some terrific restaurants whose patios offer good food, a nice tan and a great vantage point for the funniest sport of them all - people watching.

On the Mass. Ave. end of Newbury Street, there's Charley's Saloon, a classy joint known for their steaks. Complete with doormen, their patio is truly enjoyable. If ethnic cuisine is more your style, Thai food from The King and I is available right next to Italian food from Davio's Cafe. A few blocks from them is a patio for what most think is Daisy Buchanan's bar, but really belongs to the Italian cafe Ciao Bella, at 240A Newbury St.

Jill Connelly

Relax along the banks of the Charles at The Boston Sail Loft



One block south of Tower Records, on Boylston Street, the patios are fewer but still enjoyable. The Cactus Club has a small, yet intimate patio, but further down is the Rattlesnake, whose second floor Urban Canyon is the restaurant's open courtyard seating area (The place rocks in good weather).

Quincy Market boasts numerous places to eat under umbrellas and in between the pigeons. Lily's has both indoor, terrarium-type seating (complete with piano) and a patio; the Ames Plow Tavern, Salty Dog, Seaside and Serendipity (featuring frozen hot chocolate) restaurants all feature roped-off outdoor seating. If looking at oversized tourists with overstuffed shopping bags isn't your cup of tea, go to Tia's at Long Wharf (200 Atlantic Ave.), where you can have a nice view of the Harbor and Christopher Columbus park.

But to see a more regular crowd, cross the river into Cambridge. As part of the Charles Hotel in Harvard Square, the Bennett Street Cafe is one of the better nighttime outdoor cafes, especially when it showcases live bands. Two other hotspots include Shay's in Harvard Square and The Sail Loft on Memorial Drive.

On this side of the river, head up Beacon Street to join the locals at Cityside in Cleveland Circle. A little further out in the suburbs, you can find the Union Street Restaurant in Newton Center, which boasts a very large, outdoor wooden patio. There are tons of tables, so waiting isn't usually a problem.

Most patios are currently open on a day-to-day basis, but will be permanently open when the mercury starts consistently hitting the 65-70 degree-mark. ❑

Michael E. Powers

Duane Haskell of Concord Savors his beer at Shay's

Patio Bars

Davio's Cafe— 269 Newbury St., Boston 262-4810
The King and I— 259 Newbury St., Boston 437-9611
Shay's— 59 J.F.K. St., Cambridge
Ciao Bella— 240A Newbury St., Boston 536-2626
The Sail Loft— 1 Memorial Dr., Cambridge 225-2222
Union Street Restaurant— Union St., Newton Center 964-6684
Harvard Bookstore Cafe— 190 Newbury St., Boston 536-0095
Charley's Saloon— 284 Newbury St., Boston 266-3000
Tia's— 200 Atlantic Ave., Boston 227-0828
Salty Dog— Faneuil Hall Complex 742-2094
Lily's— Faneuil Hall Complex 720-5580
Ames Plow Tavern— Faneuil Hall Complex 523-8928
Seaside— Faneuil Hall Complex 742-8728
Cityside— Cleveland Circle, Brookline 566-1002
Cactus Club— 939 Boylston St., Boston 236-0200
Rattlesnake— 382 Boylston St., Boston 859-8555
Back Bay Bistro— 565 Boylston St., Boston 536-4477

Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 20th--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 21st--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Walters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude, and a location just outside the heart of the Combat Zone. The crowd centers around young professionals. Proper dress with a jacket for men..

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 15th--Open Mike 7-8:30pm; The Del Rays (formerly The Odds), The Peecocks, The Wildhearts, The Deliriants Thur 16th--WMFO Benefit with Orangutan, Hypnotic Clambake, The Barnies, Facts About Rats Fri 17th--Left Nut Sat 18th--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 19th--Jesus Christ Superstar (2 shows 2pm & 8pm) Mon 20th--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 22nd--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Thur 23rd--Drunktank Fri 24th--Lenny Kaye Sat 25th--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 26th--Brazilian 12-4 pm, Noise Party 2-6pm Mon 27th--Jazz 8-12pm Tue 38th--Mammoth Records Recording Artists Vanilla Train Wreck

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover.

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 15th--Bands of Berklee Series presents Dr. Carrot, Everyday Moses, Alizon Lissance Thur 16th--Albert Collins & Lonnie Mack Fri 17th--Patricia Kaas Sat 18th--Boston's Two Finest Bands THE HERETIX & LETTERS TO CLEO Wed 22nd--Bands of Berklee Series presents Torsten deWinkel, Joe Santerre Group, Carolina Brandee Group Thur 23rd--Laurie Sargent, Harmony Rockets, Mr. Stone's Country Fri 24th--Syd Straw (of early Golden Palominos fame) Sat 25th--WCDJ Smooth Concert Series presents Michael Tomlinson Sun 26th--A Comedy In Concert • Record Release Party for Lea Delaria Tue 38th--Tori Amos

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.

Thur 16th--Shockra CD Release Party with special guest The Authority Fri 17th--FastLane Productions present Duces Wild, Bang Nasty, Flash Addict, Explicit, Bare Feet Sat 25th--Pol Dog Pondering

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom

BARS & CLUBS

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Who was your favorite Brady Bunch character?"

Bob, 27, Needham
"Carol was a great mother. She was so dumb and the kids walked all over her."

Leon, 23, Wellesley
"Sam was my favorite because he knew how to make Alice excited with his meat sales."

Margarita, 24, Brighton
"Alice was the best because she had to cook and clean up after all the ungrateful Brady kids."

Eric, 23, Dorchester
"Peter was really spacey and oblivious to everything. He also had the grooviest clothes."

Narine, 32, Brookline
"Jan. I liked her personality and the way she carried herself. She seemed the smartest."

Scott, 30, Manchester
"I liked Marsha, because to a young guy she was pretty hot and she had breasts."

Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress..

Fri 17th--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Thur 16th--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 21st--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

Wed 15th--Call for listings.

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks..

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 15th--The Jimmy Smith Trio with Kenny Burrell & Grady Tate perform till Sat. (Sat. show is only $10 with Stephane Grappelli Tickets) Sat 18th--Festival Concert in the Charles Ballroom presents Stephane Grappelli Tue 21st--The Mulgrew Miller Trio are here tonite and tomorrow Thur 23rd--The Eastern Rebellion with Ralph Moore, Cedar Walton, David Williams & Billy Higgins performs through to Sat. Tue 38th--The Harper Brothers

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8..

Wed 15th--Call for listings.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

Fri 17th--Torsten de Winkle Group with Melvin Butler, Matt Garrison, John Roberts & special guest Kenya Hathaway

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 15th--Cercle Miller Quartet Thur 16th--CD 96.9 presents Brian Hughes Fri 17th--Sheila Jordan and Harvie Swartz with Danilo Perez is here through to tomorrow Tue 21st--Valery Ponomarev, Billy Pierce Art Blakey Reunion also featuring Eugene Maslov, Ben Street and George Schuller Wed 22nd--CD 96.9 presents Kim Pensyl Thur 23rd--Jerry Bergonzi Quartet featuring Adam Nussbaum, Joey Calderazzo and Dave Santoro Fri 24th--James Williams Ensemble with Eddie Gomez and Lennie White perform tonite and tomorrow Tue 38th--Brian Walkley

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress. .

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near Faneuil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts..

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm..

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Wed 15th--Alien Dance Party with Urban Oasis, Stranger Things & Grime Pilots Thur 16th--Bootyquake (featuring members of Heretix, Posse NFX and More) with Pearls at Swine Fri 17th--Mammoth Records recording artists Chain Saw Kittens with Voodoo Dolls and Scratch Sat 18th--Come Sun 19th--Svengali Cafe Mon 20th--Stone Soup Poetry presents Darrin Courtney and Ryk McIntyre Tue 21st--Swindle with Midnight Call and the Pig Dogs Wed 22nd--Helios Creed and The Styrenes Thur 23rd--Schlonk with Dr. Rain, Augustus Furnace and Colored Greens Fri 24th--The Neighborhoods with The Mles and Restless Souls Sat 25th--Cxema with Catherine Wheel and Mesh Sun 26th--Svengali Cafe Mon 27th--Stone Soup Poetry presents Cathy Coley and Danny Solis Tue 38th--Tutts up and coming Band to Watch OW!! with Hot Wire Zeppo and Hang Nail

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time..

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 15th--Beat Surrender, Knowmads & Color Blind Thur 16th--The Avengers Fri 17th--Laurie Sargent Sat 18th--The Band that Time Forgot Sun 19th--Benefit for New England Performer Magazine with Ultra Blue and The Olivz Mon 20th--Songwriter's Showcase for Childrens' AIDS Program (No cover, just donations) with Alizon Lissance, Gracie and Fern Tue 21st--Naked Lunchbox Wed 22nd--My Familiar Thur 23rd--One Thin Dime & King Kane's 2nd Line, Revue with Dave Champagne Fri 24th--The Premiers Sat 25th--Third Estate Sun 26th--The Act Mon 27th--Tam Jam Tue 38th--Dr. Carrot

•TIA'S Marriott Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted..

Tue 38th--Chucklehead

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress..

Wed 15th--IFA: Spirit of Divination (Jazz) Thur 16th--Satta is here through to Sat. (Funk, Rock & Reggae) Sun 19th--Mozamba (World Beat) Tue 21st--City Trees (Jazz) Wed 22nd--Raphe Malik Group (Jazz) Thur 23rd--Mighty Charge (Reggae) Fri 24th--Loose Caboose performs tonite and tomorrow (Roots Reggae) Sun 26th--Ragamuffin Soldiers (Reggae) Tue 38th--City Trees (Jazz)

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons..

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Bell Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..

Wed 15th--The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This large two story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required..

Allston Ale House
85 Harvard Street Allston, MA 617/787-9797
Open for Lunch Daily
Special Weekly Events
Wednesday - Open Mike Night
Hosted by Alizon Lisance 8PM. - 12 PM.
Thursday- Jam Session
Hosted by Wilba Goodman & Napaj 9PM. - 1AM
Friday - KaraokeNight
Hosted by Jack McCoy
Saturday - Live Bands 9:30PM - 1:30AM
April 18 - Cellar Dwellers
April 25 - Swinging the Blues

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am. A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
Performing on Thursday, April 16 at 8pm is Pentamerus Winds, a dedicated woodwind quartet composed of freelance Boston musicians .Admission is $3.50 and tickets are available in advance. For more information call 547-6789.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
262-1120
Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Karel Husa will conduct the NEC Wind Ensemble in a free concert of his compositions Apr. 16 at 8pm in Jordan Hall. Call 262-1120 for more information.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Admission is free for the final concert of the Griffin Music Ensemble's 1991-92 season. It takes place Apr. 21 at 8pm in the Grand Lobby.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The ICA is presenting the 11th annual Black Maria Film & Video Festival 1991. It is the largest U.S. touring festival, committed to film and video work that expands the expressive terrain of the media arts. The work is characterized by its artistically rigorous, politically incisive and socially conscious compositions. Videos will be shown in the ICA Theatre.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St.
Larz Anderson Park, Brookline
Workshops for the Junior Solar Sprint races take place on Apr. 18 and Apr. 19. On Apr. 25 come see the The Boston Sectional Junior Solar Sprint Competition. Call 522-6547 for more information.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square
The library will show Frank Capra's Ladies of Leisure (1930) Apr. 27 at 3 and 6:30pm. Apr. 16 at 2pm the BPL will screen Easter Parade, an Irving Berlin musical starring Judy Garland and Fred Astaire.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
On Apr. 26 at 3pm is The Story of Fauvel, the American Premiere of the world's first musical book which is a synthesis of poetry, music, and painting that is designed with computer technology.The story is a 14th- century allegorical romance, a satire exposing corruption and villainy in all strata of society.This is presented in collaboration with the Boston Camerata. Free tickets are available at the box office.

West End Branch Library
151 Cambridge St., Boston
As part of the Gene Kelly film series, the library will screen For Me and My Gal (1942) Apr. 23 at 5:30pm. The film stars Kelly and Judy Garland.

LECTURES

Cambridge Public Library
Main Branch, 449 Broadway, Cambridge
On April 28 at 7:30 P.M. psychotherapist Carly Lund is giving a free community lecture entitled "A Life Worth Living," with its purpose to get to the heart of emotional trauma suffered from growing up in high stress families and how that can be overcome to reach our own personal truths. Admission is free.

The Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
In the Wang's Grand Lobby, on Apr. 21 at 6pm,the Downtown Reading Series continues with novelist Robert Stone who will read from his latest book, Outerbridge Reach. After the concert, a performance will be held by the Griffin Music Ensemble at 8pm. Admission to both is free.

POETRY

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $2.00. On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

ZOOS

Arnold Arboretum
Jamaica Plain
524-1717
Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum is a living museum, featuring more than 14,000 trees, vines and shrubs. Self-guided tour maps available at the visitors' center; call to see which flowers are in bloom. Public transportation from the Orange Line (Forest Hills stop) or Copley Square (Bus #39).

Franklin Park Zoo
Boston
442-0991
Free Admission: Tues. 12pm-closing.
Hours: Oct.-Apr., daily 9am-3:30pm; Apr.-Oct., daily 9am-5pm.
The zoo features the African Tropical Forest, Birds' World, Outdoor Flight Cage, the Children's Zoo and Hoofs & Horns, all located in a historic park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm. Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. Currently featuring "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

SEA FOR YOURSELF

7 DAYS:
ST, MAARTEN $599*
TURKS & CAICOS.....$599*
ARUBA.....$599*
AIR, HOTEL & TAXES!
CARRIBBEAN EXPERTS (OVER 30 ISLANDS VISTED)
WITH THE LOWEST PRICES

5 STAR TRAVEL SERVICE
164 Newbury St., Boston
536-1999

* PRICES ARE PER PERSON BASED ON DOUBLE OCCUPANCY

Now at ODEON
The Dressing Room

The Most Affordable Hip On Newbury St. Classic Vintage Clothing & Furniture

285 Newbury St.
Boston, Ma.
Mon-Sat. 11-6 pm.
Sunday 12-6 pm.
536-1515

Molly's
161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night
MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION
FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live
ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski
FREE Ski Passes, Vacation Weekends, and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights
FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.
Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night
AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!
See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Fax or mail your own Impersonals, we'll pick the top five from each issue and award a pair of tickets to Catch a Rising Star comedy club to each winner. Send your Impersonals to The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Brookline, MA 02146 or FAX it to us at: 232-4305. They're Free!

Mr. WSJ:
Did you know that six years later I still love you and lust after you and think you were the best man I ever had?
I wish you wanted me back.
-distantly in love

Monster woman: I just want to set one thing straight, I did not commit any adulteress acts in your vestibule of love, and if I did, well hey, yah know. If you need any pointers...

2 all U Euro Studs:
U and your hometown sweeetheart make us all sick. We want real men and real love, not O.P.P..
So please stop teasing us.

Tom, why don't you build a raft, paddle to Boston, and take me away from it all. My life is severely lacking in adventure- I need you.
Love Becky

Jessie, it is so true: the guys that love you, you hate the most. I don't think that is so apropos now though..
"Sweetheart you are so cruel". Remember, A woman needs a man like a fish needs a bicycle, and if you don't believe me and need some career motivation watch Kramer vs. Kramer. You should go now-aren't those crimson people entertaining though. hey we gotta be us.
p.s. no more brunette children- get psyched.

M.B.
You know I love you madly and thank God you came into my life, but if you don't slow down, you'll burn out before you get where you think you are going.

Attention BRT's Readers,
The reader with the best answers will recieve not one, but two 55 gallon drums full of shiny reds. Send yours in today!
Double

To my former boyfriend-
I'm so happy that after months together you decided to give your old girlfriend one more try. I wish you all the happiness im the world. Yah, right. And monkeys will fly out of my butt.

Dugout Drinking Team:
You depraved fools!! 5-6-7-8 NEW GUY!! Can anyone become a member? Uh. . . I don't know. . . they're pretty selective (BURP!!) I ask the Padre for a prayer. . . "Our Lord we beseech thee Amen!" I'm an asshole I'm an asshole I'll be an asshole 'till I die, but I'd rather be an asshole than a God-damn Lambada Chi!!

If you ain't an "H" you ain't shit. NO POOFTAHS!!
Just a gigolo.

Dear Fred,
Sorry to hear about you punishment, but if you do your homework, next time you'll get to go out on the weekend.

King Henry, your pretentiousness is outshone only by your pomposity and taste in outdoor drinking spots.
Unwillingly Freedman

Hi again Aryan Wanker.
You and your soccer team are cordially invited to dinner on Thursday night in honor of the French man and his special guests, location to be announced.
Love from the girls.

Josh, congratulations on your latest meetings with Sam. The North is proud of your conquest and the Midwest still smoldering from your recent visits.

Tony, I saw you in Clarke's last week with your pants around your ankles.
. . .not impressed.

U are the Champion.

Dear Nick N.,
How the hell did you pull this one off. If the trustees get an idea of that stunt you're planning, they'll expel you now.

To Mark at Newman & Co.
Thanks for nothing you asshole.

Chris Sullivan,
What do you use that potato peeler for anyway?

Hey Yak, we found out the real reason why you moved to Houston. Is her father still trying to kill you?

Congratulations on finishing grad school Shelly.
Maybe now you won't be such a nerd.
Deb.

Pam, Perhaps there is something to be said about being barefoot and pregnant.

To Rick the Rat, May you and your new girlfriend share many communicable diseases.
Your ex girlfriend, I'm keeping the stairmaster.

P.P. Elevators are no place to try and kiss.

Newport is not space. With the Viper on the loose.

No no Dave, cut off shorts are only for the Cape.

Beware of the Viper, lest she sink her fangs into your. . .

Mark, When you get drunk and pass out in people's houses, whose couch haven't you pissed on?

Susan, sure you're going to visit a girlfriend in New York.

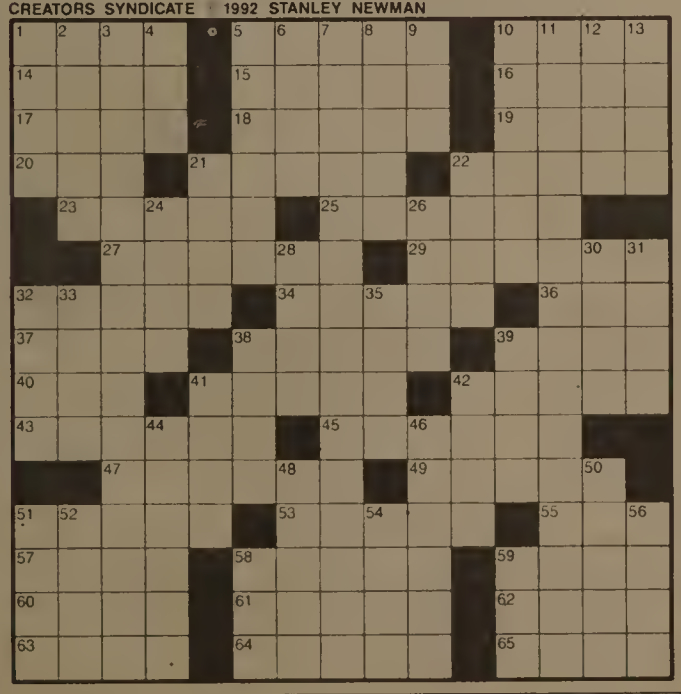
B.K., next time let Larry sleep and let the squealer get back home to her kids.

Tony, when are you going to introduce us to your mother(s)?

Paul C. Stop doing wheelies in Wellesley on Saturday night and start doing some bopping in Boston.

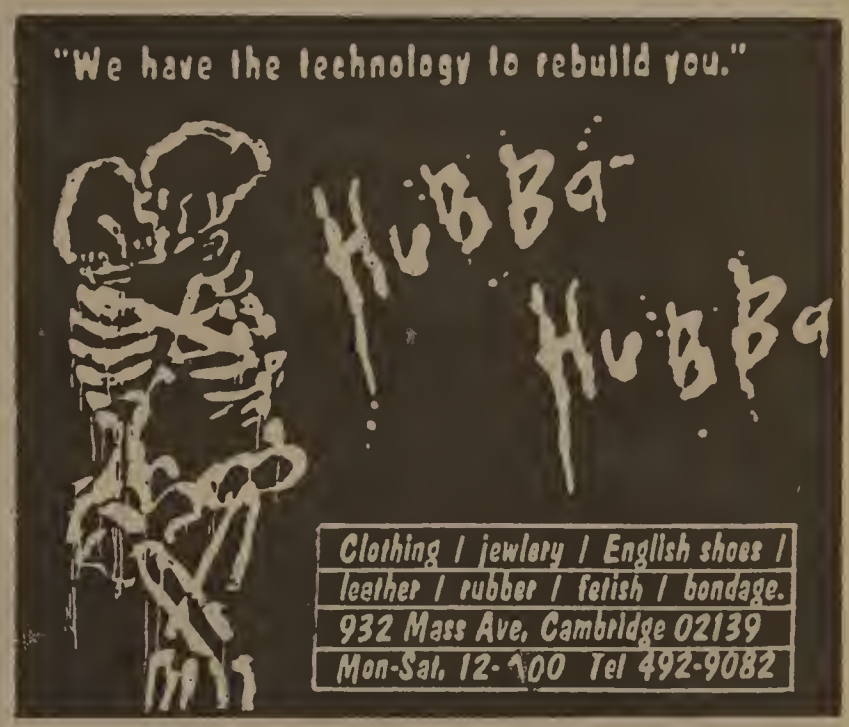
John R., Sorry about Brenda but your sister was great.
Tony.

Curtis P.,
If you ever comment on my looks again, I'll break your nose with my yo-yo.
Michelle S.



Newsday Crossword

24 DOWN by S.N.
Edited by Stanley Newman



ACROSS
1 Kind of radio
5 Reagan attorney general
10 Gent
14 __ Richard's Almanack
15 Also called
16 Playwright David
17 Musical work
18 Gives autographs
19 Scat-singing name
20 According to
21 Wishy-__
22 60 Minutes reporter
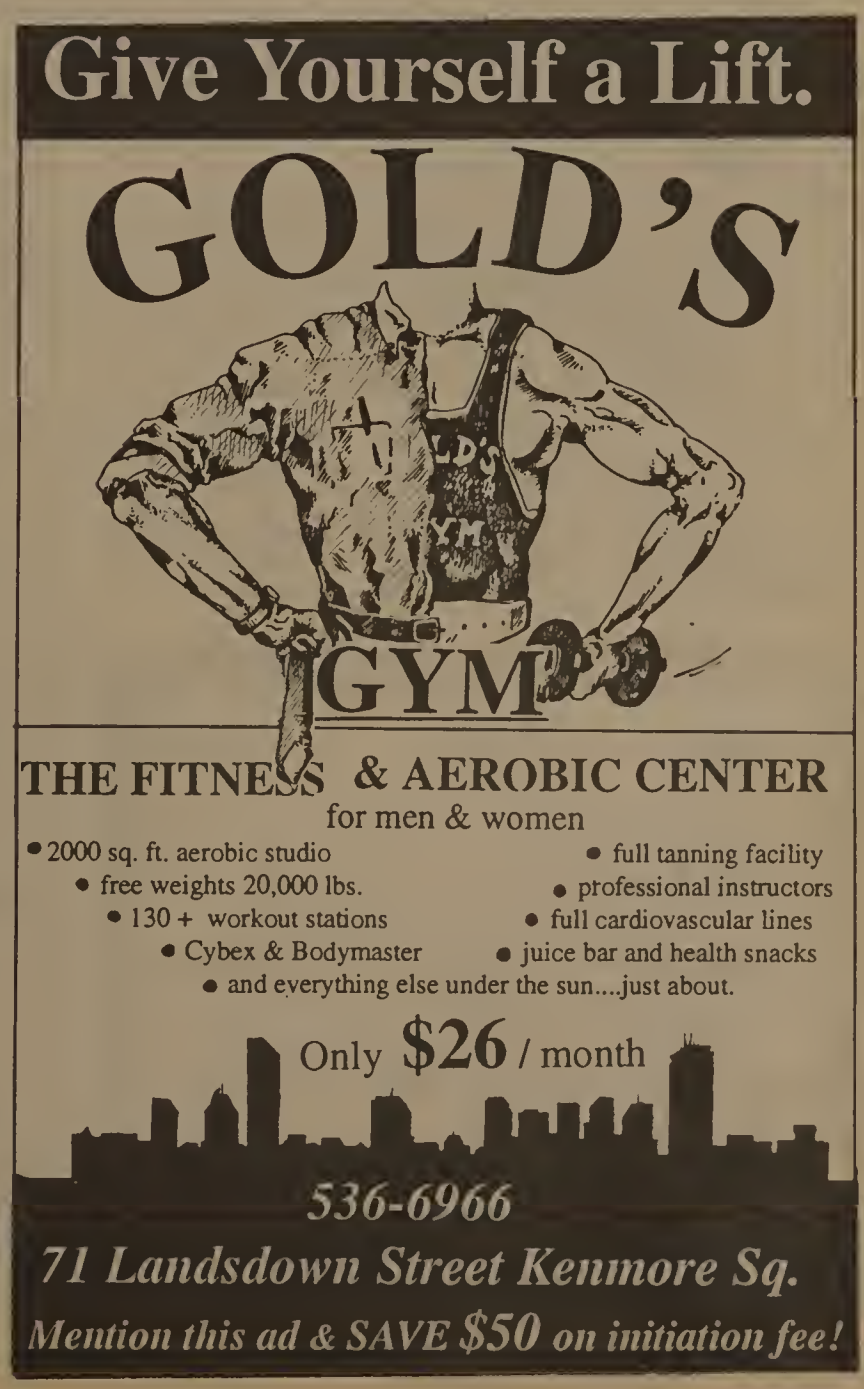
23 Stand in good __
25 Began to like
27 Bandleader Les or Larry
29 Donald Sutherland's kid
32 Parson __ (Washington biographer)
34 Brought out in the open
36 Egg-yong link
37 Florence's river
38 Shatner's costar
39 Rhine city
40 Taylor or Torn
41 O'Neill's "Emperor"
42 "Semper Fidelis" composer
43 31-game winner in '68
45 Combat zone
47 Optimistic
49 Tears apart
51 Hurry-scurry
53 Meek followers
55 Fall mo.
57 Kick in
58 Bar-mitzvah dances
59 Industrial bigwig
60 Eisenhower's namesakes
61 Not moving
62 Soccer great
63 Make a scene
64 Formative years
65 Hardy boy?



DOWN
1 Each, so to speak
2 Acts apathetic
3 24
4 The Ghost and __ Muir
5 Siege site of 73 A.D.
6 Wallach and Whitney
7 24
8 Sony competitor
9 Capital of Somalia?
10 Dream up
11 24
12 Masterly
13 Nectar source
21 Witty ones
22 Lose traction
24 Admiral Zumwalt
26 __-doke
28 London forecast
30 Zillions of years
31 Author Jaffe
32 Open-hearted
33 Leif's pop
35 Climbed
38 "__ but the brave . . ."
39 Blessing
41 Be in harmony
42 Short distance
44 Most relevant
46 Wave heights
48 In unison
50 Parboil
51 "Aquarius" musical
52 Paul the singer
54 Have coming
56 Three-spot
58 Miss' partner
59 Payroll pro: Abbr.

CREATORS SYNDICATE 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN

FREE crossword-book catalog. Call toll-free: 1 (800) 659-9673, ext. 15.
Stumped? Get help! Call 1-900-646-8282. Cost is 95 cents per minute.

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Name_____ ❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)

Address_____ Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX

City_____State____Zip_____ Card _____Exp.___/____

Phone(____)_____ Signature (if paying by credit card)

X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705

OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Apartments

FT. MEYER FLA Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., balcony., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-3064

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

WATERTOWN. Very nice two Bdrm. In a two family house. Clean attic & basement for storage. Front & back porches, yard,parking. Avail immed. Call Bob 237-1992

2BDRM APARTMENT 4.5 blocks from Lynn beach near Swampscott line. $550 negoc. Leave message 596-0222

Architects

CONYNGHAM ASSOCIATES ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN Residential and Commercial, renovations, new construction, additions, kitchens, bathrooms. CAD & 3D visuailzation. 617-627-7821

Bus. Opportunities

CALLING OPPORTUNITY SEEKERS! Earn Immediate income. For compiete information send $6 to U.P. Enterprises. #7 Monza Road.Nashua N.H. 03060

Carpentry

BARGAIN HANDYMAN. Carpentry, tile, Install and repair. Gutter work. Painting. Low rates. Insured. 277-2671

Cellular Phones

CELLULAR PHONES FREE. Also agents needed. Ground floor opportunity. Call now 499-7933 24 hrs.

Carpet Repair

CARPET REPAIRS, Installation,restretch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Cleaning

HOUSECLEANING AND PAINTING Responsible, reliable. Reasonable rates. Lots of references. Ellen, 244-5320

HOUSECLEANING Excellent cleaning for home/office. Laundry cleaned& pressed. Good references. Free estimates. Call Mary or Swayiee, leave message 617-628-0957

HOUSECLEANING AVAIL. 7 days a week. Good references. Call anytime. Maria 332-0743

Clothing/Tailoring

$$$ FOR YOUR WARDROBE! Designer and better quality contemporary clothes in spectacular condition for women and men. Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399

AT THE ACORN SHOP consignment shop, 8 Muzzey St., Lexington, you'll find labels like Ralph Lauren, Calvin Klein and Liz Claiborne at a fraction of their retail price. All Jeans only $9.95. We're now accepting your top quality spring fashions by appointmenL Open Tue-SaL 861-9646

Computer Svcs

IBM OR COMPATIBLE USERS. Hardware , software, evaluation, installation, and-training. Database setup. Reasonable rates. Nina, 617-926-8163

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Individual & group counseling for men & women interested in discussing their questions & concerns about sexuaf identity/preference Al Gentile, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

EXPEDITE YOUR RECOVERY Incorporating a unique blend of therapy and healing. In an atmosphere of loving humor and acceptance; a nationally known therapist and healer will expedite your emotional and physical recovery from abuse, fears, pain, and traumas. Yulia, 6t7-73t-9529

Credit Svcs

GET A VISA AND CORRECT BAD CREDIT. Solve debt problems. Late payments , charge-offs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24 hrs)

Entertainment

"BOSTONS BEST." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)354-5000 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic avaliable for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

Financing

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 Ext. 53023 (24 hrs)

For Sale

ANTIQUE MAHOGONY Governor Winthrop desk $575, Antique mahogony 6 drawer chest $625, also queen sofa bed, full mattress set with frame, two brass floor lamps, Queen Ann dining table with two side chairs,2 victorian high-back armchairs, butlers table, decorative dresser top mirror. Call George after 6pm. 926-4781

Health Services

MASSAGE THERAPY. Swedish, deep tissue, sports massage trigger points. Past clientle: Les Mis, Cats, Heartstrings, and Boston BalleL $50 in $60 out.HIV $30. Gift certificates available. Feel less tired, have more energy. Ask me about KM. Tim Medas 522-0626

ACHIEVE YOUR DIET/FITNESS GOALS! Certified Personal Fitness Trainer. Modest fees, discounts available. Alex 731-8113

Help Wanted

EARN UP TO $339.84/WEEK assembling our products at your home. Amazing recorded message reveals details. Call today 617-446-7682 (ext A02)

$800 .WEEKLY POSSIBLE! WORKING AT HOME! 37 different opportunities. Rush $1 and SASE to: HARVEY COUNCIL. A125 BLAKE ST. HYDE PARK, MA. 02136

ADVERTISING SALES. Are you a savvy, experienced ad rep who has successfully sold media in the Boston market? If so, we'd like to talk to you about a lucrative summer sales position-selling for a major annual college publication new to the greater Boston area. Do you know the Boston advertising market? Call Mark Murray 1-800-925-8004

MODA ITALIANA. Wanted: young ladies to merchandise Italian fashion accesories. Some knowledge of Italian helpful. Call for appt. (617) 367-8030

House For Sale

NO MONEY DOWN. Take advantage of low market prices! Two family home within walking distance of Lynn beach. Leave message 596-0222

Instruction

LSAT/Anyone can get a top LSAT score if they prepare correctly. An attorney who scored in the 99th percentile will show you how. Highly successful program using one-on-one coaching. For details contact George Alex 617-266-9720

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

Miscellaneous

DISCREET PHOTOGRAPHER needs male models above average looks. Physique no hassles. Photo deatils to P.O. Box 372 Boston Ma 02118

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext. 53023 (24hrs)

MLM Opportunities

OPPORTUNITY SEEKERS needed to help start a new networking business. No product sales. Ground floor opportunity. Unlimited income potential. Call Bill eves. (508) 883-0489

Motorcycles

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles.Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

Photography

BEAUTIFUL PROMOTIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY. for experimental musicians, performers and bands. Very reasonable rates, all jobs guaranteed. Jim Andrews Photography. 617-451-0042

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HiV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24hrs)

RESUME'S. High quality, low prices, done fast. Call Keith 846-1953. Leave message.

Skin Care

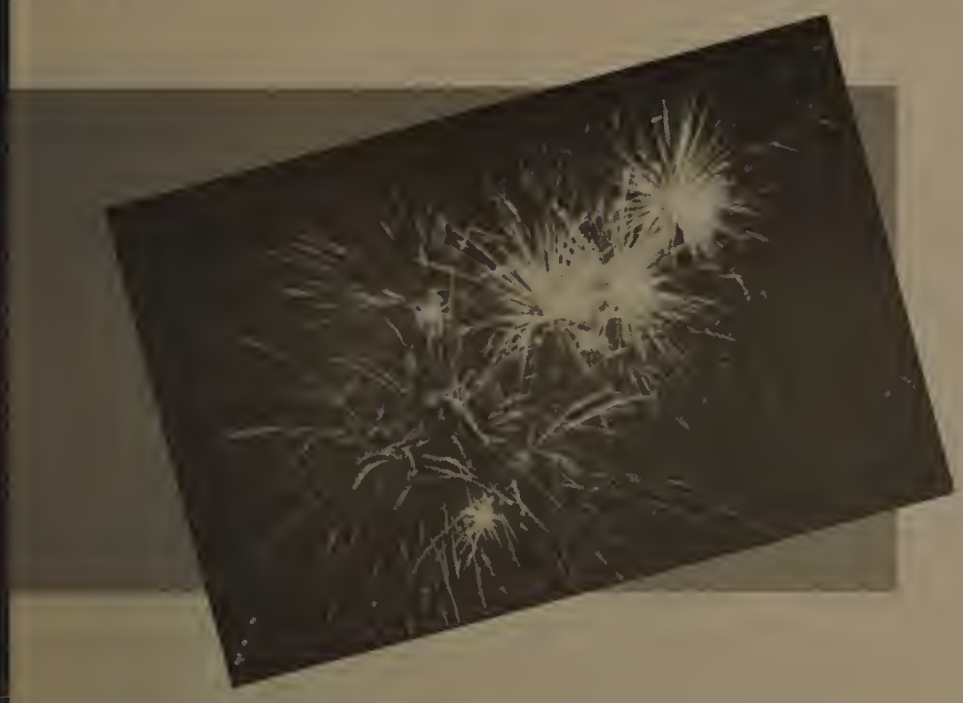
COMMON SENSE SKIN CARE. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

FREE! FREE! FREE!

$ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $

MONEY FOR COLLEGE

and



(you won't have to pay it back!)

You can't qualify if you don't apply!

SCHOLARSHIP RESEARCH SERVICES
1-800-222-5742 ext. 53023; 24 hrs, 7 days

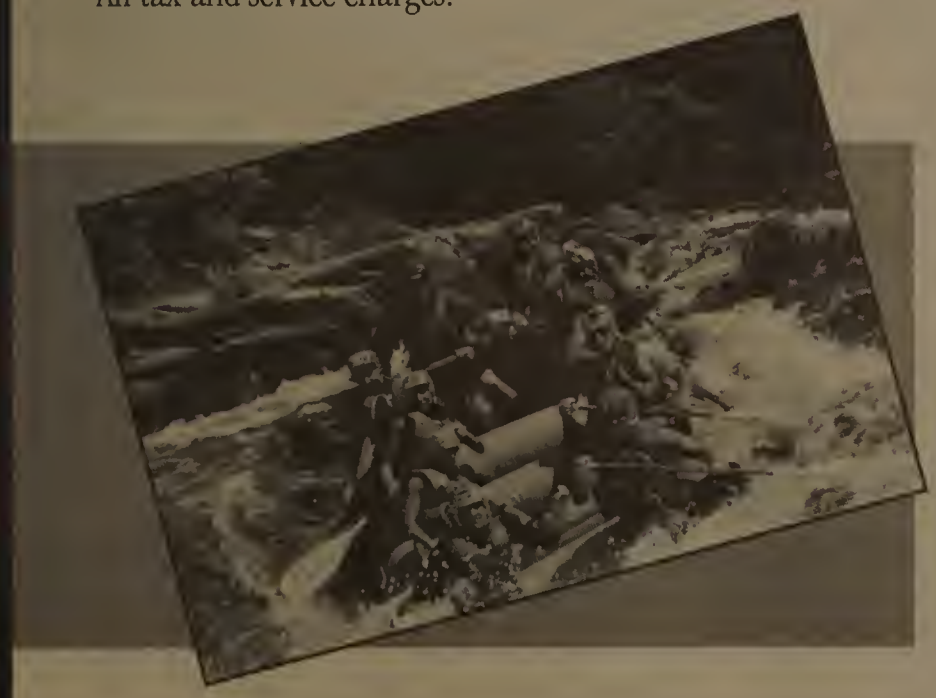
Call today for free info and details

The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

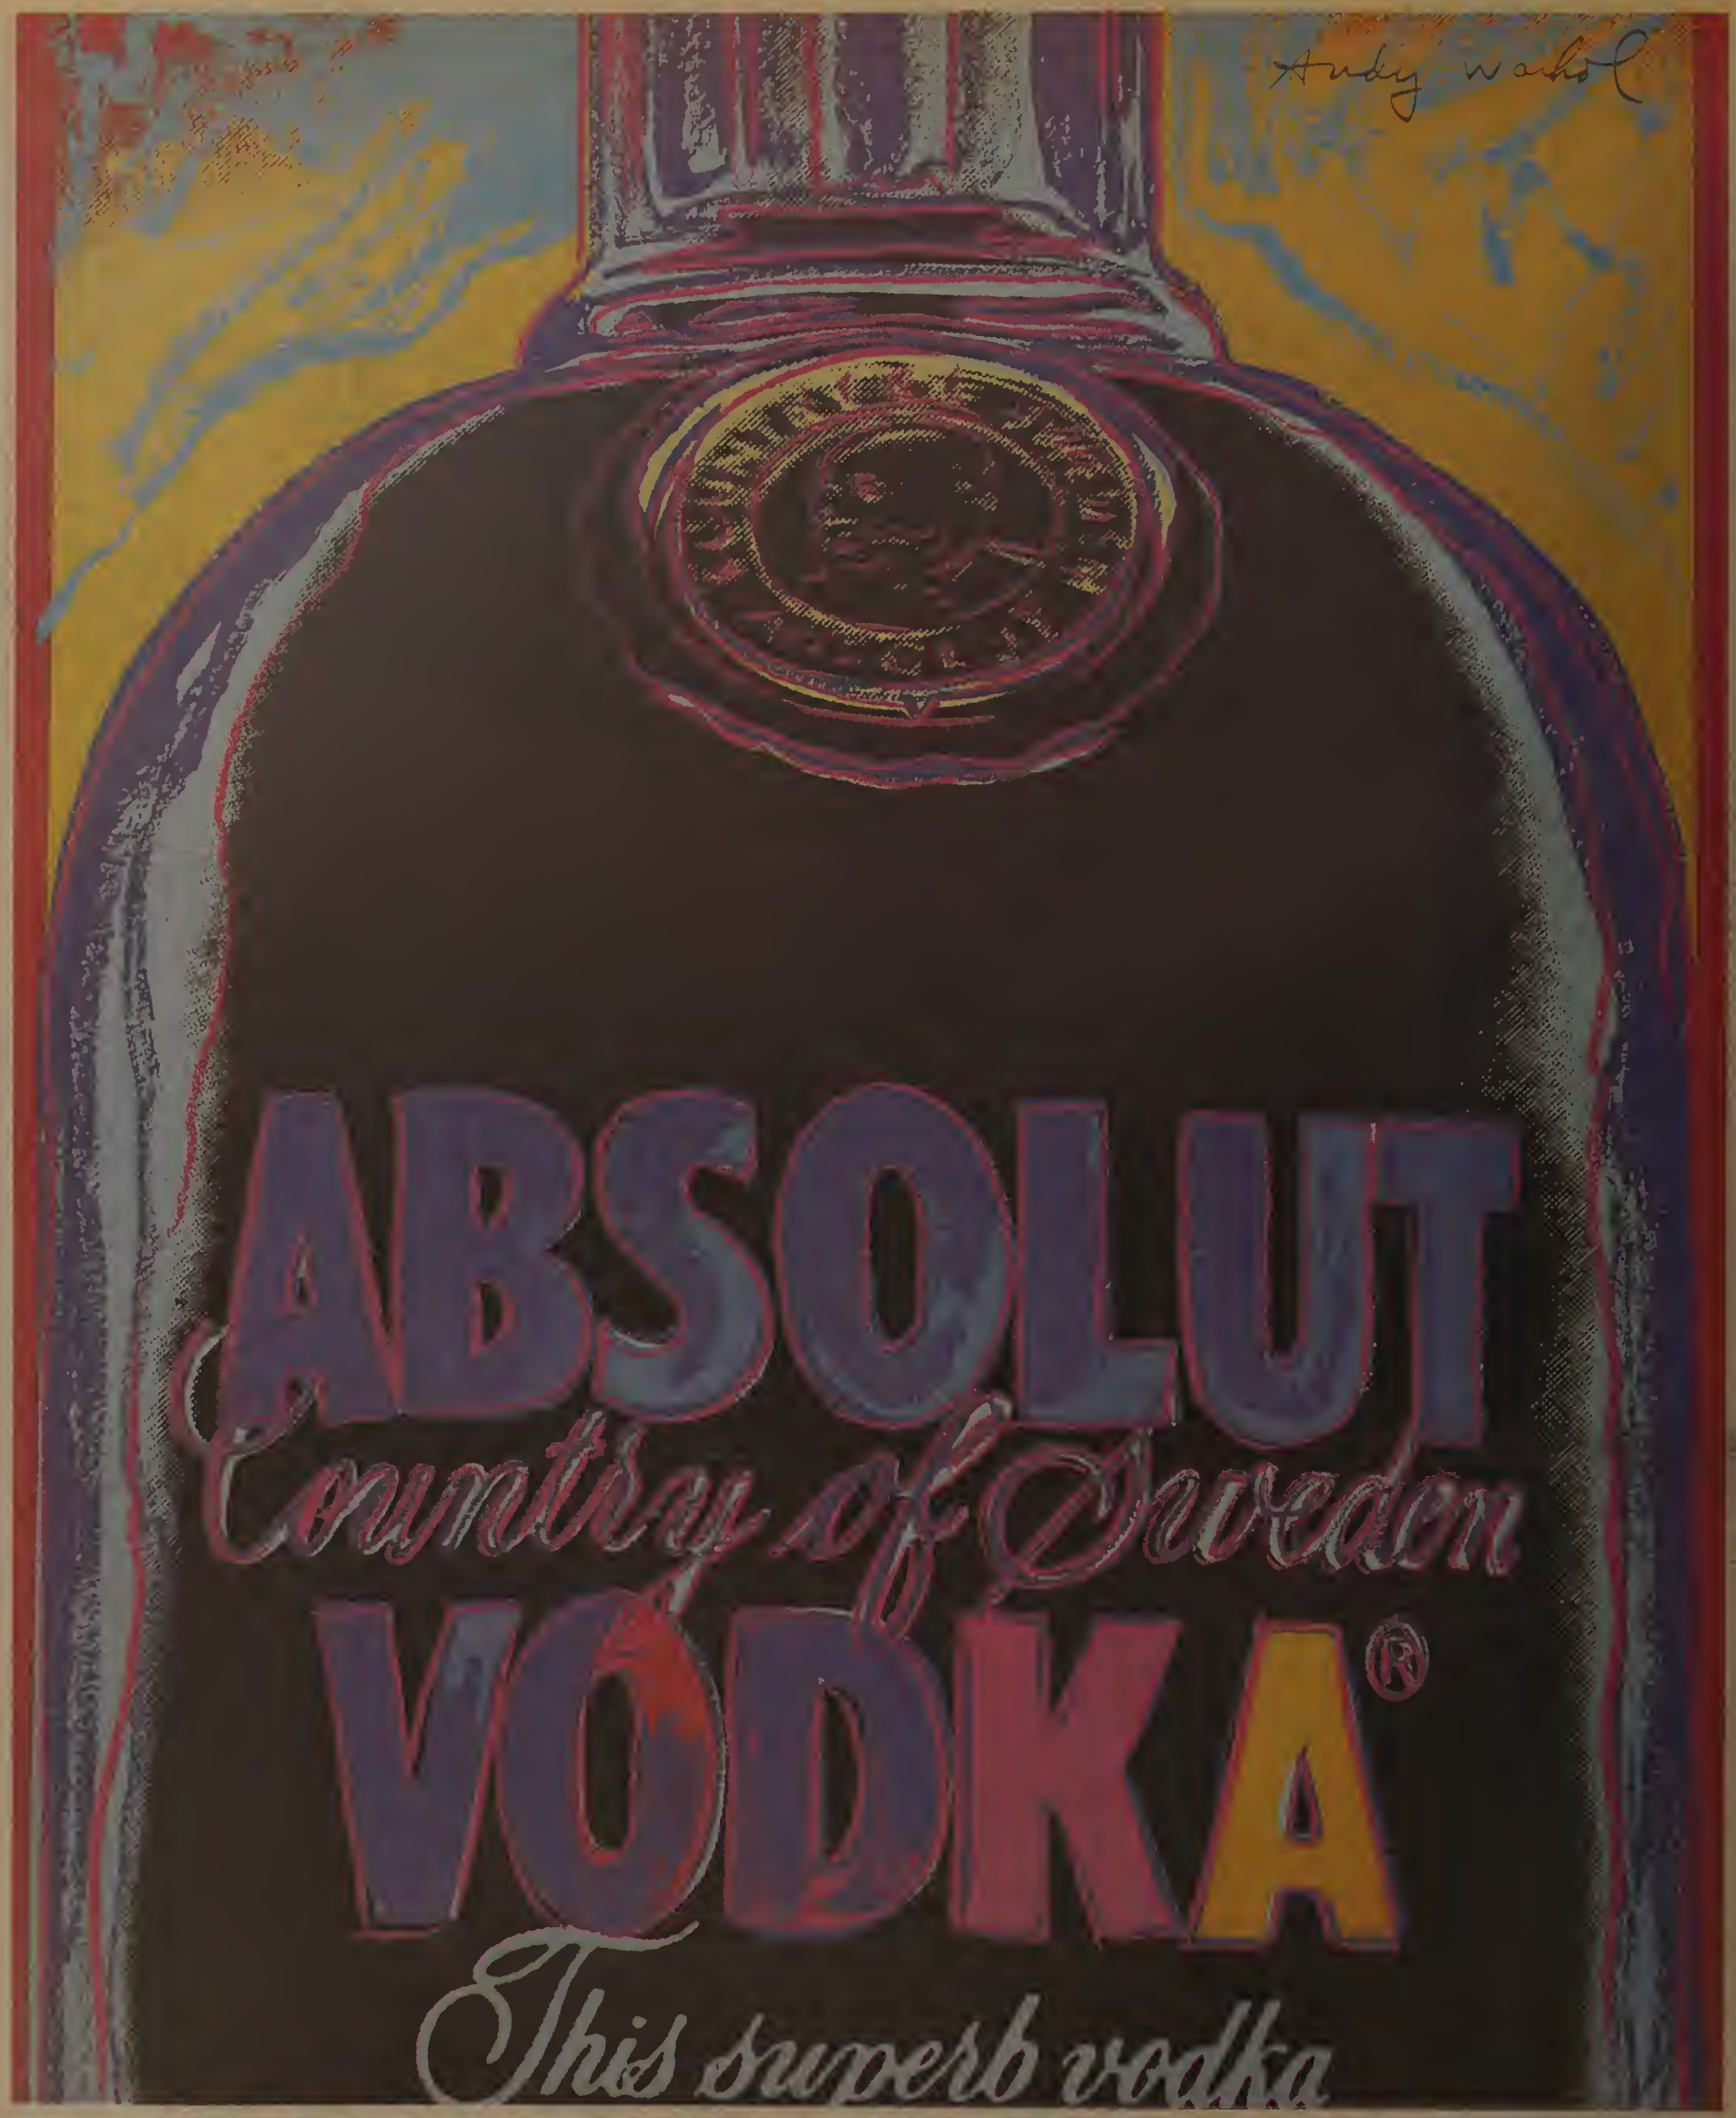
The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures



Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00

Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).
Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

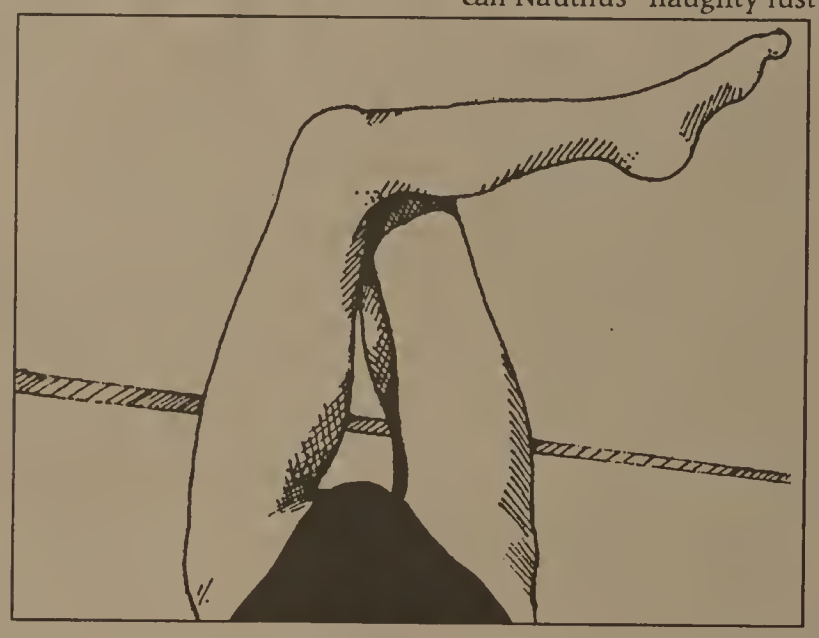
TARGET
Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

April 29, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)



Do Blondes Have More Fun?

Improper Blonde Hits the Streets of Boston to Find the Truth

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Ten T.V. Shows To Thinner Thighs

This modest candy-pink squiggle made of metal and foam, with a tightly resistant pivoting bit in the middle is your own health club in a jar. Or if not quite that small, still small enough to stow behind a door or under a bed. Though known as a ThighThinner, (something Victoria's Secret readers have been known to crave), it is useful in toning and strengthening the whole body, in six different maneuvers. Each action simply entails squeezing the two parts of the device together - between the knees for thigh strengthening (on t.v. the more expensive version gets to work on Suzanne Somers' famous thighs), against the stomach, under the arm, over the head and more. Some have been known to call Nautilus "naughty lust" because of the engine-racing benefits of that kind of vroomph-strong muscular exercise. This versatile press-and-rev action can serve as a peripatetic home alternative to the more elaborate enterprise of going out and taking your turn at giant body machines. You can do it as a counter-laziness gesture while watching t.v.

ThighThinner
Raffoler Ltd.
1200 Shames Drive
Westbury, N.Y. 11590
$13.25

The Mona Lisa Dates A Sophomore

Couch and slouch potatoes, jocks and the devils-who-could-care have a way of finding a Europe that is almost like a frat lifted over the ocean. Chatty, as if chatted in a sarcastic aside to a hang-loose friend, Let's Blow Thru Europe is a takeoff on the far more earnest and culture-loving Let's Go guides published by Harvard. This would be the work of a party animal brother who wanted to take a blatantly philistine pass on all museums, cathedrals, and other places of disinterest so he could move right on to the fun and nightlife. When culture does rear its ugly head, it's comically put into college perspective: In Florence, the Pont Vecchio is "a bridge you've seen on many dorm posters, usually photographed using a red filter and a setting sun. It will probably remind you of lying on Karen's bed, wondering when her roommate was going to return." The Louvre is compared to the "hugest mall you've ever seen," on Christmas Eve. The Pere Lachaise Cemetery is where Jim Morrison lies, with "other occupants - including Chopin, Oscar Wilde and Balzac" who "have not rested in peace since Jimmy was planted." If you must hit the obligatory sights, the authors give each city its "Big Thing To Climb." There's actually some information - not too much, of course, since Art and Oldness are officially bummers - but also some laughs.

Let's Blow Thru Europe
At bookstores or order from: Musting Publishing, P.O. Box 3004, Memphis, TN 38173 for $10.95 + $1.50.

Soft Spring Browses

Plenty of fresh air - both spatial and aesthetic - wafts around this open shop full of products for the bath and the body, where visions of oranges, lavender, avocados, and other things clean and green dance in your head. "Fresh" - the name of the store - is shopper-friendly to women and men (including conservative older ones); in the South End version of the store (Nuts About Beauty), the clientele is 50/50. The Boston store encourages a more luscious form of recycling by selling stoppered glass jars and such things as 19th century ink bottles, then offering bath salts in bulk - nice crunchy ones with seaweed or Dead Sea Salts overtones - and perfumes in such flavors as jasmine, verbena, spice - bringing you back for refills. Soaps (101 of them, so feed the meter) range from solid workmanlike slabs of green made of palm oil, coconut and olive oil, to delicately aromatic ones flavored with orange or almond, beautifully etched with the soap's name, Marie M. (and so, like everything here, a tossup as to whether it's a present or pour moi). For exfoliation - slurpy thick potions needing a stir - or, another for another method - soap in a light golden silk wrap for killing (softly) the excess skin, while lathering. For final soothings, Fresh sells all sorts of milky skin creams in painted jars.

Fresh, 61 Union Street at Piccadilly Square, Newton, MA 964-5290
Nuts About Beauty 552 Tremont . 482-9411.

Mopsy Strange Kennedy is a freelance writer. She ~~likes~~ loves to receive lots of mail!
Please send all correspondence to:
The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

CONTENTS

April 29, 1992

Features

6

Do Blondes Have More Fun?

Investigative reporter Leslie Ros goes under cover as a Blonde -to discover if they do indeed have more fun. After several weeks of painstaking research, she comes to some rather interesting conclusions. Read on and hear the saga of a brunette gone blonde.

by Leslie Ross

7

More Wheeling Around

As both a sport and an environmentally sound alternative to driving, biking has become the choice mode of transportation for many people. The second of a two-part article on cycling tells you where to ride, what's involved in a tune-up and how to travel the world with the best companon on earth: your bike. by Abby Ellin & Tobin Streett

8

Bottled Lightning and Having A Cow In Cambridge

In an area teeming with museums and galleries, the MIT Museum is an overlooked gem. Read more of this fascinating world of sometimes-challenging and occasionally-funny showplace of MIT-related items and exhibits which combine art and science.

by Bernie Conneely

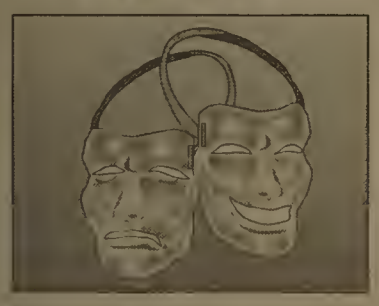
Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: White Sands 8
- Review: Howard's End 9
- Video Review 10

Nancy Knows 11
Arts
- Review: Botled Lightning at the MIT Museum 12
- Play Review: Our Country's Good 13
- Arts Calendar 14



Perspectives 16
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: Pampas 18
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Greek Revival 19
- Appeteasers 22
- Brunch Board 23
- Restaurant Listings 24

The Leisure Study 20
Music
- Interview: Jesus and Mary Chain 28
- Review: The Machines of Loving Grace 30
- Wachtelligence 30

Comedy
- Interview: Sue Kolinsky 31
- Comedy Listings 31

Bar & Club Listings 32
- The Casablanca 33

Free Boston! 36
Improper Impersonals 37
Crossword 37

ARTS
PAGE 12

MOVIES
PAGE 8

MUSIC
PAGE 28

DINING
PAGE 18

COMEDY
PAGE 31

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

photo by Rachel Power

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new guide to Boston at $30 a year.
(26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Acting Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
NANCY BIRNBAUM, A.J. WACHTEL
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
AL STANKUS, PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Theater Critics
NANCY LEONARD, RACHEL STERN

Contributing Writers
LESLIE ROSS, ABBY ELLIN, TIM LEMIRE,
JOHN GALLIGAN, JON HABER
BERNIE CONNEELY, PRESCOTT GIBBONS
SHAWN GOODWIN, DAVID DALEY

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, DAVENPORT CROCKER
JOHN TED, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
ADAM KAYTES

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Consultant
JOE PERSON

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Advertising Design Consultant
STEVE WALKER

Production Assistant
GAIL MARCARELLI

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE, JENNIFER MCCANN
ED STAUNTON, PAUL BRODKIN

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THE RATTLESNAKE BAR
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS
Schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach The Improper Bostonian, mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for conformation. Listings must be received no later than 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 11
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, Ma 02146-7303.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

On the Cover

Photographer
Sandra Kimball
Models
Andrea Carroll /Models Group
Amanda /New England Models Group

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertiser's businesses.

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT. WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church
581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

AROUND TOWN

From Harvard Divinity School to performance artist, Sally Greenhouse returns to thrill the crowd in her one woman performance of RECYCLED - A Multiple Choice Performance: A. Something Old, B. Something New, C. Something Borrowed, D. Something Blue Green on May 2. Greenhouse will appear for one evening only at 8pm at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education at 56 Brattle Street. This former winner of an Arts On The Line grant has created performance art events at construction sites of the MBTA red line stations in addition to receiving critical acclaim for past shows which include Psychoanalysis at Night, Smart Woman and Deviant Behavior. Her mix of comedy and imaginative social awareness has always delighted both critics and audiences alike. Tickets are $10. Call 547-6789 for further information.

Who's the former school teacher doing stand-up at The Improv? It's Jeff Jena, who says he worked with kids for six years until he figured out that kids "are basically stupid." Jena, who has appeared on Comic Strip Live and Showtime's Comedy Club Network, said, "I would lecture for an hour about percentages and interest rates and at the end of class I'd ask one simple question: 'You put ten grand in a bank for one year at 5 1/2% interest and what do you get?' - Always, some kid would yell out, 'A toaster.'" Jena appears at The Improv from April 28 to May 3. Call 695-2989 for information, reservations and show times. Tickets from $8 to $12.

Maybe there is something to be said about the old saying, "Walk. Don't Run." Over forty-three thousand Massachusetts residents are doing just that on Sunday, May 3 to participate in the 1992 Walk for Hunger, which departs the Boston Commons at 9am. The walk takes place to raise money to feed the hungry through Project Bread, which supports 375 soup kitchens, food pantries and homeless shelter feeding programs throughout the state. Walkers will begin and finish their 20 mile stretch from the Common and can energize themselves at checkpoints offering water, orange slices and carrot sticks. To volunteer or sponsor a walker, call Project Bread at 723-5000.

From the playwright of Speed The Plow, and Sexual Perversity in Chicago comes the world premiere of Oleanna, a new play written and directed by David Mamet. In addition to Oleanna, Mamet has formed two new production companies; Bay Kinescope Inc. and The Back Bay Theater Company, the latter which debuts with Oleanna. The Pulitzer Prize-winning director is joined by producer Patricia Wolff for the first time since their collaboration on the 1988 play, Sketches of War. Oleanna opens at the American Repertory Theater's New Stage Series at the Hasty Pudding Theatre on May 1, and runs through May 24. Ticket prices are $17 to $33. Advance Tickets are available by calling the ART Box office at 547-8300 or can be bought at the Loeb Drama Center Center on 64 Brattle Street. The Hasty Pudding Box Office will be open for day-of-performance sales two hours prior to show.

Remember this name: Disappear Fear. They're sure to pack the house at TT The Bear's on May 4 to celebrate the release of their new album, Live at The Bottom Line-NYC. One of the freshest acoustic duos to hit the scene in years, Disappear Fear will do nothing less than "Wow" any new listener. This talented pair of rockers hits Boston for two area shows - the Old Vienna Kaffeehouse in Westboro on May 3 at 7:30 pm, and TT's. So if you're interested in a memorable evening and hearing some outstanding harmonies the way they should be heard, then hit these shows. Disappear Fear won't be playing small clubs for much longer. Call TT The Bear's at 492-0082 for more information (Old Vienna at 508-898-2231).

Over 20,000 fans at Foxboro Stadium braved biting winds and cold rains to celebrate Earth Day 1992 at the Sound Action concert. Those who survived the weather were rewarded by the sounds of musicians like Bruce Cockburn, Indigo Girls, Joan Baez (pictured above), The Kinks, Midnight Oil, The Steve Miller Band and many more. The concert was held to raise money and awareness for environmental causes associated with conservation, recycling and the preservation of planet earth. Concertgoers were additionally rewarded with seedling trees which were handed to the driver of each car parking in the stadium parking lot.

Do Blondes Have More Fun?

by Leslie Ross

A brunette taking a dare

Never shall a young man/thrown into despair/ By the great honey-colored/ramparts at your ear/ Love you for yourself alone,/and not your yellow hair.

W.B. Yeats

Marilyn knew. I know. And thousands of hairdressers know for sure.

Blondes do have more fun. They do and they don't.

It began out of a conversation with my friend Steve. He asked, after watching a movie evidencing this cliché, "Can it be that women only want men to have muscles and motorcycles?" I replied an emphatic "No." Women want men with foreign accents. Anything else is insignificant.

"And what do men want women to have?," I asked Steve.

Steve said, "Men want women to be blond."

I knew this already. The poetry of the world explains it. (Brautigan: "Forget love. I just want to die in your yellow hair.) I had always felt a certain gratitude to Shakespeare for the sonnets to the Dark Lady, until my college English professor told me that the inspiration for the poems was almost certainly a dark laddy.

I asked Steve, "So if I were a blond, my life would change? "

He just smiled. "I dare you to find out."

It got me thinking.

When I mentioned the plan to my boyfriend Muir, he said, "But I like your hair. It's such a nice shade of brown. Brown is just as glamorous as blond" (A flattering and certainly politically correct response, but not good enough for me).

The next morning, I told him, "I'm going blond. It's what I have to do." He rolled his eyes and laughed. "But you can't be a blonde," one of my friends told me. You don't look like one." I puzzled over this for a while. What does a blonde look like, if not someone with blond hair? I pulled out the Webster's l) Blond: adj. of hair or skin very light in color. 2)having light colored hair, often with fair skin and blue or gray eyes. Blonde: noun, a blond person. Blondness. It lists the word, but Webster's gives no definition for it. Somehow I was not surprised.

But whatever the elusive quality was, I was determined to find out.

I chose April Fool's Day for the Great Transformation. Not only did it seem an appropriate date for such a dare, but Muir was out of town.

Because the lightening process can damage hair, I spoke to several hairdressers before choosing one. Born 2 B Wild on Newbury Street, a salon equally known for dazzling style and conscientious attention to healthy hair. I knew that I was in good hands with Eddie, who not only gave me a killer haircut but also lifted my hair to a honey-colored gold without bleaching it - that is, stripping it entirely of color in order to apply the desired shade. Bleaching permanently damages hair.

I asked Eddie his professional opinion about blondes and whether or not they have more fun.

"I think they definitely get more attention," he told me. "But then, that's to be expected. Light attracts the eye. It goes to follow that blondes are noticed more. As to whether or not they have more fun" - he chuckled wickedly," that depends on the blond."

So I emerged from Born 2 B Wild with honey-colored hair and the intentions to make the most of it.

I've got to say that it wasn't what I expected.

What did I expect? Traffic stopping in the streets while men leapt out of cars to offer me flowers. Anonymous letters declaring undying passion delivered to my house. Better service in restaurants. A seat on the Green Line. These are little things, it's true. But they are things which, although I didn't know it until I became a blond, I was certain that blondes all got with no effort.

It wasn't quite that dramatic. But there was an undeniable change.

Day 1: Blond like me. I did it. People have been commenting that they like my hair. I'm still not accustomed to it, and when I look in the mirror, it takes a minute to recognize myself.

Day 2: I asked Kim, a luscious blondette at work, if she thought she had more fun as a blonde. She said, "Me? I'm not blond." Everyone turned and stared at her. Her hair is the color of autumn wheat. No one could call it dark. "I'm not blond," she insisted. "Okay, Kim," we told her. "You're not blond."

Another work associate asked how many IQ points I had dropped since my transformation.

Day 3: People have been greeting me with the phrase, "Did you hear about the blond who..." I have heard about twenty jokes in two days. In each one, the word "blonde" could easily be substituted with the phrase "really stupid person."

Beauty knows no pain

Muir came back from New York. He hasn't said a word about my hair, although I sometimes catch him looking at me curiously. I asked him if he was accustomed yet to having a blond girlfriend. He said "no."

Day 4: I begin to suspect there really is something to this. Going to pick up a friend at the Jackson Square subway stop, I make an illegal turn into the driveway. Blue lights behind me tell me that (whoops!) I've been caught. A policeman comes to the window and before I can hand him my driver's license, he says, "Oh, hello. Didn't you know that you shouldn't turn in there? Well, okay. Just give me one of your sexiest smiles and we'll call it even." He grins at me and I'm allowed to drive off - with no ticket. In the rearview mirror, I see him wave before he goes back to his car.

Though nothing like this ever happened to me when I wasn't blond, maybe it's just a coincidence.

Day 5: Am I imagining this, or are people really acting condescendingly to me? Salesmen seem more solicitous, but they explain things slower than before, as if I'll have trouble following them. And there's a subtle and unnerving difference in the treatment I get from acquaintances. My sense of humor, dry to the point of being Saharaesque, usually passes for wit. Lately however, people have begun to take it literally. Joking to a friend who knows that I speak French, I comment that I smelled a horrible perfume by Christian Dior. "It's called POISON," I tell her, but I think it should be pronounced "POISSON."

"Oh, no," she tells me sweetly. "POISSON means Fish."

Oui, Bozo. Je le sais.

Day 6: At Matt Garrett's in Coolidge Corner, a stranger sends a drink to my table. Flattered, I go over to thank him and he tells me that I look like Jody Foster. Jody Foster! Hell, it beats Liza.

Day 7: I call every woman I know who has blond hair to ask if blondes have more fun. Some are natural blondes, and some have had a little help in getting there. Of twenty polled, the results are: Artificially blond - ll polled, 10 said yes, definitely, blondes have more fun. The eleventh is having her hair dyed red this month because she was "uncomfortable with the attention" she receives while being blond. Of the nine natural blondes, three said that they didn't think that blondes have more fun, and four said, "I'm not blond." Only two said yes - and one of them admitted that she "milks it for all that it's worth."

Day 8: I call the library to see if

(continued on page 10)

Marilyn, move over.

MORE WHEELING AROUND

by Abby Ellin & Tobin Streett

You've Made The Purchase But Where Do You Ride?

So where does one "Do It?" Obviously, the terrain should be suited to your bike.

If you'd rather burn up the city streets than the mountainside, try some routes which offer decent scenery, less traffic and some challenging hills. For a good leisurely ride, the banks of the Charles provide great views of the city's skyline. You can wheel along the paved path or in some parts, the parallel dirt and grass paths. You'll have to stay alert for runners, walkers, dogs, children, roller bladers and a host of other obstacles. However, these usually surface only on weekends.

The Arnold Arboretum on the Arborway in Jamaica Plain is probably the most beautiful place you can explore - especially on a mountain bike. Not only will the beautiful scenery whisk you off to another land, but there's a great hill which can catapult a rider at a zillion miles an hour on the way down. The Arboretum is easy to find, either with your bike strapped to the car or as a simple ride.

Water lovers, on the other hand, shouldn't miss the Boston Waterfront. There's congestion with traffic from every compass point, but cars are not the largest problem for the city biker; your most frequent problem will be either pedestrians or safeguarding your machine from thieves. Start on Atlantic Avenue. Explore the old wharves between the North End and South Station, paying close attention to points of interest like old fish processing plants, the Old North Church and the Copps Hill Burying Ground in the North End.

One of the oldest sections of Boston, the North End offers enough challenging hills to let you work up a good sweat. Continue back to Charlestown, where you can take in a beautiful and absolutely free view of Boston from the Bunker Hill Monument.

Another great place to ride is on the section of Commonwealth Avenue that lies in Chestnut Hill and Newton. There are some good residential side roads with their share of curves, but the hills have the thrills. If you take Commonwealth out far enough, you'll even find some woods in the Weston area which should prove to be challenging for most novices. After all, the best way to climb a mountain is to start with a hill. It's best to get out of the city. Throw your bike on the car or ride away, but whatever you do, get out.

Michael Powers

Steve Winston of Bicycle Bills in Allston puts the finishing touches on a pristine tune up.

The Tune-Up; The Most Important Thing for An Enjoyable Ride

For those bikers who already own bicycles, it's important to consider an area often ignored by many cyclists: the tune-up. The Improper Bostonian surveyed six of the areas better known stores and found tune-ups ranging in price from $29 to $50. All of these included tuning wheels, checking bearings, adjusting brakes and gears, a lube job and a general check. Bicycle Bill's in Allston and Ski Market in Boston seemed to have some of the better prices in town and will offer good service and a high quality tune up.

Seeing The World on Wheels: Your Bike Is Your Best Friend!

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "Traveling is a fool's paradise. . .

Congressman Joe Kennedy II (left) discusses "The Bike Bill", with International Bicycle Centers' co-owner Harold Knochin (right).

My giant goes with me wherever I go." Had he said this today, he would surely replace "giant" with "bike."

Biking vacations are increasingly popular for folks who want something more than just a margarita and a suntan. They offer beautiful scenic tours for novices, experienced and advanced bikers. Most packages include accommodations, meals, guides, entrance fees to points of interest and more. Some professional touring companies offer biking vacation packages all over the country and the world. Some recommended companies who specialize in these tours are Bike Riders, Inc. in Boston, Bike Centennial in Montana and American Youth Hostels. Tours are offered locally, nationally and internationally. The choices are limitless. They range from singles weekend excursions on islands such as Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket and Block Island to full-blown two week packages in places you'd never even dream of seeing on your bike.

Eileen Holland from Bike Riders, Inc. says, "People who have never been on tours before say they're surprised that they don't have to be in great shape or be serious bikers. We get a lot of people who say 'we're going out to buy bikes next week.' It's not just an athletic tour; it's a nicer way to see the islands. Even the accommodations are nice. We stay in distinctive little inns and we get a lot of repeat bikers.

Whether you are a novice biker or an experienced two-wheeling lunatic, there's one undeniable truth: Once you've had a few good rides and learned that your bike isn't all that difficult to master, you'll be addicted for life. So visit some of Boston's many bike stores and hit the roads flying. ❑

Stop spinning your wheels!

If your searching for everything in cycling - you found us.

WHEEL WORKS

Everything you need in cycling!

Belmont Wheelworks
480 Trapelo Rd., Belmont. 489-3577

Ace Wheelworks
145 Elm St., Somerville. 776-2100

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Straight Talk
"Dolly Parton meets Pygmalion"
Dolly Parton is a likable person who has used music to spread her "good old girl" honesty and bring smiles to her legion of fans. In Straight Talk, Dolly becomes a radio psychologist and proceeds to use her "good old girl" honesty to bring smiles to the people of Chicago. Not exactly a stretch. Straight Talk is a harmless movie saved from complete disaster by good intentions and a fine supporting cast. Griffen Dunne brings refreshing energy to the role of a radio program director. James Woods, although convincing, is an unlikely love interest. Eventually Straight Talk is a series of music videos loosely strung together along Pygmalion lines. Give Dolly points for effort but Straight Talk isn't enough. J.A.

Proof
"Nice, but Not Compelling"
Proof is a simple, direct film from Australia, based on the odd idea of a blind photographer. The only person Martin (Hugo Weaving) can trust to interpret his pictures is Andy (Russel Crowe), an honest lad who has to grapple with the enormity of the responsibility. For if he has to question that trust, Martin also has to question his whole perception of the world around him. The movie is stolen by Genevieve Picot as Martin's manipulative housekeeper. Her excellent performance is intellectually stimulating, containing elements of obsession, sadism, caring and cruelty. The big winner at the 1991 Australian Film Institute Awards Proof is not glamorous or particularly compelling, but nicely done all the same. J.L.

White Men Can't Jump
"A Festival of Exuberance"
White Men Can't Jump is a celebration of the no autopsy/no foul world of L.A. street hoop. With the curve of their athletic ability tailing off Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson) and Sidney Deane (Wesley Snipes) have found a niche hustling basketball games. Snipes exudes sweeping, unshakable confidence, raising trash-talking to an art form. Harrelson is a prodigious font of insults, convincing as the "slow, white, geeky chump" necessary for the hustle. Rosle Perez and Tyra Ferrel give the men the strength and direction as their respective partners. This film is a festival of exuberance, driven by good performances, athletic ability and the fine art of insulting someone's mother. A raucous experience. J.A.

Ferngully
"Fine Educational Entertainment"
Ferngully uses animation to deliver a strong environmental message for children. The film is a little simplistic but makes an honorable attempt to educate. With fairies and talking animals, the rain forest is shown as a paradise. Humans arrive to destroy the forest with evil machines, releasing a force called Hexus (Tim Curry) that survives on pollution. Samantha Mathis lends her voice to a fairy who manages to save nature. Robin Williams gives a demented kinetic "performance" as an escaped laboratory bat. His appearance might cheer up adults but Ferngully remains for kids. The film uses humor to provide a valuable lesson about the environment - certainly money well spent. J.A.

Surprisingly Captivating but WHITE SANDS Is No Day at the Beach

by Tim Lemire

If you expect White Sands to be another mindless, violent thriller, then you will be pleasantly surprised. Another successful collaborative effort by the screenwriter and producers of Pacific Heights (Daniel Pyne, William Stakheim and Scott Rudin), White Sands is a disturbing psychological drama which raises alarming questions about identity, ethics and avarice.

For the Deputy Sheriff (Willem Dafoe) of a backwater New Mexico town, livin' is easy until he stumbles upon an unidentified dead man whose attache case contains $5 million in large, unmarked bills. While common in many crime-ridden cities, it's downright unusual in the Rio Grande Gorge. Although it's set up to look like a suicide, there's no note and, if it was murder, why all the left-over cash?

Within 24 hours, the sheriff's careful investigations explode into a world of covert activities and stealth operations. Leaving behind his protesting wife (Mimi Rogers), and his cautious, by-the-book persona, Dafoe assumes the identity of the dead man in order to solve the murder.

Before long, Dafoe's good intentions have trapped him in a web of treacherous, ever-changing circumstances (otherwise known as an FBI sting), dual identities, and double crosses which mark him as the prime suspect in a federal murder case. Forced to continue his role-playing by the FBI agent in charge (Samuel L. Jackson), Dafoe finds himself crossing over the line of ethical behavior into an uneasy partnership with a Svengaliesque arms dealer (Mickey Rourke), and Rourke's ex-lover (Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio), an heiress whose career centers around flirtation with crime.

White Sands is a change of pace for Dafoe whose work in acclaimed period dramas (Platoon) and off-beat cameos (Wild at Heart) has made him an eclectic yet bankable actor. And, while cops and robbers is not his usual vehicle, Dafoe crafts a character whose thirst for seamy excitement and high risks is well married to his natural innocence and strong sense of justice.

Willem Dafoe stars in Morgan Creek Productions' White Sands, about a small-town sheriff (Dafoe) who assumes the identity of a dead man in order to solve a mysterious crime

No stranger to playing the part of a complex villain is Mickey Rourke whose work in Angel Heart, The Year of the Dragon and Body Heat give him a cache equal to none in the suspense/thriller genre. After a few misses (Wild Orchid, Harley Davidson and the Malboro Man), Rourke is back with a hit.

Despite strong performances in the past, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio and Mimi Rogers never fully engage the audience. And, while both women are romantically involved with Dafoe, they remain peripheral and insipid.

However, White Sands showcases the brilliant acting of Samuel L. Jackson. As the FBI agent, Jackson shines with the same maniacal energy that has won him awards from the 1991 Cannes Film Festival and the New York Film Critics for his role as Gator in Spike Lee's Jungle Fever.

Director James Robinson has created a world based upon double identities where the fine lines of distinction between good and evil, and just and unjust, seemingly disappear; where individuals assume multiple personae and where nothing seems stable. White Sands explores, with great subtlety, the nature of a society without ethics. ❑

White Sands
A Morgan Creek Production
Directed by
James Robinson
Starring
Willem Dafoe
Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio
Mickey Rourke
Samuel Jackson
Mimi Rogers

Answer to Previous Puzzle

A	M	F	M		M	E	E	S	E		C	H	A	P
P	O	O	R		A	L	I	A	S		R	A	B	E
O	P	U	S		S	I	G	N	S		E	L	L	A
P	E	R		W	A	S	H	Y		S	A	F	E	R
	S	T	E	A	D		T	O	O	K	T	O
		E	L	G	A	R	T		K	I	E	F	E	R
W	E	E	M	S		A	I	R	E	D		F	O	O
A	R	N	O		N	I	M	O	Y		B	O	N	N
R	I	P		J	O	N	E	S		S	O	U	S	A
M	C	L	A	I	N		S	E	C	T	O	R
		U	P	B	E	A	T		R	E	N	D	S
H	A	S	T	E		S	H	E	E	P		O	C	T
A	N	T	E		H	O	R	A	S		C	Z	A	R
I	K	E	S		I	N	E	R	T		P	E	L	E
R	A	N	T		T	E	E	N	S		A	N	D	Y

Howard's End - Enchanting to the last frame

by Tim Lemire

Director Jim Avory (A Room with a View) gratefully escorts another E.M. Forster novel to the screen in Howard's End, an exploration of familiar Forsterian themes of class antagonism, social convention versus romantic instinct and the nobility of asserted independence. Helene Bonham-Carter returns in a less pouty and irritating role than Room With a View, joined by Anthony Hopkins, Vanessa Redgrave and Emma Thompson.

Margaret Schlegel (Emma Thompson, left) and Helen Schlegel (Helena Bonham Carter, right) in Howard's End

Howard's End
A Sony Pictures Classic Release
Directed by James Ivory
Starring
Helene Bonham Carter
Anthony Hopkins
Vanessa Redgrave

The Wilcoxes and the Schlegels are literally on opposite sides of the street: the conservative and wealthy Wilcoxes have in the past brushed with the impetuous and not-so-wealthy Schlegels (a spot of German blood, don't you know, not pure proper Britishers) following a brief fling between son Paul Wilcox and young Helen Schlegel (Helene Bonham-Carter). The sickly Mrs. Wilcox (played with delicate vacancy by Vanessa Redgrave) has taken to the eager chatterbox Meg Schlegel (Emma Thompson), and wills to her, Howard's End - her childhood home in Hilton and the site of Wilcox family retreats. The Wilcox clan, headed by the steely-eyed, iron-handed Henry (Anthony Hopkins), decide to hide this bestowment from Ms. Schlegel. After all, she is, in too many ways, not a Wilcox (good thing, too, given their snottiness).

Director Jim Avory and screenwriter Ruth Prawer Jhabvala have a difficult task in establishing over half a dozen characters in the first half of the movie, while making the confluence of their destinies in the second part not seem like a traffic jam. While the beginning of the movie is episodic, perhaps causing confusion around its intent, the beautifully directed individual parts come together with ease and clarity.

Sam West plays the Kafkaesque clerk and book-lover Mr. Bast, whom Helen Schlegel adopts as her "special case." The emotions in this sub-plot are tense but not overplayed, intimating the prejudice and guilt of class division.

When Helen tries to comfort Mr. Bast by explaining that books and art are what give life music and meaning, Bast replies with a controlled tension, "That's what rich people say to make themselves feel good after dinner." Volumes are spoken about the tensions between classes, the difference between Basts's world and Helen's.

Because Howard's End is not the love comedy of A Room With A View, its characters are not as caricatured, dotty or quaint. Anthony Hopkins as magnate Henry Wilcox is consummate and threatening without being purely evil. Howard's End is a beautiful postcard of meadows, rainy London streets, passion, anger and flowering loss. For even the casual movie-goer, this is one film that's sure to stir up some emotions.❑

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
- A Winner
- A Toss up
- For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
White Men Can't Jump	Winner	Winner	Toss up	Winner	Winner	Winner	Winner	Toss up	Toss up
My Cousin Vinny	Winner	Toss up	Winner	Winner	Winner	—	—	Toss up	—
Sleepwalkers	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	Toss up	—	—	—
Beethoven	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	—	—	—	Toss up	—
Ferngully	Winner	Winner	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	—	—	Toss up	—
Wayne's World	Winner	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Winner
The Cutting Edge	Winner	For the birds	For the birds	Toss up	—	—	—	—	For the birds
Straight Talk	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Winner	Winner	—	—	For the birds	—
Basic Instinct	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up
Thunderheart	For the birds	Toss up	—	For the birds	Toss up	—	—	—	For the birds

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Delicatessen
"Food for Thought"
Squeamish people may be better off eating a burger, but for those with strong stomachs, this bizarre, dark comedy (with a little romance sprinkled in for good seasoning) is destined to become a cult classic: A butcher is somehow able to provide cold cuts to his customers during a meat shortage, while the tenants of his building mysteriously disappear. The plot is original, the dialogue funny, the acting hysterical, and the camera work is first-rate. What more can you ask for? K.M.

Deep Cover
"Shouldn't Be Missed"
An intense and unsettling film, Deep Cover should not be ignored. This dark and shadowy story about an undercover narcotics agent raises interesting questions. It parallels the lives of undercover police officers with those of drug dealers, pointing out that the only difference between the two is in their values. Starring Jeff Goldblum and Larry Fishbone, Deep Cover draws the viewer into a world of mystery and intrigue with a strong message about the persuasion of the underworld. Director Bill Duke has done a wonderful job with a don't-miss film. J.A.

Othello
"Dated Excellence"
Orson Welles' classic Othello has been re-released providing a chance to view the film's salvaged excellence one more time. The only draw back is the extensive restoration work has not been entirely successful. There are gaps in continuity and the sound quality requires considerable effort on the part of the viewer. Welles filmed in an outlandish North African location made more impressive with strong visual direction. Welles, himself plays the moor and has a powerful brooding presence on screen that isn't really matched by the other actors. Othello is without a doubt an excellent film and a chance to see cinematic history. It's just a shame the restoration couldn't be more complete. J.A.

Raise the Red Lantern
"Emotionally Gripping"
Raise the Red Lantern comes as a powerful film from director Zhang Yimou, whose other works Red Sorghum and Ju Dou have brought considerable world-wide attention to the Chinese cinema. The story follows a young girl, Songlian, who becomes the fourth wife to a rich man in a traditional Chinese home. Her entire life, regulated by rituals of her husbands family, hinges on her ability to please her husband.

In honor of her, the red lanterns are set alight, to line the courtyard of her house. The plot centers on the intriguing relationships between the wives as they plot and struggle to gain attention from their husband. Actress Gong Li, as Songlian, displays an evolution of emotion as gripping and undeniable as the seasons around which the plot is woven. Raise the Red Lantern is a gem. L.R

My Cousin Vinny
"A Barrage of Good Belly Laughs"
The premise of My Cousin Vinny is not complicated; Brooklyn comes to small town Alabama in the form of Vincent Gambini, a lawyer making his "first foray into the trial process." Vinny defends two college students who are tied up in a murder case. When rolling innocently along, My Cousin Vinny serves up barrage of good belly-laughs. Dallying with a plot and actually trying to take the trial seriously are a mistake. Joe Pesci gives a wonderfully over-the top performance and his peculiar style of cross-examination is a long overdue parody of courtroom dramas. Also Marisa Tomei as Vinny's girlfriend is an enjoyable foil to Pesci's antics. My Cousin Vinny is the sort of film that makes you feel better for having seen it. J.A.

MOVIES

Do Blondes Have More Fun?

(continued from page 6)

there are any studies done about blond stereotypes. The man in the reference room tells me a blond joke before he puts me on hold.

Day 9: I see Steve for the first time since he dared me to do this. He is appalled. "You're not going to keep it this way, are you?" he asked.

"I thought you said that gentlemen prefer blondes."

"I said that. But - you look so different. And the fact is, although I hate to admit it, I don't prefer blondes. I guess I don't take them seriously (A startling revelation).

Day 10: I start asking men if they stereotype blondes. Of 25 polled, ten say they do stereotype blondes as being less intelligent and more fun than brunettes. Fourteen refuse to admit a stereotype. One says that he feels so overjoyed with any girl who will talk to him that he forgets to notice her hair color.

A guy on the Green line leans out the door to call, "Good-bye, Goldilocks!" as I step off the train.

Day 11: A friend reminds me that I once dated a guy because he had long blond hair. "Remember?" she asks. "You said you used to pretend that he was a Viking when he was kissing you." It's embarrassing, but true.

Day 12: My mother calls to tell me that the photo I sent arrived. "Your father didn't recognize you," she says. "He asked who the blonde was."

Day 13: My roommate puts a list of blond jokes on the refrigerator door. They were being passed around at her office.

Day 14: The article is due and the Improper Bostonian wants to know if Blondes really do have more fun. What can I say? I was enjoying myself to begin with, so it's hard to compare.

I corner Muir and demand to know his opinion of my hair.

"Do you like it?" I ask him.

He smiles and shrugs. "Sure."

"What do you really think?" I insist.

"About your hair? It's lighter than it used to be. That's all."

Having made this little experiment, I assert that the blond experience is vastly different from the brunette. I can state without hesitation that I received more attention from men, whether or not I wanted it. But, the consistent, subtle implication that blondes are less intelligent became a real undertone. It was a startling prejudice to encounter. I can now understand all the protestations of "I'm not blond" that other women gave me when put to the test. There's an edge of defensiveness that seems to come with the territory.

Lately, though, I've been watching red-heads on the T Maybe there's something to it. ❑

The Improper Bostonian's Video Choices

by John Galligan & Jon Haber

Barton Fink (1991)

Barton Fink (brilliantly played by John Turturro), is a World War II era playwright and self-anointed voice of the common man who travels to Hollywood to slum for the studios. From a creepy Los Angeles hotel room, Fink struggles with his own creative ineptitude (masquerading as writer's block) and an assortment of Hollywood grotesques. Self-absorption allows him to disregard his surrounding misery and ignore the common man living next door (played by John Goodman) until it's too late. While the Cohen brothers (makers of Raising Arizona and Millers Crossing) fail to hit one out of the ballpark, a fantastic cast make Barton Fink a bright moment in an otherwise dull year in cinema.

It's A Classic

One, Two, Three* (1961)

This cold war comedy stars James Cagney as Coca Cola's top man in post war, pre-wall Berlin. Cagney's march up Coke's corporate ladder meets a setback when the loose daughter of his boss (whom Cagney is baby-sitting) sneaks into East Berlin to marry Otto, a fire-breathing, card-carrying Bolshevik. No nationality is spared friendly ridicule in this hilarious Billy Wilder classic - from lecherous Russians to apologetic Germans ("Yes, I worked for the Gestapo, but I was only a pastry chef") to the all-capable American, Cagney, who must turn Otto from commie to aristocratic in one afternoon. Proof positive that James Cagney is one funny guy.

OffBeat Treats

Bloody Mama

This unjustly overlooked gangster epic is the story of Kate "Ma" Barker, her four crazy sons and their depression era crime spree. Roger Corman, Hollywood's king of low budget, high-concept film making, cast this movie impeccably. Shelly Winters is Ma Barker, whose criminality and violence is a function of rural poverty and early childhood abuse. Bloody Mama is the Hollywood debut of Robert De Niro who diets himself down to a junky's emaciation to play Ma's drug- addicted son. Bruce Dern also has his break in this first-class, action-packed and violent American classic. ❑

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

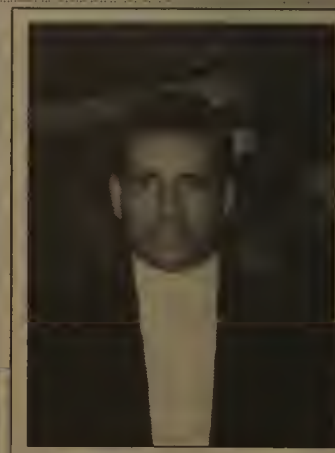
WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"What is the best pickup line you've ever used?"

Jeff, 33, Quincy
"Are you a pizza or a bagel?" (All rights reserved)

Robbin, 21, Winchester
"I was thinking about how I could rearrange the alphabet and put 'U' and 'I' together."



Cornell, 40, Atlanta, GA
"Hello Gorgeous, would you like to buy me a drink?"

Dottie, 44, Belmont
"You have such nice hair. Is it real?"

George, 28 Back Bay
"It's OK, we are only related by marriage."

David, 34, Brookline
"Your clothes would look great laying next to my bed tomorrow morning."

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

A Star-Studded Birthday

Listen up Boston....What do Julian Lennon, Marky Mark and Color Me Bad all have in common? Though it's not like me to KISS and tell, I got the scoop that these boys will be playing at the biggest birthday party in America - KISS CONCERT 13...also known as Balsbaugh's Bar Mitzvah! To ensure that the Great Woods extravaganza is truly a religious experience, expect to see the Godfather of Soul himself - James Brown! Owwwwww! And if that don't make you feel good (uh huh!) so good (uh huh!) they've got about 25 more acts that will all be announced Thursday during the Matty in the Morning Show. Sounds like Richie Balsbaugh's going to have one helluva lucky thirteen!

Will You Share My Monogram?

Here's a Great Surprise from Mr. Great Expectations, Jeffrey Ullman, founder of the world's largest video dating service: He has been married not one, not two, but three times. Actually, he met his new bride Robyn at Great Expectations, but not via the boob tube. He met her the old-fashioned way: she worked for him! She had been working for Jeffrey at the L.A. home office for 3 1/2 years as a "success story coordinator." And while he was in Boston this week to tape a TV appearance (and check in on the Newton G.E.), Mr. Matrimony told me how he proposed. He gave her some luggage monogrammed with her future initials, R.U., and basically said, This U's for you if you want it." She said, "I do." As for any other baggage Jeffrey brought to the marriage? None. Just a couple of kids that he's crazy about. He even carries around a 3-D picture of them! And one other thing - Jeffrey said that since he and Robyn are both very intense at work, she gave up the day job. I just wonder if she now stays at home...watching videos!!!

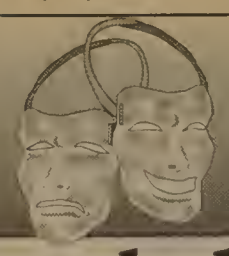
BZ Phone Home

And speaking of videos, here's some Fourthought: latest word has it that Channel 4's Stan the Man might go to San Fran. WBZ News Director Stan Hopkins, who will leave the station in June and do some consulting for parent company Group W, is apparently talking to a west coast mucky muck about an innovative news syndication venture. Stay tuned. And elsewhere at the station, some not so great news: I've been told that the cellular phones were removed from five of the news cars because there was too much personal yapping - you know, too much "BZ phone home." Mr. T.V. (Tony Vinciquerra, station manager) was supposedly not too thrilled about handing down that bit of fiscal folly. It's like President Bush saying he's going to cut back on the high cost of operating Air Force One by doing away with the Peanuts! Anyway, if I were you, I'd steer clear of Soldiers Field Road - I hear those carrier pigeons can make an awful mess!

Mexican Jumping Babes

Elsewhere on the road, I hear that popular KISS radio traffic reporter Judy Paparelli and Julie Perullo of Channel 5 could be taking their act on the table. It seems that these two partying "P's" were down in Cancun with ninety-nine others as part of KISS's Mexican Fiesta promotion and it was green light action all the way! They were dancing on chairs...on tables and bars...and were so well received, that there were rumors that Mexico's EDuardo SULLIVANez tried to sign them as the Mexican Jumping Babes! Ay Carrrrrrrrumba! Who knows, with any luck, maybe they'll resurrect the act for the KISS concert...Hasta La Vista, Baby!!!❑

Nancy Birnbaum is a writer-producer and on-air personaility. She is presently working as a producer on NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY. If there's anything that Nancy needs to know, please send it in or call The Improper Bostonian at 232-3507.



Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

ARTS

Bottled Lightning and Having a Cow in Cambridge

The MIT Museum - Boston's Best Kept Secret

by Bernie Conneely

You have entered the MIT Museum. What is most likely the strangest, most eclectic corridor in the area lies on the second floor of a nondescript warehouse-like building with the fetching name, "N52." You first pass a gift shop window displaying glow-in-the-dark, UFO-shaped juggling sacks and a holographic, Shakespeare-like character whose scowling expression smoothly brightens to a smile as you proceed. Next, walk by walls decorated with college newspaper clippings from a quaintly old-fashioned, pre-PC, bygone age. Just a little further, however, a dark and inviting room beckons you with several "plasma" sculptures containing flowing, dancing tendrils of colored lightning and spectral radiances that play along the points of contact with your hands as you touch the glass surface. If you can tear yourself away from these seductive baubles and continue on, awaiting you at the corridor's end is a genuine fiberglass bovine from the exotic land of Saugus - a Hilltop Steak House cow.

In an area teeming with museums and galleries, the MIT Museum is an overlooked gem. The museum's purpose is twofold: to archive MIT-related items (achievements, personalities, events, goofy student pranks, etc.) and to function as a general showplace for exhibits that combine art and science, preferably with some MIT connection. A model example are those plasma sculptures, which were created by combining electronics, gas plasma physics, and old-fashioned handblown glass making - a perfect synergy of art and technology. The sculptor, Bill Parker, is an MIT alumnus.

The largest exhibit at the museum showcases the works of the late Harold "Doc" Edgerton, a longtime MIT professor. Edgerton, inventor of the electronic flash and a pioneer in high-speed photography, captures images which range from the unnerving, initial "blob" of a nuclear detonation to a beguiling, regal "crown" formed by a simple milk drop striking a hard flat surface.

Home on the Dome - To help alleviate crowding in dormitories, Room 10-1000 was added to the great dome.

Kathleen Thurston, the Assistant Director for Marketing, explained that architecture is currently represented at the museum in the form of colorful "installation" called Thinking of the City: Twelve Views from MIT, which uses models to focus on the diverse facets of urban design, using Boston as an archetypal city.

So where does the Hilltop Steak House cow fit in? Try the Crazy After Calculus: Humor At MIT exhibit. Practical jokes among the robo-brains at places like Cal Tech and MIT are called "hacks" who tend to be a bit more involved than usual in the college prank. One recurrent hack places unlikely things atop the immense 150 foot high dome which crowns MIT's Barker Engineering Library (the faux-Pantheon edifice looming behind the stately grass courtyard off Memorial Drive). Items hoisted to this lofty locale have included a giant nipple, a working telephone booth, a small house, and in 1979, a "borrowed" Hilltop cow.

Other current exhibits include: Holography: Types and Applications which is what it sounds like and Math-In-3D: Geometric Sculptures by Morton C. Bradley, Jr. which has a collection of large, intricate sculptures based on mathematical equations. There is also a playroom of sorts called Mathspace, filled with sophisticated, post-Lego building kits (Some MIT students will often while away an entire weekend afternoon there).

Even for hopeless technophobes who associate math and science with best-forgotten student days of painful inadequacy, the MIT museum is a safe bet for a fun, endearingly stimulating respite.

All of the mentioned exhibits are ongoing except for "Thinking of the City" which runs until June 30. Upcoming exhibits include "Drawings at Work: William R. Ware and the Origins of American Architectural Education" opening April 24, and "Henry W. Kendall: Arctic and Expeditionary Photographs" opening May 6. ❑

Bobby Jone's Driver, 1938 100/flashes/second, Harold E. Edgerton. (Photo Courtesy of Palm Press, Inc.)

The MIT Museum

265 Mass Ave., Cambridge.
Located near the Necco candy plant. Look for a bright red door. On-street parking usually available.
Hours: 9am-5pm,
Tues-Fri; 1-5pm, weekends;
closed Mondays and holidays.
Admission: $2.00
For more info, call:
Current Exhibits 253-4444
Museum Shop 253-4462
Educational Programs
253-4422

1992
THE VINCENT CLUB
proudly presents
THE 100th VINCENT SHOW
Vincentennial!
to benefit
THE VINCENT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
THURSDAY, MAY 7 — SATURDAY, MAY 9
at eight o'clock
SATURDAY MATINEE
at two o'clock
Emerson Majestic Theater
219 Tremont Street
Boston
Box Office 617-277-3349 After May 4 617-578-8727

Our Country is Good
Is Short of Great

by Tim Lemire

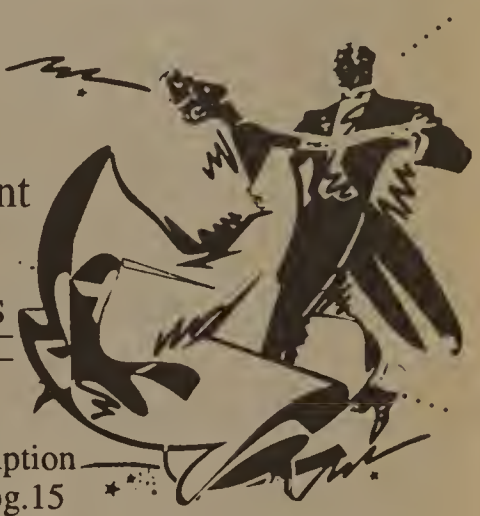
Timberlake Wertenbaker's Our Country's Good tests the Pygmalion theory of Australia in 1788 as British officer Ralph Clark endeavors to put on a play in a convict colony, using recently deported convicts. Clark and colony governor Captain Philip believe (not without vehement dissent from fellow officers) that the theater will be a rehabilitative influence in the convicts' lives. While theater is transforming for the convicts, Our Country's Good fell short of having the same effect on this reviewer primarily because few actors on-stage strongly communicate the loneliness of the outback, the memory of the whip or the struggle to establish "civilization" in the jungle.

David Guttman's performance as the earnest Clark is sincere, but wanting.

David Gutmann, Chloe Leamon and Chandra Piergostini star in the Lyric stage production of Our Country's Good.

Our Country is Good
Through May 24
by Timberlake Wertenbaker
The Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St.
$14 - $18
Call 437-7172 for info and times

Guttman plays Clark well as a model of prudent restraint, but oftentimes uses that shield in lieu of a reaction when someone addressing him. When Clark's schizophrenic friend Brewer (Larry Blamire) and the hangman Ketch (James Walker) open their hearts to Clark, Guttman's Clark stands like stone, too expressionless to suggest that Clark is merely shocked. Also, the transition of Clark from maniacally faithful husband to lover of convict/leading lady Mary Brenham (Chandra Pieragostini) comes a bit out of the blue; neither Wertenbaker's script, Guttman's acting or Ron Ritchell's direction help make Clark's leap from pious officer to paramour a believable one.



Every cast member (excepting Guttman) plays a double role as officer and convict, the most successful transitions by Robert Bouffier (Governor Philip and convict John Wisehammer) and James Walker (reticent hangman Ketch and boisterous Major Ross). In Act Two, Bouffier is transformed in one scene from the defeated Wisehammer to the uniformed Captain Philip, his voice resonating with authority. Walker makes a similarly large leap from Ketch's troubled meekness to Ross' ugly brutality, playing both parts believably.

During one rehearsal, Clark entreats convict Liz Morden (Sheila Ferrini), who has rattled off her lines breathlessly, "You know your lines well, Liz; it might be better if you acted them." Ironic criticism to such a good actress as Ferrini; Clark's advice might have been better directed at Larry Blamire in the role of deranged midshipman Harry Brewer. Brewer represents the imperialist in decay, plagued in his mind by the voices of the convicts whom he has helped hang. Regrettably, Brewer's delivery is almost as rushed as Liz Morden's mental illness being a difficult condition to project, and Blamire cannot cut the form.

The Lyric Stage's production of Our Country's Good does move and stir emotions against the injustices of the colony, thanks in large part to Shelia Ferrini as Liz Morden, the first woman to be sentenced to hang. Charles Weinstein's portrayal of pickpocket Robert Sideway, the overly-aspiring thespian, provides fine comic relief.

Ultimately, however, more might have been done in set design and direction to capture the mood and setting of this colony of pain: none of the officers sweat under Australian sun, few act as if they are strangers in strange land, and when actors fall out of character to introduce the scenes - apparently saying that life is drama and drama, life - the reality on-stage is interrupted and the impact is diluted ❑

PUZZLED?
For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's
NEWSDAY CROSSWORD
Call
1-900-646-8282
95c per minute

Silhouettes In Motion
Classic Movement for Actors & Models

* see workshop description under Arts Calender pg.15
Dianna Sanford
361 Newbury Street
247-2435

FIND OUT WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT MONEY MANAGERS.
INCLUDING WHETHER YOU NEED ONE.

Investment decisions have become more complex and more people are looking to improve the return on their investments by seeking the expertise of professional money managers.

But how do you know if you need one? How do you choose the right one? And then how do you monitor their performance?

These questions and many more are answered in Shearson Lehman Brothers' special report on professional portfolio management.

Since 1973, our Consulting Services Division has advised thousands of investors. And referred over $50 billion of their assets to professional portfolio managers.

So if you have a portfolio of $50,000 to $50 million, call for our valuable new report.

SHEARSON LEHMAN BROTHERS

CALL: (617) 589-3447
FOR OUR SPECIAL REPORT ON MONEY MANAGERS

AMERICAN EXPRESS

Member SIPC ©1990 Shearson Lehman Brothers Inc

ARTS

ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are on sale for "Swan Lake," which opens Apr. 30 and runs until May 17. The production is a highly-acclaimed collaboration between the Boston, Kirov and Bolshoi Ballet Companies. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.95. Call 964-4070 x.230/231 for more information.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Student Center, Sala de Puerto Rico
Opposite 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
Dance Workshop, directed by Beth Soll, features original choreography by MIT students as well as choreography by Amy Zell Ellsworth and Lodi McClellan, guest Artists-in-Residence at M.I.T. May 1-2 at 8pm. Call 253-5623 for more information.

Wolfworks
at Boston University's Sargent Dance Theatre
1 University Rd., Boston
Choreographer Deborah Wolf and her company Wolfworks present "Tangled Up in Blue" May 1-3. The show incorporates four different presentations, including two premieres: one to the music of Astor Piazzolla and one to the big band music of Duke Ellington and Fats Waller. Call 625-2944 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
NESOP presents "Collaged Prints," an exhibition of Kent Kirby's work. Kirby uses the unique but beautiful printing technique known as collotype. His work will be on display through May 14. Gallery hours: Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm.

Now at ODEON
The Dressing Room

The Most Affordable Hip On Newbury St. Classic Vintage Clothing & Furniture

---

285 Newbury St.
Boston, Ma.
Mon-Sat. 11-6 pm.
Sunday 12-6 pm.
536-1515

CLASSICAL

Boston Chamber Ensemble
at Suffolk University's C. Walsh Theatre
41 Temple St., Boston
Join the BCE and Suffolk University for "Literature & Music" on May 2 at 8pm. Program will include works by Beethoven, Schumann, Stravinsky and many others. Call 547-2289 for more information.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, Mass Ave., Boston
Conducted by Bernard Haitink and featuring Nadine Secunde (soprano), Gary Lakes (tenor) and Paul Plishka (bass), the BSO will perform SCHUBERT Symphony No. 3 and WAGNER 'Die Walkure,' Act 1. Call for times and ticket prices, 266-7575.

Jordan Hall
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
Les Arts Florissants, William Christie's pace-setting early musical ensemble known for stunning performances and recordings of baroque opera, will perform Purcell's "The Fairy Queen" May 12 at 8pm. Call 482-2595 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents two movie events: "German Women Directing" on May 7 and "Lost in Romania" on May 8. The first event features two full-length feature films by German women; the second event will screen one full-length film and one short documentary on the plight of Romanian children. May 10, 14 and 15, the MFA will premiere Color Adjustment: Blacks in Prime Time. Call 267-9300 for more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Admission to the museum is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, free for children under 5 and half price on Sat. until noon. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. From Apr. 7-June 7, the ICA hosts Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, an exhibit that presents an astounding array of over 400 objects that document the emergence of montage. Some have never been shown together before; others have never been seen before in the U.S. Admission is $4 general, $3 for students, $1.50 for seniors and children under 16, $1 for UMass/Boston and M.I.T students. Free admission on Thur. from 5 to 8pm. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Artschwager received critical acclaim in the mid '60s for his quirky representations of furniture and domestic objects such as mirrors and paintings, all featuring formica as the signature material. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"Bears: Imagination and Reality," one of two temporary exhibits, challenges the visitor to learn the difference between the imaginary bear and the real bear. It runs through May 10. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metropolitan Boston school year.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year, and admission is $4 for adults and $2 for children, students and senior citizens. Museum hours are Wed-Sun., 10am-5pm. For more information call 522-6547.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 4, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 12. Call 547-8300 for more information.

American Repertory Theatre
at the Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
Highly-acclaimed playwright David Mamet's new play Oleanna will be performed from May 1-24 by the Back Bay Theater Company. This two-character play, the story of a university professor and one of his students, concerns sex, education, love and politics. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
Come laugh with us! Come see Farcenic, also known as This Job is Killing Me, But I Need the Health Benefits. This two-act farce pokes fun at the corporate world as the boss is found dead at her desk and everyone from the senior vice president to the receptionist has confessed to the crime. Runs May 8-16. Tickets are $8. Call 547-6789 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Due to extraordinary demand, the hilarious one-woman show Shirley Valentine has been extended and will play until May 3. Willy Russell's funny and touching play about a middle-aged Liverpool housewife who experiences liberation on a Greek vacation has been playing to capacity audiences since it opened Jan. 9. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket information.

Colonnade Hotel
120 Huntington Ave., Boston
Every Saturday evening through May, the Colonnade presents Opera Night, directed by Marshall Hughes. It's an operatic ensemble comprised of professional musical artists committed to "user-friendly" opera which is both fun and versatile and perfect for the elite opera buff as well as the novice listener.

Lenox Hotel
710 Boylston St., Boston
The Lenox Hotel presents Manhattan, a 90-minute musical bite of the Big Apple. The revue, combined with the elegance of dining at the Lenox, makes for a wonderful evening. Through May 31. Call 536-5300 for times, ticket information and reservations.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
The Boston premiere of Timberlake Weterbaker's powerful play Our Country's Good begins Apr. 22. Nominated for several Tony Awards and winner of the Olivier award for Best New Play, this brilliant, moving production hails the redemptive power of art. Runs through May 24. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands

(continued on following page)

ARTS

(Theater continued)

The NRT is currently performing A. R. Gurney's The Cocktail Hour, an affectionate play about family reconciliation. The show runs through May 17. Call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

New Theatre, Inc.
at the Community Church of Boston
565 Boylston St., Boston
New Theatre Inc. presents a stunning new drama by Joe Pinaturo called The Raft of the Medusa from May 7-31. Directed by George Contini, Pinaturo's play makes a metaphor for the struggles of people cast adrift by the AIDS crisis today. Performances are Thurs.-Sun. at 8pm; tickets are $10-$12. Call 247-7388 for more information.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Shakespeare's brutal epic Macbeth is transformed into an intimate cycle of song and speech from May 12-16. In this adventurous production, the tragedy about the search for a personal destiny is accompanied by a live band and set in an environmental installation under a suspended forest. Call 625-1300 for more information.

Playwrights' Theater
949 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
The Playwrights' Theater at Boston University will present Blue Narcissus by Russell Lees from Apr. 30-May 3 at 8pm. Admission is $6. For more information, please call 353-5899.

Shubert Theatre
265 Tremont St., Boston
Peter Shaffer's award-winning play Lettice & Lovage, starring Julie Harris and Roberta Maxwell, will begin a two-week run only from Apr. 28-May 10. Call 1-800-233-3123 for times and ticket information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the nearby European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's ($42-$50). For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Marian Wright Edelman, who 18 years ago founded the Children's Defense Fund, will speak about her new book, The Measure of Our Success: A Letter to My Children and Yours, as the Harvard Bookstore Cafe Author Series continues at the BPL May 7 at 6pm in the Rabb Lecture Hall.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge
Author and humanitarian Peter Matthiessen will be joined by the Wakeby Lake Singers May 5 at 8pm as the CMAC continues with its spring season focus on issues surrounding the Columbus voyage and the ramifications of the expedition on the Native Americans. Call 577-1400 for tickets.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
How did Impressionism first take shape? Gary Tinterow, from the Metropolitan Museum of Art, is currently organizing an exhibition that will explore how Monet, Renoir, Degas and their colleagues developed this landmark style. The exhibition will be shown in New York and Paris in 1994, and Tinterow will present a preview of the exhibition and the thinking behind it. Call 267-9300 x306 for more information.

WORKSHOPS

Boston University
Seminar in the Culinary Arts
808 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Pierre Franey, one of this country's great chefs, celebrates American cooking May 5 from 6-9pm and in his new PBS television series. He will demonstrate recipes from his new companion book to this series and each participant will sample his delectable food and receive a copy of the book, Cooking in America. Tuition is $60. Call 353-9852 for more information.

Boston University
Case Athletic Center
285 Babcock St., Boston
B.U. will offer a demonstration in stress relief and massage on Apr. 30 (9am-2pm) and May 1 (9am-5pm) in the training room at CAC. Fifteen minute back and neck massages will be available for $5. For more information, call 353-2746.

B.U. Bookstore Mall
Kenmore Square, Boston
Author Dan Wakefield will lead a weekend writing workshop called "Creating Clear: A Workshop in Exploring Your Creativity" May 9 (10am-4pm) and May 10 (1-4pm) at the Charlesbank Reading Room on the 5th floor. Cost for both sessions is $95. Call 508-546-9710 to register or for more information.

Silhouettes in Motion - Classic Movement For Actors, Models, and Dancers
361 Newbury Street., Boston
From music videos and commercials, to print and screen: romance and its story is on the upswing. Aquire poise, grace, and style in the classic dances of the Foxtrot, Waltz, Rumba and Swing. Learn to bring these feelings to life on May 2, 11am-1pm. Cost: $20. Call 247-2435 for more info and ask for Dianna.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

The Copley Society of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
From Apr. 21-May 2, the Society hosts a special exhibition and sale of paintings donated by families and friends of prominent deceased Copley Society members and Boston-area artists. Gallery hours are Tues.-Sat. 10:30am-5:30pm. For more information, call 536-5049.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing from Apr. 2-May 2 are Malcolm Preston's "Images of Cape Cod." Preston's spectacular paintings capture the natural beauty of the Cape's coastline. Opening May 5-June 12 is Roger Muhl: "Recent Lithographs." Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Sculptures and drawings by Christopher Wilmarth and paintings by John McNamara are on view Apr. 4-May 2. Paintings by Katherine Porter and Stephen Greene are on view May 9-June 6. Opening: May 8, 5-7pm. For more information, call 266-4835.

Rolly-Michaux
290 Dartmouth St., Boston
Rolly-Michaux Galleries will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a special showing entitled "The Art of the Print." The exhibit, which will run from May 7-June 6, will focus on innovations in the fields of etchings and lithographs by such 20th-century masters as Picasso, Chagall and Matisse, among many others.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs May 9-July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

The Vose Galleries
283 Newbury St., Boston
Ernest Albert's beautiful oil paintings of natural landscapes are on view until June. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri., 8am-5:30pm and Sat., 9am-4pm. For more information, call 536-6176.

SPECIAL EVENTS

American Cancer Society
at the Sheraton Commander, Cambridge
The ACS presents the Annual Benefit Fashion Show on May 8 at 9:30pm. This Liz Claiborne Exclusive show will bring you the latest designs in an evening of fun and excitement. This New York-style show will bring you a night of wining and dining all for a good cause, the fight against cancer.

American Heart Association at Avalon
15 Lansdowne St., Boston
Fashion and fancy footwork will be the foundation for the first annual Four Chamber Ball on May 1. Margie Reedy, WHDH-TV news anchor, will host the festivities, which begin at 7pm with hors d'oeuvres and live jazz entertainment led by Fabrice Dupont; at 10pm, one of Boston's best DJs takes over the music. Tickets are $25 and all proceeds go to the AHA. Call 695-8116 for more information.

Art Deco Society of Boston
The ADSB will host walking tours of Art Deco architecture in downtown Boston in conjunction with the celebration of "Preservation Month" (May). After two years of research, ADSB's first walking tours took place last fall, and the response was overwhelming— 125 people on the waiting list! This spring, the walks take place May 2, 9 and 16 (rain-date: May 30). Call 787-2637 for ticket information.

Community Music Center at the Boston Ballet building
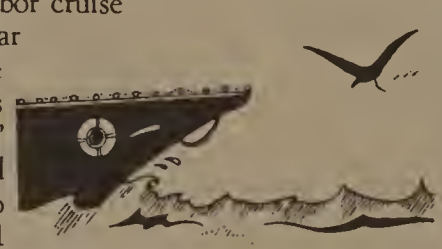
19 Clarendon St., Boston
The CMC will host "Motown Night '92," a gala evening of abundant soul food, dance and song on May 2 from 7:30-10pm. Proceeds from the party will benefit the CMC's scholarship fund for needy inner-city students. Call 482-7494 for more information.

Cultural Survival
Harvard University, Memorial Hall
Between Cambridge and Kirkland Streets, Cambridge
On May 8 (10am-8pm) and May 9 (10am-6pm), Cultural Survival will help celebrate Mother's Day by holding an indigenous arts and crafts bazaar with.crafts from all over the world, from Morocco to Haiti. Native craftspeople will demonstrate their artistic skills in weaving, carving, beading and painting. The bazaar is part of an international effort to help indigenous peoples and avoid extinction and retain their rights and culture as they adapt to the modern world. For more information, call 495-2562.

Dental Implamt Seminar
New England Dental Center
665 Boylston Street, Boston
In celebration of the 1992 season, this seminar will be held on May 5 from 6:30-7:30pm and is specially designed to educate and promote better public understanding of advanced dental treatment options available in the '90s. This program is both free and open to the puclic. Call 266-2700 for reservations.

John F. Kennedy Library
Columbia Point, Boston
The Kennedy Library and the Program for Women in Politics and Government sponsor their third conference on "Women and Political Power in the U.S." on May 9 from 8:30am-3:30pm. Speakers include Boston City Councilwoman Rosaria Salerno, former Lieutenant Governor Evelyn Murphy and Feminist Majority Foundation leader,



Perspectives....

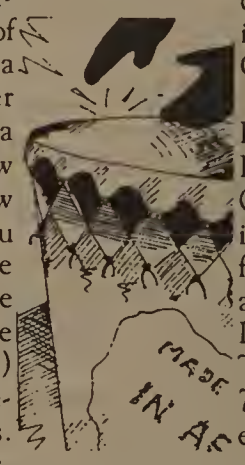
20something

It's finally time to get out of hibernation, open a window and let the warm breeze flow through your house and mind. The much-awaited arrival of spring does more than turn a young man's fancy to love. The chance for rejuvenation and a fresh start is an inspiration none of us should let pass by. Toss away the winter blues, get out on your bike, on the courts or the fields, or the river, and get that old blood flowing!!

Take an extended lunch and hop on a Bay State (Long Wharf, 723-7800) harbor cruise boat. For a mere dollar you can clear out the cobwebs for a precious half-hour at "sea." Make it quick and you'll have time to stop at Il Panino (11 Parmenter St.) in the North End for one of their famous prosciutto, mozzarella and basil sandwiches to bring along. You'll be back at your desk before they know you're gone.

Uptown, you can take your lunch to the reflecting pool at the Christian Science Center. Walk or ride from there down charming St. Botolph Street to the Southwest Corridor Park, where children of all ages can be found frolicking on the soon-to-be-green grass.

If the whipping winds kept you from enjoying all Newbury Street has to offer this winter, now's the time to stroll or roll down that golden mile. Cool places to visit are the Starving Artist gallery at 224 Newbury St. (as the name suggests, you don't have to look like a millionaire to be welcome there), Essence natural perfumery (across the street), where they will mix-and-match natural oils to create a tailor-made fragrance just for you, and Just for Fun Toys (287 Newbury St.), where you'll find a myriad of squirt guns, kites and even water-bomb kits!! For some real local flavor,. and the best pizza-by-the-slice in town, Newbury Pizza (225 Newbury St.) can't be beat!



—Erica Cantley , a resident of the North End and native Philadelphian is assistant to the Publisher

30something

Far left end of the classical music room upstairs in H.M.V. on Brattle Street. I can stand there at the plate-glass windows and listen to a symphony while watching the disorganized ballet of activity on the plaza below. A man juggling for a crowd. People in cars vying for parking places. A homeless woman expounding on something to nervous passers-by. Etc.

The breakfast special at Lee's Sandwich Shop on Church Street. Two eggs, any style, home fries, bacon, ham or sausage, toast and coffee. $3.25. You sit at a green Formica counter on a green, vinyl-topped stool, and watch the chef do the cooking right there in front of you. A.M. 1430, "The Music of Your Life," playing on the transistor radio.

The Talking Drum store on the corner of Mass. Ave. and Arrow Street. All kinds of African imports. Hand-made drums and other unusual instruments. A big, guitar-like thing made out of a half a gourd with a skin stretched over the opening, a stick and a few strings. A hollow branch rattle. (You tip it over and the beads inside tumble musically from one end to the other.) Brightly colored, tie-dyed materials. Hand-carved icons. Etc. African drumming and chanting playing from a boom-box in the corner. Exotic incense in the air. I like to close my eyes and play on one of the drums for a while, pretending I'm somewhere in the Congo.

Reading International Bookstore on the corner of Brattle and Church Streets. One whole side of the store is a magazine rack. You can find a magazine on just about any subject you like. Issues changing all the time. The store is open from 7:30am until at least 11pm every day of the week.

Bean and cheese burrito from Store 24 on the corner of Mass. Ave. and Church Street. Pop it into the microwave for a couple of minutes and you have a tasty little snack. No artificial ingredients or preservatives. And priced at only 89 cents.

Brattle Theatre on (you guessed it) Brattle Street. Two different movies showing almost every night. Mostly classics and foreign films. Free monthly schedule (pick it up in the lobby) that tells a little something about each of the movies. Different themes for each day of the week. Bergman Sundays, film noir Mondays, etc. $5.50 per ticket instead of $6.75.

A martini in The Outlet Bar at the Charles Hotel. Absolut, please, straight up, with a twist. Comfortable, low-slung chairs, dim lights a view of the courtyard, complementary Smoke House almonds, fairly dressy, mature clientele, sounds of mellow jazz filtering down from the Regatta Bar upstairs. Nice change from the pick-up scene.

—Prescott Gibbons a, 10 year resident of Cambridge, is an artist who works with oils paints.

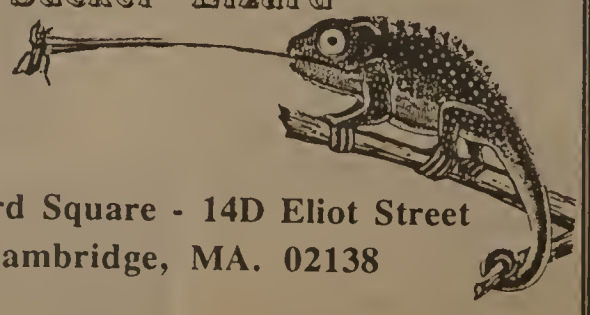
The greatest sites in history are on the horizon

The Vantage Points of BOSTON © PROJECT

The event everyone is looking forward to

Clear Ad Vantage
design concepts

Putting the future in the best perspective.



rising soon

©1992 Steven M. Walker

the funny farm
"Where Toys Come to Life"

the funny farm is a place where the irreverent adult, fun-loving child or supervised pet can come to play with wind-ups, battery operated animals, bathtub toys & other silly stuff.

Find our store and receive a complimentary
Sucker Lizard

Harvard Square - 14D Eliot Street
Cambridge, MA. 02138

Shipping available & batteries ARE always included!

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

People, places and things.

40 something

Wanted..... Someone.who would like to share their forty-something perspective on Boston with our readers.

50 something

Looking for a nice night out—good atmosphere, easy on the budget? Try The Sevens on Charles Street, Boston...great for people-watching.

The best brisket sandwich you'll ever buy is at the B & D Deli at 1653 Beacon St. It falls somewhere between a corned beef and roast beef sandwich and it melts in your mouth. An insurance man named Fred Phillips introduced it to me 20 years ago and I've been hooked ever since.

Looking for a couple great movies to rent? Try Ramblin' Rose— great story, great action, great costumes (a weak ending, but well worth it). You'll see things you won't believe!! What about Bob? is a hoot and the best foreign film in 10 years is Cinema Paradiso, about a small town in Italy and what the moviehouse meant to the people. The interaction between the people of the village is fascinating— a great flick. It won the Oscar for best foreign film a few years ago.

The B.U. Bookstore is a great place to kill a few hours, especially on a rainy day.

I wonder if Judy Garland and Liza Minnelli will be singing together since Natalie Cole has joined her late dad in a duet. Great technology— great idea. I bet Nat would be proud as hell of her.

Santarpio's in East Boston and Bianci in Revere Beach make great pizzas.

Is there a better politician in Boston than Dapper O'Neil? I doubt it. If you get yourself in a bind and you need help, this guy fights like a Comanche.

If you want the best chili within 50 miles, drive to The Grog in Newburyport. You'll love it.

The best show on TV is Seinfeld and Jason Alexander, in years. Do you remember when Johnny Carson and David Letterman were funny? When was that...five years ago?

The best radio show is on WHDH from noon 'til three. It's Russ Limbaugh— he's the hottest talk show host from coast-to-coast. He gives Democrats fits. He espouses the Republican position and debates it well. Good listening if you have a job that lets you use the radio.

There's a new bakery at 577 Tremont St.,Boston called Garden of Eden. A nice couple just opened it up and they feature pastries and breads. You'll love the shop and you'll love them. This is a worthwhile stop. Help the kids get a good head start.

Boston is going to miss TV 68, The Monitor Channel. I hope it survives.

How about that Johnny Kelly? Is he something else? And how about Jack Palance at the Oscars winning Best Supporting Actor? You'll remember that acceptance speech for a long time. Wouldn't you like to spend some time with Dick MacPherson of the Patriots? I bet he'd get you motivated.

Do you have a small business software? Microsoft Works is a great low-priced product. It is four products in one, including a word processor.

Wasn't that a great last meal ordered by California killer Robert Alton Harris? He wanted a bucket of Kentucky Fried Chicken (extra crispy), popcorn, a six-pack of Pepsi and a pack of Camels. There's a commercial in there somewhere.

If the weather gets any warmer, I start my annual hunt for the best strawberry shortcake. Send in your favorite places. I'll follow them up for a future article.

The best sherbet in Boston is Hood's Raspberry Orange Lime. You can't find it everywhere, but it is worth searching out.

The best new publication in Boston is Worth, a magazine for those that like money and what it can do. The people who put it together have to be brilliant— easy reading, fascinating subjects, beautiful graphics and photography. A real winner. Buy one— you can't put it down.

Mike Lynch of Channel 5 is the best sportscaster in Boston, but Channel 4's Bob Neumeyer has to be a close second. He really has that common touch and has gotten better with every telecast. I bet they don't even have to pay him to do it. We're lucky in Boston to have both of them.

Rumpole of the Bailey will summer, and the wait has been too long. The old fart really knows how to hit below the belt, and his followers love him for it. Great television.

The most competent elected official in Boston is Bob Rufo, Sheriff of Suffolk County. We've been lucky to have him; this guy is one-in-a-million. His star is rising.

Have you enjoyed these four columns? If you want to join us, call 232-3507.

—Joe Person has been a newspaper lover since his tenth birthday.

Perspectives was created by Joe Person and Erica Cantley. Designed by Gail Marcarelli. Illustrations by Steven.Walker

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Mike's MOVIES

Current Titles
Foreign Films
Children's Films
Gay and Lesbian
Camp and Cult
Adult Titles

New Customers! First rental is Free For one night. Good any night With this ad.

Existing Customers! Rent one movie Get one Free For one night. Mon thru Wed With this ad.

557 Tremont St.
(At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End
266-9222

Open 10 am to 10 pm; Friday and Saturday until 10:30pm; Sunday noon to 10pm

SEA FOR YOURSELF

7 DAYS:

ARUBA.....$599*
CANCUN.....$499*
ST. MAARTEN.....$549*

AIR, HOTEL & TAXES!

CARRIBBEAN EXPERTS (OVER 30 ISLANDS VISTED) WITH THE LOWEST PRICES

5 STAR TRAVEL SERVICE
164 Newbury St., Boston
536-1999

* PRICES ARE PER PERSON BASED ON DOUBLE OCCUPANCY

DINING

The Moveable Feast

Pampas Matches Exquisite Presentation with Savory Food

by Meg Worden & T.H.E. Tank

In the few months since opening, Pampas has built a large following of young, enthusiastic customers who are prepared to wait up for up to an hour to sample this new cooking style. So what's so different about Pampas? The difference here is the presentation.

In Brazil, the churrascaria is a popular form of restaurant, and owners Eduardo Peixoto and Joe Knauss have successfully transplanted it in Cambridge. Here, the diners at Pampas can finally sample some unusual dishes not frequently ordered but often on the "to try" list.

But let's start at the beginning. Seating is at roomy tables placed on either side of the central salad bar. At the back is the open kitchen, of which one corner holds the very lively bar where various exotic drinks (Batidas) can be quaffed. Samba music pulsates throughout - reminding you that this is a little corner of Brazil. The only decision a diner needs to make is whether to go with the rodizio ($15.95) or the all-you-can-eat salad bar ($6.99). The rodizio combines the food from both the salad bar and the grill.

The salad bar is a diamond in the rough (no iceberg lettuce and no tasteless chunks of cucumber or artificially ripened tomatoes). You will find a seasonally-changing selection of fifteen or more home-made salads. Our absolute favorite was the eggplant, but other wonderful combinations incorporated ingredients like hearts of palm, pasta, potatoes, fresh corn, sweet potatoes (they were especially luscious), rice and lentils. Truly a vegetarian's delight!

Once you're ready to sample the grilled meats, the waiter will first bring five side dishes to the table: french fries (certainly the best in Boston), collard greens with garlic, chopped onions in a vinaigrette sauce, rice, and manioc with beans and meat. Meanwhile, a selection of meats is categorically brought (still on the spit) to your table by roving waiters (They'll keep coming until you beg them to stop).

Melanie Dunea

A hungry table of diners anxiously await their meal at Pampas.

Some of the meat is roasted in one piece and carved at your table, while other meats are cut in pieces prior to cooking and threaded on the spit. The selection changes daily, but could be anywhere between 10 to 15 choices of meat. Earlier, we have tried lamb, leg of pork, beef sirloin, duck, turkey, chicken, beef ribs, beef heart, chicken heart, veal heart, goat and sausage. This form of cooking tends to dry out some of the meats, and we found the most successful dishes to be those with a natural skin (like the chicken and the sausage). The sausage is fabulous (its Knauss' own recipe) and we confess that we made complete pigs of ourselves over it. The chef makes a lethal hot sauce (worth trying) from oil and malagueta peppers; this is not for the faint of heart.

All four of the appetizers cost $2.50, and be warned, they are very filling! They are coxinha (a potato and chicken roll), pastel (a beef turnover), quibe (a roll made from ground beef, cracked wheat, parsley and cilantro) and mandioca (fried pieces of yucca). Of the desserts, the flan ($2.75) is one of the best around, and even if you are full, it kind of slides down easily.

Lunch prices on weekdays are lower; the rodizio is $7.99 (about three meats are offered), while the salad bar is $4.99. ❑

Pampas

928 Mass. Ave.,
Cambridge, tel. 661-6613.
Hours: Open for lunch and dinner daily.
Credit Cards: MC, V (Discover "coming soon").
Reservations: Not accepted.
Handicapped: Accessible.
Parking: Free parking opposite after 6pm.

THE EXCEPTIONAL GOURMET CHINESE RESTAURANT WITH EMPHASIS ON VALUE, WITHOUT THE COMPROMISE OF QUALITY & SERVICE.

DELIVERY SERVICE AVAILABLE TO BOSTON AND BROOKLINE

NOBLE HOUSE

1306 Beacon Street, Coolidge Corner in Brookline 232-2378
Serving Dim Sum Sat & Sun, Noon 'til 3.

This is how you're treated at the supermarket

We feel this is how you should be treated

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon - Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9 am - 7 pm, Sun 12 - 5 pm

349A Newbury St. Lower Level, Boston 247-1474
The most extensive selection of produce in the Back Bay!

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Greek Revival; Boutari Wines Arrive in Boston

by Al Stankus

While the lips of their ancestors may have been among the first to taste wine, few of us spill "Greece" from our lips when it comes to naming the wines of the world.

For a nation that's overflowing with wine, Greek wines have suffered from an image problem. Ironically, the image is perpetuated by well-intentioned tourists who return stateside with fond memories of Retsina. Unfortunately, Retsina's translation from an Athens' Taverna to a Boston apartment is poor at best.

What do you expect from a wine whose flavoring agent is resin? Pine tar belongs on baseball bats - not in bottles of wine. Because of this Retsina hang-up, finding a good Greek wine is difficult; you may hit upon a few bottles in a specialty store or on a wine list in a Greek restaurant.

But things are changing. J. Boutari and Sons, a pioneering Greek wine family now in its 112th year of production, has recently introduced its line to Boston.

Unlike other winemakers from the lesser known wine producing nations who send over their versions of Cabernet and Chardonnay, Boutari wines steadfastly use native Greek grapes. Although Xinomarvo, Monemvasia, Negosca, and

Melanie Dunea

Agiorgitiko may not be as familiar to the average wine drinker, they are music to the climate and soil of Greece which has unfailingly produced crops of these grapes for some 2,500 years.

Combine this history with modern techniques and the result is some interesting, easy-to-drink wine. And for the consumer, they become a lot easier to drink when the price hovers between $7 and $10.

While the upper end Grande Reserve had a richness and leathery spice that would be well suited with leg of lamb, I found more enjoyment in Boutari's simpler, less noble wines.

The Santorini (named for the island where it is produced) epitomizes the summertime back porch sipper. Exceptionally crisp and very clear in color, the Santorini gives off lemon and citrus hints backed by some surprising body. Bring on the grilled shrimp!

The most interesting of all is the 1989 Nemea, a red wine made exclusively from the Agiorgitiko grape. Although fresh is a term commonly used when describing white wine, this was one of the freshest and liveliest red wines I've ever tasted. Balancing plenty of forward fruit with roundness and hidden depth, Nemea brings out Pinot Noir and Zinfandel qualities without slavishly tasting like either grape.

Although we tasted it at room temperature, I suspect a slight chill to around 60 F. would make it the perfect red wine for those summer barbecues.

Other Boutari wines include Kretikos, a crisp white wine whose delicacy fades with the temperature, (so keep it well-chilled) and the pleasant Paros, a nice, berry-toned wine that would be ideal with pizza, pasta and even barbecued ribs. ❑

Cornucopia

CAFE
New Café Menu priced 3-8 dollars. Fun, quick & hip.
Conversations co-sponsored by the Women's Heritage Foundation are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month from 5:00-7:00 pm.($10/p)

WINE & FOOD PAIRINGS
4 Wines / 2 Courses with an informal presentation & discussion
Wednesdays 6-8pm reservations required $20/person

SPRING VINTNER DINNERS
MAY 6 Sherries
The perfect aperitif from Spain; come find out why
MAY 20 East vs. West
East Coast Wines compared to their counterparts from the Pacific Northwest
JUNE 3 Roast Chicken & Wine
Which one to serve with this most popular dish
JUNE 17 Champagne or California Sparkling Wine
The American Sparklers vs. the Real Thing
($30/p)

A 4-Course Dinner with Wines to compliment each course held at 6pm,$50/p. Reservations required.
MAY 3 Super Sauvignon Blanc Dinner
8 top California Sauvignons
MAY 12 Sakonnet Wines with Tom Cottrell, Winemaker at Sakonnet Vineyards.
JUNE 2 Dinner with Michaela Rodeno, CEO of St. Supery Winery in Napa Valley,and founder of Women for Wine Sense

15 West Street Downtown Boston
Telephone 338.4600
Validated Parking at Lafayette Garage

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

The Leisu

Songs, Shops and Food in Haaaaavahhhhhd Square

Still waiting for spring to arrive? Well, help welcome its arrival with other fair weather fanatics at Mayfair, Harvard Square's ninth International Spring Festival. The Festival is sponsored by the Harvard Square Business Association, a non-profit organization actively engaged in shaping the future of Harvard Square. The event will run from noon until 5pm, on Sunday, May 3, during which shoppers and spring lovers alike can sing along with live bands and listen to Cajun, Reggae and Blues music. Mayfair is a grand assembly of outdoor vendors who offer a riotous array of balloons, flowers, crafts, clothing and worldwide cuisine. You'll find some of the best shopping deals of the spring time if you arrive early enough, so reserve this day on your calendar and pray for sun.

COWABUNGA

If you've ever felt the need to change the world, plus your interior design, here's an inspirational thought. Farmhand Helga Tacreiter cared for beautiful black cows until they matured and were sent off to slaughter. After an accident left six calves orphaned, Helga adopted them - giving them extra attention so they would grow up to be healthy and happy cows. But for what purpose, if they were only going to be slaughtered? Helga couldn't bear to see the lives her six "children" end in that manner, so through sacrifice and determination, she saved enough money to buy the cows just before the farm was sold. Money again became the problem and eventually lead to the inspiration of Cowches; handmade couches modeled after her real cows. The couches come in three sizes; newborn, yearling and full-grown, and range in price from $150 to $350. For more information, to order a cowch, or to learn how one person can help to change the world, call Helga at 609-455-6637.

Melanie Dunea

The Cutting Edge of Neckwear

The Knot Shop in Copley Place is a men's accessories specialty store if there ever was one. Offering everything from updated classical to trend-setting ties, the Knot Shop has an all-silk selection of designer creations, ranging from Nicole Miller and Fumagalli's to Geoffrey Beene and Robert Daskall (hand-painted ties by Chicago Art Institute students). "The chicest men in town come to the Knot Shop," says manager, Taylor Marcelic. She says that after choosing from a selection of ties which includes polka dots, florals, paisleys, Beatles, Star Trek and more, the hip Bostonian can match his new tie to a suit coat. "One service we provide is our matching table out front where we match ties with suit lapels." In addition to ties, the smart shopper can pick up a great bow tie, cummerbund set or smashing pair of braces or cufflinks. Prices start at $18 and soar to as much as $95 for a Vegna tie. So the next time you want to tie a knot around your neck, go to the Knot Shop. Call 424-0750 for more information.

A Forest In The City

The Arnold Arboretum, located on the Arborway in Jamaica Plain, is one of Boston's best kept secrets. With over 265 acres of forests, fields and streams, the Arboretum is surely a diamond in the rough of the city. So throw on your hiking boots and pack a picnic to escape to your alternative to those sticky city days. It's easily found just beyond the junction of Routes 1 and 203, where this land of casual exploration is free to the public and open from dawn to dusk. Whether you're walking or biking, the arboretum has someth 4,000 species of plants, trees and shrubs span this ra with the identification of these rooted treasures, the signs to educate even the most novice of horticultur Bonsai tree enthusiasts can relish the two-week can be seen in a separate greenhouse area through M shut at 4:30. Call 524-1717 for more information.

ow Guide for Your Free Time

RE STUDY

Jill Connelly

ng for everyone. Over tural preserve. To help
Arboretum has posted sts.
ld Bonsai exhibit which ovember. Drive-in gates

Melanie Dunea

Shielding Yourself

After an opening which drew a crowd of interested and amused onlookers, Condom World at 332 Newbury Street is open for shopping. The recently opened purveyors of sexual safety items holds a monopoly in the world of condoms. Manager Aaron Cohen says, "By having a relaxed atmosphere, we hope people will come in and buy condoms. It's a lot easier than going down to the corner pharmacy. Hopefully, we'll make it fun to buy condoms.

And you shouldn't have a hard time stretching your dollar at Condom World. Varieties include Trojans, Sagami (Europe's leading Condom), Lifestyle and more. Novelty condoms include glow in the dark kinds like Glow Worms and Night Lights ("Wrap your knight in shining armor"), flavored condoms (Licks), gold coins and walnuts. In spite of its timely entrance into the consumer market, this isn't just another flash-in-the-pan store. Cohen expects Condom World to be around for years. "There's a need for it and there's a market," says Cohen. "People have been using condoms since the fifties but I think that if they come up with a cure for AIDS tomorrow, it'll probably be real expensive. Hopefully, people will want to be safe and use condoms."

LA TRENDS

Our L.A. NightLife Analyst Rat Mac reports on a turbulent new trend causing chaos in bars and clubs across the city. The margarita, forever enshrined in Jimmy Buffet's Margaritaville, is receiving a facelift from trend-setting bartenders. "Though traditionally arranged with a salted rim and garnished with a fresh lime wheel, it's now being served with an olive-lined rim." Rat Mac cautions that although this change may sound distasteful, it's actually for the better. "I don't think the traditional salted margarita is in danger of losing its cherished position as the proper way of presentation but the olives have proven to be a nice surprise. They certainly match up nicely with the drink."

The Rat is also sitting on some truly heartwarming news. The pay toilet has made a remarkable return to the public restroom, except this time around, it's playing music. The JukeJohn, as it's called, plays 15 minutes of selections from one of twenty songs - for only a dollar. This wall-mounted walkman-like box rests above the toilet paper dispenser and comes complete with headphones. And in recognition of our sexually dangerous society, they've included some personal hygiene choices. The Rat reports that JukeJohn is in clubs, restaurants and even offices. "Imagine. Now you can do something in addition to reading the graffiti on bathroom stall doors. I've probably already spent twenty dollars this month on the JukeJohn but in my eyes, it's a worthwhile investment. I guess you could say I'm pooping in peace."

Melanie Dunea

DINING

Appeteasers

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

And The Winner Is?

The nominations for the 1992 James Beard Seagram Restaurant Awards were recently announced, and the finalists for America's Best Chef: Northeast are Todd English of Olive's, George Germon & Johanne Killeen of Al Forno in Providence, RI, Gordon Hamersley of Hamersley's Bistro, Chris Schlesinger of the East Coast Grill, and Lydia Shire of Biba. The winner will be announced on May 4 in New York on what would have been James Beard's 89th birthday (though as far as we're concerned, they are all winners).

"Whatever happened to..."

We finally tracked down Dan Holmes, whose popular Downtown Cafe closed last year. He is reopening very soon at 610 Washington St. (In the "600" building), as the Boston Downtown Cafe. For information, call 338-7037.

A Champagne Toast

Davios Restaurant in Cambridge has specially created a five course springtime dinner on May 13. The dinner will be paired with five selected Domaine Champagnes which will be discussed by wine expert Gerard Liou of Chandon Vineyards.

Summer Treats

Marc Haeberlin recently paid a brief visit to Julien in the Meridien Hotel to introduce the spring/summer menu. Among the dishes newly created by Haeberlin and chef André Chouvin , you will find a terrine of smoked salmon, sturgeon and sauerkraut with caviar cream; sauteed halibut filet with shrimp and crispy vermicelli; sea bass filet and red bean ragout with Cajun spices; and roasted monkfish with an herb reduction. For reservations, call 451-1900.

In With The New/Out With The Old

Restaurant openings and closings: With regret, we announce the passing of the Cafe Florin, whose outdoor tables brought us so much pleasure on warm summer evenings...A warm welcome to The Marais, scheduled to open on May 1 at 116 Boylston St., Boston. Chef Jackson Kenworth comes from Southern California, and includes among his credentials a spell at Wolfgang Puck's Spago. At The Marais, you can expect to find 1930s style Parisian bistro decor, and Mediterranean food with an Asian influence.

The Rumor Section:

The late Lulu's Backyard will be reopening with a whole new look as The Rebel's Yell. More details to follow. Boston Chicken will be moving its corporate headquarters to Chicago. Chicago Chicken?!?...On Beacon Hill, expect to find a fast food sushi/New York style deli (as yet, nameless, and who can wonder?)...Both Cafe Gianni and the Cottonwood Cafe are planning on opening their second locations at 220 Boylston St., Boston very soon...The cryptically named NYK will be opening at 449 Washington St., Boston; it's a restaurant, but that's all we know for now...Though certain people never return phone calls, we know a new Skipjacks is opening up in Harvard Square. ❑

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973

Orient Express
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL

Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown

Some Restrictions Apply

$40
per trip - up to 6 people

Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

Congratulations
to the Improper Bostonian's own Suzy Morris-Marden!
On your heroic Boston Marathon finish of 3:31:26

"I remember telling my Sunday School class and my father that I didn't believe in God. But it wasn't God I didn't believe in, it was God as an old male Caucasian with long white hair.

"I spent years probably not going to church once. Then, senior year in college, I started looking into a Unitarian Universalist church in town. I remember thinking, this is very odd, I'm making this choice on my own. I was going because I wanted to go, because something was missing on Sunday morning.

"One of the things I value most about being a Unitarian Universalist is being able to question. To step back from what I had previously 'believed in.' Nobody says to me I can't believe; nobody is saying I haven't the right to question.

"Unitarian Universalism encourages openness. It encourages dialogue. When I tell my friends that, they're amazed it's still considered a religion. And they want to know more about it."

THE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISTS

For more information and a sample copy of the World, journal of the Unitarian Universalist Association, send $1 (check or money order) to the World, Dept. 609, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108.

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Splnnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

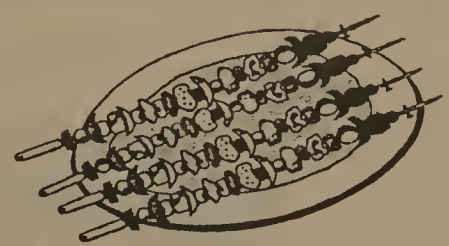
The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Tremont Villa Function Hall

168 Tremont St.
Everett
387-1300



is proud to prersent
"The Wedding Party"
The saga of
Frankie & Johnny

May 7, 1992

COMEDY DINNER THEATRE
(A 1955 Italian & Irish Wedding)
•Cocktail hour
•Complimentary hors d'oeurvres
•5-course sumptuous Italian dinner
•Musical entertainment of the 50's after the show!

$34.95 per guest (incl. t&t). Reserve your tickets early, seating is limited and a sellout is expected. A HALEY PRODUCTION

ARARAT
RESTAURANT

Whole Rotisseried Chicken (Farouj).....$6.20	Falafel Plate.....$4.75
Lamb Kebob.....$5.75	Falafel Sandwich $2.75
Chicken Kebob Plate .$4.75	Hommos $2.50
Shawerma Plate $4.99	Baba-Ganouj $3.00

We also serve beer and wine. Please come visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 * (617) 934-7011

Wednesday's
T's Pub
THE PLACE TO MEET
presents
KARAOKE NIGHT
with
DAN McARTHY
D.J. Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays
Plus a 12 ft. TV for sporting and special events!
For fine tips, sandwiches and
The Best Buffalo Wings in Boston!
Mon-Sat. 11a.m.-2a.m. Sunday Noon - 2a.m.
973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 254-0807

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

A Bar Cafe, 111 Dartmouth St., Bos. 353-0159 $$
If you have a yearning for Euro-American fare in hip-hop surroundings or want to check out one of Boston's nicest bars. A Bar will whet more than your appetite. Electric decor, featuring fuchsia walls, lemon yellow upholstery and a sleek white bar accompany a fine menu and music selection. Don't be surprised if people start dancing late night as the music funks up. DJ Fri and Sat nights and Brian Walkley jazz band Sun 9-11pm. Try the Valenciana Pizza, a delectable concoction of cheese, chicken, sausage and black olives, tomatoes and herbs.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Acapulco, 266 Newbury St., Bos. 247-9126 MC,V $
Looking for a quiet place to escape the throngs of shoppers, tourists and lookers on Newbury Street? Take a walk down the stairs into the easily missed entrance of Acapulco. They feature a variety of authentic fajitas, enchiladas, and much more. The atmosphere is relaxing, modest and a break from the many fast-paced Southwestern restaurants in town. Dishes range from $6 to $12. Open Sunday through Thursday, noon to 9:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday until 10:30 p.m.

Amsterdam's, 54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel 426-1111 A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat, 71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500 A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef, 604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V
$$$$
If your're a beer gourmand and your fantasy vacation would be to travel from Boston to L.A. sampling micro beers across the continental US, Boodles, is your bet. Enjoy Carnivorous dining in an elegant setting while you sip your ale. This posh grill room features impeccable service and a varied wine selection complementing a full menu- featuring lamb, shrimp brochettes and a thick succulent cut of of prime rib.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti 307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016
$
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Caffe Vittoria, 296 Hanover St. Bos. 227-7606 $$
85 years ago , Caffe Vittoria opened it's doors as the first Italian caffee in the norht end. Old Photographs, antique coffee machines, and the tasteful decor of sleek marble tables and brass railings add to the cozy, unadulterated Italian charm. Try the canoli- made fresh 365 days a year.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the

Caffé Vittoria

4 Level Caffe
3 Full Coffee Bars • 1 Non-Smoking Caffe
Serving 8 am 'til Midnight

296 Hanover St., North End 227-7606

NEWBURY'S Steak House

Our tradition of fine seafood specialties is as well known as our reputation as a steak house. All our entrees are served with limitless salad bar, fresh vegetables, and homeade bread.

For 50 Years Back Bay's Neighborhood Restaurant 94 Massachusettes Ave (at Newbury Street) 536-0184 Open Noon • Midnight Seven Days A Week

2 for 1 Lunch
Select any two lunch entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
valid anytime, with this coupon, offer expires April 21, 1992

2 for 1 Dinner
Select any two dinner entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
valid any time, with this coupon, offer expires April 21, 1992

Enjoy a taste of spring at Joyce Chen.

For many, asparagus is a welcome sign of spring. This season, for a limited time, you'll find lots of new ways to love it. Like Chicken Macadamia with Asparagus or Wok-Seared Shrimp with Asparagus – all healthfully prepared using the freshest ingredients.

JOYCE CHEN RESTAURANT.

Available for take-out or downtown Boston delivery.
Boston: 115 Stuart St., Theatre District (617) 720-1331
Cambridge: 390 Rindge Ave. (617) 492-7373

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

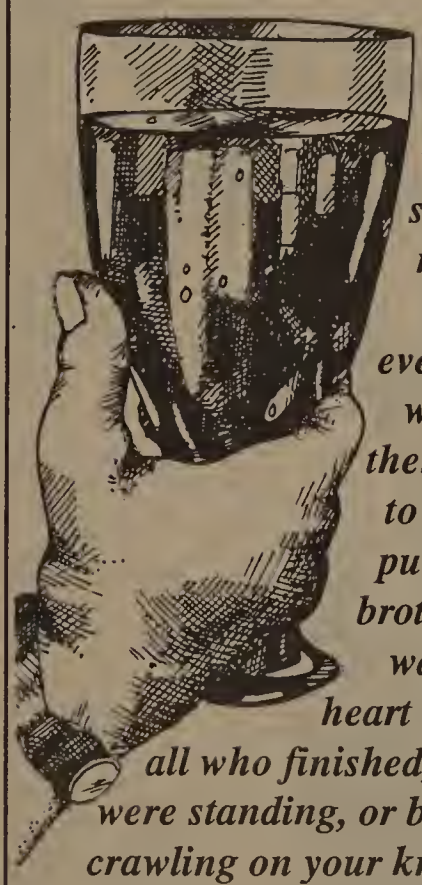
Four Winds, 266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922 A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry i, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524 MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

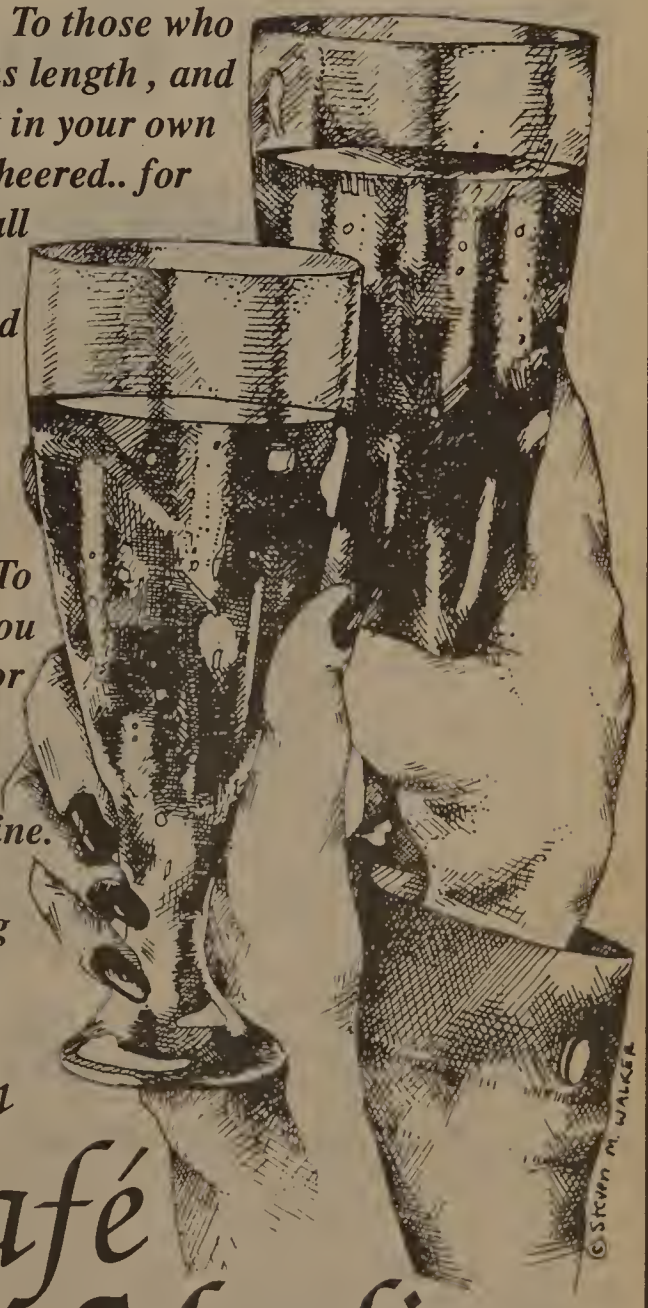
India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.



Joyce Chen, 115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373 A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835 A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce)

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available



"I'll feed your clients the best Italian food. You can feed them anything you want."
Come for our Misto di Casa!
You'll be asking for seconds after sampling this delicious combination of veal, chicken, shrimp and Italian style vegetables sautéed in white wine.
Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."
8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

A toast to you, BOSTON

To all of you who went the distance- who ran, who walked, who fought their way by wheelchair. To those who stood at arms length , and reached out in your own way, and cheered.. for everyone. To all who pushed themselves, and to those who pushed their brother all the way in to the heart of Boston. To all who finished, whether you were standing, or bent down, or crawling on your knees. And especially to all who had the courage to step up to the starting line.

A toast to you, Boston... for all your efforts in making The Boston Marathon a memory to last a long time.

To You, Boston
Café Marliave
Italian & American Cuisine since 1875
With an enclosed Roof Garden
423-6340
10 Bosworth St. Boston On the Freedom Trail - By The Parker House

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

›chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury S. Open daily noon to midnight.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555 $$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltinboca alla Romano - veal layered with proscuitto with fresh sage, sauteed in wine; Spinacci di Cosa - spinach sauteed with garlic oil, cannelini beans and proscuitto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

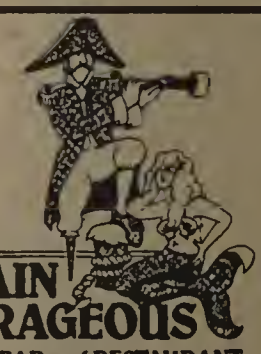
Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070 MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Union Oyster House, 41 Union St., Bos. 227-2750 A,D,MC,V $$
Opened in 1826, this Boston landmark is the oldest restaurant in continuing business in the U.S. Their raw oyster bar, where you can still gobble down oysters, littlenecks and cherrystones, was often a hangout for Daniel Webster. If raw isn't your bag, you can order up the crab cakes in Newburg sauce or broiled scrod. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Victoria Station, 64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771 MC,V,A,D,D $$
Located next to the Children's Museum and overlooking Boston Harbor , you'll experience casual dining in a railroad atmosphere surrounded by authentic 'Victoria Station' artifacts. Early-bird specials include prime rib and seafood specialties. Pub menu available until midnight. Open Sun.-Sat., 11:30am to 1am.

This offbeat cantina adds new twists to Mexican comida. Open 7 nights for dinner; Mon. - Fri. for lunch.

Silver Restaurant Supply Outlet Store



Up to 30% off Mfgs. Prices!

China - Glassware - Silverware
From 20¢ per piece!
New & Used Restaurant Equipment
Closeouts and Discount Items

(617) 884-8700
232 Everett Avenue Chelsea, MA
Just over Tobin Bridge, 1 block from Mystic Mall, opposite Floramo's Steak House

Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each Gloucester Clam Chowder $1.95
Entrees
(names taken from wonderful points of interest in and around beautiful Cape Ann)

OLD HOUSE COVE 9.95
(Fresh Gloucester Schrod w/ a light breading)

OLD STAGE FORT 9.95
(Baked Stuffed Chicken Breast w/ Gravy & Cranberry Sauce)

HIGH POPPLES 8.95
(Baked Stuffed Fillet of Sole w/Lobster Sauce)

WHARF BEACH 7.95
(Broiled Sirloin Marinated Tips w/ Mushroom Sauce)

On The Waterfront 25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007

Massachusetts' Oldest Italian Caffe

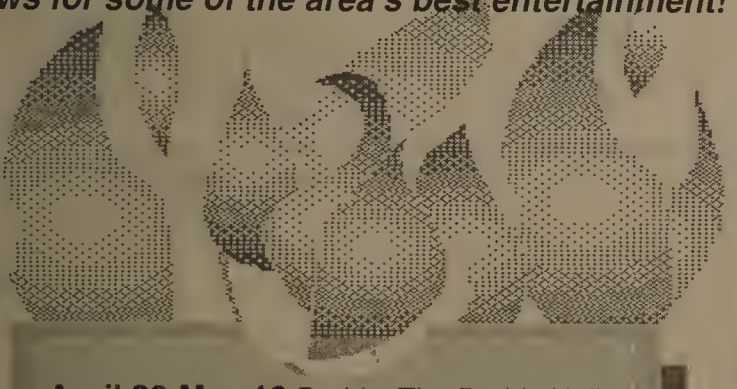
Homemade Cakes and Desserts.
The Best Cannolis and Espresso in Town.

308 Hanover St., North End 523-5063

BAY STATE TICKET

Concerts - Theatre - Sports Events

• The Buddy Holly Story	Colonial Theater	5/2
• Jerry Seinfeld	Brandeis U.	5/9
• Genesis	Foxboro	5/28
• The Cure	Worcester	5/20, 5/21
• James Taylor	Great Woods	8/27, 8/28
• Neil Diamond	Worcester	8/28 - 8/30



Red Sox, Bruins, Celtics

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex
Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

April 28-May 10 Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story Colonial Theatre, ($22.50-47.50)
April 29 Michael Feinstein
Symphony Hall, ($27.50/25.00)
May 2 Yanni
Orpheum,($33.00/23.00/20.00)
May 8 Kiss
Avalon, ($20.00)
May 6 Tesla
Springfield Civic Center,($18.00)
May 9 Jerry Seinfeld
Gosman Center at Brandeis University
($35.50/19.50)
May 16 The Saw Doctors
Avalon, ($15.00)
May 21 The Cure
Centrum, ($22.50/19.50)
May 21 Melissa Etheridge
Orpheum, ($23.50)

Ticketmaster
Outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.

Out-of-Town Tickets
Call 492-1900 for information.

Concertcharge
Call 497-1118 to charge tickets. Amex, MC or Visa.

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

MAY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1 KC 7:35	2 KC 1:05
3 KC 1:05	4 MIN 7:35	5 MIN 7:35	6 CHI 8:05	7 CHI 1:35	8 KC 8:35	9 KC 2:35
10 KC 2:35	11	12 MIN 8:05	13 MIN 8:35	14	15 CAL 7:35	16 CAL 1:05
17 CAL 1:05	18 SEA 7:35	19 SEA 7:35	20 SEA 7:35	21	22 OAK 7:35	23 OAK 1:05
24 OAK 31 SEA	25	26 CAL 10:35	27 CAL 10:35	28 CAL 10:35	29 SEA 10:35	30 SEA 10:05

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 OAK 10:05	2 OAK 10:05	3 OAK 3:15	4	5 CLE 7:35	6 CLE 1:05
7 CLE 1:05	8 BAL 7:35	9 BAL 7:35	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 8:35
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 3:00
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 2:35	19 CAL 2:35	20 CAL 2:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:35	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 MIN 1:05

Away
Home

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

THE BIG A DELI

FAST FREE DELIVERY TO:
Boston University, Boston College
Allston, Brighton, Brookline.
782-1222

Or stop by at 568 Cambridge St. in Allston for great food and frendly service.

PIZZA

Plain	4.50	7.00
Double Cheese	5.00	8.00
Onion	4.75	7.50
Green Pepper	4.75	7.50
Ham	5.00	8.00
Hamburger	5.00	8.00
Pepperoni	5.00	8.00
Salami	5.00	8.00
Sausage	5.00	8.00
Anchovy	5.00	8.00
Olives	5.00	8.00
Mushroom	5.00	8.00
2-Way	6.50	9.50
3-Way	7.50	10.00
4-Way	8.00	10.50
Big A Special	9.00	12.00
Per Slice	1.00

STEAKS

Plain	3.60	4.00
Onion	3.75	4.25
Pepper	3.75	4.25
Cheese	4.00	4.50
Mushroom	4.20	4.75
Mushroom & Cheese	4.30	4.90
Steak & Egg	4.50	5.00
Steak, Egg & Cheese	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Cheese	4.10	4.60
Big A Special	4.50	5.00

SUBS

American	3.35	3.75
Italian	3.35	3.75
Ham & Cheese	3.35	3.75
Salami & Cheese	3.50	4.00
Roast Beef	4.00	4.75
Corned Beef	4.00	4.75
Pastrami	3.50	4.00
Meatball	3.35	3.75
Sausage	3.35	3.75
Meatball & Sausage	4.00	4.50
Double Hamburger	3.10	4.00
Double Cheeseburger	3.35	4.25
Eggplant	3.35	3.75
Tuna	4.30	4.80
Turkey	4.00	4.50
Chicken Salad	4.00	4.50
Crabmeat	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Egg	3.35	3.75
Pepperoni & Egg	3.35	3.75
Sausage & Egg	3.35	3.75
Mushroom & Egg	3.35	3.75
Western	3.35	3.75
Eastern	3.35	3.75
Veal Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Chicken Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Ham, Turkey & Cheese	4.25	4.85

SIDE ORDERS

French Fries	1.50	2.50
Onion Rings	1.50	2.50

DINNERS

BAKED MANICOTTI	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
BAKED STUFFED SHELLS	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
HOMEMADE LASAGNA	5.75
With Meatballs	6.25
With Italian Sausage	6.25
With Eggplant	6.25
With Chicken Cutlets	7.50
With Veal Cutlets	7.50
BAKED RAVIOLI Parmigiana	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
SPAGHETTI PLAIN	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
DINNER SPECIALS
Chiskabob	5.00
Fried Chicken	5.50
Chicken Fingers	5.50
Cheeseburger Plate	5.50
Hamburger Plate	5.00

SALADS

Garden Salad	3.35
Greek Salad	4.00
Antipasto Salad	4.25
Turkey Salad	5.00
Tuna Salad	5.00
Chicken Salad	5.00
Crabmeat	5.00

FREE DELIVERY 782-1222

It's so delicious

568 Cambridge Street, Allston
Sun. - Thur 10 am to 11 pm
Fri. & Sat. 10 am - 11pm

Mention this ad and recieve $1 off your order of $10 or more, or take $2 off for orders of $15 or more.

MUSIC

The Rebirth of The BeachBoys From Hell

Jesus and Mary Chain Release Honey's Dead

by Rey Roldan

"I find S&M interesting," laughs vocalist Jim Reid of the seminal gloom pop band The Jesus and Mary Chain. For Jim and brother William, the past seven years have been filled with pleasure and pain. "There's a lot of pain in the world but there's also a lot of joy," Jim continues. "You just have to sort between the two and figure out which is which."

Through five releases including the recent album Honey's Dead (Def American) and Barbed Wire Kisses (Warner Bros.), a compilation of B-Sides and assorted outtakes, the 'Mary Chain' have experienced very little pain as opposed to the pleasure they've received from the press and media alike. Hailed from the very start as one of the best bands of the Eighties (based on the strength of their tremendous debut Psychocandy), the Brothers Reid rode on a crest of good vibes and a whole lot of guitar fuzz.

Starting out in '84 with a nuclear amount of raw energy and as much musical talent as a rock, Jim and William wallowed in a sea of feedback and reverb in order to hide the fact that they didn't know jack about playing instruments. "There's lots of reasons [why we bury our music in feedback]," Jim explains. "One thing that you got to remember is that when we were making [our debut] Psychocandy, we picked up guitars for the first time only a few months before. Instead of spending fifteen years learning to play the thing, we just decided to try to make interesting sounds with the knowledge that we had. And sometimes when you don't have any technical ability, it tends to force you to use your imagination more." With the album finding its way into many "Best of" and "Worst of" lists, the Mary Chain's recurring duality even found its way to the listeners themselves. "We knew that people were going to go either of two ways - they were either going to rave about it or they were going to ignore it," Jim says. "It was one of those records that was extreme in everybody's point of view. People thought it was extremely bad or people thought it was extremely good."

Jim and William Reid put Honey to rest.

One problem many listeners had with Psychocandy was trying to break through the impenetrable wall of white noise and find the actual music. 1987's Darklands removed a layer of fuzz and uncovered a catchy, harmonious melody, earning them the nickname 'The Beach Boys from Hell.' Also, Jim and William's ideal woman Honey fought her way out of the murkiness of Psychocandy and found herself revelling in "April Skies." Yielding three hits, Darklands went on to establish the Reids as S&M-loving, gloom-and-doom torchbearers with a knack for writing catchy dirges. 1989's Automatic sported two more hits with "Blues from a Gun" and "Head On," the latter which the Pixies covered on their last album. "It was the first time anyone ever covered a Mary Chain song," he says excitedly. "I like the Pixies anyway. If it had been some little horrible band that I didn't give a fuck about, I wouldn't have cared less. But the fact that it was the Pixies and I buy their records, I was really into it."

As the title suggests, Honey's Dead marks the death of a Jesus and Mary Chain era and the rebirth of a new and improved outfit. "The sound for [Honey's Dead] is a bit more rootsy, more back to the basics, back to what we first started with," says Jim. "Quite often we wonder whether anybody wants another Mary Chain record," Jim explains. "What came closest to breaking up this time was that we considered starting a new band and giving up the Mary Chain for good. And then we thought, 'Oh fuck it. Why should we?' So we decided to start again and not change our name. It's like a new start for us. Suddenly we got inspired again and it's like a new lease of life. We've been resurrected."

As the buzz starts to vibrate once again with the release of the new album, their involvement in the Lollapalooza Tour this summer has been confirmed. Nicknamed 'the Grunge Fest' because of all of the harsh, guitar heavy angry bands such as Ministry, Pearl Jam and the Chili Peppers, it seems as if the Mary Chain have found their niche on the bill. "It was great to be a part of this line-up," says Jim excitedly. "All we're trying to do [with Lollapalooza is bring music to people who might not otherwise listen to that kind of music," he explains. "I think Lollapalooza means a collection of different attitudes and people trying to break down barriers." It looks like they'll feel right at home with those other revellers of pleasure and pain. ❑

Custom Auto Radio of Watertown

- Auto Stereos
- Auto Alarms
- Mobile Phones
- Radar Detectors
- CB Radios & Scanners

Creating and Designing Custom Auto Sound Systems at Affordable Prices

Guaranteed Lowest Prices

Blaupunkt • Rockford Fosgate • Clarion • Toshiba Pioneer
Viper Alarm • Invisabeam Alarms •

660 Arsenal St. • Watertown • 923-2122

No Appointment Necessary • Installations 'Till 9 pm

Ziggy Marley and the Melody Makers at Avalon

Ziggy Marley and the Melody Makers take on Avalon for a 21+ show on May 6. In support of his latest Virgin release Jahmeky,a released last year, Marley and sibs try once again to play Boston (his previous concerts for this tour were abruptly cancelled due to personal reasons). With guests Eye+I. Tickets from the Feb. 19 concert will be honored and available at the Orpheum Box Office and Ticketmaster outlets. Call 931-2000 for more info. ❑

MUSIC

Bloody Opera - John Moran Puts Manson to Music

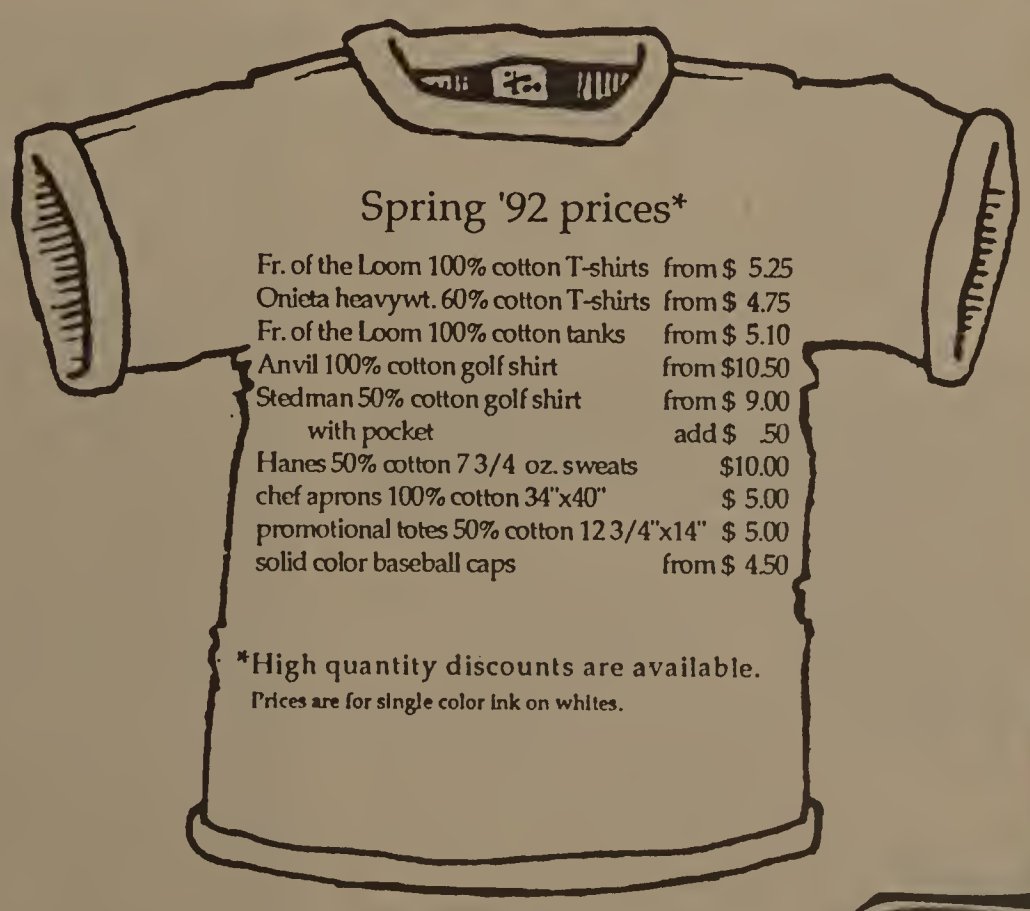
by Rey Roldan

Somewhere deep in the twisted mind of composer John Moran is a frustrated Mozart trying to gouge his way out. Tearing through opera and classically structured ambient music like a ravenous piranha, Moran has taken the subject of Charles Manson and his death cult The Family to a musical extreme. The Manson Family - An Opera (Philips Classics/Point Music) is as unnervingly beautiful as the blood-splattered body of Sharon Tate, pregnant wife of Roman Polanski and most famous victim of the Family's murderous deeds.

What Ciccolina has done for Italian politics, Moran has done for Manson. Uncovering the taboo in an otherwise morally stable environment always has and always will spark controversy. By combining opera and classical music with the vocals of Iggy Pop and Terre Roche (of the Roches) as prosecutor Jack Lord and Family member Squeaky Fromme respectively, Moran (who himself plays Charles Manson) spreads out the atmosphere of murder, insanity and morbid fascination to a score that's as creepy and sinister as Michael Oldfield's "Tubular Bells" (better known as the theme from The Exorcist). Already, the controversy surrounding the recording has sent shockwaves of repulsion and caused some to cry "Censorship!"

"I didn't want to tell the Manson story," Moran said in a recent interview. "I was more interested in the Manson characters. I think for many people, one of the most fascinating and frightening elements of the story is what it says about sexuality and society. It disturbs people in the same way that a Mapplethorpe photo does."

Moran offers the Manson story not in capsulized Cliff Notes fashion, but instead presents it in Faulkner-esque rotating viewpoints with each actor reciting trial transcripts amidst the appropriate aural backdrop. Perhaps the most disturbing tracks on The Manson Family- An Opera are the eerie instrumentals such as "Night Highway #1" and "Rape Music (Intro to Act II)" where he uses dischordant notes intermingled with the natural sounds of crickets and wind to instill acute paranoia in even the most stable listener.



Although he is far from the first to experiment with the synthesis of music with spoken word, Moran's approach to this genre is refreshing and a drastically off-kilter. Neither condemning nor glorifying the subject matter, Moran wisely keeps his view as objective as possible, letting the listener absorb everything with a wash of musical psychedelia. Like Mapplethorpe whose photographs were under public scrutiny for their blatantly homoerotic overtones, Moran may suffer a torrent of press to classify him both as purveyor of evil and creator of art. Where he stands depends where you draw the line between art and exploitation. For The Manson Family - An Opera, exploitation is art. ❑

Custom made shirts that fit you to a T.

At N E Design, we custom print T-shirts using anything from your vague ideas to a completed design. We'll print as few as 24, as many as 24,000 -- from a simple black on white to a full color masterpiece. And our spring rates are sure to fit your budget. So, whether they're for your softball team, hard-core band or knitting club, N E Design has a shirt for you. Stop by and check us out!

Spring '92 prices*

Fr. of the Loom 100% cotton T-shirts	from $ 5.25
Onieta heavywt. 60% cotton T-shirts	from $ 4.75
Fr. of the Loom 100% cotton tanks	from $ 5.10
Anvil 100% cotton golf shirt	from $10.50
Stedman 50% cotton golf shirt	from $ 9.00
with pocket	add $ .50
Hanes 50% cotton 7 3/4 oz. sweats	$10.00
chef aprons 100% cotton 34"x40"	$ 5.00
promotional totes 50% cotton 12 3/4"x14"	$ 5.00
solid color baseball caps	from $ 4.50

*High quantity discounts are available.
Prices are for single color ink on whites.

N E Design
123 Jersey street • Boston • Massachusetts • 02215 • (671)247-2028

MUSIC

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Axminster vocalist Steve Sera now in Wildside...Bobby Bear now pounding for DeSade with ex-Slaves Jeff Sugarman and Dick Tate...BCN cartoon character Billy West doing the voice of Ren' s partner Stimpy...Booking Agents: Bob Lafee at Club III, Chris Porter at Bunratty's, Martin Doyle at The Middle East and Joe Viglione at Mr. Tibbs in Billerica...Oz Management's Chuck White and Karyn expecting a little bundle of Chuck any day now...Neat Stuff: Miles Dethmuffin did a Queen cover "Under Pressure" originally done with Bowie on vocals while opening up for The Atom Said featuring Reeves Gabrals from Bowie's Tin Machine on growling guitar. Reeves' local band does the best version of "Blackbird" since you know who...Turntable Song of the Week is "Welcome to the Love Club, Baby" by Fighting Cocks 'cause it sounds like Poison with that Keith Richards fuck you thing mixed in...MFO jock Mikey Dee tells us about a benefit for his station at T.T. The Bears on the 30th with Trojan Ponies, The Uninvited, and Childhood... Harvey Wharfield does his local thing on CGY Sunday nights 6-10...May 20 Rumblewinners Seka will sign a contract with Sire/Warner Bros. on Mark Parenteau's BCN show...Congrats to DelFuegos drummer Joe Donnelly for tying the knot. Members of the DelFuegos, Swinging Steaks, Heavy Metal Horns, TheVex, and The Allston Bros. played at the reception jam...Seen at Doghouse Monday night jam at Bun's was Amyl Nitrate who run's Club III's Sunday night jam and Chance Gardner headhoncho of Harper's Ferry's Tues. nite jam. Something's going on here! ...Get well to Sarge from The Cantab who's in the VA Hospital getting some Vietnam bullets out of his system...John Mickevich seen passing notes to Blind Lemon...No respect dept: While performing at the "Boston" Music Awards, The Mighty Mighty Bosstones were told by upper management to perform their winning hit "Where'd you go?" Three measures into the song they abruptly switched to their performance choice "Devil's Night Out."

Jon Butcher gigging in Texas as we speak...Lennie Rosengard doing his monitor engineering all over town.. Radio 2000 now Dr. Carrot managed by ex-Blockyard vocalist extraordinaire Amy Rome...Ex-STF fourstringer Todd Erikson now in Mere Mortals...Waitress of the Week is Lisa Coppola from Harper's Ferry 'cause she's a beautiful blond.... Marathoners Tim Archibald and Brian Maes from RTZ finished the race in 2:40. If they hadn't stopped off for a cocktail at Father's II and partied with Peter Winkler, Larry Kelly, Matt Connors, John Wynne, and Lulu, who knows what records might have been broken?...Doorman of the Week has to be Mitch from The Rat 'cause he's been in the scene since day one...Slipknot and Fortunate Son played at Harper's on Deadhead nite and were so good that even Pahokey dug them.. Heavy Metal Horn Jim Sturdivant endorsing Vic Firth drumstix. Vic is the principle percussionist for The BSO...Checkout Vision Thing, Phoenix editor Ted Drozdowski's new gig. And request "All your Lies" on all the Local stations...Mark Sandman from Treat Her Right closed the book on one of his projects Candy Bar and is devoting all his time with Morphine... You don't have to be Jewish to like The Feldmans...Veteran Brandy Pritchard's new gig Joystick really rocks...Bartender of the Week has to go to a wild trey of Ed Burke's employees. Bibby, Mark Collins and Bernie Fitzgerald 'cause they're tres chic. One's a loudmouth, one's a whiner and the other's so ugly he could stop a clock, but other than that they all fix a mean drink!... Acoustic performer Miriam attracting major label interest...Joe Stump's Guitar Dominance is overpowering...Chuck Sullivan seen resuscitating O'Brien's back to life...Helanie cooking up a storm at The Middle East where she's bringing bands into the bakery...Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

Mechanized Art

The Machines of Loving Grace mix Burroughs, Art and Nine Inch Nails

by David Daley

Scott Benzel, Stuart Kupers and Mike Fisher of Machines of Loving Grace.

The Machines of Loving Grace not only combine the opposing notions of human emotions and industrial alienation in their name, they blend the all too often separate realms of music and literature on their eponymously titled debut release. The Phoenix, Arizona threesome work best as iconoclastic scavengers, rummaging through the history of revolutionary art. On Machines of Loving Grace (Mammoth Records), Dadaist manifestos flirt salaciously with the cut-up experiments of William S. Burroughs and cutting edge industrial music-making technology.

"The songs I like are the ones that force me to get in there and figure out what they all mean, so that's what I try to write," explained lead singer Scott Benzel over the phone from St. Louis.

"I sort of fell into this accidentally," Benzel said, "but I was always interested in conceptual and performance art. One of the things I wanted to do by being in a band was bring in outside allusions into the songs themselves." So "Terminal City" takes its cue from Burroughs' Soft Boys novel, which the Naked Lunch author wrote by actually cutting up his text and piecing it back together randomly, while "Rite of Shiva" was inspired by a sex act from the work of artist Robert Wilson.

Two of the other highlights of Machines of Loving Grace are the lilting "Cicciolina," and the groove-smashing "Burn Like Brilliant Trash (At Jackie's Funeral)". While the former appears to grow from a cut-up, stream of consciousness lyrical approach, the song, like Burroughs' novels, make sense and make their points, in this case about the blending of the political, personal and physical.

"Burn Like Brilliant Trash" has been released as the album's new single. Nine Inch Nails mastermind Trent Reznor discovered the song, an angry exposure of the death of John Kennedy and the American dream, on a mix tape given to him by a friend. "He got a copy of our single and said he was interested in working with us, and we jumped at the opportunity," Renzel said.

The Machines hope to keep adding artistic touches to their songs, supplementing the power of their songs with additional visual elements while tightening their musical focus. "This record is us trying to find our sound and become comfortable," he said.

Focusing their sound while expanding their genre-defying influences. Sounds like a challenge tailor-made for a band called Machines of Loving Grace. ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

Kym Sims
Too Blind To See It
Atco Records

Equipped with enough dance hooks to land Jaws, up and coming Kym Sims releases an impressive, if unspectacular, debut that stands head and shoulderpads above much else in its genre. Sims has a pleasing-if barely distinguishable-voice that could be mistaken for every other club diva from Paris Grey to CeCe Peniston, but when tossed into the artistic hands of producer/mixer Steve "Silk" Hurley, things get booming rather quickly. The first two lead-off singles, the title track and "Take My Advice," are straightforward samples of pure, unadulterated Chicago house that don't drift too far away from CeCe Peniston's hit "We Got a Love Thang." Hurley, however, is careful not to limit Sims to house and allows her to venture into R&B territory where Sims vocal style hits its zenith; the best of these tracks is "Never Should Have Let You Go." Sims has quite a way to go before she can call herself a diva, but her debut shows that she's definitely on the right track.

-Richard Williams

Body Count
Body Count
Sire Records

Body Count is the sonic brainchild of Ice-T, who apparently attempted to form a band that integrates thrash metal with street rhyme, a formula that has worked well in the past (check Public Enemy and Anthrax's "Bring the Noize"). Although these guys fancy themselves as "hardcore," their debut album, unfortunately, lacks the musical coherence, sonic boom and basic charisma that made Ice-T's records powerful portrayals of inner-city life. Instead, we get an album that adopts the most tedious of guitar chords, the most predictable of guitar solos and the most obnoxious of lyrics, many of which reduce women to mere sex outlets. The worst offenders here are "KKK Bitch," which tries to tackle with interracial sex and "Evil Dick," a vulgar ode to male heterosexual horniness-both of which suffer from the above. One can't help but wonder if Ice-T's next album will be as bad as this mess. Until we find out, one thing's certain: Body Count is dead on arrival.

-Richard Williams

COMEDY

The Biting Comedy of Sue Kolinsky

by Kathy Matheson

So, what did you do to pay the rent while you were trying to break into the comedy circuit?

"I was a hooker."

Sue Kolinsky, telepathically sensing the dropped jaw on the other end of the phone, quickly followed with a "No, I'm just kidding." Turns out that the Long Island, N.Y.-native waited tables and worked as a legal secretary to support herself in between stints at clubs in both New York and L.A.

But although the one-liner does not give an accurate account of Kolinsky's employment history, it certainly gives you an idea about her sense of humor. She describes her style of comedy as biting social commentary, which includes topics ranging from sports ("I'm a New York fan all the way"), relationships and aging. For example, Kolinsky says she feels society looks at single people in the thirty-something generation and wonders why they're not married. "That's like looking at someone who's 75 and saying, 'When are you going to break your hip?'"

Even her own craft is not spared criticism. "I think comedy replaced disco," she quips. "And I think karaoke will replace comedy." (Karaoke, at least, gives new meaning to the term "open mic night.") But seriously, Kolinsky partly attributes the comedy boom to the recession: "When the country is in a recession, people need a laugh."

At first, she "thought it was wonderful" when comedians began receiving so much attention, especially since Kolinsky herself benefited from television appearances on Fox-TV's Comic Strip Live, VH-1's Comedy Spotlite and the CBS Morning Program. But now, she says it seems like "everybody and their mother is doing stand-up comedy," and they all can be seen on TV "standing in front of a brick wall with their sleeves rolled up."

"It's a little too saturated," she says of the comedy market. "There's way too much comedy on television," she explains, which means clubs lose money when people stay home and see comedy instead of going out. Sue will have to compete with the boob tube this week when she headlines at Harvard Square's famous Catch a Rising Star from Apr. 29-May 4. Sue Kolinsky is certainly a rising star, and smart comedy fans will choose to catch her in person instead of staring at a brick wall.

❑

Comedy Listings

• Cantab Lounge 489-21t 5 738 Mass Ave Central Square, Cambridge.
Performing at the Cantab Lounge every Sunday night at 8 PM is Renegade Duck; Boston's newest improvisational comedy troupe . Admission is $5.

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 66t-0t67 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 1t:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 29 to MON 4.- Sue Kolinsky

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since t968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $t0 Fri.&Sat..

WED 29.- Jimmy Smith Cap'n Brofather Show, Rick Jenkins THUR 30.- Jay Charbonneau, Comedy Showcase, John Rodgers FRI t.- Mike Donovan, Jackie Flynn, Helene Lantry SUN 3.- Mike Moto Cable Show- Taping WED 6.- Jimmy Smith Comedy Funk Night, Mike Bent, Jon David THUR 7.- Rich Ceisler, Cindy Freeman, Bill Braudes FRI 8.- Mike McDonald, Ed Driscoll, Tom Dunham SUN t0 Rich Ceisler Comedy Showcase, Tim Monahan, Paul Elwell MON 1t.- Maria Falzone Best Of Boston Show, Jim McCue, Myra Slotnick TUES 12.- D.J Hazard Wild Thing Nite, Paco Scumbato, Peter Bailes

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700
Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and t0:t5. Call for ticket prices.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, t49 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and t0:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.
SUN 3.- Dave Fitzgerald

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, t24 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.
SUN 3.- Chris McGuire

• Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The Improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the business and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues-Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.
WED 29.- SUN 3.-Jeffrey Jena, TUE 5.- SUN 10.-Jack Gallagher

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-44t-JOKE

We know it's a little early but...Nicks will be official host to Sail Boston, 1992 July 11-16; Comedy get-togethers planned

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

FRI t.- Frank Santos The "R" Rated Hypnotist, Chris Bliss, Mark Maron, David Cross, SUN 3.- Open Mic Night With Vinnie Favorito, WED 6.- Anthony Clark, Phil Van Tee, THU 7.- Billy Martin, Phil Van Tee, Brendan McMahon, MON 11.- Comic Relief To Benefit Boston Healthcare For The Homeless.

Tremont Villa 387-130168 TremonSt., Everett. Haley Productions is premiering their original play the "Wedding Party" on May 7 at 7pm.Theplay takes you back to 1955 to the outrageous wedding of Frankie and Johnny. You're role is that of an invited guest and you are encouraged to take on a character of your own and participate in the traditional wedding activities. Tickets are $34.95 and include a 5-course dinner and entertainment after the show.

FREE!

IN CELEBRATION OF OUR 10TH ANNIVERSARY* EXCHANGE THIS AD FOR UP TO 4 FREE TIX!

NICK'S COMEDY STOP

SUN-MON-TUES-WED
(617)482-0930

(Boston club only!)
* MUST BE 21*
(Expires May 13)

NOT VALID FOR SPECIAL EVENTS/HOLIDAY SHOWS

BARS & CLUBS

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. tor the Jazz brunch..

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live reggae bands on Wednesdays. DJ Mike Lynch Thursdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peacetul escape to drink and hang out. There's lots ot play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites..

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies..

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous..

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night..

Wed 6th.--Ziggy Marley and the Melody Makers with special guests Eye + I Thur 7th.--Adrian Belew Tue 12th.--Soundgarden with Swervedriver and Monster Magnet

A

Jazz B A R Cafe

EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across trom the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young protesslonals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collariess shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights..

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 29th.--The Bentmen with guests D.D.T. Thur 30th.--It's Boston Nite with O Positive and Figures On A Beach Wed 6th.--Vinnie Moore with special guests Shotgun Messiah Thur 7th.--The Wedding Present

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out ot Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill protessionals mixing freely with members ot skid row (not the band, mind you). . Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays..

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston protessionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm..

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst ot Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed..

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover..

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol ot Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, & locals People will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square Institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price..

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. It you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop..

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. It you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights..

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view ot the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need tor entertainment. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays..

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom traili The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch tor their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and bolsterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress..

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code..

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress..

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young protesslonals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm..

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers ot all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans..

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu ot Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there..

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St , Cambridge. It it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types ot drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped..

BARS & CLUBS

Casablanca- Classic Ambiance

by Tobin Streett

The name is Casablanca. It's a restaurant and a bar, but we're not here to eat. Follow the steps down through the softly-lit passage, the atrium-covered dining area and back to the bar which lies beneath the Brattle Theatre. Although you'll be standing in a bar and although people exchange money for drinks, it's easy to feel that you're mingling at a cocktail party.

Fifty years after the opening of the movie classic Casablanca, the bar of the same name brings back memories to the days when everyone smoked and martinis were the most popular drink. At this funky, yet chic den of libations, it's still the cool thing to do. They're also celebrating the 50th anniversary of the film's release on April 30 with a post-screening party of the original film.

After being closed for a year and a half (due to renovations), Casablanca has somehow managed to carry the original ambiance of their former location to their new home. One fascinating aspect is the wall-length mural that was hand painted by David Omar White, known simply as Omar. The painting is a sight to behold and sets the scene to what is a relaxing atmosphere of soft lights, an eclectic clientele and great background music ranging from the blues to jazz.

Michael Powers

Casablanca's wall length mural pays homage to the film of the same name.

The crowd here is a mix of moviegoers, diners, shoppers, students, actors and professors - all who frequent Casablanca with the regularity of a Bill Clinton truth-twister.

Beer prices range from $2.25 to $3.75 from a well-chosen menu. On tap, Casablanca serves Sam Adams Lager, Bass Ale, Yuengling Black & Tan and the Casablanca Select (their own brew). Bottles include Mamba, Steinlager as well as more familiar names.

As nice a selection as this may be, one should not leave here without indulging in their Moroccan Daiquiri. This Casablanca gets our vote for Boston's Most Inventive Cocktail. Made of light and dark rums, vanilla, brown sugar and fresh pineapple, they marinate this concoction for several weeks before serving it to the public. All this work for only one drink. As for food, whether nibbling at the bar or at a table, try one of their popular appetizers like the Fried Squid with Chermoula or the grilled pizza. Just make sure that you visit the Casablanca, even if it's just to look around. Call 876-0999 for more information. ❑

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games..

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu..

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches..

Thur 30th.--Martin Sexton

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies..

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress..

Wed 29th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...

Sun 3rd.--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 5th.--Dart League Nite every Tues.

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 185 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months..

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 105 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon. .

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress..

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please..

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear..

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress. .

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs..

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. . Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches..

Allston Ale House

85 Harvard Street Allston, MA 617/787-9797

Open for Lunch Daily

Special Weekly Events

Wednesday - Open Mike Night

Hosted by Alizon Lisance 8PM. - 12 PM.

Thursday- Jam Session

Hosted by Wilba Goodman & Napaj 9PM. - 1AM

Friday - KaraokeNight

Hosted by Jack McCoy

Saturday - Live Bands 9:30PM - 1:30AM

May 2 - Madeline Hall and the Rhythym Hounds

May 9 - Velcro Peasants

BARS & CLUBS

Melanie Dunea

Some folks run so fast to get into the Elliot Lounge, that they run right by it.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line..

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment..

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 29th.--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 3rd.--Every Sun. Is DJ Chris Mon 4th.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. This establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code..

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy)..

Thur 30th.--Rolly Gray and Sunfire (4 pc. Reggae) Fri 1st.--The Boston Rockabilly Music Conspiracy (5 pc. Rockabilly) plays tonite and tomorrow Sun 3rd.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 4-9pm Mon 4th.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress..

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 29th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 30th.--Bim Skala Bim Sun 3rd.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Tue 5th.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!)

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu..

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code..

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St., Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 29th.--Ivo Papason and his Bulgarian Orchestra Thur 30th.--Bosstown Reunion with Barry & Holly Tashian, John Lincoln Wright and Willie Loco Alexander Fri 1st.--Jamaaladeen, Tecuma & Specticle Sat 2nd.--2 Blacktop Records Bobby Radcliff Sun 3rd.--O.J. Ekemode and his Nigerian Allstars Tue 5th.--Paul Geremia, Paul Rishell Wed 6th.--Steve Tibbets, Marc Anderson Thur 7th.--Acoustic Junction Fri 8th.--Bobby Blue Bland Sat 9th.--Roy Rogers and his Delta Rhythm Kings Sun 10th.--Blues Jam 4-8pm, Mandala Octet Mon 11th.--Cabaret du Somerville happens every other Monday Tue 12th.--Adrian Legg

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Thur 30th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 3rd.--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 4th.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 5th.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Michael Curley, for additional information on this former Boston Mayor's controversial past, call Don Aucoin at the Boston Globe 929-3000, ext. 3060, while you're at it, inquire about the award he received for outstanding journalism. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code..

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Mattress students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 29th.--Every Wed. Is Industrial Rage Sat 2nd.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Wed 29th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 30th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 1st.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 2nd.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 4th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 5th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude, and a location just outside the heart of the Combat Zone. The crowd centers around young professionals. Proper dress with a jacket for men..

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 29th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 2nd.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Mon 4th.--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 6th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 9th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 10th.--Brazilian 12-4 pm, Noise Party 2-6pm Mon 11th.--Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. .

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies. .

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 29th.--Boston Driver, Vox One, Debbie Kochman Thur 30th.--Diamonda Gala's Judgement Day Fri 1st.--bOP Harvey! Sat 2nd.--Tony V. Tue 5th.--The Jazz Butcher, The Jody Grind Wed 6th.--Al Stewart & Peter White Fri 8th.--Kate & Anna McGarrigle

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury
VISA

BARS & CLUBS

which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Wed 29th.--Firehose, Antenna Thur 30th.--Miracle Legion with Big Dipper Fri 1st.--The Samples Sat 2nd.--Buffalo Tom Sun 3rd.--The WBCN Rumble starts TODAY!

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress..

Fri 1st.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Thur 30th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 5th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code. .Call for listings.

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks..

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 29th.--The Harper Brothers Thur 30th.--The John Scofield Quartet are here straight thru Sunday Sun 3rd.--In the Charles Ballroom: The John McLaughlin Trio featuring Trilok Gurtu Tue 5th.--Aché Wed 6th.--Gilbey's Gin presents the Flavor of Jazz: The Tony Williams Quintet and the Benny Green Trio Thur 7th.--The Phil Woods Quintet performs until Sat. Tue 12th.--The Dick Johnson/ Dave McKenna/ Gray Sargent Trio

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8...--Call for listings.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

Sat 2nd.--EXPERIENCE THE POWER OF JUDYISM! The Love Goddess of Comedy Judy Tenuta returns for an 8pm show!

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 29th.--Orange Then Blue Thur 30th.--Josh Hilberman's Jazz Tap Fri 1st.--Scott Hamilton, Dave McKenna, Gray Sargent and Chuck Riggs tonite and tomorrow Tue 5th.--Lisa Thorson and Friends Wed 6th.--CD 96.9 presents Tom Grant Thur 7th.--Bill Lee and the Mo' Betta Quartet featuring Javon Jackson, Donald Harrison and Bruce Cox Fri 8th.--The Persuasions perform tonite and tomorrow Tue 12th.--Henry Butler

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress. .

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near Faneuil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts..

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm..

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Wed 29th.--The Dennis James Band with Milo, Jamie Shaler and Bob Thur 30th.--MFO Fund Raiser featuring The Childhoods with Miles Delf Muffin, Trojan Ponies and the Uninvited

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time..

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 29th.--The Lawn Marys and the Moors Thur 30th.--Scatterfield Fri 1st.--The Search Party Sat 2nd.--The Big Blues Meanies

•TIA'S Marriott Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted..

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

Mon 4th.--Blues Night Mon 11th.--Blues Night

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress..

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons..

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This large two story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required..

Mount Ida
DAY CAMP
A traditional camp.
Sports Activities Swimming
June 22nd - Aug. 14th
for children ages 4-14 • (9-4) Daily
Transportation & Extended Days
Mount Ida College 777 Dedham St.
Camp Office (617) 969-8334 Newton Centre, MA 02159

WEDNESDAYS
Reggae Night
Live Bands
Jammin' Tunes
Cool Cats
Cold Beer
$3 Cover

THURSDAYS
Dance
DJ Mike Lynch
Spinner
Extraordinaire
Playing Your Favorites
$1 Cover

ALLEY CAT LOUNGE

"Where Cool Cats Meet To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Bring in this portion of our ad with as many friends as you can round up !
ALL OF YOU
GET IN FREE ON THURSDAY
OR FOR $2 EACH ON WEDNESDAY
Expires May 31, 1992

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

Cambrldge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
"Two for the Show" is a performance of swing, blues, country ,plus original material by Jake Kensinger and Ellen Schmidt. Held on May 7, at 8PM and admission is $3.50. For Advance tickets call 547-6789

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
262-1120
NEC faculty members and students give free recitals in Jordan Hall a few times a week. Stephen Drury gives a piano recital at 8pm Apr. 30; the Honors Piano Trio performs May 3 at 8pm; a salute to retiring faculty member Robert DiDomenica showcases his music May 4 at 8pm; Rina Dokshinsky gives a piano recital May 5 at 8pm; the Chamber Music Ensemble performs May 6 at 8pm; and Colin Carr gives a cello recital May 10 at 8pm. Call 262-1120 for more information.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The ICA is presenting the 11th annual Black Maria Film & Video Festival 1991. It is the largest U.S. touring festival, committed to film and video work that expands the expressive terrain of the media arts. The work is characterized by its artistically rigorous, politically incisive and socially conscious compositions. Videos will be shown in the ICA Theatre.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):
Showing until June 29 is the exhibit, Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790s -1850s which emphasizes such artists as Blake and Goya.

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St.
Larz Anderson Park, Brookline
May is Museum Goers' Month and on May 9 it is Cadillac Day 100 and on May 10 is the Edsel Owners Club.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, 536-5400
The library will show Frank Capra's Rain or Shine(1930) on May 4 and Dirigible on May 11. All movies are shown in the Rabb Lecture Hall on Mondays at both 3 and 6:30pm and admission is free.

Boston University
Marsh Chapel,735 Commonwealth Ave, Boston
On April 30 at 8pm in Marsh Chapel, is a sponsored free screening of What About Bob? The screening is open to the public and for more information call 353-3560.

LECTURES

Cambrldge Center For Adult Education
56 Brattle St. , Cambridge
Explore the wild side of Hawaii with photographer and mountaineer Jeffrey Trubisz in Exploring the Hawaiian Islands, on May 5 and on May 12, return to the beach with Nancy Williamson who will illustrate through slides and memorabilia the allure of Miami Beach Restored.

POETRY

Cambrldge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $2.00. On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

ZOOS

Arnold Arboretum
Jamaica Plain
524-1717
Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum is a living museum, featuring more than 14,000 trees, vines and shrubs. Self-guided tour maps are available at the visitors' center; call to see which flowers are currently in bloom. Public transportation from the Orange Line (Forest Hills stop) or Copley Square (Bus #39).

Franklin Park Zoo
Boston
442-0991
Free Admission: Tues. 12pm-closing.
Hours: Oct.-Apr., daily 9am-3:30pm; Apr.-Oct., daily 9am-5pm.
The zoo features the African Tropical Forest, Birds' World, Outdoor Flight Cage, the Children's Zoo and Hoofs & Horns, all located in a historic park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted.

New England Aquarlum
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm.
Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

We're Looking

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty responsibility and a fun working environment

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager to oversee the most dedicated sales force in the area Must have a fantastic sense of humor and several years of print advertising experience, preferably in the Boston market.

Send your resume in inviolable secrecy to the Publisher.

Music Editor

Would you like to design and create the top music section in the city? Our soon to be expanding music section requires a dynamic self starter with a thorough understanding of both the local and national music scene. Responsibilities include hiring, training and managing a staff of music writers.

Experience required.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Restaurant Critic

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Classified Account Executives

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night
MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION
FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live
ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski
FREE Ski Passes, Vacation Weekends, and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights
FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.
Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night
AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!
See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Fax or mail your own Impersonals, we'll pick the top five from each issue and award a pair of tickets to Catch a Rising Star comedy club to each winner. Send your Impersonals to The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Brookline, MA 02146 or FAX it to us at: 232-4305. They're Free!

Pat S.,
Thanx for teaching me some of those pool taxi tricks! So, when do I get to see your stick, and your balls??

To all women wearing "ETERNITY."
Haven't you noticed that the sales-people leap back five feet to hurl back your change? Your friends may not tell you, but I will- your perfume stinks! Please stop wearing it. Diesel exhaust smells better.

Ney,
YES IT IS possible to have a lot of friends and still be sincere. It's been over a year and I still miss you! I wish you hadn't turned into the dragon lady your mother always was.
LRR

To the Avalon "Dance-Babe" in the tight white t-shirt:
When I saw you standing at the bar with your shot and beer, and that tan (oh that tan), I knew we were meant to be. Meet me in two weekends at avenue C. I'll be the one in the dockers and the Izod.
Love Hot-Man.

Jonathan Fritts & Co.,
I apologize for the alcohol comments. I'm one to talk! I admire the comaraderie, and the general love for one another. I truly respect that. I love him more than anyone, just give me a chance.
Outside lookin' in

SR,
What are all those 550#'s on the phone bill??

Marais,
I'm wicked psyched!, John.

Sarah Beth,
Nothing worse than an uptight lesbian.

So ya' want to get married? It's up to me? What are you doing next Sunday.....? 'Borrow Jeanie's car and we've got a date!
Madly in love.

Accept responsibility for your mistakes. Only then do you have the power to correct them.
Confucius.

Pat,
I know the wrestling part makes it fun, but the rug burns have to stop.
p.s. The least you can do is to let me sleep past 8 a.m.
K.J.

To the only Bobby-Mo on Landsdowne St
Don't you want your tighty whiteys back? They certainly don't fit me! But, it works well to sleep in, so I've decided to keep it. Oh, and your socks? They reeked so I junked 'em. Can't wait to cook you breakfast again! NOT!

With overwhelming affection,
The chick who is going to run you over in her white cabriolet.

Cam,
I'm so proud that you finally came out of the closet.,Adam

Amanda,
That was a neat trick you did last week. Where does one buy a hydraulic trapeze and did yours come with those kinky instructions?
Sorely Yours, Troy

To the tuna lover,
A wise man once said: He who chases moving plate of food opens whole new can of worms. Love,
Maggy

Cam, Slamming into hard, sweaty bodies on the Garden ice isn't the same without your stick to play with between shifts. And those post-game showers before you put your dentures in ... well at least we have the sand traps on the golf course to look forward to!
Ray.

Rat Arms,
Stay away from the donuts, ice cream and Grand MAmier. Please, Please, Please!! This is your final warning.

DearKorn Kob,
Do you have any cream of corn, cooked corn or corn on the cob. Please help, I'm a little bit confused.
Lesterthe Molester

Sweet Stevey,
Are you getting any more on the new job? Doubt it., T
The Cat,
Mischa Mouscho is a go, but what about the Tonga Woman? But then again, you can alway strap on some stilts and dive on the Swedish Amazon.LL

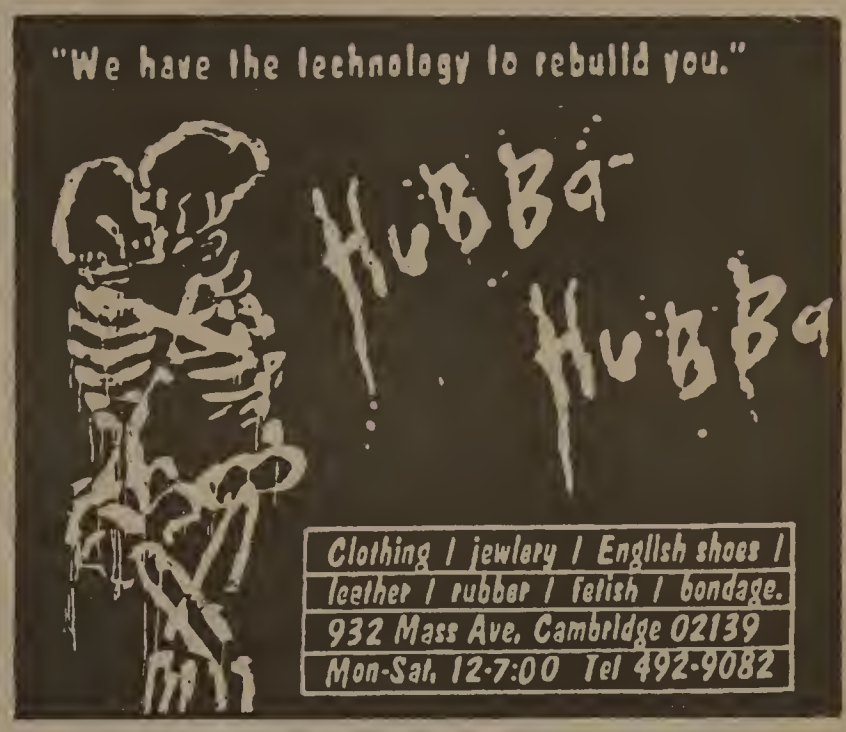
To the exhibitionists on the 23rd floor of Harbor Towers, close the blinds next time, my whole office can see you two.

Cindy, have you sent in your tax returns yet? I can't imagine what the IRS is going to say when they see your paltry income. Better hide the BMW. They'll be knocking at your door soon.
XOXOXO from your Ex.

Kerry and Keely, please invite us to Breakfast, lunch and dinner for the rest of the semester. B.C. doesn't need the money, but we need the food.
Friends of sister who told us how much you want to give away your free food.

Uh Huh team, may we subjubate your existence to cleaning sock drawers and washing toilets. Well, at least for a day.
Adam and Mark

To the personable lady I walked in on at the tanning salon - your experience was much appreciated and no tan lines!



Karen, we know you took the T to Kenmore, stop fooling yourself, you're the perfect non-champion

To the poor Jack who gave me his Gold Card at the Cactus Club, I wasn't the doorman and I'm having, the time of my life in Ecuacador and wish you the best of luck with your credit rating. HA!

Bob, you dog! Sam² not bad for a weekend.

Davenport, I didn't know that was you in the bondage photo. How did they talk you into that?

To the fine, young lady with the wild striped pants and a look that could kill a Buffalo. I hope I can round you up next time we meet in the Buff!

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman
ON THE FARM: Rural wordplay
by Shirley Soloway

ACROSS
1 Biblical trio
5 Scandinavian sight
10 __ cum laude
15 One way to pay
19 "__ See Clearly Now"
20 Be of one mind
21 One more time
22 Toast topper
23 Changes political positions
26 Edifice complex
27 String-quartet member
28 Send in a new return
29 Hung around
31 "__ Clear Day"
33 Wisk competitor
34 Investors' concerns
35 Overwhelmed
40 Singer Julius
43 Poetic night
44 Knock about
45 Naval clerks
47 Dressed
51 Lamppost-sign abbr.
52 Failing that
55 Corrosive chemical
56 Crop up
57 Gather in
59 Get down to business
61 Sensitive spots
62 Dr. Strangelove star
64 Country hotel
65 1984 lingo
67 Enzyme ending
68 Piles up
71 Pop-music genre
72 Snow coverings, so to speak
76 "Ulalume" monogram
77 Rhythmic flow
81 Soprano Lehmann
82 Turns in
86 Horse coat
87 Goldenrod relative
88 Canoeing gear
89 Shakespearean king
90 Uncle: Sp.
91 Yellowstone denizen
92 "A House __ Home"
94 Poet Whitman
97 SASE, e.g.
98 Most sensible
100 Practical and realistic
104 __ lazuli
106 6 on a phone
107 __ Heel (North Carolinian)
108 They take possession
111 Weak
114 Extend the lease
118 Hot spot
119 Preposterous account
122 Luxury auto, for short
123 Three-tone chord
124 Put to rest
125 Spielberg film of '91
126 Certain Balt
127 Methods: Abbr.
128 Cheerleading routines
129 Nave neighbor

DOWN
1 Catchall cat.
2 Feel a twinge
3 Inventor Borden
4 Stream movement
5 Musical notes
6 Borodin's Prince __
7 Normandy river
8 Shortened the sails
9 Will to win
10 Lunar feature
11 In the past
12 One of Caesar's conquests
13 Composer __ Rota
14 Fireplace accessory
15 Fails
16 Happy as __
17 1991 French Open winner
18 Cargo area
24 Copier product
25 Unpleasantly bright
30 "__ folly to be wise"
32 Commotion
35 Anjou and Flemish Beauty
36 Flood preventative
37 Farrow's Peyton Place costar
38 Eye areas
39 Singer Carter
40 Deadbolt, for one
41 Picardy city
42 Tint twice
46 Pitcher part
48 Bologna bucks
49 Taking a cruise
50 Newsroom section
53 Milk choice
54 Sicilian spewer
56 Syrian leader
58 Rum drink
59 Lemon or lime
60 Not yet mounted, as gems
63 Sandy ridge
66 King Kong actress
68 Singaporeans and Sri Lankans
69 Satirist Mort
70 Fencing blade
72 Spill the beans
73 Misplace
74 "__ boy!"
75 "Just One of __ Things"
77 Gem weight
78 Observant one
79 "I __ Say No"
80 Cain's son
83 Slow run
84 Sound-barrier breaker
85 Bird on a Wire actress
92 Entomologist's specialty
93 Commercial creators
95 Auction unit
96 Signs of joy, maybe
99 Make public
101 In the future
102 Be unsteady
103 Soul-singing name
104 Billion-selling jeans
105 Without __ (broke)
108 Seafood selection
109 Actor Calhoun
110 Geol. and anat.
111 Short-lived styles
112 Break in the action
113 Airline to Jerusalem
115 Skating figure
116 Cupid's counterpart
117 Little shaver
120 Krazy __
121 Fleur-de-__

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 4/5/92

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Alterations/Design

THE ALTER EGO: Clothing alterations/home item repair/pillows made-ALL TYPES. Great Rates! By appointment only 332-0160. Newbury St. location

Apartments

FT. MEYER FLA Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., balcony., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-3064

MEDFORD. For rent. Luxury Condo w/ eat in kitch. 2bdrm 2 full bath, balcony, washer & dryer. Fully appliianced. Indoor pool, racquetball courts, weight room, parking, 24hr security. Close to shopping & trans. Call Lillian at 391-0282 or work 862-7528

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

ROOM FOR RENT. Sunny W.Sommerville home in quiet neighborhood.Share kitchen & bathroom. 13 steps to the T and bus terminal. $75/wk. 617-625-9479

WATERTOWN. Very nice two Bdrm. in a two family house. Clean attic & basement for storage. Front & back porches, yard,parking. Avail immed. Call Bob 237-1992

2BDRM APARTMENT 4.5 blocks from Lynn beach near Swampscott line. $550 negoc. Leave message 596-0222

Architects

CONYNGHAM ASSOCIATES ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN Residential and Commercial, renovations, new construction, additions, kitchens, bathrooms. CAD & 3D visualization. 617-627-7821

Cellular Phones

CELLULAR PHONES FREE. Also agents needed. Ground floor opportunity. Call now 499-7933 24 hrs.

Carpet Repair

CARPET REPAIRS, Installation,restretch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Cleaning

HOUSECLEANING AND PAINTING Responsible, reliable. Reasonable rates. Lots of references. Ellen, 244-5320

HOUSECLEANING AVAIL. 7 days a week. Good references. Call anytime. Maria 332-0743

Clothing/Tailoring

$$$ FOR YOUR WARDROBE! Designer and better quality contemporary clothes in spectacular condition for women and men. Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399

AT THE ACORN SHOP consignment shop, 8 Muzzey St., Lexington, you'll find labels like Ralph Lauren, Calvin Klein and Liz Claiborne at a fraction of their retail price. All Jeans only $9.95. We're now accepting your top quality spring fashions by appointment. Open Tue-Sat. 861-9646

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Individual & group counseling for men & women interested in discussing their questions & concerns about sexual identity/preference Al Gentile, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

TRANSPERSONAL THERAPY engages your deepest resources. Harry C. Stafford, Phd, certified transpersonal therapist,(617)536-6518 Back Bay.

Credit Svcs

GET A VISA AND CORRECT BAD CREDIT. Solve debt problems. Late payments , charge-offs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639

Entertainment

"BOSTONS BEST." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)354-5000 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

Health Services

MASSAGE THERAPY. Swedish, deep tissue, sports massage trigger points. Past clientle: Les Mis, Cats, Heartstrings, and Boston Ballet. $50 In $60 out.HIV $30. Gift certificates available. Feel less tired, have more energy. Ask me about KM. Tim Medas 522-0626

Help Wanted

EARN UP TO $339.84/WEEK assembling our products at your home. Amazing recorded message reveals details. Call today 617-446-7682 (ext A02)

$800 .WEEKLY POSSIBLE! WORKING AT HOME! 37 different opportunities. Rush $1 and SASE to: HARVEY COUNCIL. A125 BLAKE ST. HYDE PARK, MA. 02136

House For Sale

NO MONEY DOWN. Take advantage of low market prices! Two family home within walking distance of Lynn beach. Leave message 596-0222

Instruction

LSAT/Anyone can get a top LSAT score if they prepare correctly. An attorney who scored in the 99th percentile will show you how. Highly successful program using one-on-one coaching. For details contact George Alex 617-266-9720

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

Motorcycles

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles.Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING. . Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition.Call Joey 776-1706

Photography

BEAUTIFUL PROMOTIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY. for experimental musicians, performers and bands. Very reasonable rates, all jobs guaranteed. Jim Andrews Photography. 617-451-0042

Propoganda

"LOBOTOMIES FOR REPUBLICANS; IT'S THE LAW".Bumper stickers:$2, Buttons: $1. Catalog, volume discounts! Send SASE (or $1 P/H) to CIRCLES OF INFLUENCE 1085 Commonwealth Ave.Dept. 171 Boston, Ma 02215

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

RESUME'S. High quality, low prices, done fast. Call Keith 846-1953. Leave message.

SCHOLARSHIP SEARCHERS. We search for scholarships for you in your custom tailored report of over 100 sources. Step by step instruction on how to complete all the forms. Send name & address to:Future American Box 396, 492 East Broadway South Boston Ma, 02127

Skin Care

COMMON SENSE SKIN CARE. A 40 page educational guide for the maintenance of healthy skin. $9.95 refundable with your first order.European skin care, free consultations. For information or to order the book, call Tim Medas at 522-0626

BAD CREDIT?
-Repair your own credit.
-Remove charge-off, repos, collection accounts
- rebuild your own credit
- list of secured credit cards
-Money back guarantee
Special introductory offer:
Only $19.95+shipping
Call 24 hours for info.
617-984-0565

APARTMENTS
Located off Beacon St. in Clevland Circle.
Walking distance to the
The Cinema Shopping and the Reservoir
Plus much more! 24 hour maintainence, on-site management office and laundry facilities.
Studios start at $500 One bedrooms $600
Heat and Hot water Included. No fee!
Call Deborah at Strathmore Rd. Apts. 566-1819

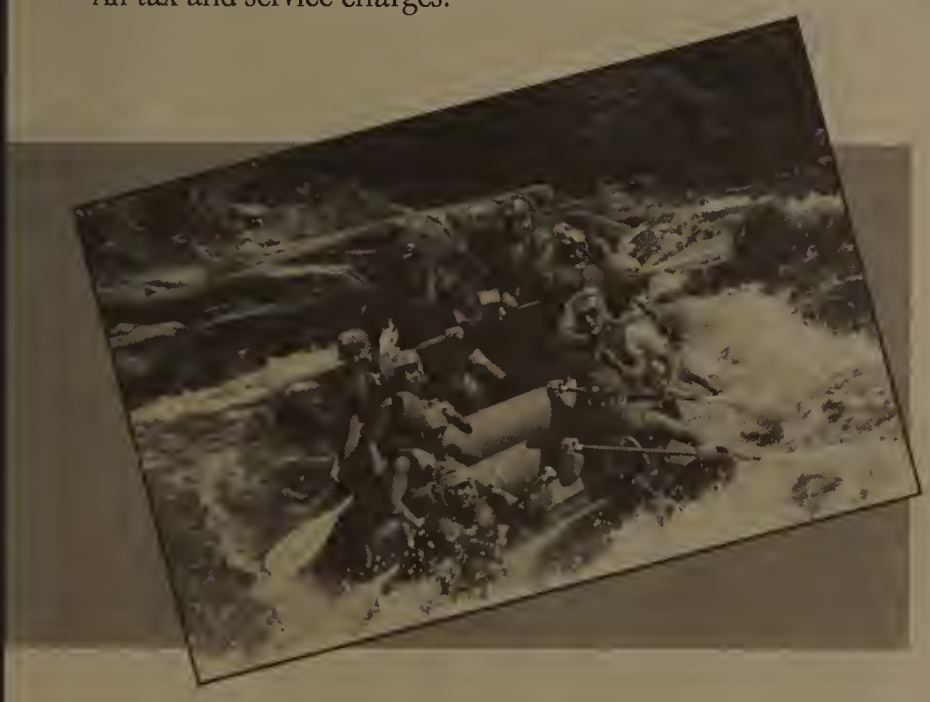
The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure

In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

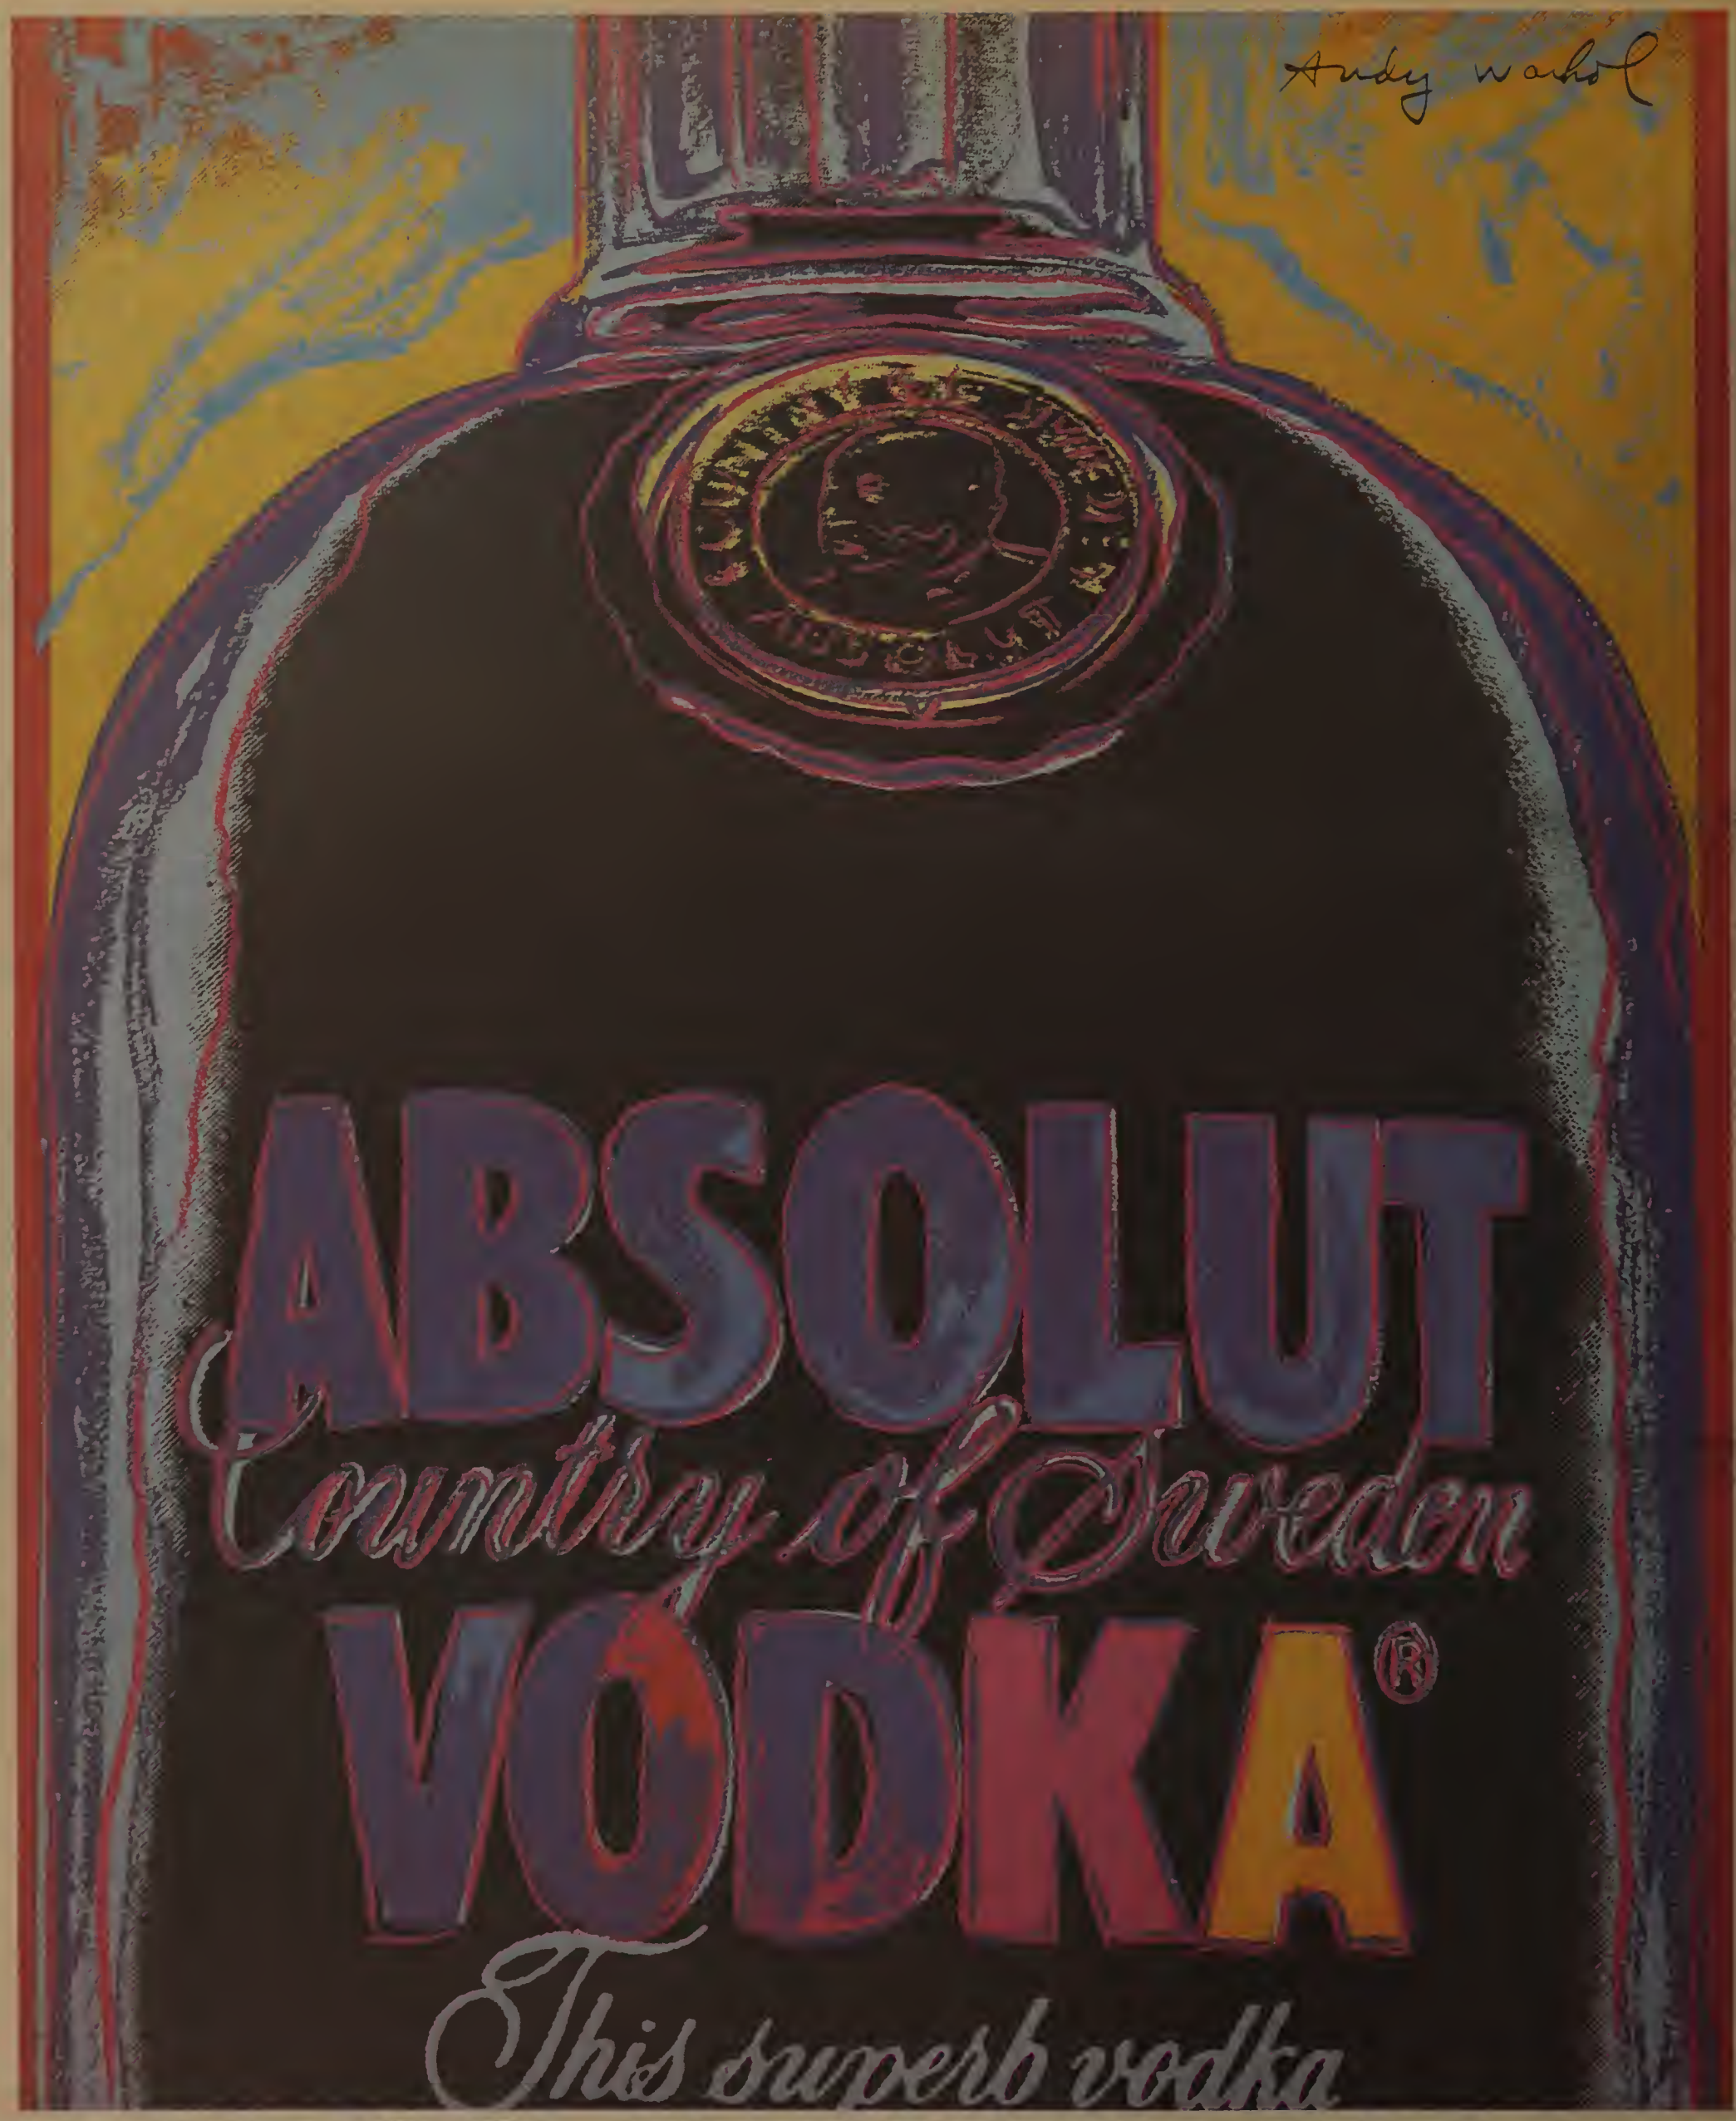
Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures

Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00



Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).

Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

TARGET
Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

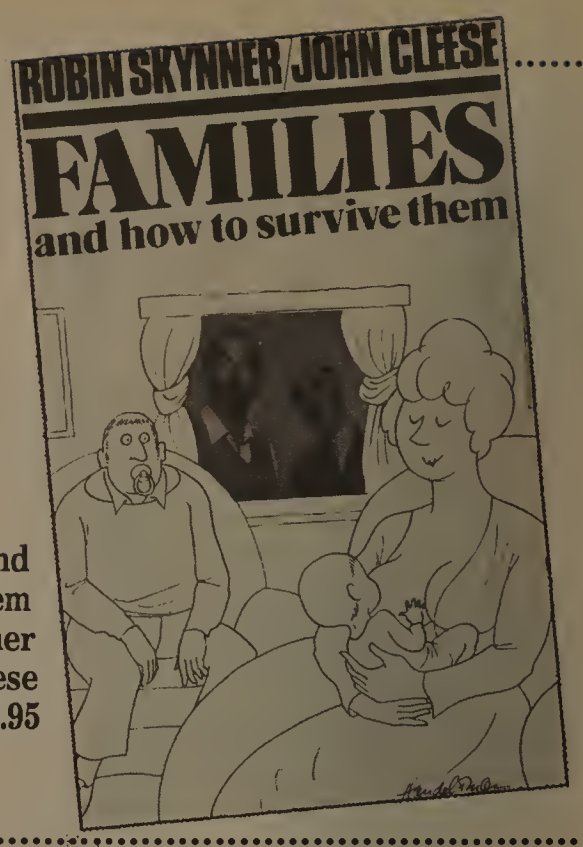
FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. © 1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

The Improper Bostonian

May 13, 1992

FREE
(newsstand price 50c)

Good Job? Good Benefits?
Exploring the World of Professional Vodka Tasting



Interview - Phyllis Diller Shares Her Improper Secrets

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Families You Might Have Met (Hmmm)

Only the English could discuss the long-faced subject of psychology with irreverence. But, in this book, Monty Python's John Cleese and his former therapist, Robin Skynner have behaved with their national breeziness and done just that. Much less earnestly obsequious than Bill Moyers' interviews with Joseph Campbell - but conveying some of the same freight of info - Cleese poses questions to Skynner which he sometimes answers by inquiring back of Cleese what he thinks. Skynner discusses such experiential exercises as the one whereby people are asked to mill around, settling on someone who looks simpatico. They then try to find out why they chose this fit in this intuitive fashion; what comes out is some similarity of family background that turns out to be the X factor. Freudian theory, the school of Object Relations Psychology, Family Therapy and many cushy, lovable, only-partly-pop theories are banteringly teased out, in a mood that sometimes is truly comical, without the two talkers' sacrificing respect for the subject. Only in England could a chapter on babies be called "I'm God And Let's Leave It Like That." A cartoon in an underlying serious book shows a patient shaking hands and saying goodbye to the psychiatrist with, "You've been such a help Doctor. I now feel free enough to beat up my mother." The doctor replies with zest "Wonderful! Let me give you my mother's address."

Families And How To Survive Them by Robin Skynner and John Cleese $9.95

So Green It's Blue

Ecological rectitude comes in many forms, and while much of it is green and good for you (the spinach of purified intentions) many of its manifestations are fun too. The Blue Planet sells practical things like fluorescent low-watt bulbs emanating more light than heat, meshy green bags (not icky-sticky like plastic ones) for recycling your cans, and solid wooden pencils made by the Blackfeet Indians. Paper writing products here range from crunchy speckled pages to vanilla-white ones made into a book by Woodnotes, with library-binding (on which Thoreau might have written Walden). The resourcefully recycled manure of wild animals, giving new stature to the word bullshit, is sold as Zoo Doo; tiny giant sequoias can be planted, and their speedy progress relished. The aesthetic (brightly painted hangers with eagles and other birds boldly carved on them) and the exotic (rain sticks; solid cylinders of bamboo with thousands of tiny seeds which tumble like a pianissimo shower when up-ended) - all ecological - sit next to Harmony Balls, earrings tinkling at the intersection of fashion and eternity. Tapes of nature (available for listening) are popular. And the Wildlife Room has some of the most un-commercial looking stuffed animals ever; intense wolves, penguins, saber-tooth tigers and woolly mammoths. And of course, the cotton, soy-based-ink message of the body: T-shirts. Says Larry Murray of the periodicals, "We have everything from the merely politically correct to the radical."

The Blue Planet
228 Newbury Street, Boston 02116
266-9688

Literary Lights

In that seemingly absent second between looking at this and looking at that, the voyaging head - if it's sweeping past this shimmering tube of color known as a Lightstick - sees an almost frightening apparition of letters wizzing by - writing themselves out in the air. It feels like the return of a half-remembered name or memory, as if maybe some even more submerged pictured memory were coming out in this verbal form, like someone muttering phrases in their sleep.

Artist Bill Bell makes (and can be commissioned to make) these amazing evocative items that are based on Light-Emitting Diodes. At the MIT Museum, the $100 version is a witty, chatty "plant" - a Lightstick in a pot that flashes the names of various flowers. A Grand Central Station Christmas version emanated seasonal pictures (a snowflake and a toy train). For his book-loving wife Jill, he designed one that spurts off the names of about 30 women writers. Not content to sit still, the images are dynamic, but rather than chugging along like lazy-man's neon, it's the looker's head that must zip along - left to right - to tear the word from the diode and into the air, pausing to catch it almost out of the corner of the eye. "Who was that masked man?" Commissions range from several hundred dollars to thousands.

Bill Bell's Lightsticks
Fax number: 277-4736.

Mopsy Strange Kennedy is a freelance writer. She ~~likes~~ loves to receive lots of mail!
Please send all correspondence to:
The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

CONTENTS

May 13, 1992

Features

8 Urban Royalty: An Interview With The King of Kenmore

He's a mixture of all that society has told us is deplorable and yet he has managed to survive the odds while maintaining a solid core of happiness. Read this refreshing interview with one of our city's more Improper Bostonians.

by Leslie Ross

A Thirst For Success 6

In a world offering thousands of job categories, there's one position that got our attention. Mariann Rasmussen is a professional vodka taster for FRĬS Vodka Skandia. Spend a few minutes with Mariann and see why a job like hers requires not only a specialized degree, but a tongue with the Midas touch.

by Tobin Streett

13 The Zany Wit of Phyllis Diller

The Improper Bostonian catches up to Phyllis Diller in between her trips to Hawaii, Bali and Boston to ask her some very important questions. In this rare conversation, we learn of Ms. Diller's comedy origins, her outlook on life and what keeps this 74 year-old whirlwind ticking away.

by Tobin Streett

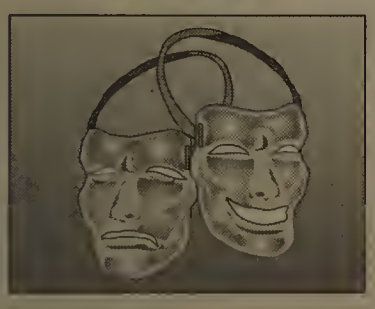
Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Nancy Knows 9
Movies
- Review: Split Seconds 10
- Review: Food For Thought 11
- Interview: Director, Paul Cox 12

Comedy
- Interview: Phyllis Diller 13
- Comedy Listings 13

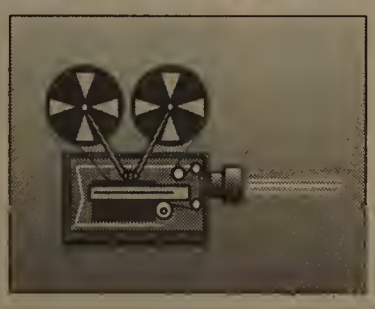
Book Reviews 15
Arts
- Review: Neoclassical and Romantic Works on Paper 14
- Play Review: Lettice and Lovage 15
- Arts Calendar 16



Perspectives... 18
The Leisure Study 20
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: The Rattlesnake 22
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Grand Tour 1992 23
- Appeteasers 24
- Brunch Board 25
- Restaurant Listings 26

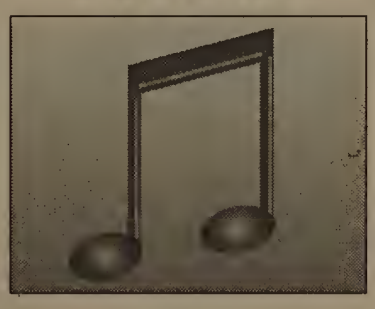
Music
- Review: The Heavy Metal Horns 30
- Album Reviews 31
- Wachtelligence 32

Bar & Club Listings 34
- Grendel's Den 33



Free Boston! 38
Improper Impersonals 33
Crossword 33
Sports Schedules 29
Woman on the Street 31

ARTS



PAGE 14

MOVIES

PAGE 10

MUSIC

PAGE 30

DINING

PAGE 22

COMEDY

PAGE 13

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____

Address_____

City_____State_____Zip_____

Phone(_____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)

Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____

Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Acting Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
NANCY BIRNBAUM, A.J. WACHTEL
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
AL STANKUS, PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Theater Critics
NANCY LEONARD, RACHEL STERN

Contributing Writers
LESLIE ROSS, TIM LEMIRE, JEFF BRISKIN
DAVID FENIGSOHN, PRITHA RAYSIRCAR
SHAWN GOODWIN, DAVID DALEY

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, DAVENPORT CROCKER
JOHN TED, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
ADAM KAYTES

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Consultant
JOE PERSON

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Advertising Design Consultant
STEVE WALKER

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE, JENNIFER MCCANN
ED STAUNTON, PAUL BRODKIN

Leisure Study Boston Skyline Photo by
MELANIE DUNEA

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS
Schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach The Improper Bostonian, mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for conformation. Listings must be received no later than 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 12
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.
Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertisers' businesses.

Corrections for the April 29 Issue: The writer of the White Sands Movie Review was printed incorrectly. The actual writer was Pritha Raysircar.
A photo credit for Micheal Powers' Around Town Joan Baez photo was omitted
Photo credits for Melanie Dunea's Do Blonde's Have More Fun photos were omitted.

On the Cover

Photographer: Sandra Kimball

Model: Suzy Michaels Ford Model Management

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT. WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church
581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

AROUND TOWN

Dare to discover what is lurking in the shadows of Boston's dimly lit streets on SLEUTH & Company's Twilight Mystery Tour, Boston's only evening trolley tour. Enjoy 90 minutes exploring the solved and unsolved crimes of the city's past. Meet the notorious villains, rogues, spies and detectives who have contributed to Boston's historical intrigue. Trace the steps of the Boston Strangler and encounter Captain Kidd on the waterfront. The Twilight Mystery Tour debuts May 14 and will run every Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 7:30pm through June 27. From June 29 to August 29, the tour will add Monday and Wednesday evenings to the schedule. Tickets are $18.50 and group rates are available. To reserve tickets, call SLEUTH & Company at 267-0922.

Conductor John Williams opened the 107th Boston Pops Season on May 6 at Symphony Hall. This year's event sponsored by Lexus, included actress Tyne Daly and 11 year old violinist Sarah Chang as special guests. Highlights for the rest of the season will include music by John Williams from his score to the film Far and Away and music from Beauty and the Beast. Call 266-1200 for more information. Tickets from $10-$32 (Prices may vary for special events). Pops season will run through July 12 with a series of free Esplanade concerts in July.

Come see a powerful show that combines music, dance and narrative to benefit local and national AIDS organizations. Heart Strings: The National Tour, will be at Boston's Colonial Theatre on Friday, May 15 and Saturday, May 16. Joining the national touring cast on Friday evening will be celebrity narrators Marsha Mason, Matthew Broderick (shown above) and Faith Ford. The show is comprised of three acts which convey important messages of AIDS education and volunteer work, and displays portions of the AIDS Memorial Quilt. Admission to the gala is $175 per person; $75 per person for Heart Strings and the post-party only; and $17.50-$35 for a preview performance of Heart Strings on Friday May 15. Tickets are available at The Colonial Theatre box office and all Ticketmaster outlets. For more information, call 266-6906.

Need a good laugh, or two, or three? Catch funny girl Diane Ford headlining at Stitches May 13-16. Nominated five times as Best Female Stand-Up Comedian in a club by the American Comedy Awards, Ford's credits include HBO comedy specials, Diane Ford - One Night Stand and Women of the Night in addition to appearances on Comic Strip Live and An Evening at the Improv. Don't miss her original comedy that has been praised by critics as expressive, poised, earthy, sophisticated and non-militantly feminist. For show times, call Stitches at 424-6995.

Batten down the hatches and hoist the anchor, Matey, because in a two day festival on May 16 and 17, the USS Constitution Museum is hosting its Grand Re-Opening. Part of the re-opening focuses on the two new major exhibits that incorporate the upcoming 1992/93 Drydocking and Inspection of the Constitution. "A Century of Service" is the title of the first exhibit which takes the visitor on a tour through the ship's evolution in the 19th century. Jumping to the present, the second exhibit, "A Look Below the Waterline," centers around the preservation of the Constitution and explains the process of upcoming Drydocking and Inspection. The Museum is open daily 9 to 5pm, and starting June 1 from 9 to 6pm. For more info, call 426-1812.

Attention all beer lovers and aficionados! The first Annual Boston Brewer's Festival will take place May 15-16 at the Boston Park Plaza Castle. Sample the finest hand-finished beer from more than 40 microbreweries in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and the East Coast. In addition to tasting some of Boston's best brew, enjoy live entertainment from local bands including Heavy Metal Horns, Swinging Johnsons and Stovall Brown. The Castle will also provide a wide variety of sumptuous treats. The Festival, produced by Beacon Kendall Entertainment and Jonathan Tremblay Productions, will run four-hour tasting periods beginning at 8pm Friday and again at 1pm and 8pm on Saturday. Admission is $20.00 and tickets are on sale at Ticketmaster locations.

A Woman With A Thirst For Success

Meet Mariann Rasmussen Denmark's #1 Vodka Taster

Mariann Rasmussen never gets in trouble for drinking on the job.

by Tobin Streett

Mariann Rasmussen drinks vodka every day of the week - and gets paid for it. Sound strange? She's not a human guinea pig and she's not an alcoholic. Rasmussen is a rare breed: she's a professional Vodka Taster and Quality Control Manager for FRÏS Vodka Skandia in Copenhagen, Denmark.

In a world where so many people work in jobs for the wrong reasons, it's refreshing to find someone who's truly passionate about and proud of her work.

To some, it may sound like Rasmussen has an ideal job; getting paid to drink vodka. To others, it may sound confusing; What exactly does a Vodka Taster do in her job?

To start, she tests random vodka samples on a daily basis. And in her case, "testing" means sampling the spirits frequently throughout her day. Unlike quality control managers in other fields, Rasmussen must do her drinking every day between the hours of nine to five. "Everyday we taste the vodka. We get samples at least five times a day and check for inconsistencies and impurities so that all of our bottles are the same. Tasting is one of the quality control person's responsibilities." When performing this daring task, she looks for consistency in the pH, Ester, Alcohol and Conductivity levels. Such intimidating terms were easily explained by Rasmussen, who gave us an annotated education on the technical merits of FRÏS Vodka.

Though new to the American market, this five year old product is the only vodka designed to be stored in the freezer. When FRÏS is frozen, the vodka thickens and tastes smoother because of the high level of conductivity (the relationship between the texture of the product and the temperature). "High conductivity gives the vodka a smoother quality," says Rasmussen. We ask that you freeze the vodka for a better feel in the mouth when you drink it. And you should drink it clean." In fact, FRÏS was created to withstand mixers and ice cubes - irritants which break down the consistency of most other vodkas on the market.

> "I need to drink a little to see if it's tasty, but I can't drink it all. Otherwise I'd get drunk all day long."

It took her several years of research and gallons of vodka before Rasmussen and an associate arrived at a recipe which satisfied both their taste buds and those of FRÏS' executive officers. She describes it as having a "slightly sweet after-taste and estery, with a good mouthfeel after you freeze it. Esters have a sweeter taste and even alcohol itself has hints of sweetness. Our vodka is made from grains - not potatoes."

My vision of a group of teetering, drunk Danes dressed in white lab coats soon changed after Rasmussen explained that "tasting" occupied only a small percentage of her time. In addition to her frequent thirst quenching exercises, Rasmussen manages the Laboratory and Product Development Department. Speaking nearly-perfect English, she says, "We develop new products for the whole world, developing all types of spirits, vodka and wine. I graduated from university with a masters degree in Food Science and Technology and have worked with vodka for many years before developing FRÏS Vodka with my associate manager." It's hard not to wonder how Mariann's resume must look (Responsibilities include...drinking vodka at least five times a day...).

We asked Mariann if she was predisposed to the habit of drinking alcohol. "I drink two glasses a day. At work, I drink a little but spit most of it out. I need to drink a little to see if it's tasty, but I can't drink it all. Otherwise I'd get drunk all day long." One might wonder if that would be such a bad thing for a people famous only for a sweet breakfast roll and a dog built like an anorexic pony.

Mariann also has some very interesting views on the subject of intoxication. "Normally, I never get drunk. Two small glasses of vodka a day is good for your health. No more and no less." She attributes one of the reasons for her discipline and that of her fellow Danes to the laws of Denmark. "We have very liberal alcoholic laws. When the Swedes come to Denmark, they get drunk because their laws are more strict. We know how much we can have." (Haven't we all heard that before.) And what does this international vodka expert choose as her choice libation? When she hits the town, Mariann Rasmussen drinks her vodka with a splash of Campari and tonic water.

But she admits, "if you drink it clean and cool it down, that's the best way to drink vodka. Our vodka is designed to be cooled down. It's the conductivity and the ester level that makes it taste so good."

Contrary to how it may sound, a vodka taster's job demands creativity, technical expertise and of course, a tongue with the Midas touch. Rasmussen is trained to taste for alcohol content and esters - both of which she says are distinguishable and have a sweet taste.

Her talent for detecting minute differences in tastes and aromas has been rewarded by FRÏS with more than just free booze and a lifetime's supply of aspirin. Mariann says "We have a special doctor that we go to, so I'm not afraid of seeing him. We have 10 people working in the lab, tasting vodka daily and it's good to have him here."

When asked if intoxication was a job hazard, she laughed, replying with, "I've never seen anyone drunk while working here. It's very professional." Hallelujah Mariann. ❑

Stop spinning your wheels!

If your searching for everything in cycling - you found us.

Belmont Wheelworks
480 Trapelo Rd., Belmont. 489-3577

WHEEL WORKS

Ace Wheelworks
145 Elm St., Somerville. 776-2100

Everything you need in cycling!

IMPORTED
FRÏS
VODKA
SKANDIA
PRODUCED AND BOTTLED
IN COPENHAGEN, DENMARK
45% ALC. / VOL
(90 PROOF)
1 LITER
FRÏS™ Vodka Skandia. 100% Grain Neutral Spirits. 45% Alc./Vol. Hiram Walker & Sons, Inc., Farmington Hills, MI © 1992
Photo: Hans Neleman
THE COLDER THE BETTER

Urban Royalty

An Interview with Mr. Butch - The King of Kenmore

Dennis Stein

by Leslie Ross

As I was popping new batteries into my portable tape recorder, a friend asked me where I was going.

"I'm going to interview Mr. Butch," I replied.

"Mr. Bush?" she shrieked. "Mr. Bush, the President of the United States?"

"Nope," I told her. "Mr. Butch, the King of Kenmore Square."

He wasn't difficult to find. Although I had no appointment - in fact I had never talked with him before - I was fairly certain that he would be where I had last seen him: hanging around in front of the Ratskellar. It's the place where he can usually be found, a tall black man with dred-locks, impressive almost to the point of majesty in a street-wise but approachable way.

I came out of the subway tunnel and there he was, looking out towards the Citgo sign with his back to the Rat.

"Hey Mr. Butch, do you have time for an interview?," I asked him as I walked up.

He looked down, undisturbed. "Okay."

I offered to buy him lunch while we spoke, but he demurred. "You can buy me a six-pack later, though," he suggested.

And sweeping in front of me in his long brown coat (given to him by vintage clothing store Bertha Cools), he held open the door of the Ratskellar, inviting me to join him at a table towards the back by the pinball machine. A guy at the machine offered him a game, but Mr. Butch shook his head.

"I'm doing an interview, man. Maybe later."

Mr. B: What would you like to know about the fantastic Mr. Butch of Kenmore Square?

IB: Have you always been called Mr. Butch?

Mr. B: Butch is my real name. I've always been called that. The Mr. Butch part started after I came to Kenmore, about thirteen years ago. A kid was hassling me, and he started calling me "nigger." I told him it was "Mister Nigger" to him, and after that it went to Mr. Butch.

IB: And you're the Mayor of Kenmore Square?

Mr. B: Actually, I'm the King of Kenmore.

IB: How did that happen?

Mr. B: A few years ago, a print shop was going out of business. The guy who ran it had all these business cards left over, so he printed up some for me that said "Mr. Butch," and then under it, "The Mayor of Kenmore Square." A couple years later, a t-shirt came out that said "King of Kenmore." I guess I got promoted.

IB: Where did you live before Kenmore Square?

Mr. B: I was born in Worcester, Massachusetts - November 2, 1949. Then I came to Boston. First I hitched all over the United States. I know every street road and highway - everything. The first time I went from Boston to Florida, to Chicago, then I came back to Worcester. The second time I went straight to Colorado, then down to Texas, then back to Boston. The third time I went all the way across to California, then up and down the California coast. I did some lumbering work in South Dakota on the way back, and stopped off in Cleveland. Then I came back to Boston. I always come back to Boston. And for the last thirteen years, it's just been Kenmore.

IB: So what do you do with your time? Where do you live?

Mr. B: Most of the time now I just pan-handle. I'm so good at it now, I don't have to work. I think I'm beating the system.

IB: How do you figure that?

Mr. B: Well, everybody else works. And I work everybody else. In a kind way, though. One guy tells me I'm a con man. Another guy tells me I'm a hustler. But most of the time, ol' Butch stays the same. People come up and hang out. Sometimes they give me money. That's nice. I'll take their money if they give it to me. But if not, that's okay, too. I live in a cellar at my friends' place in Brighton. It's nice - there's a bed there, and I can go upstairs and use the running water. The only problem with the cellar is the pipes make sounds in the night.

IB: So what do you do with the rest of your time?

Mr. B: Play the guitar. Smoke weed. Drink beer. Every now and then, I might meet a girl. That's about all there is.

IB: But there's no Mrs. Butch?

Mr. B: Well, there's a girl, but she doesn't want to be Mrs. Butch. I'm kind of the jealous type, and in my experience, women don't like to feel like they're being possessed. So, that's all right.

IB: Kenmore's known as a rock and roll hang-out. Are you at all connected to the music scene?

Mr. B: I'm in a band called Kill Devil. We had a gig at the Middle East on March 4. Nine people came. I was on MTV, too. MTV came around, doing a piece on where Elvis Presley was. They came and asked me where he was.

IB: Where was he?

Mr. B: I told him that he was behind the Rat, reincarnated as a cow. So they went behind the Rat and sure enough, there was a cow there. They were shooting some milk commercials at the School of Photography across the street, so they had brought a cow in. The MTV reporters interviewed the cow: "Is it true that you are Elvis?" And I got credit for it.

IB: You must have seen some changes in Kenmore Square in the last 13 years.

Mr. B: People come and go. I guess the major change would be that Boston University has been buying up a lot of the property. They don't own the Rat yet, but it's one of the few places that's holding out.

IB: Does that bother you?

Mr. B: It has to do with my stand on education. These universities teach the students a lot of things, but they forget to teach them basic things. That's what I believe in. Eating, sleeping, drinking. You just do it and you don't make a big deal. Basic Mr. Butch. If everybody did it my way, they'd be a lot happier.

IB: Did you go to college at all, or did you always have that view on education?

Mr. B: I went to a community college for Emergency Medical Technician, E.M.T. - paramedic stuff. It comes in handy sometimes in Kenmore Square. After the baseball games let out in Fenway park, you get drunk guys stumbling around hurt and bleeding. I always try to help them if I can.

IB: What else makes you happy? Do you have a dog?

Mr. B: You know, I have a tough

(continued on page 12)

Dennis Stein

Nancy Knows

by Nancy Birnbaum

Boston pol Dapper O'Neill and New York City rapper Busta Rhymes appeared together on a national TV talk show, taped here last week. More than once, Busta, with his dread locks, locked horns with Dapper and his yapper. At one point, 19 year-old Busta, who records with Leaders of the New School, told the leader of the old school to "chill." By the way, Dapper gave me a major scoop. As the capper to his career, he'll run for Mayor in the next election. If I was the Dapper, I wouldn't count on Busta's vote. . . and that's a wrap!

It's My Party And I'll Cry If I Want To

Someone who recently received a very warm reaction was Elaine Wood, Public Relations Director for Boston's Hard Rock Cafe. During a post game party for the Ox at the Rock, Elaine was feeling a little bummed that nobody knew it was her birthday. But leave it to Roger Clemens to get the ball rolling. As soon as he found out, he rounded up Wade Boggs, Cal Ripken and Don Henley and led them in a rousing rendition of "Take Me Out To The Ball Game," which for this special occasion, became "Take Me Out For My Birthday."

A New Twist To The Tyson Fight

Closer to home, Nighttalk With Jane Whitney scored a monster coup with the Erinn Cosby-Mike Tyson attempted rape story. Thanks to executive producer Pam Browne and producer Bob Drury Nighttalk attracted worldwide attention for the show they did with Erinn entitled Athletes And Rape. It was taped out at the Needham studio last Wednesday and the producers made sure that an Associated Press reporter and photographer were there. When the AP story hit the wires on Thursday, Nighttalk was deluged with requests for tapes and transcripts from newspapers, radio and TV stations around the world. Not bad for a TV show that's been on the air less than 2 months.

Browne had actually known the story long before anyone when she was tipped off by a former news colleague, living in Miami where Cosby lives. Drury, meanwhile, who comes from an aggressive print journalism background, doggedly pursued Cosby's attorney via letters and phone calls. It eventually paid off.

After the taping, Drury took Cosby and her attorney to dinner at Saraceno's, Drury's favorite haunt in the North End. During dinner, Erinn was even more pointed in her bitterness toward Tyson's supporters, Don King and Donald Trump. "It just kills me that a guy like Trump can take out a full page ad calling for the death penalty for the gang-raped Central Park jogger, but then when his meal ticket (Tyson) is at stake, he tries to buy that monster out of jail. I really wish it had been King or Trump pinned to the floor by that beast for twenty minutes beating on his chest. I would have considered that just deserts."

Nancy Birnbaum is a writer-producer and on-air personaility. She is presently working as a producer on NIGHTTALK WITH JANE WHITNEY. If there's anything that Nancy needs to know, please send it in or call The Improper Bostonian at 232-3507.

Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

The Player
"Hollywood On A Skewer"
Director Robetr Altman (M*A*S*H*, Nashville) comes back with a vengeance in this scathing satire of Hollywood and the sleazebags, backstabbers and bootlickers who make the trash you shell out $7.00 to see. Tim Robbins plays the paranoid movie executive who rises higher with each crime he commits while Whoopi Goldberg plays the detective who stalks him. Greta Scaatchi is the ice goddess with a heart of stone and dozens of stars appear as themselves in inconsequential cameos. From the long opening shot that pays tribute to Orson Welles' Touch of Evil to closeups of classic movie posters that end many scenes, Altman constantly pays tribute to the art of film-making as he skewers the studio alchemists who turn trash into gold. ...J.B.

Ferngully
"Fine Educational Entertainment"
Ferngully uses animation to deliver a strong environmental message for children. The film is a little simplistic but makes an honorable attempt to educate. With fairies and talking animals, the rain forest Is shown as a paradise. Humans arrive to destroy the forest with evil machines, releasing a force called Hexus (Tim Curry) that survives on pollution. Samantha Mathis lends her voice to a fairy who manages to save nature. Robin Williams gives a demented kinetic "performance" as an escaped laboratory bat. His appearance might cheer up adults but Ferngully remains for kids. The film uses humor to provide a valuable lesson about the environment - certainly money well spent. J.A.

White Men Can't Jump
"A Festival of Exuberance"
White Men Can't Jump is a celebration of the no autopsy/no foul world of L.A. street hoop. With the curve of their athletic ability tailing off Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson) and Sidney Deane (Wesley Snipes) have found a niche hustling basketball games. Snipes exudes sweeping, unshakable confidence, raising trash-talking to an art form. Harrelson is a prodigious font of insults, convincing as the "slow, white, geeky chump" necessary for the hustle. Rosie Perez and Tyra Ferrel give the men the strength and direction as their respective partners. This film is a festival of exuberance, driven by good performances, athletic ability and the fine art of insulting someone's mother. A raucous experience. J.A.

Wayne's World
"Worth The Trip"
Wayne's World is so stupid, it will make your belly ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played quite naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control of their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World, but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

Don't Spend Your Time on Split Second
You've Seen it All Before

by Jeff Briskin

Rutger Hauer (left), and Neil Duncan (right) as two cops on the trail of a vicious killer who has an entire city terrorized.

Just when you thought we were free of idiotic sci-fi action movies, Split Second attempts to revive this ossified genre by ripping off its seminal productions.

It's 2008, and global warming has turned London into the Venice of the British Isles, its deteriorating, rat-infested streets knee-deep in Thames River overflow.

This is the world of ex-cop Harley Stone (Rutger Hauer), who's been suspended because he's a borderline psychotic. Seems that his partner was mysteriously killed while they were patrolling a sewer a few years ago, and because Stone was fooling around with the guy's wife, his guilt has made him a little crazy.

His superiors don't like his bad attitude, and the fact that he carries an arsenal of firearms in his coat and lives on coffee and chocolate and combs his hair with a shoe brush and beats the tar out of his fellow cops whenever they get in his way.

Well, some sort of sick murderer starts stalking the streets, brutally dismembering its victims. Stone's sixth sense tells him that the killer is stalking him, a notion only slightly reinforced by a human heart the cheeky psycho leaves in Stone's refrigerator.

Because Stone is the only one who can detect this monster, the chief of police gives him back his badge, under the condition that he partner with uppercrust rookie cop Dick Dirkins (Neil Duncan), an erudite, Oxford-educated "expert" on serial killers.

Stone doesn't like working with anybody, and does his best to make Dirkins' life miserable. But facing a killer they soon realize could very well be Lucifer, they team up in their mission to blow the monster to smithereens, especially after it starts stalking Stone's dead partner's ex-wife (Kim Cattrall, who spends most of her time taking baths in Stone's apartment). Will streams of gunfire send this thing back to Hell where it belongs, or at least until the inevitable sequel? If you've seen this kind of film before, then you know the answer.

Director Tony Maylam clearly likes Ridley Scott, borrowing Bladerunner's doomed future world and Alien's intelligent, toothy beast. He and scriptwriter Gary Scott Thompson also gleefully raid the entire genre of action and horror movies, lifting ideas at will. Hauer's emotionless killing machine is Schwarzenegger without the charisma. The "hunt-the-beastie" scenario is straight out of Predator. A shower-stalking scene nearly echoes Psycho's classic sequence shot for shot. And the banal attempt to make Hauer and Duncan a salt and pepper comedy cop team makes Lethal Weapon look like Hill Street Blues.

Hauer is his usual mean-spirited self here, possessing as much personality as the rats that he shoots for casual fun. Cattrall has little to do other than take showers and become the damsel in distress. Only Duncan, as the slumming aristocrat-cum-cop, is worth watching. He makes the most of his second-banana role, injecting sorely needed wit and charm into this cold and graceless cartoon. If sci-fi action films are your cup o tea, you might enjoy the violence and bloodiness of this film, although there's nothing in it you haven't seen done better elsewhere. For everyone else, Split Second isn't worth your time. ❑

Split Second
An Interstar Release
Directed by
Tony Maylam
Starring Rutger Hauer
Kim Cattrall
Neil Duncan
Alan Armstrong

Answer to Previous Puzzle

M	A	G	I		F	I	O	R	D		M	A	G	N	A		C	A	S	H
I	C	A	N		A	G	R	E	E		A	G	A	I	N		O	L	E	O
S	H	I	F	T	S	O	N	E	S	G	R	O	U	N	D		M	A	L	L
C	E	L	L	O		R	E	F	I	L	E		L	O	I	T	E	R	E	D
			O	N	A		E	R	A				R	I	S	K	S
P	L	O	W	E	D	U	N	D	E	R		L	A	R	O	S	A
E	E	N		R	O	V	E			Y	E	O	M	E	N		C	L	A	D
A	V	E				E	L	S	E		A	C	I	D		A	R	I	S	E
R	E	A	P		T	A	L	K	T	U	R	K	E	Y		S	O	R	E	S
S	E	L	L	E	R	S		I	N	N			N	E	W	S	P	E	A	K
			A	S	E		A	M	A	S	S	E	S		R	A	P
B	L	A	N	K	E	T	S			E	A	P		C	A	D	E	N	C	E
L	O	T	T	E		H	I	T	S	T	H	E	H	A	Y		R	O	A	N
A	S	T	E	R		O	A	R	S		L	E	A	R			T	I	O
B	E	A	R		I	S	N	O	T	A			W	A	L	T		E	N	C
		S	A	N	E	S	T		D	O	W	N	T	O	E	A	R	T	H
	L	A	P	I	S			M	N	O			T	A	R
S	E	C	U	R	E	R	S		F	E	E	B	L	E		R	E	L	E	T
O	V	E	N		C	O	C	K	A	N	D	B	U	L	L	S	T	O	R	Y
L	I	N	C		T	R	I	A	D		A	L	L	A	Y		H	O	O	K
E	S	T	H		S	Y	S	T	S		Y	E	L	L	S		A	P	S	E

Food For Thought - The Famine Within

by Leslie Ross

The Famine Within opened last week at the Coolidge Corner Movie House, exactly one year after the opening of another movie on the same topic, EATING. But while EATING was a semi-comic view of the Woman and Food issue, The Famine Within is a serious documentary examining the severely dictated, societal ideal which pairs off beauty with thinness. It also speaks of the anxiety that women view about their bodies as a result of this fashion-promulgated obsession with thinness.

The fashion industry's standards of beauty are not those of the girl next door.

The Famine Within

At the Coolidge Corner Movie House
Written, Produced and Directed by Katherine Gilday

The average height and weight for a woman in North America is five foot three and a half inches, 144 pounds. Still, the fashion industry assaults us with a recurring image of the "perfect woman," who is nearly six feet tall, at about 120 pounds. So the rest of us - say, 9,999 out of 10,000, walk around all day feeling rotten about ourselves. It's as if it's a game: Thin, thinner, thinnest. The woman who weighs the least wins.

But the woman who weighs the least doesn't always win. In The Famine Within, the sister of a super fashion model tells of seeing a photo of Karen Carpenter shortly before her death from anorexia nervosa. She considered Karen lucky to die so thin. "The other thing I thought was that I wished I could get so thin and not die."

The Famine Within discusses anorexia and bulimia, two food disorders that are now fairly commonly known - especially by the one-in-five women who suffer from one of these tragedies. It also discusses, however, the almost endless anxiety and self-concern that most ordinary women feel about their bodies and the stigma that being overweight has in this society. While The Famine Within doesn't pretend to disclose new insights or evidence into the subject it documents, it does assert a hypothesis that, now that women have "equal opportunity in the workplace," the ideal of success still holds an emphasis on thinness. Even while a woman can be an image of a "worker," she must also be sexually attractive, allowing noone to forget her function of "breeder" as well.

The appearance of such a comprehensive assemblage of information on the topic is important. This thought-provoking film certainly spurns the viewer to seriously examine the problem of women's dissatisfaction with their bodies. It is not surprising that many women look for help in support groups designed to give a realistic perspective to the eating issue, teaching woman to learn their bodies own natural weight and natural hunger/satisfaction mechanisms, without anxiety.

Overall, The Famine Within is a thought-provoking treatment of a serious subject. Viewers can appreciate its design for those without weight and food issues as much as those who may have them. It's one education you shouldn't miss. ❑

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Delicatessen
"Food for Thought"

Squeamish people may be better off eating a burger, but for those with strong stomachs, this bizarre, dark comedy (with a little romance sprinkled in for good seasoning) is destined to become a cult classic: A butcher is somehow able to provide cold cuts to his customers during a meat shortage, while the tenants of his building mysteriously disappear. The plot is original, the dialogue funny, the acting hysterical, and the camera work is first-rate. What more can you ask for? K.M.

Deep Cover
"Shouldn't Be Missed"

An intense and unsettling film, Deep Cover should not be ignored. This dark and shadowy story about an undercover narcotics agent raises interesting questions. It parallels the lives of undercover police officers with those of drug dealers, pointing out that the only difference between the two is in their values. Starring Jeff Goldblum and Larry Fishbone, Deep Cover draws the viewer into a world of mystery and intrigue with a strong message about the persuasion of the underworld. Director Bill Duke has done a wonderful job with a don't-miss film. J.A.

Howard's End
"Enchanting To The Last Frame"

Director Jim Avory gratefully escorts another E.M. Forster novel to the screen in an exploration of familiar Forsterian themes of class antagonism, social convention and the nobility of asserted independence. Helene Bonham Carter stars with Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson in this drama which interweaves the lives of two conflicting and diverse families who are ultimately thrown into a plot involving the deception of a home willed to one of the family members, Helen Schlegel (Carter). Avory has difficulty establishing a host of characters in the first half but ties things together nicely in the second half. A great movie that's sure to stir up some emotions. T.L.

White Sands
"A Disturbing Drama"

White Sands is a disturbing psychological drama which raises alarming questions about identity, ethics and avarice.

For the Deputy Sheriff (Willem Dafoe) of a backwater New Mexico town, livin' is easy until he stumbles upon an unidentified dead man whose attache case contains $5 million in unmarked bills. Within 24 hours, the sheriff's careful investigations explode into a world of covert activities and stealth operations. Leaving behind his protesting wife (Mimi Rogers), and his cautious, by-the-book persona, Dafoe assumes the identity of the dead man in order to solve the murder. Director James Robinson has created a world based upon double identities where the fine lines of distinction between good and evil, and just and unjust, seemingly disappear. P.R.

My Cousin Vinny
"A Barrage of Good Belly Laughs"

The premise of My Cousin Vinny is not complicated; Brooklyn comes to small town Alabama in the form of Vincent Gambini, a lawyer making his "first foray into the trial process." Vinny defends two college students who are tied up in a murder case. When rolling innocently along, My Cousin Vinny serves up barrage of good belly-laughs. Dallying with a plot and actually trying to take the trial seriously are a mistake. Joe Pesci gives a wonderfully over-the top performance and his peculiar style of cross-examination is a long overdue parody of courtroom dramas. Also Marisa Tomei as Vinny's girlfriend is an enjoyable foil to Pesci's antics. My Cousin Vinny is the sort of film that makes you feel better for having seen it. J.A.

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
- A Winner
- A Toss up
- For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
White Men Can't Jump	★	★	◎	★	★	★	★	◎	◎
City of Joy	◎	◎	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	—	🐦	🐦
Sleepwalkers	◎	◎	🐦	🐦	🐦	◎	—	—	—
Beethoven	🐦	🐦	🐦	★	—	—	—	◎	—
Ferngully	★	★	🐦	🐦	★	—	—	◎	—
Wayne's World	★	◎	🐦	🐦	★	◎	◎	🐦	★
Deep Cover	★	◎	★	◎	◎	—	—	◎	◎
White Sands	◎	◎	🐦	🐦	🐦	★	—	◎	—
Basic Instinct	◎	◎	🐦	◎	◎	🐦	◎	🐦	◎
The Babe	🐦	🐦	🐦	★	◎	★	—	★	🐦

Interview

Director Paul Cox Tries A Little Tenderness

by Tim Lemire

Paul Cox, the Australian film director, sits in the Ritz-Carlton tea room in sandals (and dress socks), wearing a tie he was told to wear for Newbury Street's most aristocratic address. In conversation, Cox speaks unabashedly about tenderness and his love for mankind and then aggressively asserts his dedication to making important, vital movies that in their subject and budget-size are directly anti-Hollywood.

Cox's A Woman's Tale is his latest work which is scheduled to open on May 29 for an extended run at the Coolidge Corner Theatre.

A Woman's Tale is the story of Martha, a dignified octogenarian who lives and loves life on her own terms and deals with cancer with acceptance and grace. The film stars Sheila Florence, Australian fixture of stage and screen; Cox, Florence's close friend of twenty years, wrote the screenplay with her in mind and the events in the movie parallel Florence's life, even her descent into death by cancer.

"For years we had this standard joke that I would make a film with [Sheila Florence] and she would be the star," says Cox. "And it was almost too late. When she was dying, she said to me, 'What about your promise?' So I flew into a frenzy and that's how we made the film. She had been given six weeks to live before the film, so we shot it in four weeks. But the film gave her enough incentive to keep on going for another six months."

According to Cox, Florence gave dinner parties after the movie was completed and "lived life to every inch." He says he is very determined to share Florence's appreciation of life with movie audiences and reports that in advance screenings of the movie, audience members say they were moved to share love and life with their grandparents while they still can. "You wouldn't get that similar desire out of most films you see coming from Hollywood," says Cox.

He says it's a great pity that A Woman's Tale will not get the same distribution as a film that would have gone through Hollywood, "but then it would never have had the same integrity either," he says. "Hollywood would never have allowed me to make that film."

Cox regards his movies not as manufactured products, but as political acts - political in the sense that their subject matter doesn't appeal to a massive consumer appetite. It addresses topics such as tenderness, nature, beauty and death. The laid-back, soft-spoken but determined film director refuses to make special-effect juggernauts of movies with top-name stars.

Cox laments that a violent society turns out violent movies that are applauded as great works of art. "As a filmmaker, you have an enormous responsibility," says Cox. "When a movie like Silence of the Lambs gets the Academy Award, it's a bleak day for any filmmaker who tries to make films about people. The people portrayed with such beauty in A Woman's Tale are people we know: our grandparents, the elderly in homes, the aged folk we will become in time." Cox's Martha is a charming example of subtle grace in old age and should not be missed when she arrives on the screen with A Woman's Tale. ❑

Michael Powers

Director Paul Cox has been on the press circuit for six weeks to promote his new film, A Woman's Tale.

New England's Largest Selection of Condoms
Body Oils
Flavorings and now Dental Dams

CONDOM WORLD

PROTECT & SERVE

CONDOM WORLD GIFTS & ACCESSORIES

332 Newbury Street
Boston, MASS 02115 • 617 267-SAFE
137 South Main Street
New Hope, PA • 215 862-2299

An Interview with Mr. Butch

(continued from page 8)

enough time with women. Women like dogs and cats. They're always talking about "kitties" and stuff. Sometimes I meet women who actually prefer dogs and cats to me, a fine specimen of a black man. I can't deal with that kind of stuff. Once I found five hundred dollars on the street. I started handing it out to people. A lot of people - people who had given me money - didn't want to take it. I told them, "take it or you're not my friend any more." So they took it.

IB: Why didn't you keep it?

Mr. B: Oh, you know. I like to make people happy. I took some of the money and went downtown and ate lobster. Then I went to a bar where the bartender didn't like me, and gave him a twenty dollar tip. You should have seen the service that I got! I bought a few beers and left the bartender another five dollars. When I left, you know what he said? He said, "Good-bye, Sir!" Sir!

IB: How long did the five hundred dollars last?

Mr. B: The next day I was back pan-handling. That was a great day though. The next day, some of the people I gave money to came up and gave the money back to me. I said, "No, that was a gift." And they said, "Take it, Butch. I was just keeping it for you." A lot of people did that.

IB: It sounds like you have a lot of friends.

Mr. B: Friendship is what I'm all about. I don't work. I rely on my friends. I help them out when I can, and for

(continued on page 31)

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Mike's MOVIES

Rent 3 Movies
From our list of 200 films.
For 2 Nights
At one low price of $5.50
(+ tax)

557 Tremont St. (At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End 266-9222
Open 10 am to 10 pm; Friday and Saturday until 10:30pm; Sunday noon to 10pm

COMEDY

The Zany Wit of Phyllis Diller

by Tobin Streett

As the recipient of the 1992 Lifetime Achievement award, Phyllis Diller continues to amaze and entertain audiences around the world. Her energy is astounding and she looks nothing like the 74 year-old veteran performer that we'll see on June 5 and 6 at Nick's Comedy Stop in Saugus and Framingham.

Ms. Diller spoke with me last week in one of the most refreshing and interesting conversations I've had to date. Diller is as zany and cheery on the phone as she is on-stage. She shared her opinion on items ranging from religion to her approach to comedy and her secret to thinking and looking young. "My energy is all mental. I don't feel old." Why not? "Plastic surgery. That's why I look young."

Diller wanted to become a performer since she was three years-old. "I never thought I would be a comedian because I never realized I was funny. My husband forced me to try it and ever since then, I've never been out of work." Her career has covered not only comedy but also acting and many years as a concert pianist. Her favorite thing to do these days is TV work. "I love to go on these talk shows." Ms. Diller also mentioned that she loves Dennis Miller's new show but says, "It's far too cerebral for the American public. I love it but I don't think a lot of people will get his humor." Her humor is something that requires constant reevaluation. She writes new material every day. "You have to work with it constantly and try to freshen it up. I've always created my own material. Let me tell you something: No comic starts without writing his own material."

Her advice for comedians new to the comedy scene is to "start with open mic and work, work, work. They should pay attention to material and have an attitude. Get an attitude. I have an attitude. I come out with my hair flying. Energy is mental. It's as simple as that."

In addition to recently completing a movie for early fall release, Diller is writing a children's book with her daughter and is supposed to be working on her autobiography. "Gee, imagine if I told it all."

When she's not performing, Diller spends her time as a gourmet chef in her kitchen. "I love, I love, I love to cook. I play piano and I have a social life."

Is Phyllis Diller an improper comedian? "I'm not improper. Well, I have some improper pets. Or actually, had some. I had three pet cockroaches. They lived for two years and died one at a time. They needed water in a different way than I was told and all died with their heads in the water bowl. They were all males and didn't know diddly-twat. I saw them trying to have sex. It's funny to have them as pets because you usually want to kill them. But what do you give to the woman who has everything."

These are certainly odd gifts for a woman whose eccentricity transcends even her religion. "My religion is kindness and to spread cheer. My philosophy on life is to be kind. I simply don't believe in a heaven or a hell. You make that here on earth. When you die - you die."

Comedy Listings

• Cantab Lounge 489-2115 738 Mass Ave Central Square, Cambridge. Performing at the Cantab Lounge every Sunday night at 8 PM is Renegade Duck; Boston's newest improvisational comedy troupe . Admission is $5.

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 13 thru SUN 17.- Hugh Fink, Laura Kightlinger, Gerroll Bennett. MON 18.- Cross Comedy. TUE 19.- Brian Kiley. WED 20 thru SUN 24.- Jack Mayberry. MON 25.- The Act. TUE 26.- Tom Agna.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat..

WED 13.- Jimmy Smith Comedy Show, Cari Derry, Chris O'Carroll. THUR 14.- Jim David Comedy Showcase, Rich Gustos, Jack Lynch. FRI 15 & SAT 16.- Jim David, Mike Bent, Grant Taylor. SUN 17.- Dave Fitzgerald, Matt Femley, Ace Aceto. MON 18.- Rich Ceisler, Blue Monday Show, Dave Atell, Gerry Thornton. TUE 19.- D.J. Hazard May Madness, Brendon McMahon, Danny Scannell. WED 20.- Jimmy Smith Comedy Hour, Spike Tobin, Big Bob. THU 21.- Chris Zito, Best of Boston Show, Marc Snyder, Sue Costello. FRI 22 & SAT 23.- D.J. Hazard, Brian Frazier, Tom Dunham. SUN 24.- Dave Fitzgeraid Silly Sunday Show, Jon Shirman, Chris McGuire. MON 25.-

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700
Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.
WED 13. thru SUN 17.- Gallagher 2: The Crown Prince of the Sledge-O-Matic. MON 18.- D.J. Hazard, Teri King, Ed Keaney. TUE 19.- John Rogers, Paul Twitchell, Ed Durgin. WED 20.- D.J. Hazard, Tom Sobel, Mike Kent. THU 21.- D.J. Hazard, Dunkin Strauss, Tom Popper. FRI 22 & SAT 23.- Frankie Pace, John Rogers, James Seely. SUN 24.- Joe Richardi, Jimmy Miller, Mark Drews. MON 25.- John Rogers, Bob O'Brien, Jim Chew. TUE 26.- Ken Weinstock, Dan Pacek, Bill Rowe.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• Improvisation-America's Original Comedy Showcase 695-2989, 246 Tremont St., Bos. The Improv is here to stay! This club attracts the best in the business and has weekly showcases. Casual Dress. Tues- Thurs. and Sun., 8:30pm Cover $8 Fri. & Sat., 8:30pm & 10:45pm Cover $12. Mondays are "Best of Boston" Showcase 8:30pm Cover $8.
WED 13 thru SUN 17.- Rocky LaPorte
TUE 19 thru SUN 24.- Monica Piper
TUE 26 thru SUN 31.- Mike McDonald

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE
WED 13.- Bernadette Luckett, Phil Tagliaterri, Richard Voss. THU 14.- Mike Motto, Jim Lauletta, Bernadette Luckett. FRI 15 & SAT 16.- Don Gavin, D.J. Hazard, Mike Motto. SUN 17.- Kevin Knox, Phil Tagliatem, Bernadette Luckett. MON 18.- Somerville Boys Club Benefit with Billy Martin. TUE 19.- "Night of Laughter" benefit for Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America. WED 20.- Bernadette Luckett, Bob Sibel, Tom Hayes. THU 21.- Chance Langton, Bob Sibel, Tom Hayes. FRI 22 & SAT 23.- Steve Sweeney, Tom Cotter, Phil Tagliaterri. SUN 24.- Kevin Knox, Bernadette Luckett, Bob Sibel. MON 25.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin. TUE 26.- Paul D'Angelo, Dan Reddington, Dan Whitney.

We know it's a little early but...Nicks will be official host to Sail Boston, 1992 July 11-16; Comedy get-togethers planned.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

WED 13.- Anthony Clark, Diane Ford. THU 14.- Diane Ford, Al Ducharme. FRI 15 & SAT 16.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Diane Ford, Bill Braudis. SUN 17.- Open Mic Night with Vinnie Favorito. TUE 19.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). WED 20.- Jeff Stilson, Laura Kightlinger, Jackie Flynn. THU 21.- Jeff Stilson, Billy Martin. FRI 22 & SAT 23.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Jeff Stilson, Steve Trilling, Jennifer Hoag. SUN 24.- Open Mic Night with Vinnie Favorito. TUE 26.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

These are seven lines of random words so Dave will know where the new Comedy listing will go when Mark Garrett brings it in, although we're not really sure when that will be. I have to go get something to eat right now (and get a Globe—can't live without the morning paper I'll be writing for some day). Please take messages for all my calls. Thanks a lot. (Signed) Kathy

ARTS

Dichotomy at Work at the MFA

Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790's - 1850's

by Leslie Ross

Until June 29th, the Museum of Fine Arts will exhibit a collection of seventy-five works called Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790s-1850s. Shown in the MFA's Trustman galleries, the collection is well worth viewing, equally for the beauty and expertise displayed in the impressive collection of prints, drawings and illustrated books, as the glimpse into the passionate epoch in history from which the works sprang.

The nineteenth century was an era of upheaval. The Industrial Revolution, which evolved in England through the eighteenth century, created dramatic changes in subsequent decades. The discovery that steam could be harnessed as power led to mechanical innovations applied to industrial and agricultural pursuits. With the population explosion (almost doubling in the years between 1700 and 1800 in England), the world was changing far more quickly than any previous century had seen. As a result of these tremendous changes catapulting through Britain and Europe, modes of artistic expression forked into two schools: the Neoclassical and the Romantic.

In periods of revolution, the pendulum of change swings as far right as it does left. In the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century art, the "right" swing is the neoclassical school of thought. The guiding philosophy of neoclassicism is an emphasis on symmetry and balance, perfectly proportioned designs and logical, rational presentation - in reasoning as well as in art. The Romantic school, on the other hand, represents a wider-range view of the world. Emotional extremes, the beautiful and terrifying aspects of nature and of man, and a dark, gothic sense of atmosphere are themes in Romantic art.

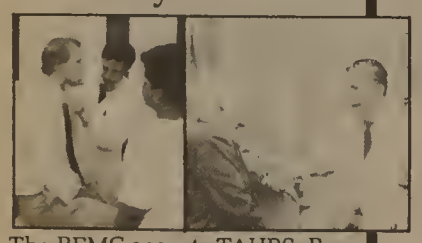
At the MFA's exhibition, these two styles of expression are displayed together in an interesting, and intertwining arrangement. Works are grouped more according to subject theme than style - so the visitor is led back and forth between the Neoclassical and Romantic view. For example, two prints of the Holy Family's Flight into Egypt hang on one wall - presenting dramatically different ideas. In the Neoclassicist Karl F.H. Blechen Lithograph (1828), the three travelers are calm and sedate, confidently traveling along a smooth and well-lit road, apparently without a care in the world. An entirely different interpretation of the same story hangs only a few feet away. Rudolphe Bresdin's etching (1871) shows the Flight into Egypt as a horrific escape, with a tiny, panicked Joseph seeming to glance anxiously around a preoccupied Mary and a precociously aware Christ. There is no road to speak of, only a ferocious forest hanging over them, blocking out all light except that which emanates from the mother and child.

Courtesy of MFA Boston

Beautiful and terrifying views of nature are a romantic theme as in Tigre Royal, 1829 Eugene Delacroix, France, Lithograph

It is interesting to witness these works of art which weave the two styles together, as in John Martin's The Destroying Angel, a mezzotint (1836). This semi-architectural print shows an Egyptian city laid out almost like a relief map - complete with pyramids in the background. The precise symmetrical proportions of the city almost eclipse the drama in the foreground: the wailing and anguish of families whose firstborn sons are dying. The Angel himself passes over; a huge figure swinging through the sky with a face as cool and stony as the buildings over which he hovers. Though his countenance is impassive, lightning breaks out from between the fingers of his clenched fists.

Among the other truly impressive works in this collection are a few original prints by William Blake, hand-colored imaginings on paper which are alone well worth a visit to the MFA. ❑



Courtesy of MFA Boston

The Woman Taken in Adultery (John VII, 8-9) about 1805, William Blake, England, Watercolor

Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790's - 1850's

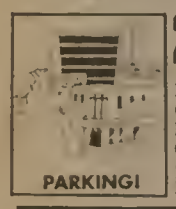
Through June 29 at the Museum of Fine Arts 465 huntington Ave, Boston Tel 267-9300 for more information

We're Specialists . . . in Family Medicine.

Upholding a proud tradition of comprehensive & highly specialized medical care for Women since 1927.

- Comprehensive Medical Examination
- Full Birth Control Services
- Pelvic Exams
- Pap Smears
- PMS Treatment
- Pregnancy Testing
- Premarital Blood Tests
- Stress Management
- Preventative Health
- Menopause Therapy
- Weight Loss Program

The BEMC accepts TAHPS, Bay State, U.S. Health, AETNA, Mass. Blue Cross, Medicare and, most other insurance plans where applicable.



We're also specialists in:

• COMPREHENSIVE PHYSICALS • ALLERGY • HYPERTENSION • CARDIOLOGY • GYNECOLOGY • EAR, NOSE AND THROAT • NUTRITION • NEUROLOGY • MINOR SURGERY • CANCER DETECTION • PEDIATRICS • UROLOGY • DERMATOLOGY • VD • MENTAL HEALTH • CLINICAL LABORATORY • RADIOLOGY

Call 267-7171 for prompt appointment.

AMERICAN EXPRESS VISA MasterCard

PARKING!

267-7171

Located on the Green Line at Hynes Convention Center Stop and with parking garage adjacent. BEMC validation

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

Not just in the evening, anymore. Morning...noon...and nighttime too!

ARTS

Lettice and Loveage

Warm and Witty but Short of Substance

by Tim Lemire

Lettice & Loveage, starring Julie Harris, is a warm and well-acted piece whose relevance is ultimately questionable. Written with wit and inspiration in its first act, it declines markedly as it progresses through its second and third acts, redeemed only by bounteous good spirits and delightful performances.

Harris' Lettice (a diminutive of Laetitia) Douffet is an irrepressible free spirit, temporarily employed by the Preservation Trust to conduct tourists through Fustian House, which could be "the dullest house in England." Determined to overcome boredom and inattention, Lettice is soon embellishing an uneventful anecdote about Queen Elizabeth I into intensely detailed high drama - and inventing other historical fantasies to fill the distressing vacuum.

Her reputation spreads, but not everyone appreciates a "paid fantasist" as tour guide. Her stern superior, Lotte Schoen (played by Roberta Maxwell), is appalled by the lack of honesty and accuracy: "we're guarding a heritage, not running a theatre." Too bad, because Lettice inherited great theatrical genes from her unconventional mother, who toured France with an all-female Shakespearean acting company. The Douffet credo is to "enlarge, enliven, and enlighten" others. Miss Schoen despises the theatre and rejects the defense, whereupon Lettice is dismissed.

This first act is wonderfully witty and engaging. Playwright Peter Shaffer has deftly created a vividly eccentric theatrical character, whose instinctive rebellion against ineffectual conformity and authority we easily applaud. But his inspiration fades, and he doesn't have much more to say. Nevertheless, Michael Blackmore's direction keeps the comedy lively and speedily on track.

Martha Swope

Julie Harris and Roberta Maxwell in a scene from Lettice & Lovage at Boston's Shubert Theatre

A visit to her former employee's apartment, where a strong cordial (containing an herb called loveage) leads to a confessional and unexpected friendship. Unexpectedly, a charge of attempted murder is laid - which, of course, is not what it seems. A touch of "Deathtrap" or "Sleuth" comes into the mix, and the curtain falls on a renewed commitment to life-affirming enterprise. It's a cheery end to a make-weight vehicle.

Shaffer wrote the comedy for Maggie Smith, whose crisp and authoritative eccentricity would counter much of the contrivance. Miss Harris opts for a softer creation - more sweetness, less fire. It's a perfectly winning characterization, but the evening would be richer with Smith's nuance. For example, in the first act, Lettice's rebellion seems so eminently reasonable that there's little dramatic weight on the other side. The softness also minimizes some of the fun in the language - which is spoken a bit casually without much of a British accent - and this tempers our interest along the way.

Roberta Maxwell has some exceptionally fine moments as Lettice's nemesis-turned-confederate. But she begins as too much of a martinet for her transformation to seem more than playwrighting manipulation. Lotte should be exhausted by her rebellious subordinate, not simply exasperated, so that we can glimpse her repressed humanity. There's a splendidly loopy turn by Marylouise Burke as a simple-minded assistant and John Horton is good as a very patient British lawyer.

Alan Tagg has designed a somber, stone-walled Fustian House; a cut-out office set; and a rosy basement apartment, filled with a lifetime's belongings and theatrical memorabilia. The lighting by Ken Billington is nicely atmospheric, though a bit heavy at the close. Anthony Powell and Frank Krenz have designed costumes that are elaborate and apt - adding notable punch at the end of Act One.

Lettice & Loveage means to celebrate the resilient human spirit, which, despite age and adversity, continues to battle the horrible and hideous aspects of modern life. This touring production is warm and vibrantly acted, and ends on a note of good feeling. But, the piece outruns inspiration and its contrived con-

BOOKS

Lightning in a Bottle

by Herbert F. Crehan with James W. Ryan
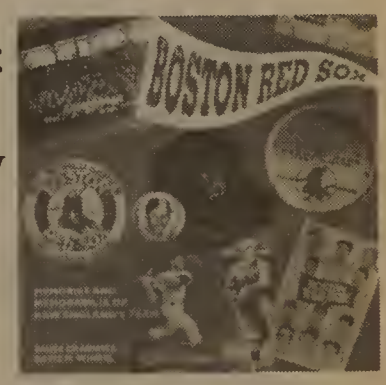
$19.95
Branden Publishing Co., Inc.
Review by Kathy Matheson

"This book is really a love letter," writes Herbert F. Crehan in his book Lightning in a Bottle, "to the team that has played such a large part in my life: the Boston Red Sox."



And so it is, but since when is it legal to read someone else's mail? The premise of this book is that, despite the fact the BoSox were given 100-1 odds by Vegas bookies to win the American League pennant in 1967, they did it. The Sox won the pennant despite the fact their star right fielder Tony Conigliaro was nearly killed by a fastball thrown by California Angel Jack Hamilton. The Sox won the pennant despite the fact they entered the last week of the '67 season "with only a mathematical chance" of capturing the AL title. Hooray for the "Impossible Dream"!

The book (much like the Red Sox) is chock full o' facts and statistics, and looks good on paper; however, it's not going to win anything in the end. Crehan is no Michael Madden or Dan Shaughnessy, and his writing— not very smooth to begin with— often lapses into cliches that create a forced, sappy sense of nostalgia. But any die-hard BoSox fan who routinely overlooks his (or her) team's faults in the name of baseball can do the same with Lightning in a Bottle and be no worse for the wear.

-Kathy Matheson

The Boston Red Sox: Memories and Memorabilia of New England's Team

by Bruce Chadwick
Abbeville Press
$24.95

New Englanders are blessed and burdened with countless loves. Their affair with the Boston Red Sox is certainly one of their most endearing and one that carries both tags of blessing and burden.

The Old Towne Team is seriously dissected and chronicled from Presque Isle to Block Island for six glorious months. And then winter and its attendant Hot Stove League gives everyone a chance to hash over the season while waiting for the next. John Calvin smiles on us all.

The Boston Red Sox: Memories and Memorabilia of New England's Team thankfully refrains from doting on the angst common to most books dealing with New England's favorite team. This nifty book, while it doesn't ignore the pain, is more of a scrapbook. But rather than one kept by a starstruck kid who randomly pastes in ticket stubs, programs, official crying towels, autographed baseball cards, and the like, this "scrapbook-book," has an amazing design sense while it retains that Peter Pan sense of never growing up.

Chronicling the Red Sox from 1901 to the present, memorabilia of all sorts, including Ted Williams' Champ Brand prophylactics and wonderful photos are eye-catchingly displayed. Bruce Chadwick's history that punctuates the pages of memorabilia, while occasionally fawning and incorrectly noting that Dwight Evans was traded (he signed with Baltimore as a free agent), evidences plenty of reporting and recording skills.

-Al Stankus

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

The Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are on sale for "Swan Lake," which runs until May 17. The production is a highly-acclaimed collaboration between the Boston, Kirov and Bolshoi Ballet Companies. Tickets range from $11.75 to $49.95. Call 964-4070 x.230/231 for more information.

Boston University's Sargent Dance Theatre
1 University Road, Boston
BU's Dept. of Physical Education, Recreation and Dance presents a dance concert entitled "Groundwerx and Incollusion" May 15 & 16 at 8pm. Then, BU PERD showcases the Jeannette Neill Dance Studio Scholarship Performance on May 22 at 8pm. For more information, call 262-4307.

PHOTOGRAPHY

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
NESOP presents "Collaged Prints," an exhibition of Kent Kirby's work. Kirby uses the unique but beautiful printing technique known as collotype. His work will be on display through May 14. Gallery hours: Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm.

CLASSICAL

Longy School of Music
at Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
The Longy Guest Artist Series presents works by Dartmouth College composers on May 22 at 8pm. Tickets are $5; call 876-0956 for more information.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Boston Museum Trio, with guest cellist Laura Blustein, perform a Mozart duo, a trio, and both quartets for fortepiano and strings on May 17 at 3pm in Remis Auditorium. Limited tickets remain. Call 267-9300 x306 for more information.

New England Conservatory
at Jordan Hall
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
The NEC hosts The Canadian Brass for its 125th anniversary celebration May 15 at 8pm. Tickets are $25. For information on benefit reception, dinner and post-concert dessert and dancing, call 262-1120, x419.

The Massachusetts Youth Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Daniel Riley, performs at 7:30pm on May 20. Admission is free.

New Opera Theatre Ensemble
at Adams House/Harvard University
26 Plympton St., Cambridge
NOTE has been challenging the traditional boundaries of opera by experimenting in operatic improvisation while also uncovering new truths behind contemporary social issues. Turning their focus to a musical exploration of private lives and public lies, NOTE presents "Categorically Denied" at 8pm May 22, 23, 29, 30 and June 4. Call 266-6669 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
On May 14 &15, the MFA will premiere Color Adjustment: Blacks in Prime Time. Call 267-9300 for more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. From Apr. 7-June 7, the ICA hosts Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, an exhibit that presents an astounding array of over 400 objects that document the emergence of montage. Some have never been shown together before; others have never been seen before in the U.S. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents" features approximately 100 works from the museum's permanent collection by such masters as Monet, Renoir, Tarbell and Cassatt. This is a rare chance to view the original French impressionists' paintings hung next to pieces by American, British, Dutch and other European artists. The exhibit runs through May 17. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Artschwager received critical acclaim in the mid '60s for his quirky representations of furniture and domestic objects such as mirrors and paintings, all featuring formica as the signature material. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!" The nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs returns May 23 and remains on display through Labor Day. Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under. Free admission every Wednesday from 1-5pm during the metropolitan Boston school year.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

On May 17, the MOT will hold its second annual New England Antique, Special Interest & Collector Car Auction. A diverse selection For more information call 522-6547.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 4, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 12. Call 547-8300 for more information.

American Repertory Theatre
at the Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
Highly-acclaimed playwright David Mamet's new play Oleanna will be performed from May 1-24 by the Back Bay Theater Company. This two-character play, the story of a university professor

(continued on following page)

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

617-923-4599
pager line: 617-456-1973

ORIENT EXPRESS
Limousine Service Corp.

AIRPORT SPECIAL

Arlington • Belmont • Downtown Boston
Brookline • Cambridge • Newton • Somerville
Waltham • Watertown
Some Restrictions Apply

$40
per trip - up to 6 people

Winner of the Boston Best Guide Creme de la Creme award!

ARTS

(Theater-continued)

and one of his students, concerns sex, education, love and politics. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
Come laugh with us! Come see Farcenic, also known as This Job is Killing Me, But I Need the Health Benefits. This two-act farce pokes fun at the corporate world as the boss is found dead at her desk and everyone from the senior vice president to the receptionist has confessed to the crime. Runs May 8-16. Tickets are $8. Call 547-6789 for more information.

Centastage
at the Boston Center for the Arts Theatre
539 Tremont St., Boston
Centastage presents Big Sky (it's about cowboys and things) from May 14-30. The production incorporates the standard elements of classic westerns into a musical comedy which boasts a score of 20 Country/Broadway songs. Tickets are $16.25. Call 536-5981 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Sid Caesar & Imogene Coca: Together Again, a hilarious romp through this legendary comedy team's most brilliant and timeless sketches, will come to the Charles Playhouse for a four week limited engagement from May 13-June 7. Call 426-6912 for more information.

Colonnade Hotel
120 Huntington Ave., Boston
Every Saturday evening through May, the Colonnade presents Opera Night, directed by Marshall Hughes. It's an operatic ensemble comprised of professional musical artists committed to "user-friendly" opera which is both fun and versatile and perfect for the elite opera buff as well as the novice listener.

Huntington Theatre
252 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Way of the World begins previews May 22, opens May 27 and runs through June 21. Although William Congreve wrote his brilliant comedy of manners in 1700, the Huntington's production of The Way of the World places the action in the Jazz Age. Rather than ruffles and hoop skirts, central characters Millamant and Mirabell will sport the sleek, sophistication and clean lines of art deco.

Lenox Hotel
710 Boylston St., Boston
The Lenox Hotel presents Manhattan, a 90-minute musical bite of the Big Apple. The revue, combined with the elegance of dining at the Lenox, makes for a wonderful evening. Through May 31. Call 536-5300 for times, ticket information and reservations.

Lyric Stage
140 Clarendon St., Copley Square
The Boston premiere of Timberlake Weterbaker's powerful play Our Country's Good begins Apr. 22. Nominated for several Tony Awards and winner of the Olivier award for Best New Play, this brilliant, moving production hails the redemptive power of art. Runs through May 24. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
The NRT is currently performing A. R. Gurney's The Cocktail Hour, an affectionate play about family reconciliation. The show runs through May 17. Call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

New Theatre, Inc.
at the Community Church of Boston
565 Boylston St., Boston
New Theatre Inc. presents a stunning new drama by Joe Pinaturo called The Raft of the Medusa from May 7-31. Directed by George Contini, Pinaturo's play makes a metaphor for the struggles of people cast adrift by the AIDS crisis today. Performances are Thurs.-Sun. at 8pm; tickets are $10-$12. Call 247-7388 for more information.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Shakespeare's brutal epic Macbeth is transformed into an intimate cycle of song and speech from May 12-16. In this adventurous production, the tragedy about the search for a personal destiny is accompanied by a live band and set in an environmental installation under a suspended forest. Call 625-1300 for more information.
Pilgrim Theatre presents the premiere of Columbus at the Performance Place May 22 at 8pm, with performances continuing through June 7. The play joins the controversy surrounding Columbus' quincentennial with a performance exploring parts of the story you didn't learn in school. Call 625-1300 for more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more info. on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Performing artist and author Spalding Gray will perform his latest monologue, Monster in a Box, May 21 at 6pm in Rabb Lecture Hall. The monologue is a guided tour between the stations in Gray's writing block, which include a field trip to Nicaragua, a disastrous guest appearance at the Moscow Film Festival and a stint in L.A. hunting down the fabled few who have never written a screenplay. Call 536-5400 x336 for more info.

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
On May 13 at 5:30pm, renowned author Joyce Carol Oates will read from her newest book Black Water, a fictionalization of the tragic events surrounding Chappaquiddick. Then, Cambridge author, pediatrician and mother Perri Klass will talk about her book Baby Doctor, which chronicles her rite of passage from intern to doctor, on May 19 at 5:30pm. Admission to both lectures is free, but tickets are necessary. Pick them up at Wordsworth Books (30 Brattle St.) or the box office. Canned goods for the Cambridge Food Pantry Network are being collected at the door. Call 354-5201 for more information.

WORKSHOPS

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
The MOS presents "Science on Nantucket: From the Sea to the Stars." For a change of pace this Memorial Day weekend, take a new look at Nantucket. Both an environmental case study of our changing planet and a historic whaling capital of the world, the island becomes a prime field site for hands-on scientific exploration and observation. Museum staff take course participants through a cranberry bog, on board a scallop fisherman's ship and, after dark, under the dome of the Mitchell observatory. Deadline for registration is May 21. Call 589-0340.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

Silhouettes in Motion - Classic Movement for Actors, Models and Dancers
361 Newbury St., Boston
Call 247-2435 for more information and ask for Dianna.

GALLERIES

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing until June 12 is Roger Muhl: "Recent Lithographs." Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

The Nielson Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston
Paintings by Katherine Porter and Stephen Greene are on view until June 6. For more information, call 266-4835.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont Street, Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in painting and sculptures. A May 14 reception from 6-9pm will show the works of Marek Garlicki. Hours are Tues. and Sat., 9am-5pm and Wed. through Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs until July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

The Vose Galleries
283 Newbury St., Boston
Ernest Albert's beautiful oil paintings of natural landscapes are on view until June. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri., 8am-5:30pm and Sat., 9am-4pm. For more information, call 536-6176.

SPECIAL EVENTS

An Event in 3 Acts
Colonial Theatre and Northeastern University's Mathews Arena
Part of a nationwide tour, this promises to be one of the largest AIDS fundraising events in history. Act One is a new production of the critically-acclaimed musical Heart Strings at 8:30pm on May 16 at the Colonial Theatre; Act Two is the public display of the AIDS Memorial Quilt at N.U. from May 15-17; Act Three is simply a call to action. Call 266-6906 for more information.

AIDS Action Committee
131 Clarendon St., Boston
On May 20, the AAC presents "Answers Plus," a seminar to answer the financial, legal, insurance and job-related questions of men and women who have recently tested HIV positive. The seminar begins at 6:30pm, and confidentiality is assured. For more information, call 437-6200.

Art Newbury Street
Newbury St., Boston
Join us for an afternoon stroll May 17 from 1-5pm along Newbury Street and visit 30 of Boston's finest galleries, who will feature special and ongoing art exhibitions, representing a wide range of periods, styles and media, with an appeal for all palettes. All exhibitions, including the Institute of Contemporary Art (Boylston St.) are free. Jazz and classical music will be performed along the sidewalks, and the Newbury Street Mural (Newbury & Dartmouth streets) is now finished. Call 267-7961 for more information.

Art Deco Society of Boston
The ADSB will host walking tours of Art Deco architecture in downtown Boston in conjunction with the celebration of "Preservation Month" (May). After two years of research, ADSB's first walking tours took place last fall, and the response was overwhelming— 125 people on the waiting list! The last walk for this spring takes place May 16 (raindate: May 30). Call 787-2637 for ticket information.

Boston Rugby Football Club
at Monsignor Daly Field
Nonantum Road, Brighton
The BRFC will host the 11th Coors Boston International Rugby Tournament May 23-25. The 3-day weekend will feature rugby teams from England, Scotland and Wales against top teams from the U.S. and Canada. Three games per day will be played; first kick-off is at noon each day. Admission is $5 per day or $10 for all three days. Call 566-BRFC for more information.

Brain Tumor Society at Wintergarden
222 Berkeley St., Boston
Works by Picasso, Lichtenstein, Rosequist and Jim Dine will join pieces from some of Boston's best galleries on the block this spring in a black-tie auction to benefit the Brain Tumor Society. This gala, called "Color Me Hope," will begin at 7pm on May 16. For more information, call 536-0886.

caffé paradiso
est. 1966
gelati

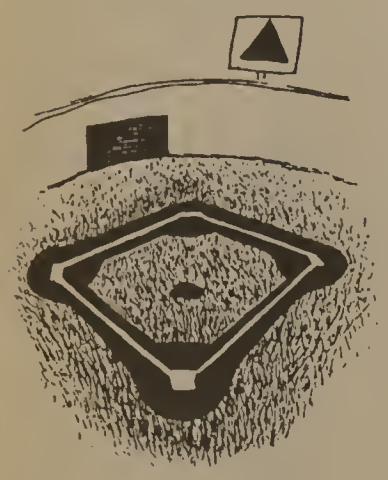
sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs

scotches



soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street
Boston
3 Water Street
Boston
1 Elliot Street
Cambridge
349 Newbury Street
Boston (May '92)

Perspectives Perspectives Perspectives Perspectives Perspectives

Oh, The Places You'll Go

"Whaddya mean Fenway is one of the last great ball parks in America?" If you don't know, it's high time you take yourself and a friend out to a ball game and find out. At $10 a ticket ($7 for bleacher seats), it's a much better date than a movie - you can actually see each other, talk and savor a Fenway Frank. The atmosphere inside is a surreal piece of Americana, with scenery so crisp you feel like you're on TV. As a matter of fact, you are! ---E.C

Somehow - by car, by train or by plane - get to Newport, R.I. and see the mansions which line the Cliff Walk. The walk affords you a stunning view of the ocean on one side and views of gorgeous mansions (circa late 1800s) on the other. After you see their posteriors, walk down Bellevue Avenue (where you'll find the front doors) and go look inside (most of them, including Cornelius Vanderbilt's former home, are open to the public). ---K.M.

Just Hangin' Out

Looking for a lesser known nook to hang out in for a Saturday afternoon? The South Street area between South Station and the outer fringe of Chinatown is chock-full of interesting spots. Start off with breakfast at the Blue Diner (178 Kneeland St.), where you'll find great food served in a funky atmosphere. Around the corner from the diner, the Akin Gallery (entrance at 164 Kneeland) or Global Goods (160 Kneeland) offer everything from alligator dustpans to leopard-skin jackets. Back on South Street, a trio of fine galleries awaits. The Genovese Gallery Annex (195 South St.), the Thomas Segal Gallery (207 South St.) and the Howard Yezerski Gallery (186 South St.) all feature top-quality art in beautiful spaces. ---D.B.

Public Garden/Boston Common. It may sound dumb, but go be a kid again some day when it's warm and sunny. Ride the Swan Boats in the Public Garden and then have a picnic on the Common. Bring a kite, frisbee or anything to throw around and have a good time. ---K.M.

Find someone who has a membership TO Community Boating on the Charles and go sailing. The water may be brown, but you'll be looking at the city's incredible skyline. You'll never view Boston the same way again. ---K.M.

Image Is Everything

If you want to add a little excitement or controversy to your face this spring, check out Coolidge Corner Opticians (278A Harvard St.). They have the best selection of funky and designer glasses this side of N.Y.C. ---E.C.

Just Like New

Trying to support champagne tastes on a beer budget? Keep yourself in slightly used designer labels by shopping at The Closet (175 Newbury St.) for second-hand bargains on very fashionable duds. They have everything from shoes to shirts, leather jackets and an excellent selection of men's wool sport jackets. ---E.C.

Eat, drink and be merry

Wake up, cool off and slim down all at the same time with a skim ice cappuccino from Caffe Graffiti (307 Hanover St.) in the North End. This foamy delight really quenches your thirst and refreshes your spirits. ---E.C.

The Sunset Grill and Tap in Allston wins the Best Beer Bar award every year, and with good reason: 41(!) taps and at least that many bottled beers are available everyday, in addition to great food, atmosphere and the Sox game on TV. And now that they're expanding their dining area, crowds shouldn't be a problem. ---K.M.

Bova's Bakery in the North End. It's open 24 hours, it's cheap, and the food is wonderful - everything from Italian bread to cannoli and pizza to M & M cookies. ---K.M.

Contributors

E.C. - A Philadelphia native, Erica Cantley is assistant to the publisher and a North End resident.

D.B. - Dave Brigham is a Connecticut native currently living in Brighton.

J.L - A native of New Hampshire, Jennifer Lapham is a graduate of Emerson College.

K.M. A Los Angeles native, Kathy Matheson is listings editor and Boston University graduate.

Silhouettes In Motion

Classic Movement for Actors & Models

*see workshop description under Arts Calendar pg.17

Dianna Sanford
361 Newbury Street 247-2435

With faces like ours, who needs another?

Typography
Graphic Design • Illustration
950 Boylston St. • Newton, MA 02161
Phone/Fax: 617-964-5523

Perspectives Perspectives Perspectives Perspectives

The Low Cost Package Deal

When you want to go out and see a band in Boston but can't afford to dish out the usual $10-20 per show, consider the Green Street Grill (280 Green St.) in Central Square, Cambridge. Green Street Grill has a young and friendly atmosphere and a great Monday night line-up. They serve a Creole dinner for less than $8. A live band plays two sets, one during dinner and another after 10pm when anyone can come in - no cover - to enjoy the band. ---J.L.

Feast Your Eyes

These days, chefs in America's greatest restaurants are as well known and publicized as their famous clientele - often more so! If you want to keep your finger on the pulse of this exciting world of artists working in the gastronomic medium, do what they do and rely on Food Arts magazine. It's a beautiful, high quality monthly that bills itself as a magazine for professionals, but it will get the digestive juices flowing for anyone who loves good food and wine. It's difficult to locate on Boston newsstands, but you can call 1-800-536-3371 to order your own subscriptions. ---E.C.

Can You Still Read?

Are you yearning for a major change of scenery, but can't afford airfare to Europe this spring? Travel with Ernest Hemingway to Pamplona, Spain to see the running of the bulls and sit and drink in sun-soaked cafes all day long. Once you've read The Sun 10.5 Rises, you'll swear you've been there.

A Wrinkle in Time by Madeleine L'Engle is another great escape read. It's a feel-good fantasy for the young at heart; the story of two children who "tesser" through time to save their father, who is being held prisoner on a "dark planet" where everyone is alike and ruled by a huge evil brain called IT. ---E.C.

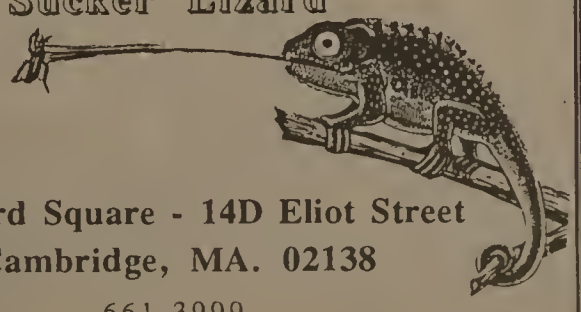
Avenue Victor Hugo Bookstore (339 Newbury St.) is a treasure chest of rare, new and used books. Rumor has it you need a degree in literature to work there. ---K.M.

You Are What You Watch

Frank Sinatra weighing-in at 125 lbs? Marlon Brando singing love songs? May sound hard to believe, but in the brilliant 1955 classic rendition of Guys and Dolls, you will see both of these oddities, along with a plethora of slick two-bit gamblers and dance-hall girls living in a cardboard cut-out Manhattan landscape. The poetic lyrics and catchy show tunes weave one of the most purely enjoyable videos out there to rent. ---E.C.

"It was my dream to open a gallery/ salon in Boston's South End" It is a place people can enjoy stopping by, whether they have an appointment or not.

544 Tremont St.
Boston, Mass
451-2050



Coco's offers the very highest quality of client services in an attractive, comfortable setting; so unlike the madness & mayhem of the Newbury St. scene.
Quite simply, Coco's is a place you can visit and leave feeling and looking great.

In the heart of Boston's South End.
Across from Boston Center for the Arts.

the funny farm
"Where Toys Come to Life"

the funny farm is a place where the irreverent adult, fun-loving child or supervised pet can come to play with wind-ups, battery operated animals, bathtub toys & other silly stuff.

Find our store and receive a complimentary
Sucker Lizard

Harvard Square - 14D Eliot Street
Cambridge, MA. 02138
661-3999

Shipping available & batteries ARE always included!

The greatest sites in history are on the horizon

The Vantage Points of BOSTON© PROJECT

The event everyone is looking forward to

Clear Ad Vantage
design concepts

Putting the future in the best perspective.

rising soon

©1992 Steven M. Walker

A What, Where, When and H

The Leisu

It's ESSCENTIAL

Spring revives winter-weary Bostonians. Suddenly, people stripped of their bulky layers walk with an insouciant bounce; Frisbees hum through the air; even the Charles glimmers. Celebrate the demise of your head colds! Relish the aroma of fresh growing things! Better yet, walk into AROMIX, a tiny jewel of a store in the Garage at Harvard Square and enlist Heidi McDevitt as your personal spring consultant. She will mix any number of 120 natural oils into a tailor made signature scent, after-shave, cologne or lotion. Leave aside your pungent patchoulii college dorm memories: choose between soothing cucumber, snappy citron, elegant cedar or unabashedly romantic gardenia. It's therapeutic and sexy, so go with the one you love or would like to get to know . . . Scentuality can be yours for $15 or less. Call 864-0039 for more information.

Melanie Dunea

Are you one of tho away so all of tho
that when you lea
for all of you night owls
Chau Chow Restaurant from 10-2am during the that may take you all nigh able prices. In the words once-a-month ritual, "Aft Chow's seafood dishes are cious cooking style. Try t whole fish (usually flounder or grey sole) fried with bones and
all. This dish is cooked to such perfection, you can't even taste the bones.
There are usually lines (yes, even at 2am) but, they are short and quick. So next time you barely

Shorts, Copperone and

Oh... Natural

So, you recycle your bottles and can , you don't use Styrofoam and you take our o n to the grocery store, and you think iat m k you environmentally correct? Just when u thoug you couldn't possibly be more "green" cons ous , nev company takes environmentally-friendly items kin deep The Natural Zone's two stores (One in Newton and one in the Atrium Mall in Chestnut Hill) offer a ide variety of organic beauty products to keep you d the ea beautiful. The Newton location offers produ s and se such as herbal facials, massages, and Natural Zone owner Olga Aginsky offers a beauty products that sets her apart from other oducts companies. ginsky and her staff select th products from a ix of companies, instead of to you the whole one company (Sou . "We don't fit the products we sell, we s Aginsky. They ha s soaps, bathing her to ake-up and even to a bath using bath d by Cle a cent

Michael Powers

...w Guide for Your Free Time

...RE Study

...Insomniac's Delight

...souls who work at places where others play? Slaving ...fivers can relax and enjoy a good meal only to find ...the city is virtually closed? Here's some good news ...for you. Nile on the graveyard shift for whatever reason. ...at the heart of Chinatown, serves great Chinese food ...9 pm to 4am on the weekends. They have a huge menu ...and pride themselves on high quality food at reason... ...very satisfied customer who's made Chau Chow's a ...it's the best food in Boston - bar none." Chau ...popular and are hailed for their freshness and deli... ...or oysters in black bean or the crispy fish - a

...ring New England Style

Nothing would be more enjoyable right now than cruising down a snow covered trail or "shredding some bumps." Although many ski areas up north have ...for the season, there is still great skiing ...and the conditions are prime. ...ington, Vermont reports spring conditions with a one to seven foot base. They still have ...open trails on over 24 miles of terrain on 4 ...ions. Killington boasts the longest ski ...in the east and they anticipate quality ...well into June. Frank Cassano of 20's ...rant & Bar in Bridgewater, Vermont ...ds us that the equivalent of three sto... ...now covers Superstar, a trail which ...enges the limits of any thrill-seeking ...And you don't have to be a ...expert to ...the mental atmosphere of the ...hot tubs, dancing and sun deck par...

With the old "corn now" you ...on't even ...to dampen those edges. Just grab a pair ...and head for the ...For more information, ...the ...Vacation Line at (800) 62... ...Frank's excellent restaurant & ...(802) 672-3180. Enjoy your run! (and ...Frankman Rayme is pretty ...

Melanie Dunea

Please, Oh Please - No More Chili!

Some like it hot! Find out how you like it at the first annual Coors Chilifest on Sunday, May 17 from 12-6pm at Marine International Park in Boston. Jump from booth to booth tasting as much chili as your system can handle and then cast your vote to elect the 1992 "Chili Champ." Twenty-nine area restaurants will be participating - including Hampshire House/Bull & Finch Pub, A Steak in the Neighborhood and Porter House Cafe in Cambridge. While your "chili-ing out," enjoy continuous live musical entertainment. Admission is $6 ($3 for children under 12 and senior citizens). Proceeds will benefit Horizons For Youth, enabling the nonprofit organization to continue providing quality environmental education and camping programs for disadvantaged children. So line your stomach, come down and help a good cause. Marine Industrial Park is located at 660 Summer Street. Ample parking is available and for those walking or taking public transportation, shuttle service will be provided by Boston Trolley Tours between the South Station T stop and the Chilifest. For more information, call 828-7550.

LA TRENDS

In spite of the current state of affairs in L.A., there are still trends to be set and people in Boston are on a need-to-know basis. "One thing," says Louis C. Horowicz, our L.A. Trends Analyst "is this obsession with skin maintenance. In light of an increasing number of skin irritants in our atmosphere, dermatologists are actively and publicly supporting a trend begun by the Penumbras." The Penumbras are a group of well-intentioned bikers who pedal around in the shade. Using a reinforced canvas strap, they attach traditional-length umbrellas to their backs to shade their skin from damaging solar radiation. This way, they can still exercise, but without exposing their skin to the ill effects of the sun. "I actually tried this myself," says Horowicz. "But it's best to attempt this riding style in a parking lot to acclimate yourself to the persuasive forces of the wind. The PCH (Pacific Coast Highway) is the last place that you want this to happen."

Melanie Dunea

Nightlife Analyst Rat Mac is unfortunately unable to comment on the newest nighttime ...rends in the city of angels. An uninvited accident has left the Rat in a rather unfortunate situ... ...tion which has forced him to recuperate on his yacht. While installing an aqua-spur to his surfboard, Rat Mac was injured after it misfired and exploded - blowing off the back section of his board and causing severe nerve damage to his feet. Aqua Spurs are miniaturized motors, (similar in fashion to the blending apparatus of a commercial bar blender) which propel surfboards at speeds of up to 10 miles ...r hour. Their primary use is to get the ...rfer out to the ...as fast as ...sible.

Melanie Dunea

While out of ...commission ...Rat Mac ...l be researchi... the best ne... Nightlife trends f... our next issue. Send all Rat Mac fan ... to The ...roper ...tonian, 17 ...ston Street, Brookli... Ma. ...

DINING

The Moveable Feast

You'll Enjoy the Bite of The Rattlesnake Bar & Grill

by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

Of all the restaurants to have come and gone at this second floor location, the Rattlesnake is far and away the liveliest. A huge bar runs the length of the room, providing the focal point for the early evening crowds who come to hang out, graze on appetizers and drink margaritas (their tequila selection is impressive). On our visits, the noise level was excessive; loud music competes with the TVs and the bar patrons' efforts at conversation. We understand, however, that the loud music problem has been corrected, so our past reservations about the Rattlesnake are no longer valid. It's now more of a restaurant than a bar.

The cuisine here is described as "Food of the Americas," i.e. dishes that have evolved from a blending of Native American with New World products and cuisines. You can't go wrong with any of the appetizers, though our favorite by far was the sate with romesco sauce ($3.95), which adds a Caribbean twist to this classic Indonesian dish. The accras with cilantro mousseline ($3.75) combines fried salt cod with a very light batter that's served with a sauce of yogurt, chives, lemon and peppers. Taquitos with mango relish ($4.25) are mini burritos with a choice of beef, chicken or chorizo. We couldn't really taste our chorizo, but the relish was outstanding, and had a decided "buzz." Three soups are on the menu, too, and we can hardly find enough words of praise for the one we tried: the very creamy, spicy conch, shrimp and corn chowder ($3.75). The conch was nicely tender, and the accompanying corn chips provided an agreeable counterpoint.

Entrees range from $4.75-$15.95 and include a large selection of quesadillas (yet untried). The catfish blaff ($9.95) was one of our favorites: poached in a marinade of lime, garlic, scallions, wine and chilis, this dish is truly something many folks will order on return visits. Our waitress warned us that you either love or hate the pepperpot stew ($10.95), which contains chicken, beef, kale, garlic and spices. The predominant flavor is cinnamon, which may not appeal to everyone. Out of all the dishes we sampled, only two were the subjects of controversy. Seafood sausage ($14.95) received one vote of lethal hot and one of rather bland (perhaps the chef mixed the ingredients unevenly?); however, we agreed that the accompanying chili-cilantro cream sauce was good. Similarly, one of us enjoyed the subtle flavoring of the chicken cilantro ($8.95 and one of the most popular dishes on the menu), while the other found it rather dull after the assertively spiced appetizers.

Michael Powers

Patrons enjoy their drinks at the Rattlesnake's Urban Canyon

Among the dessert selections, we sampled the grilled fruit with minted hot fudge sauce ($3.95). The fruit was interesting, and the sauce, while pleasant enough, wasn't enough to make this our favorite dessert. The sweet potato pecan pie ($3.95) wins our vote for the Rattlesnake's best post-entrée treat, lending a sensuous and rich finish to the meal.

The Rattlesnake Bar and Grill

382 Boylston St. Boston
tel. 859-8555
Credit Cards: Everything but Discover
Reservations: None.
Handicapped: Eleavtor to the second floor; bathrooms not accessible

For those who enjoy the pleasure of an outdoor cafe without the distraction of street traffic and exhaust fumes, the Rattlesnake offers a large roofdeck, appropriately named the Urban Canyon. The Canyon is a great warm weather spot to enjoy not only a meal, but one of the Snake's custom margaritas made from your choice of eight tequilas. They're the only thing at the Rattlesnake that will bite. ❑

Take a trip to the country in the heart of the city.

Here at Fresh Louie's you can get the absolute freshest fish, and the freshest, most extensive selection of produce in the Back Bay. We also offer service that is rivaled only by our quality. And if that's not enough, we'd like to mention our fresh daily salad bar, farm fresh milk; and eggs; and bread that's baked on the premise twice a day.

For a minimun purchase of $10, you can have 30 mins of validated free parking right next door! And if you're ever dissatisfied with our products, we'll double your money back.

Free delivery is available with a $5 minimum purchase.

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon - Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9 am - 7 pm, Sun 12 - 5 pm

349A Newbury St. Lower Level, Boston 247-1474

BBQ RIBS ARE NOT ALL THE SAME
EXPERIENCE THE BEST AT THE

WATCH OUT REDBONES, EAST COAST GRILL, BOB THE CHEF, & THE ORIGINAL SPORTS SALOON. (YES THIS IS A CHALLENGE).....

LOADING ZONE
150 KNEELAND STREET
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
(617) 695 0087

In the Realm of the Spirits

Grand Tour 1992

by Al Stankus

Recently, Boston played host to a world tour much different than those staged by acts like Madonna and U2. Like those which celebrate pop, the Grand Tour 1992 played to excited fans, made converts and saw an increase in sales - each of which can be tied to getting a live taste. In this case, the taste was Champagne, wine and port.

Organized by Frederick Wildman and Sons (the esteemed New York wine importer), the Grand Tour gathers some of the Old World's best winemakers and brings them up front and personal to the public.

For this edition of the Grand Tour, Wildman brought to Boston the winemakers from Domaine Leflaive, Chateau Fuisse, J. Moreau et Fils, Champagne Pol Roger, Melini, Paul Jaboulet Aine and Cockburn's Port - a group that Patrick Leflaive winkingly referred to as, "The five frogs, an Englishman and one Italian."

The night following a grand tasting which drew almost 700 people to the World Trade Center, the Hotel Meridien hosted the winemakers and the press to a lunch in its Julien dining room.

Seven wines were served, beginning with the luscious, toasty, full-bodied Champagne Pol Roger "Cuvee Winston Churchill" 1985 and concluding with Cockburn's 1987 Quinta do Tua Port, a rich, thick wine that was still a pup. From the kitchen, Andre Chouvin, the Meridien's wunderkind chef, played the wine and food game to the max.

For Leflaive's luscious 1988 Corton Charlemagne - an amazingly rich wine that year after year is recognized as one of the world's great white wines - Chouvin, not wanting to hide the wine with a heavy dish, served sautéed John Dory filets napped with a sweet red pepper sauce.

Preceding this, the 1988 Moreau "Clos des Hospices," a Chablis Grand Cru whose bountiful flavor and bouquet are in large measure the result of Christian Moreau's refusal to use oak, was paired with a terrine of smoked salmon and halibut set on vermicelli studded with caviar. The match brought out the crisp, clean elegance of both the food and the wine.

Nunzio Capruso introduced his rich, soft 1987 Chianti and, through an interpreter, expressed disappointment that his 1986 Coltri, a Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon blend hadn't made it with him to Boston. "This wine [the Chianti] is frankly not our best," he said. "In all of Tuscany, 1987 was a tough year. But our Coltri from 1986 is the true expression of what Melini can do."

Capruso's sorrow echoes the way any great tour works. The Grand Tour 1992 brought out plenty of old favorites like Chateau Fuisse, introduced a new star, Jaboulet's massive, raw-boned 1990 Chateauneuf du Pape, a wine that will continue to improve for upwards of 20 years, and set us up for more with Melini's 1986 Coltri.

The wines of the Grand Tour, imported by Frederick Wildman and Sons, are sold at Boston's leading wine stores. ❑

Cornucopia

CAFE
New Café Menu priced 3-8 dollars. Fun, quick & hip.
Conversations co-sponsored by the Women's Heritage Foundation are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month from 5:00-7:00 pm.($10/p)

WINE & FOOD PAIRINGS
4 Wines / 2 Courses with an informal presentation & discussion
Wednesdays 6-8pm reservations required $20/person

SPRING VINTNER DINNERS
MAY 20 East vs. West
East Coast Wines compared to their counterparts from the Pacific Northwest
JUNE 3 Roast Chicken & Wine
Which one to serve with this most popular dish
JUNE 17 Champagne or California Sparkling Wine
The American Sparklers vs. the Real Thing
($30/p)

A 4-Course Dinner with Wines to compliment each course held at 6pm,$50/p. Reservations required.
JUNE 2 Dinner with Michaela Rodeno, CEO of St. Supery Winery in Napa Valley,and founder of Women for Wine Sense

15 West Street Downtown Boston
Telephone 338.4600
Validated Parking at Lafayette Garage

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

DINING

Appeteasers

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

If you like Indian food, check out the lunch buffet served up at the Bombay Club, Harvard Square's newest Indian restaurant. The 10 course buffet costs only $5.95. Address is 57 JFK St., tel. 661-8100.

Spice Me Up

And while on the subject of Indian food, preparing it at home can be satisfying but rather time consuming; one solution is to look for the products put out by East India Spice Inc. Their Instant India can elevate a meal to new heights, and their newest creation, Punjab Hot & Spicy, was created in response to requests for a hotter curry paste. If you can't find it at your local store, you can order by mail by calling 868-3539.

Jolly Good Tea

Why not pamper yourself for once? After a lapse of several years, the very elegant Tea Court at the Copley Plaza Hotel has resumed serving light meals. Choose from continental breakfast starting at 6:30am, "light fare" from 11:30am, or (and this is our absolute favorite) traditional afternoon tea - complete with finger sandwiches and cakes between 3 and 5pm. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres are served from 5pm, and piano music is played from 6-9pm.

Words To Eat By

Jerry Rubin, owner of Just Cookbooks in the Porter Square Exchange tells us his new cookbook has just been published. Entitled Old Boston Faire, it includes photos of Boston in days gone by, and traditional New England recipes. Also, author Lynn Harris and illustrator Chris Kalb will be at his store to autograph copies of their book Tray Gourmet: Be Your Own Chef in College Cafeterias on May 16 from 2-4pm. For more information, call 864-0006.

The Name Game

If Le Grand Cafe at 651 Boylston St., Boston is one of your favorite places, you may have noticed some changes lately. Don't be alarmed, it hasn't changed hands, it's just been renovated, and while doing so, adopted a new name - Geoffrey's Cafe/Bar. There's a new Spring menu in place, too. For more information, call 437-6400.

Flavor By Mail

Dried herbs and spices deteriorate quickly, and there's no need to buy more. Fill your needs by mail from Spice It Up, a comprehensive catalog crammed with information and cooking hints. To be placed on the mailing list, write to 955 Mass Ave., Suite 364, Cambridge, MA 02139.

Help for the hungry.

Times are especially tough these days for the homeless and people on a low income. If you know anyone in Cambridge who could do with some help, perhaps you could pass this information along to them. Free meals are available daily, as follows: Sundays: Salvation Army, 402 Mass Ave at 4pm; Mondays: Mass Ave Baptist Church, 146 Hampshire St. at 6pm; Tuesdays: Committee of Elders, 15 Pearl St., at 5:30 and First Parish Church, 3 Church St. at 6pm; Wednesdays: Committee of Elders, 15 Pearl St. at 5:30; Thursdays: Harvard Square Meals, Christ Church, 0 Garden St. at 6pm; Fridays: Mass Ave Baptist Church, 146 Hampshire St. at 6pm; Saturdays: Pilgrim Congregational Church, 35 Magazine St. at 6pm. Needless to say, all these places need volunteers. We'll cover other areas in future issues. ❑

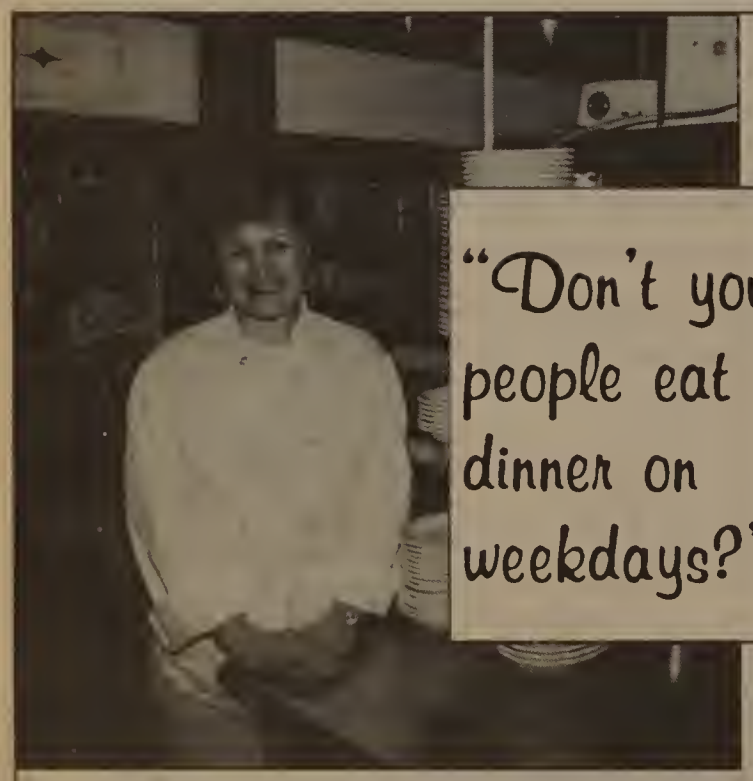
Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each Gloucester Clam Chowder $1.95
Entrees
(names taken from wonderful points of interest in and around beautiful Cape Ann)

OLD HOUSE COVE 9.95 (Fresh Gloucester Schrod w/ a light breading)
OLD STAGE FORT 9.95 (Baked Stuffed Chicken Breast w/ Gravy & Cranberry Sauce)
HIGH POPPLES 8.95 (Baked Stuffed Fillet of Sole w/Lobster Sauce)
WHARF BEACH 7.95 (Broiled Sirloin Marinated Tips w/ Mushroom Sauce)

On The Waterfront 25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007



Enjoy a taste of spring at Joyce Chen.

For many, asparagus is a welcome sign of spring. This season, for a limited time, you'll find lots of new ways to love it. Like Chicken Macadamia with Asparagus or Wok-Seared Shrimp with Asparagus – all healthfully prepared using the freshest ingredients.

JOYCE CHEN RESTAURANT

Available for take-out or downtown Boston delivery.
Boston: 115 Stuart St., Theatre District (617) 720-1331
Cambridge: 390 Rindge Ave. (617) 492-7373

Come for our Penne al Pomodoro e Basilico!
Famous in and outside of Boston, this entrée makes believers out of first time diners: tubular pasta sautéed with garlic, oil, butter, fresh tomato and basil.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

TAKE OFF WITH THE ROCKET

The Original Sports Saloon Launches the Boys of Summer with the "Pitcher of the Week" Baseball Promotion.
Pick the best performing pitcher in the American and National Leagues and win great weekly prizes. Plus each week there'll be a cold frosty Pitcher of Beer at a terrific price. So come on in and play ball.

SPORTS The Original SALOON

CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY • (617) 536-1004
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Ciao Bella
240A Newbury St., Bos. 536-2626
Mangia bene! Indulge in this traditional brunch with Italian specials. Relax in the cool interior dining area, surrounded by granite tables and a granite bar. Try the frittata or torta Milanese! Sun. 11:30-3:30pm.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Pour House
909 Boylston St., Bos. 236-1767
The Pour House isn't just for lunch and dinner anymore. Rated by Zagat's Guide as among the top ten best values in town, the "House" serves a Sunday brunch with a great selection of french toast specialties. It's hard to choose between any of their Cajun Sausage and eggs or their selection of many healthy-portioned omelettes. Dress casual and don't worry, you won't be rushed out.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

ARARAT RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos, and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with salad

Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Tabouleh, and Yalanji
with Rice Pilaf

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

BIG DATE?

Our lobster is sure to impress.

JUST HANGING OUT?

How about fried clams and some of our terrific beers?

More kinds of great seafood than any other restaurant in town. And though it may be IMPROPER, we also have chicken and steak!

LEGAL SEA FOODS
OYSTER BAR ✦ RESTAURANT

There's always a reason to go to LEGAL'S

Park Plaza - 35 Columbus Avenue
Statler Bldg. - 27 Columbus Ave
Copley Place - 100 Huntington Avenue
Cambridge - Kendall Sq., 5 Cambridge Ctr.

Also at Chestnut Hill Shopping Center, Burlington Mall, Route 9, Natick and Worcester, opposite the Centrum.

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

A Bar Cafe, 111 Dartmouth St., Bos. 353-0159 $$
If you have a yearning for Euro-American fare in hip-hop surroundings or want to check out one of Boston's nicest bars. A Bar will whet more than your appetite. Electric decor, featuring fuchsia walls, lemon yellow upholstery and a sleek white bar accompany a fine menu and music selection. Don't be surprised if people start dancing late night as the music funks up. DJ Fri and Sat nights and Brian Walkley Jazz band Sun 9-11pm. Try the Valenciana Pizza, a delectable concoction of cheese, chicken, sausage and black olives, tomatoes and herbs.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V $$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's, 54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel 426-1111 A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500 A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878 D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef, 604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V $$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Choose from a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees and grilled fresh native seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am-11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti 307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Café Marliave
10 Bosworth St., Boston 423-6340 $$
If you're an aspiring poet, there's a special place here for you: The Poet's Corner. On the sun-filled roof garden is where the famous American poet John B. O'Reilly was inspired to write his best works. If you're looking for delicious food, there are 14 pasta sauces here to tempt every Bostonian, a spacious glassed-in cocktail roof garden and a wonderful family to make you feel at home. See ad on left.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., 523- 9498
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

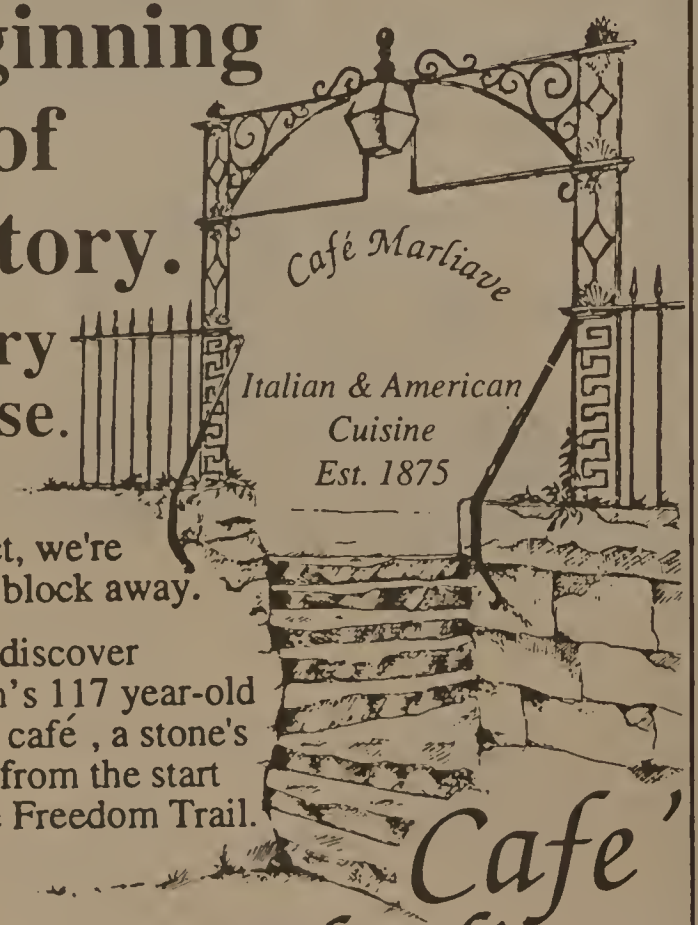
"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

OTTAVIO'S RISTORANTE

FINE ITALIAN CUISINE



Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

We're very close to finding the beginning of history.

Very close.

In fact, we're only a block away.

Come discover Boston's 117 year-old Italian café , a stone's throw from the start of The Freedom Trail.

Cafe' Marliave

423-6340

With an enclosed Roof Garden

10 Bosworth St. Boston - By The Parker House

See Listing

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

- ▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
- ▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
- ▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
- ▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds, 266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922 A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524 MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen, 115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373 A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835 A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

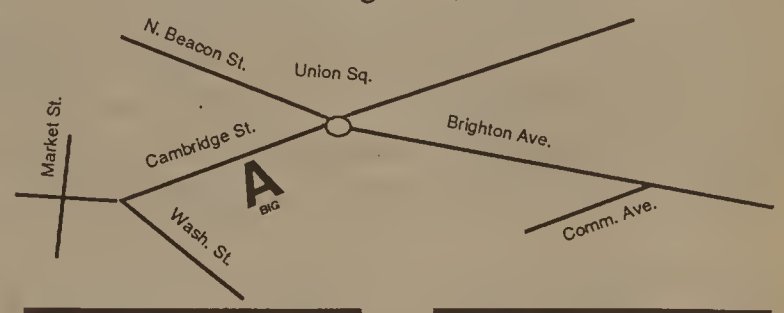
L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good

NEWBURY'S
Steak House

Our tradition of fine seafood specialties is as well known as our reputation as a steak house. All our entrees are served with limitless salad bar, fresh vegetables, and homeade bread.

For 50 Years Back Bay's Neighborhood Restaurant 94 Massachusettes Ave (at Newbury Street) 536-0184 Open Noon • Midnight Seven Days A Week

2 for 1 Lunch
Select any two lunch entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
IB valid anytime, with this coupon, offer expires May 26, 1992



2 for 1 Dinner
Select any two dinner entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
IB valid any time, with this coupon, offer expires May 26, 1992

FAST FREE DELIVERY TO: Allston, Brighton, Brookline, Kenmore.

Take $1 off your order of $10 or more, or $2 off for $15 or more w/ mention of this ad!!

THE BIG DELI

568 Cambridge St., Allston

PIZZA

Plain	4.50	7.00
Double Cheese	5.00	8.00
Onion	4.75	7.50
Green Pepper	4.75	7.50
Ham	5.00	8.00
Hamburger	5.00	8.00
Pepperoni	5.00	8.00
Salami	5.00	8.00
Sausage	5.00	8.00
Anchovy	5.00	8.00
Olives	5.00	8.00
Mushroom	5.00	8.00
2-Way	6.50	9.50
3-Way	7.50	10.00
4-Way	8.00	10.50
Big A Special	9.00	12.00
Per Slice	1.00

STEAKS

Plain	3.60	4.00
Onion	3.75	4.25
Pepper	3.75	4.25
Cheese	4.00	4.50
Mushroom	4.20	4.75
Mushroom & Cheese	4.30	4.90
Steak & Egg	4.50	5.00
Steak, Egg & Cheese	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Cheese	4.10	4.60
Big A Special	4.50	5.00

SUBS

American	3.35	3.75
Italian	3.35	3.75
Ham & Cheese	3.35	3.75
Salami & Cheese	3.50	4.00
Roast Beef	4.00	4.75
Corned Beef	4.00	4.75
Pastrami	3.50	4.00
Meatball	3.35	3.75
Sausage	3.35	3.75
Meatball & Sausage	4.00	4.50
Double Hamburger	3.10	4.00
Double Cheeseburger	3.35	4.25
Eggplant	3.35	3.75
Tuna	4.30	4.80
Turkey	4.00	4.50
Chicken Salad	4.00	4.50
Crabmeat	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Egg	3.35	3.75
Pepperoni & Egg	3.35	3.75
Sausage & Egg	3.35	3.75
Mushroom & Egg	3.35	3.75
Western	3.35	3.75
Eastern	3.35	3.75
Veal Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Chicken Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Ham, Turkey & Cheese	4.25	4.85

SIDE ORDERS

French Fries	1.50	2.50
Onion Rings	1.50	2.50

DINNERS

BAKED MANICOTTI	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
BAKED STUFFED SHELLS	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
HOMEMADE LASAGNA	5.75
With Meatballs	6.25
With Italian Sausage	6.25
With Eggplant	6.25
With Chicken Cutlets	7.50
With Veal Cutlets	7.50
BAKED RAVIOLI Parmigiana	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
SPAGHETTI PLAIN	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
DINNER SPECIALS
Chiskabob	5.00
Fried Chicken	5.50
Chicken Fingers	5.50
Cheeseburger Plate	5.50
Hamburger Plate	5.00

SALADS

Garden Salad	3.35
Greek Salad	4.00
Antipasto Salad	4.25
Turkey Salad	5.00
Tuna Salad	5.00
Chicken Salad	5.00
Crabmeat	5.00

FREE DELIVERY 782-1222

THE BIG It's so delicious

568 Cambridge Street, Allston
Sun. - Thur 10 am to 11 pm
Fri. & Sat. 10 am - 11pm

Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.

SIENNA'S

"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"

VISIT US

We are located at 214 Lincoln Street, corner of Kneeland Street.

426-6665

Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5:p.m.- 11:p.m.

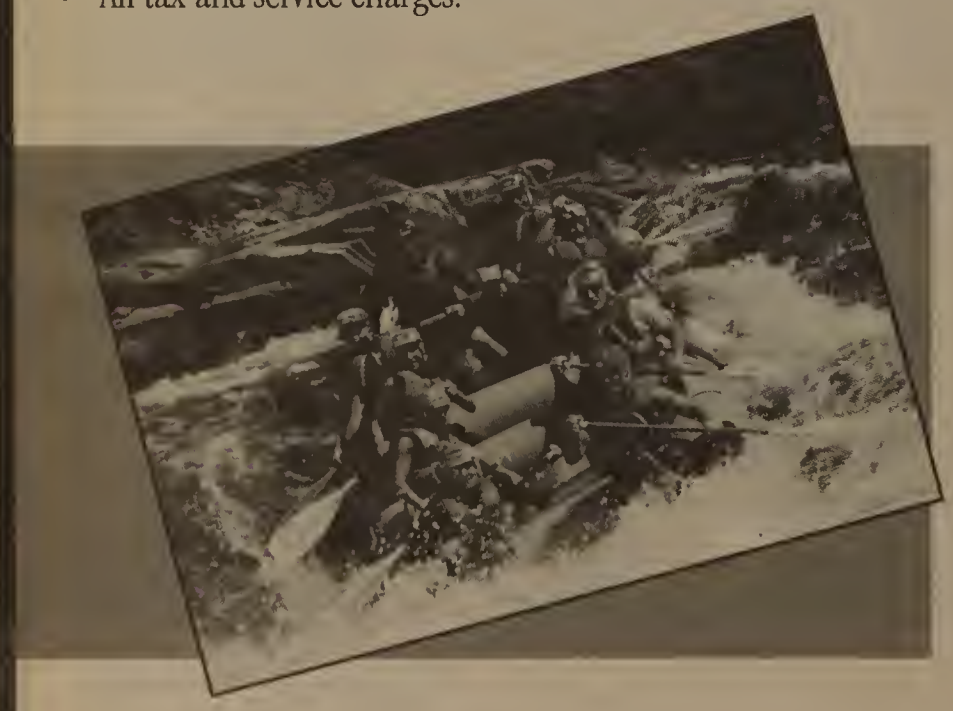
The Improper Bostonian

Invites You On A Weekend

Adventure

In Montreal, Canada

May 22-24, 1992



Join Us in Montreal

The world next door! Like no other city in North America, Montreal's French ambiance charms every visitor. With the exchange rate over 15% in our favor, you can truly enjoy the European shopping and dining opportunities throughout the city. The nightlife never quits in Montreal, whether you choose the jazz cafes (indoor or out), the Old City, or the clubs up, down and around famous Saint Catherine Street.

Your Adventure in Montreal Includes:

- Round Trip Transportation via Peter Pan luxury motorcoach.
- Refreshments served enroute
- Two nights accommodations at The Ramada Renaissance du Parc
- Free admission to some of the hottest night clubs in Montreal
- Services of the Target Sport Adventures staff
- All tax and service charges.

$139.95 quad occ $159.95 trip occ
$179.95 dbl occ

Optional Adventures

Jet Boating - Take a two hour tour on a jet propelled aluminum boat through the Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River. Departs from Old Montreal. $35.00

Bungee Jumping - Exhilarating yet very safe! Take the plunge off a fixed 150 foot tower at the New World Center one hour from Montreal, on Saturdays. $79.00

Rafting and Sport Yaking - A full day of fun on the Rouge River at the New World Center. Includes: a snack and a full lunch. No experience necessary. $79.00

For Reservations and Information call Target Sport Adventures at (617) 562-1300 or 800-832-4242 (outside 617 area code).

Target Sport Adventures, 46 Birmingham Parkway, Boston, MA 02115

TARGET Sport Adventures
A Halomar Company

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury S. Open daily noon to midnight.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC
$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

MAY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13 MIN 8:35	14	15 CAL 7:35	16 CAL 1:05
17 CAL 1:05	18 SEA 7:35	19 SEA 7:35	20 SEA 7:35	21	22 OAK 7:35	23 OAK 1:05
24 OAK 31 SEA	25	26 CAL 10:35	27 CAL 10:35	28 CAL 10:35	29 SEA 10:35	30 SEA 10:05

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 OAK 10:05	2 OAK 10:05	3 OAK 3:15	4	5 CLE 7:35	6 CLE 1:05
7 CLE 1:05	8 BAL 7:35	9 BAL 7:35	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 8:35
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 3:00
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 2:35	19 CAL 2:35	20 CAL 2:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:35	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 MIN 1:05

Away
Home

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

BAY STATE TICKET

• The Cure	Worcester	5/20, 5/21
• Kiss 108 Concert	Great Woods	5/30
• The Grateful Dead	Albany	6/11, 6/12
	Giant Stadium	6/15, 6/16
• U2	Foxboro	8/20, 8/21
• James Taylor	Great Woods	8/27, 8/28
• Neil Diamond	Worcester	8/28 - 8/30

Red Sox, Bruins, Celtics
We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex
Tickets Bought & Sold
(617) 731- 4588

FREE INTENSIVE SEMINARS IN MEDITATION AND SELF-DISCOVERY

Meditation
Enlightenment
The Short Path

Reincarnation
Kundalini Yoga
Auras and Chakras

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave.
Tower Bldg., 5th Floor
Friday, May 15
Friday, May 22
Friday, May 29

Westin Hotel at Copley Place
10 Huntington Ave.
Saturday, May 16
Monday, May 18
Wednesday, May 20
Saturday, May 23
Tuesday, May 26
Wednesday, May 27

The French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St.
Monday, May 18
Tuesday, May 19
Tuesday, May 26
Wednesday, May 27

FREE

All Seminars 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

FREE

Sponsored by The Boston Meditation Society (617) 499-7990

MUSIC

A Whole Lotta Brass

The Heavy Metal Horns Mix All Types of Music Except Heavy Metal

by David Fenigsohn

The Heavy Metal Horns have something for everybody. This nine piece band enjoy phenomenal success with their brand of jazz mixed with rhythm and blues in a city dominated by the grungy sounds of guitar rock. "When we first started the band, people were like, 'You've got to pigeonhole. . . You've got to categorize your stuff'," said tenor and baritone sax player Henley Douglas about their musical diversity. "There's a common thread in our music. The important thing here is that we are a horn band. We've played with many different bands, and the horns fit in with all the different kinds of music So, as long as there's a focus on horns, it makes sense for us to [put them in]."

Skipping musical genres from rock to blues to jazz to calypso, the band's name mentions just about the only style of music the band doesn't play. "We were originally a six piece horn section," mused trumpeter Garret Savluk. "The sound we created was so big and heavy that we thought it would be an appropriate name. Now it's scaled down to four which is a lot more manageable."

The Heavy Metal Horns display their Heavy Metal

Part of their eclecticism stems from their heavy involvement with the Boston music scene. Splintering off the Big Blues Meanies and Skin, HMH have won over fans and critics alike. The band's accomplishment sheet reads like a Who's Who of New England music. They've won 'Best New Band' by Boston Magazine, played the highly prestigious Boston Globe Jazz Festival last year, won the Boston Phoenix Reader's Poll for 'Best Local R&B /Soul / Blues Act,' recorded with everyone from Shockra to the Del Fuegos and have even provided the soundtrack to Lechemere and Baybank commercials. Throughout their two year history, the band has kept a busy gig schedule, routinely playing to SRO audiences at Harper's Ferry, Johnny D's, the Rat and Ed Burke's (where the band got their start).

The horn section features Douglas, Savluk, John Vanderpool Jr. (alto, tenor and soprano sax) and newcomer Hikaru Tsukamoto (trombone). The band alternates between lead singers, with guitarist Thaddeus Hogarth and keyboardist John Matthews trading songs and harmonies. Jim Sturdevant on drums, Hudson Samuel on percussion and Jim Lightman on bass round out the rhythm section.

A year ago, the band's self-titled debut was released on Square Records, a small independent label based in Cambridge. The diverse eight song album features an enormously catchy, reggae-esque instrumental ("Pepper Pot"), a bluesy "Champagne" and the funky "Everybody Fall Back," a concert staple. Although the album sold relatively well locally at HMV, Newbury Comics and nationally at Tower Records, Square Records lacked the distribution to push the album and the band to national recognition.

The band, however, is determined to change this factor. "We're trying to focus on playing out of town more," said Vanderpool. "You've got to take the music out to the people and let them create the buzz to help you break out," added Savluk. Recently, HMH have taken small leaps to Worcester, Maine and Hartford, but their reach hasn't extended farther. Playing fewer Boston dates this summer, the band plans to take the horns out of the area and reach Montreal and Chicago. They will return for a show on the Waterfront once the Tall Ships have docked.

Looking toward an upcoming album in the fall, the Heavy Metal Horns have laid down the basics for 25 songs at Sound Technique Studio aided by Ken Simon. Still, the emphasis on the new material is to remain true to the live feel of the band. "We've approached this project with much more of a live performance orientation with the whole band playing [simultaneously in the studio]," said Vanderpool.

"The first record is a pretty good representation of what we do," added Savluk. "But we pretty much consider it a demo." The promise of a major label deal looms not too far in the distance, but if they aren't signed by the album's completion, the Heavy Metal Horns will release it themselves. And based on everything so far, it sounds like a must-have for fans of all kinds. ❑

Heavy Metal Hornfests

Bleachers
Salem on Thurs., May 14
The Boston Beer Festival
Fri., 15
Johnny D's
Sat., May 16
Ed Burke's
Thurs., May 21
Outriggers
Gloucester on May 22 & 23
The Grog
Newburyport on Thurs., May 28
Club 3 on Friday, May 29

Genesis plays Foxboro Stadium

Phil Collins, Tony Banks and Mike Rutherford arrive in the Boston area on May 28 for their very first outdoor show in New England. Celebrating We Can't Dance (Atlantic) which has gone double platinum (courtesy of Billboard Publications Inc.), Genesis are sure to display their usual showman flair and optical effects. All seats reserved. Tickets are $25 and are available at Tower Records, HMV, Newbury Comics, Record Town or call (617) 931-2000.

Custom Auto Radio of Watertown

- Auto Stereos
- Auto Alarms
- Mobile Phones
- Radar Detectors
- CB Radios & Scanners

Creating and Designing Custom Auto Sound Systems at Affordable Prices

Guaranteed Lowest Prices

Blaupunkt • Rockford Fosgate • Clarion • Toshiba Pioneer
Viper Alarm • Invisabeam Alarms •

660 Arsenal St. • Watertown • 923-2122

No Appointment Necessary • Installations 'Till 9 pm

ALBUM REVIEWS

KMFDM
MONEY
Wax Trax

The fifth full-length release from German exports KMFDM confirms that the most interesting industrial noises are coming from abroad. Money is a kinky descent into campy excess, industrial glam-rock from a netherworld of sexual perversions and political radicalism.

The scavenging duo bulid their pulsating tapestries of sound by weaving together reams of industrial-strength keyboard noises, plenty of samples, rat-a-tat drum (machine) explosions, and some over the top guitars for good measure.

They start blasphemous rumors in "Spiritual House," and push the right symbolic buttons in "Sex On The Flag" ("Sex on the flag/You want respect I'll give you death...You've got to have some fantasies"). The pure gloss of "Help Us, Save Us, Take Us Away" recalls the spirit of My Life With the Thrill Kill Kult's Sexplosion! record. And don't worry: "Vogue" is not a cover of the watery Madonna single. Money shows that KMFDM are much better striking a pose all their own.

—David Daley

Tracy Chapman
Matters of the Heart
Elektra

Some critics have a hard time with artists such as Elvis Costello and the Attractions, Bonnie Raitt and Peter Gabriel because they inadvertently change from song to song, making it hard for the critics to label them in neat little categories. Enter Enya and Tracy Chapman. Both have released outstanding debuts only to vomit them back up to try to pass them off as new albums. Chapman especially has the practice of regurgitation down pat. 1988's Tracy Chapman was a masterpiece of ghetto depression while 1989's Crossroads followed the same dirt road without exploring new paths. Matters of the Heart takes the same road again, only this time she's memorized every bump,

(continued on following page)

Lou Reed To Open The '92 Great Woods Season

Lou Reed will be the first of many performers to play Great Woods this year. Appearing on Sunday May 24 in a special intimate setting in support of Magic and Loss on Sire Records, Reed will be bringing his words to life with his music, a change from his poetry readings when he was last in town. Tickets are on sale now at all Ticketmaster locations. For more information call the Great Woods Concert Hotline at (508) 339-2333.

An Interview with Mr. Butch

(continued from page 12)

the most part, people are pretty good to me. Sometimes though, people have the wrong attitude. Like one lady; her car broke down on Comm. Ave., so I was trying to push it for her to help her get it started. When it was finally running, I said, "Hey, how about thirty cents towards a beer?" And she looked at me like I was crazy and said, "Fuck you, nigger" and drove off. So that's the way it goes. If somebody is an asshole, there's somebody right behind them on the sidewalk who's really nice. It's a sad fact that some people think that in order to be successful, they've got to screw other people over. I'm just Mr. Butch.

IB: There are so many homeless people in Boston. How do you see yourself in relation to the others?*

Mr. B: I'm lucky because I have a lot of friends to help me. I've got a lot of places where people let me crash. Not everybody's so lucky. I think places like Pine Street and the government are trying to do a good job, but a lot of people don't know how to take care of themselves, and that makes the job harder.

IB: Is there anything that you'd like to say to Boston?*

Mr. B: Yeah. Thanks for being so cool to me. And if you're down in Kenmore Square, come over and say hi.

Mr. Butch walked with me to the door of the Rat, and once again with impeccable manners held it open for me to exit. Mr. Butch lifted his right arm, sweeping the air with an encompassing gesture, the lord of all he surveyed. "This is the street," he said with satisfaction. Above, the Citgo sign looked unblinkingly down in the daylight, sharing the domain. I gave him money for the promised six-pack and said "Bye, Mr. Butch." He nodded, smiling, and saluted me. Then turning his back, he sauntered off to buy beer - unquestionably the King of Kenmore. ❑

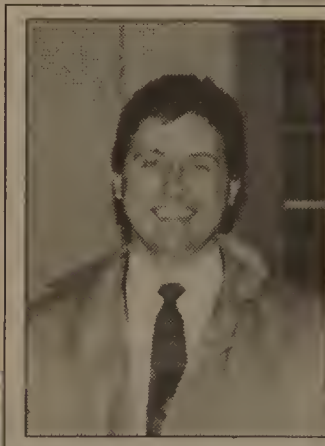
The Improper Bostonian respects your opinion, please send us your comments, suggestinos and criticisms to:
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"What wouldn't you do for a million dollars?"

Alvin, 42, Roxbury
"Sell my soul to the Devil."

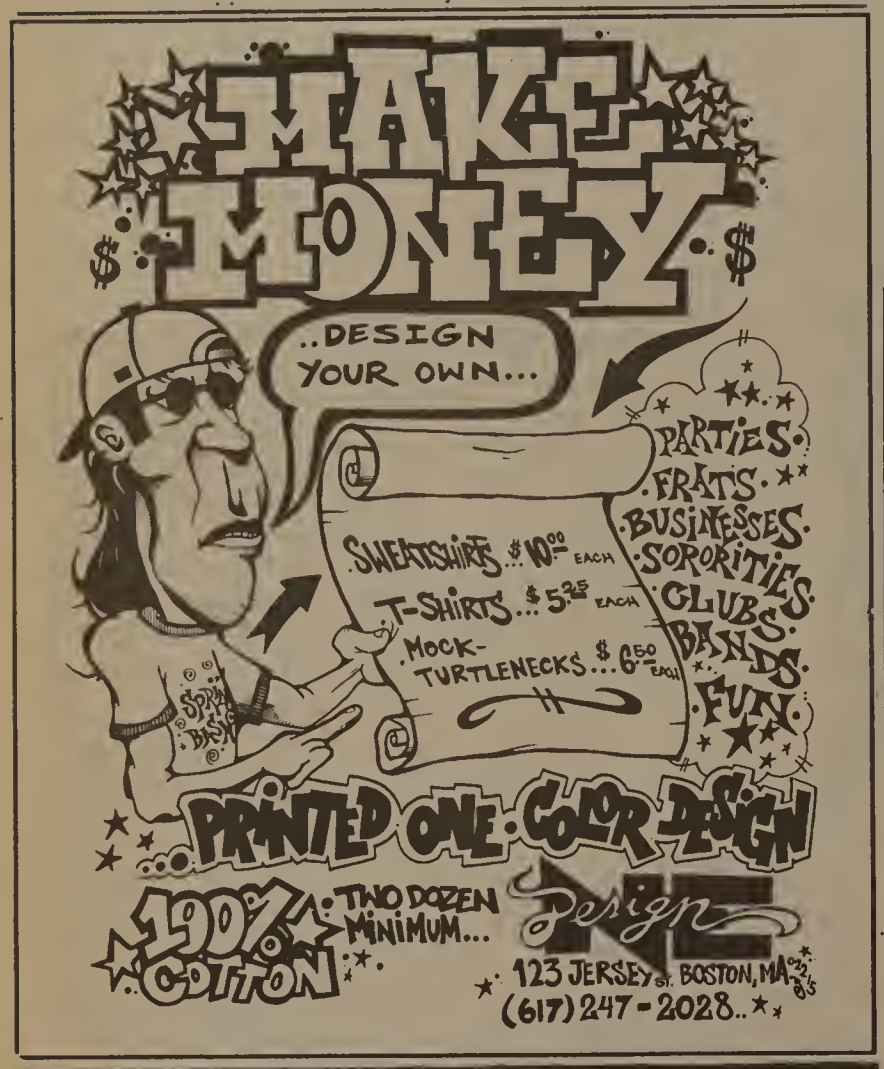


Wendy, 24, Shrewsbury
"I wouldn't eat the left-over fish on the streets after Haymarket closes on Saturdays."

Robert, 39, Boston
"Anything that would hinder my health or reputation."

Fung, 30, Brookline
"I would not hurt animals or children."

Tony, 28, Melrose
"Swim in the Boston Harbor with all the sewage in the middle of winter or any time for that matter!"



Jean, 41, Belmont
"I definitely would not go to the movies with Pee Wee Herman, even if it was rated 'G'."

MUSIC

(continued from previous page)

curve and pothole. She takes no new turns and consequently delivers the same album for the third time. More issue-oriented than 10,000 Maniac's Natalie Merchant, Chapman relays facts that we already heard a hundred times before from any number of folk artists and rappers. On "So," she muses about clichéd corporate hypocrisy where "you make a little money/ Off of somebody else's sweat/ So some people starve a little/ While you get fat." The single "Bang Bang" tells about how bad a gun is in the hands of a boy. What's next? A song about cigarette smoking and its effects on pregnant women who drink too much and smoke crack? Anyone for some partially digested inner-city angst?

-Rey Roldan

Give Yourself a Lift.

GOLD'S

THE FITNESS & AEROBIC CENTER for men & women

- 2000 sq. ft. aerobic studio
- free weights 20,000 lbs.
- 130 + workout stations
- Cybex & Bodymaster
- full tanning facility
- professional instructors
- full cardiovascular lines
- juice bar and health snacks
- and everything else under the sun....just about.

Only $26/ month

New # 536-6066

71 Landsdown Street Kenmore Sq.

Mention this ad & SAVE $50 on initiation fee!

Beastie Boys
Check Your Head
Capitol

It seems like novelty bands like They Might Be Giants, The Dead Milkmen and the Beastie Boys filled the Eighties with humorous ditties in a rather humorless decade. Now as the 'mature' Nineties unfolds, almost all of these bands have left the chuckle patch and got old watching thirtysomething on the Lifetime Network. While Weird Al Yankovic remains a corny shadow of his former self, the Beastie Boys have taken their frat-boy perversions and channeled them into creative, exciting and malleable rap/funk/guitar grunge that's collected and mish-mashed on the intensely satisfying Check Your Head. At first, the lead-off single "Pass the Mic" may come across as a lame excuse for a rap song, but after repeated listening, the glory of the subtleties unfold and the annoying clatter of easy rhymes becomes a tapestry of unfurling madness. The untamable hardcore of "The Biz Vs. the Nuge" proves that although these guys may have been responsible for the embarrassingly lame anthem "You Gotta Fight for Your Right (to Party)," they were also responsible for the incredibly brilliant album Paul's Boutique. Though these guys have turned their childish laughs for some mature sardonic cynicism, the leash is still pretty short on the beast in all of them.

-Rey Roldan

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Aimee Mann from Til Tuesday and Peter Wolf were just some of the guests at the J. Lincoln Wright, Willie Alexander, and Barry Tashian show at Johnny D's. These vets of the Bosstown Sound days of the '60s jammed together at the end of the night doing Chuck Berry, Bo Diddley, Stones and even an old Barry And The Remains hit "Do Wah Diddy."... The Voodoo Dolls record release for "Number Two" b/w "Crush On Me" was awe-inspiring. The guys also do the best version of "I Think We're Alone Now" since you know who and guitarist Dave Harrison was wearing a vintage Real Kids t-shirt...The Real Kids are unreal....Famous Brothers Dept: Drummer Dave from Beat Surrender and John Matthews keys for Heavy Metal Horns. Catch The Horns in June at The Tall Ships ceremony or in July up at The Montreal Jazzfest. Meanwhile Paul Kochansky from Swinging Steaks subbing in Beat Surrender for bassist Tim Archibald who's out gigging the states with RTZ. BS was noticeably absent from this year's Earth Day celebration...Doorman Of The Week is Bob Hamilton from Axis for his grossly misshapen head...Cafe Pompeii proprietor Cesare Angiulo and Mario from Salem's Hell's Angels were seen hanging out at a local tavern...Check out Taylor Made at Harper's Ferry on the 22nd. This rockin' soul band is amazing. Crooners Buck and Bird Taylor are also famous brothers...Nobody rocks like The Fighting Cocks...Maurice Starr's new allstars Classic Example is red hot. These five black cats can sing their butts off...Get well to c&w promoter John Penney after undergoing a major organ transplant...Allston Brothers harpist Ben DeForest onstage with Sleepy LaBeef while Wheeler and Dealer/Looney Tunes god-emperor Pat McGrath was doing the two-step on the dance floor. See The Bros. at Bunratty's on the 27th...Waitress Of The Week has to be Sharon Paice from The Tam for three reasons: One, she's a beautiful blond, two, her band The Moors is superb and three cause her old man Drew Townson from The Derrangers plays tex-mex real well and is one hell of an engineer. Meanwhile at The Tam Jam these musicians showed up to play:Alizon Lissance ex-Girls Night Out, Joe Krown from Luther Guitar Jr. Johnson's band and Jimmy Scopa and Tom Hambridge from T.H. And The Wreckage. Check out T.H.'s new disc "Pop, Rock and Twang"-the name says it all.

James Montgomery's new song "Mirror Mirror" is great great but its hard deciding which of his tunes "Rock And Roll VJ" or "Miss You" should be our Turntable Song Of The Week. O.K. they both win cause they're classic Montgomery. Meanwhile it was harp heaven at Harper's Ferry as Monty and James Cotton played there in the same week! Old Cotton bassist Noel Neal recently married designer Liz Claiborn's only daughter so he doesn't have to gig anymore...Buzzy Klavans...Happy happy to Bunratty's soundman extraordinaire Wiz...Bartender Of The Week is Jimmy Coyle from Nightstage cause he's so cool...Gigolo Aunts do a great cover of The Neighborhoods' "Prettiest Girl"...Bob Gay ex-New Man and current Brian Walkley horn doing a solo project that will take Sanborn to another level...Ex-Shake The Faith, New Models guitarist Casey Lindstrom now in Hail Mary...May 22 at OBrien's will feature the ska funk hiphop reggae 3rd world stuff of The Authority from N.Y.C. brought to you by Walrus Productions-Grandma Walter and Russell Levine...Jamie Rubin ex-The Fans and The Rain now in Bohemian Love Fest and their song "Feel Alright" written by Angelo ex-Face To Face and now in The Immortals is a hit-a great hook!...Hellcats new product "Sex Alien" is out of this world...Bands: Send us your updates so we can tell the world of your talents! ❑

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

To the personable lady I walked in on at the tanning salon - your experience was much appreciated and no tan lines!

Karen, we know you took the T to Kenmore. Stop fooling yourself, you're the perfect non-champion

To the cigar smoking pig, did that bowl of hot soup ruin your pants or your day?

Congratulations on your entry into the world of reality Jim, If you want to pick up your clothes and stereo, they can be had at the police station on Monday.

Dear Don, don't you think you could at least have the tact to not goose me in front of the boss? Next time, you're going to get a foot in the groin.

John, you insensitive bastard, can't you ever learn to keep your mouth shut. I'll let the world in on all your guarded secrets that only I know. Just try it one more time.

Hey penguin, how would you like to spend a night around the South Pole this weekend? I'll swear it won't be cold.

Dear Beth, the whole office took a vote and decided that you should quit your job, if you don't we'll assure you that you wish you did. Sincerely the 34th floor team.

To the Norwegian Ophiar, we met the other night at Cafe Vittoria, I had a fantastic time but have no idea of your name or how to get in touch, please respond in what you said to be your favorite section of your favorite newspaper so that we can meet again.
Sincerely, the Grad.

To The Only Canadian Fan in Boston,
I had so muchfahkin fun wit youse guys the other wicked cool night. Sorry about the sheets. Your B.H.Babe

Pat, I know the wrestling part makes it fun but the rug burns have got to stop.K.J.

Leon, Green leather is just not you. Kumph

George and Janet, Silly me. I thought that if I worked for you, I might get paid. Have fun in jail with Leona.
Leslie

Why is everyone so gosh dam mean in this town? Back in Ohio, we used to smile. Still, there was a lot of in-breeding there too.

Erin, If the complaint meter was running, it was you who was driving the cab.

To David P., When asked to move out,the polite thing is to take your possessions too. Most people leave the building instead of going next door like a stray cat.
Your ex's best friend

Lost Boys, Congratulations on the birth of the gerbils! They're the cutest Rosent's Revenge ever - almost as cute as SAMANTHA!!!

Congratulations Alexandra and Todd!! You give the rest of us hope that we too can get "Lucky"

Ninjo, I never thought I could fall for a skinhead. If you start a tatoo collection, though, could you at least warn me first?
Lily

Oooooooooohgoooo, the game was great, too bad nobody made it past second base, next time maybe you'll steal third.
Ouch!

Bones,
You left the party too early. I hope you know that you missed the L$H in the main dining room. Haskell took the dingy to the boat but couldn't find the stern. What's wrong with this picture?
Happier Than You Know

To the teenybopper who can put up 290 pounds. Wow! I'm so impressed. Can you put up with another girlfriend or is three a crowd?
The Czech.

Katey, They told me that it would be okay to attend the seminar but you left out that I needed to bring my own supply of penicillin.
Still sore in the basement

Susan,
Why can't you ever be on time? If I was your father, I'd bend you over my knee and spank you but then I'd have to wait for the satisfaction of seeing you cry.
Still waiting

Sully, I had so much fun with you at my graduation. Mommy and Daddy say that if promise not to keep me up past 10:00, that you can take me to a drive-in movie in Orono next weekend. That is,of course, unless you can't afford another limousine to Maine.
Love, Your Cute Little Button-Nosed Muffin

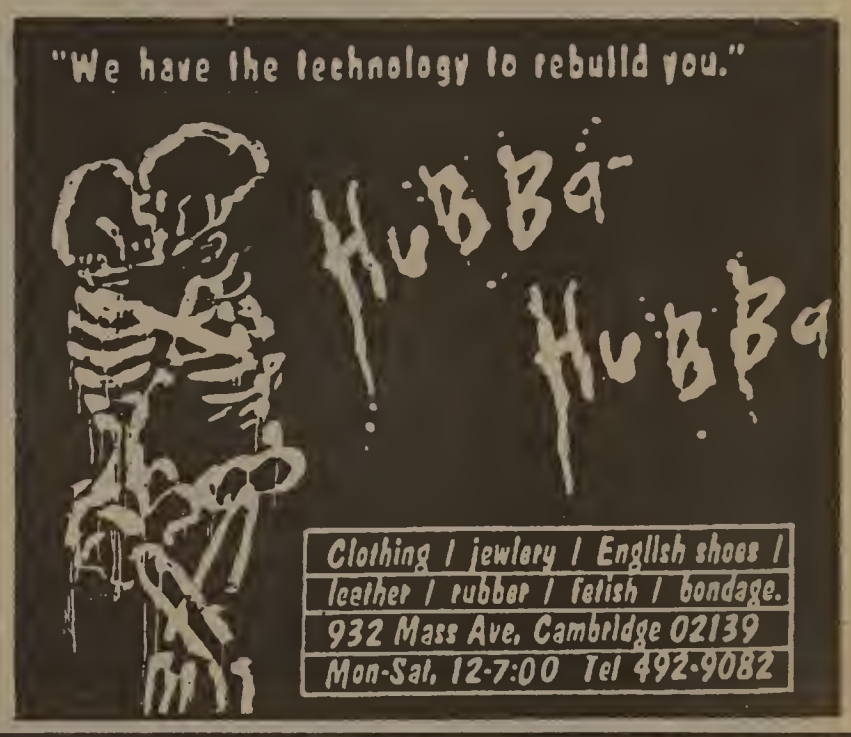
Rat Arms, We're thinking about coming out to see you soon but we don't know what to bring. What size gas mask and what kind of riot gear do we need? Do Tell, Do Tell!
P.S. Want some cheese?

To the owner of the red 325e BMW on Beacon Hill: I'm sorry. I was too scared to leave a note but you may want to check your rear right Corner. Vito

To Nilan and co., Listen here you little girly man: How does it feel to be in the penalty box as you watch your teammates get swept. Have a good golf season
Sexually-confused Cam

Mark: The bet is you must have carnal knowledge - of a lady this time on the premises.
Your Flock

To the blond in the Saab Convertible,
I couldn't help but to follow you to your job and then your home and then to the dry cleaners and then...



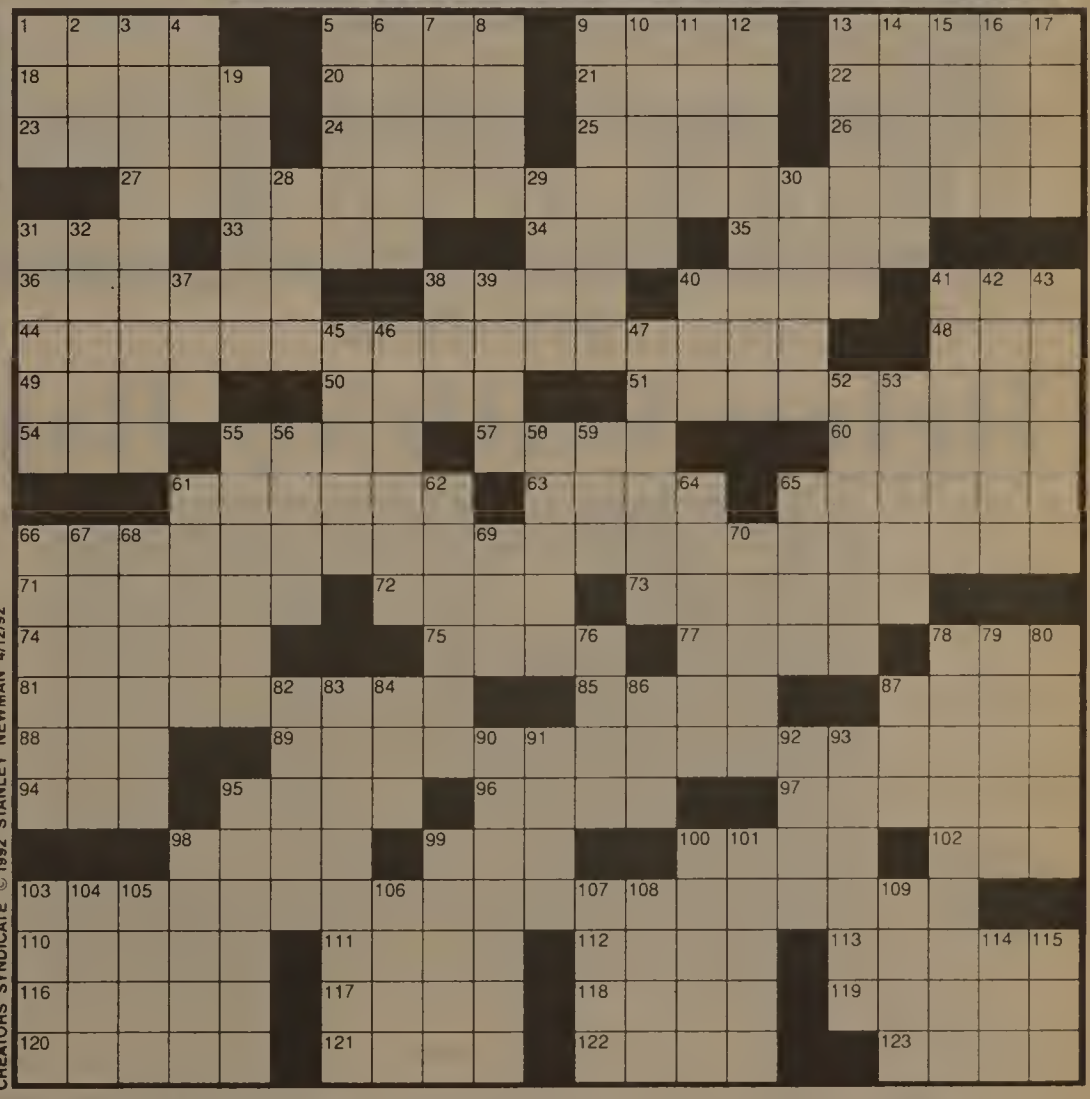
M.G., Let's try and keep it quiet in the office. Please stop stealing suggestive glances my way. I can hardly contain myself.
Cotton Thighs

Nancy, Invest in a calendar and a clock. It'll help with more than you know.

Rod, we couldn't thank you enough for your little lecture on the virtues of your abilities, thanks for the help with the faulty light. I'm actually an electrical engineer, feel dumb now? You should.

Donna, I'm sorry, you deserve a second chance. Let's get back together and spend the rest of our lives together as we always planned. I love you dearly.
Not!

To the a-hole who blew past me on the Mass Pike going 90+, you were much uglier when you were receiving your ticket from Rambo.



THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

GONE FISHING: Angling for chuckles

by Alex Vaughn

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 4/12/92

ACROSS

1 California wine valley
5 Rubberneck
9 Graduate, for short
13 Baseball great Yogi
18 Vichy specie
20 Its capital is Muscat
21 I Love Lucy name
22 Rigel's constellation
23 CD-player part
24 Ending for million
25 Greek vowels
26 Make mushy-minded
27 Wonderfully effective fishhook attachment?
31 Western Indian
33 Mom's pre-dinner order
34 Item in Asian circles
35 H.S. jr's. ordeal
36 Bouquet contents
38 Bring home
40 Skillfully done
41 Tide competitor
44 How to catch congers quietly?
48 Fruity quencher
49 Switch suffix
50 "Shave __ haircut . . ."
51 Hybridized
54 Sea dog
55 Work hard
57 Soothing substance
60 Still in the running
61 __ valve (heart part)
63 Gen. Lee
65 Six Million Dollar Man descriptor
66 Start fishing young?
71 Lodge
72 Mother Machree's milieu
73 Indiana Jones' phobia
74 "Jack Sprat could __ fat"
75 Quick jotting
77 The __ Scott Decision
78 Tiny, in Tweedsmuir
81 Executive tote
85 Gambling game
87 Something extra
88 Actor Cariou
89 Heinous fishhook?
94 Both Begleys
95 Italy's largest automaker
96 Bobbles a grounder
97 Track wager
98 "__ No Mountain High Enough"
99 Wiesbaden, for one
100 Sound of shock
102 Carson's nickname
103 What the netter told the fish?
110 Sign up
111 Polite form of address
112 In a frenzy
113 Incur, as debts
116 Sober and sedate
117 __ la Douce
118 Appropriate period
119 Heavenly places
120 Gives shape to
121 Crunch of cerealdom
122 Do a slow burn
123 Change "which" to "that"

DOWN

1 Patriots' org.
2 Coach Parseghian
3 Is accepted as
4 All over again
5 Nannies and kids
6 Pennsylvania sect
7 Sound the alarm
8 Banjo perch
9 "The flower of my heart"
10 Reveal one's feelings
11 Defense Dept. org.
12 Wasted
13 Comic Goldthwait
14 Standing up
15 Come into view
16 Outback leapers
17 Them! creatures
19 Embroidery yarn
28 Effortless
29 Orpheus' instrument
30 Grammarian's concern
31 Bent out of shape
32 "__-Loo-Ra-Loo-Ral"
37 "How was __ know?"
38 Takeoff hr., maybe
39 Melville monomaniac
40 Diarist Anaïs
41 Wheat product
42 Have __ of a time (struggle)
43 Ornament gaudily
45 Ralph of The Waltons
46 "The Best Things __ Are Free"
47 Dances performed near the poles
52 Poured, perhaps
53 What things may come to
55 Spread stories about
56 "Be good __ gone" (bar sign)
58 Do not exist
59 Filmdom's Nora Charles
61 "Care to see __ list?" (bistro query)
62 Eye surface
64 Arctic landscape
65 Fire the pottery
66 A clef
67 Nurtured
68 Actors John and Sean
69 Galeao Airport's locale
70 Chocolate substitute
76 Get an __ effort
78 Didn't do as taut?
79 Civilian clothes
80 __ as a pig
82 Helping with lines
83 Biology adjective
84 NY or SF
86 Part of Q&A
87 Tour group?
90 Cult film of '84
91 Dull-colored
92 __ majesty (high treason)
93 Run out
95 Egbert Sousé portrayer
98 Don't indulge in
99 It takes a licking
100 Folklore being
101 Out of kilter
103 Junior's polite reply
104 Not conned by
105 Kazakh river
106 Apt rhyme for "O'Hara"
107 Scarfs down
108 Not real: Abbr.
109 Hosiery shade
114 Cycle starter
115 L.A. setting

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Weds. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover..

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This new college sports bar has a little of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. Ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. Upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. Lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites..

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies..

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers. .

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night..

Fri 15th.--Social Distortion with special guests Peg Boy and Best Kissers in the World Sat 16th.--From Ireland comes the Saw Doctors for an early show! 7pm Wed 20th.--The Outrageous Beastie Boys from the Lower East Side Thur 21st.--SPIN Magazine's Band of the Year Teenage Fanclub with Mammoth Recording Artists Afgan Wigs

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights..

Thur 14th.--The Response Thur 21st.--Five Gone Mad

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 13th.--Motor Psycho and Blitzpeer Thur 14th.--Murphy's Law and Wrecking Crew Wed 20th.--Flesh, Restless Souls and Atunga

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays..

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city , programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed..

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover..

Thur 14th.--The Brian Walkey Band featuring Bob Gay on Sax performing every Thurs. thru Sat.

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price..

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop..

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights..

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights.

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress..

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays..

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress..

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code..

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress..

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm..

Sat 16th.--Bones of Contention Sat 23rd.--George Leh

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans..

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there..

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped..

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games..

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style. Is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

z

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu..

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies..

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress..

Wed 13th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress...

Thur 14th.--Songwriters Showcase, starts at 8 Fri 15th.--Split Risk, Brahman and Aura Sat 16th.--Tommy's Darkling Thrush and

Jazz

A B A R Cafe

EVERY SUNDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

The Most Unpretentious Bar in Harvard Square

Grendel's Den

by Seymour Kaubalz

Grendel's Den is a staple in Harvard Square when it comes to informal spots to mix beer with good conversation. After opening 21 years ago in what was once a quieter and more sophisticated area of Cambridge, this older watering hole is fast becoming a landmark in an area of excessive development and overly-populated store fronts.

Today, Harvard Square buzzes with activity from students, tourists and the like - all who want to find somewhere to relax and quench their thirst. They need not look any further than the corner of Winthrop and JFK Streets. Though patrons sporting oversized Norwegian sweaters and plaid shorts can be found here in the appropriate season, Grendel's Den is certainly not limited to one type of customer. Everything from blue jeans and oxfords to European chic comes through their door, although the prep flavor is certainly more predominant. But then, what else would one expect in Harvard Square?

Michael Powers

Patrons of Grendel's savor food and drink at the makeshift patio.

The bar at Grendel's Den sits in an open, darkly-wooded room below its quieter upstairs dining room. It's hard to believe that this was originally the old Pi Eta fraternity house (rivals of the Hasty Pudding Members).

When Grendel's first opened their doors in this 1905 building, the owners ran into a brick wall after applying for a liquor license. According to an old Massachusetts law, no establishment could serve alcoholic beverages within 500 yards of a church (Grendel's is located just a few hundred yards away from one). In 1978, a United States Supreme Court Judge set a precedent ruling in favor of Grendel's and ever since, the taps have been a flowin. People come here as an alternative to the theme bars and watering holes that populate the Square although 14 years ago, no one would have even contemplated a journey to Grendel's to wet their lips. Now, however, patrons can choose from an on-tap selection of Cambridge Ale, Bass, Rolling Rock and Molson Light, or bottled beers ranging from Guinness and Harp, to Rolling Rock and Heineken.

Though the downstairs bar is not open until 4pm, you can still order from the upstairs dinner menu if you so desire. Most people, however, prefer to munch on some of the free happy hour food and just kick back. Grendel's Den is a place to shoot the breeze, a place to meet your friends - even a place to take your beau for an unpretentious change of pace. Come see for yourself! ❑ guests Sun 17th.--Amyl's Rock and Roll Blues Jam happens every Sun. Nite from 7-11pm Tue 19th.--Dart League Nite every Tues. Thur 21st.--Sometimes Why and Q36 Fri 22nd.--Jon Finn Group Sat 23rd.--Neighborhoods with Close Enough and The Lonely Guy

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst tor the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. . Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

Fri 15th.--One People Sat 16th.--Search Party Fri 22nd.--Search Party Sat 23rd.--Loose Caboose

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months..

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon.

Wed 13th.--Calypso Hurricane playing every Wed. night Thur 14th.--Hamish and Dave playing popular acoustic Folk Rock and audience requests featured every Mon. and Thurs. Fri 15th.--The Hot Shots Rhythm and Blues performing every Fri. and Sun. Sat 16th.--North Shore Acappella featured every Tues. and Sat.

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boyiston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress..

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please..

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear..

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boyiston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress. .

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs..

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul.

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

BARS & CLUBS

Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches..

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line..

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 13th.--Karaoke every Wed. Thur 14th.--Doe Bros. Fri 15th.--White Nights playing tonite and Sat. Sun 17th.--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 18th.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code..

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy)..

Thur 14th.--The Search Party (6 piece Carribean) Fri 15th.--The Blue Hornets (4 piece Blues) Sat 16th.--The Landlords of Soul (7 piece R&B) Sun 17th.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pm Mon 18th.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Thur 21st.--The Mystyx (4 piece Rock) Fri 22nd.--The Henry Welch Band (7 piece Dance Band) performs tonite and Sat.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 13th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Sun 17th.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Tue 19th.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!)

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress.

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner.

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing.

Wed 13th.--Nashville Bluegrass Band Thur 14th.--Rounder Records' Steve Riley and Mamou Playboys Fri 15th.--Johnnie Johnson Sat 16th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sun 24thth.--Blues Jam 4-8pm Mon 25th.--Cabaret du Somerville happens every other Monday

Jill Connelly

At The Sevens you'll always be greeted by a warm smile and a cold beer.

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code.

Thur 14th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Fri 15th.--D'Alterboys Sun 17th.--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 18th.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 19th.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Michael Curley, for additional information on this former Boston Mayor's controversial past, call Don Aucoin at the Boston Globe 929-3000, ext. 3060, while you're at it, inquire about the award he received for outstanding journalism. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm.

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms till the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Mattress students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover.

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged.

Wed 13th.--Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Sat 16th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor.

Wed 13th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 14th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 15th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 16th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 18th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 19th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night.

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude, and a location just outside the heart of the Combat Zone. The crowd centers around young professionals. Proper dress with a jacket for men.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere.

Wed 13th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Thur 14th.--The Swirlies Fri 15th.--The Atom Said Sat 16th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 17th.--The Moles, Madscene and dambuilders Mon 18th.--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 20th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 23rd.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 24thth.--Brazilian 12-4 pm, Noise Party 2-6pm Mon 25th.--Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover.

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Cambridge Brewing Company

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage.

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Allston Ale House
85 Harvard Street Allston, MA 617/787-9797
Open for Lunch Daily
Special Weekly Events
Wednesday - Open Mike Night
Hosted by Alizon Lisance 8PM. - 12 PM.
Thursday- Jam Session
Hosted by Wilba Goodman & Napaj 9PM. - 1AM
Friday - KaraokeNight
Hosted by Jack McCoy
Saturday - Live Bands 9:30PM - 1:30AM
May 16 - Cellar Dwellers
May 23 - Nine Below 0

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

BARS & CLUBS

DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress.

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info.

Wed 13th.--Patty Larkin w/special guest Chandler Travis Thur 14th.--The Avengers with The Natives and The Rafters Fri 15th.--Doug Cameron. Late show with the 360's and Drumming on Glass Tue 19th.--The Bottom Line featureing Marshall Crenshaw and Don Dixon Wed 20th.--The Mick Taylor Band Thur 21st.--Sophie B. Hawkins (from N.Y.C.) Fri 22nd.--Cornell Dupree. Late show with concussion Ensembie Sat 23rd.--Ronnie Earl

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuli Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm.

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm.

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap.

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Thur 14th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 19th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code . .Wed 13th.--Call for listings. Thur 14th.--The Cows and Hammerhead Fri 15th.--Original Sin Sat 16th.--The Satanics Fri 22nd.--Chloe Sat 23rd.--The Voodoo Dolls

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans. .

Wed 13th.--The Dick Johnson/Dave McKenna/Gray Sargent Trio Thur 14th.--Bobby Watson and Horizon Performs tonite and tomorrow Sat 16th.--Mili Bermejo Quartet Nuevo Tue 19th.--The Donna Byrne Quintet with Herb Pomeroy and Gray Sargent Wed 20th.--Alfonso Vilallonga and Cabaret Rose Thur 21st.--Astrud Gilberto Performs through Sat Tue 26th.--The Olga Roman Group

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required.

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8.

Wed 13th.--Call for listings.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers.

Wed 13th.--Joe Pass and Cookin' With Jazz preforming thru Sat. Tue 19th.--The Michael Hayes Band with Randy Roos, Tim Ingles, Larry Finn and Steve Hunt Wed 20th.--Mid Life Crisis Jazz Band Thur 21st.--Myanna featuring Baron Browne Fri 22nd.--Tommy Flanagan with George Mraz, bass and Louis Nash, drums also performing tomorrow Tue 26th.--Matt Gordy

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap.

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress. .

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns i nto a lively dance club. Situated near fanueil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and s hake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code.

Wed 13th.--Orangutang with Phonebook, the Barnies and Gingerbutkis Thur 14th.--Dante's Grin with the Porchmen Fri 15th.--Bim Skala Bim with Chuck and Agent 13 Sat 16th.--4 Champ Slam with Mark Smith from NYC Sun 17th.--Svengali Cafe: TBA Mon 18th.--Stone soup presents: Jack Veasey and Souxie D-open mike before and after features Tue 19th.--Hangnail with McQueen and the Missionaries Wed 20th.--Dennis James Trio with Geoff Pango, Dig This and Crooked Show Thur 21st.--Mega City 4 (from England) with the Melvins and Justine Fri 22nd.--Chickasaw Mudpuppies with Bad Livers and Mellisa Ferrick Sat 23rd.--Knots and Crosses with Talking To Animals and Mr. Stones Country Sun 24thth.--Svengali Cafe': TBA Mon 25th.--Stone Soup presents: Richard Fitzgerald with music by Paul and Carla - open mike before and after features Tue 26th.--The Still with Bob and Midnight

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably price d. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 13th.--Najerian and Athena Thur 14th.--Young Neil and the Vipers Fri 15th.--Tom Principato from Washington D.C. Sat 16th.--The Incredible Casuals Sun 17th.--Benefit for childrens Aids program Mon 18th.--Open Jam Tue 19th.--John Sheidon and Blue Streak Wed 20th.--Womb To Tomb and Pipes Thur 21st.--The Avengers Fri 22nd.--Universal Language with Ray Greene Sat 23rd.--Shy Fire Sun 24thth.--The Aliens and M.I.L.C. from Conn. Mon 25th.--Tam Jam Tue 26th.--Jennifer Trynin

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•TIA'S Marriott Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially ri ght after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm.

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer s ign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

Mon 18th.--Blues Night Mon 25th.--Blues

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Charlestown. A funky little bar, whose clientele includes young professionals, college students and professional athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston! he bar now attracts manly manly athletes. Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern, because no one bothers them. TV is always on for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moder ate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Bell Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code.

Wed 13th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday! Thur 14th.--Richard Hollyday Quartet Fri 15th.--Mordy Ferber, Richie Beirach performing tonite and tomorrow Sun 17th.--Melissa Kassel, John Lockwood, Grover Mooney, John Damian Mon 18th.--Raphie Malik Group Tue 19th.--Phil Pearson Quartet Thur 21st.--Grover Mooney and the Moon Unit Fri 22nd.--Tony Carelli Quintet, also performing on Sat. Sun 24thth.--Joe Maneri Quartet Mon 25th.--Scott Mullett Quintet Tue 26th.--Dan Weiner Group

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required.

Wednesday's

T's Pub

THE PLACE TO MEET

presents

KARAOKE NIGHT

with

DAN McARTHY

D.J. Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays

Plus a 12 ft. TV for sporting and special events!

For fine tips, sandwiches and
The Best Buffalo Wings in Boston!

Mon-Sat. 11a.m.-2a.m. Sunday Noon - 2a.m.
973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 254-0807

WEDNESDAYS
Reggae Night
Live Bands
Jau Spirit May 13th
Mighty Charge May 20th
Jammin' Tunes
Cool Cats
Cold Beer
$3 Cover

THURSDAYS
Dance
DJ Mike Lynch
Spinner
Extraordinaire
Playing Your Favorites
$1 Cover

ALLEY CAT LOUNGE

"Where Cool Cats Meet
To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Bring in this portion of our ad with as many friends as you can round up !
ALL OF YOU
GET IN FREE ON THURSDAY
OR FOR $2 EACH ON WEDNESDAY
Expires May 31, 1992

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Cambridge
For an exciting evening of Jazz, join the trio of vocalist Lisa Thorsen, guitarist Bill Coon, and bassist Peter Kontrimas on May 14 for Three for Jazz. The concert begins at 8pm and admission is $3.50. For more info, call 547-6789

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge
On Monday, May 18 at 8 PM, the Cambridge Community Orchestra closes their 17th season with a concert featuring Jim Fraser on horn and Tony Marsh on trombone. The concert is free and for more info call 577-1400.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The ICA is presenting the 11th annual Black Maria Film & Video Festival 1991. It is the largest U.S. touring festival, committed to film and video work that expands the expressive terrain of the media arts. The work is characterized by its artistically rigorous, politically incisive and socially conscious compositions. Videos will be shown in the ICA Theatre.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):
Showing until June 29 is the exhibit Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790s -1850s, which emphasizes such artists as Blake and Goya.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, 536-5400
The library will show Frank Capra's The Miracle Woman (1931) starring Barbara Stanwyck on May 18 at 3 and 6:30pm. All movies are shown in the Rabb Lecture Hall. Admission is free.

LECTURES

Melrose Library
69 West Emerson St., Melrose
On May 20 at 7pm, lecturer and psychotherapist Carly Lund is hosting a talk for adult children of alcoholic and dysfunctional families entitled "The Roles People Play." Admission is free.

POETRY

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
Harvard Square
On Monday nights, The Blacksmith House Poetry Series presents poetry readings from various poets. Readings begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $2.00.
On Tuesday nights, the CCAE holds an Evening Lecture Series. Lectures begin at 8:15pm. Admission is $1.50.

Cornwall Gallery
57 Cornwall St., Jamaica Plain
The Sunday Afternoon Poetry series continues on May 17. Admission is free and home baked goods will be served. For more info call 524-8156.

ZOOS

Arnold Arboretum
Jamaica Plain
524-1717
Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum is a living museum, featuring more than 14,000 trees, vines and shrubs. Self-guided tour maps are available at the visitors' center; call to see which flowers are currently in bloom. Public transportation from the Orange Line (Forest Hills stop) or Copley Square (Bus #39). May 17 is Lilac Sunday.

Franklin Park Zoo
Boston
442-0991
Free Admission: Tues. 12pm-closing.
Hours: Oct.-Apr., daily 9am-3:30pm; Apr.-Oct., daily 9am-5pm.
The zoo features the African Tropical Forest, Birds' World, Outdoor Flight Cage, the Children's Zoo and Hoofs & Horns, all located in a historic park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted. May 16 at Franklin Park is the Boston Kite Festival.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.

Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

We're Looking For a Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty responsibility and a fun working environment

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager to oversee the most dedicated sales force in the area Must have a fantastic sense of humor and several years of print advertising experience, preferably in the Boston market.

Send your resume in inviolable secrecy to the Publisher.

Music Editor

Would you like to design and create the top music section in the city? Our soon to be expanding music section requires a dynamic self starter with a thorough understanding of both the local and national music scene. Responsibilities include hiring, training and managing a staff of music writers.

Experience required.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Restaurant Critic

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Classified Account Executives

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

Magazines By Joseph

"WE BUY, SELL & TRADE USED MAGAZINES"
279 Newbury Street
Boston, MA 02116
Hours
Sunday - Monday - Friday - Saturday
12:00-6:00 11:00 - 6 10:00- 6:30
Reasonable Prices

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night
MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION
FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live
ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski
FREE Ski Passes, Vacation Weekends, and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights
FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.
Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night
AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!
See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible" or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Alterations/Design

THE ALTER EGO: Clothing alterations/home item repair/pillows made-ALL TYPES. Great Rates! By appointment only 332-0160. Newbury St. location

Apartments

FT. MEYER FLA Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., balcony., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-3064

MEDFORD. For rent. Luxury Condo w/ eat in kitch. 2bdrm 2 full bath, balcony, washer & dryer. Fully appliianced. Indoor pool, racquetball courts, weight room, parking, 24hr security. Close to shopping & trans. Call Lillian at 391-0282 or work 862-7528

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

ROOM FOR RENT. Sunny W.Sommerville home in quiet neighborhood.Share kitchen & bathroom. 13 steps to the T and bus terminal. $75/wk. 617-625-9479

WATERTOWN. Very nice two Bdrm. in a two family house. Clean attic & basement for storage. Front & back porches, yard,parking. Avail immed. Call Bob 237-1992

2BDRM APARTMENT 4.5 blocks from Lynn beach near Swampscott line. $550 negoc. Leave message 596-0222

Cellular Phones

CELLULAR PHONES FREE. Also agents needed. Ground floor opportunity. Call now 499-7933 24 hrs.

Carpet Repair

CARPET REPAIRS, installation,restretch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Cleaning

HOUSECLEANING AND PAINTING Responsible, reliable. Reasonable rates. Lots of references. Ellen, 244-5320

Clothing/Tailoring

$$$ FOR YOUR WARDROBE! Designer and better quality contemporary clothes in spectacular condition for women and men. Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399

AT THE ACORN SHOP consignment shop, 8 Muzzey St., Lexington, you'll find labels like Ralph Lauren, Calvin Klein and Liz Claiborne at a fraction of their retail price. All Jeans only $9.95. We're now accepting your top quality spring fashions by appointment. Open Tue-Sat. 861-9646

Counseling

GAY / LESBIAN? BI? STRAIGHT? UNSURE? Individual & group counseling for men & women interested in discussing their questions & concerns about sexual identity/preference Al Gentile, L.I.C.S.W. 491-3813

TRANSPERSONAL THERAPY engages your deepest resources. Harry C. Stafford, Phd, certified transpersonal therapist,(617)536-6518 Back Bay.

EXPEDITE YOUR RECOVERY Incorporating a unique blend of therapy and healing, in an atmosphere of loving humor and acceptance; a nationally known therapist and healer will expedite your emotional and physical recovery from abuse, fears, and traumas. Yulla, 617-731-9529

Credit Svcs

GET A VISA AND CORRECT BAD CREDIT. Solve debt problems. Late payments , charge-offs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24hrs)

Entertainment

"BOSTONS BEST." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)354-5000 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209.

Help Wanted

EARN UP TO $339.84/WEEK assembling our products at your home. Amazing recorded message reveals details. Call today 617-446-7682 (ext A02)

IF YOU KNOW YOU'RE GREAT... We have a position with our 100 year old company in the International division that has real potential. You must be comfortable on the phone. Call Bekins Movers at 243-7236 and ask for Steve. Position avail.

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DASY A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 267-1325. Ask for Paul

House For Sale

NO MONEY DOWN. Take advantage of low market prices! Two family home within walking distance of Lynn beach. Leave message 596-0222

Instruction

LSAT/Anyone can get a top LSAT score if they prepare correctly. An attorney who scored in the 99th percentile will show you how. Highly successful program using one-on-one coaching. For details contact George Alex 617-266-9720

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 386 CommAve267-7171

Miscellaneous

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24hrs)

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

FILENE'S WAREHOUSE
FIXTURE LIQUIDATION

Showcases
Display Mirrors
Garment Racks
Office Equip.
Shelving
Carts
Candy Cases
Alteration
Displayers
Building Material
Floor Tile
Lighting
& Lots More

NOW OPEN

465 Medford St.
Charlestown, Ma

Mon-Sat 10am-6pm
Sundays-Closed

ALL GO'S

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING. . Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition.Call Joey 776-1706

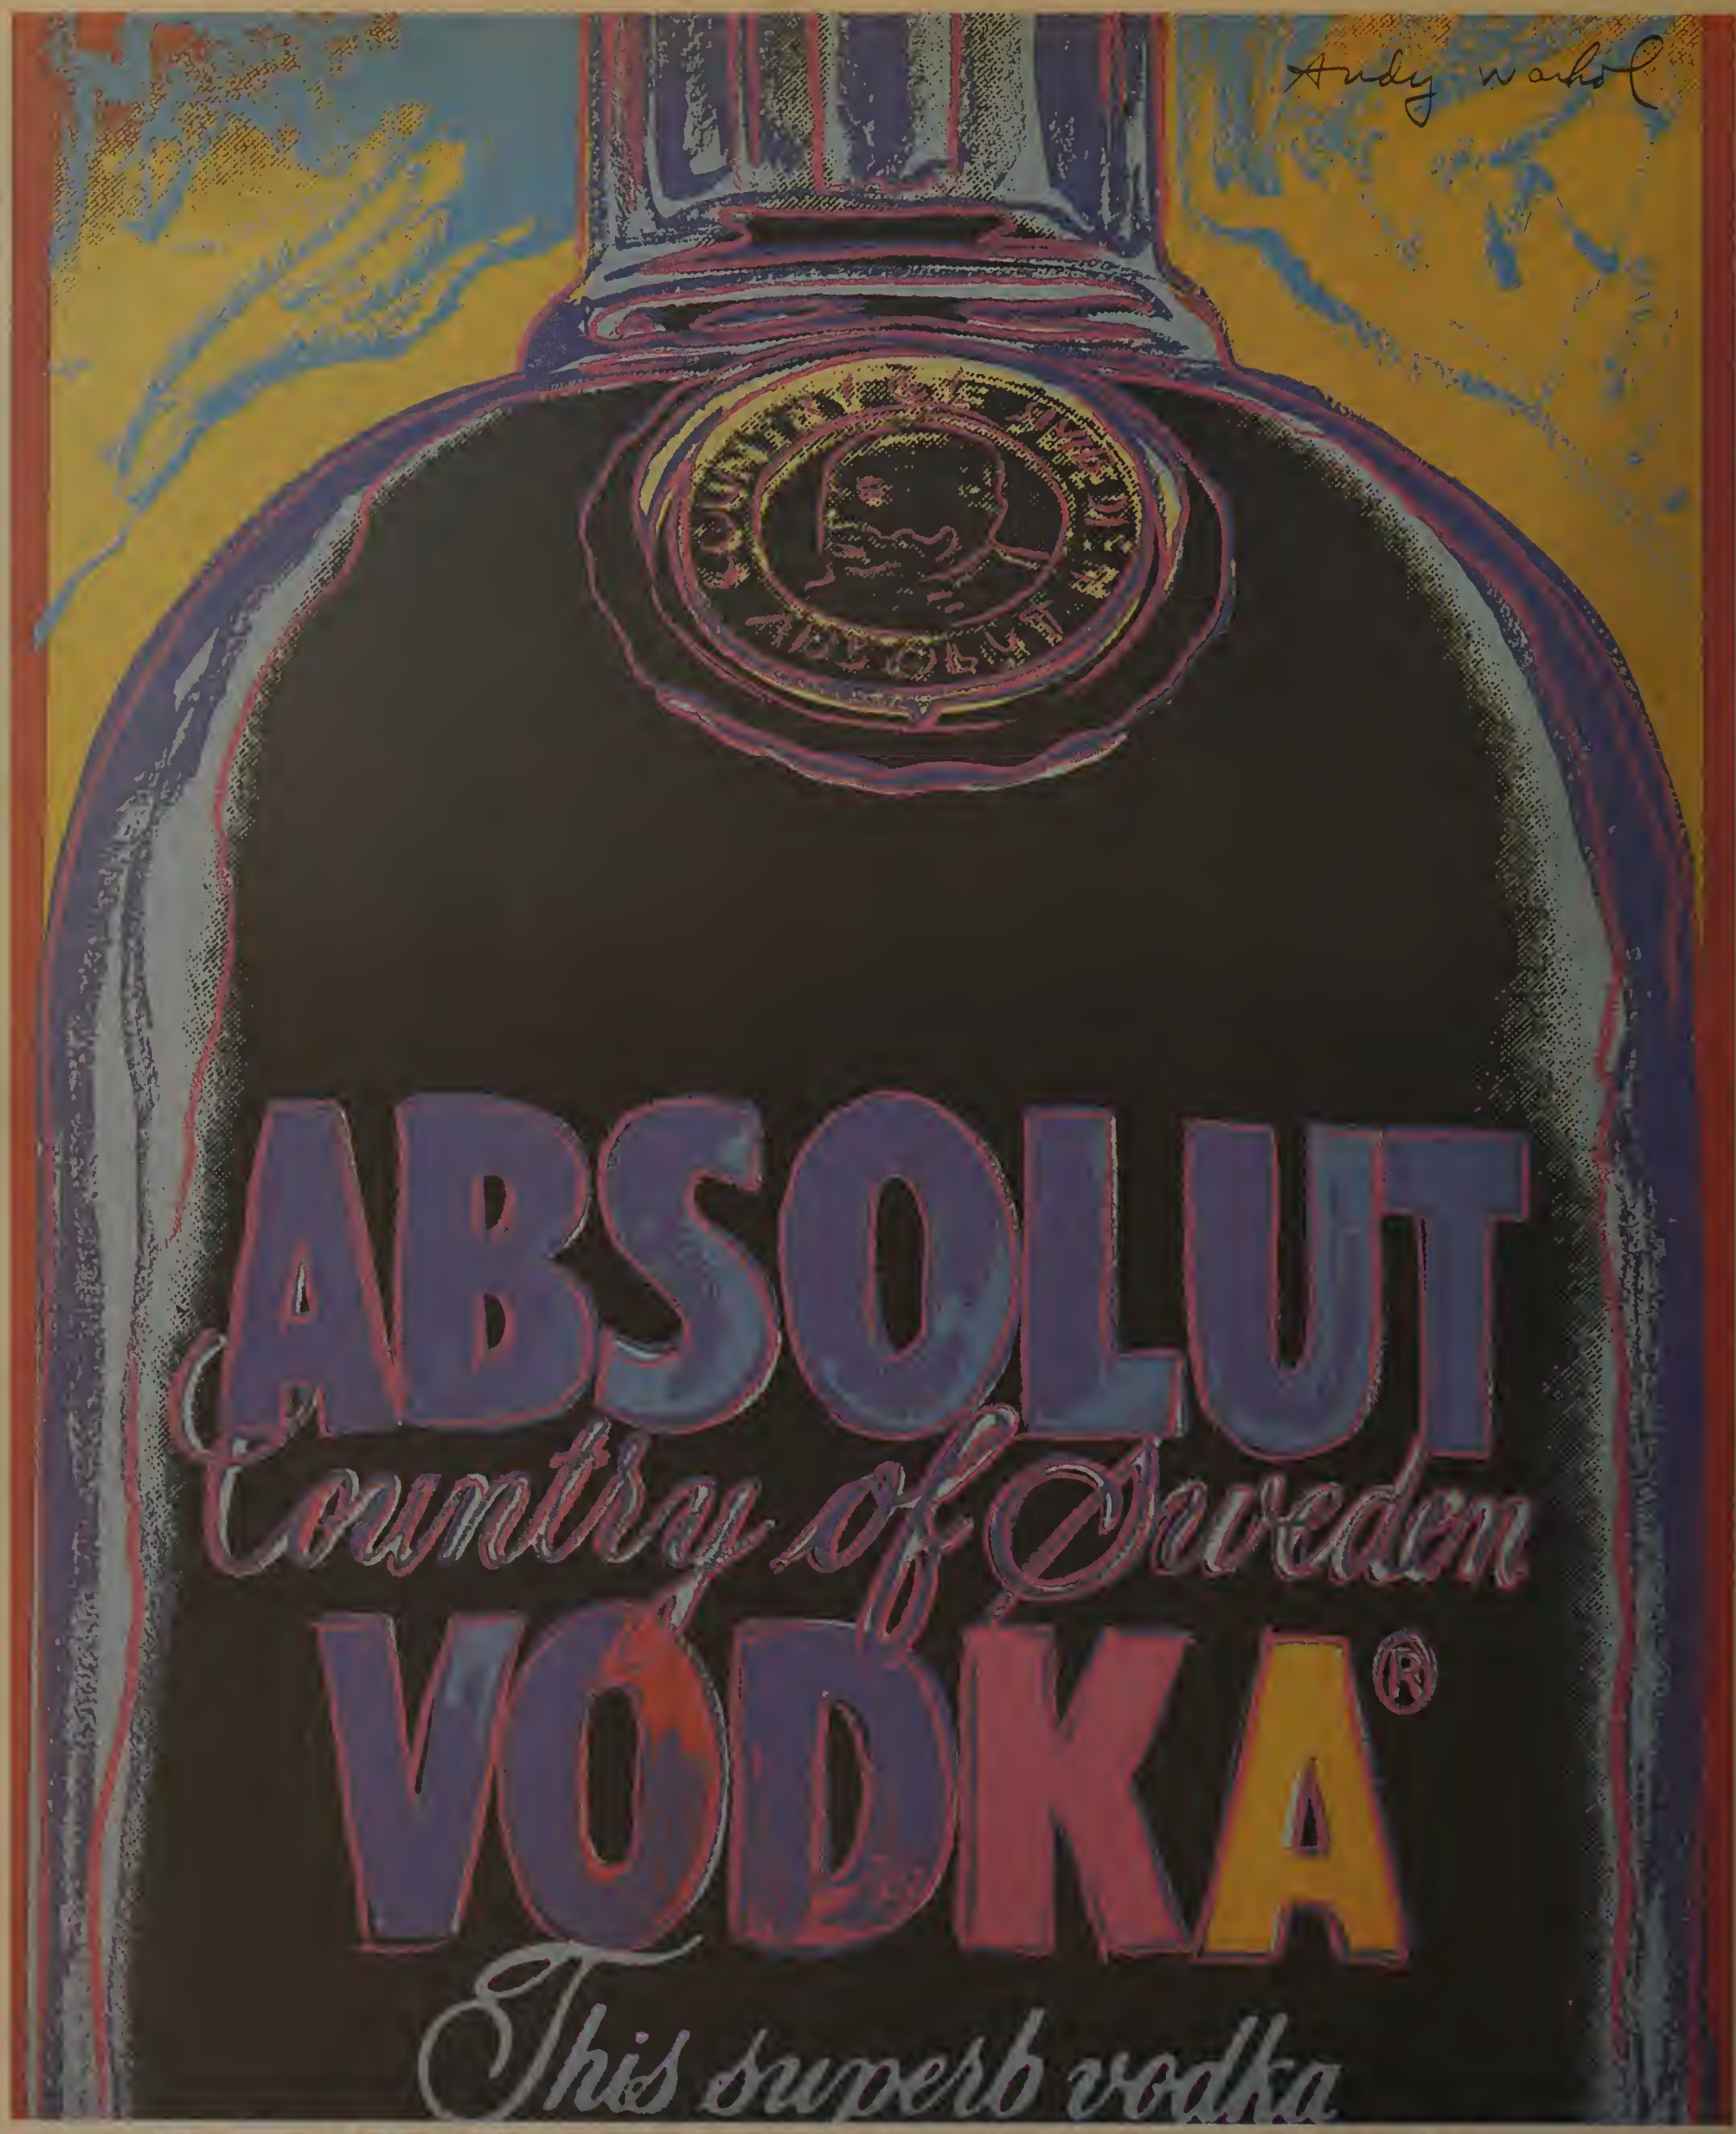
Propoganda

"LOBOTOMIES FOR REPUBLICANS; IT'S THE LAW".Bumper stickers:$2, Buttons: $1. Catalog, volume discounts! Send SASE (or $1 P/H) to CIRCLES OF INFLUENCE 1085 Commonwealth Ave.Dept. 171 Boston, Ma 02215

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.



ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

FREE MONEY for college.We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 Ext 53023 (24hrs)

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificate available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

WITH THE BEST CLASSIFIED AD PRICES IN TOWN, YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO NOT GIVE US A TRY!

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN* CAPTURES YOUR MARKET!

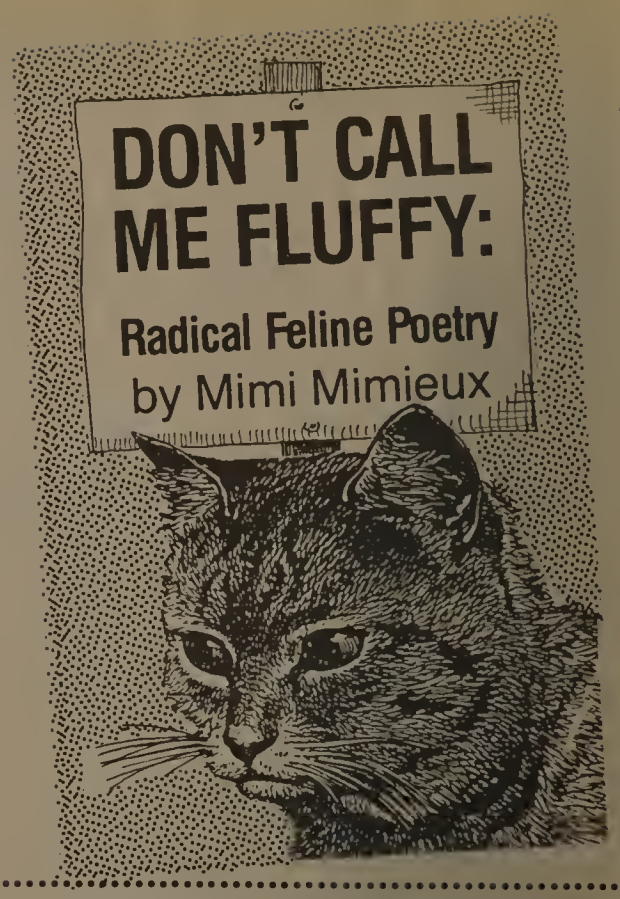
FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

May 27, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)



Don't Miss the Boat - Ways to Jump into Summer Fun

Inside: Newport Vacation Supplement

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Up Against the Litter Box

Satirizing all sorts of things, the book and tape Don't Call me Fluffy: Radical Feline Poetry by Mimi Mimieux purports to be the pissed-off, left wing literary rantings of a post-cute kitty. Mimi vents her lean, mean spleen against affronts perpetrated by her owner, who, among other outrages, is all too sym pathetic to "a couple of dead birds." Killed by the Valdez oil spill: "Your eyes gush tears like broken tankers/Enough of your hypocrisy!/Who knew these birds?/What good did they do. I could kill hundreds of gulls and penguins./I would do it for sport - To teach you a lesson." She mercilessly berates her owner for taking in a stray kitten, and parodies Ginsburg's defiant "Howl" in a poem entitled Meow! Coddled commercial mice - in "Mickey Rat" are targets of Mimi's deepest vitriol: "M-I-C - I'll see you dead! K-E-Y: Why? Cause I'm gonna get you." The accompanying tape gives a wonderfully accurate picture of a folky, shambling poetry show on the radio, hosted by a way-down, low-key guy who-having nurtured outsiderish dissent, end up with a raging, clawing runaway Mimi disrupting his show.

Send: $12.95 plus $2.95 P&H to:
Don't Call Me Fluffy
Odessa Pressa
Box 205
Lydonville, Vermont 05851

Your Skin is Their Term Paper

It's a school, complete with classrooms and blackboards, and aestheticians with crunchy foreign accents - Roumania on the Mystic-and snowy white stretches of space filled with supine, sheet-wrapped angels with students of aesthetics bending over their lit faces in rapt educational practice. These women are getting facials, the Hands-on aspect of the students' training, at pleasantly studential rates ($18.50 or 6 for $92.50). Much of the treatment here involves the concomitant soother called "aromatherapy" which links certain scents to various relaxation-inducing states of mind. Students interested in studying here may go to the level of 300 (the credential necessary to practice), 600 or 900 hours (for budding independent entrepreneurs). Now let's float into the body spa. Depending on what you choose, there is the paraffin torso - or whole body - glove, herbal wraps, slimming and firming treatments, the body scrub and the salt glo. If it's seaweed treatment ($37.50) you want, a paintbrush full of green glop is slathered on your body and you are then wrapped in tin foil and warmed by an electric blanket. You're a cozy baby in swaddling, a yummy mummy. Peace and silence ensue. Pale winged thought-ponies canter past. Half an hour later, you shower off with a special Catherine Hinds gel and are further invigorated with an astringent rubdown that helps you leave this womby cave to go out - softer of skin, sweeter of mood - than you came in.

Catherine E. Hinds
Institute Of Esthetics
65 Riverside Place
Medford, Mass. 02155
391-3733

Class of 1892 - And Thereabouts

A classy jumble, like somebody's well-travelled grandmother of eclectic taste had dowagered-through, fills this antique-shop-plus. Camden Passage is a pleasantly unexpected oasis near Fenway Park, behind a grillwork fence and past a bit of garden furniture. Not only can you custom-order furniture - some of the chairs and sofas of this ilk on display here are indeed unlike the shapes and styles you find "off the rack." Camden Passage offers custom-made tables whose height, function (as to coffee or dining room table) and finish are up to you (they show a fascinating crackly chipped look on the one in the shop.) The kind of fine wooden furniture such as a small but high English clerk's desk with its own overgrown-baby high chair fill the place. Gracious long tables, armoires, and pieces from the Regency and Victorian periods, and the Louis periods of France also abound. This is also the place to order custom lampshades including fancy smocked ones of great delicacy and a 1920's one with a flapperish fringe and luscious trim (the movie Howards End features such shades). Better lampshades, ready-made, are also available. Emblematic of the spirit here are tabletop topiary trees, in winding whorled shapes, or studded with gorgeously mellowed little oranges. Being a fancy shop, one that caters to Show House and such clientele, its prices run accordingly.

Camden Passage
120 Brookline Avenue
Boston, MA 02215
421-9899

MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY IS A FREELANCE WRITER.
PLEASE SEND ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, 17 STATION ST., SUITE 7A BROOKLINE, MA 02146

CONTENTS

May 27, 1992

Features

6 Don't Miss The Boat - Ways To Jump Into Summer Fun

It's here! Time to pursue those old summer activities or maybe even something new. We've got the scoop on everything from skydiving to sailing and air ballooning to bungee jumping. So set your agenda now and read how you can have the best summer of your life.

by Gary S. Kadet

Going Deeper With Frank Santos - The R-Rated Hypnotist 13

Frank Santos is a comedian and a hypnotist. He's a staple in the Boston comedy scene, yet his technique involves audience cooperation and sometimes they won't even know it. So leave one eye open as you hear the story of the comedian who keeps his audiences in a trance. by Tim Lemire

30 The Improper Traveler: Breeze on Down to Newport

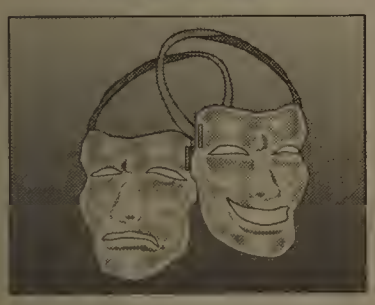
We expand our horizons to brings you the beautiful city of Newport, Rhode Island. Walk through the pages of The Improper Bostonian's first vacation supplement before hitting the streets of Newport for the time of your life. It's all here: Artifacts, Delectables, A View from Above, Newport's Calendar & Events and Staying Over in Newport. by Steve Walker & Davenport Crocker

Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: Alien 3 10
- Upcoming at the Cooldige 11
- Videos: Study War Some More 12

Comedy
- Going Deeper with Frank Santos - R-Rated Hypnotist 13
- Comedy Listings 13

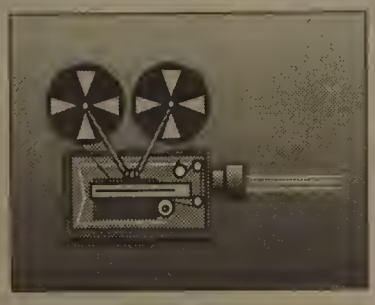
Book Reviews 15
Arts
- Play Review:Oleanna 15
- Arts Calendar 16



Woman on the Street 16
Perspectives... 18
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: 224 Boston Street 20
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Wine Shop Newsletters 21
- Appeteasers 22
- Brunch Board 23
- Restaurant Listings 26

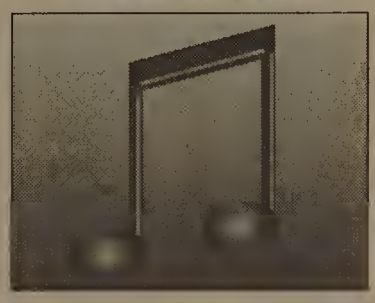
The Leisure Study 24
The Improper Traveler 29
Sports Schedules 37
Music
- Genesis- A New Beginning 38
- Album Reviews 39
- Wachtelligence 40

Improper Impersonals 41
Crossword 41
Bar & Club Listings 42
- Review: The Coolidge Corner Clubhouse 43



Free Boston 46
Classifieds 47

ARTS

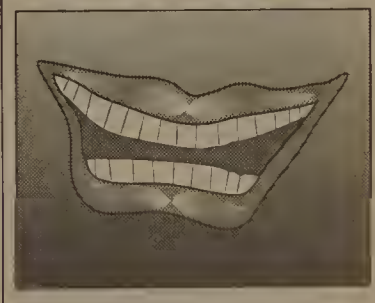


PAGE 14

MOVIES

PAGE 10

MUSIC



PAGE 38

DINING

PAGE 20

COMEDY

PAGE 13

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

PRODUCTION MANAGER
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS,

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

MUSIC WRITERS
A.J. WACHTEL, MICKEY O'HALLORAN
JOE VIGLIONE, JOHN RINALDI

Contributing Writers
GARY S. KADET, PATRICIA J. PIERCE
LISA BONNELL, PRITHA RAYSIRCAR
SHAWN GOODWIN, JEFF BRISKIN
MARK SULLIVAN, ERIC PETERSON

Special Projects Directors
STEVE WALKER, DAVENPORT CROCKER

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS
AYNSLEY FLOYD

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, DAVENPORT CROCKER
JOHN TED, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE, JENNIFER MCCANN
JASON PRING, PAUL BRODKIN
TREVOR FORD, MARIANNE MURPHY

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS

Schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach The Improper Bostonian, mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for conformation. Listings must be received no later than 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 13
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertisers' businesses.

Corrections for the May 13 issue: The Lettice and Loveage reviewer was Nancy Leonard and not Tim Lemire as incorrectly reported. The Boston Brewer's photograph in the Around Town section was taken by Melanie Dunea.

On the Cover

Photographer: Barbara Priami

Model: Andrew Bonee

Boat Courtesy of: Capt. Dave Crocker

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT. WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church

581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

AROUND TOWN

Waste away in Margaritaville with Jimmy Buffet appearing at Great Woods July 9 and 10 at 7:30pm. Celebrating his latest release, Feeding Frenzy, Buffet has dedicated the album to the "Parrotheads," his faithful fans who drink margaritas, don shark-fin hats and wear loud Hawaiian shirts. These fans are also featured as Buffet's choir on Feeding Frenzy . So, join Jimmy for a "Cheeseburger in paradise" at Great Woods. Tickets available at all Ticketmaster outlets or charge by phone at 931-2000. Or call the Great Woods box office at (508) 339-2333.

Set your dial at 89.7 FM/WGBH or take a ride to Great Woods to see radio and folk hero Garrison Keillor with his American Radio Company on Saturday, June 6 at 6pm. This two-hour live variety show will feature comedy sketches, music, special guests and Keillor's famous monologue, The News from Lake Wobegon and will be broadcast live on WGBH Radio. The performance marks the nineteenth stop in the company's twenty-city national tour and will benefit WGBH Radio. Tickets are priced at $25 and $20 for reserved seats and $12.50 for the lawn and are available at all Ticketmaster outlets. To charge by phone, call 931-2000.

Michael Powers

Don't miss comedy's legendary dynamic duo, Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca, as they team up for Together Again at the Charles Playhouse Wednesday, May 13 through Sunday, June 7. Sid Caesar announced the four week limited engagement running at a recent press conference at the Four Seasons Hotel. "Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca: Together Again" will highlight the comedians' most brilliant and timeless sketches. The performances begin at 8pm and tickets are available at the Charles Playhouse box office. To charge tickets by phone, call Ticketpro at (800) 828-7080. For more information, call the Charles Playhouse at (617) 426-6912.

Regarded as the grandest and most majestic of ballet companies in the world, the Kirov Ballet, is coming to Boston. Don't miss this opportunity to see their performance of Romeo and Juliet at the Wang Center June 15 - 17 at 8pm. Part of the Bank of Boston Celebrity Series, the box office sale for the Kirov Ballet will open June 1 and tickets will be available as part of the Celebrity Series Dance Subscription package. To receive a 1992-93 subscription brochure, call the Bank of Boston Celebrity Series at 482-2595 ext. 415.

Put on your walking shoes and participate in or be a sponsor for From All Walks of Life, the AIDS pledge walk, on Sunday, May 31. Sponsored by the AIDS Action Committee, the six-mile walk has been called a long block party featuring paintings and sculpture created specifically for the Walk by Boston area artists. Beginning at 9 am on the Boston Common, the walk will continue through Boston, Brookline and Cambridge and end with a concert at the Hatch Shell. Pledge sheets are available at any branch of Bank of Boston, Fleet Bank, Store 24, Videosmith or by calling 424-WALK.

Melanie Dunea

Attention all who scream for ice cream! Scream your head off at the 10th Annual Scooper Bowl on the Boston Common June 2-4. Just scoop up $3 ($1 for children under 12) and eat all the ice cream and frozen yogurt you can between 11:30am and 6pm. Participants in this year's Scooper Bowl include Ben & Jerry's, Breyer's, Brigham's, Carvel, Häagen-Dazs, Hendrie's, H.P. Hood, Howard Johnson's and West Lynn Creamery. You'll have forty flavors to choose from, so be prepared to lick all day, rain or shine. All proceeds will be donated to the Jimmy Fund.

Don't Miss The Boat -

by Gary S. Kadet

I believe you don't have to be part of an agony-chorus of L.A. women groaning about "believing" to take part in the outdoor sports craze (besides, Reebok is based here, not there). And now that summer's about to make going outside preferable to hibernation, there are more ways to physically unwind in mentally wound-up Boston than just tossing your computer through a window.

For example: there's always jumping into thin air from incredibly high places (that'll clear your head). If you thought that sports like sky diving and bungee jumping were only for West-coast daredevils, New England Adventurers of Lebanon, Maine (a little over an hour away from the Hub) has other ideas. "Weather permitting, a beginner can jump in one day" says co-owner Barbara Ireland. "For $176, we offer a static-line jump from 3500 feet, which is like what the military uses. When the student leaves the airplane, the canopy is already deployed for him by the static line." For the same price, there's also a tandem jump, where the neophyte is harnessed to a jump master under the same chute. "And you get free fall," says Ireland. "About 40 to 50 seconds of it. The jump master deploys the canopy and the student will help guide them in for a landing."

For the adrenaline junkie, there's the $300 accelerated free fall. "In the accelerated free-fall," she adds, "the student would have two jump masters, one on each side holding on to him making sure he's flying flat and stable. You are responsible for pulling your own rip-cord, and the jump masters see to it that you do it at a non-lethal altitude." Sound safe? It isn't.

Although Ireland could point to no recent casualties, there are the occasional sprains and broken bones from improper landings. And insurance waivers must be signed, or else the insurance costs would make the price of jumping prohibitive.

A repeat static-line jump is only $45, but tandem and accelerated free-fall repeats are full cost. "80% of our business are people that always wanted to do this. And not as many back out as you think. We give them a couple of chances during their classes to get a refund, and there's been no one this year and only five out of 1400 first-time students last year. And our repeat business is about 30%."

New England Adventurers is also a clearing house for other exhilarating activities, such as bungee-jumping, hang gliding through Wind Seekers of Groton, ($99 for the first lesson), white water rafting (mostly in Maine) and hot air ballooning. $180 gets you 3 1/2 hours in a gondola with an experienced pilot and a champagne toast when you land to celebrate your survival. For bookings and further information, call 969-4050.

Price buster's bonus: Jump Thunderbird Skydiving, also in Maine (207-934-5859) shaves the price of a static-line jump down to $100. With repeat jumps at $20, can you really not afford to risk life and limb in the quest for fun?

"Where do you surf?" asks "Messy" Harrow, manager of Mad Mike's Wind surfing and a bona fide surfer who sounds like he just tripped in from Malibu. "You surf wherever the waves are." According to Messy, "The focal point is Rhode Island and Nantasket North. And then you can surf from Scituate on north all the way up to the main coast. If you are familiar with weather patterns and know what makes waves, you can find places to surf. You find yourself watching the weather a lot." The cost of getting set to surf is $200 to $300 for a "stick" (the board) and $100 for a wet suit to prevent hypothermia. "In new England," says Messy, "there's nowhere to take lessons. You just go out there and do it." Of this end of the nationwide "Coconut Telegraph" of surfdom, Messy comments: "It's a hard-core thing. People don't do it to cool. It's a part of their lives."

Mad Mike's also offers a $99 a month rent to own program for windsurfing. If you just want to ride the waves for the summer, you return the stick and receive your deposit back minus $198 - not bad for a summer diversion where the cost of ownership can run up to $700 with a wetsuit. All the retailers seem to agree: the place to go to learn how to windsurf is the 2-year old New England Windsurfing Academy at the Seacrest Resort on Buzzard's Bay in North Falmouth. "We are totally dedicated to instruction," says proprietor Joe Collins. "We have lessons at all levels from novice to advanced, and if you don't want to shell out $600 for a board and suit, this is the place to go," says Collins. "We have a very high success ratio with people taking our three-hour $50 introductory lesson. Everybody exhibits some proficiency." Collins suggests the six-hour two-day package, which, "After the second three hours

Melanie Dunea

You don"t have to be a pro to enjoy the sailing pleasures of Community Boating.

Ways To Jump Into Summer Fun

Melanie Dunea

A rollerblader takes to the air on the esplanade.

Melanie Dunea

Canoeing on the Charles is all it takes to forget your troubles

we'll have you sailing anywhere you want to go." Advanced levels include harnesses and the technique of sailing in stronger winds so, "you can do those jumps that you see on TV." The guaranteed six-hour lesson runs 85$. Call Joe for further details at 508-457-0005.

Boston's redoubtable Community Boating offers sailing and windsurfing instruction on the Charles. "We're the biggest program around," says Community Relations Director Barbara Rose. "We rent single-person Mercury's, Lasers, Large, handicapped and - adaptable keel boats which can hold 6 or seven people at a time. We have a relationship with Can-am sailcraft who donates new windsurfing boards every year. We also have a lot of Wind surfing races, beginning to advanced wind surfing and sailing lessons and lessons for kids." The price of a 30-day non-student membership is $80, $215 from April to November. Students pay $150 for the year and children between the ages of 10 and 17 pay $1 for the entire summer. The only drawback to note is that on crowded afternoons you might be called in from the water after less than an hour out to give someone else a chance - the price of convenience! Call 523-8386 to sign up.

For more sedate water sports, Charles River Kayak and Canoe offers rentals, daytrips and instruction in Canoeing, kayaking and sea-kayaking, and single skulls. "We do a lot instruction with three lesson-packages for Kayaks and rowing shells and four for canoes," says proprietor Larry Smith. The nice thing about it is that it includes four weeks of unlimited use of the boats." Prices are $55 for canoe and $75 for kayak and single skull. "We'll be offering a two-day course for this summer in sea-kayaking. They just use longer boats that are designed to track better." And of course, this includes the gentle art of flipping the Kayak upright, should you be rolled under the waves. Charles River also offers picnic canoe trips coordinated with the nearby Marriott Hotel. Call 965-5110 for rental rates and scheduled trips.

Is all this wind surfing, kayaking, and sailing on the Charles River safe? More so than sky-diving. "From Watertown dam to Hopkinton," says Bob Zimmerman of the Charles River Watershed Association, an advocacy development group dedicated to the upkeep of the river, "you can swim in the river. A few years ago, if you capsized in the Charles near Boston, you'd turn black if you fell in

(continued on page 9)

FREE

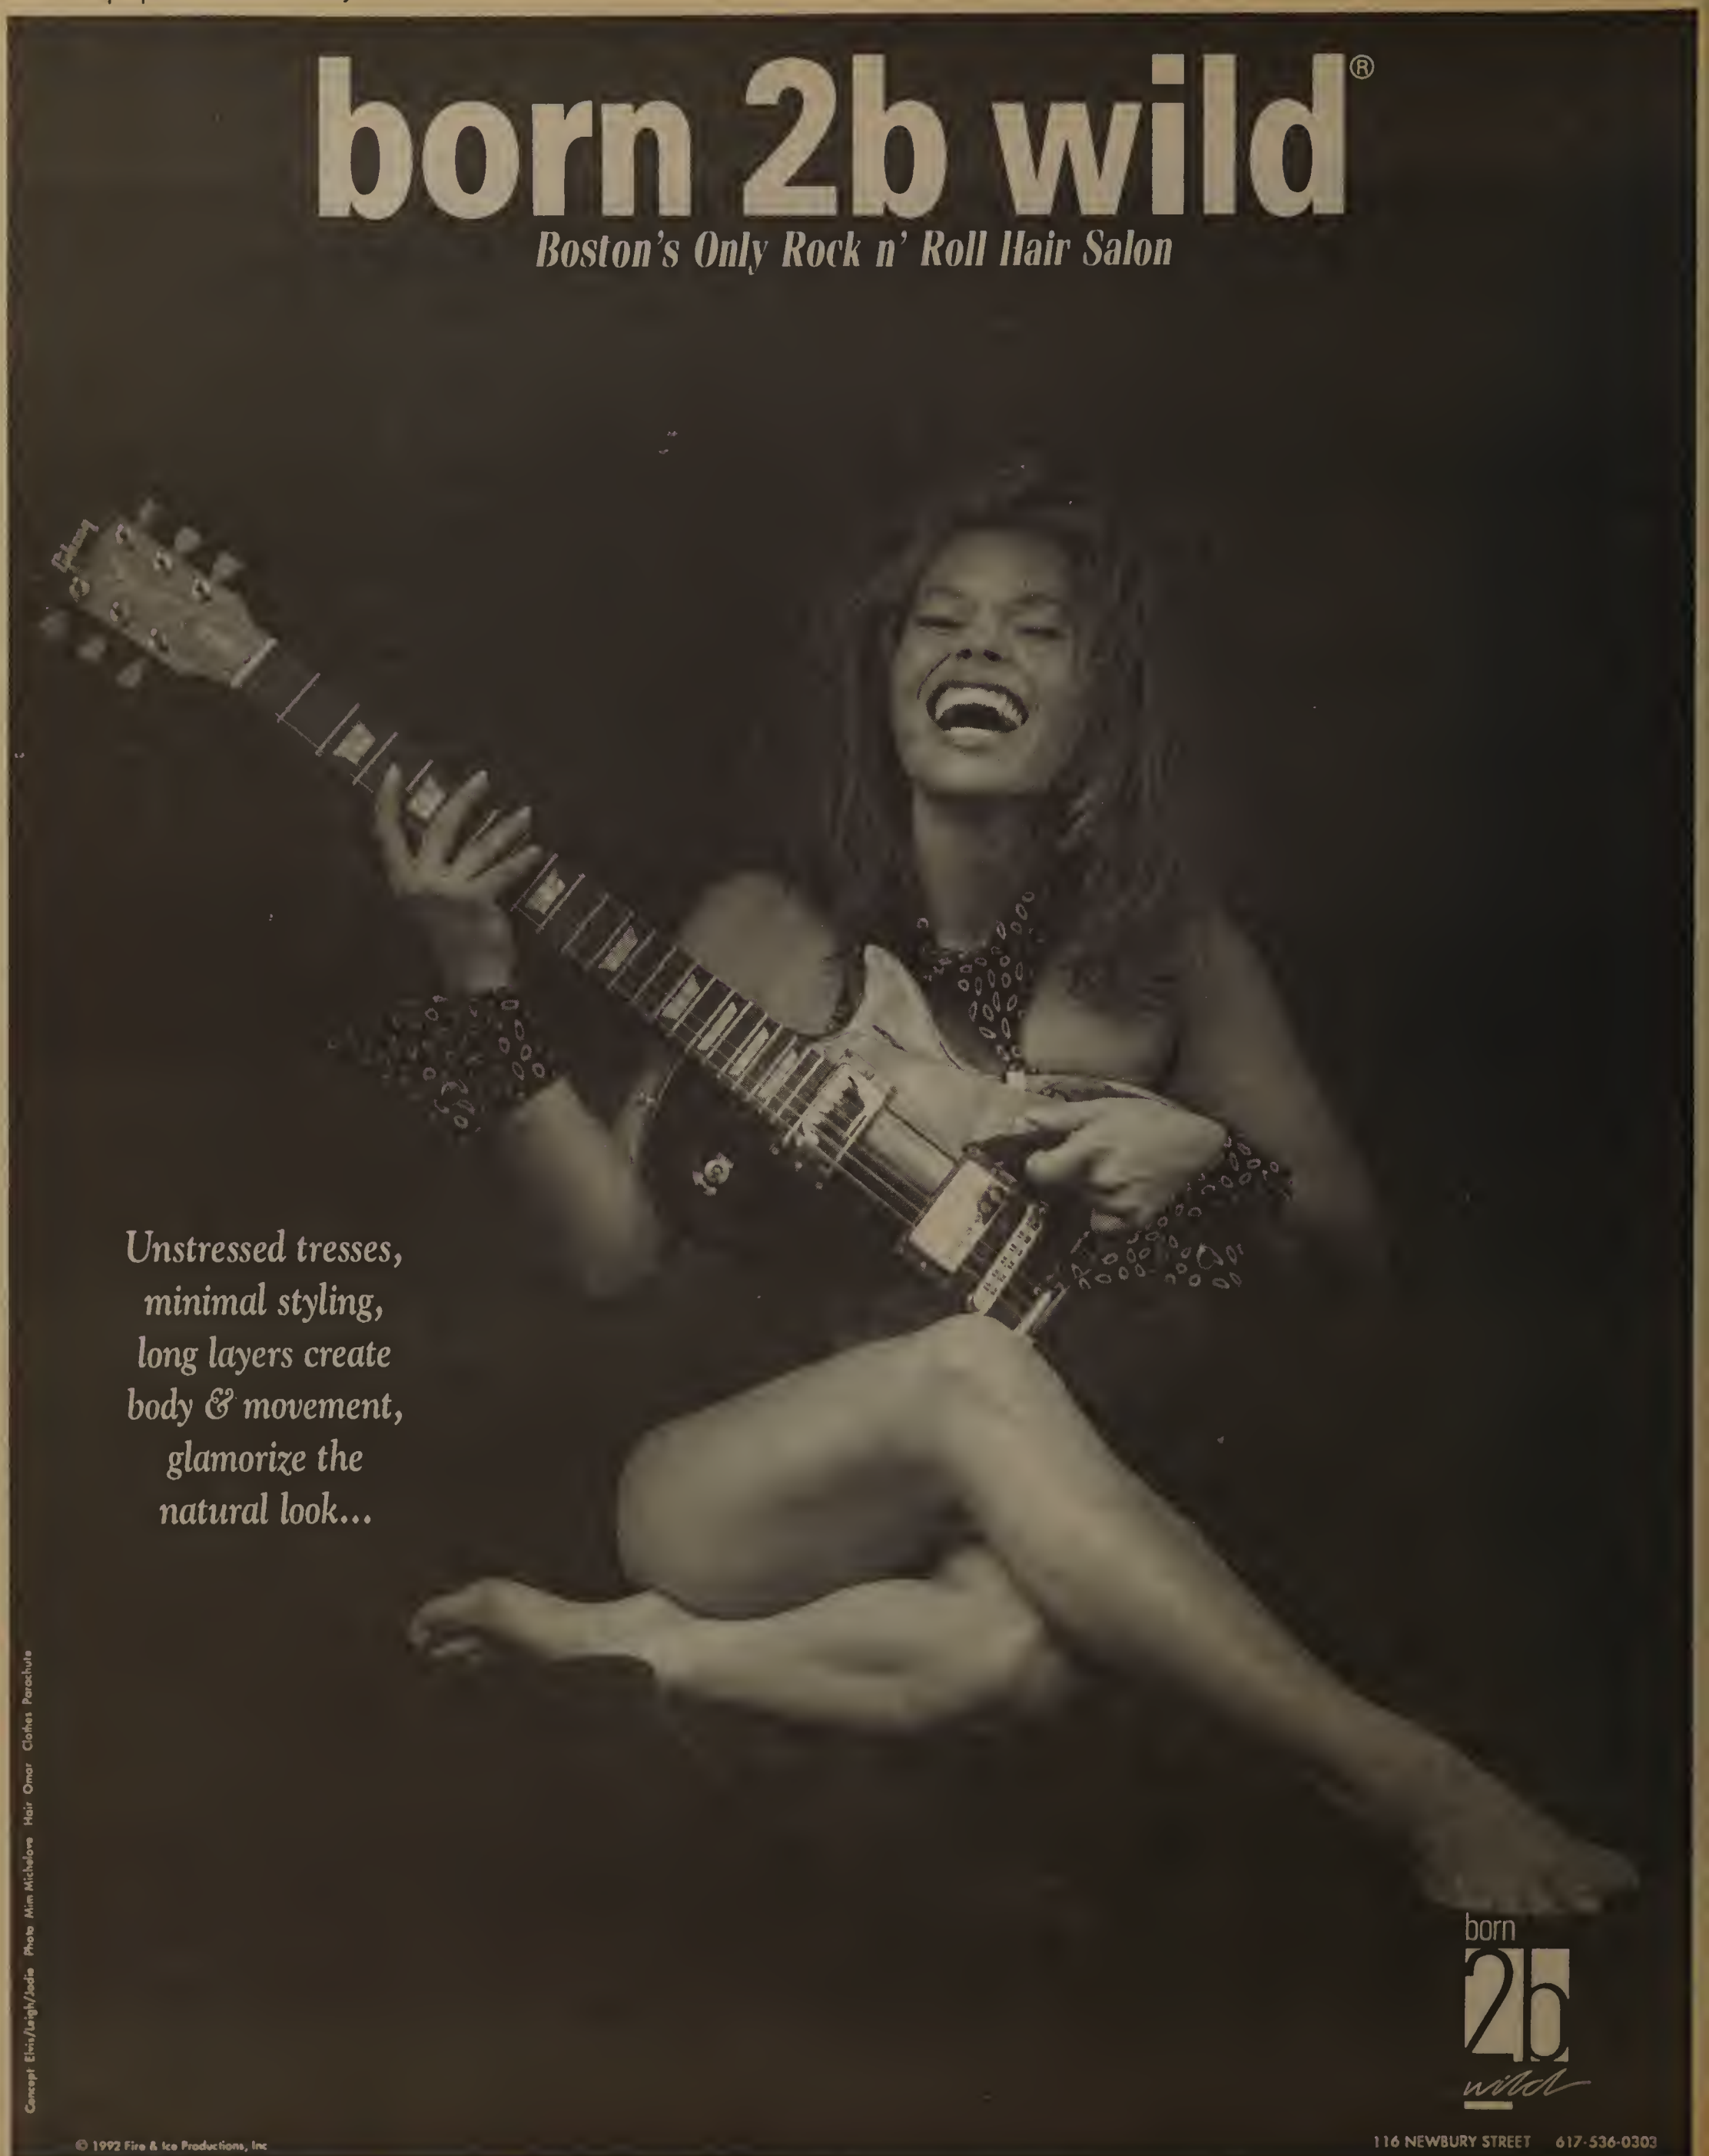
Learn To Meditate

To Enlightened Electronic Music

☆ Seminar 1: Chakra Meditation Empowerment
☆ Seminar 2: Wisdom, Enlightenment and Nirvana
☆ Seminar 3: Meditation Intensive

The Inn at Harvard, 1201 Mass. Ave. (at Quincy)
Saturday May 30, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 1
Saturday June 6, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 2
Sunday June 7, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 3

The French Library, 53 Marlborough St.
Monday June 1, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 1
Wednesday June 3, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 2



The Westin Hotel Copley Place
Thursday May28, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 1
Friday May 29, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 2
Thursday June 4, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 1
Friday June 5, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m., Seminar 2

FREE FREE

Sponsored By The Boston Meditation Society. For Info Call 499-7766.

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

Unstressed tresses, minimal styling, long layers create body & movement, glamorize the natural look...

Concept Elvis/Leigh/Jodie Photo Mim Michelove Hair Omar Clothes Parachute

© 1992 Fire & Ice Productions, Inc

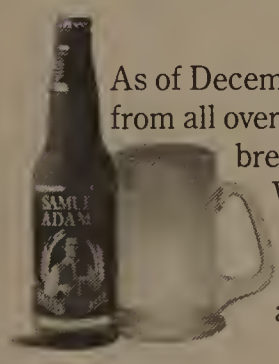
born 2b wild

116 NEWBURY STREET 617·536·0303

FEATURES

Melanie Dunea

A weary biker takes a few minutes to rest.



(continued from page 7)

biking may be another way to blow off steam this summer. Russ Colton, a Production Manager at Boston's Thomson Financial Networks, is taking 2 months combined leave and vacation time to cycle from Seattle to Boston with co-worker Karin Weaver. "For short distances," says Russ, it's important to train and get in shape, which takes about a week. You won't enjoy your ride if you don't. But, if you're going cross-country, you don't have to worry too much - you just start off with slower, easier days and work into it." Russ and Karin are relying on prefigured routes, maps and support supplied by Bike Centennial of Missoula Montana. Bike Centennial is a 20-year old organization that works with recreational cyclists across the US, providing route research and sponsors self-contained camping tours (meaning no back-up vans or "sag wagons"), produces the Cyclist's Yellow Pages and publishes the Bike Report nine times a year. Membership is $22 per year. For information, call 800-933-1116.

A good distance rig can run from $500 to $2,000. Phil Getchell of International Bikes in Allston suggests that you can recondition your old bike for considerably less. But, if distance biking seems too 1970's for you, Getchell suggests you try mountain biking. "You can go nuts on these bikes," he says. "There are mountain bike trails out in Dover, you can go to the Fells and ride in Medford. It's earthy, it's fun. That's just the hip thing to do now. You can get a bicycle for $3-400 with big fat tires and twenty one gears and really go to town." And if you want to stay in town, there's always freewheeling in Boston with roller-skates, rollerblades (or in-line skating, as it's more properly known) skate-boards or roller sailing. The Beacon Hill Skate shop on Charles St. will rent skates or blades for $5 an hour, $15 per day and will sell (but not rent) you a board for around $120. Salesman Jamal Williams says that the blades or in-line skates are the most popular, but that roller-skates are best for inner-city skating. Wheels Skate Gallery, now run out of proprietor Roland Cosby's Allston home, specializes in high-end custom-made roller-sports equipment. Roland makes sails for roller-skates, "Mostly for people on the west coast, but there are a few people here. It's a specialized activity for people who have the right equipment and are prepared. But I do deal with beginners and rent skates, for $10 a day." The difference between blades and skates? "On in-line skates, you can go faster but fall more easily. Roller-skates are more stable." When not playing

(continued on page 37)

Whether It's A Wild Boar Or A Gator, An Indian Or A Buffalo, An Anchor Or A Light Ship, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

As of December 4, we'll proudly serve over 50 different micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Lethal Weapon III
"Unbeatable Chemistry"

It's easy to enjoy a sequel when Director Richard Donner knows in advance exactly what the audience wants. All the right ingredients - action, suspense and comedy - are present as officers Riggs and Murtaugh are back in a very funny sequel. Lethal Weapon III reunites the team of Mel Gibson and Danny Glover whose chemistry as two of Los Angeles' most unlikely police partners proves that once again, you don't need a great plot to make a film enjoyable. Only six days before Murtaugh is to retire from the force, his kamikaze partner, Riggs, uncovers a gun smuggling plot that's leaving young gang members dead on the street. Solid performances from Gibson and Glover while Joe Pesci again annoys us in the role of Leo Getz ("O.K., O.K., O.K.; they fuck you at the drive-through.) So when is Lethal Weapon IV? T.A.S.

Ferngully
"Fine Educational Entertainment"

Ferngully uses animation to deliver a strong environmental message for children. The film is a little simplistic but makes an honorable attempt to educate. With fairies and talking animals, the rain forest is shown as a paradise. Humans arrive to destroy the forest with evil machines, releasing a force called Hexus (Tim Curry) that survives on pollution. Samantha Mathis lends her voice to a fairy who manages to save nature. Robin Williams gives a demented kinetic "performance" as an escaped laboratory bat. His appearance might cheer up adults but Ferngully remains for kids. The film uses humor to provide a valuable lesson about the environment - certainly money well spent. J.A.

White Men Can't Jump
"A Festival of Exuberance"

White Men Can't Jump is a celebration of the no autopsy/no foul world of L.A. street hoop. With the curve of their athletic ability tailing off Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson) and Sidney Deane (Wesley Snipes) have found a niche hustling basketball games. Snipes exudes sweeping, unshakable confidence, raising trash-talking to an art form. Harrelson is a prodigious font of insults, convincing as the "slow, white, geeky chump" necessary for the hustle. Rosie Perez and Tyra Ferrel give the men the strength and direction as their respective partners. This film is a festival of exuberance, driven by good performances, athletic ability and the fine art of insulting someone's mother. A raucous experience. J.A.

Wayne's World
"Worth The Trip"

Wayne's World is so stupid, it will make your belly ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played quite naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control of their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World, but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

Alien^3

One Monster, Lots of Thrills, a few Holes

A deadly extraterrestrial is loose on "Fury 161", a remote prison planet inhabited by convicts in Twentieth Century Fox's Alien^3.

by Tim Lemire

Alien 3, in which we rendezvous with heroine beauty Ellen Ripley and her intergalactic beast, is a deserving, yet flawed finale to the Alien series; your enjoyment of the movie will depend on how much you prize chest-racking suspense over a questionable plot.

The cryo-chambers of the USS Sulaco have landed on Fiorina 161, a maximum security planet for rapists, murderers and molesters. In this prison planet of men, Ellen Ripley (Sigourney Weaver) is the alien. The intruder. Having embraced religion, the prisoners have renounced contact with women, and Ripley represents (in the words of the Churchilian warden Andrews) "a disruption in the spirituality" of the place. As you can guess, the boys are in for a disruption of a much bigger kind: the killer Alien executes a deadly countdown of murder, and their only form of defense lies with some knives from the cafeteria.

The fight is a good one - with a few clever twists - but the movie still relies on the race-against-time suspense building of Aliens (sequel #1). And the haircuts: Fiorini 161 is infested with head lice, giving Ripley her Sinead-in-space look. A different touch, but essential to the plot? Hardly. And having the prisoners embrace Christian fundamentalism doesn't present them with a moral dilemma when the time comes to kill and kill again, so one wonders why the element of religion was introduced.

One wonders, that is, only if one cares; given that the prime direction of Alien 3 is to thrill and chill, perhaps not every element of the script need be explained.

As in the first two Alien movies, Sigourney Weaver is surrounded by a fine supporting cast of appealing characters. Brian Glover plays warden Andrews, a burly British headmaster presiding over his criminal pupils. Charles Dance plays Doctor Clemens with warmth, strength and calm; we understand why Ripley feels safe with him. Charles Dutton is the unflinching, iron-chinned Dillon, the most thoughtful and yet intimidating of his "brothers," a raggedy lot of gap-toothed inmates.

Sigourney Weaver hands in a respectable return performance as Ripley, but this time around we seem to be more spectators of Ripley's fight than comrades fighting alongside her. As Ripley, Weaver displays less emotional depth than in her previous two adventures. She loses something when her head is shaven - her femininity, her vulnerability, and like Samson, part of her strength.

Alien 3 will jump-start your heart more than any other movie currently showing, but the sweeping suspense tends to blur the fact that there is only one monster and a script with a few holes. ❑

Alien ^{3}
Twentieth Century Fox
Directed by David Fincher
Starring
Sigourney Weaver
Charles Dutton
Charles Dance
Brian Glover

Answer to Previous Puzzle

N	A	P	A			G	A	W	K		A	L	U	M
F	R	A	N	C		O	M	A	N		D	E	S	I
L	A	S	E	R		A	I	R	E		E	T	A	S
		S	W	E	E	T	S	N	E	L	L	O	F	S
U	T	E		W	A	S	H			Y	I	N		P
P	O	S	I	E	S			E	A	R	N		N	E
S	O	F	T	L	Y	W	I	T	H	E	E	L	I	N
E	R	O	O			A	N	D	A			I	N	T
T	A	R		T	O	I	L		B	A	L	M
		A	O	R	T	I	C		R	O	B	T		B
T	R	A	W	L	B	E	F	O	R	E	Y	O	U	C
R	E	S	I	D	E		E	R	I	N		S	N	A
E	A	T	N	O			N	O	T	E		D	R	E
B	R	I	E	F	C	A	S	E		F	A	R	O
L	E	N		U	N	P	A	R	D	O	N	A	B	L
E	D	S		F	I	A	T		E	R	R	S		E
		A	I	N	T		S	P	A		G	A	S	P
Y	O	U	V	E	G	O	T	T	O	B	E	I	N	S
E	N	R	O	L		M	A	A	M		A	M	O	K
S	T	A	I	D		I	R	M	A		T	I	M	E
M	O	L	D	S		C	A	P	N		S	T	E	W

Coming to the Coolidge

Upcoming Movies at Boston's Most Improper Theater

by Tim Lemire

If your taste in movies runs slightly left of the Boston Nickelodeon and more contemporary than the retrospectives at the Brattle Theatre in Cambridge, then the Coolidge Corner Theatre on 290 Harvard Street in Brookline is the best ticket in town. David Kleiler, artistic director of the Coolidge, prides himself on the theater's regular run of works by contemporary American moviemakers, international films, midnight festivals and special programs. Variety is key at the Coolidge, where Kleilar says, "There is always a spirit of fun. I don't want any group of people to feel that stuff shown here is out of reach."

Tribulation 99 is an independent film by Craig Baldwin of international and interplanetary conspiracies linking together UFO's, the CIA, cattle mutations, JFK, George Bush, Noriega and more. Described in its press as "the shocking truth of the upcoming apocalypse," Tribulation 99 will premiere at 10:30 pm on Thursday, May 28, in conjunction with a performance by alternative rock band Cul De Sac.

Following the May 28 premiere, Tribulation 99 will run on weekend midnight shows at the Coolidge, along with what Kleilar calls "paranoid shorts," three films that combine humor, impropriety and shocking subjects. "They're almost perverse," says Kleilar with a smile. Report is a docu-short on the JFK assassination, Your Job in Germany is a World War II propaganda piece directed by Frank Capra and written by Theodore Geisel (a.k.a. Dr. Seuss!) and in Our Job in Japan, Theodore Geisel takes the director and writer chair for a venomous propaganda short against America's 1945 nemesis.

Tribulation 99* illuminates the viewer on matters of global alien conspiracies and the impending apocalypse.

Continuing at the Coolidge until June 4 are The Famine Within and Raise the Red Lantern, two films that have enjoyed enormous popularity at the Coolidge. "Last weekend three new pictures opened at the Nick," Kleilar reports, "and Raise the Red Lantern did better in its fifth week than any of those new movies." In Mandarin with English subtitles, Raise the Red Lantern profiles the self-contained world of a master and his favorite wife.

The Famine Within, a 90-minute film by Katherine Gilday, is an uncompromising look at how society dictates to women unattainable standards of physical beauty. The Improper Bostonian's Leslie Ross called The Famine Within "a thought-provoking treatment of a serious subject...it's one education you shouldn't miss."

Running through June is Vicente Aranda's erotic Spanish film Lovers, which Kleilar says is "not the usual steamy summer sex comedy." In Spain of the '50s, during Franco's puritanical rule, Lovers is the tale of a young soldier Paco, the innocent young Trini and her provocative foil, the grifter Luisa.

Also playing at the Coolidge are

(continued on following page)

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Delicatessen
"Food for Thought"

Squeamish people may be better off eating a burger, but for those with strong stomachs, this bizarre, dark comedy (with a little romance sprinkled in for good seasoning) is destined to become a cult classic: A butcher is somehow able to provide cold cuts to his customers during a meat shortage, while the tenants of his building mysteriously disappear. The plot is original, the dialogue funny, the acting hysterical, and the camera work is first-rate. What more can you ask for? K.M.

Encino Man
"Rad filmage for your melon, bud-dy..."

This tale of cro-magnon Pygmalion featuring MTV's Pauly Shore is not the bone-headed bogus adventure you might imagine: Encino Man is a rock solid good teenage time, the story of two high school seniors who unearth a caveman in their backyard and try to integrate him into the L.A. lifestyle. Pauly's L.A.-Speak peppers the movie with a hip flavor and Brendan Fraser as the caveman Link is comical and quite likable. Encino Man is a great flick to bring your kid brother or sister to (or heck, they can bring you to it). This film has no profanity, no nudity and no mindless partying - just a totally rad time, bud-dy... T.S.L.

Howard's End
"Enchanting To The Last Frame"

Director Jim Avory gratefully escorts another E.M. Forster novel to the screen in an exploration of familiar Forsterian themes of class antagonism, social convention and the nobility of asserted independence. Helene Bonham Carter stars with Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson in this drama which interweaves the lives of two conflicting and diverse families who are ultimately thrown into a plot involving the deception of a home willed to one of the family members, Helen Schlegel (Carter). Avory has difficulty establishing a host of characters in the first half but ties things together nicely in the second half. A great movie that's sure to stir up some emotions. T.L.

White Sands
"A Disturbing Drama"

White Sands is a disturbing psychological drama which raises alarming questions about identity, ethics and avarice.

For the Deputy Sheriff (Willem Dafoe) of a backwater New Mexico town, livin' is easy until he stumbles upon an unidentified dead man whose attache case contains $5 million in unmarked bills. Within 24 hours, the sheriff's careful investigations explode into a world of covert activities and stealth operations. Leaving behind his protesting wife (Mimi Rogers), and his cautious, by-the-book persona, Dafoe assumes the identity of the dead man in order to solve the murder. Director James Robinson has created a world based upon double identities where the fine lines of distinction between good and evil, and just and unjust, seemingly disappear. P.R.

The Player
"Hollywood On A Skewer"

Director Robetr Altman (M*A*S*H*, Nashville) comes back with a vengeance in this scathing satire of Hollywood and the sleazebags, backstabbers and bootlickers who make the trash you shell out $7.00 to see. Tim Robbins plays the paranoid movie executive who rises higher with each crime he commits while Whoopi Goldberg plays the detective who stalks him. Greta Scaatchi is the ice goddess with a heart of stone and dozens of stars appear as themselves in inconsequential cameos. From the long opening shot that pays tribute to Orson Welles' Touch of Evil to closeups of classic movie posters that end many scenes, Altman constantly pays tribute to the art of filmmaking as he skewers the studio alchemists who turn trash into gold. J.B.

KEY

- A Winner
- A Toss up
- For the birds

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
White Men Can't Jump	Winner	Winner	Toss up	Winner	Winner	Winner	Winner	Toss up	Toss up
The Player	Winner	Winner	Toss up	Winner	For the birds	Winner	Winner	Winner	Toss up
Sleepwalkers	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	Toss up	—	—	—
Beethoven	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	—	—	—	Toss up	—
Folks!	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	—	—	For the birds	—
Wayne's World	Winner	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Winner
Deep Cover	Winner	Toss up	Winner	Toss up	Toss up	—	—	Toss up	Toss up
Split Second	For the birds	Toss up	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	—	—	For the birds	For the birds
Basic Instinct	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up	For the birds	Toss up
The Babe	For the birds	For the birds	For the birds	Winner	Toss up	Winner	—	Winner	For the birds

MOVIES

Video Reviews

Study War Some More

by John Galligan & Jon Haber

Hollywood and war have been good bedfellows over the decades. Tinseltown rallied the nation against the Nazis, shaped the mythology of World Wars I and II and most recently, tried to help us exorcise our demons over Vietnam.

Now that George Bush (our kindler, gentler, Rolodex warlord) has so thoughtfully proclaimed an end to the "Vietnam Syndrome," it is only fair to recall Hollywood's most intriguing war year, 1970, when the insanity of Nam was not-so subtly transferred in film to previous wars.

Kelly's Heroes stars Clint Eastwood as the leader of a morally-negative company of WWII G.I.'s whom Clint convinces to rob a French bank containing $16 million in gold. The catch? The stash is located behind enemy lines. Donald Sutherland steals this picture playing a love-child hippie tank commander. While Sutherland's character was an anachronism for World War II films message, that war was either something to be skillfully avoided or else an opportunity for profit, fit the cynicism of 1970 audiences perfectly.

Wartime profits were also not ignored in Catch-22, Joseph Heller's classic anti-war novel turned Mike Nichols film. In this picture, the everyday madness of war is compounded by omnipresent wheelings and dealings of "The Syndicate," a for-profit operation determined to cash in on Europe's misery. Needed first aid kits are traded for Syndicate stock. Senior officers are bowing and scraping before lower ranking soldiers with Syndicate connections. Americans bomb their own airfield as part of a bizarre Syndicate-brokered business deal with the Germans.

In Catch-22, Alan Arkin played the stressed out Air Force Captain Yossarian who cannot section 8 out of World War II until he proves he is insane. Since only a crazy person would continue to fly bomber missions, Yossarian's desire to stop flying proves his sanity-thus no section 8 discharge (Catch 22).

While this black comedy does less than justice to Heller's intricate book, good performances by Arkin, Richard Benjamin Martin Sheen and Bob Newhart (make it worth viewing. '

*M*A*S*H, the 1970 anti-war classic, was director Robert Altman's contribution to the genre. With our long exposure to the hit TV series, it is hard to remember that Hawkeye and Trapper John began their careers in this movie as blood-soaked rationalists, rather than 2-d martyrs, that Frank Burns' penny-ante villain was written out halfway through the script, and that Radar really was telepathic (and a lot less cutesy).

*M*A*S*H ostensibly set in Korea, clearly addressed the pointless lunacy, knee-jerk reaction and abiding cynicism that characterized Vietnam. Hats off to Altman that *M*A*S*H is also one of his (and Hollywood's funniest films).

While films like Platoon and The Deer Hunter shove the ugliness of war in our faces, none capture war's lunacy like the black comedies that surfaced during the Vietnam era. Clearly World War II and Korea were nothing like the wars of Captain Yossarian, Hawkeye Pierce and Kelly's Heroes. Yet, in all of these films, the message is clear: no matter how righteous the cause, for the common soldier, war is an equal-opportunity asylum. ❑

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Mike's MOVIES

FREE FRISBEE *

Rent 2 Movies at regular rental rate & receive a free frisbee.

*With this ad
*Not to be combined with any other offer
*Expires June 15, 1992
*While supplies last

557 Tremont St. (At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End 266-9222

Open 10am to 10pm; Friday and Saturday until 10:30pm; Sunday noon to 10pm

Upcoming At the Cooldige

(continued from previous page)

1945's Your Job in Germany designed for soldeirs assigned to postwar Germany has a strict "No fraternization with the enemy message."

midnight festivals of renowned cult classics. Pink Floyd's The Wall hits the screen the weekend of May 22-23, Monty Python's The Meaning of Life plays May 29-30 and for knuckleheads and porcupines of all ages, the Coolidge Corner Theater presents a Three Stooges Film Festival June 5-6.

David Kleilar decides on movie times at the beginning of each week, so he recommends you call the Coolidge at 734-2500 for all ticket and showtime information. "We try to bring in a variety of specialty audiences," says Kleilar, "and plug deeply into the different constituencies that make up those audiences." If you stop by the Coolidge, you might catch Kleilar himself introducing the show. ❑

A Modern Day Definition

Lifestyle \ 'lif-sti(ə)l \n: Ups and Downs B: Ins and Outs 2: A Way of Life (living it up yet trimming it down, tucking it in and working it out!) SYN: See Boston Athletic Club.

The Boston Athletic Club would like to announce to all Improper Bostonian customers The Summer Membership $199 starting June 1st!

Please call for further definition 617-269-4300

BOSTON ATHLETIC CLUB

653 Summer Street, Boston MA 02210

Not just your Fitness Club, it's your Lifestyle...

FREE PARKING!

COMEDY

Going Deeper with Frank Santos

Boston's R-Rated Hypnotist

Aynsley Floyd

Santos literally mesmerizes audiences with his unique and risqué act.

by Tim Lemire

"Relax and follow the music of my voice...you're going deeper, deeper...when I count to two you will open your eyes. You will feel fine, except that you will see that the audience is naked - involved in a giant orgy."

This is about as dirty as Frank Santos, the R-rated hypnotist, ever gets in his regular Tuesday night show at Boston's Comedy Club Stitches, so there's no reason for the Moral Majority to run him out of town. Using volunteers from the audience, Santos hypnotizes men and women to forget their last name and the fact that they're wearing clothes.

"I'm not as dirty as people think I am," says Santos, who in one exercise suggests to people on-stage that they are strippers involved in a multi-million dollar contest. I don't want people to expose anything; I stop it. I mean, I've had a couple of accidents here and there...I've been at Periwinkle's, a club in Providence, RI, for eight years, so I have to have a mistake every once in a while!"

Santos began his 13-year career as a hypnotist helping people give up smoking, nail-biting and overeating. After success in a number of venues in southeastern New England, he adopted the R-rated twist to distinguish himself from other hypnotists. Although hypnotism is all good fun, the job is not without occupational hazards.

Santos relays the story of an incident involving his routine suggestion to hypnotized women that their breasts are doubling in size and weight, then shrinking, then sticking out of their backs. Santos reaches for their backs and the female subjects dart backward in alarm.

"When I touch them, Santos says, "I'm always ready to jump out of their way. There was this beautiful blonde girl and she was wild the whole show. She had her boobs on the floor, she's picking them up...and when I told them they were on her back and said, 'Honey, how does this feel?' she punched me in the face and broke my glasses in half!"

A rotund jester in a Hawaiian shirt, Santos cracks jokes on-stage in Rodney Dangerfield-style and never places his subjects in situations of discomfort (at least not for very long). Santos has found that the best candidates for hypnosis have a big imagination and are willing to subject themselves to suggestion.

Santos has been a regular at Stitches for three years and says he loves going to work every day, hypnotizing audiences in Boston, Rhode Island and even as far away as the Virgin Islands. The week Santos was interviewed for this article, he had 15 dates scheduled at colleges and clubs in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, with at least one performance every day.

The hardest part of Santos' job seems to be just getting people hypnotized; once that's achieved, he enjoys the fun along with the audience. Explaining all the sexual and silly antics that people do under hypnosis: "You do it to yourself. I'm just a tool to get you there."

Frank Santos appears every Tuesday night at 9 pm at Stitches, located at 834 Beacon Street, Boston. Tickets are available at the door and are $7. ❑

BOSTON AREA CINEMAS

Call individual theaters for film times.

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
100 HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500

Comedy Listings

• Cantab Lounge 489-2115 738 Mass Ave Central Square, Cambridge.
Performing at the Cantab Lounge every Sunday night at 8 PM is Renegade Duck; Boston's newest improvisational comedy troupe . Admission is $5.

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. Sandwiches and cold appetizers. Every Monday is cross comedy, new Friday night 11:30pm Cross Comedy show added. Every Tuesday is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

WED 27 thru SUN 31.- Ron Lynch, Bob Harris, Scott Alarik. MON 1.- Cross Comedy. TUE 2.- Jim DeCroteau. WED 3 thru SUN 7.- Linda Smith, Chris Scheeno, Jef T. MON 8.- Cross Comedy. TUE 9.- Julie Barr.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. (Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country) Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Friday and Saturday. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat..

MON 1.- Jackie Flynn Comedy Funhouse, Rano, Cindy Freeman. TUE 2.- D.J. Hazard Best of Boston Comedy Night. WED 3.- Jimmy Smith Ebony-Jet Showcase, Carl Yarde, Jeff Tse. THU 4.- Mike Bent Boy Scientist Show, Bruce Teall, Rick Jenkins. FRI 5 & SAT 6.- Chance Langton, Dave Fitzgerald, Jenniter Hoag. SUN 7.- Billy Martin Batman Comedy Special, Ken Dubner, Gazzo. MON 8.- Rich Ceisler Comedy or Else, Jon Groff, Steve Hurley. TUE 9.- D.J. Hazard Medicine Show, Jon Rogers, Sue Costello.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700
Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

This is where the Comedy Connection's listing would have gone if we had received the fax on time. Better luck next week.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundaysat 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information. Every show guarantees the consistently adventuresome brand of wild comedy for which this improvisation troupe has become widely known throughout Boston and the Northeast.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE
WED 27.- Judy Gold, Joe Mulligan, Dan Reddington. THU 28.- Jim Lauletta, Judy Gold, Dan Whitney. FRI 29.- D.J. Hazard, Judy Gold, Jim Lauletta. SAT 30.- Don Gavin, D.J. Hazard, Judy Gold.

We know it's a little early but...Nicks will be official host to Sail Boston, 1992 July 11-16; Comedy get-togethers planned.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. The "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos every Tuesday, Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

WED 27.- Anthony Clark. THU 28.- Cross Comedy. FRI 29 & SAT 30.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Jay Mohr, Sara Silverman. SUN 31.- Open Mic Night with Vinnie Favorito. TUE 2.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). WED 3.- Anthony Clark. THU 4.- Billy Martin. FRI 5 & SAT 6.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Frank Santorelli, Chris Zito, Chuck Sklar. SUN 7.- Open Mic Night with Vinnie Favorito. TUE 9.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

ARTS

The Leather District Goes "Pop"

With the Art of Giovanni

Giovanni's cutting edge works are always on target.

by Patricia Jobe Pierce

Giovanni grew up in a welfare project; he was a misunderstood, dyslexic Italian child from a dysfunctional family, whose only dream was to become a painter of distinction. People told him his aspirations were impossible, but he had a way of defying the odds.

Working long hours in factories and truck stops during high school years, he resolved to sketch and draw despite severe ridicule from peers. "Real men" were not supposed to become artists.

Independent and determined, Giovanni worked to achieve his artistic goals regardless of negative opinion.

By the time he graduated from Boston University's School of Fine and Applied Arts (on partial scholarship), he had become a self-reliant, avant-garde American painter known confidently as "Giovanni."

During an economic climate when many Boston art galleries have closed, with characteristic panache, Giovanni opened a large studio in Boston's historic leather district, where, the artist laments, "There is no leather!"

The artist in his studio.

By nature, Giovanni is a rule breaker. The outspoken artist speaks without reserve and with a hardened Italian accent.

"I don't paint to sell," the artist sighs. "I paint to live. If it's already been said or done, why be repetitious? Collectors cannot tell me how or what to paint. That's censorship. It's controlling and destructive.

"I expose the raw, human condition. My intent in art is to be provocative, sensuous and sometimes alarming. Alarms are wake up calls. Issues within life and death are not complacent or sterile.

"If art is good enough, it can avenue a person's conscience into new perspectives and outlooks. It can teach, heal, inspire and stimulate response. I paint to explore, not to justify. My visions lead me. Stale, prosaic public opinions do not. I paint because I have to paint. I'm driven, like the wind of a tornado. It's a spontaneous thing."

Giovanni's spontanaiety and aversion to convention became apparent last month, when he donated his $25,000 "Icon Through the Ages" (a painting of Jesus on the cross) to the Gay and Lesbian Church at Old West.

After witnessing the gay bashing incidents which occurred during the St. Patrick's Day parade negotiations, Giovanni donated the painting as an extension of brotherhood and goodwill from a heterosexual to the gay community.

Giovanni's social commentaries of Desert Storm; the AIDS epidemic; rape; illiteracy; the meltdown of communism; street violence; child abuse; the destruction of rain forests, and ozone depletion are virtually unnoticed by the Boston art crowd, however the pieces are highly revered as "master works" by Ergane Gallery in New York and by critics in many other cities throughout the world.

Despite one-man shows in 1991 at Bridgewater State College, Daniel Rene, The Gallery of Nantucket, The Design Center and elsewhere, Giovanni had until now not been reviewed by a Boston art critic. He is also represented at the White House, the National Gallery, the Fogg Museum, the Museum of Fine Arts, M.I.T. and in worldwide corporate collections.

For now, Giovanni is content making his mark known on South Street, where he hopes a new, active, pop, SoHo atmosphere will soon thrive. ❑

ROBIN HYMERS

LUCRETIA

Acrylic On Canvas

Starving Artist

224 Newbury St • 247-9453

ART & FASHION BY BOSTON'S FINEST UNKNOWNS

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

ARTS

Oleanna
A Spare Dance of Manipulation and Outrage

by Nancy Leonard

David Mamet's two-character play Oleanna - produced by the Back Bay Theatre Company and included in the American Repertory Theatre's New Stages Series at the Hasty Pudding Theatre - is a spare dance of manipulation and outrage. There's a real danger of confusing the messenger and message here - to dismiss the play because of its distasteful result.

John, a professor at an unnamed college, is up for tenure and about to buy a house. Though he came late in life to teaching, he loves his work and feels a responsibility to his students. William H. Macy's professor is a good man though he's blessed with limited abilities to make personal connections. Right now, a reserved young student, named Carol (Rebecca Pidgeon), is seeking help. Like countless others, she struggled to get there, in pursuit of the American dream. But she finds she doesn't understand his course, and could flunk out.

Carol thinks she's stupid because she doesn't understand charts, concepts, terms or statistics. She wants more and simpler explanations. John assures her that she's incredibly bright, and just angry. In an attempt to be supportive, he tells her about his own failures and fears and offers to start the course over with her by removing the fear of grades and answering all her questions.

Though Carol begged John to teach her to understand, her agenda turns out to be quite different. She lodges a complaint with the tenure committee - her accusations of sexism, elitism, deviation from the rules, pornography, racism, and sexual harassment all based on his first-act attempts to reach her with personal recollections and an alternative educational approach. She took notes of their conversation, and places her own meaning on his words, claiming he misused his power. Some of Rebecca Pidgeon's first-act lines slip out of character, but her bespectacled impassivity is credible overall. She comes into her own as the unswerving avenger in the second half.

When John's attempts to reason and understand don't work, he gets outraged and eventually loses his temper. Contrived accusations accepted by the tenure committee have become "facts," and Carol believes her viewpoint has been validated: "why should I recant when I'm right?"

There's also a mystery about Carol's agenda. Is it based on well-formed political beliefs and a crusade against those of opposing views, or does it arise from a fortuitous first-act conversation transmogrified by ignorance (simple or willful)?

For that matter, why does John think she's "bright but angry?" Mamet, who directs with cool precision, stacks the deck in favor of his well-intentioned professor, which makes eminent sense if his play is an attack on fascism, Nazism, or really, any "thought policemen" roaming academia. (We will assume it's not merely a misogynistic exercise.) In these circumstances, there's a clear injustice. But the play would be more interesting if it contained greater insight (even momentarily) into Carol's sense of powerlessness and exploitation, and into John's professorial reputation, as well as his desire for tenure and security.

Rebecca Pidgeon and William H. Macy star in David Mamet's two person play Oleanna.

Michael Merritt's wooden set is designed as a run-down office with schoolroom furniture. Kevin Rigdon's lighting is fine and Harriet Voyt's costumes are perfectly apt.

Oleanna - whose title is not explained - stirs its audience to outrage and thought. That's provocation, and some would say, the role of education. ❑

BOOKS

Improper Journeys

by Lisa Bonnell

To America and Around the World
The Logs of Christopher Columbus and Ferdinand Magellan
Branden Publishing Co., Inc., 1990.

To America and Around the World (The Logs of Christopher Columbus and Ferdinand Magellan), sheds light on the events which surround the 500 year celebration of the discovery of America. Through Columbus' own daily writing, it is revealed that the voyagers first hit the New World at the tip of San Salvador, only later to be named America after Amerigo Vespuci.

This book, the first English translation, contains the original logs of Columbus' pioneer voyage to the New World under the direction of Admiral Don Crisitobol Colon. The daily accounts recapture the adventures of the crew as they find gold and other treasures and meet natives on many islands while sailing in search of a passage to the Orient.

Coupled with their island hopping discoveries are the daily accounts of sailing mileage and navigational locations, which, combined with the meticulous descriptions of the landscape and the Admiral's wooing of the natives and kings, becomes monotonous. The only riveting scene describes a storm in which one boat is detached and several crew members are lost. This section of the book is for true sailors at heart or readers who want the daily narration of the voyage.

Two critical essays, The Name America and Columbus Mass Media and Scholarly Pursuits, attempt to verify that Columbus was the first to reach America. The first pays tribute to Amerigo Vespuci and his contribution in the naming of America : "...whoever utters the name America evokes the memory of both: the discoverer and the one who enhanced the discovery, understanding and individuality of the new continent."

The latter refutes the theory of the Vineland Map and Leif Ericson, the Viking who some believe founded America. This persuasive argument supports claims that "Columbus and his descendants ...are being maligned and denigrated ... by unscrupulous hackers of mass media."

The middle section of the book, The Voyage Around the World, are the logs recorded by Ferdinand Magellan's scribe, and though interesting, this section is misplaced in this collection and adds to the tediousness of the book.

To America and Around the World is replete with historical facts and academic issues; however it may only prove compelling for readers concerned with the controversy over the discovery of America. ❑

Making History
Carolyn See
Houghton Mifflin, 1991

In her fast paced fifth novel, Making History, Carolyn See chronicles the pursuits of California families who live on the edge. All the characters push their own limits and search for success and excitement. Through rotating narrators, each chapter explores the parameters of a new individual's perception and philosophy of life.

Jerry, a high powered international businessman deals to develop new resort areas in the Pacific Rim to "change the world." While he attempts to avoid prostitutes in the Pacific, his seventeen year old step-daughter, Whitney and her friend Tracie busy themselves with manicures and become traveling temporary secretaries.

As name-tag hostesses at business conventions and Jose Cuervo Tequila girls, they travel to Hawaii and Mexico. On a weekend road trip south of the border, their car breaks down and they get drunk on frozen margaritas while two co-workers have noisy sex in the adjacent motel room. Even in a drunken stupor, Whitney still revels in her life.

The understanding that comes from the characters' shenanigans is that life is short and Californians live a wild lifestyle in order to make each day worthwhile. But this message becomes muddled through disconnected story-telling and multiple narrators. This novel gives a look into today's different and sometimes decadent California life. ❑

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
Come see dance on film June 7 at 1pm and 3pm. The first show screens Butoh: Body on the Edge of Crisis by Michael Blackwood and second screens Cage/Cunningham by Elliot Caplan. Both films will be shown in Remis Auditorium; admission is $5, $4.50 for MFA members, seniors and students.

CLASSICAL

Longy School of MusicAll Newton Music School
321 Chestnut St., West Newton
Pianist Christopher O'Riley, winner of the Andrew Wolf Chamber Music Award, will perform in concert with violinist Rolf Schulte on May 30 at 8pm. The all-Schumann program includes five pieces in folk style, Sonata in A Minor and Sonata in D Minor. Tickets are $15 and the money goes to benefit the school. Call 527-4553.

Longy School of Music
at Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
See "Opera at Longy" May 28-31 at 8pm for only $5. Scenes from American musicals will be performed, including works by Rogers, Coffer, Bernstein, Porter, Berlin and others. Call 876-0956 for more information.

Great Woods
Mansfield
The 1992 Fleet Summer Series at Great Woods opens June 6 at 6pm with a performance by Garrison Keillor and the American Radio Company. This two-hour variety show will feature comedy sketches, music, special guests and Keillor's signature monologue, "The News from Lake Wobegon." It will be broadcast live on WGBH 89.7 FM as well. Call 508-339-3333 for more information.

New England Conservatory
at Jordan Hall
30 Gainsborough St., Boston
THE NEC Youth Philharmonic Orchestra performs a concerto festival May 29 at 8pm. The program includes Tchaikovsky, Dvorak and Prokofieff, among others. Tickets are $3. Call 262-1120 for more information.

New Opera Theatre Ensemble
at Adams House/Harvard University
26 Plympton St., Cambridge
NOTE has been challenging the traditional boundaries of opera by experimenting in operatic improvisation while also uncovering new truths behind contemporary social issues. Turning their focus to a musical exploration of private lives and public lies, NOTE presents "Categorically Denied" at 8pm May 29, 30 and June 4. Call 266-6669 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Paul Revere/North End
beginning at the Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
The Paul Revere Memorial Association will lead a walking tour of the North End, the home of Paul Revere and a host of other fascinating characters on May 30 at 11am. The $20 tour will examine architectural and cultural changes from European settlement in the 17th century through the arrival of the Irish, Jewish and Italian immigrants in the 1800s. After working up a hearty appetite, participants will sit down to a tasty Northern Italian meal at Mamma Maria. Call 523-2338 for more information.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Monday is Film Noir, Tuesday is Homo Promo, Wednesday is Twins...and other siblings, Thursday is directed by Ingmar Bergman and Friday and Saturday are Special Engagements. Special presentations include Children of Paradise, Architecture of Doom and 35 UP. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"To Heck with Hollywood! Alternate Routes" is a two-day program showing June 4 & 5 that will showcase five films by independent filmmakers: Soldier of Fortune, The Heck with Hollywood!, That Burning Question, Passion of Martin and Symbiosychotaxiplasm: Take One. Call 267-9300 for times and more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only site in Boston tracking Chicago sailor Captain Bill Pinkney, 55, as he tries to become the first African-American to sail solo around the world. The 27,000 mile journey will be transmitted via satellite. The trip is scheduled to reach Boston in May and finish in June. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am to 5pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. From Apr. 7-June 7, the ICA hosts Montage and Modern Life: 1919-1942, an exhibit that presents an astounding array of over 400 objects that document the emergence of montage. Some have never been shown together before; others have never been seen before in the U.S. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.
The ICA's Spring Benefit, entitled "Out of this World," will blast off May 30 from 9pm-2am in the atrium of the new landmark office tower at 125 High St., Boston. "Out of this World" invites the public to take an irreverent look at outerspace and beyond, from Lost in Space to Barbarella, Spock to Sputnik. Attire is black tie or cosmic chic. To purchase tickets by phone, call 266-5152, or visit BOSTIX at Faneuil Hall.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See "Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790s-1850s" until June 29. This exhibition explores the early 19th century in European art through prints, drawings, watercolors and illustrated books. Artists include William Blak, Francisco Goya, Caspar David Friedrich and others. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Artschwager received critical acclaim in the mid '60s for his quirky representations of furniture and domestic objects such as mirrors and paintings, all featuring formica as the signature material. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!" The nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs remains on display through Sept. 7. Also now open is The Observatory, a new permanent exhibit where visitors can journey thorugh microscopic worlds, discover what's really at the end of a rainbow, and meet the denizens of a single drop of pond water. From May 30 to Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change— its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it— in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth.". Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for info.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 4, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 12. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Centastage
at the Boston Center for the Arts Theatre
539 Tremont St., Boston
Centastage presents Big Sky (it's about cowboys and things) from May 14-30. The production incorporates the standard elements of classic westerns into a musical comedy which boasts a score of 20 Country/Broadway songs. Tickets are $16.25. Call 536-5981 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Sid Caesar & Imogene Coca: Together Again, a hilarious romp through this legendary comedy team's most brilliant and timeless sketches, will come to the Charles Playhouse for a four week limited engagement from May 13-June 7. Call 426-6912 for more information.

Colonnade Hotel
120 Huntington Ave., Boston
Every Saturday evening through May, the Colonnade presents Opera Night, directed by Marshall Hughes. It's an operatic ensemble comprised of professional musical artists committed to "user-friendly" opera which is both fun and versatile and perfect for the elite opera buff as well as the novice listener.

(continued on following page)

Congratulations
on your engagement
Joanne and Earl!
and Anoush!

ARTS

(Theater continued)

Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The Cambridge Theatre Company presents a return engagement of Jackie: An American Life from June 3-July 12. Written and directed by Gip Hoppe, this production tells the life story of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis, from her days as a young girl in the Hamptons to her first date with JFK to the Onassis yacht.

Huntington Theatre
252 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Way of the World opens May 27 and runs through June 21. Although William Congreve wrote his brilliant comedy of manners in 1700, the Huntington's production of The Way of the World places the action in the Jazz Age. Rather than ruffles and hoop skirts, central characters Millamant and Mirabell will sport the sleek, sophistication and clean lines of art deco.

Lenox Hotel
710 Boylston St., Boston
The Lenox Hotel presents Manhattan, a 90-minute musical bite of the Big Apple. The revue, combined with the elegance of dining at the Lenox, makes for a wonderful evening. Through May 31. Call 536-5300 for times, ticket information and reservations.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

New Theatre, Inc.
at the Community Church of Boston
565 Boylston St., Boston
New Theatre Inc. presents a stunning new drama by Joe Pinaturo called The Raft of the Medusa from May 7-31. Directed by George Contini, Pinaturo's play makes a metaphor for the struggles of people cast adrift by the AIDS crisis today. Performances are Thurs.-Sun. at 8pm; tickets are $10-$12. Call 247-7388 for more information.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
The NSMT presents Funny Girl, starring Broadway-belter and recording artist Alix Korey as funny girl Fanny Brice. This warm and witty musical boasts such hits as "People," "Don't Rain on My Parade," "I'm the Greatest Star" and more. It runs June 4-20; call 508-922-8500 for times and ticket prices.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
Pilgrim Theatre presents the premiere of Columbus at the Performance Place May 22 at 8pm, with performances continuing through June 7. The play joins the controversy surrounding Columbus' quincentennial with a performance exploring parts of the story you didn't learn in school. Call 625-1300 for more information.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
The Publick Theatre, Inc., Boston's oldest resident theatre company, announces the opening of their upcoming 22nd summer season with As You Like It by William Shakespeare on June 3. The production runs Weds.-Suns. at 8pm through June 28. Set in the magical Forest of Arden, As You Like It is a tale of jealousy, friendship, romance, loyalty and love; it is one of The Bard's most beloved comedies. Call 782-5425 for more information.

Strand Theatre
543 Columbia Rd., Dorchester
Stars of HBOs late night comedy show perform at the Strand during the Def Comedy Jam on June 5 at 8pm. Local comedians as well as HBO stars Martin Lawrence, Ted Carpenter will be featured. For ticket information, call 282-8000.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Triangle Theater Company
58 Berkeley St., Boston
A long-running hit in Chicago, Claudia Allen's Movie Queens will run from June 3-27 at Triangle's Paramount Penthouse. Performances are Weds.-Suns. at 8pm; all tickets are $15. The play centers around the the reunion of two legendary stars of Hollywood's Golden Age in a new Broadway play some 40 years later. Call 426-3550 for more information.

Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Bye Bye Birdie, the record-breaking musical that explores the phenomenons of rock 'n' roll, teenage frenzy and middle-age love in Smalltown, U.S.A., returns to Boston for a special five-performance run starring Tommy Tune from June 5-7. For times and ticket information, call 931-ARTS.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
A panel of youth from the greater Boston area will be part of a multi-media presentation called "Images and Violence in Our Society" May 28 at 6pm. Keynote speaker: Dr. Deborah Prothrow-Stith from the Harvard School of Public Health.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston
Kenneth Gloss, proprietor of the nationally-known Brattle Book Shop in Boston, will speak at an open lecture at 12:15pm on June 4. The talk is entitled "Treasures in Your Attic: Old and Rare Books." For more information, call 1-800-447-9595.

WORKSHOPS

New England Wild Flower Society
180 Hemenway Rd., Framingham
On June 3 from 10am-noon, the NEWFS offers a lecture and garden tour on "Landscape Design for Low Maintenance," which focuses on landscape design principles and practices that help create an attractive landscape and reduce the time and effort required for maintenance. Call 237-4924 for more information.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

Silhouettes in Motion - Classic Movement for Actors, Models and Dancers
361 Newbury St., Boston
Call 247-2435 for more information and ask for Dianna.

GALLERIES

The Cheremeteff Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
On view now through July is "New Russian Realism: The Traditionalists," portraits and landscapes by Gerasimov, Shankov, Shytkhno and Danilin. Artist-in-residence Shankov is available for commissioned portraiture and landscape renderings. Contemporary Russian iconography by Gassel and Sheglov. Unique and diverse selection of limited editioned prints and graphics. Call 536-1121. Open Tues.-Sat. 10am-7pm and by appointment.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing until June 12 is Roger Muhl: "Recent Lithographs." Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, Thur., 10am-9pm and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

Rolly-Michaux
290 Dartmouth St., Boston
Rolly-Michaux Galleries will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a special showing entitled "The Art of the Print." The exhibit, which will run until June 6, will focus on innovations in the fields of etchings and lithographs by such 20th-century masters as Picasso, Chagall and Matisse, among many others.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs until July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

SPECIAL EVENTS

An Event in 3 ActsBeacon Hill Art Walk
Beacon Hill, Boston
Over 50 artists from Beacon Hill and beyond will exhibit their work at the Third Annual Beacon Hill Art Walk on June 7 (raindate: June 14). The gardens, courtyards and entryways from Charles Street, along Putnam Avenue and along Phillips Street to the Phillips Street playground will be the locations of the art walk. Maps will be distributed in the neighborhood. Call 227-1726 for more information.

Goodwill Sports Challenge
at Gosman Sports and Convocation Center
Brandeis University, Waltham
On June 7 from 2-6pm, the best of Boston's sports, media and community leaders will gather to participate in a host of fun and challenging sports activities. Included in the festivities is an All-Star Basketball game between the Goodwill Team and the Celebrity Team. Honorary Chair of the event is New England Patriots Defensive End Ray Agnew. Call 445-1010 x251 for more information.

Wilbur Theatre
246 Tremont St., Boston
Actor Jason Robards, musical director Tommy Tune and Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright August Wilson will be the guests of honor at the Tenth Annual Elliot Norton Awards on June 1. Awards include Outstanding Boston Actor, Actress and Director. Call 542-9155 for reservations or more information.

ALLERGIES are nothing to sneeze about:

So why sneeze and suffer at all when you can call 267-7171 and make an appointment at the 64-year-old Boston Evening Medical Center for the relief of aches and pains, sore throats, coughs, fever and upset stomach. Most insurance plans accepted along with major credit cards. Morning, afternoon and evening hours for your convenience. Validated parking and located on the Green Line.

BOSTON EVENING MEDICAL CENTER

388 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"If you were granted 3 wishes, how would you use them?"

Greg, 25, Lexington
"Elle MacPherson, Cindy Crawford and Madonna."

Charlene, 38, Roxbury
"I would like more money, a date with Denzel Washington, and a trip to Disneyworld."

Saul, 29, Brookline
"Limitless free energy for all, no scarce resources of any kind, and no intolerence of people, by people."

Kathie, 25, Randolph
"Freedom to travel whenever I want, wherever I want, and the financial resources to make it all possible."

Marcine, 18, Randolph
"Racial harmony, equal opportunities for all, and money."

Chuck, 50, Augusta, ME
"Have everyone in the world turn to mauve, keep world peace, and find the fountain of youth."

The greatest sites in history are on the horizon

The Vantage Points of BOSTON© PROJECT

The event everyone is looking forward to

Clear Ad Vantage
design concepts

Putting the future in the best perspective.

rising soon

©1992 Steven M. Walker

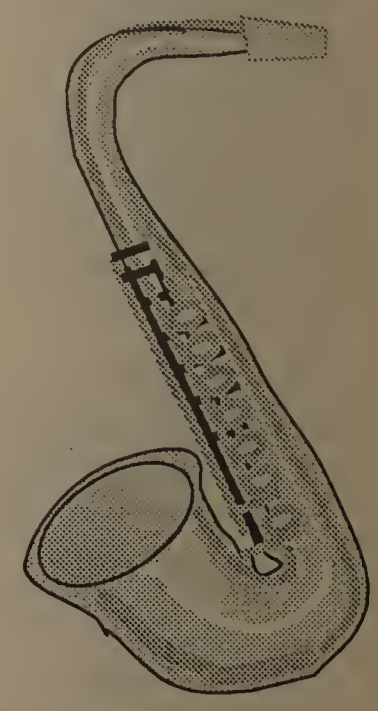
Perspectives....

Boston is full of fabulous...

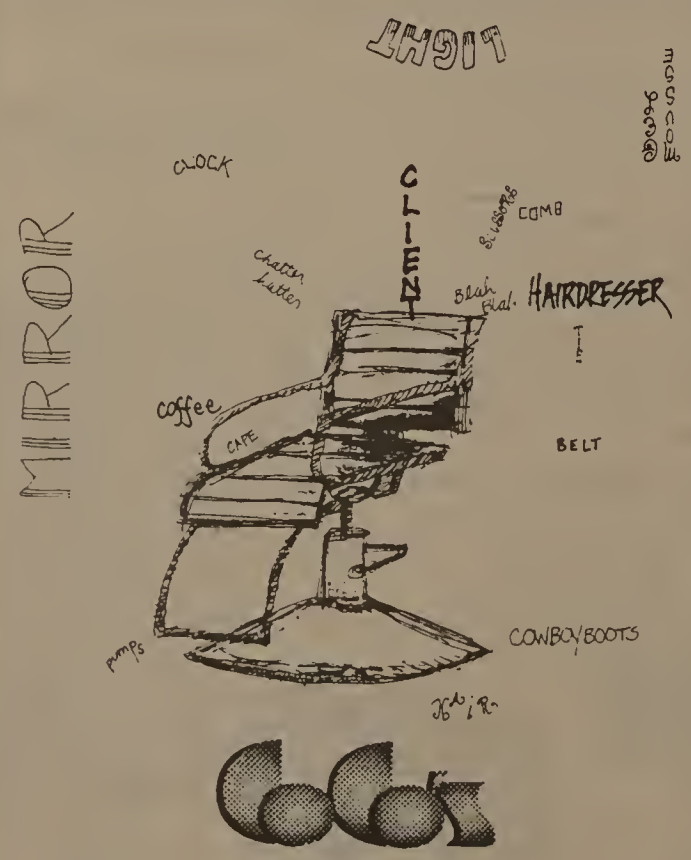
ways to have healthy fun outdoors. Now that the city has repaired the Mass Ave bridge, cyclists (and rollerbladers) have access to the best half-hour bicycle route in the area. Up and down both sides of the Charles, crossing over the river on the Mass Ave bridge and the one by the museum of Science is a full uninterrupted circle, during which you often get to see the same people twice (as they pass you in both directions). A smile or a wave is always invigorating while earning your aerobic credit.

A good rest stop for bikers with a little cash on hand is the Cambridgeside Galleria. It's sun-roof gives you the feeling you're still outdoors and somehow makes the air easier to breath. An even more challenging bike route for those with more time or in better shape is the one up and down the Charles from downtown Boston to Watertown. You'd swear you were in the wilds at one point when you approach the Watertown turnaround on the Cambridge side. The path winds through trees that obscure the road and random flashers on your left and sometimes even the ever-clean river on your right.



A great way to reward yourself for your efforts is to relax and have a drink or snack at an outdoor cafe. The two best in Boston that I have found are Le Grand Cafe (651 Boylston St.) and the Harvard Bookstore Cafe (190 Newbury St.). They both serve delicious fresh-squeezed orange juice that will restore your sugar level while filling you up with Vitamin C. Le Grand Cafe's no-fat frozen yogurt is also a healthy way to cool down after that long, hot ride. All this while you're still enjoying the outdoors as well as partaking in the best spectator sport of them all - people watching! S.H.

Have you got a hot date...



you want to impress, or something different to do with your buddies? Want to get out of your neighborhood and taste the local flavor of someone else's locale? Then take yourselves down to the Chinatown Eatery, (on the corner of Harrison Ave and Beach St.). Walk upstairs to the second floor, and get ready for the best selection of Thai and Chinese food located in one spot. There are six food stands, two of which offer a wide variety of spicy, fruity Thai cuisine, three that offer delicious Chinese food and the sixth that's a juice bar specializing in exotic milk shakes, fresh juice prepared from scratch and rich desserts.

Once inside, the delicious aroma of the food will whisk you away to the Orient. The Eatery is well ventilated and surprisingly cool inside. After ordering your food, find seats in the boisterous atmosphere where someone will bring your order when it's ready. The food is always good and served in plentiful portions. Serving mostly Asian clientele, the Eatery gives you a real taste of the local flavor of Chinatown and it's people.

After finishing a feast at The Eatery, complete the evening with some great live music, and there's no better place to find it (along with more local flavor) than at Wally's Cafe (427 Mass Ave), a small, busy and loud, jazz and blues bar. When you enter Wally's on a Monday night (blues night), be prepared to wade through the people crowding at the bar. This is where the hum of active conversation finds a safe haven from the music that's fired from the small, musician-jammed stage. The skill of the musicians ranges from avid amateur to studio professional. You'll find an eclectic crowd of appreciative listeners ranging from students to senior citizens - all of whom are soaking in the atmosphere and great tunes. There is no cover, so get there around 10 pm to secure a seat. The bar closes at 1 am. Although it can get cramped, Wally's features the best live blues and jazz in the area, and is well worth the trip. J.P.

SALON GALLERY
NEW CLIENTS: RECIEVE A HAIRCUT FOR $15
OR 20% OFF ANY CHEMICAL SERVICE!
(Offer Not Good On Saturday)
EXISTING CLIENTS: BRING A NEW CLIENT,
AND GET TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.
WE NOW OFFER FULL NAIL SERVICES.
544 Tremont St. Boston
(617) 451-2050
Across From Boston Centre For The Arts

SPRING SPECIAL

MINTA 386DX/33 MHZ COMPUTER

• 64 K Cache • 4 MB Ram • 5¼" and 3½" High Density Disk Drives
• 120 MB Hard Disk • Super VGA 1024 x 768 Monitor (.28 Dot)
• 101 Key Keyboard • 2 Serial, 1 Parallel, 1 Game I/O
• Mouse • DOS 5.0 • Windows 3.0

• 5-DAY DELIVERY • LOCAL SUPPORT • ONLY $2135

CALL
XON Computers
165 Bay State Road
Boston, MA
(617) 787-4489

2 YEAR GUARANTEE – NORMAL USE
Hard Disk 1 Year Guarantee

on life in Boston

Why not let loose...

this week and do something decadently fun and decidedly different? Act like a kid and head off to the carnival and go on the rides! A spin on the thunderbolt or round-up is just what you need to shake you up and give you an excuse to scream at the top of your lungs and feel the wind whipping through your hair. Of course there's a ferris wheel, kiddie rides, plenty of cotton candy and your favorite arcade games, too. If you have a spring romance that's been waiting to take off, or a friend who just finished exams and needs a refresher course in fun, kidnap them and hop on the Blue line. It's an easy ride to the last stop - Wonderland - where you'll find the traveling carnival in residence at the Wonderland Dog Track parking lot from May 26-31. Or, you could drive there (there's plenty of parking). It's a convenient field trip out of the city, a change of pace, and a great way to usher in the festive season. (June 2-7 the carnival will be in South Boston on Summer St., next to the Fargo building.) And don't forget while your there, Revere Beach is only a block away from this haven of fun, so you can take a lovely stroll while you're digesting all the fried dough, hot-dogs and popcorn you've chowed.

Speaking of chowing down, Sundays nights are "family style" night at Olives, the nationally renowned Charlestown restaurant run by Todd and Oliva English, the husband and wife team that receives accolades and fierce loyalty for their fresh, creative Italian-Mediterranean cuisine. At Olives, family style means group seating at large tables and a long list of tantalizing appetizers and entrees from which to choose and share amongst you. It's a great chance to sample a little of everything from their diverse menu. You'll really feel like part of the family here, where the service staff provides a light, warm atmosphere no matter how busy they may be, and the culinary staff performs their magic for your eyes only from a partially visible kitchen - complete with it's own brick oven. (Now you know how they achieve the best focaccia around!) Make sure to begin with their vegetable antipasto and the carpaccio with arugula (they're out of this world!), and from there, just follow your fancy; you won't be disappointed. Just remember Olives (67 Main St., Charlestown) doesn't accept reservations, so arriving early or later in the evening is recommended. Buon appetito!

Now that you've got the yearning for great food and wine (plus a yen for the Mediterranean), how would you like to move to the south of France? Imagine starting over in a new life that revolves around the best wine, produce, cooking and local personalities that the beautiful Provencal countryside has to offer. Peter Mayle's account of doing just that with his wife, A Year in Provence, is one of the most descriptive, transporting novels I've read this year. It's so full of the rich flavors and textures we associate with days gone by, it's hard to believe it was written in the 1990's! It's a must-read for all "foodies," wine appreciators, and travel nuts.

Nuts? Did you say nuts? If you said "nuts" in the North End you could only be talking about one place, Dairy Fresh Candies (57 Salem St.). People come from far and wide to this store. It is chock-full of an amazing variety of nuts, candies and Italian gourmet goodies by the pound. An example of their variety is the fact that you can chose from four types of pistachios- salted or unsalted, red or white, shelled or unshelled. They also have beautiful boxes of Italian chocolates. and gourmet gift baskets that are the perfect answer for the guest who wants to arrive bearing gifts. Stop off at this great store on your next stroll through the North End, and see for yourself how sweet it is.

E.C.

(Im)proper Bostonians:

We want your Perspective!

Share with other Bostonians your unique outlook on fun, dating, sports, literature, entertainment or whatever it is that makes your life in Boston worth talking about.

Send contributions along with a short self-discription to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station Street, 7A
Brookline MA 02147
Fax: 232-4305
Attn: Erica Cantley

the funny farm
"Where Toys Come to Life"

the funny farm is a place where the irreverent adult, fun-loving child or supervised pet can come to play with wind-ups, battery operated animals, bathtub toys & other silly stuff.

Find our store and receive a complimentary
Sucker Lizard

Harvard Square - 14D Eliot Street
Cambridge, MA. 02138
661-3999
Shipping available & batteries ARE always included!

Silhouettes In Motion

Classic Movement for Actors & Models

*see workshop description under Arts Calendar pg.17

Dianna Sanford
361 Newbury Street 247-2435

CONTRIBUTORS

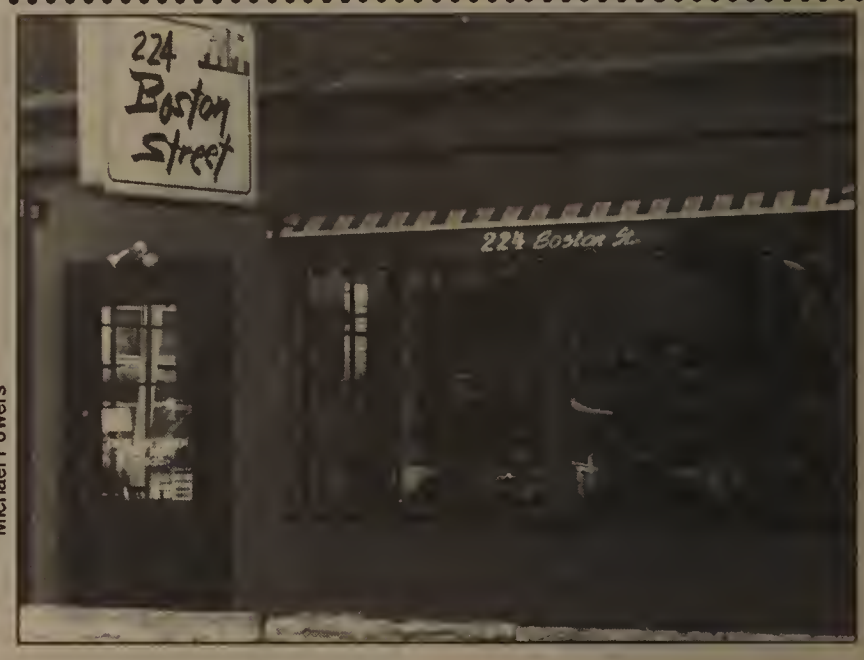
E.C. - Erica Cantley is a hyper-active, white-bread chick living in the North End.
S.H. - Susan Husserl-Kapit is a transplanted New Yorker who came to Boston for school and never went home.
J.P - Jason Pring is a wild young prep wreaking havoc at this very moment in Brookline.

This page designed by Gail Marcarelli, a frustrated artist in big trouble for stealing Dave's computer.

DINING

The Moveable Feast

Addressing the Ups and Downs of 224 BOSTON STREET



by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

At 224 Boston Street, you feel as if you have somehow strayed into someone's home. Large windows look onto the street from two sides; one wall is brick, another is wood paneled. Assorted prints of varying styles decorate the walls. A ceiling fan adds to the charm. The open kitchen at the back of the room brings you back to reality. You sense that this pleasant room is full of regulars from the neighborhood, and you settle back with a feeling of comfortable anticipation.

We had fond memories of this restaurant from previous visits, and knowing there was a new menu in place, we decided to try it out. We hate to say this, but on the whole, we were rather disappointed. Our entrees were fine, but most appetizers left quite a lot to be desired, as did the desserts.

To start, we shared a pizza topped with grilled eggplant, roasted red pepper, roasted garlic, ricotta and parmesan ($8.50). We suspected the dry and partly undercooked crust was not made on the premises, and this was confirmed by the waitress. Garlic aside, the topping was rather flavorless, and we were convinced the parmesan had been accidentally omitted. The bruschetta, too, ($5.50) was disappointing, being a rather tough piece of bread, supposedly topped with roasted red peppers, garlic, black olives and capers. We couldn't fault the generous serving of capers, but where were our olives? On the other hand, the fishcake ($6.00) made from shrimp and schrod blended with crisp chopped vegetables and lightly flavored with curry was terrific (an entree-sized portion is available for $11.50).

224 Boston Street
224 Boston Street, Dorchester, tel. 265-1217.
Open daily for dinner.
Credit Cards: AMEX, MC, Visa.
Reservations: Only for 6 or more.
Handicapped: Accessible.
Entertainment: Fri and Sat

Michael Powers

Entrees are priced from $6.95 (for a hamburger) to $11.75, with most of them appearing in the $10-11 range. We were a little surprised that a neighborhood restaurant would have these prices. (We felt the same way about the wine prices, too - there were good wines on the list, but not many at the lower end of the price range). The pork, black bean and sweet potato stew ($10.75), was hearty, rich flavored and filling, with a slightly sweet taste that added interest without being overwhelming. The linguine with shrimp, garlic, chives and butter sauce ($11.75) was a satisfying garlicky dish; the pasta was cooked to perfection and the chives added a nice counterpoint. The curried goat ragout ($11.25) was very good; goat can sometimes be very tough, but care had clearly been taken here to ensure that it was nicely tender, while the curry sauce mellowed the slightly "gamey" taste of the meat. And while paying compliments, both the pork and the goat came with mashed potatoes to-die-for (the secret was the roasted garlic). We loved the accompanying brussel sprouts, too.

After such pleasant main courses, we felt rather let down over the desserts (all in the $3-4 range). The lemon vanilla pot de creme was quite forgettable (we should have listened to our waitress when she said she didn't like it), as was the bread pudding.

At the end of the meal, we asked ourselves if we would go out of our way to eat at 224 Boston, and found that we had mixed reactions. We really liked the place itself, but was the food worth it? It's definitely the place to go when you're in need of a fix of mashed potatoes, but if you want a complete dinner, it's best to approach the menu with caution. ❑

We're very close to finding the beginning of history.
Very close.
Café Marliave
Italian & American Cuisine
Est. 1875
In fact, we're only a block away.
Come discover Boston's 117 year-old Italian café , a stone's throw from the start of The Freedom Trail.
Cafe' Marliave
With an enclosed Roof Garden
423-6340
10 Bosworth St. Boston - By The Parker House

RUSSELL UP A TALL ORDER OF RIBS
The Original BUCKET of RIBS
Score with your crowd by taking home a 5 lb. bucket of the "best ribs this side of Dixie".
A host of food critics have been cheering about the Original Sports Saloon's Memphis Style Ribs for over a year. Now you can treat 8 of your hungriest and best friends to over 5 lbs. of Hog Heaven at our place or yours. It's a great way to make extra points with your home team.
CELTICS 6
SPORTS The Original SALOON
CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER
IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY (617) 536-1904
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Wine Shop Newsletters

Melanie Dunea

by Al Stankus

A few months ago, Gordon's Liquors held a "Blue Collar Wine Sale." As a nod to the times, all of their under $10 wines were being sold for 20% off. The same month, Martignetti's offered their Italian wines at a 20% discount while The Wine Cellar of Silene made available pre-arrival savings of over $7 a bottle on the highly rated 1988 Mantanzas Creek Merlot.

Now here's the rub: even if you read the two daily newspapers from cover to cover, most of you never knew that these savings existed. Most wine shops choose instead to reach an audience through monthly in-house newsletters that are mailed to anyone who wants to receive them.

If you're serious about wine and even more serious about getting it at a good price, these newsletters - which range from the elaborate to those which quickly cut to the chase - are a must.

Here's a brief glimpse at the specials in some current newsletter offerings; a phone number is given for those who'd like to be put on the newsletter list:

Winecellar of Silene; 424-9300: Specials this month include "seasonal sparklers" like the Angas Brut for $8.95 and the shop's "American Wine Festival" featuring at least 10% off every bottle of American wine. The most extensive local newsletter, the 12 pages also list in-store tastings, as well as information on wine events around town and an occasional restaurant and/or book review.

Gordon's Wine Source; 893-1900: Of the various newsletters, this is easily the wittiest read. Under the guise of David Raines, a man whose pen is almost as good as his palate, in addition to the "Blue Collar Specials," past issues have included Wine Source Sonnets, and the Wine Avocado. The current Source lists specials like the '90 Leflaive Bourgogne Les Setilles at $9.99 and the '78 Marquese de Villa Magna Rioja Gran Reserva for $12.99. All issues list in-store tastings and feature two deep-discounted house wines.

Martignetti's; 782-3700: The Wine Times primarily serves as a vehicle to announce in-store specials. For example, featured sale items in June are the Piper Sonoma California Sparkler at $9.99 and the Piper-Heidsieck Extra Dry for $19.99. The Wine Times also provides information on the grand tastings that Martignetti's sponsors, such as the upcoming Champagne and Caviar night at the Guest Quarters Suites Hotel on June 4.

Marty's; 782-3250 or 332-1230: In addition to the monthly specials, there's a "goodies" section featuring good deals on some very pleasant wines. Most issues feature an upcoming food and wine dinner and/or tasting as well information on buying wine futures.

Other wine shops that produce newsletters include: Brookline Liquor Mart (734-7700), Federal Wine and Spirits (367-8605), The Wine and Cheese Cask (623-8656) and Berman's (862-0516). ❑

CAFE
New Café Menu priced 3-8 dollars.
Fun, quick & hip.
Conversations co-sponsored by the Women's Heritage Foundation are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month from 5:00-7:00 pm.($10/p)

cornucopia
WINE & FOOD PAIRINGS
4 Wines / 2 Courses with an informal presentation & discussion
Wednesdays 6-8pm reservations required $20/person

SPRING VINTNER DINNERS
JUNE 3 Roast Chicken & Wine
Which one to serve with this most popular dish
JUNE 17 Champagne or California Sparkling Wine
The American Sparklers vs. the Real Thing
($30/p)
A 4-Course Dinner with Wines to compliment each course held at 6pm,$50/p. Reservations required.
JUNE 2 Dinner with Michaela Rodeno,
CEO of St. Supery Winery in Napa Valley,and founder of Women for Wine Sense

15 West Street Downtown Boston
Telephone 338.4600
Validated Parking at Lafayette Garage

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

DINING

Appeteasers

by
Marge Chryssostomidis
& Peter McNamara

A warm welcome to Gerard Thabuis, recently appointed Executive Chef at the Copley Plaza Hotel. He comes here from the renowned Hotel Sofitel in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and has also cooked at New York's Tavern on the Green and at Brennan's in New Orleans.

What is 90% water, low in calories, costs $16.00 a pound, and is known as "white gold?" You'll find the answer at the Andover Inn's First Annual White Asparagus Festival where, until June 24, you can lunch or dine on this rare treat. The asparagus is flown in daily from Holland and prepared according to traditional Dutch recipes. Watercolor and oil paintings by Andover artist Lynn Loscutoff are on display during the festival, and the Wednesday lunches also feature informal modeling of the season's latest fashions. The Andover Inn is only 30 minutes drive away from Boston and well worth a visit; for information call (508) 475-5903.

Our very own Al Stankus is co-author with Bob Young of the just released Jazz Cooks: Portraits and Recipes of the Greats. This book is packed with stories about the players, the food they were raised on, and of course the recipes (together with suggestions for the appropriate accompanying music).

Amsterdam's has jazz and blues performances on Sunday and Monday evenings, while A Bar Cafe now has nightly jazz (and a full menu until 1am).

Congratulations to Lydia Shire, winner of the 1992 James Beard/Seagram Restaurant Award for America's Best Chef: Northeast. Looking to next year, we hope that the nominating committee won't overlook Lydia's protegee, the very talented Jody Adams.

The rib war escalates: M&M Barbecue at the corner of Columbia Road and Quincy Street, Dorchester will be serving its luscious ribs at the newly opened Marley's Landing, tel. 241-7755 in the Charlestown Navy Yard (on the former site of the Quarterdeck). To get there, why not take the water shuttle, which operates from the Aquarium to the Navy Yard at a cost of $1.00.

The Births Section: The Cottonwood Cafe at 222 Berkeley Street, Boston has just opened and includes a 60 seat outdoor cafe; the food theme and the architecture are the same as its Cambridge parent . . . The North End comes to Newbury Street: the owners of La Famiglia recently opened La Famiglia Plus at number 250, where you can find hearty, inexpensive Roman cooking. . .Look out for the Cafe Jaffa, opening at the end of the month at 48 Gloucester Street, Boston, serving Middle Eastern and American food. . .And just down the street at 286 Newbury, you will find a new gourmet coffee bar, Espresso Royal Caffe; we can recommend the raspberry cappuccino. . .Meanwhile, yogurt fans can't go wrong at the Angora Cafe, at 472 Commonwealth Ave., which opened mid May, serving breakfast, lunch and dinner, Mrs. Miller's Muffins, and - wait for it - 930 flavors of yogurt.

The Rumor Section: We hear that both J B Winberie and the Sweetwater Cafe have been sold. . .The Parkside Deli will be opening on Tremont Street. . .Red Lobster will be branching out to Danvers and Saugus. . .The Mass Ave Steve's Ice Cream will soon reopen as a coffee house. . .Chickland of Andover will be coming to roost in Harvard Square. . .Remember the long gone Scotch 'n Sirloin? A new nightclub will be opening up in this spot. . .The Four Winds at 266 Commercial Street will be turning their second floor into a lounge. . .Just Cookbooks at Porter Square will be moving to new premises in Harvard Sq.. (above the Wursthaus) ❑

Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each Gloucester Clam Chowder $1.95
Entrees
(names taken from wonderful points of interest in and around beautiful Cape Ann)

OLD HOUSE COVE 9.95 (Fresh Gloucester Schrod w/ a light breading)
OLD STAGE FORT 9.95 (Baked Stuffed Chicken Breast w/ Gravy & Cranberry Sauce)
HIGH POPPLES 8.95 (Baked Stuffed Fillet of Sole w/Lobster Sauce)
WHARF BEACH 7.95 (Broiled Sirloin Marinated Tips w/ Mushroom Sauce)

On The Waterfront 25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.

SIENNA'S
"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"
VISIT US
We are located at 214 Lincoln Street, corner of Kneeland Street.
426-6665
Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5:p.m.- 11:p.m.

quality. we put it on sale everyday.

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 12-5pm
349A Newbury St. Boston 247-1474

Brunch Board

Menu Items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
3 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Warren Tavern
2 Pleasant St., Charlestown 241-8142
Step Back! Enjoy our country tavern in the city. Serving a traditional English Brunch- Scones, porridge, eggs. If you're on a special diet, please let us know. If you would like to read we have a variety of newspapers. Or just stop in for a pop. All served with T.L.C.
Served 12:00 - 3:00. $4.95 - $6.95

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern, 2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 11:30 to 3:30.

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

Fine dining isn't just for weekends anymore.

Come for our Penne al Pomodoro e Basilico!
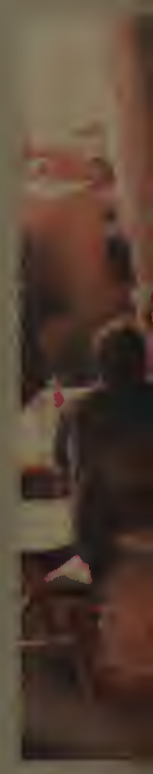
Famous in and outside of Boston, this entrée makes believers out of first time diners: tubular pasta sautéed with garlic, oil, butter, fresh tomato and basil.
Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."
8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

Skyline photo by Melanie Dunea

A What, Where, When and H

The Leisu



Aynsley Floyd

Fire Up Your Appetite for Ice Cream

The next time you have a three-alarm craving for ice cream, head down to Chip's Firehouse on Charles Street. Inside, you'll get the feeling that you're in a real firehouse complete with a bell, fire speaker and even a fireman's pole which, according to owner and fire buff Chip Tate, is used frequently. All of the ice cream is homemade on the premises using nothing artificial. Choose from hard ice cream, soft frozen yogurt, and Firehouse Lite, a soft serve frozen dessert that contains no fat, no sugar and is low lactose and kosher. At only nine calories a serving, you can't go wrong. Top off these yummy treats with homemade hot fudge and butterscotch and a variety of toppings such as real wet walnuts using Vermont maple syrup or fresh fruit such as boysenberries and blueberries. If ice cream doesn't light your fire, try their oversized cookies, frozen bananas or an old fashioned egg cream made with kosher syrup imported from Brooklyn. Stop by Chip's Firehouse at 60 Charles Street and don't be put off by any fire trucks parked out front; it happens to be a favorite spot among local firemen. Call 227-8484 for more information.

Touch and Drink: A New Kind of Learning Experience

Want to go out for a couple of beers and a bite to eat and get an education? Try the Boston Beer Works on Brookline Ave. across from Fenway Park. Not only will you enjoy good food and great beer, but you'll be surrounded by the completely visible brewery. Read the menu and follow the description of the brewery that explains the beer-making process. While reading, try one of their eight different brews or their wine, cider, root beer and lemonade - all made on the premises. Their food menu includes all of a beer-drinker's favorites, such as pastas, burgers, nachos and wings. If you are one of those people who need to know everything about brewing beer, the managers at Boston Beer Works will be more than happy to give you all the information you desire. Open daily from 11:30-1am, the Boston Beer Works is located at 61 Brookline Ave. in Boston.

Medieval Splendor on N

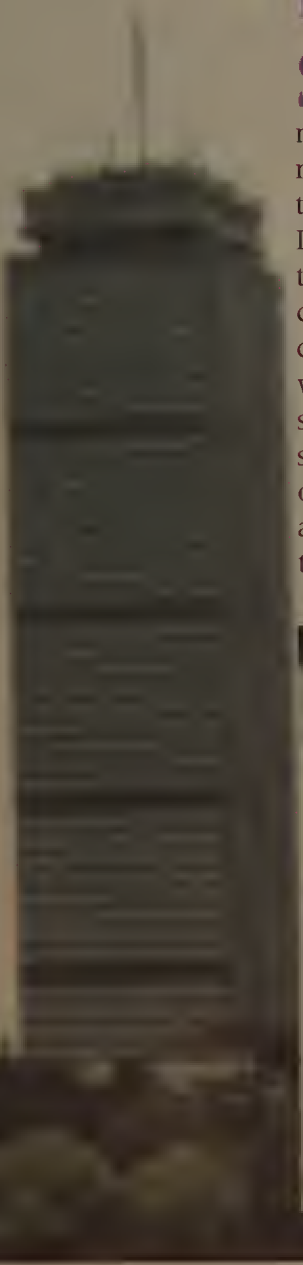
Michael Powers

Golf, Baseball, Billiards and a Restaurant - All Under One Roof

Did you ever want to play miniature golf but couldn't because it was pouring rain on your only day off? Or maybe feel like hitting some baseballs after work but the field had no lights? Such disturbing problems needn't be bothersome any more because now you can do both under the same roof at Good Time Billiards at 30 Sturtevant St., in Somerville. This nice escape offers everything from billiards and indoor mini-golf to batting cages, a restaurant and a full bar. Good Time Billiards takes the definition of a sports bar one step further by focusing their attention on interactive sports. And for folks who are slightly more passive, there are enough television sets to keep even the most passionate sports fan happy here (they're all arranged in enough locations for easy viewing). In between a round of golf and a game of billiards, you may want to try something from their beer or menu. Call them at 628-5552 for more information or directions.

...w Guide for Your Free Time

...re Study



Aynsley Floyd

Walk For Art

It's not a fund-raiser and you don't have to be sponsored. All one needs is a good pair of shoes and you're off to a good time. The Third Annual Beacon Hill Art Walk happens on June 7 throughout Beacon Hill to spotlight the work of area painters, sculptors, potters, photographers and more. As one of the more casual and neighborly shows in Boston, the exhibits will be located throughout gardens, courtyards and entryways of Beacon Hill where visitors can stroll at their leisure to browse or buy some of these fine works. Admission to this event is free and exhibitors wishing to display their work can call 227-1726 for more information on participating in this outside art show.

...v England's Rocky Coast

Count Dracula would love it here! Located 45 minutes north of Boston on the beautiful Gloucester Coast is a throwback to the days of old at The Hammond Castle Museum. Built by American inventor Dr. John Hays, the castle houses a collection of early Roman, Medieval and Renaissance artifacts - plus an 8,200 pipe organ, the largest ever built in a private home. Dr. Hays spent three straight years traveling throughout Europe, collecting wood, stone and other artifacts to display in his castle by the sea. In the words of this great inventor: "You can read history, you can visit a hundred museums containing their handiwork, but nothing can reincarnate their spirit except to walk through rooms in which they have lived and through the scenes that were the background of their lives." Throughout his life, Hays amassed a truly remarkable collection which can be viewed while hearing the strains of prerecorded organ music which echoes through the halls of this magnificent structure. Visitors to the castle can take guided tours, walk the grounds [illegible] one of [illegible] available for private functions, weddings, [illegible] and concerts. Please call 508-283-7673 for more information.

LA TRENDS

Melanie Dunea

Some people will do anything to turn back the clock of the aging process. But the multi-billion dollar healthcare industry has nothing on L.A.'s newest youth-saving trend: the Facewich. Trend Analyst/Surfer Louis C. Horowitz claims that he's benefitting from his daily Facewich (which he claims is the godsend of trend). "It's a lot cheaper than spending money on a facial when everything you need to look good is sitting right in your refrigerator. A couple of slices of cucumber, apple and potato placed on your face will have leave your skin shiny and smooth after a 20 minute session. But the key to looking complete is in the tea bags and the mustard. Tea bags for the eyes and mustard for the lips. You can't leave the mustard on for too long though, because it tends to leave your lips looking like you just finished making out with a crayon."

Melanie Dunea

Nightlife Analyst Rat Mac has returned to the clubs and [illegible] while not a whole lot has changed in regards to "the scene," there's a new hair-do or actually hair-don't that's popping up everywhere - for better or [illegible]. It's the non-washed look that everyone's calling the "Grunge." The greasier your hair is, the better. You [illegible] your hair go unwashed for [illegible] days or so [illegible] comes really greasy and matted together, th[illegible] that's it's probably a good time to wash it. Grun[illegible] vitamins to [illegible] can say that wh[illegible] my Slick seems to have slowed [illegible] the balding process. But then again, [illegible] is just stuck [illegible] head because of the grease buildup." Next Issue: New [illegible] for Tintoil.

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727 A,MC,V
$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's, 54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel 426-1111 A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef, 604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorified chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V
$$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Choose from a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees and grilled fresh native seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am-11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Café Marliave
10 Bosworth St., Boston 423-6340
$$
If you're an aspiring poet, there's a special place here for you: The Poet's Corner. On the sun-filled roof garden is where the famous American poet John B. O'Reilly was inspired to write his best works. If you're looking for delicious food, there are 14 pasta sauces here to tempt every Bostonian, a spacious glassed-in cocktail roof garden and a wonderful family to make you feel at home. See ad on left.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti 307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016
$
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds, 266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922 A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

FREE DELIVERY 424-7070
(Limited Delivery Area)
11 AM to MIDNITE, 7 DAYS A WEEK
86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA (Behind Star Market in the Fenway)

Enjoy a taste of spring at
Joyce Chen.

For many, asparagus is a welcome sign of spring.
This season, for a limited time, you'll find lots of new ways to love it. Like Chicken Macadamia with Asparagus or Wok-Seared Shrimp with Asparagus – all healthfully prepared using the freshest ingredients.

JOYCE CHEN
RESTAURANT.

Available for take-out or downtown Boston delivery.
Boston: 115 Stuart St., Theatre District (617) 720-1331
Cambridge: 390 Rindge Ave. (617) 492-7373

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V
$$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry i, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V $$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790
A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen, 115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos.
426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Loading Zone
150 Kneeland St., Boston
$$ 695-0087 V, A, MC, DC, D
You can load up on a number of barbecue specialties while enjoying one of Boston's more artistic restaurant experiences. Tables are glass-topped over a variety of paintings, sculptures and more - all by Boston artists. For a new patron, you can't go wrong with their combination platter, or "Pig Out" as it's affectionately labeled. This platter offers a wonderful sampling of 3 spare ribs, baby back ribs, pork shoulder, brisket and bbq chicken. Lunch 11:30am to 5pm, dinner from 5pm to midnight. Don't miss their club nights - 3 times a week.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Trlestini - three veal cutlets with proclutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and 1280

Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

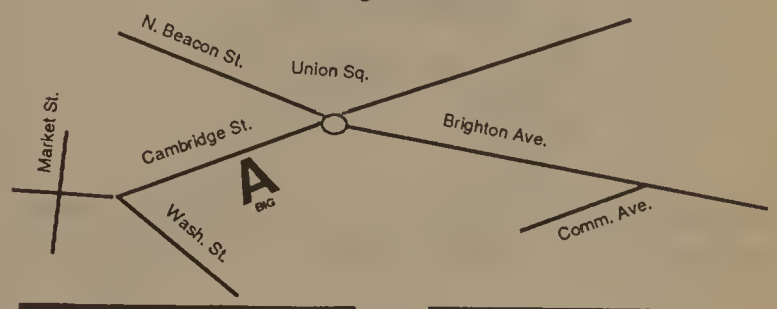
The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

NEWBURY'S
Steak House

Our tradition of fine seafood specialties is as well known as our reputation as a steak house. All our entrees are served with limitless salad bar, fresh vegetables, and homeade bread.

For 50 Years Back Bay's Neighborhood Restaurant 94 Massachusettes Ave (at Newbury Street) 536-0184 Open Noon • Midnight Seven Days A Week

2 for 1 Lunch
Select any two lunch entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
IB valid anytime, with this coupon, offer expires June 9th, 1992



2 for 1 Dinner
Select any two dinner entrees and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
IB valid any time, with this coupon, offer expires June 9th, 1992

FAST FREE DELIVERY TO: Allston, Brighton, Brookline, Kenmore.

Take $1 off your order of $10 or more, or $2 off for $15 or more w/ mention of this ad!!

THE BIG A DELI

568 Cambridge St., Allston

PIZZA

Plain	4.50	7.00
Double Cheese	5.00	8.00
Onion	4.75	7.50
Green Pepper	4.75	7.50
Ham	5.00	8.00
Hamburger	5.00	8.00
Pepperoni	5.00	8.00
Salami	5.00	8.00
Sausage	5.00	8.00
Anchovy	5.00	8.00
Olives	5.00	8.00
Mushroom	5.00	8.00
2-Way	6.50	9.50
3-Way	7.50	10.00
4-Way	8.00	10.50
Big A Special	9.00	12.00
Per Slice	1.00

STEAKS

Plain	3.60	4.00
Onion	3.75	4.25
Pepper	3.75	4.25
Cheese	4.00	4.50
Mushroom	4.20	4.75
Mushroom & Cheese	4.30	4.90
Steak & Egg	4.50	5.00
Steak, Egg & Cheese	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Cheese	4.10	4.60
Big A Special	4.50	5.00

SUBS

American	3.35	3.75
Italian	3.35	3.75
Ham & Cheese	3.35	3.75
Salami & Cheese	3.50	4.00
Roast Beef	4.00	4.75
Corned Beef	4.00	4.75
Pastrami	3.50	4.00
Meatball	3.35	3.75
Sausage	3.35	3.75
Meatball & Sausage	4.00	4.50
Double Hamburger	3.10	4.00
Double Cheeseburger	3.35	4.25
Eggplant	3.35	3.75
Tuna	4.30	4.80
Turkey	4.00	4.50
Chicken Salad	4.00	4.50
Crabmeat	4.50	5.00
Pepper & Egg	3.35	3.75
Pepperoni & Egg	3.35	3.75
Sausage & Egg	3.35	3.75
Mushroom & Egg	3.35	3.75
Western	3.35	3.75
Eastern	3.35	3.75
Veal Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Chicken Cutlet	4.25	4.85
Ham, Turkey & Cheese	4.25	4.85

SIDE ORDERS

French Fries	1.50	2.50
Onion Rings	1.50	2.50

DINNERS

BAKED MANICOTTI	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
BAKED STUFFED SHELLS	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
HOMEMADE LASAGNA	5.75
With Meatballs	6.25
With Italian Sausage	6.25
With Eggplant	6.25
With Chicken Cutlets	7.50
With Veal Cutlets	7.50
BAKED RAVIOLI Parmigiana	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
SPAGHETTI PLAIN	5.25
With Meatballs	6.00
With Italian Sausage	6.00
With Eggplant	6.00
With Chicken Cutlets	7.00
With Veal Cutlets	7.00
DINNER SPECIALS
Chiskabob	5.00
Fried Chicken	5.50
Chicken Fingers	5.50
Cheeseburger Plate	5.50
Hamburger Plate	5.00

SALADS

Garden Salad	3.35
Greek Salad	4.00
Antipasto Salad	4.25
Turkey Salad	5.00
Tuna Salad	5.00
Chicken Salad	5.00
Crabmeat	5.00

FREE DELIVERY 782-1222

THE BIG A It's so delicious

568 Cambridge Street, Allston
Sun. - Thur 10 am to 11 pm
Fri. & Sat. 10 am - 11pm

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury S. Open daily noon to midnight.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555 $$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC/V/AMEX $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070 MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

FREE

HOW TO MEDITATE

INTENSIVE SEMINARS

Meditation ☆ Career Success ☆ Happiness
Balance ☆ Reincarnation ☆ Wisdom

Seminars Offered In:
Arlington
Boston
Brookline
Cambridge
Newton
Waltham
Watertown

For the Location Nearest You Call
(617) 937-7077

Sponsored by The Boston Meditation Society

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

ARARAT RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos, and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with salad

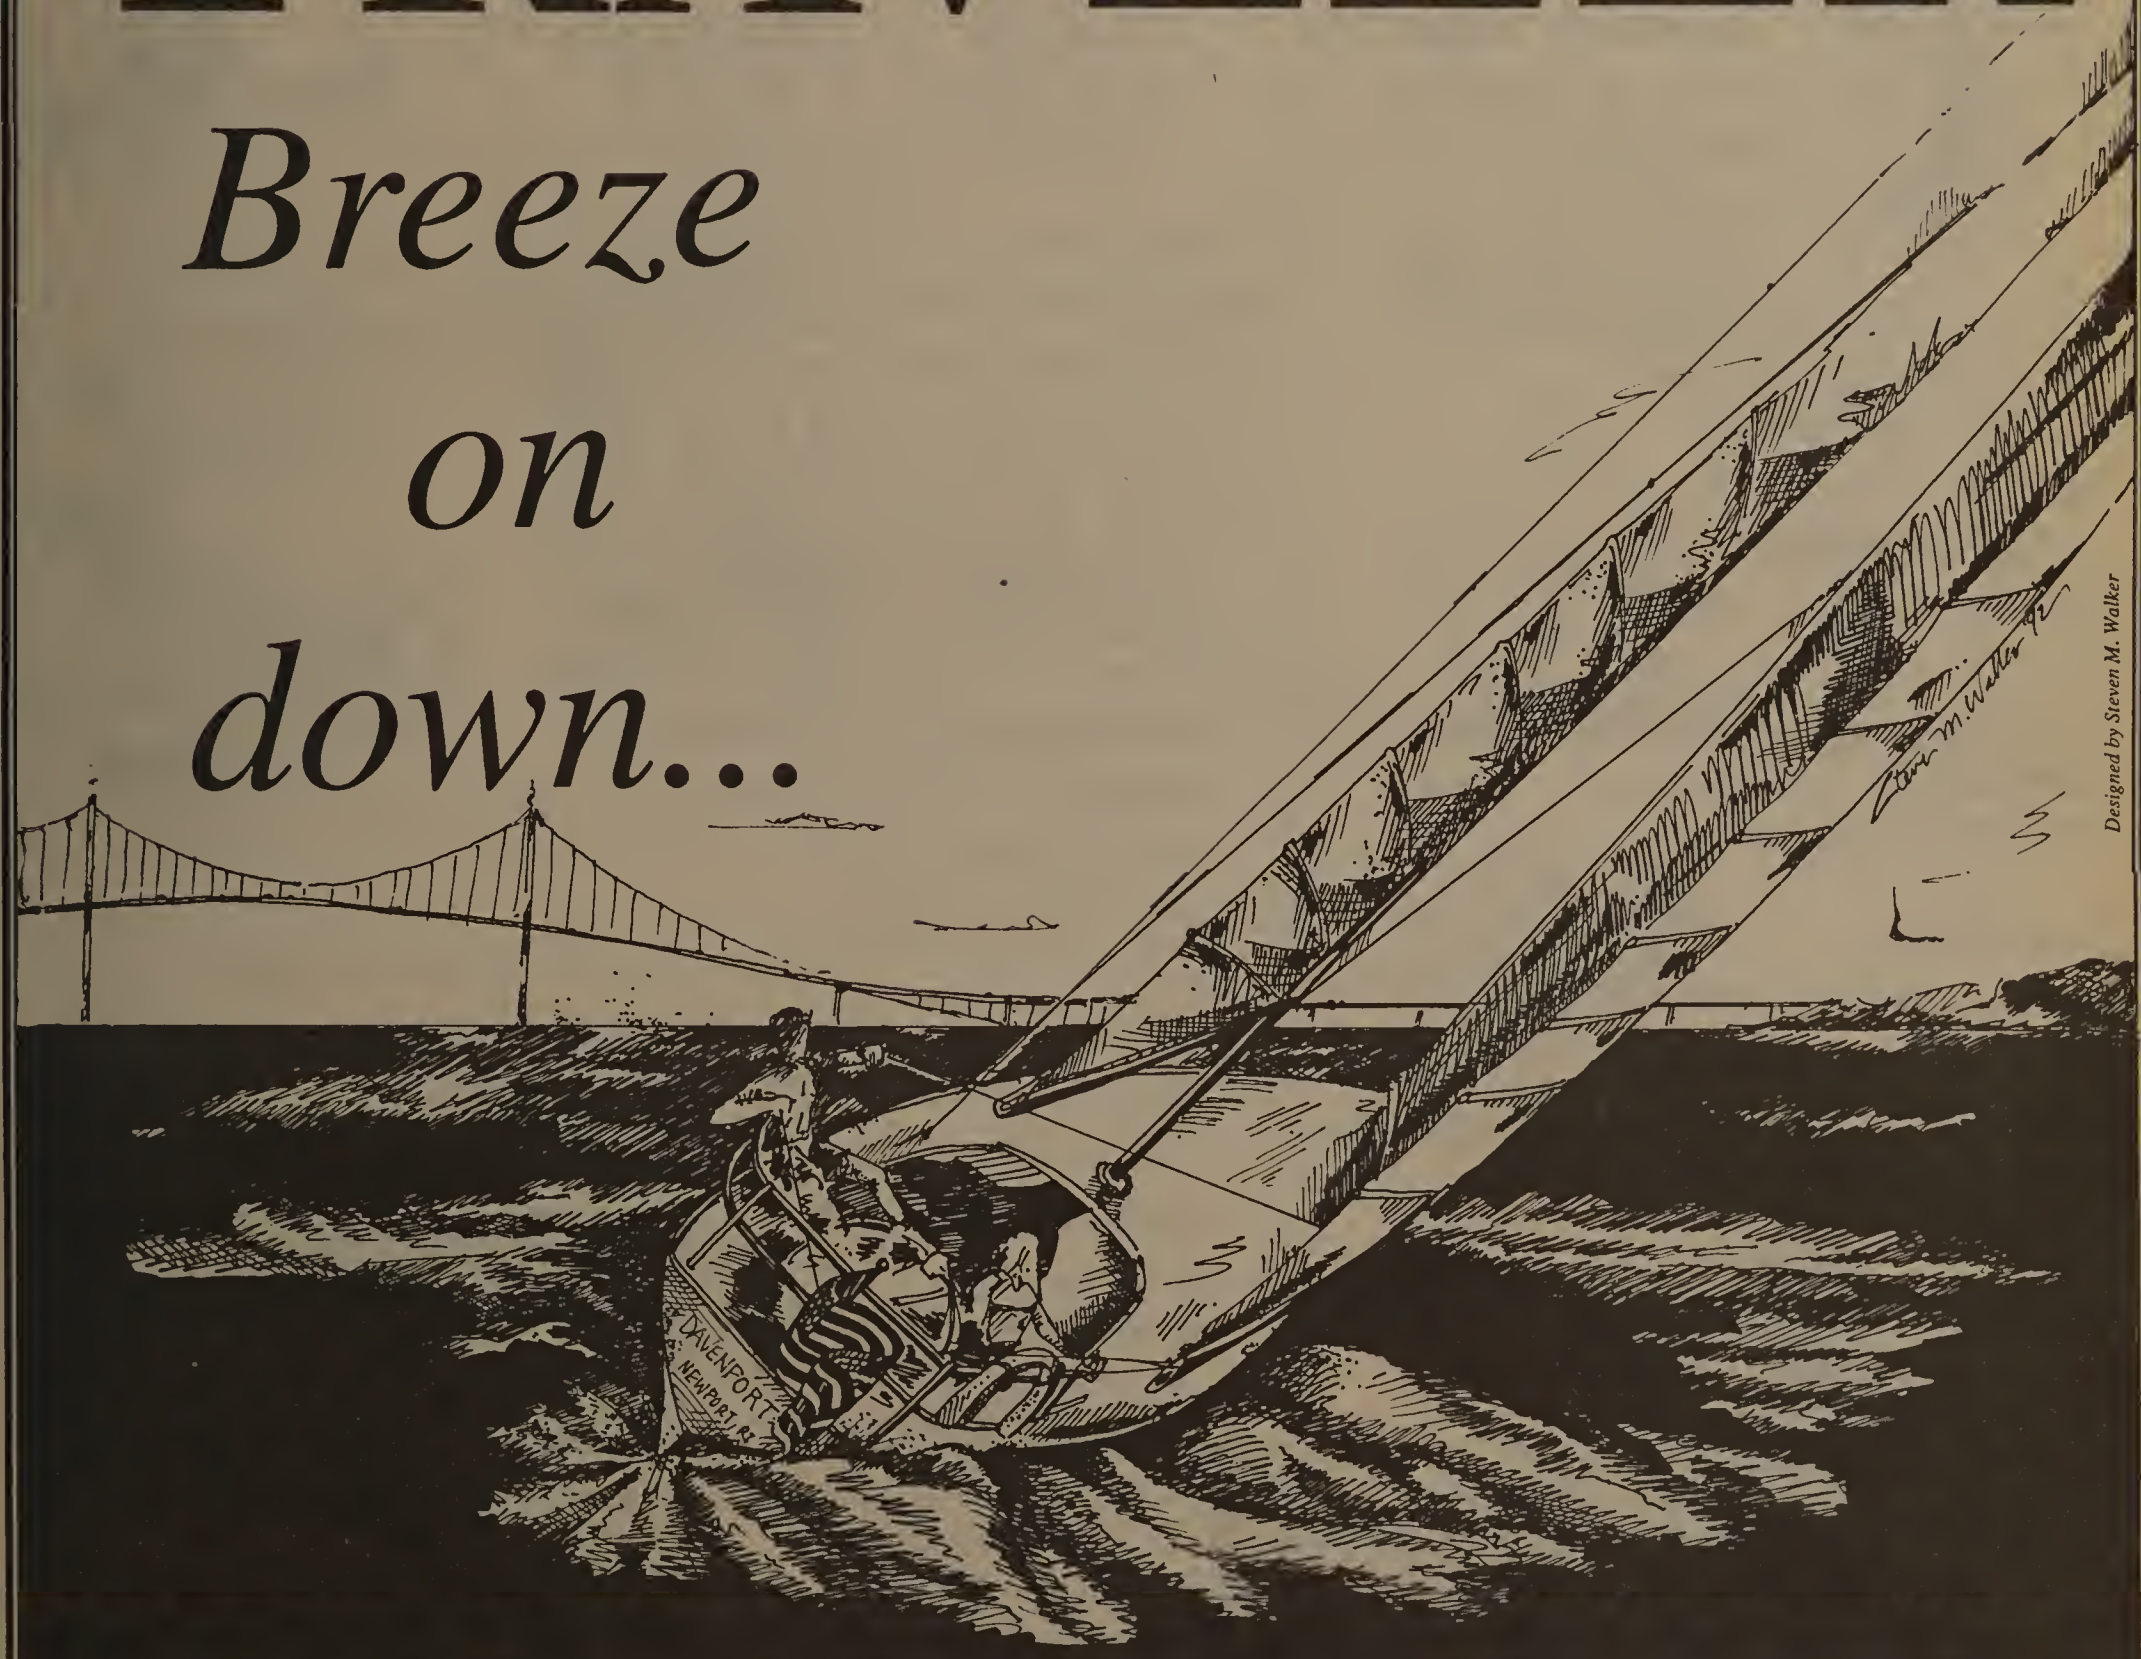
Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Tabouleh, and Yalanji
with Rice Pilaf

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

BBQ RIBS ARE NOT ALL THE SAME



EXPERIENCE THE BEST AT THE

LOADING ZONE
150 KNEELAND STREET
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
(617) 695 0087

WATCH OUT REDBONES, EAST COAST GRILL, BOB THE CHEF, & THE ORIGINAL SPURTS SALOON. (YES THIS IS A CHALLENGE).....

The Improper TRAVELER

Breeze on down...

Designed by Steven M. Walker

to NEWPORT

The Improper
TRAVELER

Artifacts

Breeze on down ... to NEWPORT

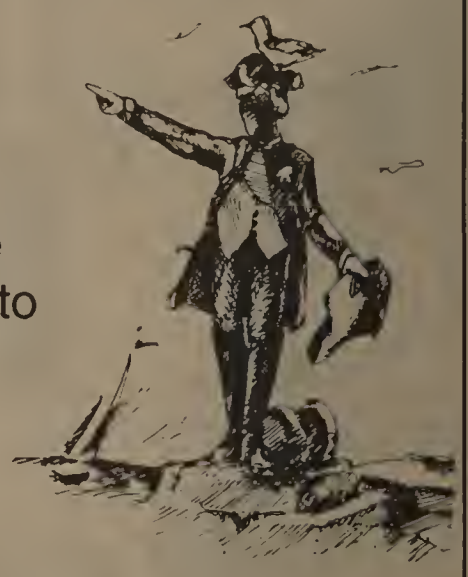
Discovering the secrets of Newport

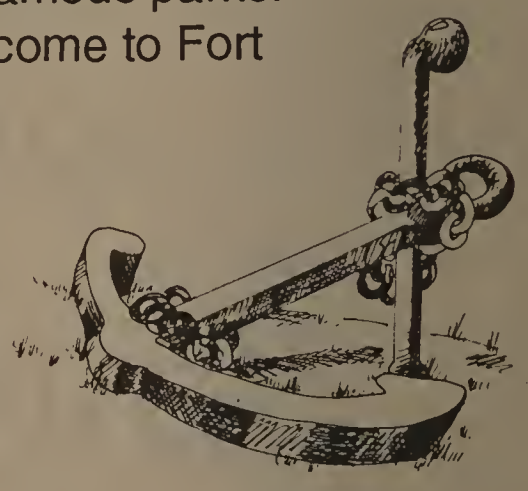
Newport, Rhode Island...
A place that holds all of your visions of summer.

Wake early to walk out along the rolling hills that edge Newport Harbor and make your way down to one of the weathered lighthouses along Ocean Drive.

Stay for a few days to see the enchanting parade of the world's greatest vessels in July when the Tall Ships take port in Newport Harbor.

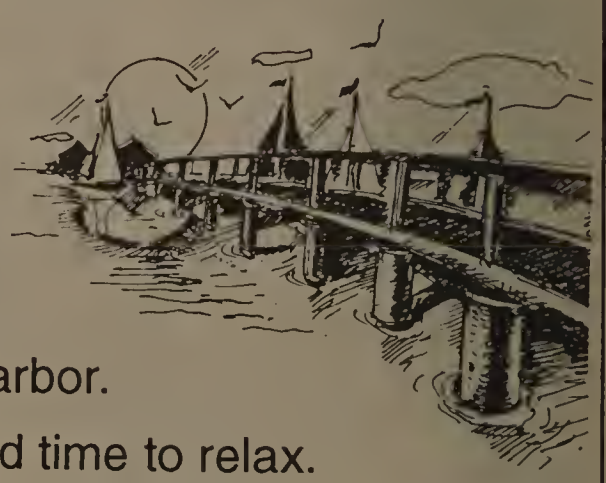


Stroll along Bellevue Avenue to see some of the most beautiful mansions in the country.



Browse through the village markets and thrift shops that adorn Newport's Waterfront. The Perry Mill Market is one of the sites filled with crafts, prints, and delicious food.

Did you know that the Newport Casino was the site of the first national tennis matches? Or that the first U.S. Open Golf Tournament in America was held at the Newport Country Club? These along with other facts contribute to Newport's interesting history. Stop by an information center and pick up a guide highlighting Newport's attractions. Main points of interest include: Naval War College Museum, International Tennis Hall of Fame and Museum, Cliff Walk, and tours of the exquisite Newport mansions. Great ideas for unpredictable weather or any day for that matter.



Venture along the harborside parks to take in some of Newport's history.

Plan an afternoon picnic at one of Newport's famous parks. This summer come to Fort Adams State Park to hear talented musicians perform in the jazz and folk festivals.

Enjoy a gentle harbor breeze at sundown while watching hundreds of sailboats drift in and out of Newport Harbor.

Find time to relax.
Find Newport.

Phone: 617-232-3705
The Improper Traveler
Concepts & Design
Steven M. Walker : Clear AdVantage DesignCo.

Account and Research Executive
Davenport Crocker: Improper Bostonian Magazine
Contributing Writer
Leslie Semonian: The Improper Bostonian Magazine
All rights reserved 1992 Improper Bostonian 17 Station St. Brookline, MA
All artwork is copyrighted by Steven M. Walker 1992

The Improper
TRAVELER

Delectables

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

Christie's of NEWPORT

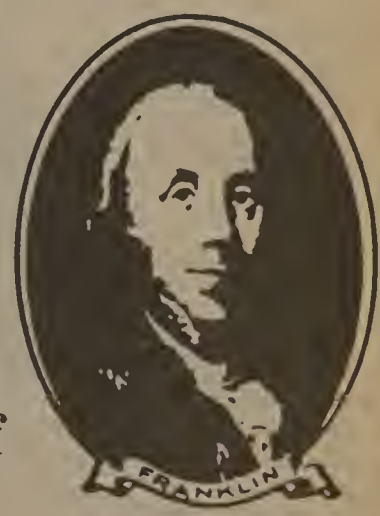
Newport's Oldest Waterfront Restaurant

Specializing in Seafood & Steaks

Designed by Steven M. Walker

On Christie's Landing

by 351 Thames Street
Newport, RI
(401) 847-5400



Outdoor dining & live entertainment

A taste of summer in Newport

Newport's fine restaurants and pubs cater to many tastes. From the classic American burger to the freshest seafood available, one's palate can be completely satisfied. Dining possibilities are endless, whether you prefer a casual snack or formal meal. Outdoor cafes and bars overlooking the waterfront are a favorite among vacationers. Most restaurants feature raw bars where oysters and clams are shucked in front of the patrons and served on ice with ample lemons and cocktail sauce. After a meal, enjoy freshly made homemade ice cream while strolling through town.

Fine Food at a Price Franklin Himself Would Have Appreciated.

Benjamin's

Family Restaurant

254 Thames St.
Newport, RI

(401) 846-8757
Luncheon - Cocktails - Dinner

THE MOORING

A superb restaurant on Newport's Harbor featuring internationally acclaimed, traditional New England Cuisine, for delicate to robust appetites... prize-winning chowders, glacial salads. The Mooring creates its own unique identity, located at the former N.Y. Yacht Club Station #6. Serving our full menu from 11:30 daily; from noon on Sat. and Sun.

The Mooring, Sayer's Wharf, Newport, R.I.
(401) 846-2260

The Best Ribs this side of the Rio Grande!

Designed by Steven M. Walker

In Downtown Newport, RI

MUSIC HALL CAFÉ

Relax with a frosty margarita and enjoy the atmossphere.

250 Thames Street
(401) 848-2330

The Improper
TRAVELER

A View From Above

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

GREAT AMERICAN PUB

USA

★ NEWPORT, RI ★

Join us for great sports action, discover our famous boneless Buffalo wings, and cool off this summer with one of our 23 oz Draft Beers.

Come down where all the action is on 337 Thames St. Newport, RI - directly across from Thames St. Station Night Club.

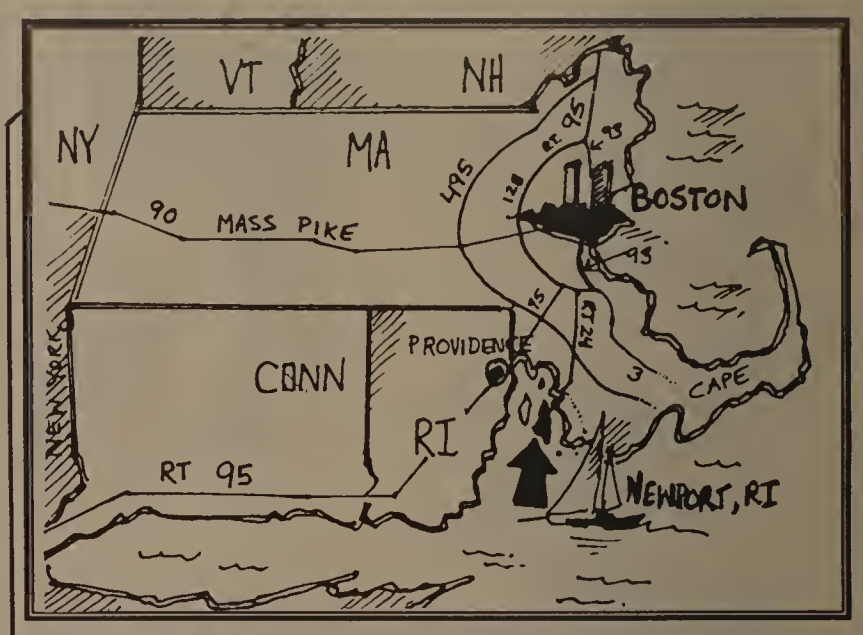
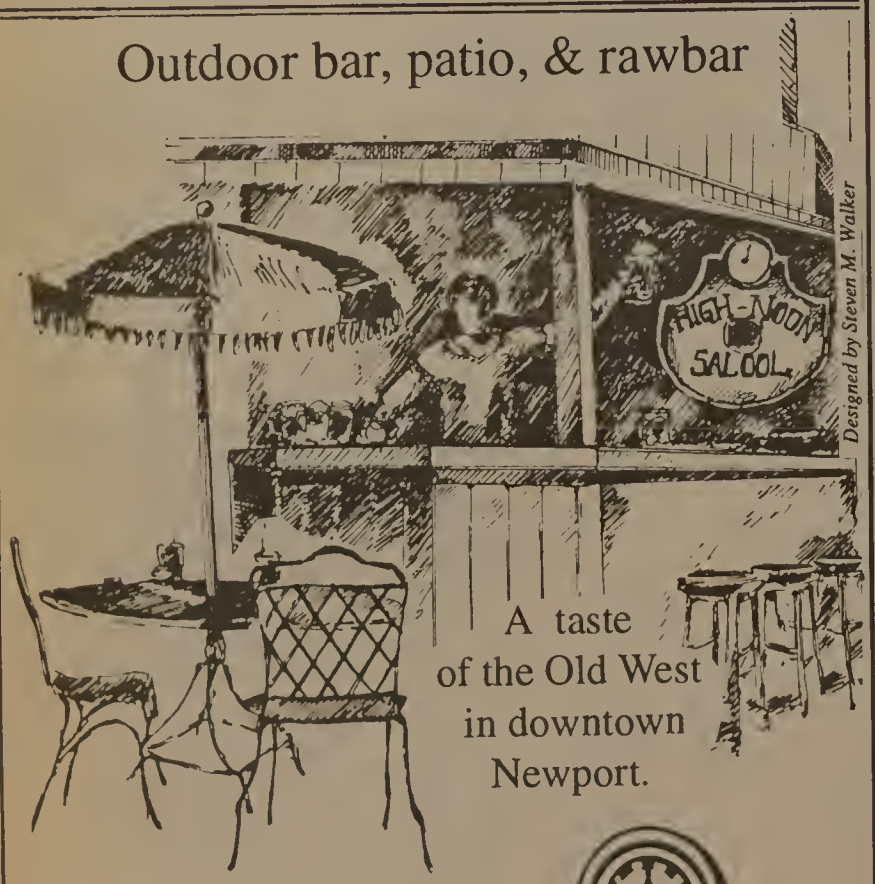
(401) 849-9480



An easy approach to Newport

Newport, Rhode Island, well known for its magnificent estates is a prime vacation spot for thousands of Bostonians seeking relaxation, sports, and fun in the sun. The easy hour and a half drive leads you right into the center of this lively colonial seaport. Once you arrive, you don't have to worry about driving too far. With plenty of enticing restaurants, unique shops, fun bars and great nightclubs within close proximity, many prefer to set out on foot and leave their cars behind. On a sunny day, expect to find most a few miles away at Newport's famous beaches.

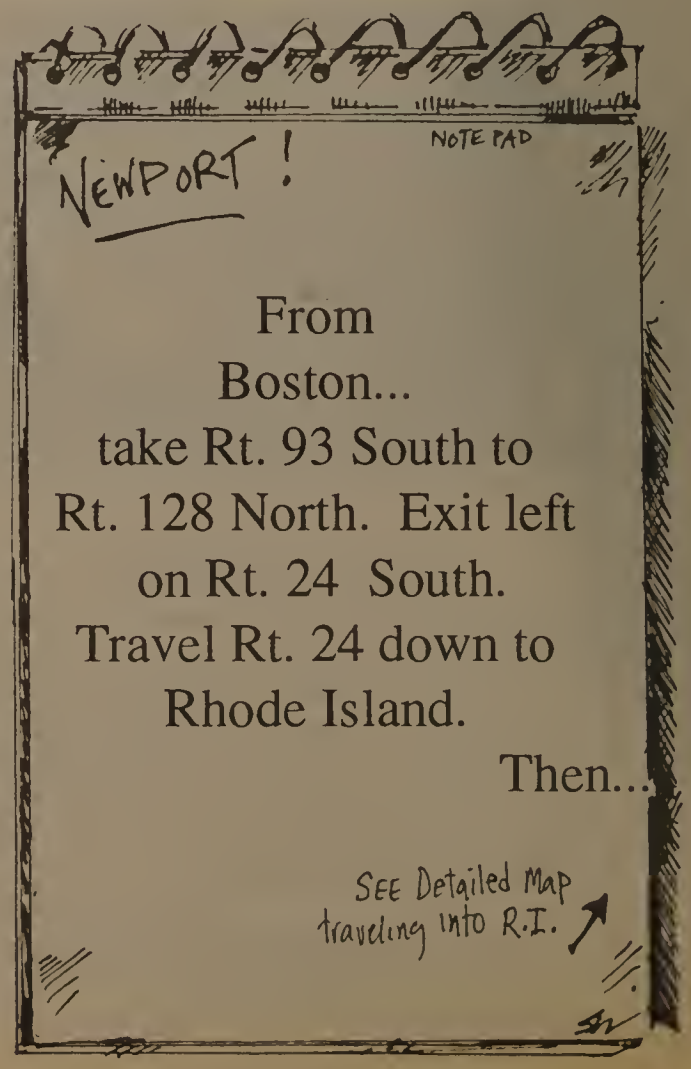


Where in the World?
right here.

From a distance

Outdoor bar, patio, & rawbar

Designed by Steven M. Walker

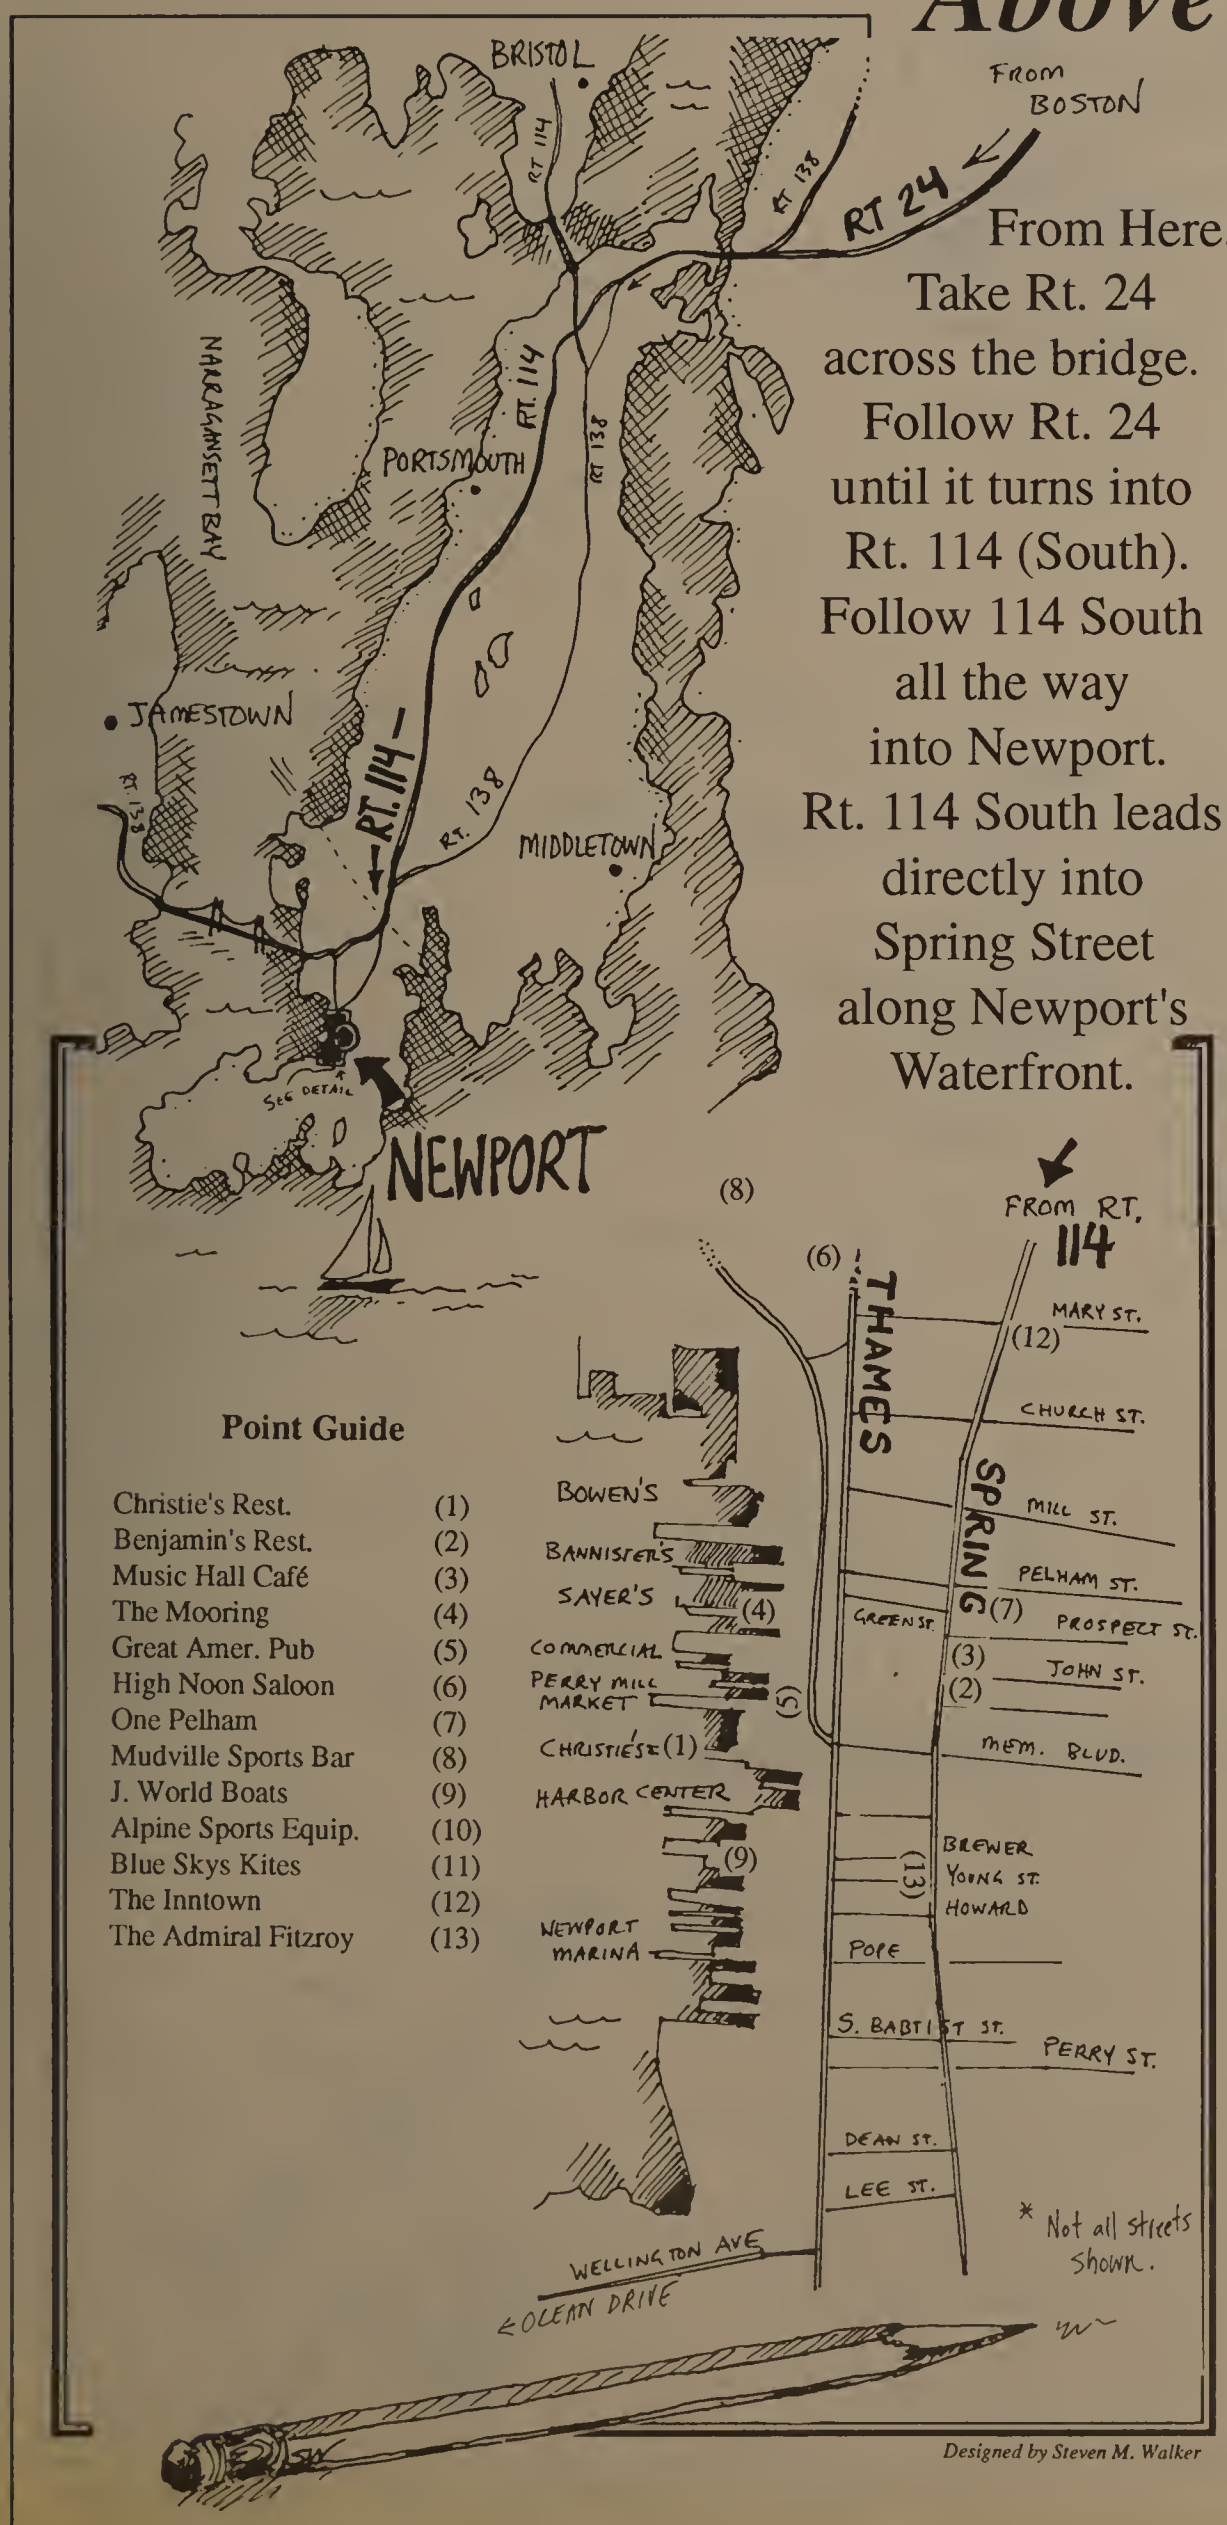


A taste of the Old West in downtown Newport.

12 beers on draft and delicious food all year round.

(401) 849-5886

HIGH-NOON SALOON



Brick Market Place
Newport, R.I.

The Improper
TRAVELER

A View From Above

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

From Here...
Take Rt. 24
across the bridge.
Follow Rt. 24
until it turns into
Rt. 114 (South).
Follow 114 South
all the way into Newport.
Rt. 114 South leads directly into Spring Street along Newport's Waterfront.

Point Guide

Christie's Rest.	(1)
Benjamin's Rest.	(2)
Music Hall Café	(3)
The Mooring	(4)
Great Amer. Pub	(5)
High Noon Saloon	(6)
One Pelham	(7)
Mudville Sports Bar	(8)
J. World Boats	(9)
Alpine Sports Equip.	(10)
Blue Skys Kites	(11)
The Inntown	(12)
The Admiral Fitzroy	(13)

Designed by Steven M. Walker

NOTE PAD

One Pelham East

May
Wed.	27th	Mike Lauerino
Thur.	28th	Screaming Pharroahs
Fri.	29th	Search Party
Sat.	30th	The Shiveis
Sun.	31th	Stu Krous
June
Tues.	2nd	Pat Crottle
Thur.	4th	8 to the Bar
Fri.	5th	Universal Language
Sat.	6th	Letters to Cleo
Sun.	7th	Stu Krous

(acts subject to change)

2 Pelham St., Newport,RI
(401)-847-9460

Stay Ahead of The Game.

Catch all the action
at Mudville's.

13 Color T.V.'s!!!

friendly, low prices,
& a fantastic atmosphere.

8 W. Marlborough St.

Designed by Steven M. Walker

Newport (401) 849-1406

The Improper
TRAVELER

Today & Tomorrow

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

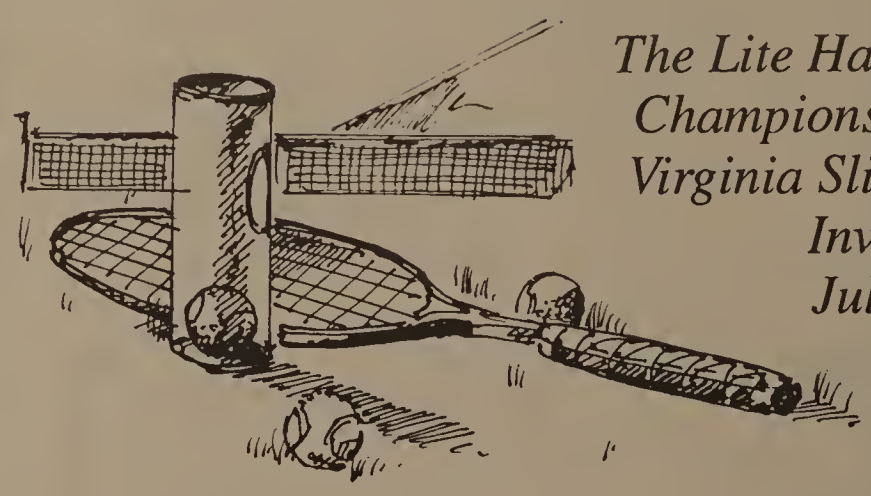
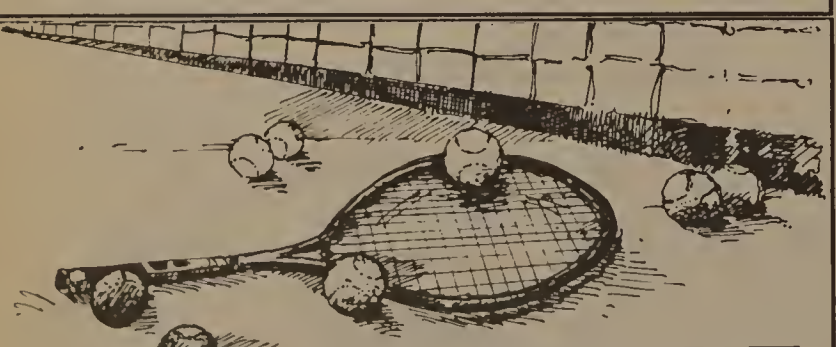
Learn sailing at America's best school while you live sailing in America's favorite seaport.



Sailing six hours a day in the warm sea breeze off Newport can change your life. Ask our graduates who come back year after year. J World offers courses at all levels from beginner to advanced, in cruising or racing or charter prep. Please call for details, dates and rates.

Newport, RI
1-800-343-2255
1-401-849-5492



J® WORLD

Catch some of the most exciting tennis events on the 13 grass tennis courts at the Newport Casino.

The Lite Hall of Fame Tennis Championships July 6-12th
Virginia Slims Hall of Fame Invitational
July 9-12th

ALPINE
Sports
& Diversworld

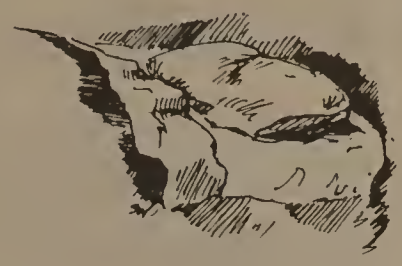
Everything in Tennis.
Everything in Water Sports.

Bellevue Plaza
Bellevue Avenue
Newport, RI

(401) 849-3330

Designed by Steven M. Walker

Don"t miss the Tall Ships coming to Newport this July 17-20th. Featuring The Spirit of Massachusetts.



This August world famous musicians will perform in Newport.
Ben & Jerry's Folk Festival
August 8th-9th.
The JVC Jazz Festival
August 15th-16th

For additional listings see page 36.

The Improper
TRAVELER

Staying Over

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

THE INNTOWNE

Where accomodation takes on a whole new meaning.

A
colonial inn
on the corner of Thames & Mary Streets

Newport, RI 1-800-457-7803

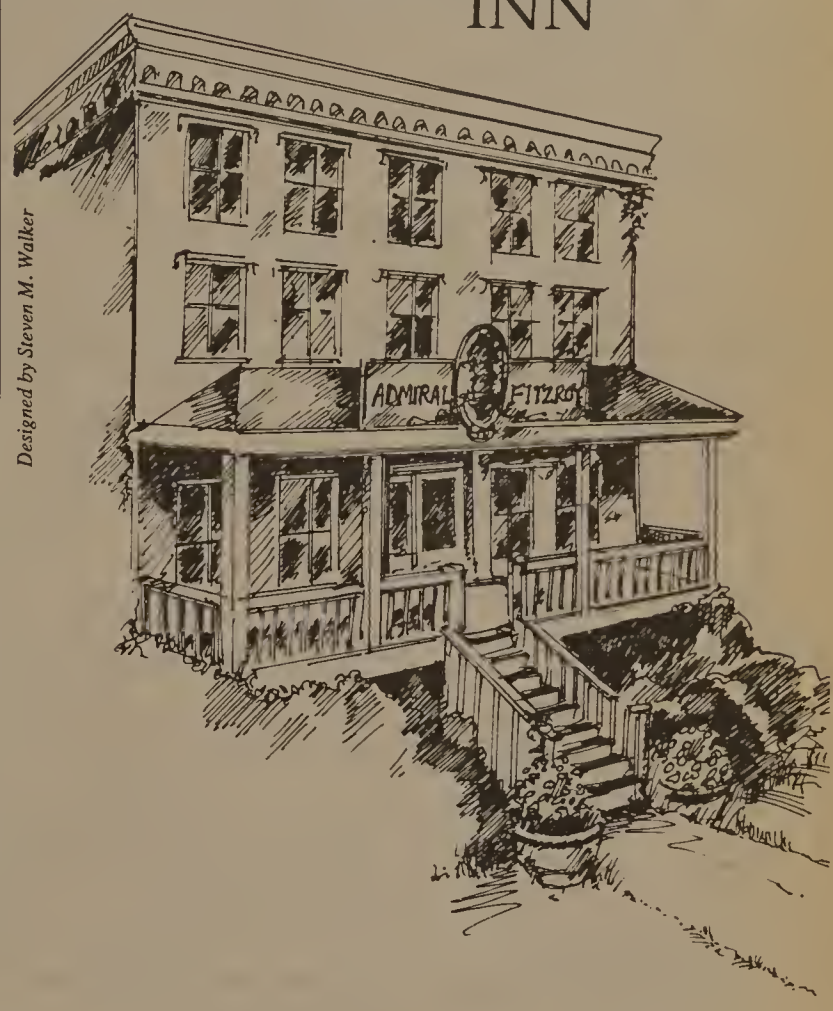
Designed by Steven M. Walker

Sail Newport

In The Sky.

Blue Skys

KITE CONNECTION



Newport, RI
(401) 846-KITE

190-B Thames St

Newport; finding time to sleep inn

After a full day of activities and dining around Newport, where do rest your head? As in any bustling summer hot spot, places to stay are numerous and varied in their offerings, early reservations are recommended. Several larger hotels are situated directly on the harbor front and within easy walking distance to all the major attractions in Newport. For the true B & B addict, there are a staggering number of inns sprinkled throughout the downtown area. Many are impressively ornate, as most are homes of former wealthy Newport residents and sea captains. One fine example is the Admiral Fitzroy, located at 398 Thames Street. This immaculate three storied, weathered-shingle inn is centrally located and boasts spectacular harbor views from its roof top deck. Airy open guest rooms are individualized with hand painted walls offering guests a truly unique experience. For further information regarding this and other possible sleep-over ideas contact the Gateway Information Center, (800) 326-6030.

Admiral
FITZROY
1854 INN

Designed by Steven M. Walker

At The Admiral Fitzroy Inn, located in the waterfront district, find all the comforts and charm of a country inn with all the up-to-date necessities of today.
Enjoy our cool breezes.
Stroll the shops in The Village.
Dine in Newport's finest restaurants.

Full breakfast each morning and afternoon tea.
Season rates $135.00 - $150.00
Off season rates $75.00 - $100.00

Also available:
The Admiral Benbow Inn -
an 1855 Victorian located on The Hill.

The Admiral Farragut Inn-located by Trinity Church, a pristine 1702 Colonial.

Season Rates $85.00 - $120.00
Our innkeepers await you (with cookies!)

1-800-343-2863
1-401-848-8000
Fax: 401-846-4289

398 Thames St.
Newport, Rhode Island 02840

Calendar of Events

June 1992

1st	American Heart Assoc. Annual Heart Fund Ball, (401)849-2600
6-7	Bellevue Avenue Re-dedication, (401)849-8048
12-14	Secret Garden Tour of Newport, (401)847-0514
19	Start of the Newport to Bermuda Race, (401)846-1983
21	11th Annual Great Chowder Cook-Off, (401)846-1600
22	Art Festival, Eisenhower Park & Long Wharf Mall
26-27	Wooden Boat Show, (800)225-5205 or (401)846-1983
29	Newport Classic Car Auction, Eisenhower house, (401)849-3033

July 1992

4	Old Fashioned 4th of July Public Clambake, (401)847-1441
6-12	Lite Beer Hall of Fame Tennis Championships, (401)846-4567
9-12	Virginia Slims Hall of Fame Invitational, (401)846-4567
10-12	Michelob Newport Regatta, (401)846-1983
11-12	Newport Antiques & Collectibles Festival, (617)229-2414
17-20	Tall Ships Newport 92, (401)846-1983
24	Newport Art Museum Picnic, (401)848-8200
27	American Cancer Society Ball, (401)722-8480

August 1992

5-9	US. Croquet Assoc. NE. Regional Champs., (401)846-4567
8-9	Ben & Jerry's Newport Folk Festival, (401)847-3700
15-16	JVC Jazz Festival, (617)931-2000
21	Newport Art Museum Picnic, (401)848-8200
26-27	Sail Newport Blind Regatta, (401)846-1983
28-30	Country Folk Art Show & Sale, (401)634-4151

It costs less than you think.

Advertise in The Improper Bostonian and have your ad seen in 80,000 issues every two weeks.
For more info contact our advertising department at (617) 232-3507

Footnotes

It was nearly ten years ago that I listened to Carl Sagan explain how traveling in the future could be something quite improper, to say the least.

In short, he stated that through the laws of relativity our speed directly effects our individual time frames. Though the mathematics are far too great for me to comprehend, Carl Sagan explained if one day we were able to travel at a speed close to that of light, that our days and even years would pass at an incredibly slower rate than those who traveled at slower speeds or who did not travel at all.
He then went on to point out that if you were to travel close to the speed of light for one year that when you returned to Earth, 100 years would have passed. Now the question.

If tomorrow NASA were to approach you saying that they are doing a top secret mission to test these theories and that they wanted you to be one of 10 people on the mission, and the only requirements were that you could only bring one other person and that the date of departure was 48 hours from that point in time.

You would travel for one year and return to find yourself in the year 2110 or later. You could bring your closest friend but when you returned he would be the only person who you knew for all your acquaintances had passed away over 50 years ago.
Would you go?

Just something to ponder throught the summer.

Breeze on down ...
to NEWPORT

SW

Ways to Jump Into Summer Fun (continued from page 9)

Melanie Dunea

The Charles is the perfect place to speed along on your bike.

bass on skates with his band, the Happy Campers, Cosby can be seen by appointment by calling 787-5783.

"It's not unsafe," says Personal Trainer and inveterate city skater Lisa de Angelis, "but people have to obey the rules of the road. All these fledgling bladers think they own the freaking street. They don't realize it's something you have to learn how to do before you get out there. The bottom-line is that people need to learn how to stop. Practice stopping in a safe area before you take yourself out into public!"

As for the tame, low-risk ways of taking in the summer sun, The Friends of the Boston Harbor Islands will be sponsoring cruises on July 19, August 2, 16 and 20. According to Volunteer Coordinator Nancy Martin, island visits also make excellent day junkets. "Get off at the Aquarium stop, and the boats are right there. Bring a picnic lunch, lightweight jacket and water, as most of the Islands have no fresh water, and you're set for the day." Boats from Long Wharf to George's Island begin running weekends after May 25 and weekdays after July 1, when free water taxis will take you from George's to all the other islands. For specifics call 523-8386.

Tamer still, the SPNEA (the Society of for the Preservation New England Antiquities; 227-3956) has a full schedule of outdoor events ranging from garden tours to "The Revels" at some of its historic properties, like the Codman House and Beauport. The New England Wildflower Society has several nature walks planned (237-4924), and if you don't manage to venture out until sunset, The Wizard of Oz will kick off the MDC's summer's schedule of movies at the Hatch Shell. With this much to do at home, Dorothy might have been right after all. ❑

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

MAY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27 CAL 10:35	28 CAL 10:35	29 SEA 10:35	30 SEA 10:05
31 SEA

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 OAK 10:05	2 OAK 10:05	3 OAK 3:15	4	5 CLE 7:35	6 CLE 1:05
7 CLE 1:05	8 BAL 7:35	9 BAL 7:35	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 9:05
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 1:05
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

Away

Home

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

BAY STATE TICKET

• George Thorogood & Little Feat	Great Woods	8/6
• Jimmy Buffett	Great Woods	8/8, 8/9
• Michael Bolton	Great Woods	8/15
• U2	Foxboro	8/20, 8/22
• N.Y. Rock & Soul Review	Great Woods	8/21
• James Taylor	Great Woods	8/27 - 8/29

Red Sox, All Boston Area Great Woods Events

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

June 11 k.d.Lang
Portland City Hall, ME
($26.50/$19.50)

June 13 Tracy Chapman
Great Woods, ($22.50-$15.00)

June 17-July 26 Annie Leibovitz Exhibit
Institute of Contemporary Art,($5.00)

June 19-20 Crosby, Stills & Nash
Great Woods, ($25.00/$15.00)

June 22 Ringo Starr & His All Star Band
Great Woods, ($27.50-$18.50)

June 26 Spinal Tap
Great Woods, ($17.50)

Ticketmaster
Outlets accept cash only.
Call 931-2000 to charge tickets by phone using Amex, MC or Visa.

Out-of-Town Tickets
Call 492-1900 for information.

Concertcharge
Call 497-1118 to charge tickets. Amex, MC or Visa.

MUSIC

Tony Banks, Phil Collins and Mike Rutherford are Genesis

GENESIS: A NEW BEGINNING

by John Rinaldi

Genesis has been going strong for twenty five years now with some departures and some additions. "We Can't Dance" is their seventeenth album whose new material proves that their music continues to evolve and exert an even stronger influence on contemporary music than ever before.

On all levels, "We Can't Dance" ventures into diverse territories: from the multi-faceted "Driving The Last Spike," an evocative and dramatic story of the British laborer, to the television evangelist portrayed in "Jesus, He Knows Me" to the haunting tale related in "Dreaming While You Sleep" - the many styles of music portrayed on the disc are awe-inspiring. "I Can't Dance" is an upbeat blues/pop song reminding one of a parody of the Venice Beach lifestyle because one can't seem to clear their minds of the hysterical accompanying video. The dark pop/rock of "Tell Me Why" is a poignant reflection on hunger and poverty and "Living Forever" takes a cynical look at the '90's obsession with staying healthy. "Way Of The World" offsets opposite poles against each other: weak and strong and right from wrong, intensely balancing resignation and hope. The Ballads on the album, including "Never A Time," "Hold On My Heart," and "Since I Lost You" are so effective that they burrow deep inside the soul almost moving one to tears.

In preparation for this album, band members Phil Collins, Tony Banks and Mike Rutherford gathered after a four year hiatus without any preconceived ideas of what direction the new project would take. Clearly, the chemistry was intact, as the band created an album built on the artists' strengths: "Phil's got his drums, Mike's got the guitars, and I govern the keyboards" states Banks. All the same ingredients may be there but "We Can't Dance" takes on a whole new flavor. While the lyrics for the songs were divided up amongst the three members, the album gave Phil Collins the liberty to create an album whose material has thematic continuity. In many cases song lyrics take a look back at life's experiences gone awry. This album is an excellent example of this and Collins adds lyrics in his own inimitable style that add depth and diversity to the final product. This disc isn't just music, it has something to say, stimulates thought, and causes one to feel strong emotions. It is excellent from the first note of the first tune to the dramatic ending of the coda in "Fading Lights." ❑

Custom Auto Radio of Watertown

- Auto Stereos
- Auto Alarms
- Mobile Phones
- Radar Detectors
- CB Radios & Scanners

Guaranteed Lowest Prices!

Creating and Designing Custom Auto Sound Systems at Affordable Prices

5% DISCOUNT with mention of this ad

Blaupunkt • Rockford Fosgate • Clarion • Toshiba Pioneer
Viper Alarm • Invisabeam Alarms •

660 Arsenal St. • Watertown • 923-2122

No Appointment Necessary • Installations 'Till 9 pm

JOE STUMP
Silent But Deadly

by A.J. Wachtel

Joe Stump could get through life very well without uttering a single word. Being non-verbal wouldn't affect his communication skills at all; in fact Stump has another way to converse his feelings and emotions to other people that is both unique and unparalleled. He lets his fingers do the talking. And if manual dexterity was related to verbosity, then Stump is a blabbermouth for he says more with his fingers and impressive guitar style than any fast talking con artist. When he performs, he says so much with his heavy metal guitar licks and brings out so many emotions in such a short period of time, it's like reading the Magna Carta in fifteen minutes.

Born and bred on Long Island, he played in Led Zep, Deep Purple and Black Sabbath cover bands by the time he was in his mid-teens and his guitar proficiency and dedication led him to the Berklee School of Music where he studied with music virtuosos Steve Vai, Victor Baily, Randy Coven and Dave Rosenthal as a performance major. After Berklee, Stump gigged with several fusion bands before committing himself completely to heavy metal guitar and his new band Trash Broadway. Their debut album quickly rose to #4 on the British Metal Import List. After Trash Broadway disbanded, Joe pursued a solo career performing loud blues-based metal guitar.

Currently, with the release of the completely instrumental Joe Stump's Guitar Dominance featuring "Breakneck Boogie," "Survival Of The Fastest" and "Blues Hell," he proves once and for all that he is indeed the fastest guitar player in the world. Although speed should be viewed in its proper perspective, the unrelenting and imaginative cadences strike a raw nerve and serve to bring heavy metal afficianados to a new and higher level of overpowering and blazing audial delights. Joe uses his guitar as a natural extension of his innermost feelings and leaving a Stump performance is like leaving the eye of a tornado; the experience is fierce and the memory unforgetable. ❑

MUSIC

Freddie Cannon - The Ageless Rocker

by Mickey O'Halloran

Born Frederick Picariello on December 4, 1940, (some say 1939) the son of an orchestra leader, Freddie "Boom Boom" Cannon burst onto the American music scene in the summer of 1959 when "Tallahassee Lassie," allegedly written by his mother, hit the Top Ten. All of 18 years of age, the singing tyro quit driving a truck a la Elvis, and began a musical career which has spanned four decades. He became a regular on WHDH DJ Bob Clayton's "Boston Ballroom," the local TV dance show. He had a straight run of 18 hits including "Okeefenokee," "Way Down Yonder In New Orleans," "The Urge," "Transistor Sister," "Jump Over" and "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy" for the Philadelphia-based Swan label. The company was operated by Bob Crewe and Frank Slay, who wrote many hits for Freddie, Frankie Valli and other singers of the day. The producers had connections enough to spot Freddie on Dick Clark's popular American Bandstand which had envious national exposure. After a short dry spell, Freddie scored big-time with the perennial summertime favorite "Palisades Park" which went to Number 3 in 1962. That same year he fronted labelmates Danny & The Juniors on a period piece "Twistin' All Night Long," a record which also featured Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons on back-up vocals. Later that year, he moved to Warner Brothers where he cut the million selling "Abigail Beecher" (the hip history teacher) which went to Number 16 by February 1964, before cutting "Action," from TV's Where The Action Is. Another Dick Clark production, this pre-Monkees TV video romp made stars out of Paul Revere and The Raiders and that act's frontman Mark Lindsey. Change was coming and Freddie and members of his class - Little Richard, Gene Vincent, Gary Bonds, Frankie Avalon, Fabian, Paul Anka, the Everly Brothers, Ricky Nelson, Del Shannon, Fats Domino and even Pat Boone - had basically passed by their day. Motown supremacy and slick production was waiting in the wings and the forthcoming British invasion hit our shores with enough printed hype to fill the Grand Canyon.

From "Ace...Is The Place" recording studios in the musical hotbed of Revere, Mass. (now Fleetwood Studios) to international fame, Freddie has always maintained his hometown roots. When financial success for early albums like the collectors piece "The Explosive Freddie Cannon" (Swan) came, Freddie invested in the careers of other deserving locals, most notably another Lynn act called The Improper Bostonians. (More on these guys in another issue.) Still singing and performing wherever they'll have him, Freddie makes occasional local appearances in concert and on the radio. ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

John Mooney
Testimony
Domino Entertainment
(Distributed by Relativity)

Blues fans thrive on the different flavors provided by the modern masters: the spine-tingling electricity of Buddy Guy, the elegance of Mick Taylor, the intensity of John Mayall and the masterful simplicity of B.B. King. With Sony/CBS' release of the Robert Johnson boxed set, an entire new audience seems to be opening up for the type of blues Johnson developed.

Everyone remembers "Love In Vain" from the Stones' live masterpiece Get Yer Ya-Ya's Out. This is that and more. The liner notes describes the "push-and-pull Afro-Carribean rhythms" of Mooney's playing style - there's that and more, an entire encyclopedia of musical ideas slinking in and out of this very heartfelt disc.

John Mooney is a potential blues superstar, and it's very refreshing to see Rob Fraboni's new label, Domino, making an investment in such a talent. With a very strong performance by Mooney drummer extraordinaire, Johnny Vidacovich, and guest appearances by Dr. John, Ivan Neville and others, Testimony is a rare treat indeed and gets the even rarer Janis.

-Janis Reed

The Commitments
The Commitments-Vol. 2
MCA

Q. You're a record exec. You've got a problem. You invested a lot of the company's money in an act you believe in. You've got a great group with a classic r&b feel. They're from out of the country. They didn't get any airplay. You've got to pay 12 people. What do you do?

A. You release another record. In a stranger-than-fiction scenario, The Commitments went to levels of platinum without benefit of airplay. The suburban movie-goers got caught up in the act's silver screen updated 90's renditions of classic 60's r&b, and after seeing the flick, immediately

(continued on following page)

TOWER RECORDS

All of these titles are available at all Tower Records locations.

FREE MUSIC

Just fill out the form below and you'll receive a free cassette single and a coupon for $1.00 off of any of the above titles.

Name _____

Address _____
Street

_____, _____ _____
City State Zip

Do you work or do you go to school?_____

Age _____

Please return this form to:
P.G.D.
Attn: Marketing
800 West Cummings Park STE2900
Wobum, MA 01801

Offer Expires 6//26/92

MUSIC

(continued from previous page)

purchased the movie soundtrack while still at the mall. Helping to boost the sales to stratospheric levels was a track from the album, a cover of Otis Redding's "Try a Little Tenderness." Now you can experience the music of a true-spirited Irish soul band on The Commitments Vol. 2 which includes Sam Cooke's "Bring It On Home To Me." Try it. You'll like it.

-Mickey O'Halloran

Annie Lennox
Diva
Arista

As one of the first MTV-spawned bands, the Eurythmics possessed the lethal combination of pop ingénue with a visual shock effect. Steered by Dave Stewart's seering instrumentals and Annie Lennox's strikingly androgynous presence, the band went on to score with video hit after hit, all the while hiding the potent voice that hid beneath the carrot-topped gender bender. Now, with the overlooked demise of the Eurythmics, Lennox has emerged with an incredible album that showcases her impassioned vocals without layering it beneath synthesizer washes. Diva, the end result of the break-up, motherhood and years of repression, unleashes the banshee in Lennox in a tender and mournful way. While not a happy album of liberation from the shackles that once bound her in a band, Diva is an emotional collection of pain, regret and sorrow that echoes the effects of once being shackled in a tempestuous relationship. The single "Why" is a desperate plea to fill the communication gap that is tearing her relationship apart. She cries, "Do you know how I feel?/ 'Cause I don't think you know how I feel" with a thorny conviction that pricks the heart and makes it bleed. "Legend in My Living Room" sighs for lost hopes when she "ran away from home to be with all the pretty people" but ended up "in a lonely place with a suitcase full of dreams." In "Little Bird," Lennox wishes to be lifted from her depressing life and turn into "the little bird that glides across the sky." With Diva, Lennox not only gets that wish; she also soars.

-Rey Roldan

SNEAK PREVIEW:
Jason Ringenberg
One Foot In The Honky Tonk

"Rhinestone cowboy he ain't, that Jason. Used to front The Scorchers. Yep. Good ol' boys. Played that A-merikin music, too. Wore them funny clothes, though, with studs and silver-looking things in 'em. Right here, he did so. No lie. And a big black Stetson hat, too, jes' for good measure. Them fellas sure could play a good lick. Folks round here say the band couldn't keep up with the big guy. No nevermind to me. I hear tell he's back with a whole new rekid, uh-huh. Some stuff wrote wit' that Dan Baird guy. 'Member them Georgia Satellites? I can't be sayin' if this geetar man is singin' 'bout country, soul, gospel, punk, or just what? It's sure hard to tell, when he makes folks so riled up like that. Makin' the devil's music though, that boy. He keep to playin' that new 'Hard Luck Boy,' won't be nobody at all even clean north of the line won't know who ol' Jason is. He'll be all makin' us right proud. Won't he, Jeb?"

-Mickey O'Halloran

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Aerosmith's Steve Tyler is on a not so permanent vacation in the W.Indies while soundman Tony Lentini rides his Harley and causes trouble...Mersey Beat's lead singer Jace Wilson was in The Dark...Johnny Groove is groovy. Their c.d. "Shark In The Water" out in June...Patty Barkas x-Face To Face crooner just back from touring with RTZ now working on a project with David Hull from Farrenheit in new band Pathos...Wrecking Crew on a European tour of nine countries...Lookalikes: Axis doorman Bob Hamilton and Satanist Anton LaVey...Jim Fitting from Treat Her Right now in Hyena Club...Paradise head honcho Tim McKenna seen running security for Soungarden's gig on Lansdowne St....Check out John Cafferty and Beaver Brown at Mr. Tipps on the 29th...And don't forget Hotbox with x-Dogmatics Jerry Lehane at Black Rose in Harvard Sq. on the 8th...Waitress of the week is Stephanie Pishko from Bill's Bar cause she's a beautiful blond. Go to Bill's every Tuesday for local rock brought in by Barry Hite who's now pounding for Slaughter Shack...Bullet LaVolta on a six week tour of Europe...Hollywood Squares does the best version of "Everybody's Got Something To Hide Cept For Me And My Monkey" since you know who...Listen for Michael Chlasciak's new e.p. "Rocket Boulevard"...Jennifer Rivers new release "Keepin' Time" is timely...Check out The Bristols at Bunrattys on the 31st and Concussion Ensemble with x-Zulu Richie Gilbert on the 5th...Miranda Warning does a great version of Volcano Suns' hit "Balancing Act"...Bartender of the week is Paul Barry from The Allston Ale House cause he's one Irishman who makes a green-whoops-mean bloody mary...Seen at Father's II: Dickie Barrett of The Bosstones, Dave Harrison of The Voodoo Dolls, Bobby Goudreau from Facts About Rats, Mark Sandman from Treat Her Right and Morphine and Miss Xanna Don't...The Voodoo Dolls new drummer is Bruce Pierce from Pale Nephews...Turntable song of the week is "Stuck On Planet Earth" by The Velcro Peasants cause of its Outlaws harmonies and vintage Lynnard Skynnerd sound...Happy belated to Titanics mgr Lili Dennis. The band has changed their name to The Satanics and Jay Parham who use to play with frontman Nat Freiberg in The Flies has joined...Check out c&w gurus Wheelers and Dealers every wed. at Catch A Rising Star...Happy belated to BNN-TV's Norman Gardner...Digger for Chuck Berry meets The Sex Pistols music...Doorperson of the week is Emily Sheehy from T.T. The Bear's cause she gets to hang out with owners Myles Cares and Bonnie Bouley and barkeep Jeanne Connolly...Congrats to Cindy Daly x-Lovelace, Calamity Jane and The Rev for finally tying the knot.

Jeff Marshall from Monolyth Entertainment now handling Electrichka and they do the best version of "Tales Of Brave Ullysses" since you know who...Check out Eric Boyer's recording studio/rehearsal space The Rock Shop in Quincy and say high to Frazzle...See Joe Stump at The No Bozos Jam at Axis on the 27th...The Lyres back from Spain. Drummer Jim Janota: "They all think keyboardist Monoman is God...and they're right!"...Club III just hosted Boston's Best Guitarist Contest...Al Hirt Leg hurt dept: Ed Burke just back from New Orlean's with a swollen ankle. Check out Big Blues Meanies at his club on the 30th and check out Ed's black and blue gams...Famous brothers dept:Chuck and Glen Stilphen x-Gang Green and Mallethead now in Scratch...Franx now working the door at The Middle East...Mike Quaglia x-Neighborhoods now in Doghouse joined The Hoods for "Flavors" and "Think It Over" at a recent gig...Fleshflower with Noise boy Doug Thoms does great theatrical rock. Handcuffs and blindfolds are real neat stage props...Bim Skala Bim in Detroit at The Majestic Theater where Houdini did his last show. See them the 5th at The Paradise...Check out Tacklebox with Skeggy at The Tam on the 28th...5 Guys Named Joe every wed. at The Rat...Fortunate Son at The Silhouette Lounge every Saturday nite with their Grateful Dead stuff...Get well to Johnny Totaro from The Tats...The Nor'easters are four years old and they; still have all the original members!...Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Whitey - When are you going to take me out again? I know we're both busy but I can find the time if you can - Patiently waiting

M.B.'s landlady - You're a psychotic lazy, lame excuse for a mother. Take a look at your kids & their slovenly behavior and tell me who you can blame.

To the mysterious Greeks at Coco's - your greasy slicked-back hair, wafting cologne & deep dark eyes drive me wild with desire. Please come take me. Your blond wallflower.
Jim, the next time I catch you sneaking through the rhododendrum, I'm going to spray your eyes with mace. Get a life you loser.

Girly man, glad you got a haircut.

Carolyn,
living in sin is no problem these days, even for angst ridden control freaks.
Sincerely, The Pen Pal

Philip
congratulations for your master's degree in philandering. Whoops! I mean law and diplomacy.

Hey Rat Arms, Are those cups on your shoulders called Grease-catchers? Wash Your Hair!

Sabrina,
You weren't lying! It is in the shape of a heart.

Seymour K,
I couldn't believe you were drooling over the gory scenes in The Silence of the Lambs. I know you have rather exotic tastes in cuisine but this is a bit much isn't it?

Veidt,
You mean as much to me as the world's smartest termite. Give up on your ultimate weapon.
-Doc M.

Eugene D,
You aren't fooling anyone with your proper English gentleman act. Everyone knows you're a walking pharmacy who has sampled all the merchandise. Check into a clinic before you check out permanently.

Gwendolyn,
I haven't heard from you in ages. What's the deal? Buy me dinner at that fancy restaurant in Praha and all is forgiven. Yes, you have to pay for the airfare too.
-Cthulhu

Flipper,
So you went out and got yourself a real job? How are you going to Disk Double your way out of this one? It may not be as much fun as your old schemes but I suppose 9 to 5 is better than 8 to 10 with no chance of parole.

Little Walt,
Please stay out of my life. I'm having enough trouble dealing with the stress of the new job without having to deal with your madness. Go away or you'll get a gallon of strawberry ice cream in your fancy electronic equipment.
- Michelle S.

To the Current Staff of DV,
Try another stunt like that inside back cover and I will enact a certain constitutional article and have the lot of you terminated. You have been warned. By the way, this goes double if you even think about printing Slave Girls From the Planet Fellatio.
- D.V.E.I.C. the third

Sally J.,
You never call. You never write. You won't even let me see Laurie. Get a sense of humor.
Eddie B.

To the guy at Golds who wears a tank top that could pass for a thong - Cover Up

To the #1 Pizza place in Kenmore - I love walking by a food establishment and breathing in the smells of freshly-baked puke. Maybe you should try cleaning the sidewalk at the entrance.

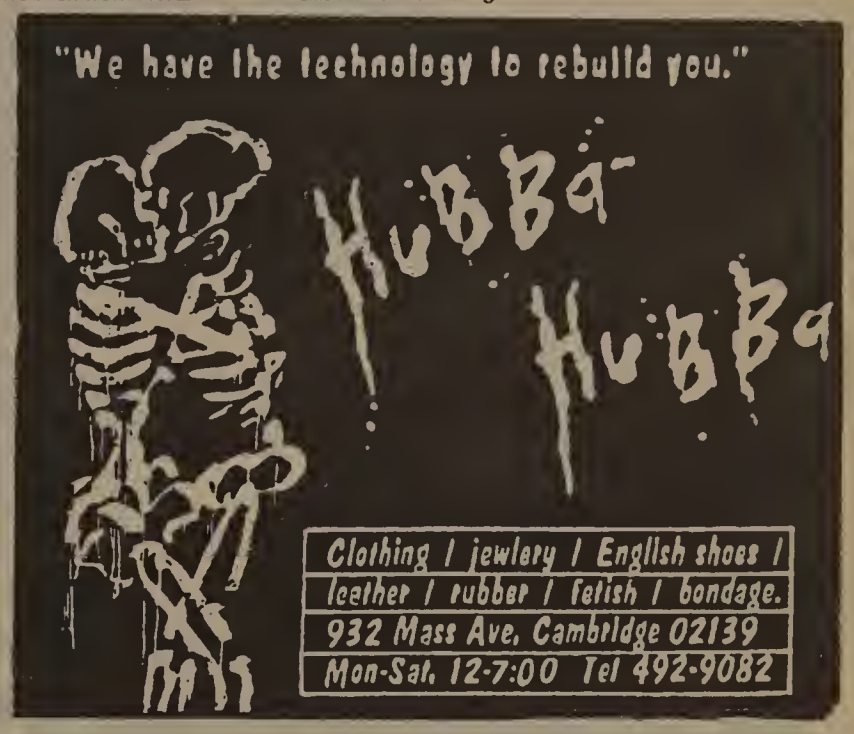
Suzanne, We ordered four pizzas today and actually had a chance to eat some of it. Don't worry - your appetite was here in spirit. - Guess Who.

To my partner in crime at the bank, Do you think they'll catch us if we have the operation at the same time?. Trent
To the Buttholes outside of Amsterdam's, you're bigger dickheads than the ones inside. A Bay Village Res.

Rita, What a set of legs. Too bad you want a man and not a boy, the Sock man.
P.S. Your friend doesn't have to wait outside.

Marge, You are not forgotten, The Flock

Charlie, Joey and JAckie, Stop hogging the bed when Russ sleeps over, Lynne



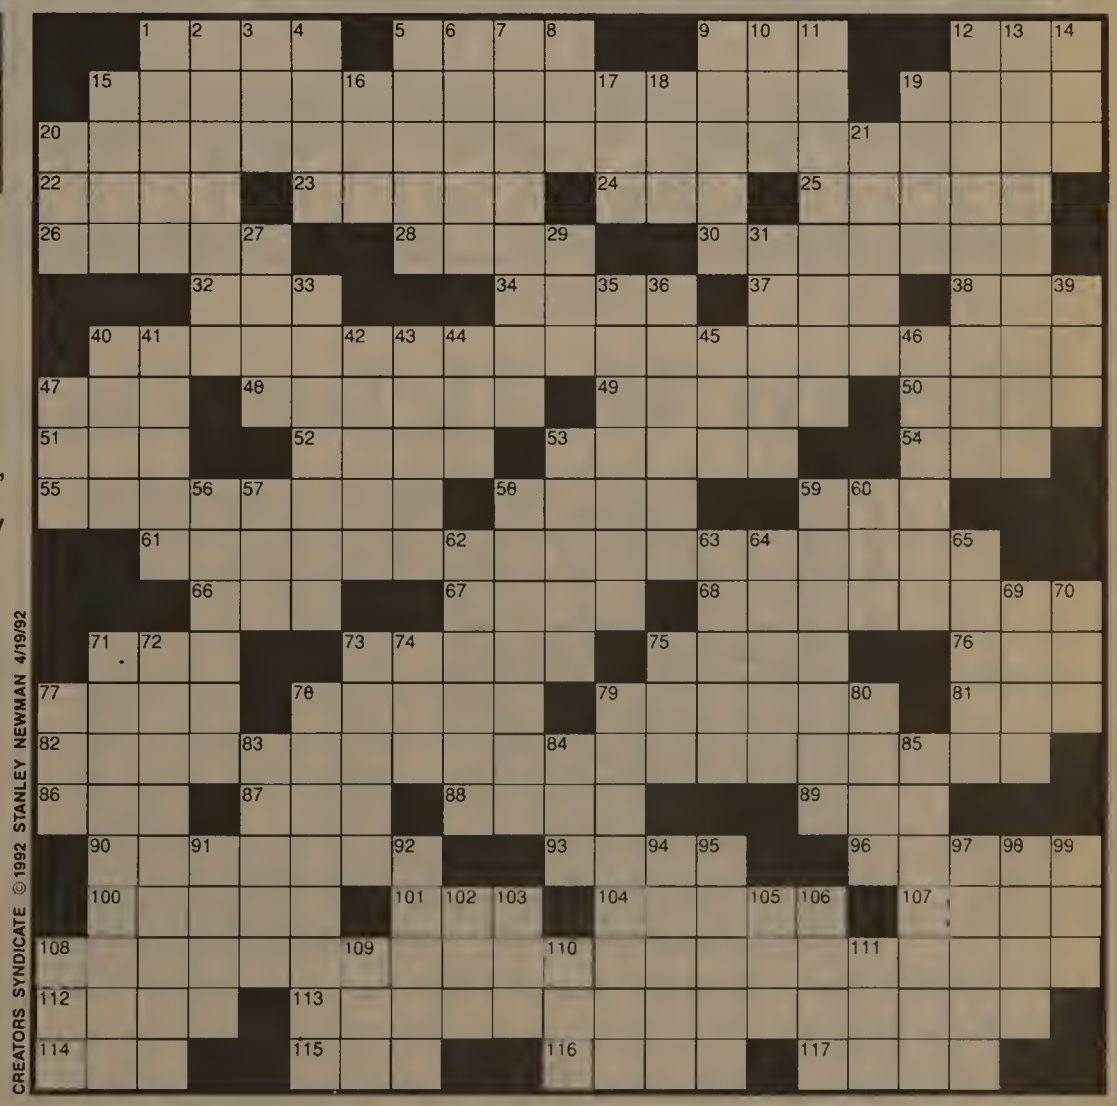
Archie, This just might be your lucky day.
Lynne Z's Roommate

Steve,
Does the radio game make everyone tired and crave a cigarette, or is it just you?
The Men from Hertz

Dave, you complain about leaving every other day but you never will. You will forever play with people's feet. Get a grip on your lips, you're going nowhere.

Linda and Keith, You like reading the impersonals, but I bet you never thought you'd be part of one! I know there's some mud you'd like to sling, so stop whimping out and start writing!

BRUINS FANS, Look on the bright side. . . sell all those brooms you recently bought to the Penguins fans and make a few bucks. Use the money to invest in Heimlech Maneuver courses so when Andy and the boys choke every year, they won't die and miss golf season.
- A not so upset anymore Habs fan.



THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

ONE FOR THE AGES: Various rites of passage

by Randolph Ross

CREATORS SYNDICATE ©1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 4/19/92

ACROSS

1 Egg on
5 Taj Mahal city
9 "__ the season . . ."
12 Dir. opp. NNW
15 At 35
19 Was a competitor
20 At 21
22 German border river
23 Make off with
24 Ins. agent's title
25 Sean and William
26 Build a wing
28 Impress, in a way
30 Affirm
32 Card game
34 The Tender __ (Sinatra film)
37 Mono- kin
38 Oklahoma Indian
40 At 13
47 Cornfield cry
48 Did a deli job
49 "George Washington __ here"
50 Space starter
51 Mr. Baba
52 Graven Image
53 Sales tips
54 The Ghost and __ Muir
55 Winery worker
58 Predilection
59 "Minnie the Moocher" name
61 At 17
66 According to
67 Poetic nights
68 Rifles through
71 The __ (Urls book)
73 Attacks
75 Painter Chagall
76 Once around
77 "Love __" (Beatles tune)
78 Handled roughly
79 Stranded, in baseball
81 One-time link
82 At 21
86 "Star Wars" initials
87 Otolaryngologist's field: Abbr.
88 "__ also serve . . ."
89 Campbell's lid
90 Come out on top
93 High point
96 State of India
100 Rock star Eddie Van __
101 Nest-egg initials
104 Tropical vine
107 Gumbo ingredient
108 At 62
112 Carpenters and harvesters
113 At 18
114 Van Owen on L.A. Law
115 Sault __ Marie, MI
116 Iowa State's locale
117 Volstead Act supporters

DOWN

1 Secured with a cable
2 Enjoying good luck
3 Samuel Gompers' org.
4 Severinsen and Savage
5 Plant pest
6 Reach in the dark
7 Eased up
8 "__ live and breathe!"
9 Prepare to drive
10 Mdse. bill
11 Get a move on 12 Transfers legally
13 Gets clobbered
14 Mag execs.
15 Newsman Hughes
16 Ticket word
17 Freight-rate agcy.
18 Times two: Abbr.
19 Radiator part
20 Feathery stole
21 Update equipment
27 Thumbs-down votes
29 La-la leader
31 Beef cuts
33 One with a mortgage, e.g.
35 Keeps (oneself) away
36 Sense of taste
39 Taunting exclamation
40 Colombian city
41 Hagman TV role
42 "__ cockhorse . . ."
43 Squirrel food
44 __ Aviv
45 Sportswriter Smith
46 Zimbabwe neighbor
47 Cleveland NBAer, for short
53 Tilted
56 Mr. Clean competitor
57 Filled up on
58 Scope
59 Dream up
60 Some urban rts.
62 Change the place cards
63 Pro-sports annual ritual
64 Cuban patriot
65 Showy display
69 Inger's role on The Farmer's Daughter
70 Reducing center
71 Audio accessory
72 Sea brass
73 Duvalier's domain
74 Grain beard
75 Chess pieces
77 Booker T. and the __ (R&B group)
78 Acts of contrition
79 Declare oneself entitled (to)
80 NIT rival
83 Structure built on Swiss banks
84 Actress Thompson
85 Brenda Lee #1 tune of '60
91 Plumbing joints
92 Thread material
94 Eeyore's creator
95 Bridge positions
97 Reads quickly
98 Pretentious
99 Mom's month
102 Bourbon ruler
103 Apt. extras
105 Bk. after Ezra
106 Hit an unreturned serve
108 Scoundrel
109 Cable channel
110 Call __ day
111 Nation formed in '58: Abbr.

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about," what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Featuring an enormous dance floor, a placid lounge, and intimate booths.. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies but is fairly steep. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel . The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested.
Wed 27th.--No Bozos Jam-25 Hard Rockin Heavy Metal Bands Thur 28th.--Billy Goat, Slaughter Shack Tue 2nd.--Curve Thur 4th.--Water Lilles

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

Jazz

The Commonwealth Grille

EVERY SUNDAY & MONDAY

111 DARTMOUTH ST. 353-0160

Boston's Best Late Night Jazz

featuring

Brian Walkley Band

2 Shows

9 & 11 PM

SEATING SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

SECURED PARKING AVAILABLE

WATCH FOR COMING ATTRACTIONS

Bob Gay - Saxes. Scott Gilman - Vocals, Saxes.
Kevin Barry - Guitar, Ricardo Monzon -Percussion
Barron Browne - Bass. Bob Talalla - Drums
Brian Walkley - Piano

Full Menu till 1AM

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St.,A great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover.
Wed 27th.--Mark Adamy Thur 28th.--The Brian Walkley Band with Bob Gay Fri 29th.--The Brian Walkley Band featuring Bob Gay on Sax performing every Thurs. thru Sat. Sat 30th.--Tierney Sutton

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress.

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

•BOSTON BILLIARDS 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE Howard Johnson's 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress.* Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm.
Sat 30th.--Lois Lane and the Daily Planets Sat 6th.--Letters to Cleo

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes.

•CHAMPION'S Marriott Copley Place 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.
Thur 28th.--The Asa Brebner Showcase Fri 29th.--Wendy Sobel & Sally Sweitzer Sat 30th.--Dave Herlihey(Of O-Positive) Sun 31st.--Randy Black

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.
Wed 27th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover.

BARS & CLUBS

The Coolidge Corner Clubhouse is a Great Escape

by Mark Sullivan

For most of us, the word clubhouse immediately conjures up the idea of a group of boys sitting around arguing over who's the best hitter in the league, who is the toughest player in the NHL, or what team will win the Superbowl. It's a sacred place where the only important decisions made concern whether or not two Roger Merets and one Joe Rudi are worth one Carl Yaztremski. Alas, those simple times soon become just a memory. The exchanging of baseball cards is quickly replaced with the exchanging of phone numbers. Arguments about best hitters and pitchers take a back seat to arguments over who's the best kisser in the class. Innocence lost? Well, take heart; the clubhouse is back.

The Coolidge Corner Clubhouse, located at 307 Harvard Street in Brookline, has created a club environment for adults. Upon first entering, you immediately get the feeling of being in a refuge from the adult world (the reason a clubhouse is built in the first place). It's a refreshing change of pace where obsessions about the stock market standings are replaced with obsessions of divisional standings. Before you get the idea that this is just another high tech arcade, Swedish-bikini team-in-your-face, cheesy, corporate-run amusement park, let me assure you that it isn't. This clubhouse is a place to take in a game (there are plenty of TV's), have a few beers and not worry about a live tractor-pull contest in the corner of the room. In fact, the only distractions you'll find are the nostalgic pictures and memorabilia of your favorite sports' heroes. This is not a refuge for overly pumped-up beer commercial types quarreling over whose beer is darker.

Aynsley Floyd

Enjoy food, drink and the big game at the Cooldige Corner Clubhouse

As with any clubhouse, this establishment is a perfect retreat to visit after your team - be it softball, basketball, rugby or whatever - has worked up a big thirst and a healthy appetite. This clubhouse has a program of appetizers, sandwiches and entrees that make man's bologna sandwiches seem like career minor leaguers. These sandwiches are an all-star line-up (both in name and compilation) that easily outperform the average rosters found at your typical sports bar. The variety of menu selections (I recommend the Sandy Koufax) is rivaled only by the number of beers. From domestics to imports, the clubhouse beer selection (combined with a knowledgeable bar staff), insures that you'll find the perfect drink to quench your thirsts. Hey, if they don't have just what you're looking for, then try something new. Ask the bartender for one of the drink specials if you're not in the mood for making a decision; you can't go wrong.

So get the gang together, head on over to the Coolidge Corner Clubhouse and watch your favorite team in action. You'll be glad you did. ❑

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

Wed 27th.--Lovejob Inc.,Mr. Don't Thur 28th.--PartyShark, Bad Rationale,Crooked Show Fri 29th.--Heavy Metal Horns,Tornado Room Sat 30th.--Common Elements of Maturity,Creeping Anatomy, Carnal Garage Sun 31st.-- Every Sunday Amy's Demo Tape and Jam Nite Wed 3rd.--Stanger Things,Thin Ice,New Family Dog Thur 4th.--Effina,Face of Eve,Jane Elizabeth Fri 5th.--Demon Records presents Gerlad McHugh and Falling August Sat 6th.--Storm Warning, The Gift, Oh Boy

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds*. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!

Fri 29th.--Diversity Sat 30th.--Mighty Charge Fri 5th.--Search Party Sat 6th.--Kirkland Bodie

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must.

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon.

Wed 27th.--Calypso Hurricane playing every Wed. night Thur 28th.--Hamish and Dave playing popular acoustic Folk Rock and audience requests featured every Mon. and Thurs. Fri 29th.--The Hot Shots Rhythm and Blues performing every Fri. and Sun. Sat 30th.--North Shore Acappella featured every Tues. and Sat.

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress..

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00
Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30, Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

BARS & CLUBS

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur.* and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual..

Thur 28th.--Alternative Rock with The Sense Fri 29th.--Sonny Rhodes and the Texas Twisters with Nine Below Zero Sat 30th.--Big Blues Meanies with 100 Proof Mon 1st.--Fri 5th.--The Band That Time Forgot

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required.

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Cambridge Brewing Company

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Allston Ale House

85 Harvard Street Allston, MA 617/787-9797

Open for Lunch Daily

Special Weekly Events

Wednesday - Open Mike Night
Hosted by Alizon Lisance 8PM. - 12 PM.

Thursday- Jam Session
Hosted by Wilba Goodman & Napaj 9PM. - 1AM

Friday - KaraokeNight
Hosted by Jack McCoy

Saturday - Live Bands 9:30PM - 1:30AM
May 30 - Jammin' Jeff & the Rhythym Rockets

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox indoors .

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress.

Wed 27th.--Karaoke every Wed. Sun 31st.--Every Sun. Is DJ Chris Mon 1st.--Irish Session happens every Mon.

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder*) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy)..

Thur 28th.--Heavy Metal Horns Fri 29th.--Shadow Sat 30th.--Stovall Brown Band Sun 31st.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pm Mon 1st.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Thur 4th.--Shirley Lewis Experience Fri 5th.--Mighty Charles Sat 6th.--Bobby Watson Sun 7th.--Blues Band

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for men.

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required.

Wed 27th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 28th.--Delta Blues Museum Benefit with James Montgomery,Bobby Watson Band,Partime Lovers, and Bones of Contention Fri 29th.--Fat City Sat 30th.--Shirley Lewis Sun 31st.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 1st.--The Persuaders Tue 2nd.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!) Wed 3rd.--Slipknot Fri 5th.--Heavy Metal Vaughns Sat 6th.--James Montgomery Sun 7th.--100 Proof

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

Jill Connelly

Check out the dueling piano players at Boston's newest rage - The Rebel Yell.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code.

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm.

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St., Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 27th.--All Star Jazz Band with Mick Goodrick, Gary Chaffee and Wolfgang Muthspiel Thur 28th.--Chuck and Markoh Fri 29th.--Barrence Whitfield and the Savages Sat 30th.--Commander Cody and his Lost Planetairmen Sun 31st.--Blues Jam and later African Ouse with Ibrahima Tue 2nd.--Tony Cuffe Wed 3rd.--Really Electric String Quartet Thur 4th.--One Thin Dime and Rick Berlin Fri 5th.--Cajun Party with the Boogaloo Swamis Sat 6th.--Mozamba with Bob Hoses Sun 7th.--Blues Jam and later Glorified Chicken and Thumper Tue 9th.--Fred Smal and Doug Clegg

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code.

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 27th.--Five-O Thur 28th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Sun 31st.--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 1st.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 2nd.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues.

•LAST HURRAH Omni Parker House 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Michael Curley, for additional information on this former Boston Mayor's controversial past, call Don Aucoin at the Boston Globe 929-3000, ext. 3060, while you're at it, inquire about the award he received for outstanding journalism. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Co. performs Wed-

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE Lenox Hotel 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Mattress students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 27th.-Industrial Rage Sat 30th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Wed 27th.--Sports Night Thur 28th.--T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 29th.-- Khris Wales Sat 30th.Class of '92 Night Mon 1st.--The Candles Tue 2nd.--Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance hall with a trendy NY attitude, and a location just outside the heart of the Combat Zone. The crowd centers around young professionals. Proper dress with a jacket for men..

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 27th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Thur 28th.--

BARS & CLUBS

The Unsane Fri 29th.--HI Hats with Mr. Cranky Sat 30th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Sun 31st.--Kim's Graduation Party Mon 1st.--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 3rd.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 6th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Mon 8th.--Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from f1 to 5 followed by a seisiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint)..

Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX Tremont House Hotel 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat..

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Thur 28th.-- From Australia-Yothu Yindi Fri 29th.--Fatala Sun 31st.--Geg Greenway Tue 2nd.--The Story Sat 6th.--Ronnie Earl

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.

Fri 29th.--CD Release Party for the Boston band Five-O! Congrats!! For intor where they are playing call their new acces line at 576-XS50

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there." One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

•PERRY'S 367-1297, f99 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served f1:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam"? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 29th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA Copley Plaza Hotel 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until f2:30am. Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, f Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu.

Thur 28th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 2nd.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat," this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

•REBEL YELL 1 Lansdowne St., Boston 247-f222 This latest addition to Lansdowne Street comes in the form of a turbocharged piano bar. If you've ever spent a Mardi Gras in New Orleans living on Hurricanes at Pat O'Brien's, you'll understand the motivation behind Rebel Yell. Inside you'll find throngs of participants singing to the high energy music of two head to head baby grands playing an energetic combination of rock and roll, r & b, country, TV themes and novelty tunes. Open Tue-Sat 6-2, no dress code, no cover before 8 pm. M/V/AE

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGATTABAR Charles Hotel 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

Wed 27th.--Betty Carter and her Trio perform through the 31st Sun 31st.--The New Black Eagle Jazz Band

•RITZ BAR Ritz-Carlton Hotel 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the f4-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.

•SCULLERS LOUNGE Guest Quarters Hotel 783-08ff, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress.

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near fanuell Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts..

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Wed 27th.--Catbox Theatre ,Bands Foodand Sam Hill Thur 28th.--The Keep with Tornado Rom, The Feldmans and Resolve Fri 29th.--The Mekons with Band of Susans and Lo Max Sat 30th.--Scatterfield wht the Vindicators, Pop Sjkull and So What

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress.

Wed 27th.--Laurie Geltman and Darlen Brahms Thur 28th.--Tackle Box and Great Atomic Power Fri 29th.--T.H. and the Wreckage Sat 30th.--Chuck Morris and Sidewalk Blues Sun 31st.--Tha Act Band with Sally Sweitzer Mon 1st.--This and every Mon. is the Jazz Jam Tue 2nd.--Hybrid Minds, Urbana, and Jazz Trio Wed 3rd.--Big Fish Ensemble, Miniacle Choir Thur 4th.--Chuck and Mr. Cranky Sat 6th.--Wildest Dreams

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•TIA'S Marriott Long Wharf 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 2f+ unless otherwise noted.

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

Mon f st.--Blues Night Mon 8th.--Blues Night

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress..

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..

Wed 27th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, f Boyiston Pl., Bos.. This large two story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. The cover is heavy but varies. Jacket and tie required.

Wednesday's

T's Pub

THE PLACE TO MEET

presents

KARAOKE NIGHT

with

DAN McARTHY

D.J. Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays

Plus a 12 ft. TV for sporting and special events!

For fine tips, sandwiches and
The Best Buffalo Wings in Boston!

Mon-Sat. 11a.m.-2a.m. Sunday Noon - 2a.m.

973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 254-0807

WEDNESDAYS

Reggae Night

Live Bands

Iration May 27th

Jah Spirit June 3rd

Jammin' Tunes

Cool Cats

Cold Beer

$3 Cover

THURSDAYS

Dance

DJ Mike Lynch

Spinner

Extraordinaire

Playing Your

Favorites

$1 Cover

ALLEY CAT LOUNGE

"Where Cool Cats Meet
To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Bring in this portion of our ad with as many friends as you can round up !

ALL OF YOU

GET IN FREE ON THURSDAY

OR FOR $2 EACH ON WEDNESDAY

Expires May 31, 1992

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

Edited by
Suzanne MacRae

COMEDY

Catch A Rising Star
30 JFK St., Cambridge Harvard Sq.
661-0167
Open seven days a week. All shows are all ages Show: Sunday through Thurs: 8:30 pm, Friday at 8:30 and 10:30, Saturday at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30.
On Saturday May 30 and every Saturday from 1:30 to 5:30 is the World Wide Music Jam. Admission is only $2.
On Sunday May 31 at 10:30 is Don White's Music Open Mike. Free Admission. Monday, June 1 at 10:30 features "Five Minute Funnies." Free admission.

Stitches
835 Beacon St. Boston 424-6995
For the low price of $6 see some of the funniest people on a stage. On June 3 at 9 pm, is Anthony Clark and on June 4 at 9 pm is Billy Martin.

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

The Surrey Room
381 Summer St., Davis Sq. Somerville
Every Sunday night from 8 to 11:45 pm the Cellar Dwellers Blues Band and Circus from Hell play at Surrey Room. Admission is free.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):
Free with Museum admission are Gallery Talks. On Thurs, May 28 at 11am is European and American Impressionism: Crosscurrents
All talks meet at the Info Center in the West Wing and all are wheelchair accessible.

The Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston 236-8754
Open Monday through Saturday 10-7pm and Sunday 12-6pm. Exhibiting until May 31 is Futures from the Past, an exhibit featuring old advertising which attempted to predict the future.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, 536-5400
Continuing with the Frank Capra Film Series the BPL is screening Platinum Blonde (1931) on Monday, June 1 at 3:30 and 6:30 pm. The film is shown in the Rabb Lecture Hall and admission is free and open to the public.

TT The Bear's Place
10 Brookline St., Central Sq. Cambridge
On Sunday May 31 at 7:30 PM at TT's Svengli Cafe presents its First Super 8 Film Festival featuring eight films by both established and emerging local filmmaker. Admission price is only $3 for all films For info, call 232-0679.

LECTURES

Trident Bookseller
338 Newbury St. Boston
On Thursday May 28 from 7:30 to 8:30 pm, Barbara Walker will read from her new novel Amazon . Walker's non-fiction works focus on women's spirituality. For info, call 267-8668.

USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Charlestown MA
On May 28 at 7pm, the Museum presents a panel discussion entitled "Staying Afloat: USS Constitution, Preservation and the 21st Century." The lecture is free and light refreshments will be served.

TOURS

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain 522-908
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at 12 and 2pm, the Brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

ZOOS

Arnold Arboretum
Jamaica Plain
524-1717
Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum is a living museum, featuring more than 14,000 trees, vines and shrubs. Self-guided tour maps are available at the visitors' center; call to see which flowers are currently in bloom. Public transportation from the Orange Line (Forest Hills stop) or Copley Square (Bus #39). May 17 is Lilac Sunday.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Free Admission: Thur. 3 to 7:30pm.
Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonain, c/o Suzanne MacRae, 17 Station St.,Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146.

We're Looking For a Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty of responsibility and a fun working environment.

Account Executives

If you have achieved success in print or radio advertising sales and would like an opportunity to earn higher levels of income while working in the charged environment of a start-up, here's your chance. The Improper Bostonian is looking for a few experienced and proven account executives for its rapidly expanding sales staff. Must possess outstanding interpersonal skills and strong work habits.
Entry level account executive positions also available.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager. Must have a fantastic sense of humor, several years of print advertising experience and a proven track record, preferably in the Boston market.
Send all resumes directly to the Publisher or call 232-3507 for more details.

Distribution Staff

Looking for steady work a few days a week. Make $5 to $10 per hour delivering The Improper Bostonian in your spare time. Must have valid driver's license. Automobile preferred.

Classified Account Executives

Break into advertising sales through our soon to be expanded Classified Advertising department. Must have pleasant phone voice and experience dealing with people. Computer knowledge a plus.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

Molly's

161 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 783-2900

Every Wednesday Night
MOLLY'S BUD PROMOTION
FREE Gifts and Tees!

Thursday Night Live
ROCK AT MOLLY'S

Friday Evenings are Molson Aprés Ski
FREE Ski Passes, Vacation Weekends, and Ski Giveaways!

Get Funked Saturday Nights
FEATURING ALTERNATIVE FUNK WITH LIVE D.J.
Come down and get down.

Spend Sunday Night
AT MOLLY'S RIO CARNIVAL NIGHT!
See the Best Dancers in the City Strut.

MOLLY'S is available for private parties.
Be your own entrepreneur. Food is available.

PUZZLED?

For answers to today's, yesterday's or last Sunday's

NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Call
1-900-646-8282

95c per minute

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word., There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Run Dates: From: _____ To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Alterations/Design

THE ALTER EGO: Clothing alterations/home item repair/pillows made-ALL TYPES. Great Rates! By appointment only 332-0160. Newbury St. location

Apartments

FT. MEYER FLA Waterfront furnished condo, 2 bdrm., 2bth., balcony., priv prkg.. Call Tom/Sue 617-782-7700, 617-783-3064

MEDFORD. For rent. Luxury Condo w/ eat in kitch. 2bdrm 2 full bath, balcony, washer & dryer. Fully appliianced. Indoor pool, racquetball courts, weight room, parking, 24hr security. Close to shopping & trans. Call Lillian at 391-0282 or work 862-7528

ROSLINDALE NEW CONDO 2 B.R. 1-1/2 Bath parking, sun deck w/w carpeting, penthouse B.R. Call Tom or Sue 782-7700

ROOM FOR RENT. Sunny W.Sommerville home in quiet neighborhood.Share kitchen & bathroom. 13 steps to the T and bus terminal. $75/wk. 617-625-9479

WATERTOWN. Very nice two Bdrm. In a two family house. Clean attic & basement for storage. Front & back porches, yard,parking. Avail immed. Call Bob 237-1992

2BDRM APARTMENT 4.5 blocks from Lynn beach near Swampscott line. $550 negoc. Leave message 596-0222

SOUTH BOSTON. 2bdrm,2bath, 2fl, 2decks. Mod Kitchen, W/D $825. Call 738-4498

Carpet Repair

Carpet Repairs. Installation, restreatch, quality work, reasonable rates. 695-8801

Cellular Phones

CELLULAR PHONES FREE. Also agents needed. Ground floor opportunity. Call now 499-7933 24 hrs.

Cleaning

NEDY & CARLOS. Honest family cleaners. Houses, apartments, and offices. Excellent prices. Call 617-524-4398

SAVE CLEAN. If you need experienced house cleaning, responsible, reasonable rates, call Lea, 617-566-1724

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm dally. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

AT THE ACORN SHOP consignment shop, 8 Muzzey St., Lexington, you'll find labels like Ralph Lauren, Calvin Klein and Liz Claiborne at a fraction of their retail price. All Jeans only $9.95. We're now accepting your top quality spring fashions by appointment. Open Tue-Sat. 861-9646

Counseling

TRANSPERSONAL THERAPY engages your deepest resources. Harry C. Stafford, Phd, certified transpersonal therapist,(617)536-6518 Back Bay.

EXPEDITE YOUR RECOVERY Incorporating a unique blend of therapy and healing, in an atmosphere of loving humor and acceptance; a nationally known therapist and healer will expedite your emotional and physical recovery from abuse, fears, and traumas. Yulia, 617-731-9529

Credit Svcs

GET A VISA AND CORRECT BAD CREDIT. Solve debt problems. Late payments , charge-offs, repo, collection accounts, judgements, liens, bankruptcy,. Six years experience. Acclaim from TV, radio, newspaper and Magazines.featured by channel 4, Boston, UPI, Boston Herald. Call now for free details 617-536-0639

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24hrs)

Entertainment

"BOSTONS BEST." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)354-5000 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

Gambling

PLAYERS! LEARN TO GAMBLE wisely, develop winning habits! Info-packed books on all games: lotteries, horses, dogs, bingo, all casino games, and more! Free details ADVANTAGE BOOKS. 1085 Comm ave. Dept 171P Boston Ma 02215

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209.

Help Wanted

EARN UP TO $339.84/WEEK assembling our products at your home. Amazing recorded message reveals details. Call today 617-446-7682 (ext A02)

IF YOU KNOW YOU'RE GREAT... We have a position with our 100 year old company in the international division that has real potential. You must be comfortable on the phone. Call Bekins Movers at 243-7236 and ask for Steve. Position avail.

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliverles around the Boston area? For more info call 267-1325. Ask for Paul

House For Sale

NO MONEY DOWN. Take advantage of low market prices! Two family home within walking distance of Lynn beach. Leave msg. 596-0222

Instruction

LSAT/Anyone can get a top LSAT score if they prepare correctly. An attorney who scored in the 99th percentile will show you how. Highly successful program using one-on-one coaching. For details contact George Alex 617-266-9720

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

Miscellaneous

FREE MONEY for college. We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 ext 53023 (24hrs)

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles.Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483 .

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

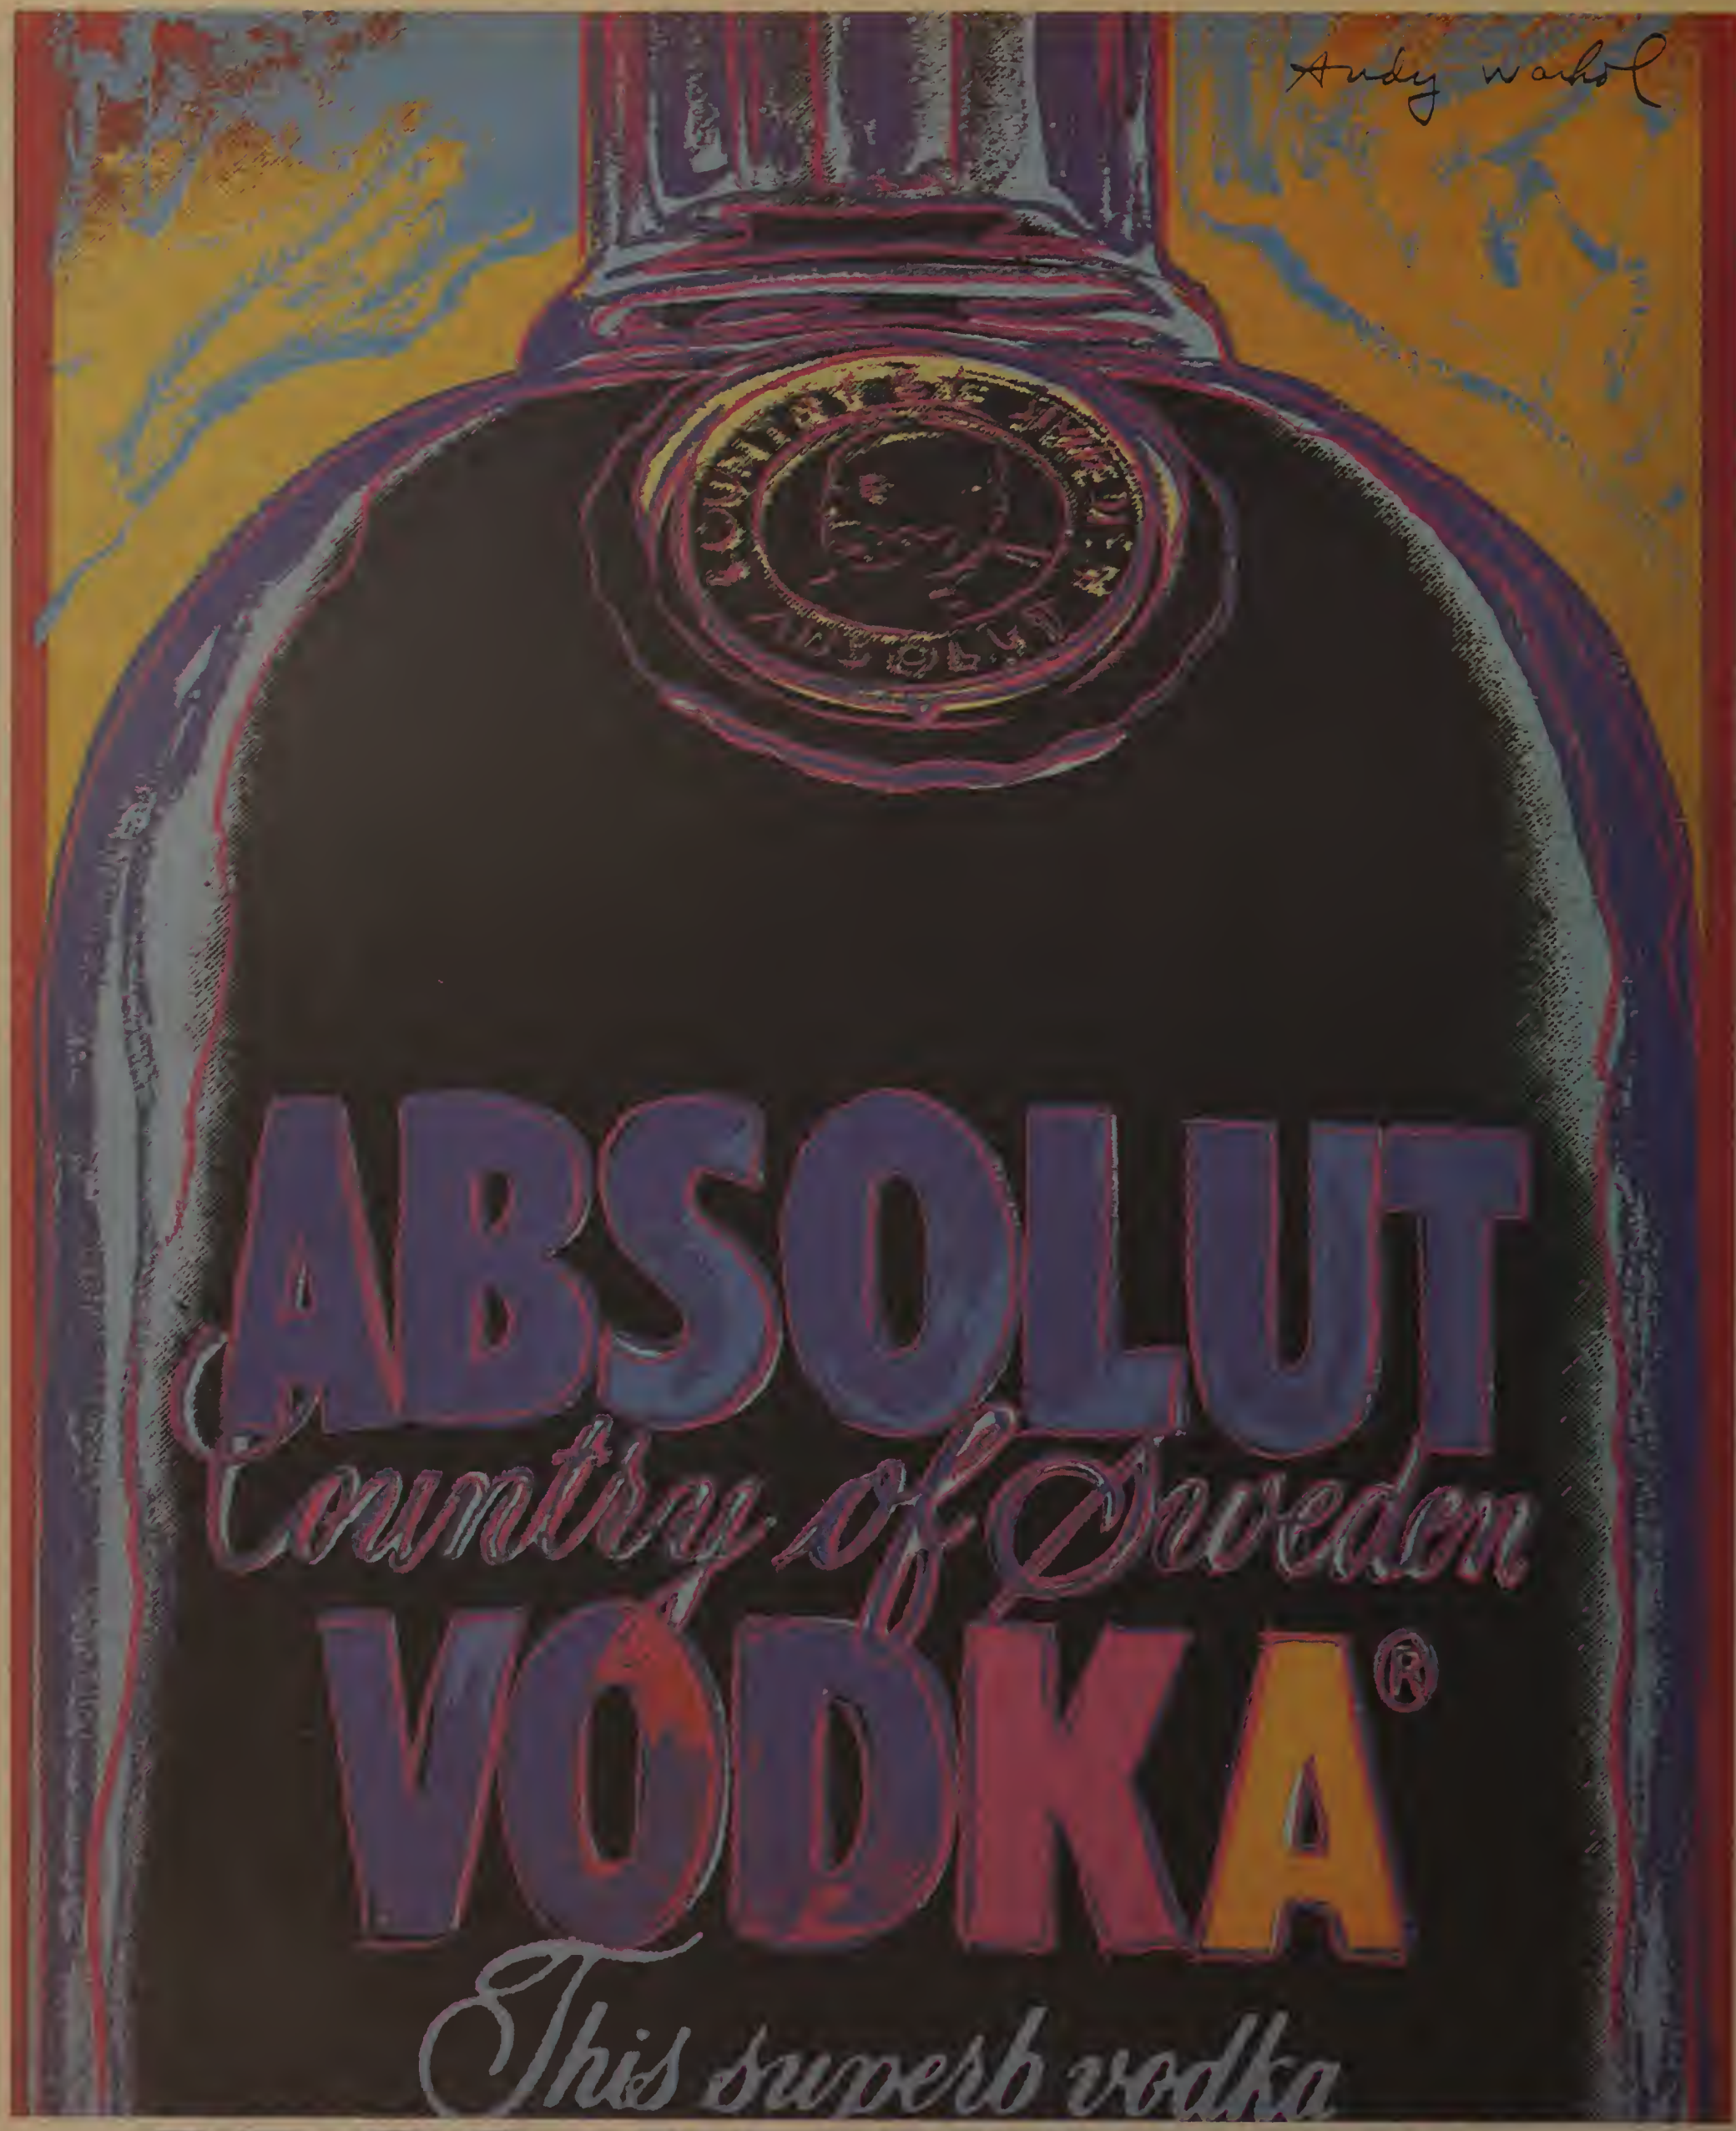
INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

FREE MONEY for college.We'll show you the scholarship/grant secrets. 1-800-222-5742 Ext 53023 (24hrs)

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificate available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

Silk Road Consignerie



Quality pre-owned designer and better clothing.
1368b Beacon Street
Brookline, Ma 02146
(617) 739-3399

Mon-Sat 11-6
Do come browse!
We buy and consign by appointment

With the best classified prices in town, you can't afford not to give us a try!

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

ABSOLUT WARHOL.

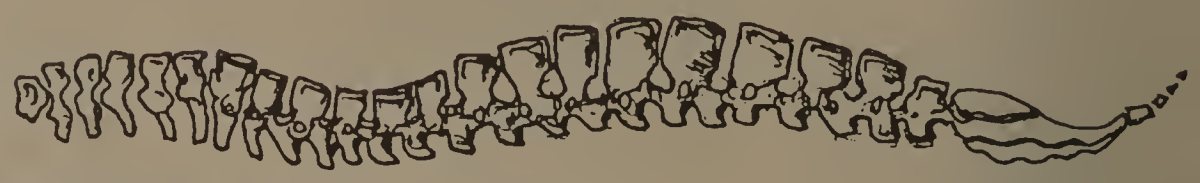
FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

June 10, 1982

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

Local Island Hopping, A Weekend on the Vineyard



Interview: Former Rolling Stone, Mick Taylor

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

The Back Of The Basics

Admit it: you thought Chiropractic (that word with all its crackly snapping sounds, onomatopoeically reminiscent of the adjustments a visit to this person entails) was a treatment for your back. This is only partly so. The philosophy of this form of treatment sees the spine as the switchboard of the body. Problems all over the body, and indeed actual diseases are treated via the spine in a radically different paradigm of health and illness than the one espoused by ordinary Western medicine. In this video, an energetic true-believer explains how, in chiropractic, the theory is that the body is ruled by "innate intelligence," partly represented by the actual brain. When a "subluxation" or partial dislocation of a vertebra occurs, the "nerve channel" leading to tissues and organs becomes closed, while the messages from above become "congested" resulting in tissue damage. By correcting that pinched condition of the vertebrae, the practitioner is simply facilitating the natural flow through the now properly spacious and liberated bones of the back - rather than treating the resultant damage as other doctors do. In this model that sets the stage for health, the sufferer is theoretically returned to the condition that permits the body to heal itself. Our more common medical methods, and especially drugs, come in for enormous scorn on this video; many treatments and surgeries are described as "the big fake." Numerous success stories of ameliorating through chiropractic methods what we think of as "illnesses," are reported. Newbury Family Chiropractic is a source for buying, renting, or viewing this video.

Discovering The Truth About Chiropractic
(A Video)
Newbury Family Chiropractic
Dr. Neal Robert Smookler
132 Newbury Street, Boston
536-5362

Gourmet Nosh

When you get Food 'O' Rama to cater your event (a sober or madcap theme party, perhaps) you also get the slangy, Bette Middleresque generosity of owner Karen Silver slinging her imaginative hash. Interesting juxtapositions (pears and ginger fried in a wonton) or her infamous "Cheese Thang" (made of four large cheeses with caramelized fruit and herbs) are some of her arts; and what Silver calls "bold robust flavors" another. These theme caterings of hers have ranged from Foods of Our Childhood (Mom's Pot Roast etc.) to an Art Deco '30s party (there are always props and evocative doodads) to an elaborate Wizard of Oz event, to a Caribbean Night, and one called Lifestyles Of The Poor And Unknown. Wacky variations on a theme include a Hawaiian Luau Bas Mitzvah with a rubber pig representing the forbidden ingredient. Corporate people having fun, or fun people rocking out are amused and lavishly fed by Food 'O' Rama; the word "landscapes" of food accurately describes the cornucopia spill of her tables. And each dish has a way of making your taste buds sit up and take notice.

Food 'O' Rama Catering
623-0725

Ooh La La Oona's!

Sonny Bono lives! This cosy nook of a various-vintages clothing store tucked in a boho corner just out of Harvard Square is filled with nose-ringed shoppers, often prowling in pairs and dressed in black - searching for a decade. The huge, colorful casserole prints of the Seventies (proudly polyester) and the bell bottoms (daisy yellow, elephantine at the bottom) to go with them are seemingly making their happy splash all over again. And lots of slinky silver and gold lame bells (very costumey as many things in this store are) are a reminder that the 70's had an evening flavor too. The Boston store slants in the direction of rock and roll; the Cambridge one is, appropriately ethnic, so you'll find floating acres of loose, light, Indian cotton skirts. And very affordable leather - coats, jackets and pants - are the great bargain here. Another look here is fancy, cocktailish dresses and beaded sweaters from the 50's and 60's which are genuinely pretty to this day. Garish, sexy "Dynasty" dresses are all gold layered and back-bodiced. Suave silk bathrobes, smoking jackets - who knows what theatrical blade sprinkled these into the atmosphere that they might live again, to be worn a bit ironically, but nevertheless with dash style and gorgeous fabrics.

Oona's Experienced Clothing
1210 Mass. Ave Cambridge - 491-2654
1110 Boylston Street, Boston. 536-6388.

Mopsy Strange Kennedy is a freelance writer.
Please send all correspondence to:
The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

PRODUCTION MANAGER
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS,

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

MUSIC WRITERS
A.J. WACHTEL, MICKEY O'HALLORAN
JOE VIGLIONE, JOHN RINALDI

Contributing Writers
MARC MCHUGH
MICKEY O'HALLORAN, RANDEE DAWN
SHAWN WHALEN, REY ROLDAN
DAVID FENIGSOHN, JOHN HABER
JOHN GALLIGAN, JANIS REED
PRITHA RAYSIRCAR, SHAWN GOODWIN

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS
AYNSLEY FLOYD

Advertising Design Consultant
STEVE WALKER

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
UGO MAZZAROLO, DAVENPORT CROCKER
JOHN TED, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

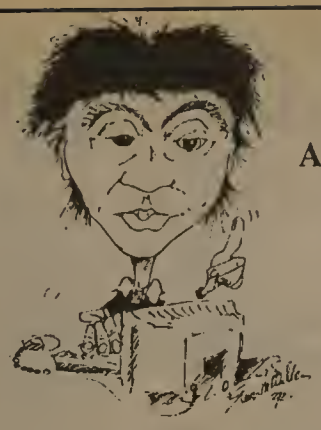
Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE, JENNIFER MCCANN
TREVOR FORD, MARIANNE MURPHY
JENNIFER LEVITSKY, PAUL BRODKIN
DEBORAH PIRRAGLIA, JASON PRING
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer



CALENDAR LISTINGS

Schedule listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach The Improper Bostonian, mail or FAX to the address listed below. Include such essential information as date, time, duration, price, address, phone number, and contact person for conformation. Listings must be received no later than 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 14
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

All Systems Go!
Dave Louie
Production Manager

Corrections for the May 27 issue: The photograph of The Back Bay Theater Company's production of Oleanna was taken by Bridgette Lacombe. Berman's Wine and Spirits number was incorrectly reported, the correct number is 862-0515.

ON THE COVER

Interview: Former Rolling Stone, Mick Taylor

Photographer:
Sandra Kimball

Models:
Nicole / Models Inc.
Dan Teller / Little Angels

WHITER TEETH

REMBRANDT.
WHITENING SYSTEM
WHITENING IN THE HANDS OF AN ARTIST

The newest method goes beyond smile boosters. And it's safe! Whiter teeth. Safely. Now that's something to smile about!

If you think tooth whiteners are disappointing or risky, think again. The new Rembrandt Whitening® System outshines those glitzy smile boosters and has no scary side-effects.

Our office will customize the Rembrandt Whitening System, monitor your progress and make any necessary adjustments along the way.

New Patient Special!

$149* for the complete Rembrandt System

$42 Cleaning, X-ray, Exam and Flouride Treatment

Charles M. Badaoui, D.M.D., R.Ph.
Copley Dental Associates
At Copley Square across from Trinity Church

581 Boylston Street, Suite 302
Boston, MA 02116
536-4020

General Dentistry • Cosmetic Bonding
Root Canals • Orthodontics • Crowns
Pediatric Dentistry

* Per Jaw

CONTENTS

June 10, 1992

Features

8 Local Island Hopping: A Weekend on the Vineyard

Looking to escape the hustle and bustle of the city for a few days? Why not steam across Vineyard Sound for a weekend on Martha's Vineyard. Discover how to get there, where to explore and what makes this island one of the more popular tourist sites in New England.

by Rachel Power

Annie Leibovitz Defining Our Cultural Icons 14

In the first museum exhibition of her work, preview the foundation of 120 images which have fashioned the way in which we look at the world. In a preview of her upcoming exhibit, escape back in time with an ensemble of fascinating people who have helped to make Annie Leibovitz a household name. by Pritha Raysircar

by Pritha Raysircar

29 Stoned An Improper Interview with Mick Taylor

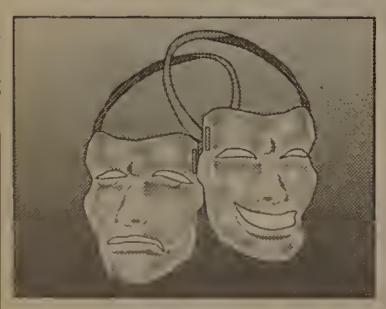
A.J. Wachtel has an exclusive conversation with ex-Rolling Stone Mick Taylor that's sure to burn some ear drums. Eavesdrop on a chat that covers Taylor's current tour and his possible re-banding with the "greatest band on earth": The Rolling Stones.

by A.J. Wachtel

Departments

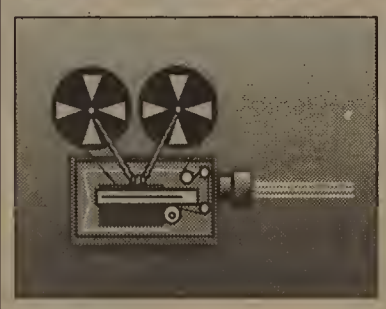
Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: Patriot Games 10
- Review: Sister Act 11
- Videos: First Films 12

Comedy
- Interview: Danny Bonaduce 13
- Comedy Listings 13



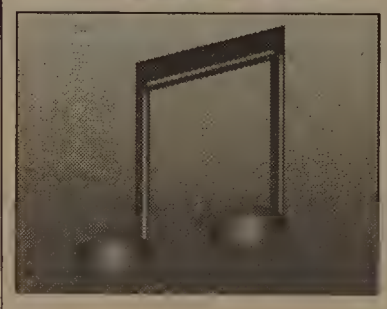
Arts
- Play Review:Hedda Gabler 15
- Arts Calendar 16

Woman on the Street 16
Perspectives... 18
The Leisure Study 20
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: Cecil's 22
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Wine Tastings 23
- Appeteasers 24
- Chef of the Month 25
- Brunch Board 26
- Restaurant Listings 27

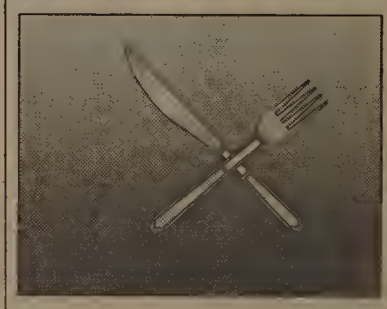


Music
- Nobody Rocks Like the Fighting Cocks 30
- Back to the Future 30
- Album Reviews 30
- Wachtelligence 31

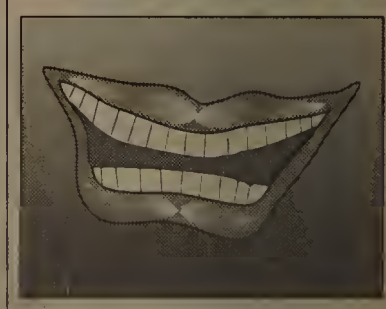
Sports Schedules 37
Improper Impersonals 37
Crossword 37
Bar & Club Listings 33
- Review: Rebel Yell 34



Free Boston 38
Classifieds 39



PAGE 14



PAGE 10

PAGE 29

PAGE 22

PAGE 13

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

No, you're not looking at a dancer with a drinking problem. It's Amy Spencer, choreographer, director and dancer with the Spencer/Colton Dance Works. This talented group of artists combines imaginative choreography and complex movement phases in two shows of new dance material on June 12 and 13 at the Boston Conservatory's Theatre. Spencer/Colton brings together dancers, actors and musicians in a three-part performance of compositions blending drama and dance creations from Chekhov to Bach. Tickets can be bought at Bostix locations or by calling Ticketron at 931-2000. Prices are $15 and $12.50 for general admission.

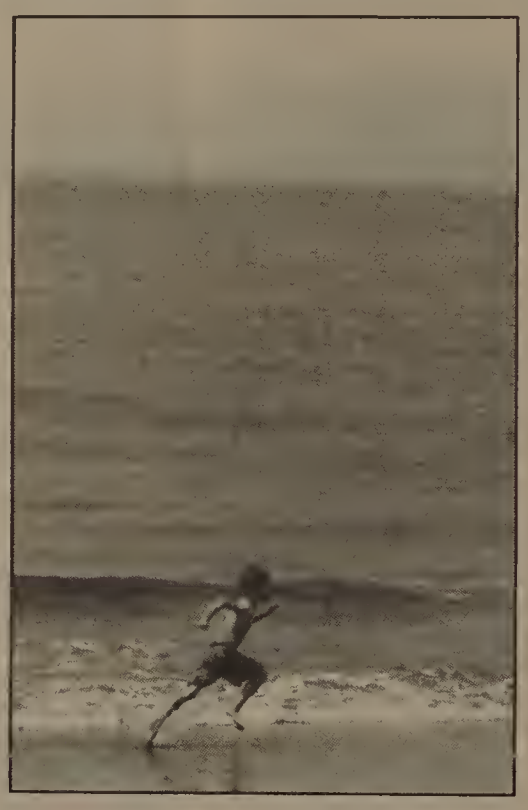
Those romantic summer evenings have arrived. It's time to pack a picnic basket with your favorite treats and relax to the Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra concerts on Saturday or Sunday, June 27 and 28 at the Great Woods Center for the Performing Arts. Conductor Gerard Schwarz leads the orchestra through favorites from Mozart, Bach and Handel, to Haydyn, Beethoven and more. What better time to enjoy a warm summer breeze, your favorite companion and the 200th anniversary of Amadeus Mozart than now? Tickets are $35.00, $25.00, $15.00 - with $5 lawn seats. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 for tickets or Great Woods at 508-339-3333.

What do you call someone with gritted teeth and a glass of fine champagne in the hand? Oh, good lord. Of course, you call him or her a Polo player. It's Polo season. Myopia Polo has begun their 104th season and holds matches every Sunday through mid October. Check out their June 21 Tailgate Picnic Extravaganza which goes to benefit the New England Eye Bank. Prizes will be given to the best picnic, followed by an antique car parade and of course, the polo match. It's only a short ride up north to Hamilton to the Polo Grounds where you can watch all the exciting action take place. Admission to each match is $5.00. Call 508-468-7956 for more information.

The chess players you'll see in Copley Square from June 19-21 won't be concentrating so much on where to move their rooks as how to move their rooks: the giant chess set that's part of the Celebrate Back Bay Food and Music Festival features pieces 2-1/2 feet tall! What's more, the set's pieces are modeled after Boston's historic and noteworthy buildings. But games are just one part of this weekend festival. Back Bay favorites such as the Hard Rock Cafe, Skipjack's and Paparazzi are showcased in the food festival, and musical entertainment will be provided all weekend long by a variety of bands. Check it out, mate.

Who is that masked man? If he had a horse, a cowboy hat, spurs and a Native American sidekick, it would be easy to mistake him for the Lone Ranger . . . not. Turns out it's Kevin Gray, the actor Boston audiences will soon know as The Phantom of the Opera. Andrew Lloyd Webber's latest musical megahit is (finally!) coming to the Wang Center for the Performing Arts for a two-month run from Aug. 9-Oct. 10. Tickets range from $27.50-$60.00 and are going fast; call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 to be sure you'll have a seat for this phantastic show.

Although these cats can't do anything about Boston's rat population, they sure can sing well. Yes, theatre goers should be prepared to sharpen their claws if they expect to get good seats when Cats comes to the Shubert Theatre from June 16-28. Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical is the most successful in history, having captivated audiences all over the world with its beautiful songs, amazing set and talented performers. Tickets are $25-$50; call 1-800-233-3123 for more information. This is one show that will remain in your memory for a long, long time.



Memories of the Beach. . .

Photos by Joel Howe

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

Concept Elvis/Leigh/Jodie Photo Mim Michelove Hair Omar

© 1992 Fire & Ice Productions, Inc

born 2b wild

116 NEWBURY STREET 617-536-0303

FEATURES

Local Island Hopping: A Weekend on the Vineyard

by Rachel Power

Looking to escape the hustle and bustle of the city for a few days, and don't have a lot of spare cash? Why not steam across Vineyard Sound for a weekend on Martha's Vineyard. A 45-minute boat ride deposits you and your bags in Vineyard Haven or Oak Bluffs where island taxis, inexpensive shuttle buses and bike and moped rental shops await the opportunity to whisk you away to one of the six towns of Martha's Vineyard. Many hotels and inns offer reasonable rates, and you can always take a tour of the more glamorous spots without spending a dime.

Vineyard Haven, more of a year-round town than the other spots on the island has plenty to offer the weekend visitor. You may rent a bike, moped or car within 100 yards of the ferry terminal. Average daily rental prices range from $12 for a three-speed bike to $25 for a moped.

Don't miss the Bunch of Grapes Bookstore for browsing on a rainy day or the Black Dog Bakery and Tavern for the best baked goods and most interesting food on the island. The Black Dog, which overlooks the Vineyard Haven harbor, serves breakfast lunch and dinner from 7am to 9pm, with brunch on Sundays from 9am until lpm. Patrons line up outside and wait willingly for hours to get a table. Famous for fresh seafood and huge portions, the Black Dog's ever-changing menu's prices range from $17.95 to $22.95 for such delicacies as blackened mako with mint raita, fresh lobster steamed in white wine and an assortment of specialty pastas. All desserts and breads are baked fresh daily at the Black Dog Bakery, and the 18-year-old recipe for fudge bottom pie is a perennial favorite.

The younger crowd will enjoy visiting the eclectic hamlet of Oak Bluffs. A five-minute walk from the ferry slip or a seven-mile trek from Vineyard Haven will lead you to the center of Oak Bluffs, where boarding houses and inns are nestled between shops and the eccentric, colorful gingerbread cottages of the Martha's Vineyard Camp-Meeting Association, a residential community established in 1835.

When looking for accommodations in Oak Bluffs, try the Oak House. One of the more comfortable inns in town, the Oak House is an ideal setting for a weekend visitor because of its close proximity to beaches, shops and restaurants. This beautifully restored, antique - filled inn, built in 1872, is located on the water on Beach Rd. just five minutes from the Steamship Authority terminal. Prices range from $95 to $140 per room, which includes a home-baked continental breakfast and an afternoon tea on the porch with a view of the ocean.

There are a variety of restaurants to choose from on Circuit Ave., Oak Bluffs' main street. The Oyster Bar is an upscale neighborhood bistro with 14-foot ceilings, fluted columns and floor-length lace curtains. Serving dinner seven days a week, the Oyster Bar is famous for its raw bar, which boasts eight types of oysters, and its amazing assortment of local and exotic fish and prime meats. Prices run from $80 to $120 for dinner for two, which includes wine from an extensive wine cellar. One of their more popular dishes is the lobster pan roast which is a lobster bisque cooked in a pan with heavy cream and chunks of fresh lobster meat.

For a more affordable evening out try Giordano's Restaurant, a popular Italian eatery which serves great pizza, located on the corner of Circuit Ave. and Main St. Here $20 to $25 will buy a complete dinner for two. Another inexpensive Circuit Ave. restaurant, which has live music at night, is the Ritz Cafe. For night life try the Lampost or the Atlantic Connection for drinking and dancing and David's Island House for a more relaxed piano bar atmosphere.

Rachel Power

In Vineyard Haven, bicycle rental prices range from $12 for a three-speed to $25 for a moped

During the day if you want to swim or sunbathe in Oak Bluffs, visit the two calm and sandy beaches which stretch along Beach Rd.

If you continue along Beach Rd., you will reach Edgartown, which was once a prosperous whaling town as well as the island's first settlement. Edgartown's history is evident in the many well-preserved Victorian mansions which ring the busy harbor. Widow's walks, where the wives of whaling captains once climbed to search the horizon for returning ships, top many of these homes. Other features of this charming town are brick sidewalks, freshly painted white picket fences and well-groomed gardens filled with roses and wild flowers.

Edgartown is overflowing with elegant inns and delicious restaurants. The exquisite Charlotte Inn with its antique store and five-star French restaurant serves dinner outdoors under the stars and is world-renowned. You will find more affordable outdoor dining at Among the Flowers. Serving breakfast, lunch and dinner from 8am to 11pm, Among the Flowers will feed a family of four for about $25. The restaurant serves homemade soups, salads and quiches; lemon chicken ($7.95) is one of the most popular dinner items. The Wharf Pub and the Navigator Restaurant also

Rachel Power

Soaking up the morning sun on a ferry to Martha's Vineyard

MARTHA'S VINEYARD TRAVEL TIPS

Steamship Authority Information:
Main number in Woods Hole (508) 548-3788
Number in Vineyard Haven (508) 693-0367
Boats run daily from Woods Hole to Vineyard Haven and Oak Bluffs from 7:15am to 8:30pm (9:45pm on Fri and Sun)

Tickets: Adults round-trip ticket: $9.00
Children round-trip ticket: $4.50
Car only (no passenger) round-trip fare: $68.00
Additional fare for walking on with a bike: $5.50

If you are bringing a car, make sure you call well ahead to make a reservation, or you may not get on.

For information about island events and for attractions and complete listings of all inns and restaurants on island (including prices), call the Chamber of Commerce in Vineyard Haven at (508) 693-0085. Representatives are extremely helpful.

The Oak House: Beach Road, Oak Bluffs (508) 693-4187
Lambert's Cove Country Inn: Lambert's Cove Road, West Tisbury (5 miles outside of Vineyard Haven) 508) 693-229

Rachel Power

A cottage in the Camp Meeting Association, Oak Bluffs, freshly painted for summer serve reasonably priced basic fare and are well-known night spots.

A trip to Chappaquidick, a tiny island off of the coast of Martha's Vineyard, accessible only by private boats and the three-car Chappy 'On Time' ferry, is a pleasant afternoon outing. Chappy's East Beach, which is part of a wildlife reserve, has rough surf and beautiful ocean views. Much less frequented than other Edgartown beaches, East Beach is a quiet and relaxing spot for digging into a summer novel.

If you are looking for crowds, teenyboppers and volleyball, head out to South Beach in Katama, another part of Edgartown. There is a free shuttle bus which runs from the center of town and drops you off at the water's edge.

An up-island drive through West Tisbury to Chilmark will present you with a new perspective of the geography of Martha's Vineyard. Rolling green hills, rambling antique stone walls and far-off glimpses of the glittering ocean surround you as you follow South Rd. through Vineyard farmland. Lambert's Cove Country Inn is a romantic island inn tucked away amid the up-island beauty of West Tisbury. A great place for a quiet weekend retreat or a wedding bash, this inn is an unexpected delight nestled at the end of a meandering, pine sheltered dirt road. Seasonal rates range from $110 to $125 per person, double occupancy, and include a continental breakfast. The inn's dining room is open nightly and the secluded Lambert's Cove Beach is only 3/4 mile away.

Nightlife is practically nonexistent in Chilmark, but don't despair; there is the famous Homeport Restaurant which serves hearty seafood dinners for $15 to $25. At the end of North Rd., in the scenic fishing village of Menemsha, the Homeport overlooks Menemsha Pond and offers both a breathtaking view of the sunset and a stretch of beach for an after-dinner stroll.

Gay Head, the ancestral home of the Wampanoag Indians, offers spectacular vistas and sunsets from its much-photographed red clay cliffs. There are a few shops and a working lighthouse to visit, but the main attraction here is simply the sunset. If you are lucky enough to know someone with a private home you can fall asleep in total silence while the light from the Gay Head Lighthouse pierces the darkness. If not, take your bike, pack a picnic and make it a day-trip.

Rachel Power is a Professional Phographer and former Photo Editor for the Improper Bostonian.

Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT&BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Lethal Weapon III
"Unbeatable Chemistry"

It's easy to enjoy a sequel when Director Richard Donner knows in advance exactly what the audience wants. All the right ingredients - action, suspense and comedy - are present as officers Riggs and Murtaugh are back in a very funny sequel. Lethal Weapon III reunites the team of Mel Gibson and Danny Glover whose chemistry as two of Los Angeles' most unlikely police partners proves that once again, you don't need a great plot to make a film enjoyable. Only six days before Murtaugh is to retire from the force, his kamikaze partner, Riggs, uncovers a gun smuggling plot that's leaving young gang members dead on the street. Solid performances from Gibson and Glover while Joe Pesci again annoys us in the role of Leo Getz ("O.K., O.K., O.K.; they fuck you at the drive-through..). So when is Lethal Weapon IV? T.A.S.

Alien 3
"One Monster and a Script With a Few Holes"

In Alien 3, we rendezvous with heroine beauty Ellen Ripley (Sigourney Weaver) and her intergalactic beast, and while the thrills are in no short supply, the movie relies on the suspense tactics of the first two Alien movies to fuel its engines. This time around, Ripley and a planet of reformed rapists fight the alien in the same race-against-time scenerio we saw in Alien 2. Charles Dance hands in a fine performance as Ripley's paramour Dr. Clemens, and Charles Dutton is strong as the unflinching, iron-chinned Dillon, the most thoughtful and intimidating inmate. Few movies will give you the scare Alien 3 will, but you might be happy that it's the last sequel. T.S.L.

Tribulation 99
"A Psychotronic Conspiracy Masterpiece"

What other movie weaves an international and interplanetary conspiracy theory through the CIA, UFO'S, JFK, Bush, Noreiga and cattle mutations? Billed as "the shocking truth about the coming Apocalypse and the events that have led up to it," Craig Baldwin's Tribulation 99 is an instant cult classic, the perfect movie to run in midnight showings Friday and Saturday nights at the Coolidge Corner Theatre in Brookline. Also showing with Tribulation 99 are a hilarious and disturbing trio of propaganda films: Report (the JFK assassination), Our Job in Japan, Your Job in Germany, the latter directed by Frank Capra and written by Dr. Seuss, Theodore Geisel. Such films defy description; once you see, you shall believe. T.S.L.

Wayne's World
"Worth The Trip"

Wayne's World is so stupid, it will make your belly ache for hours. An elongated version of the Saturday Night Live skit, the film follows the adventures of Wayne and Garth as a sleazy television executive (played quite naturally by Rob Lowe) tries to take control of their show. We also follow Wayne's new love interest for heavy metal "robo babe" Cassandra (Tia Carrere). But for the most part, Wayne's World is a barrage of puns and a realistic take on the stereotypical metalhead. This film has style and makes the right connections. You may not want to live in Wayne's World, but it's sure a fun place to visit. "Bohemian Rhapsody" will never be the same again. T.A.S.

Patriot Games
Is A Movie You've Seen Before

CIA Analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) is swept into the deadliest game of our time - international terrorism - in Patriot Games from Paramount Pictures.

by Tim Lemire

After an hour or so of viewing Patriot Games, one could easily take and pass the 'what happened" quiz with flying colors. While packed with all of the necessary ingredients to thrill an action addict, this film is deeply lacking in originality and fails to live up to the suspenseful reputation which precedes it both in the Tom Clancy novel and with prepress publicity.

Erstwhile CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) meets his wife and young daughter in London and happens upon an IRA assassination attempt on a car full of Royals. Thwarting the gunmen's efforts, Ryan shoots and kills one of the ski-masked desperadoes, who happens to be the baby brother of the group's leader (the only one to be captured). Ryan becomes a hero and the villain is carted off to the hoosgow, where he stares at Ryan's face reproduced under a Times headline.

Ryan returns to his Baltimore home while the IRA frees their incarcerated brother. Just when James Earl Jones showed up at Jack Ryan's door, telling him of the prisoner's escape, the screen went blank.

Early on in the film, I was left with the following questions: Will the escaped convict track down Ryan and seek revenge? Will Ryan successfully defend his family? Will he rejoin the CIA, again to thwart the efforts of this IRA fringe group?

The major flaw in the first half of Patriot Games, besides its predictability, is that Jack Ryan and his family (particularly his smarty-pants daughter, who trots around with her own camcorder) are not appealing enough to win our sympathy or affection. When we see the Ryans' upper-middle class affluence, their Porsche and seaside double decker mansion filled with charming antiques and classical music, it becomes easier to sympathize with the lower class, down-trodden IRA assassin - the villain, for Pete's sake.

We have seen the man-at-home defending his family from revenge motif (executed with more artfulness and suspense) in Sam Peckinpah's Straw Dogs and more recently in Martin Scorcese's Cape Fear. We have even seen Harrison Ford defend his wife from international terrorists before, in Roman Polanski's Frantic. For the price of an 8 pm show of Patriot Games, you could rent all three of these movies and have a much more entertaining evening.

Remember that I only saw half of this movie: for all I know, the second half of Patriot Games contained all the suspense and intrigue of its predecessor, The Hunt for Red October. Harrison Ford could have livened up in his role, bringing the comic swagger of Indiana Jones or the wry suaveness of Han Solo to his portrayal of Jack Ryan. I may have ended up hoping Ryan's young daughter would not be the first to get plugged by the vengeful assassin.

See Patriot Games for its pro-agency stance, political (as always) timeliness and of course the chases, fights and Flemingish (Ian) nuances. Director Philip Noyce manages to capture the flavor of post cold war American ideology, but without the suspense that should accompany such a film, Patriot Games winds up a few lengths too short. ❑

Patriot Games
Paramount Pictures
Directed by
Philip Noyce
Starring
Harrison Ford, Anne Archer
Patrick Bergin, Sean Bean
Based on the Novel
by Tom Clancy

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Sister Act

Divine Performances are Film's Saving Grace

by Jennifer McCann

Sister Act gives new meaning to the phrase "get thee to a nunnery." Although the plot of this comedy is less than divine, the performances by the cast make laughing a hard habit to break.

The film stars Academy Award winner Whoopi Goldberg as Deloris Van Cartier, a second rate lounge singer in a Reno casino whose vocals and appearance are hauntingly familiar to the supreme Diana Ross. Deloris' character is a brash and sassy, street smart chick who also happens to be lovers with her slimy casino owner boss, Vince La Rocca, played convincingly by Harvey Keitel. After Deloris witnesses Vince "offing" an uncooperative informant, she is placed in the police witness protection program in nun other than St. Katherine's convent. In addition to taking the vows of poverty, charity and chastity, Deloris, now known as "Sister Mary Clarence," is given the ungodly task of teaching the less than harmonious choir how to groove.

Whoopi Goldberg (center) stars as Deloris Van Cartier who gambles that disguising herself as a nun will help her outwit the mob.

Maggie Smith is wonderful as Mother Superior, who urges Deloris to respect the sisters' chosen lifestyle and accept responsibility for her own actions. Smith's straight-faced and straight-laced character effectively neutralizes Deloris' unpredictable and quirky nature. Smith has some wonderful one liners and delivers them with quick wit and dry humor.

The highlights of the film include the choir's new sound thanks to Deloris as they perform "My God," a new version of the old song "My Guy" at Sunday mass. Kathy Najimy stars as Sister Mary Patrick who would be more appropriately named Sister Mary Sunshine given her sticky sweet personality. The combination of Deloris' sarcastic nature and Mary

(continued on following page)

Sister Act
Touchstone Pictures
Directed by
Emile Ardolino
Starring
Whoopi Goldberg
Maggie Smith
and Harvey Keitel

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Delicatessen
"Food for Thought"
Squeamish people may be better off eating a burger, but for those with strong stomachs, this bizarre, dark comedy (with a little romance sprinkled in for good seasoning) is destined to become a cult classic: A butcher is somehow able to provide cold cuts to his customers during a meat shortage, while the tenants of his building mysteriously disappear. The plot is original, the dialogue funny, the acting hysterical, and the camera work is first-rate. What more can you ask for? K.M.

Encino Man
"Rad filmage for your melon, bud-dy..."
This tale of cro-magnon Pygmalion featuring MTV's Pauly Shore is not the bone-headed bogus adventure you might imagine: Encino Man is a rock solid good teenage time, the story of two high school seniors who unearth a caveman in their backyard and try to integrate him into the L.A. lifestyle. Pauly's L.A.-Speak peppers the movie with a hip flavor and Brendan Fraser as the caveman Link is comical and quite likable. Encino Man is a great flick to bring your kid brother or sister to (or heck, they can bring you to it). This film has no profanity, no nudity and no mindless partying - just a totally rad time, bud-dy... T.S.L.

Howard's End
"Enchanting To The Last Frame"
Director Jim Ivory gratefully escorts another E.M. Forster novel to the screen in an exploration of familiar Forsterian themes of class antagonism, social convention and the nobility of asserted independence. Helene Bonham Carter stars with Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson in this drama which interweaves the lives of two conflicting and diverse families who are ultimately thrown into a plot involving the deception of a home willed to one of the family members, Helen Schlegel (Carter). Avory has difficulty establishing a host of characters in the first half but ties things together nicely in the second half. A great movie that's sure to stir up some emotions. T.S.L.

White Sands
"A Disturbing Drama"
White Sands is a disturbing psychological drama which raises alarming questions about identity, ethics and avarice.

For the Deputy Sheriff (Willem Dafoe) of a backwater New Mexico town, livin' is easy until he stumbles upon an unidentified dead man whose attache case contains $5 million in unmarked bills. Within 24 hours, the sheriff's careful investigations explode into a world of covert activities and stealth operations. Leaving behind his protesting wife (Mimi Rogers), and his cautious, by-the-book persona, Dafoe assumes the identity of the dead man in order to solve the murder. Director James Robinson has created a world based upon double identities where the fine lines of distinction between good and evil, and just and unjust, seemingly disappear. P.R.

The Player
"Hollywood On A Skewer"
Director Robert Altman (M*A*S*H*, Nashville) comes back with a vengeance in this scathing satire of Hollywood and the sleazebags, backstabbers and bootlickers who make the trash you shell out $7.00 to see. Tim Robbins plays the paranoid movie executive who rises higher with each crime he commits while Whoopi Goldberg plays the detective who stalks him. Greta Scaatchi is the ice goddess with a heart of stone and dozens of stars appear as themselves in inconsequential cameos. From the long opening shot that pays tribute to Orson Welles' Touch of Evil to closeups of classic movie posters that end many scenes, Altman constantly pays tribute to the art of filmmaking as he skewers the studio alchemists who turn trash into gold. J.B.

KEY
A Winner
A Toss up
For the birds

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
Lethal Weapon 3	★	≈	≈	≈	≈	○	○	≈	○
Alien 3	○	○	≈	★	★	○	≈	○	○
Encino Man	★	≈	≈	≈	○	≈	—	○	—
Beethoven	≈	≈	≈	★	—	—	—	○	—
Far and Away	○	≈	≈	≈	≈	★	≈	○	○
Wayne's World	★	○	≈	≈	★	○	○	≈	★
The Player	★	★	○	★	≈	★	★	★	○
Split Second	≈	○	≈	≈	≈	—	—	≈	≈
Basic Instinct	○	○	≈	○	○	≈	○	≈	○
White Men Can't Jump	★	★	○	★	★	★	★	○	○

Upcoming Movies

Eddie Murphy stars as Marcus Graham, a marketing executive and lifelong ladies man; Halle Berry plays his associate, Angela in Boomerang.

Video Reviews

First Films

by John Galligan & Jon Haber

While John Singleton did not cop a Best director Oscar last month for his first- rate film Boyz in the Hood, he can take heart that most talented directors never came close to such an early achievement. Most did, however, have interesting professional premiers.

Oscar heavy weight Jonathan (Silence of the Lambs) Demme, for example, got his big break shooting the widely available, women in prison classic Caged Heat, a film which codifies all of the women behind bars cliches at once: cheap sexuality, vulgarity, violence, cat fights and a battle of the sexes climactic shootout.

While Demential 13, a chiller produced by American International pictures, is credited as Godfather director Francis Ford Coppola's first work, Coppola actually spent his early years shooting cheap grindhouse nudist films to come up with pocket change while at UCLA. Most of the footage from his first nudie, Mr. Peeper, has been incorporated into the compilation film Tonight for sure (which can be found at Hollywood video on Mass. Ave in Cambridge). Barring the discovery of any 8 mm footage of the Coppola family's trip to Carlsbad cavern, Tonight for sure can be called Coppola's first work (a definite find for the hard core fan).

NYU film grad Martin Scorsese had his professional debut with Boxcar Bertha (1972) a New World Pictures semi-sequel to Roger Corman's gangster opera Bloody Mama. Scorsese's debut was the true life story of Boxcar Bertha Thompson (played by Barbara Hershey), a depression era hobo/train robber who terrorizes the rail lines of the South. Two Carradines (the underrated David and his 100 year old multi-talented father John) also star. The great visuals and Christ imagery in Berth portended things to come from Martin Scorsese.

Scorsese's buddy from NYU, Oliver Stone, got his first break in the 1974 Canadian horror yarn, Seizure. This $186,000 macabre tale stars Jonathan Frid (Barnabous Collins from Dark Shadows) as a cowardly horror writer whose weekend party is rudely interrupted by three evil escapees from his own tortured dreams. The film also stars Herve Villechaize as the bloodthirsty Louis the Dwarf. Despite it's low budget casting, Seizure is atmospheric, scary and leaves one to wondering what might have happened had Stone not gone chasing his own ghosts of Vietnam and JFK.

In an era when most young directors got their start filming exploitation of one kind or another, America's star directors-to-be created some of the most transcendent exploitation of the day. Fortunately for fans, it is all available on tape. ❑

Sister Act

(continued from previous page)

Patrick's innocent humor provides many jabs at the funny bone.

The concept of sisterhood is strengthened when the nuns, surprisingly led by Mother Superior, head to Reno to rescue Deloris from meeting her maker. After the nuns arrive on the scene in the casino, Deloris' life is spared and the nuns return to their "order." Deloris repays the heavenly favor and conducts the choir one last time in a performance attended by the praised pontiff himself, Pope John Paul. Again, the plot is lacking in substance, but the performances outshine the script and keep you laughing for most of the film.

Sister Act, written by Joseph Howard and directed by Emile Ardolino, is not without it's sins in terms of the story line, but is resurrected with hilarious performances. ❑

COMEDY

Danny Bonaduce -"Comedy Just Pays My Legal Bills"

by Tobin Streett

Remember little Danny Partridge, the wise-cracking bass playing brat who made his mark on the television world in the early '70s? Today, little Danny is actually Big Danny: Danny Bonaduce. He still has freckles but has fortunately parted ways with the old maroon velvet suits and is a successful disc jockey in Philadelphia whose career is now flourishing in radio and stand-up comedy.

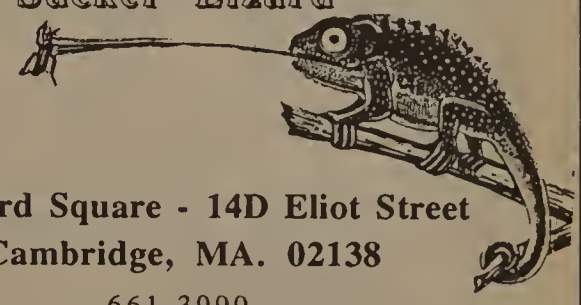
Bonaduce brings his self-deprecating brand of humor to Faneuil Hall's Comedy Connection this Friday and Saturday nights for four performances which promise to be as equally funny as they are nostalgic.

For anyone not tuned in to the news or tabloid TV, this ex-child star was arrested last year for assaulting (and breaking the nose of) a transvestite in Phoenix. He was also involved with his fair share of illicit drugs but the slate is now clean and so is he. At the time, the news media presented a one-sided, though somewhat accurate view against Bonaduce, but as a result he's conquered any remaining demons and even pokes fun at his well-publicized case during his stand-up routine.

Though the case is now over, it still manages to occasionally haunt him. In fact, Bonaduce was recently detained for several hours on a return trip from Canada in which he was body searched by an airport security guard. "You know," he says, "I think I still have his wristwatch. I can still hear his biological clock ticking up there."

But that's not the only thing ticking in Bonaduce. At 30 years old, this ex-Partridge is wound up tighter than a clock and tours the comedy circuit on weekends, filling enough venues to be booked solid through September. But as funny as he is, Bonaduce says, "Comedy is not necessarily my career. I do a radio show in Philly now. I'm back with the same station that fired me a few years ago. The radio industry is funny that way. People quit and get fired and are back with the same stations all of the time. Comedy just pays my legal bills." And with his legal troubles behind him, it seems that this refreshingly witty DJ is out to make a name for himself. Between his daily radio show (The Morning Nut Hut), weekend comedy stints and filming trial episodes for a new television show, it's amazing that Bonaduce can even keep his eyes open. "I slept for about ten years in a

(continued on page 37)



Danny Bondaduce hits the Comedy Connection this coming weekend .

the funny farm
"Where Toys Come to Life"

the funny farm is a place where the irreverent adult, fun-loving child or supervised pet can come to play with wind-ups, battery operated animals, bathtub toys & other silly stuff.

Find our store and receive a complimentary

Sucker Lizard

Harvard Square - 14D Eliot Street
Cambridge, MA. 02138
661-3999

Shipping available & batteries ARE always included!

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. Wed 10th. thru Sun 14th.- Bill Campbell, Alex Reid, Brian Longwell. Mon 15th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 16th.- Brian Kiley. Wed 17th. thru Sun 21st.- Jeff Marder, Tim Slagle, Don White. Mon 22nd.- Cross Comedy. Tue 23rd.- Brian Kiley.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

Wed 10th.- Jimmy Smith, Steve Bjork, Chuck Sklar, Leann Lewis. Thu 11th.- Jackie Flynn, Kevin Flynn, Karen Nooch. Fri 12th & Sat 13th.- Anthony Clark, Billy Martin, Lauren Dombroski. Sun 14th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Bwana Jol, Mike Cappy. Mon 15th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Ally Oop, Bob Aubin. Tue 16th.- D.J. Hazard, Chris McGuire, Rano. Wed 17th.- Jimmy Smith, Greg Fitzsimmons, Kathy Byron. Thu 18th.- Mike Bent, Tom Hayes, Dennis Downey. Fri 19th & Sat 20th.- Frank Santorelli, Brian Kiley, Todd Parker. Sun 21st.- Father's Day Show with Dave Fitzgerald, Leann Lewis. Mon 22nd.- Rich Ceisler, Dave Barend, Rick Jenkins. Tue 23rd.- D.J. Hazard, Randy Look, Gazzo.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Wed 10th.- Bill Faradie, John Elefterakis, Jay Levy. Thur 11th.- Anthony Clark, Paul Falzone, Little Mark. Fri 12th & Sat 13th.- The Partridge Family's Danny Bonaduce. Sun 14th.- D.J. Hazard, Bob Merowitz, Louie DelPideo. Mon 15th.- Robert Morton, Kim Noe, Red O'Brien. Tue 16th.- Sue Ober, Molly Veasey, Jim Tam. Wed 17th.- Andy Talbert, Tom Sobel, Mike Kent. Thur 18th.- Anthony Clark, Fred Taylor, Bryce Tinmouth. Fri 19th.- Rita Rudner. Sat 20th.- Martin Small, Dom Ventre, Dean Johnson. Sun 21st.- Father's Day Show with Oliver H. Keithly III. Mon 22nd.- Marion Ward, Jeff Wyatt, Roy Dee. Tue 23rd.- Ladi Brank, Dan Pacek, Peter Reynolds.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE. We know it's a little early but Nicks will be official host to Sail Boston, 1992 July 11-16; comedy get-togethers planned.

Wed 10th.- Reed Rankin, Caroline Rhea. Thur 11th.- Jim Lauletta, Kevin James. Fri 12th.- Vinnie Favorito, Brad Mastrangelo. Sat 13th.- Walli Collins, Vinnie Favorito. Sun 14th.- Kevin Knox, Caroline Rhea. Mon 15th.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin. Tue 16th.- Paul D'Angelo, Chuck Martin. Wed 17th.- Bob Sibel, Caroline Rhea. Thur 18th- Sun 21st.- Ellen Cleghorne from Saturday Night Live ("Queen Shaniqua"). Mon 22nd.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark every Wednesday. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-10. No dress code.

Wed 10th.- Tom Agna, Anthony Clark. Thur 11th.- Jay Charbonneau, Tom Agna. Fri 12th. & Sat 13th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Jay Charbonneau, Tom Agna, Greg Fitzsimmons. Sun 14th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 16th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 17th.- Ron Lynch, Anthony Clark. Thur 18th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 19th. & Sat 20th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Mike Donovan, Ron Lynch, Jonathan Groff. Sun 21st.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 23rd.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

• ImprovBoston at the Lync Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

ARTS

Annie Leibovitz - Defining Our Cultural Icons

Mrs. Rachel Leibovitz, 1977, Annie Leibovitz

by Pritha Raysircar

From her earliest work for Rolling Stone magazine in the early Seventies to her latest work for the American Express "Portraits" advertising campaign, ubiquitous Annie Leibovitz has fashioned the way we look at the world. Her first assignment for Rolling Stone, an earthy cover portrait of John Lennon taken while she was still studying at the San Francisco Art Institute, set the tone for the next twenty years: her prolific "meetings" with the superstars of the 70's and 80's served to make them more accessible and less mystifying to the public eye.

Leibovitz's uncanny eye and timing exploded the Hollywood/Rock and Roll idol mythology during the heyday of its propagation at such enclaves as Steve Rubell's Studio 54: via her aperture, her already famous subjects, displaced from their pop culture monarchy, achieved stellar recognition as they were shown to be almost too mortal, too painfully common. One such portrait must be of a funereally clothed Yoko Ono and her husband John, nude and curled around her, as if attempting to describe the enormity of life through his embrace.

Looking back to the Hollywood era between WWI and WWII when film stars were depicted as if they were Olympian, one realizes that the Hollywood machine's primary motive was to set apart their product (Cary Grant, Marlene Dietrich) from the wear and tear of humanity though hyper glamorization. Through the distribution of heavily stylized and supposed "down time" publicity shots, our cultural icons were shown to be perfectly coifed and immaculate even as they relaxed on the beach.

Annie Leibovitz's unorthodox and astoundingly vulnerable images affected the public consciousness: married to the usual feelings of envy and idealization was a new sense of familiarity never before imaginable. The undeniably appealing semiotic of her work is based upon the simple disabusal of photographic norms espoused by the likes of Irving Penn, Helmut Newton and Richard Avedon.

Few would argue however, that Annie Leibovitz's style is anything but complex: an amalgam of both the absurd and pedestrian, her technique serves to redefine our impressions of cultural icons. A vivid example must be John Belushi and Dan Akroyd as "The Blues Brothers". Dressed in gangster wear and painted blue, Belushi and Akroyd are at once funny, ridiculous and otherworldly. Because Leibovitz's humor has made her subjects so accessible, "The Blues Brothers" have graced many a college dorm wall.

ICA Curator Matthew Teitelbaum stated, "Annie Leibovitz's work underlines the vitality of our times. The high energy and forthright nature which are the hallmark of her work transforms her subjects into bold icons of contemporary American culture. At the same time she frames her subjects as nostalgic and utterly contemporary, solitary yet social, provoking us to think about the world of images in which we live."

Portraits of John Lennon, Steve Martin, Keith Haring and early black and white essays of the Rolling Stones and President Nixon's resignation are representative of the more than 120 images in Annie Lebovitz Photographs 1970-1990, the first museum exhibition of her work. The exhibition opens at the Institute of Contemporary Art on June 17 and will be on view through July 26, 1992. It will then continue on a tour of the United States and Europe through 1995.

Tickets may be purchased in advance by visiting The ICA Box Office, or any Ticketmaster location (service charge applies) or by calling Ticketmaster at (617) 931-2000. Tickets will be timed on the half hour. Hours are 10am to 9pm, Monday through Sunday (with last admission at 7:30pm). ❑

Annie Leibovitz
Photgraphs
1970-1990
at the ICA
June 17 - July 26
10am - 9pm
Mon - Sun
Tickets available at the ICA box office or through Ticketmaster

Mikhail Baryshnikov 1990, Annie Leibovitz

Hedda Gabler: No New Insights, but an Appealing Performance

by Nancy Leonard

As envisioned by director Adrian Hall at the American Repertory Theatre, Candy Buckley's Hedda Gabler lacks sympathy, but is definitely very interesting. While retaining the original, late Victorian-era setting may suggest a victim trapped by societal conventions, here we have a bold manipulator caught in the unintended consequences of power games.

Written in 1890, Ibsen's play has been subject to wide-ranging interpretations. Hedda Gabler, the beautiful daughter of a general, is consigned to a life of genteel poverty and limited social opportunities as the wife of a dull academic - George Tesman. Just back from a honeymoon trip spent on his research, she is bored to death. Michael Rudko is properly restrained and earnest as the good-hearted Tesman, the quintessentially perfect second husband.

The plot is stirred by the unexpected arrival of Thea Elvsted - George's old flame and Hedda's schoolmate - who makes an urgent plea on behalf of Eilert Lovborg. He's been the Elvsted children's tutor in a distant village, where Thea has somehow tamed his dissolute ways, and collaborated with him on a book. Now that it's been published, she fears the money and fame will be a dangerous temptation. Dark-haired Stephanie Roth is a strong and intelligent Thea - not the usual bit of romantic fluff, although it's hard to see why she doesn't catch on to Hedda's tricks.

Thea admits she left her loveless marriage to follow Eilert. Steven Skybell credibly captures Eilert Lovborg's dissolute intensity, but needs more stature and magnetism to explain his hold on Hedda's heart. Little does Thea know that Hedda was once, and still probably is, in love with him. Certainly, Hedda's passion has not died, though it's played out to destructive ends when she sees that her former lover still cares.

Hedda taunts Eilert to drink, burns his precious new manuscript, and whips him up to suicide with misplaced notions of romantic beauty. The stark reality of cowardice and scandal, brought home by the untrustworthy Judge Brack, and set against George and Thea's intense commitment to Eilert's work, propels Hedda's solitary self-destruction at the close.

Candy Buckley and Steven Skybell in the American Repertory Theatre's production of Hedda Gabler

Candy Buckley is distant and coldly contemptuous throughout. There's no hint of despair or desperation behind her bleak exterior; no sense that she's the victim of a male-dominated society. But what holds our interest - even fascinates us - is the transparent play of deep emotions dancing across her soul.

With a scheme of somewhat stylized performances, directed more to the audience than the other characters, we become Hedda's confidant. Though she communicates with looks and body language, we easily see that she's jealous of Thea's collaborative attachment to Eilert, scornful of George's work and his family, stimulated by the Judge's insidiously lustful intimations and gleeful upon reports of Eilert's lasting love.

There's force in Hedda's obverse take on Eilert's rejection of Thea and in her final pumped-up moments. What results is a riveting, high-energy performance.

Alvin Epstein is a spare, vividly reptilian Judge Brack, clearly Hedda's match in gamesmanship. Barbara Dooneief Haas is fine as Aunt Juliana. Kate Burke's maid is an oddly artificial and comic creation.

Natasha Katz's lighting is wonderfully moody, capturing the claustrophobia of fin-de-siecle Scandinavian society. Derek McLane's audience-level, open-work set - a minimally furnishing sitting room, backed by a glass door leading to the interior - means to suggest a big house of many empty rooms. But the spaciousness works against the text. Catherine Zuber's non-elaborate Victorian costumes are well done.

There are few fresh insights in Adrian Hall's Hedda Gabler, but there's appealing gloss in the vigor and detail. ❑

The Improper Bostonian
Would like to extend a special congratulations to "Stormin" Norman Walker for his upcoming first novel
The Quick of the Quarter Moon not all peters are faithful.

CONDOM WORLD

PROTECT & SERVE

condom flavoring

150 types of condoms • novelties • lubricants

CONDOM WORLD GIFTS & ACCESSORIES

332 Newbury Street

Boston, MASS 02115 • 617 267-SAFE

monday-thursday 10am-10pm

friday & saturday 10am - 11pm • sunday 11am-7pm

137 South Main Street

New Hope, PA • 215 862-2299

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
The Kirov Ballet, the grandest and most majestic organization of its kind in the world, returns to Boston from June 15-17 to perform the Lavrovsky version of "Romeo and Juliet." All performances begin at 8pm. Call 931-ARTS for ticket information.

Emerson Majestic Theatre
219 Tremont St., Boston
From June 18-21, Ballet Theatre of Boston presents "Essentially Dance," a program of five original works choreographed by artistic director Jose Mateo. The program includes two world premieres: "Isle of the Dead," inspired by Rachmaninoff's work of the same title, and "Three Women of Troy," set to movements from Mozart's Symphonies nos. 25, 36 and 40. Call 1-800-728-7080 for more information.

CLASSICAL & JAZZ

Boston Globe* Jazz Festival
Throughout the city
Boston's premier jazz event features some of the music world's hottest performers from June 15-21 at various locations throughout the city— best of all, most of the performances are FREE! Call 523-4047 for program information.

French Library of Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
The performance duo "Le Cabaret," with Lucie Therrien and Kathy Fink, will perform on June 16 at 6:15pm. Therrien will perform songs from her popular, cabaret, contemporary and original repertoire; Fink will back her in keyboards, synthesizer and vocal harmonies. Tickets are $8 and $10 and include complimentary wine or other beverage. Call 266-4351 for more information.

Musica Sacra
at the First Parish of Watertown
35 Church St., Watertown
Musica Sacra presents Tunes and Tastes of America— a concert of American music, a light supper and silent auction— on June 13 at 7pm. The musical program will include Randall Thompson's "Frostiana" (settings of poetry by R. Frost), sea chanties, folk songs, spirituals, jazz and other Americana. Tickets are $12. Call 864-7998 for rsvtns or info.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Sundays are the films of Robert Altman; Mondays are Bogart; Tuesdays are Documentaries Today; Wednesdays are Art Films; Thursdays are Directed by Francois Truffaut; Fridays and Saturdays are the Urban Landscape. Special presentations include The Proud Ones, a Martin Scorsese Presentation, and The Iron Man, directed by Shinya Tsukamoto (Japan's answer to David Lynch). For further film information, call 876-6837.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents the Tibet Film Festival from June 19-21. Call 267-9300 for times and more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. Beginning June 13, come see "Tools & Toys: The Amazing Personal Computer," where you can explore over 35 hands-on exhibits that show the versatility of this remarkable little machine: Visitors can fly a jumbo jet on a flight simulator, paint on the walls with a giant infrared pointer, zoom through the 3-D world of virtual reality and compose songs on computer-instruments. Hours: Beginning June 21, daily 10am-6pm; Fridays until 9pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See "Neoclassical and Romantic: Works on Paper 1790s-1850s" until June 29. This exhibition explores the early 19th century in European art through prints, drawings, watercolors and illustrated books. Artists include William Blake, Francisco Goya, Caspar David Friedrich and others. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Connections: Richard Artschwager," the last in a series which has allowed contemporary artists to display their work side-by-side with the museum's permanent collection. Artschwager received critical acclaim in the mid '60s for his quirky representations of furniture and domestic objects such as mirrors and paintings, all featuring formica as the signature material. Through July 26.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!" The nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs remains on display through Sept. 7. Also now open is The Observatory, a new permanent exhibit where visitors can journey thorugh microscopic worlds, discover what's really at the end of a rainbow, and meet the denizens of a single drop of pond water. From May 30 to Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change— its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it— in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth.". Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, and students with ID and free for children three and under.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 4, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 12. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Come see the New England premiere of Beth Henley's latest play Abundance, running June 17-July 12. Set in the Wyoming Territory of the late 1860s, Henley's new madcap comedy chronicles the adventures of two mail-order brides who have traveled west to meet their prospective husbands. Tickets are $12. For times or reservations, call 720-0039.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Sid Caesar & Imogene Coca: Together Again, a hilarjous romp through this legendary comedy team's most brilliant and timeless sketches, will come to the Charles Playhouse for a four week limited engagement from May 13-June 14. Call 426-6912 for more information.

Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The Cambridge Theatre Company presents a return engagement of Jackie: An American Life from June 3-July 12. Written and directed by Gip Hoppe, this production tells the life story of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis, from her days as a young girl in the Hamptons to her first date with JFK to the Onassis yacht.

Huntington Theatre
252 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Way of the World opens May 27 and runs through June 21. Although William Congreve wrote his brilliant comedy of manners in 1700, the Huntington's production of The Way of the World places the action in the Jazz Age. Rather than ruffles and hoop skirts, central characters Millamant and Mirabell will sport the sleek, sophistication and clean lines of art deco. Performances on June 10 and 20 will be interpreted into American Sign Language.

(continued on following page)

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

MAGAZINES
BY JOSEPH

"WE BUY & SELL USED MAGAZINES"

279 Newbury Street
Boston, MA 02116

Hours

Sunday 12:00-6:00
Monday - Friday 11:00 - 6:30
Saturday 10:00-6:30

Reasonable Prices

ARTS

(Theater continued)

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
The NSMT presents Funny Girl, starring Broadway-belter and recording artist Alix Korey as funny girl Fanny Brice. This warm and witty musical boasts such hits as "People," "Don't Rain on My Parade," "I'm the Greatest Star" and more. It runs June 4-20; call 508-922-8500 for times and ticket prices.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
"What would you do with a million green stamps?" is the question Threshold Theatre answers with the Boston premiere of Les Belles Soeurs, a raucous comedy about 15 desperate women who want nothing more than a decent life for themselves. Shows run June 18-Jully 12; call 931-2000 for more information.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
The Publick Theatre, Inc., Boston's oldest resident theatre company, announces the opening of their upcoming 22nd summer season with As You Like It by William Shakespeare on June 3. The production runs Weds.-Suns. at 8pm through June 28. Set in the magical Forest of Arden, As You Like It is a tale of jealousy, friendship, romance, loyalty and love; it is one of The Bard's most beloved comedies. Call 782-5425 for more information.

Shubert Theatre
265 Tremont St., Boston
Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical megahit Cats, based on T.S. Eliot's "Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats, runs from June 16-28. Those lucky enough to get tickets will not only be seeing a spectacular Broadway musical, but a theatrical phenomenon unparalleled in the history of musical theatre. Tickets are $25-$50; call 1-800-233-3123.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Triangle Theater Company
58 Berkeley St., Boston
A long-running hit in Chicago, Claudia Allen's Movie Queens will run from June 3-27 at Triangle's Paramount Penthouse. Performances are Weds.-Suns. at 8pm; all tickets are $15. The play centers around the the reunion of two legendary stars of Hollywood's Golden Age in a new Broadway play some 40 years later. Call 426-3550 for more information.

LECTURES

B.U. Bookstore
660 Beacon St., Boston
On June 11 at 7:30pm, Mary Morris reads from her latest work, Wall to Wall: From Beijing to Berlin by Rail, in the Charlesbank Reading Room on the 5th Floor. On June 15 at 5:30pm, Jay McInerney reads from his latest work, Brightness Falls, also in the Charlesbank Reading Room.

WORKSHOPS

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Harvard Square
The CCAE is pleased to offer Women's Wellness Day, a one-day symposium on June 13 from 10am-4:30pm. Admission is $65. The symposium includes interactive lectures with freelance writer Mopsy Strange Kennedy; psychotherapist Joyce Bloom; Humor Educator Melinda Rose, and educator Sharon Rich.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

GALLERIES

Cheremeteff Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
On view now through July is "New Russian Realism: The Traditionalists," portraits and landscapes by Gerasimov, Shankov, Shytkhno and Danilin. Artist-in-residence Shankov is available for commissioned portraiture and landscape renderings. Contemporary Russian iconography by Gassel and Sheglov. Unique and diverse selection of limited editioned prints and graphics. Call 536-1121. Open Tues.-Sat. 10am-7pm and by appointment.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Concord Art Association
37 Lexington Road, Concord
The CAA is proud to present an exhibition of Boston-area African-American artists until June 27. Gallery hours are Tue.-Sat. 11am-4:30pm; Sun. 2-4:30pm. Call 508-369-2578 for more information.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
Showing until June 12 is Roger Muhl: "Recent Lithographs." From June 12-July 7, come see "Art and Architecture of the 20th Century, Buildings by Boston Architect Jeffry Pond." Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs until July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

SPECIAL EVENTS

American Cancer Society
at the Park Plaza Hotel
The first annual "EyeBall." a gala tribute to the late Boston Herald columnist Norma Nathan to benefit the ACS, will be held June 11. The 6pm reception is followed by dinner at 7:30pm, a silent auction of 40 exclusive Eye-tems, a celebrity salute to Norma, and music by the Ed, Bill and Bo Winiker Orchestra. Black tie optional. For tickets, call 267-2650.

Boston Comic News
at Cecil's Restaurant and Art Gallery
129 South St., Boston
Laugh with Boston's hottest professional cartoonists and The Boston Comic News at an awards dinner and celebrity auction to benefit the Massachusetts Association for Retarded Citizens on June 13 at 7pm. Tickets range from $12-$25; call 666-2888 for more information.

Carnival Venezia
at Venezia Restaurant
20 Ericsson St., Boston
On June 18, Carnival Venezia will recreate the ambiance of Venice. The benefit begins at 5pm with an inaugural sailing charted by Lt. Governor Paul Cellucci; Venetian foods, games, music and gondola rides on Boston Harbor will be featured. All proceeds go to Save Venice, an international organization that raises hope, awareness and money for the restoration of art in Venice, Italy. Tickets are $35; all 436-3120 for more information.

Chinese American Civic Association
at the New England Aquarium
CACA sponsors "A Taste of Asia Benefit Gala" June 24 at 6pm. It includes ethnic performances as well as food and wine tastings (representative cuisine from China, Japan, Korea, Cambodia, India, Vietnam and Thailand). Tickets are $45; call 426-9492 for more information.

Earth Cruise
leaves from Commonwealth Pier
The Friends of the Boston Harbor Islands present the first annual Earth Cruise in conjunction with the Earth Summit on June 13 from 8-11:30pm. Climb aboard Bay State Cruises's Provincetown II for the best damn rock 'n' roll cruise you've ever been on. Tickets are $25; money raised goes to benefit children's summer programs, Earth awareness programs and Boston's own 30 Harbor Islands. Must be 21; they sail rain or shine. Call 723-7800 for reservations.

New England Eye Bank
at Myopia Polo, Hamilton
Come enjoy a gourmet tailgate picnic competition, an exciting polo match, a fashion show and an antique car exhibit only 20 minutes from Boston on June 21 at 1pm. Proceeds from this elegant, spirited Sunday of sport and celebration go to the sight-restoring programs of the N.E. Eye Bank. Call 523-3937 for more information.

New England Home for Little Wanderers leaves from Walpole
Individuals and teams of bike riders will pedal their way towards helping troubled kids at the Fourth Annual Country Bike Tour on June 14. The tour, originating from the Home's Longview Farm program in Walpole will feature scenic 30-, 50- and 100-mile routes. For information and registration materials, call 783-7070.

Society of Young Jewish Professionals at the Charles Hotel
1 Bennett St., Harvard Square, Cambridge
The SYJP, the nation's largest and most successful organization of its kind, is holding the SYJP Gala June 20 at 8pm. There will be hors d'oeuvres, shmoozing, dancing, a DJ and a door prize. Black tie optional. Tickets range from $10-$20 and are available at the Stage Deli in Brookline or by calling 1-800-370-0101.

TYPESETTING
DESIGN
ILLUSTRATION

Resumes
Photostats
Business Cards
Advertising
Proofreading
Brochures
Logo Design
Copy Writing
Mechanicals
Direct Mail
Letterheads
Copy Editing

BD Design Group
Bortman

Phone/Fax:
(617) 964-5523
950 Boylston St.
Newton, MA
02161

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"How do you achieve total relaxation?"

Robert, 52, Watertown
"I relax by getting involved with politics."

Pat, 42, Randolph
"I put a heating pad on my neck and listen to relaxation tapes."

Dave, 27, Waltham
"I wander through the fields picking blueberries in Cape Cod."

Tina, 40, Dorchester
"I walk around the Christian Science building to clear my mind of daily occurences."

Rachel, 22, Boston
"A hot bath, a cold beer, and REM playing on the radio."

Bob, 30, Raleigh, NC
"Sunbathing in the nude next to alligators in the everglades."

The greatest sites in history are on the horizon

The Vantage Points of BOSTON© PROJECT

The event everyone is looking forward to

Clear Ad Vantage
design concepts

Putting the future in the best perspective.

rising soon

©1992 Steven M. Walker

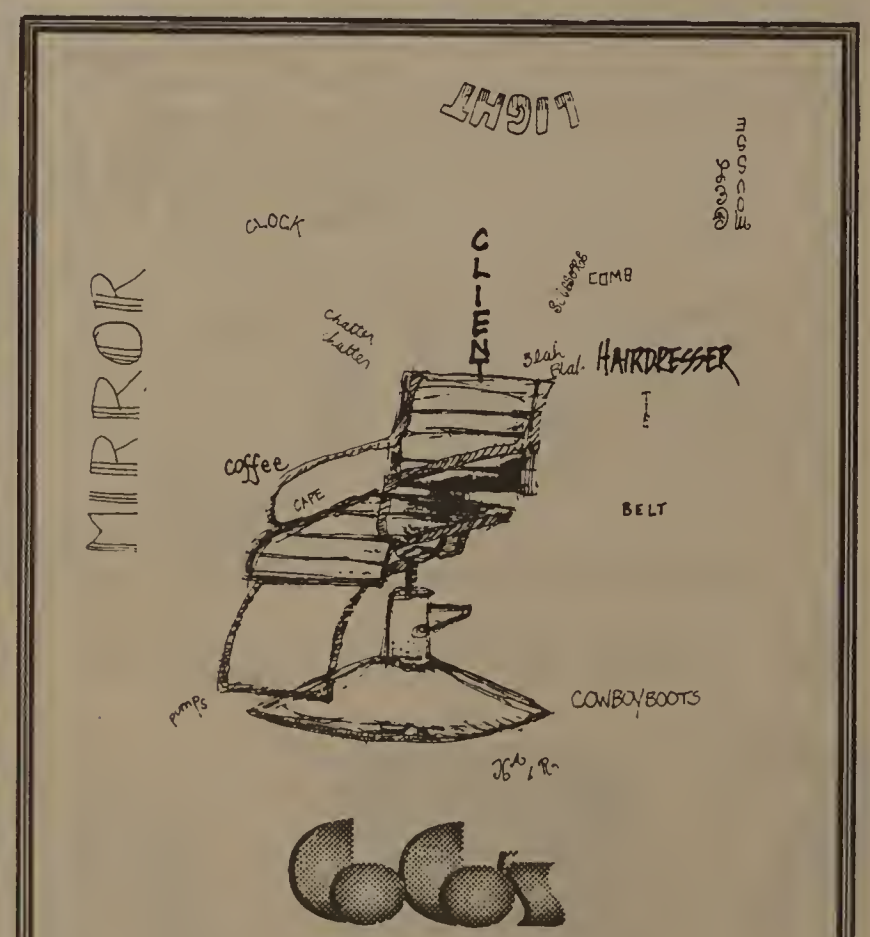
Perspectives....

Pack a picnic ...

roll up a blanket and head on down to the Esplanade to take advantage of one of Boston's best summer resources-FRIDAY FLICKS at the Hatch Shell. I've been waiting all year for the chance to unroll that blanket, pull out the bread, cheese, juicy nectarines and lemony iced tea that make an easy, delicious picnic spread. In the past four summers I have probably only gone to four or five of the free films they show every Friday night, but the experience has remained in my mind as one of the things that makes Boston a unique and enriching place to live. People start gathering on the grass in front of the Hatch Shell in the early evening. You'll see families, couples, and friends frolicking about talking to each other, and people accompanied by good books who just want to read in peace until it gets dark and the show begins.

Although I'd rather be playing footsie with Prince Charming than reading, seeing a movie at the Hatch Shell is a great thing to do by yourself. Lying there on the green grass, letting the cool breeze from the Charles brush over you, and observing the diversity of the people all around, you get a sense of community that's hard to find in the city, and a sense of mass relaxation that we all need once in a while. The summer series starts on Friday, June 19th, and the first film is The Wizard of Oz. Head on out there next Friday. It's a cheap and relaxing intro to the weekend that everyone can enjoy.

While you're taking advantage of the great outdoors, you should check out the recently re-opened Rowes Wharf Cafe at the Boston Harbor Hotel. There's nothing quite like an outdoor cafe, and this one is the best place to take in the grandeur of the Boston Harbor Hotel's old world setting, along with an optimum view of Boston harbor. Stop there after work, or for lunch, to relax and enjoy a cool drink and their light fare menu. They're open until 9 p.m. weekdays, and 10 p.m. on weekends.



Barbara Priami

Relax and have a cool drink at the Boston Harbor Hotel Rowes Wharf Cafe

For those of you who didn't catch the carnival last week, it will be in Quincy at Marina Bay June 9-14, and in Malden June 16-21.

Urban dwellers without cars can reach Malden from the Malden Center stop on the Orange Line.

-E.C.

SALON GALLERY
NEW CLIENTS: RECIEVE A HAIRCUT FOR $15
OR 20% OFF ANY CHEMICAL SERVICE!
(Offer Not Good On Saturday)
EXISTING CLIENTS: BRING A NEW CLIENT,
AND GET TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.
WE NOW OFFER FULL NAIL SERVICES.
544 Tremont St. Boston
(617) 451-2050
Across From Boston Centre For The Arts

Feasting on lobster...

for anything more than $3 a pound may sound like a rip-off to a true Bostonian, but to a native Chicagoan, anything less than $10 a pound is a steal. Moving from the Midwest to Boston, however, has changed more than the items on my grocery list. Travel between Boston and its suburbs is so easy compared to suburban Chicago commutes. Suburbs comparable to Newton and Chestnut Hill are 45 minutes from the business centers of Chicago, while Weston, which is considered a hefty commute from Boston, is only 15 or 20 minutes down the Mass Pike. Most Chicagoans hold traffic and gridlock to mean the same thing.

Moving to Boston has also taught me about Cape Cod and how to pronounce the names of towns such as Chatham. I only pronounced the "th" once among a group of Bostonians. Cape Cod is considered a beautiful nearby retreat from the city. Those people who drive 5-6 hours to remote areas of Maine are considered foolhardy since the Cape is so close. Yet my family still flies to Northern Wisconsin every August for vacation, and it takes us less time than the ten hours we used to drive from Chicago. The natural beauty and purity of the water of Lake Superior has pushed us to keep our vacation spot, even with Cape Cod so nearby. A freshwater swim feels like a refreshingly cold bath compared to the sticky feeling on your skin after swimming in the ocean.

My one brief foray to Nantucket was a great disappointment because the town was so crowded with tourists. For now I'll stick to handling the laughs I hear when I tell Bostonians I'm going to Wisconsin for vacation.

My biggest surprise upon moving East was discovering that the stereotype of friendly Midwesterners versus suspicious Easterners was true. People do smile at strangers more in the Midwest, even in big cities like Chicago, and salespeople are a lot more helpful and friendly there.

Lobster prices, commuting distances, and vacation spots aside, one of the biggest adjustments has been trying to cope with being a Bulls' fan in the Celtics' hometown!

-J.L.

on life in Boston

Taking it easy ...

on a Sunday afternoon doesn't have to mean allowing your carcass to vegetate in front of the Sunday paper, guzzling down your favorite hangover remedy. Swing on out to the Taj Mahal buffet brunch in Kenmore Square with an adventurous friend. The food is delicious and offers authentic spicy Indian cuisine that won't overwhelm a western palate. Serving a mix of Indian and American customers, the Taj Mahal offers the most satisfying brunch experience in the area. At $6.95, the all-you-can-eat buffet selection includes a wide range of vegetarian dishes and chicken curries. The Taj Mahal is clean, quiet and cozy with polite and personable waiters to serve you. Whether you gorge yourself on the curry, or nibble on the delicate deserts, the exotic taste will satisfy your craving for excitement on a dull Sunday.

When you're finished eating brunch, don't gamble on a movie. Head to Boston Billiards at 126 Brookline Avenue to shoot pool. When you enter Boston Billiards on a Sunday, you're greeted by the loud glare of classic rock music which sets a festive mood for the young college crowd that frequents the pool hall. There are thirty-eight full sized and well-maintained pool tables and seven strategically placed television sets for patrons to keep track of the latest sporting events. Boston Billiards is dimly lit but spacious, with tall ceilings and exposed industrial pipes. The pool hall is decorated like a classic British Billiards room, with a kickbacked American atmosphere. Boston Billiards serves alcohol and American food with prompt friendly service. Sunday is a good time to play since the pool hall is not crowded and cheap at only $6 per game during the day. Try playing doubles, it's a great way to engage in a little healthy combat with friends, and believe me, you'll find out who the good sports really are!

-J.P.

Barbara Priami

Taj Mahal restaurant offers spicy Indian cuisine for Sunday Brunch

See Boston in a new light and check out the view of it's skyline from Roslindale. Yes, that's right, Roslindale. The town that would be a typical suburb if it didn't have such an atypically commanding view of the city. If you haven't guessed, we're heading for Peters Hill at the Arnold Arboretum. You haven't been to Peters Hill? That's alright, there are places in and around Boston I haven't been to either. Like my basement, where a recent rain has begun to threaten my baseball card collection. Anyway, bring your binoculars and a great sandwich (try the chicken hummus on Syrian bread from Samis Restaurant in Roslindale Square). (Peters Hill is technically in Jamaica Plain, not Roslindale.)

After you've soaked in the view, head into town and make the next stop the Boston Public Library courtyard for 20 minutes of mind wandering. Two blocks down Boylston Street, take the elevator at the Prudential to the 52nd floor for a great sky view. See if you can spot the arboretum hills you were standing on just a few hours ago. On the east side of the Pru, checkout the fort at Castle Island in South Boston. Use your binoculars so you won't have to drop quarters in the telescope.

Castle Island on a good day will find you staring in amazement at jumbo jets dropping in at 200 feet above your head, small boats and even an oil tanker here and there. Emerald green grass and Sullivan's ice cream complete the scene. If the sea air whets your appetite, the fried clams are best at 'The Landing' on the same road.

After a day full of new sights in Boston, how about a night full of new sounds? The jazz scene in Boston is alive and kicking, and like the rest of Boston, full of variety. There's the formal scene for those with more expensive tastes and then there's jazz, with The Fringe at the Willow in Somerville on Wednesday nights. Don't come looking to hear Misty or the usual melodies. Just fasten your seat belt, hold on and listen to why George Garzone and his co-conspirators call themselves The Fringe. They are definitely on the outside and respected by all.

-P.S.

A Modern Day Definition

Lifestyle \ 'lif-sti(ə)l \n: Ups and Downs B: Ins and Outs 2: A Way of Life (living it up yet trimming it down, tucking it in and working it out!) SYN: See Boston Athletic Club.

The Boston Athletic Club would like to announce to all Improper Bostonian customers The Summer Membership $199 starting June 1st!

Please call for further definition 617-269-4300

BOSTON ATHLETIC CLUB

653 Summer Street, Boston MA 02210

Not just your Fitness Club, it's your Lifestyle...

FREE PARKING!

(Im)proper Bostonians:

We want your Perspective! Share with other Bostonians your unique outlook on fun, dating, sports, literature, entertainment or whatever it is that makes your life in Boston something to talk about.

Send contributions along with a short self-description to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station Street, 7A
Brookline MA 02147
Fax: 232-4305
Attn: Erica Cantley

CONTRIBUTORS

E.C. - Erica Cantley is trying to tame her hyper-active tendencies and repair the fragmentation in her life.
J.P. - Jason Pring keeps talking about all these great date ideas, but I wonder if he actually uses them.
P.S. - Paul Shaheen plays guitar and bass, writes scathing editorials for the Herald and Globe (that actually get printed), and is trying to deal with turning forty.
J.L. - Jennifer Levitsky is quick as a whip. She is a newly arrived white tornado, destined to be more than just an I.B. housekeeper.

Background bridge photo by Melanie Dunea

A What, Where, When and He

The Leisu

Michael Powers

At Bella D'Arte Hair and Beauty Salon in the North End, you and your hair dresser can make beautiful music together. Salon owner Robin Reiser's personal passion for music and art come together on Thursday nights at 6:30pm when she has a pianist come into the salon and play at the grand piano complete with bar stools in her waiting area. Clients can listen to jazz, enjoy hors d'oeuvres and drink wine while having their hair colored, nails polished or lashes tinted. The salon attracts tourists and neighbors who walk by, hear the music and come in to listen or even sing along. The professionals at this prestigious salon are serious about their work but stress the importance of making the surroundings as pleasing as possible. So, before you paint the town red, come to the Bella D'Arte and get your hair cut or colored, listen to music and enjoy food and wine. Drop by the salon at 298 North Street or call 227-8242.

Where do babies come from? Well, among the many responses to that quest comes a three-dimensional model that doesn't leave much to the imaginati Announcing the Mommy-To-Be Doll "Judy" complete with a removable pregna tummy, baby, flat tummy (when baby is removed) and maternity dress. Just lift o newborn with moveable arms and legs and now she has a flat tummy (now that' tic). The "Judy" doll even wears a large wedding ring to dispel any rumors that sh unwed mother (sorry, Murphy Brown). Oddly enough, Judy's husband "Charlie" separately. The doll is recommended for children ages 3 and over and is available in white or Afro-American. To order your Mommy-To-Be Doll, call 1-800-477-JUDY or write to the Judith Corporation, P.O. Box 2699, Glenview, IL 60025. Unlike real life, the "Judy" doll takes 6-8 weeks for delivery.

Melanie Dunea

Does your mailbox consist mostly of bills or junk mail? A consumer advocate organization has developed a way to eliminate one of these ills. No, the Consumer Resource Institute of Mill Valley, California will not pay your bills, but they have developed a project that will allow you to stop unwanted mail from invading your home or office. The National Anti Junk Mail Kit gives you information on the junk mail industry, tells you how to stay off of all of those mailing lists, and includes instructions for dealing with various types of mailers and special adhesive labels and pre-addressed post cards. Moreover, while keeping your mailbox junk-free, you'll be eliminating waste and helping the environment. To put an end to this nuisance, send a check or money order for $6.75 to the Consumer Resource Institute, Dept. JM-17, P.O. Box 2180, Mill Valley, CA 94942. Ask for the National Anti Junk Mail Kit and be sure to include your return address.

Melanie Dunea

RE Study

"It's Safe To Go Back to the Water"

Row, row, row your way up the Charles River for some invigorating and inexpensive fun. The Charles River Canoe and Kayak Center in Newton rents canoes, kayaks, and rowing shells daily from 10am to 8pm on weekdays and 9am to 8pm on weekends. Rental fees range from $6 to $15 per hour and you can rent for up to four hours. The historic turn-of-the-century boathouse is located on the Norumbega section of the Charles River. If you long to brave the waters of the Boston Harbor, the center offers guided sea kayak trips. For just $55, you can catch some great views and historical insights of Boston from the seat of a kayak. So put both of your oars in the water and don't be scared; the center offers private and group instruction. Head out to 2401 Commonwealth Ave., Newton or call 965-5110 for more information.

Ahh, the benefits of a personal computer. You can balance your budget and now you can even balance your diet with DINE Right and MacDine Perfect. Compatible for IBM PC's and Macintosh computers, these software packages contain nutrition information on more than 5,500 foods. You can enter your favorite recipe and find out how many calories, saturated fats, complex carbohydrates, vitamins and other important information about what is in the food you eat. There is also a nutrition and health analysis to find out how your diet compares to what you should be eating, given your age, weight and activity level. Included in this package are manuals, with tutorial, reference and general nutrition information. With these programs, you can virtually keep track of every "byte" you eat. For more information, call (202) 332-9110.

LA TRENDS

"Why are they doing it? I mean, why would someone endure the uncomfortable feelings caused by wearing aluminum foil on their bodies?" Strong words coming from one of our country's leading Trend Analysts, Louis C. Horowitz. "Apparently, there is a small group of slightly leftist dermatologists out here who believe that the effects of cooking your skin from below the surface are better than tanning the more conservative way: on the beach. So these tinfoil addicts are not only doing damage to themselves, but also to the untrained observer. It seems that from a distance, the reflecting sunlight attracts seagulls in droves and these flying poop machines are adorning unsuspecting Foilers with their lovely green and white trademarks.

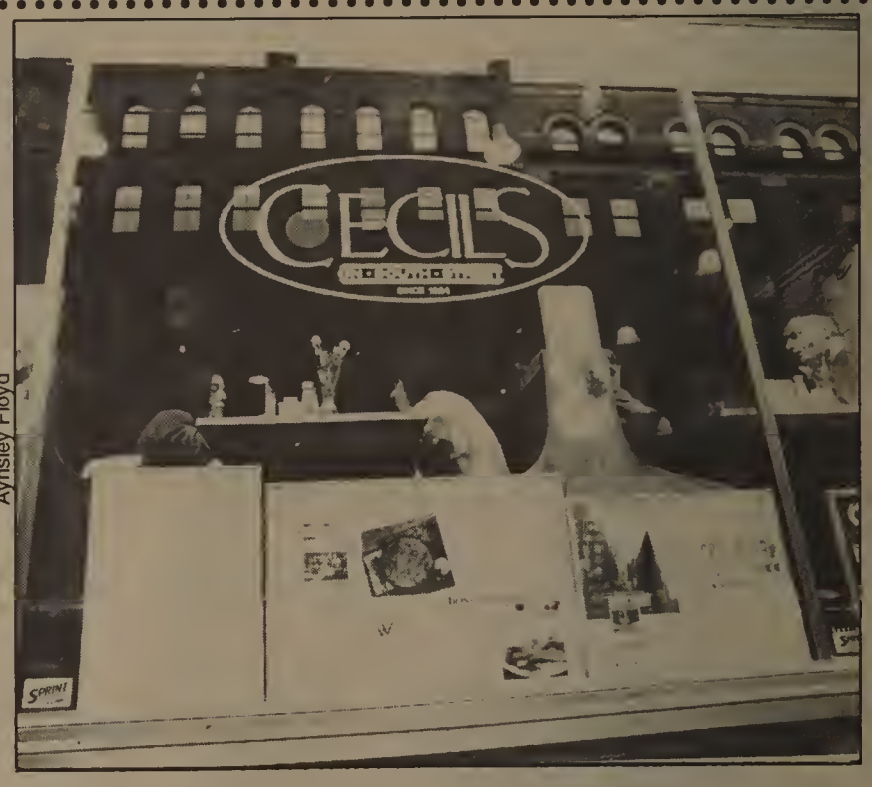
Other crazy L.A. Trends are once again rearing their ugly heads all over the place. Nightlife Analyst Rat Mac says, "maybe it was the rioting that started this increase in trends; I don't know. Whatever it was, they're getting out of hand." From Manhattan Beach all the way up to Malibu, it's getting easy to spot a Bum Wrapper rollerblading around. Bum Wrappers are people who sport a less-than-normal amount of material on their rear ends. "They've cut out the butt part of their pants and replaced the hole with a transparent material similar to saran wrap. And so as not to get arrested while flaunting what Rat Mac says is "the sometimes hairier side of life," the Wrappers usually have some protective covering tied to their waists. The Rat has also seen some mighty strange activity backstage of some of L.A.'s more permanent movie sets. "It's not limited to movie people but it sure started here. We're all anticipating another long drought so we've been sharing the same bathtub and only have to fill it up once for every 20 people. We figure that since we all work together, why not bathe together."

nsley Floyd

DINING

The Moveable Feast

CECIL'S - SoHo Style with Quality Cuisine



by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

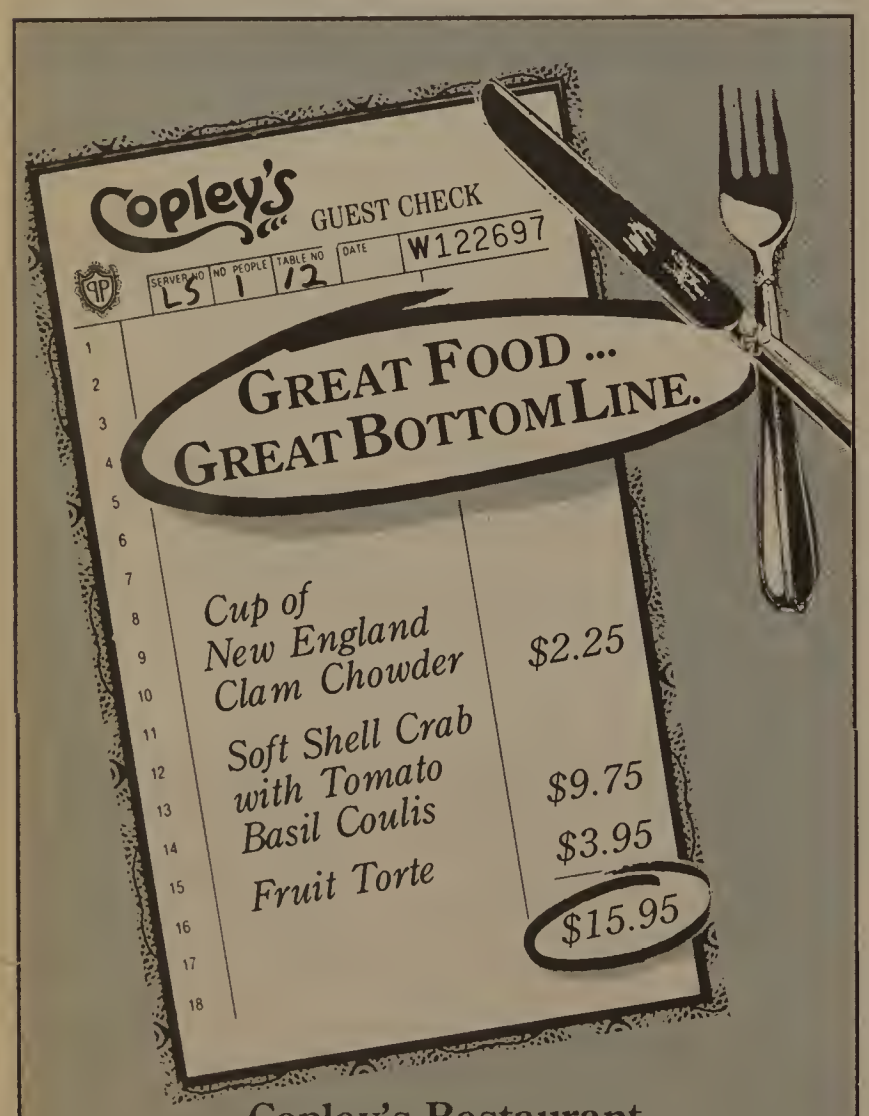
South Station tends to be a forgotten area of Boston when it comes to dining at night. There are several interesting eateries in this vicinity, one of them being Cecil's, self described as a SoHo style restaurant, and serving an eclectic range of food with an emphasis on Mexican / South American.

The atmosphere here is comfortable and relaxing. Wood beams accent the high ceiling while exposed brick walls bring warmth to the restaurant, though you can also eat at the bar. The walls are adorned with a constantly changing display of works by local and New York artists, and if you enjoy listening to live music while dining, you're in luck, as there is occasionally weekend entertainment in the form of jazz, blues or folk. An excellent jazz group set the mood nicely the night we were there.

Appetizers here range in price from tossed salad ($2.00) to macho nachos for two people ($6.75). We shared a wonderful grilled quesadilla ($4.95) that was thin, light and crisp, topped with melted cheese and accompanied by a very good, though mild, salsa. The tostones ($4.25) were double fried plantain slices served with a garlicky black bean sauce that complemented them nicely while the plantains themselves were among the sweetest we have had. We disagreed a little about the Cuban black bean soup ($1.50), one of us finding it too bland, the other appreciating its subtlety.

In addition to the regular menu, several specials are offered each night; they are evidently very popular, as two of the four (including a paella for one) were sold out by 9pm. One special that we managed to try was a seafood linguine, an item that appears periodically as a special, and is usually priced at around $10.00. Ours included some beautifully cooked pasta in a forward tasting, spicy, smoky red sauce; the seafood consisted of sea scallops and mussels (we found both a little too big). On the regular menu, Jamaican jerk pork ($8.95) carries a warning "this dish is hot!" So, ever ready to take up a challenge, we investigated this, but it really wasn't as lethal as promised (we seem to have built up a strong tolerance for incendiary food). The pork is marinated in herbs and scotch bonnet peppers, which can be devastatingly hot, but the cooking process must have tempered the fire. The pork itself was extremely tender and pleasantly spicy. Grilled fish of the day ($10.95) on this occasion was salmon, a nice, thickly cut piece marinated in olive oil, garlic and oregano and cooked just right; too bad the promised "fiery chipotle pepper sauce on the side" did not appear. Entrees generally come with rice and black beans or salad. We liked the blue cheese dressing, but found the balsamic vinaigrette a little too sour. Paella lovers should note that a paella for two is permanently on the menu, priced at $25.00.

Aynsley Floyd



Cecil's
129 South Street, Boston,
tel. 542-5108.
Hours: 7am-10pm Mon-Fri and noon to whenever on Saturdays (Closed on Sat. during summer) Reservations taken but not required.
Credit Cards: CB, DC Discover, MC, V.
Handicapped: Not accessible

The menu also offers several vegetarian dishes, plus a selection of burgers for the determined carnivore; prices for these smaller items range from $4.95-$6.50.

We were too full to try dessert (this is becoming a habit), but consoled ourselves with the thought that most dishes appeared to have been sold out.

In keeping with the artistic spirit, the owner offers a free Artists Preferred Card that entitles holders to a 25% discount. Since the prices are very reasonable as it is, this is a truly generous gesture.

One other point to make about this neighborhood, since it is underutilized at night; parking is a cinch. ❑

Copley's Restaurant— A Back Bay Favorite For Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Conventional wisdom says that a great dining experience costs a great deal of money. But at Copley's Restaurant, you'll relish expertly prepared food in a rich, historic Back Bay setting, all at a price that's exceptionally reasonable.

For Reservations, call (617) 424-0093

Copley's
Restaurant & Bar
Located inside The Copley Plaza Hotel
138 St. James Avenue • Boston, MA 02116

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits Wine Tastings

Michael Powers

by Al Stankus

When some wine poof, like Robert Parker or Jancis Robinson goes bonkers and raves about a wine's "flowery bouquet with its heady scent of roses and violets," you can be sure that the lemmings will buy up caseloads without ever having a first sip.

I'd rather taste first and buy later. A number of restaurants and wine shops hold regularly-scheduled wine dinners and/or wine tastings, ranging from five course, formal presentations to low-key, in-store tastings. These events are prime facie evidence to the value of tasting before you buy.

Il Capriccio; 53 Prospect, Waltham; 894-2234: At this classy little gem, wine steward Jeanne Rogers and chef Rich Barron have designed a five-course meal to showcase five wines from Au Bon Climat and Qupe. Held from June 7-9, the cost for this wine dinner will be $55. On July 24 and 25, wine importer Joel Berman will introduce Alsatian wines made by the esteemed Ernest Burns (the price of this five-course meal has yet to be determined). To be put on Il Capriccio's mailing list, call 894-2234.

Ports, Waltham Vista Hotel; 70 Third Ave., Waltham; 290-5655: Their July Vintner dinner, in a nod to the Olympics, will showcase the wines of Spain; in August, Sakonnet Vineyards and vineyard owner Susan Sampson will be featured. All dinners, which begin at 7pm, feature four courses and cost $65.

Boston Racquet Club; 10 Post Office Square; 482-8881: On June 25, Tim Clark, Robert Mondavi's wine representative in Massachusetts, will discuss the flavor components of wine and conduct a tasting of Robert Mondavi's most recent vintages; on July 23, the wines from Bully Hill will be featured. These tastings are complimentary; however, space is limited and must be reserved by calling Kelley McMahon.

On The Square; 9 Galen St., Watertown; 923-1522: In general, the food and wine dinners in this stylishly subdued spot feature four courses and five to six different wines for $55. June 16 will showcase the wines of Spain; on July 20, food writer Lotte Mendelsohn and Monte Ishige, the publisher of Wine Sense, will be the featured speakers in a night dedicated to classic Mexican cuisine (a far cry from Tex-Mex) that will be paired with wines from Latin America.

Caffe Lampara; 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston; 566-0300: Vintage Tuesdays. The first Tuesday of the month (next July 6), Caffe Lampara offers a four-course meal with wines from a particular region in Italy. A guest speaker is always on hand to discuss the wines; cost is $30.

Brookline Liquor Mart; 1354 Commonwealth Ave., Allston; 734-7700: Most Saturdays from 2-4pm, BLM offers a wine tasting with cheese, pate and crackers; call to see what's being offered. Other wine shops that feature frequent in-store tastings include: Winecellar of Silene, 430 Stuart St., Boston, 424-9300 and 320 Bear Hill Road, Waltham, 890-2121, and Gordon's, 867 Main St., Waltham, 893-1900; call for more information. ❑

S U m m e r e

New American Cuisine

summer provides us with a palate of the freshest and most interesting ingredients for our menus. get it while it's hot.

(617) 338.4600

cornucopia

15 West Street Downtown Boston

We Welcome Diners Club International validated parking at the lafayette mall garage after 4pm

Four Winds

266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront

(617) 742-3922

seafood grille

DINING

Appeteasers

by
Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

It's getting to that time of year when Farmers Markets set up farmstands in locations around the Greater Boston area. The one at Harvard Square has already commenced operation, taking place on Sundays from 10am-3pm in the Charles Hotel Courtyard. For more information, call the Bureau of Markets of the Mass. Dept. of Food and Agriculture at 727-3018. And talking of farmstands, Marino's Restaurant, which also owns Lookout Farm in Natick, offers organically grown fruits and vegetables at its Marino Lookout Farmstand at 89 Pleasant Street, Natick. For information about this and their "pick your own" crops, call (508) 653-0653.

Pardon Me, But Do You Have Any Grey Poupon?

Boyajian's, the dealer in caviar, smoked salmon, foie gras, and a host of other good things, has just moved from Cambridge to 385 California Street, Newton, tel. 965-5800.

An Internal Facelift

If you haven't visited Waltham's Il Capriccio for a while, you'll be in for a big surprise. The dining room has been redecorated, and looks absolutely stunning. Words can hardly do justice to it - you'll just have to see for yourself. It was designed and executed by the talented George Germon of Al Forno in Providence, RI.

Ah, The Antiquities of Cooking

And speaking of Providence, did you know that Johnson and Wales University has a small but fascinating Culinary Archives & Museum containing food books on all topics (even cannibalism!), historic menus, pamphlets, postcards and old and unusual cooking utensils and equipment. Free to the public (by appointment only) on weekdays. For details call (401) 455-2805. And a nice way to fill out the day is to drop in at the New Rivers restaurant in downtown Providence at 7 Steeple St., tel. (401) 751-0350 for lunch or dinner. Here, Pat and Bruce Tillinghurst, graduates of Madaleine Kamman's legendary Modern Gourmet cooking school, delight both the eye and the palate.

A Weekend at a Vineyard

While lunching at the New Rivers, we bumped into Susan Samson, the outgoing, energetic and unforgettable proprietor of Sakonnet Vineyards in Little Compton, RI. In addition to offering tours of the vineyard and running a cooking school, she told us that she has now introduced bed and breakfast in the farmhouse on the vineyard property. If you enjoy colorful characters, a stay here is a must. For details, call (401) 635-8486.

The Caffeine Connection

A warm welcome to Moka, a California-style coffee house at 130 Dartmouth Street, Boston, tel. 424-7768. Owner Sheri Kozlowski tells us the emphasis will be on healthy light fare; hours will be 7am-11pm daily.

Let's Talk Food

Next time you eat in a good restaurant or discover an exciting new food product, why not share this information by calling Joyce and Ron Della Chiesa's new call-in type radio food show on WJDA, broadcast on Saturdays from 11am-2pm on 1300AM. Joyce is herself a very talented chef and recently completed a stint as guest chef at Scullers (in the Guest Quarters Hotel); she and Ron are now organizing a Taste of Tuscany gourmet tour this fall. For details of the tour, call Donna Franca Tours at 227-3111.

Cooking Overseas

The Cambridge School of Culinary Arts just announced its summer program, which not only includes cooking classes, but also offers Executive Discussion Groups, advanced classes for professionals, and a culinary excursion to Barcelona, Bordeaux and Paris. The staff was recently joined by Bridget Collins, an award winning baker and formerly the executive pastry chef at Davio's. For details about events, call 354-3836.

Out of The Kitchen - Into Commercials

Have you seen the recent TV commercials for Marcella's? Did you realize that the star is Marcella's own South End manager, the multi-talented Frank Falcone, who has appeared as a character actor in many Boston based movies, such as The Thomas Crown Affair and The Brinks Robbery.

Unlimited Lobster

Now that lobster prices have dropped, Joseph's Aquarium Restaurant is once again offering a daily earlybird special of twin lobsters for $9.95. When you go, be sure to ask for Annie, who is one helluva waitress. Lobsters are also a special feature at the Ritz, where each Friday and Saturday evening from 7-10pm you can indulge in the unlimited Lobster Buffet for $39.00, where lobster appears in many guises including au whiskey, in a terrine with sweetbreads, thermidor, in ravioli, and with medallions of beef perigourdine. For reservations, call 536-5700.❑

Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each Gloucester Clam Chowder $1.95
Entrees
(names taken from wonderful points of interest in and around beautiful Cape Ann)

OLD HOUSE COVE 9.95 (Fresh Gloucester Schrod w/ a light breading)
OLD STAGE FORT 9.95 (Baked Stuffed Chicken Breast w/ Gravy & Cranberry Sauce)
HIGH POPPLES 8.95 (Baked Stuffed Fillet of Sole w/Lobster Sauce)
WHARF BEACH 7.95 (Broiled Sirloin Marinated Tips w/ Mushroom Sauce)

On The Waterfront 25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007

"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes"

Come for our Pollo e Vitello alla Verdicchio

This delectable dish is made with chicken and veal with artichoke hearts, olives and mushrooms, sautéed in Verdicchio wine .

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street"

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

Eating well is a lot less expensive than medical bills!!

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 12-5pm
349A Newbury St. Boston 247-1474
For a minimum purchase of $10, you can have validated parking right next door. .

DINING

Chef of the Month

by Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

Carry Kellerby is from Native American descendants on both sides of her family. She grew up in Durango, Colorado at a time when people in the area still cooked in a similar fashion to the Indians, using animal fats in baking, plus farm-raised or hunted meat (venison, elk, rabbit, etc.) - all simply prepared. Her earliest cooking experiences involved helping her grandmother with catering jobs for her family style restaurant. Kellerby is currently the chef at the Cactus Club where she's held court for over a year now.

At the Cactus Club, Kellerby holds weekly Native American Dinners for which she does extensive research as she's determined to present only authentic meals. One of her tasks is to distinguish between traditional pre-European tribal diets and those that developed with the advent of Reservations. Obtaining the authentic ingredients for these primarily-vegetarian dinners presents something of a challenge - in some instances, she has arranged to have certain ingredients specially grown. Below, she shares the following Native American recipe with us.

Carry Kellerby's Cherokee Sunchoke Salad
(Serves 4 as a small first course)

Sunchokes (also known as Jerusalem Artichokes) are tubers that grow from the roots of the perennial sunflower and have a flavor and texture similar to water chestnuts. They were available to and commonly used by both Northern and Southern tribes, and are eaten both raw and cooked.

4-6 sunchokes
1/4 cup fresh dill, chopped
1 tsp. ginger, freshly grated
1 tsp. mustard seed
1 tsp. fennel seed
1/4 cup honey
2/3 cup apple cider vinegar
salt and pepper to taste
1/2 pound assorted mixed greens (preferably mustard greens, chicory, frisee and oak leaf)
For garnish: edible flowers (e.g. violets, pansies or nasturtiums) or chopped scallion

Scrub sunchokes under cold running water to remove any soil, then slice thinly, leaving skin on. Combine all ingredients except the greens and marinate in refrigerator for 1-7 days. When ready to serve, wash and dry the greens, toss them with a little of the marinade, serve on individual plates and garnish with flowers or scallion. ❑

Melanie Dunea

Carry Kellerby of The Cactus Club

1280
Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

YOU BE THE JUDGE - BEST BBQ
LOADING ZONE BBQ
BOSTON
617.6950087
PIT CREW
INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH
FREE BBQ RIB
1 SAMPLE PER COUPON EXP. 6/30/92
COUPON
150 KNEELAND ST.
WATCH OUT REDBONES, BOB THE CHEF, JAKE & EARLS [YES THIS IS A CHALLENGE]

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

ARARAT
RESTAURANT
Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos, and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with salad

Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Tabouleh, and Yalanji
with Rice Pilaf

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.
ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

TAKE OFF WITH THE ROCKET

The Original Sports Saloon Launches the Boys of Summer with the "Pitcher of the Week" Baseball Promotion.
Pick the best performing pitcher in the American and National Leagues and win great weekly prizes. Plus each week there'll be a cold frosty Pitcher of Beer at a terrific price. So come on in and play ball.

SPORTS The Original SALOON
CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY • (617) 536-1904
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu Items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ploves (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complemcntary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern, 2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 11:30 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's, 54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel 426-1111
A, MC, V $$
